

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 161

9 minutes read

As soon as he got off the plane, he turned on his phone. As expected, they had found out where Mel was.

After reading the information, he hurriedly pulled Amber, who was walking in front of him. "Amber, Mel is now in the The First Hospital."

Amber turned around and asked anxiously, "How is he now?"

"Don't worry. He's just frightened. The doctor said he's fine. He'll be discharged after resting for a few days."

Amber breathed a sigh of relief. On the plane, she had been worried about Mel's safety. Although she also knew that Rachel would not harm Mel, Mel had been taken away by Rachel by force. She must be very scared. Maybe it would worsen her condition. Now, hearing Rodney's words, she felt a little relieved.

Seeing that Amber was finally willing to ignore him, Rodney quickly said in a flattering tone, "My people are already waiting for us at the door. Let's go to the hospital to see Mel right away."

Amber glared at him and turned to continue walking forward.

Seeing that Amber didn't refuse him, Rodney was secretly happy. He was afraid that Amber would ignore him because of this, so he really didn't know what to do. This time, he wouldn't dare to force her with that contract like before. Otherwise, he would lose her forever, and she would never let Mel recognize him as her father.

Rodney didn't know that the reason why Amber didn't refuse him to send her to the hospital was that he could see Mel as soon as possible.

In addition, she was worried that Rachel would refuse to let her take Mel away. With Rodney around, she could help persuade Rachel. Anyway, she had made up her mind that once she took Mel back from Rachel, she would never pay attention to Rodney again.

After taking the luggage and walking out of the security check, they heard someone shouting Amber's name. Amber looked in the direction of the voice and saw Noemi walking toward her with a smile. Elliot followed Noemi and looked at her with a worried face.

“Noemi, Elliot, why are you here?” Looking at the two good friends in front of him, Amber was moved. Needless to say, Pierce must be worried about her, so he told them the news of her returning to our country and asked them to pick her up.

Noemi glared at Rodney, who was following behind Amber, and said, “We were afraid that you would be bullied by those shameless people, so we came to help you.”

“Yeah, Amber, I didn’t expect that some people would be so thick-skinned. They actually went to America to bully you. Don’t worry, I will definitely help you get Mel back.”

Elliot went forward and took Amber’s suitcase. He glared at Rodney and said, “Rodney, I thought you were a good person no matter how bad you were. Now I know that you’re not even as good as a beast. How could you do such a thing?”

“Shut up. Don’t talk nonsense before you figure out the situation.” Seeing that Elliot had come to pick Amber up, Rodney was already very unhappy. Now that he had been insulted like this, he was even more annoyed.

“I’m talking nonsense?” Elliot sneered. “Do you dare to say that you went to America to ruin Amber and Pierce’s marriage? Do you dare to say that it’s not your idea to take away Mel who is sick?”

Noemi also scolded, “That’s right. Why are you so vicious? Back then, you disdained Amber for being unable to give birth and drove her away. Now that you know Mel’s family background, you want to steal her son. How can there be such a cheap thing in the world?”

At this moment, Deon walked over. Seeing that Rodney was being criticized by Elliot and the others, he hurriedly spoke up for him.

“You two have misunderstood. Our Mr. Barron never wanted to compete with Miss. Stone for Mel. It’s just the wife’s idea. Now that we have found Mel, let’s go there as soon as possible. I think Miss. Stone also wants to see the child as soon as possible.”

Elliot said, "Humph, no matter who it is, Mel is Amber's son. No matter who it is, don't go against her wishes and take Mel away. Rodney, I'm telling you, you'd better persuade your mother to let go, or we'll meet again."

"Alright, Elliot, let's hurry up and look for Mel!" Amber glanced at Rodney's face, which was black with anger, and quickly pulled Elliot away. She knew that in order to please him, Rodney was holding back his anger for Elliot. If Elliot said a few more words, he might hit him.

Elliot glared at Rodney before following Amber to the main entrance.

Rodney looked at Amber's back and knew that she would definitely not take his car to the hospital. He could only say to Deon, "Let's go."

...

In The First Hospital of the Southern City, Rachel looked at the soup spilled all over the ground with anger and shouted to Riya, who was at a loss, "Hurry up and clean it up!"

This was the third time that Mel had knocked over the soup she had cooked. Riya cast a resentful glance at Mel, who was sitting on the bed, and lowered her head to clean up the mess.

At that time, Rachel tricked Mel out of the Hammond family with Breanna's cooperation and took the plane straight to South City.

Mel woke up and could not see her mother. She began to cry loudly. No matter how Rachel coaxed her, it was useless. She was worried about Mel's health, so she got off the plane and was sent to the hospital immediately.

The doctor checked and found that there was nothing wrong with her body. Rachel was relieved, so she asked someone to buy a lot of toys for Mel and accompanied her in a good way.

Mel noticed that the toy slightly diverted her attention, but she began to look for her mother again after the meeting. Rachel asked Riya to cook chicken soup for him, but he didn't eat it. He even pushed the chicken soup away and sprinkled it all over Rachel's body.

At first, Rachel could bear with her temper and coaxed Mel in a soft voice. Later, she saw that Mel refused to listen to her and kept scolding her as a bad mother-in-law, which made her angry with Riya. She said that the chicken soup she cooked was not delicious, so Mel refused to eat it and asked her to cook it again and send it to her.

Riya knew that Mel refused to drink chicken soup because she was angry. How could it be a problem with her cooking? But looking at Rachel, who was like a female Yaksha, she didn't dare to say a word. She had to go back and cook another pot of fish soup, but Mel still didn't eat it. Riya had no choice but to cook another pot of corn and pork ribs soup from Huai Mountain, but she was still slapped to the ground by Mel.

This time, Rachel did not make things difficult for Riya anymore. She knew that as long as she gave Mel anything, Mel would not eat it. Looking at the child's red and swollen eyes, as well as his pale and pale face due to being t*****d by the disease, she could not help but feel distressed. Finally, she took out her mobile phone and hid on the balcony to call Rodney.

Rodney was sitting in the car and rushing to the hospital. When he saw Rachel's phone number on the screen, he quickly picked it up.

Rachel shouted at the phone, "Rodney, did you come back? Come to The First Hospital in the city as soon as you come back. Mel has been crying. No matter how I coax him, he won't listen to me. It's been more than ten hours. He just drank a box of milk and doesn't want to eat anything. I'm afraid that he won't be able to stand it if this goes on."

Rodney's heart trembled and his anger flared up. "Mom, look at what you've done. I told you to stay out of my business, but you just wanted to get involved. Are you in a hurry now?"

"It's none of your business. You're my son, and your son is my grandson. How can I ignore it? Now this child is throwing a tantrum. I'll be fine when you come and help me coax him."

"All right, I'll be right there. Don't provoke the child anymore. Hurry up and ask Riya to prepare delicious food. I'll feed him later."

Rodney knew that Mel might not be willing to eat as he said. Fortunately, Amber was on his way to the hospital. When Mel saw her later, she would definitely eat something. He did not dare to tell Rachel that Amber was about to arrive at the hospital soon. Otherwise, Rachel would definitely take Mel away again.

“The food, soup, and water are all ready. I want her to heat them up now.” Rachel breathed a sigh of relief and walked into the room. She asked Riya to heat up the food as soon as possible.

Mel lived in a senior ward, which was well equipped. Riya was holding the food to heat it. While Rachel was watching Mel outside, she hurriedly took out her mobile phone and sent a message to Shannon, telling her that Rodney had come back from the United States. It was very likely that Amber would come back with him.

Rachel took Mel back to South City this afternoon. Only then did Riya know that Mel was Rodney’s child. She immediately told Shannon about it. Shannon asked her to keep an eye on Rachel. If there was any news, she would report it at any time. Now that Rodney was back, she naturally had to report it to Shannon immediately.

Riya had just entered the kitchen for a while when the door of the ward was pushed open. Rachel heard the noise and hurriedly turned her head to have a look. She was stunned.

“Mel!” Amber stood at the door of the ward. When she saw Mel sobbing on the bed, she burst into tears. She rushed to Mel’s bed and held him in her arms.

“Mom, you’re finally here. I’m so scared! Woo...” Mel, who had been in a panic, suddenly saw her mother. She was happy and wronged. She cried and threw herself into Amber’s arms, holding her tightly, for fear that she would disappear again.

Feeling his son’s small body trembling in his arms, Amber’s heart was twisted with a knife. He patted Mel’s back and comforted her. “Mel, don’t be afraid. I’ll take you home. I’ll never leave you again.”

Rachel stared at Amber in disbelief. She thought that it was Rodney who had rushed over, but it was Amber. Needless to say, she must have come back with Rodney. That was why she knew that Mel was here so quickly. It seemed that she would definitely take Mel away.

Fear rose from the bottom of her heart. Rachel stepped forward to hug Mel and said to Amber sternly, “Don’t try to take Mel away. He is my grandson.”

Amber was caught off guard. Mel almost fell into Rachel's arms. She quickly grabbed Mel's arm and glared at Rachel. "Let go of me. Don't you see Mel crying?"

"It should be you! It was so easy for me to bring my grandson back. I will never let you take him away." Instead of letting go of Mel, Rachel tried hard to hold Mel in her arms.

Mel was so scared that she desperately called her mother. Amber was anxious and angry, but he didn't want to drag his son hard. As soon as he loosened his grip, Mel was held by Rachel.

Rachel turned her head and saw Riya coming out of the kitchen. She said to her, "Riya, drive her away."

Riya looked at Rachel and then looked at Amber. She hesitated and did not dare to move.

"Put Mel down quickly. You'll scare him." Seeing his son crying so hard that he was out of breath, Amber's heart was about to break, but he didn't dare to compete with Rachel for fear that Mel would fall to the ground like he did in the US that day.

At this time, two more people rushed in from outside the door. It was Noemi and Elliot. Seeing the situation in the room, Noemi went up to break Rachel's hand and scolded, "You are a lunatic. Put Mel down quickly."

Seeing that the helper had arrived, Amber quickly reached out to hug Mel. Rachel's hand hurt because of Noemi. She let go of Mel with a cry.

Amber held Mel in his arms and walked out. Without waiting for the elevator, he ran down the stairs. Rachel saw him in a hurry and followed him out. She ignored her dignity and pulled Amber with curses.

Amber was worried that she would hurt her son, so she was not polite. She pushed Rachel hard. After all, Rachel was old and could not stand Amber's push. She leaned back and fell heavily on the ground, rolling down the stairs.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 162

9 minutes read

At that moment, Rodney had arrived.

Seeing his mother rolling down the stairs, he was shocked and hurried forward to save her. "Mom, are you okay?"

Rachel screamed, "My leg, my leg hurts so much!"

Amber was also shocked when he saw Rachel rolling down the stairs. However, when she saw Rodney, she did not care about her footsteps and continued to walk out with her son in her arms.

Elliot and Noemi followed her closely. The three of them walked to the front desk. Amber told the nurse's identity on the surface and asked her to go through the discharge formalities for Mel.

The nurse frowned. "You said you're the mother of a child. Do you have any proof?"

"Yes, I'll show you my ID card and household register." Amber hurriedly took out his ID card from his bag. She had just gotten off the plane, so she carried her ID card and household register with her, which could prove her relationship with Mel.

The nurse looked at her certificate and said, "The child's mood is very unstable now. I suggest that you don't be in such a hurry to get the child out of the hospital. You'd better stay for two more days to observe his condition."

"No, I have to get him out of the hospital immediately." Amber did not dare to let Mel stay here any longer. With that woman Rachel around, Mel's illness would only worsen.

The nurse had no choice but to say, "If you insist, you have to sign an automatic discharge application."

"Okay, I'll sign it." Amber only hoped to leave quickly and get her to sign anything.

Rachel screamed on the ground, and Rodney was also frightened. He immediately called the doctors and nurses to save her. Rachel was pushed into the examination room. After checking, the doctor told Rodney that Rachel's leg was broken and she was going to have an operation immediately.

Rachel was pushed into the operating room for an operation. Rodney leaned against the outside and waited for the result. His mother was old and couldn't stand any t****e. Seeing his worried face, Deon comforted him. "Nothing will happen. Don't worry!"

It was not easy to complete the operation. Rodney and Deon pushed Rachel into the operating room together. Although Rachel had done the operation, she still felt painful. Seeing her son crying and cursing, she forced Rodney to take Mel back.

He also said that he would not let go of Amber. Looking at such a mother, Rodney had a headache. His previous worry was ruined by Rachel's scolding. He ordered Riya to guard Rachel, and then he turned around and left the ward.

Seeing her son leave, Rachel was so angry that she cursed again. She even blamed Riya. Riya was silent and hated Rachel to the extreme.

After Rodney went out of the hospital, he called Amber to ask about Mel's situation. He thought that Amber would not answer his phone, but the phone was soon connected. Amber said to him in a cold tone, "Rodney, from now on, I hope you will never disturb us again. Otherwise, I will make sure that you will never see Mel for the rest of your life."

After saying that, Amber hung up the phone. Rodney stared at the phone and felt a sense of emptiness in his heart.

He didn't expect things to turn out like this. He originally thought that as long as he worked hard and expressed his sincerity to Amber, Amber would definitely be moved by him. He would make Mel acknowledge him as her father and get married to him again. The family of three would reunite happily.

Who would have thought that after being disturbed by Rachel like this, all his previous efforts would be in vain. Now, not to mention letting Amber agree to marry him and let him reconcile with Mel, it would be difficult for him to get Amber's forgiveness.

After Rachel called Itzel in the United States and told her that Mel was Rodney's child, she did not tell Celia and Shannon the news immediately. The matter had been confirmed and they could not change anything. Now that Celia had just had an operation, she was afraid that the news would affect Celia, so she hid the news first and planned to talk about it later.

Of course, Itzel wasn't idle either. She had to think of a way to incite Rachel to put on a big show. At that time, she would let Amber and Rodney fight to the death. She would then come and reap the benefits.

Itzel was thinking about how to scheme when Rachel called and said that she was injured in the hospital.

Itzel immediately went to see her. Rachel was lying on the hospital bed, gasping. The feeling of fracture was not good. When she saw her confidant Itzel, she immediately told Itzel what had happened. "Damn Amber, I will not let her go! I have already called the police. This time, I will never let her be safe and sound."

Itzel was secretly delighted when she heard that. She didn't need to worry about it at all. That was great. Of course, she had to cheer for it.

"It's so hateful. After all, you are an elder. Is she so mean? Don't let her go, or she will be insatiable in the future."

"I think so too. I must cure her this time."

"It's just that Rodney won't let you touch her, will he?" she asked tentatively. Last time, Amber rushed to the Barron family and slapped Rachel in the face. Wasn't it better for Rodney to let go of the matter? Wasn't it a little better this time?

"Don't mention that heartless thing. I called the police and he even said it was a family affair and asked the police to close the case. This is a typical example of a married woman forgetting her mother. This time, I will never give in!"

After thinking about it, Rachel was still angry. "Look at me, I'm injured like this. He left me in the hospital without a shadow. He doesn't care about my life at all. He called the nanny to serve me. I'm really cold-hearted. This time, I must make them restless!"

"Yes! Find a lawyer to sue Amber immediately and sue her for intentional injury. Anyway, you are now seriously injured in the hospital. She must be responsible for the crime!"

With Itzel's encouragement, Rachel became more determined. She was confident that she would teach Amber a lesson. Wasn't she looking down on him? She was determined to let him know how powerful she was.

Amber took Mel out of the hospital after handling the discharge formalities. After getting in the car, Mel quieted down in Amber's arms.

The scene just now frightened the little girl. He held Amber's neck tightly and looked in the direction of the hospital in horror, for fear that the bad mother-in-law would catch up with him and take him away. Amber kept comforting him, repeatedly saying that the bad mother-in-law would never take him away again. Only then did he feel relieved.

"Amber, where are we going now?" Elliot, who was sitting in the driver's seat, glanced at Amber and slowed down slightly.

Amber looked down at Mel, who was tired and half-closed, and whispered, "Let's go to the Second People's Hospital."

Mel moved and suddenly opened her eyes. She stared at Amber in panic. "No, mom, I'm not going to the hospital. I want to go home."

Amber's heart tightened and she hurriedly comforted him. "Okay, okay, we won't go to the hospital. We'll go home soon."

Noemi sat next to them and coaxed Mel. The child soon quieted down. She sighed, gently pulled the corner of Amber's clothes, and said what to do with her mouth.

Amber frowned slightly. She was also worried. Now Mel's mood was very unstable, and she had a resistance to going to the hospital. If she insisted on sending him to the hospital, he would definitely cry again. But his physical condition was very bad, and she would be worried if he did not go to the hospital to continue to observe and treat.

Elliot suddenly said, "Why don't we take Mel to my house first? I'll call a doctor and a special guard to take care of Mel right away. In this way, we don't have to worry about Mel's illness and he won't be afraid. Besides, it won't be so easy to find you."

Noemi immediately agreed. "That's a good idea. If you go to the hospital, Rachel will definitely find you and scare Mel."

"I'm sorry to trouble you. Why don't we go home first?" It was possible to invite a doctor and a special guard to take care of Mel, but it was too inconvenient to live in Elliot's house. Amber was really embarrassed to trouble him again.

Besides, he was engaged, so it would be criticism for her and Mel to live in his house.

Elliot, of course, understood Amber's concerns. He thought for a moment and said, "If you find it inconvenient, you can live in my villa in the west of the city. It's very close to the TV station. Miss Herrera can move over and live with you for a few days so that I can accompany you."

Amber thought for a moment and agreed.

After Riya called Shannon and told her the news of Rodney and Amber's return, Shannon began to calculate in her heart.

Mel was a big problem for Rodney's son. Maybe all their previous plans would be wasted. She had to discuss it with Itzel. She called Itzel and Itzel was ready to meet her. The two of them signed a contract to meet at the coffee shop.

As soon as they met, Shannon told Itzel that Riya told her that Mel was Rodney's son. Itzel sighed and said, "I knew about it a long time ago. I was worried about Celia. She just finished the operation and was afraid that it would affect her mood, so I didn't say anything. Now that you know it, I won't hide it anymore."

"You should have talked to me earlier." Shannon complained. "Rodney has a deep affection for Amber. Now that he has a son, he will definitely persuade Rachel to agree. Rachel has a big son. You should tell me earlier so that I can find a way sooner."

"You don't have to think of a way. Now Rachel and Amber are fighting."

Itzel told him about the dispute between Rachel and Amber. "Don't worry. Rachel will never let Amber marry into the family. She is now asking a lawyer to sue Amber. With Rachel there, Amber and Rodney are destined to be enemies."

Hearing that, Shannon felt a little relieved. "It's just that the child is always a problem."

"The child is sick. He has leukemia. Whether he can be cured or not is still a problem." Itzel did not think that the child was a problem. "Anyway, Rachel wants a grandson and doesn't want a mother. What are you afraid of?"

“It’s not easy to explain to Channing,” Shannon reminded him. “Without this child, Celia, who is pregnant with Rodney’s child, will marry him. Now that I have this child, I have to spend more time to explain it. It’s a headache to think about it.”

“It’s not a big deal. It’s okay to blame it on Rodney. It’s not Celia’s fault that Rodney was drunk.” Itzel sneered. “Kelsey has gone abroad and can’t come back. We’ll blame everything on her.”

“That’s the only way to explain it.” Shannon couldn’t come up with a good idea for the time being. Itzel told her her personal information and told her to have a good discussion with Celia. She didn’t want to expose herself in front of Channing.

After a discussion, they broke up and left the coffee shop.

With Itzel’s encouragement, Rachel rubbed her hands together and tried to make things difficult for Amber. After Itzel left, she immediately called her lawyer to the hospital and asked him what punishment Amber would receive in such a situation.

The lawyer repeated the case and said that such a situation could result in three years of imprisonment, imprisonment, and supervision. Of course, it could also be compensated and reconciled. It was mainly up to her.

Rachel was secretly happy after listening to the lawyer’s analysis. This time, she wanted Amber to beg her. She had to kneel down and beg her for forgiveness. Otherwise, she would definitely let her go to jail.

As soon as the lawyer left the hospital, he called Rodney and told him about Rachel’s intention to sue Amber. Hearing this, Rodney rushed to the hospital without stopping. “Mom, how long are you going to make trouble for no reason? Stop now! Stop making trouble!”

“Am I being unreasonable? Look at what I’m like now. You just watched that woman beat me like this without showing any sign. Are you still my son?”

“Wasn’t this caused by accident?”

“What carelessness? She did it on purpose. She hated me so much that she wanted me to die, so she t*****d me like this!”

“Are you being unreasonable? If you hadn’t brought Mel back on your own initiative, Amber wouldn’t have worried about you.”

“Is it wrong for me to see my grandson?” Rachel shouted at the top of her voice, “You ungrateful b*stard! I’ve worked so hard to raise you up, but you treat me like this for a woman. Is your conscience eaten by a dog? Let me tell you, I’m going to sue her this time. I must let her have a taste of the prison!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 163

8 minutes read

Seeing that there was no way to communicate with his mother by slamming the door and leaving, Rachel was so angry that she gasped. “Ungrateful person, just you wait. I’m going to tell you that I must let you know how powerful I am.”

Rachel asked the lawyer to sue Amber. Amber soon received a summons from the court. Elliot immediately hired a lawyer for her. Rachel’s lawyer presented the surveillance video and believed that although Amber didn’t mean to hurt Rachel, he caused Rachel to be seriously injured and should bear the responsibility of civil and legal responsibilities.

However, he still suggested that they discuss it in private. Rodney went to find Rachel and said, “Mom, Amber is still pregnant. Even if you don’t want her, you have to think about the baby in her belly.”

Hearing Rodney’s words, Rachel also remembered that Amber was pregnant now. She was pregnant with her grandson. She didn’t want Amber to go to jail, but she just couldn’t bear it. Now that her son said so, she had to find a way out. “It’s okay if you don’t want me to pursue this matter. You can ask her to come to the hospital to apologize! Kneel down and apologize!”

“You’re forcing me, aren’t you?” Rodney smiled bitterly. How could Amber kneel down and apologize to Rachel? It was impossible.

“I don’t care. I’m so badly injured. What’s wrong with making her kneel down and apologize to me like this? This is what she owes me. This time, I won’t give in. I’ll let her choose between an apology and a jail!”

Seeing that she refused to give in and left the hospital with a frown, Rachel thought that she had caught Amber’s weakness and forced her to apologize to her. However, she did not expect that the result would be very different from what she thought.

Amber would rather bear the responsibility than apologize. Damn Amber! How could he be so stubborn! It was just an apology, not an attempt to kill her!

Rachel muttered in her heart, "Do I really have to let Amber go to jail? She is pregnant with her grandson. If her grandson knows that I have to force his mother to go to jail with a big belly, he will hate me so much."

However, there was no turning back. Even if she wanted to go back on her word, someone had to give her a way out. Rodney didn't even show his face, so she couldn't take the initiative to call him and tell him what she was thinking.

Rachel was in a hurry. She had hired a lawyer to come to the hospital. He told Rachel that Amber's lawyer had applied for an insurance case and Amber did not need to go to jail.

Although she did not really want Amber to go to jail, this result was a great humiliation to Rachel. She was so angry that she smashed everything in the ward.

After scolding Riya for no reason, Riya looked docile, but she also scolded Rachel in her heart.

After venting her anger, Rachel naturally had to discuss it with Itzel. Itzel did not expect this matter to end so easily. Rachel was not angry and felt uncomfortable. After cursing for a while, she thought of stealing the child.

Itzel didn't like the child at all. Seeing that Rachel was determined to make her unable to pour cold water on the child, she suddenly had an idea in her heart. Amber would definitely not let go of the child. At that time, he would definitely ask Channing for help. With Channing's help, but Rodney was not enthusiastic enough to rob the child from Amber. It was undoubtedly a dream for Rachel to take back the child.

Naturally, she did not want Rachel to take back the child. Celia's operation was not bad. She could immediately give birth to two grandchildren for Rachel, and then marry Rodney.

It would be uncomfortable to let other people's children wander in front of her. She had to take precautions against this matter first. She had to let Amber win the child snatch case. As long as Amber took the child away and did not show up for the rest of his life, Celia would not be in trouble.

Itzel suddenly had a strange idea in her mind. She had to find Channing and tell him some things, so that he could make a choice.

Amber left Channing without saying a word, so he naturally knew about it. Later, Rodney followed him. He thought that there was a conflict between his children, so he did not care much about it.

It wasn't until Rachel accused Amber of intentional harm that he found out about these troubles. It was said that Amber's child was Rodney's. Channing couldn't believe it at all. He hated Rachel for being so hateful.

Previously, she didn't want to force her daughter to divorce because Amber didn't know how to give birth to children. Now that Mel was her grandson, she should accept Amber with a smile. Why was she so stubborn?

Rachel was going to sue Amber for hurting someone deliberately. How could Channing let Amber go to jail? So he immediately met with the judge and told him about it. The judge suggested that both sides should either reconcile in private or take a bail case.

Channing had just called to persuade Rodney to persuade Rachel to reconcile. Rodney sighed. He said that he had gone to find his mother, but her mother did not listen to his advice at all and insisted on asking Amber to kneel down and apologize. He was now thinking of other ways...

Channing was furious when he heard that. How could this old woman be so hateful that she asked her daughter to kneel down and admit her mistake? She really took him seriously. He hung up the phone angrily.

It was fine if Rachel, Amber's daughter, didn't know about it, but she knew that Amber was still so rude. She thought that Amber was born too peacefully, and even a fool knew that people didn't fight against officials.

He wanted to let Rachel know that he was not a secretary for nothing. So Channing immediately called the judge and asked him to find a way to let Amber take the position of the secretary. Of course, the judge would not refuse the request of the secretary. He immediately helped Amber take over the position of the secretary.

Amber was fine. Channing was thinking about going to see his daughter and grandson, but Itzel called him at this time and said that she had something to see him.

Channing had just gone to see Itzel. "What can I do for you?"

"It's about Amber."

"When did you start to care so much about Amber?" Channing mocked. With Itzel's hatred for Ashley, it would be impossible for her to help Amber if she didn't harm him.

"Do you know why Amber fell out with Rodney?" Itzel didn't care about his sarcasm.

"Do you know?"

"I went to see Rachel today, but she told me everything." Itzel sighed.

"Didn't Rodney once have a lover? Seeing that Rodney and Amber were trying to reconcile her feelings, he went to find Amber to provoke her. He didn't want to cause any more trouble, so he wanted to break up with her. Kelsey also promised to break up with him and go abroad. She said that she would say goodbye to him at the last meal, so he promised her."

"Did Amber see Rodney and Kelsey eating with jealousy?"

"No, it was Kelsey who was too vicious. She knew that Celia and Amber were sisters when she was with Rodney, so she came up with a vicious idea. That night, she invited Rodney to dinner, but she drugged him in the wine. Then, she made an excuse that Rodney was drunk and called Celia to pick up Rodney. Rodney was drugged by her and was unconscious, so he forced Celia..."

"Is this true?" Channing's expression changed drastically. If Celia really had a relationship with Rodney, with Amber's personality, he would definitely not forgive Rodney. He still hoped that Amber and Rodney would be together because of their child. It seemed that this matter was very small.

Itzel nodded. "It's true. Rodney didn't know what had happened when he was drugged. Celia didn't dare to tell anyone about it for the sake of sisterhood. She just told Rachel about it. Originally, this matter could have passed quietly, but Kelsey was too hateful. She called Amber and told him about it when she left, so Amber went abroad in anger."

It was also Itzel's idea that Kelsey called Amber. However, she didn't know that Amber had left because he was pregnant. She thought that it was because she was angry that Rodney and Celia had s*x, so Itzel didn't have to worry about being exposed when she lied.

"Damn it!" Channing said fiercely.

"Amber refused to forgive Rodney because of this. After Rachel knew that the child belonged to Rodney, she followed him to the United States. It turned out that she wanted to recognize a grandson and let Rodney and Amber marry each other. However, she didn't know that Amber refused to forgive Rodney or let Mel reconcile with them. Rachel was so angry that she took the child back. Amber also wanted to take the child back and had an accident with Rachel, which made Rachel fall down the stairs. You know Rachel's temper. If there was nothing, she would make a scene. Amber treated her like this, so how could she forgive her? This time, their feud will not be solved for the rest of her life! Even if Rachel died, she would not let Amber marry into the Stone family."

Itzel sighed.

"Did you come to me just to talk about this?"

"In addition to this, I want to tell you that Rachel is now determined to compete with Amber for Mel. You have to find a way to help Amber."

"Isn't Rachel your good friend? Is this considered betraying your friend?" Channing did not believe that Itzel would be so kind.

"I'm kindly telling you, why did you stab me?" Itzel was unhappy. "Anyway, Amber is my niece. I can't watch Rachel take her child away."

"Thank you very much!" Channing said with a fake smile, "I will pay attention to this matter. As long as I am here, no one can take my grandson away from my daughter!"

With Channing's guarantee, Itzel was relieved. She had achieved her goal, so she got up and left the tea room.

Itzel walked out of the private room and bumped into a waiter who was holding a cup of tea. The tea in the waiter's hand spilled on her. Itzel's clothes were wet, and the hot tea made her very painful. She raised her hand and slapped the waiter in the face. "Are you blind when you walk?"

"I'm sorry! I'm sorry!" The waiter apologized. The noise here attracted the attention of other guests. Seeing that everyone was looking at them, Itzel thought of Channing in the private room, so she did not argue with the waiter and left the tea room in a hurry.

After she left for a while, Channing just walked out of the tea room and also left in a hurry.

"Hey, isn't this Mr. Black?" His colleague, who was drinking tea with Noemi, pointed to Channing, who had left.

Noemi turned her head and looked away. "Yes."

"What did you say he came here for?"

"The secretary is also a man, and he also needs to live. What's so big about coming here to drink tea?"

"No, the fierce woman just now was the one who came out of the same private room as the waitress."

Just now, when Itzel hit the waiter, Noemi naturally saw it and did not pay much attention to it. Now when her colleague said this, she was stunned. What was the purpose of the meeting between Itzel and Channing?

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 164

8 minutes read

The next day at noon, Channing came to Elliot's villa with a big bag of gifts. Amber heard the doorbell open the door and saw that it was Channing. His face suddenly darkened. "Why are you here?"

“I’m here to see my grandson!” Channing didn’t care about Amber’s attitude. He went straight into the villa. Mel was playing with a puzzle in the living room when she heard the voice and looked up.

It was the first time for Channing to see his grandson. He fell in love with him at a glance. Mel and Amber looked so alike. He put the gift he bought for Mel in front of her and touched Mel’s head lovingly. “Your name is Mel, right? I’m your grandfather.”

“Grandpa? What’s grandpa?” Mel asked with her child’s eyes wide open. Amber had never mentioned grandpa in front of him, so he didn’t know what grandpa was at all.

Channing’s face was a little red. “Grandpa is my mom’s father. Do you understand?”

“I understand.” Mel didn’t seem to understand. She turned to look at Amber. “Mom, do you have a father?”

Amber forced a smile. Channing had come to her. She didn’t want him to lose face, so she nodded.

“You are my father. Why don’t you take care of me and let me be bullied by bad people?” Mel turned to look at Channing.

“Grandfather was wrong. From now on, the Outer Guild will take care of you and mom. They won’t let you be bullied by anyone.” Channing felt very guilty.

“Really?” Mel was happy. He was frightened by Rachel. If he had a father, he would definitely not be bullied like this. Now that his mother had a father, she would definitely protect him and his mother. “There is a bad mother-in-law who often bullies me and my mother. You must help us beat her. She is so hateful!”

“Okay. If she dares to bully you next time, tell Grandpa that he will protect you.” Channing had just promised. Then he looked back at Amber. “Since Amber is back, you can go home with your child.”

Although he knew that it was Channing who helped him out this time, Amber still couldn’t have a good impression of him. “No, it’s good for us to live here.”

“No matter how good it is, it’s someone else’s home. I’ll ask Aunt Maleah to clean up Mel’s room immediately. Take him back.”

“For me, this place is more like my own home than your home.” Amber was not polite at all. She didn’t want to see Channing at all, but she couldn’t drive him away in front of Mel. At this time, Ashton came.

After Amber moved to Elliot’s villa with Mel, Ashton also came to take care of him. When he saw Channing was obviously shocked here, his face immediately darkened. “What are you doing here?”

Mel was very happy to see Ashton coming. She immediately threw down Channing and ran to Ashton. “Grandpa, I just ate snacks and I’m not hungry yet. You’re cooking later. Stay with me for a while.”

“Well, Grandpa will cook again. I’ll play with Mel for a while now.” Ashton said, ready to go to the kitchen to put the dishes he bought. Amber reached out to take the dishes from Ashton’s hands. “Uncle, you can play with Mel. Today, I’ll cook.”

“There’s no need. Mel likes the dishes I cooked, and I’ll cook them.”

“The dishes cooked by my uncle are more delicious than those cooked by my mother. I want to eat the dishes cooked by my uncle.”

“Little thing, can’t you let me rest?” Amber glared at him.

Mel hid in Ashton’s arms and said, “Grandpa, mom is mean to me!”

“Don’t be afraid. Uncle is here.”

Looking at the intimacy between Mel and Amber and Ashton, Channing had mixed feelings in his heart. Amber was his daughter, and Mel was his grandson. They had a deep relationship with an outsider like Ashton, but his biological father and grandfather were ignored. He felt really uncomfortable.

Mel made a face at Amber in Ashton’s arms. When he saw Channing standing on the side, he poked his head out and pointed at Channing. He said to Ashton, “Grandpa, I have a father. At that time, bad people will not dare to bully me and my mother!”

“Him?” Ashton scoffed. If it weren’t for Mel, he wouldn’t have been so polite. Ashton’s scoff triggered Channing. If Ashton hadn’t taken Amber away that year, Amber would have grown up by his side and had a good relationship with him. She wouldn’t have suffered so much. He inexplicably had a grudge against Ashton.

“What’s wrong with me?” He stared coldly at Ashton. “From now on, I, Channing, will take care of my daughter and grandson. You don’t have to worry about it.”

“Don’t you think it’s too late to say that now?” Ashton sneered. “Amber and Mel don’t need you to be kind.”

“It’s not up to you, an outsider, to say that.” Channing also sneered. He had always been tolerant of Ashton and had never gone head to head with him. He was the only one who knew the reason behind it, but at this moment, he didn’t want to put up with it anymore. “I’m telling you, next time you see me, you should be polite. Don’t let me reveal your scandals.”

“Channing, are you still human?” Ashton was so angry that his face turned green. Channing was a n***d threat. He was telling himself that he wanted to tell Amber that he was not the real Ashton, but he did not want Amber to know all this.

Amber felt terrible when he saw how aggressive they were. Although Channing had cheated on her mother and hurt her, it was undeniable that Channing had been very kind to her when she was a child. It was because Channing had treated her well that she could not accept that her father was such a person.

Although Ashton was her uncle, he had been caring for her since she was ten. He had played the role of her uncle and father in her life. She didn’t want to see the two of them go against each other, so she said to Channing, “You can go back first.”

At this time, Amber asked him to go back, which was undoubtedly to help Ashton drive him away. Channing was even angrier. He looked at Mel and suppressed his anger. “Mel, grandpa will come to see you tomorrow. You have to listen to your mother!”

“Okay, goodbye, grandpa!”

Channing did not leave immediately. Instead, he looked at Ashton coldly. "Thank you for taking care of Amber all these years. I'll treat you to tea some other day."

"I can't afford to drink the secretary's tea. I'd better not!" Ashton didn't want to have anything to do with him.

Channing just put on a fake smile and said, "You must. I'll invite you in person." After saying this, he strode away.

After Channing left, Ashton's face was a little pale. Amber comforted him. "Uncle, don't pay attention to him. Mel and I won't have anything to do with him."

Ashton gave a wry smile. If he was the real Ashton, Amber would definitely not have anything to do with Channing. But if Channing told Amber his real identity, would Amber still do this?

After lunch, Rodney came to him. He looked haggard and had lost a lot of weight. Amber couldn't bear to see him become like this. "Rodney, don't disturb us anymore, okay? I promise you that when Mel gets better, he will recognize you, okay?"

Rodney smiled bitterly. "Amber, I didn't come here to recognize the child. I found a doctor for Mel. He is a well-known traditional native medicine doctor in the country and has rich clinical experience in treating leukemia. Ask him to treat Mel."

"Medicine?" Amber hesitated.

"Mr. Barron heard that Old Doctor Chuck has a lot of experience in leukemia treatment, so he specially ran thousands of miles to invite him here. Just let him treat Mel." Deon interrupted.

"I also heard that there are cases of traditional native medicine curing leukemia. Since the doctor has come, let him have a look." Ashton persuaded.

Amber saw that Ashton did not object, so he opened the door and let Rodney and the other two enter the house. Dr. Olsen checked Mel and looked at Mel's examination report. He said that Mel had been treated before. The patient did not have a relapse after he recovered, so he asked Mel to carry out a serious treatment.

Naturally, Amber did not dare to be careless about the matter of the child, so he accepted his suggestion. Chuck wrote some traditional native medicine prescriptions for Mel and said that he would let Mel take two kinds of medicine to see what was going on.

Ashton carefully asked about the contents of the idea of drinking traditional native medicine. The doctor said that sour, cold, spicy food was forbidden. Amber thanked the doctor for taking the prescription and was ready to grab traditional native medicine. Of course, Rodney would not give up this opportunity to ask him to drive Amber. Amber did not refuse to get in Rodney's car.

This was the first time that they had been alone since they returned to the country. Rodney looked at Amber carefully. "Amber, I'm sorry. I was wrong this time. Otherwise, I wouldn't have caused you so much trouble."

"What else would Rodney say besides being sorry for you?" Amber snorted. "You keep making mistakes and apologizing. Is it interesting?"

"It won't happen again." He accompanied Xiaoxin.

"Is there a next time?" Amber sneered.

Rodney was rendered speechless by her words. After a while, he begged again, "Amber, I want to visit the child often. Is that okay?"

"Can I say no?" Amber was not happy.

He was not refusing to see the child. Rodney was happy and a smile appeared on his face. "Amber, thank you."

"What are you thanking me for? I'm warning you, don't push your luck. I'm just asking you to come and see the child. Don't have any bad intentions."

"I'm just looking after my child. I won't have any bad ideas," Rodney promised.

The two of them went to the traditional native medicine store to prepare traditional native medicine and were ready to go back. When they started the car, Rodney's eyes swept over the figure in the rearview mirror and he couldn't help but let out a sound of surprise. "Isn't this Riya? Why is she here?"

Amber followed his gaze and saw Riya, the nanny of Rodney's family, appearing at the door of the pharmacy. Rodney glanced at Amber and said, "I'll go down and ask her why she's here. By the way, I'll ask her something."

Amber knew what Rodney meant. He must be worried about Rachel. She didn't say anything because it had nothing to do with her. Seeing that Amber didn't deny it, he explained.

"In the past few days, I went to other places to find a doctor for Mel and asked Riya to take care of my mother, so..."

It was normal for people's children to worry about their parents. Rodney's cautious look made Amber couldn't help but say, "Rodney, when I was with you in the past, I never cared about anything about you, let alone now we have nothing to do with each other. You can do whatever you want. You don't have to explain it to me."

"I..." Rodney looked at Amber with a complicated expression. While he was hesitating, a man walked toward Riya. The two greeted each other familiarly and then entered the pharmacy together.

"Isn't this Clem? How could he know Riya?" It was Amber's turn to be surprised. The man who entered the pharmacy with Riya was none other than Clem, Channing's driver.

"That's right. How could Riya know Clem?" Rodney was puzzled as well.

"Rodney, aren't you going to ask about your mother's situation? Hurry up and ask." Amber urged.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 165

9 minutes read

Channing had just left the tea room and returned home. Shannon came back to greet him when she saw him. "Why are you so early today?"

Channing had just snorted. "Where's Celia?"

"She's sleeping upstairs."

"Why are you sleeping in the daytime? Ask her to come down. I have something to ask her." Channing's face had just darkened.

Shannon immediately went downstairs and pushed open the bedroom door. She lowered her voice and said, "Your father wants to know about you and Rodney. You should follow Itzel's words. Don't make any mistakes, okay?"

"Got it." Celia tidied up and went out of the bedroom.

Looking at Channing in the living room with a gloomy face, Celia felt a little nervous. She didn't know why she was afraid of Channing. "Dad, you are looking for me." Celia tried her best to say as if nothing had happened.

Channing snorted and motioned for Celia to sit down opposite him. "What's going on between you and Rodney?"

"Dad, is there anything between him and me?" Celia replied with an innocent look.

"Is there really nothing wrong?" Channing had just looked at Celia. "Let me ask you, have you ever seen Rodney in private?"

"Yes." Celia lowered her voice.

"Is it really because of you that Amber and Rodney ended up in such a mess?"

"Dad, this has nothing to do with me."

"It really has nothing to do with me?" Channing looked at her coldly. Celia was frightened by Channing's gaze. "Dad, I'm innocent too! It's all because of Rodney... He was drunk... and then... I... I didn't say anything, and I didn't even say anything about mom. It's really none of my business whether my sister has a conflict with him or not."

This was admitting that she had slept with Rodney. Channing had been hoping that Itzel was spouting nonsense, but now it was confirmed that she had fainted from anger.

He grabbed the glass in front of him and smashed it on the ground. "Didn't I warn you not to get close to Rodney? How can you ignore my words?"

"I didn't mean it... Dad... I really didn't know it would become like this." Celia sobbed and cried.

“Kelsey called me and told me that Rodney was drunk and asked me to pick him up. I didn’t think much about it, but I didn’t know that... Rodney was like a madman when he saw me. No matter how I struggled, it was useless. Later... he fell asleep, and I... I sent him home. Only Ms. Grant knew about it. I can guarantee that no third person knew about it.”

“If you don’t want others to know, unless you can’t do it. Don’t you know such a simple reason?”

“What happened?” Shannon came over in a panic.

“You taught your daughter well and did a good job!” Channing glared at Shannon fiercely, as if he wanted to eat her alive.

“Dad, it’s my fault. It has nothing to do with mom. She doesn’t know anything. You can scold me if you want!” Celia knelt on the ground with a thud. “I’ll explain it to my sister... It’s not Rodney’s fault!”

“Explain what? You can make Amber and Rodney together by explaining?” Channing glanced at Celia, who was crying bitterly. “In the future, stay at home obediently and don’t go anywhere!”

After saying this, she angrily entered the study and saw that the door of the study was closed. Shannon reached out to help Celia up. When the mother and daughter looked into each other’s eyes, they were both full of pride.

After Noemi broke up with her colleagues, she went back to Elliot’s villa and bought Mel’s favorite snacks on the way. Mel was very happy to see Noemi and asked, “Aunt Noemi, have you brought me anything delicious?”

“Little gluttony cat, I knew you were greedy, so I brought you your favorite snacks.” As she spoke, she took out the snacks she bought on the way and handed them to Mel.

“It’s you who spoil him.” Amber reached out and touched Mel’s head. Looking at his son’s happy face, he smiled and said, “Don’t thank me.”

“Thank you, Auntie!” Mel thanked her sweetly.

“Little gluttony cat, go and eat. I have something to say to your mother.” Mel went to the side obediently. Noemi pulled Amber aside. “I just saw Itzel and your father in the tea room. What do you think Itzel wants to see your father for?"

"How would I know?" Amber shook his head.

"Itzel is so beautiful and she's not married. Could it be related to your father?"

"No way!" Amber shook his head.

"Why not? Itzel looks so much like your mother. Maybe your father thinks she's your mother's shadow."

"What's in your brain?" Amber shook his head. "Let me tell you, Itzel is Elliot's father's lover."

"Ah!" Noemi was shocked. "Elliot is my father's lover? Does Elliot know that?"

"Of course I know!" A sudden voice sounded. Elliot appeared in front of the two of them without anyone noticing.

"I..." Noemi blushed. Although she meant no harm, she still felt embarrassed when someone caught the gossip behind her.

"We're not saying bad things about you..."

"I know. I heard what you said." Elliot looked indifferent. "This isn't a secret in the first place."

Noemi breathed a sigh of relief when she saw that he didn't blame her. She looked at Amber and said, "In fact, it's not the first time I saw Itzel meet your father. I saw them meet in the tea room again before. They looked mysterious. When they entered the tea room, they looked around. I felt strange at that time. I wanted to tell you, but I forgot later."

"When did it happen?" Amber was surprised.

"Let me think about it." Noemi rubbed her forehead. "I can't remember the specific time clearly. It seems that you haven't moved into the Black family for a long time."

"Is it true that a dog can't change its bad habits?" Amber's face suddenly darkened. Channing had just cheated on Shannon behind his mother's back. Now he might cheat on Itzel behind Shannon's back.

“It’s good to cheat on her. It’s called karma.” Noemi snorted. “Back then, Shannon seduced a married man. Now, I’ll let her have a taste of her husband being seduced by another woman.”

“It’s best if this matter is true. That way, we’ll have a chance.” Elliot agreed. He naturally knew that the relationship between Itzel and Channing was that of his brother-in-law and sister-in-law. However, since Ashton did not allow him to tell Amber about this matter, he naturally did not mention it.

However, he didn’t like Itzel at all. If he sent the photos of her meeting with Channing to Shannon, she would mistakenly think that it would be easy to see the scene of Channing having an affair with Itzel. It would be best to let the two of them fight.

“You’d better follow them and send the photos of Mr. Black and Itzel to Shannon. She’ll die of anger.”

“That’s a good idea. Why don’t we find someone to follow us...”

“You two really don’t want the world to be in chaos.” Amber interrupted Noemi. “I only care about my son now. I don’t care about anyone else.”

“I know you are like this.” Noemi curled her lips. “I don’t want the position of the secretary’s daughter. Only you can give it to an illegitimate daughter. If I were you, I wouldn’t want mistress to marry into the family.”

“That’s because you’re a bystander, not the person involved.” Amber sighed.

“After knowing that Channing had just cheated and had an illegitimate daughter, I was extremely disappointed in him. When I was a child, he was so lofty in my heart that I couldn’t accept it at all. You may not be able to accept it even if it was for you.”

Elliot nodded. “You’re right. Only the person involved can understand the reason, and others can’t understand it. But I’ve always been curious about Amber. Have you ever thought about taking revenge on Shannon and her daughter?”

It was hard for ordinary people to forgive their mistress, but he didn’t see Amber’s extreme behavior toward Shannon and her daughter. Did she not hate him at all?

“What’s the point of getting revenge on them?” Amber asked, “It’s not completely Shannon’s fault that she didn’t slap them.”

“How could it not be her fault? If she hadn’t shamelessly seduced your father, would your mother have had a car accident? Noemi retorted.

“Of course, my mother’s car accident can’t rule out the possibility of Channing having an affair, but most of the reason is that she loved the wrong person. She put her mind on a man, which led to the tragedy. That’s why I hate Channing. If it weren’t for him, all this wouldn’t have happened. Now, think about my mother, she’s too stupid. She abandoned her young daughter for a man who didn’t deserve to sacrifice her life...” Amber’s voice was sad and he didn’t continue.

“If, if it was Shannon who seduced your father, schemed against your mother, and broke up your family, would you have thought of revenge?” Elliot asked tentatively.

“If you’re telling the truth, I’ll definitely seek justice for my mother!” Amber replied. “But I heard from my uncle that she had a car accident on the front line. It was an accident.”

Elliot didn’t say anything else. He couldn’t figure out the truth of that year, but he was sure that Ashley’s accident had something to do with Shannon.

Was he going to tell Amber all this? Seeing how haggard Amber was for his son, he couldn’t bear to do so. He decided to let this matter be. He would tell Amber when he found the evidence.

When Elliot was about to leave, Noemi volunteered to see him off. When she walked to the door, she lowered her voice and asked, “Elliot, what did you mean by that?”

“What are you talking about?” Elliot asked.

“It’s Shannon who schemed against Amber’s mother. Do you think she found some evidence?” Amber was focused on his son and did not pay attention to Elliot’s words, but Noemi was different. She keenly felt that there was something hidden in Elliot’s words. Just now, Amber did not ask her, so she would not miss Elliot and her.

“I didn’t have any evidence, I just said it casually.” Elliot certainly wouldn’t tell Noemi about it.

“I thought you had evidence.” Noemi was a little disappointed.

“Shannon was originally the best friend of Amber’s mother, but she shamelessly seduced her best friend’s husband. It’s so hateful. The most annoying thing is that she seduced Amber’s mother’s husband and even let her daughter seduce Amber’s husband. I don’t like it at all. I always want to vent my anger on Amber. To tell you the truth, what I just said is true. I really hope that Channing cheated and let that disgusting woman repay him.”

Noemi was so evil that she could not tolerate Shannon and her daughter at all. This was the same as Elliot, and he had the same character.

“I can understand your feelings for Amber, but you have to eat one bite at a time. We have to pay more attention to this matter. Foxs will always show their tail.”

“So, are you going to pay attention to this matter?” Noemi was excited. She had always wanted to catch Shannon’s tail, but she was alone and weak. If Elliot was willing to help, it would be much better than just thinking about it alone.

“Yes.” Elliot nodded. “I don’t pay much attention to Channing. After all, he is Amber’s father. He is vicious and will not eat his son. He won’t do anything to Amber. But Shannon is different. I have to pay more attention to her.”

“Yes, I also think I should pay more attention to Shannon. I have something to tell you. Last time, when I was having dinner with Amber, I saw Shannon and a man in a car on the road. Their hands were clasped together.”

“Are you telling the truth?” Elliot looked interested.

“I’m not sure. I was a little far away at that time, and the woman was wearing a hat and sunglasses. I was not sure. But when I called Aunt Maleah, she said that Shannon was not at home and went to do beauty care. She said that as long as Channing had something to do, Shannon would definitely do beauty care. She would do it for a long time. I think it’s very strange, so...”

“I see. I’ll pay attention to Shannon. I’ll let you know if anything happens!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 166

9 minutes read

Rodney got out of the car and entered the pharmacy. He saw Riya and Clem at the place where he was collecting the medicine. Although Clem was standing beside Riya, his eyes had been looking around.

When Rodney appeared in the elevator, he saw him at a glance. Seeing him, he subconsciously moved away from Riya and took the initiative to come over to greet him. "Mr. Barron!"

Mr. Barron's voice made Riya, who had her back to Rodney, turn her head. She was obviously shocked to see him. Fortunately, Clem stopped him from greeting her, which gave her a buffer period.

After her face became abnormal for a moment, she immediately recovered. After Riya adjusted herself, she walked to Rodney as if nothing had happened. "Mr. Barron, when did you come back?"

"I just came back today," Rodney replied. "How's my mom doing?"

"Madam is recovering well, but she has a bad temper. You can go and see her," Riya replied.

Seeing that Rodney and Riya were talking about private affairs, Clem said goodbye to him politely, "Mr. Barron, I have something to do and have to go first."

Rodney nodded, and his eyes followed Clem's figure. Why did he feel that Clem was a little flustered? Was he thinking too much? Looking at his eyes following Clem's figure, Riya's heart jumped. She forced a smile. "Who was that just now?"

Rodney was stunned by her question. What did Riya mean? Did she not know Clem? It was just that he saw the two people greeting each other and entering the pharmacy at the door. Why didn't they know each other in a twinkling of an eye? What was going on?

He had some doubts in his heart, but he didn't reveal them. "Mr. Black's driver."

“It turns out to be the secretary’s driver!” Riya responded monotonously and then explained, “I’m a little popular these days, so I came to buy some Honeysuckle soup.”

“You’ve worked hard!” Rodney knew his mother’s temper. If he didn’t show up during this period of time, she would definitely vent her anger on Riya. Riya didn’t dare to talk back. It was normal for her to be angry. “I’ll find two more nurses for her right away. You can rest for a while.”

“You don’t have to rest. I can take care of Madam.” Riya quickly stated. Rodney was generous. Although she was often scolded by Rachel when she worked in the Barron family, she had an unusually high salary. For the sake of money, she had no complaints no matter how Rachel insulted her.

Of course, in addition to the money, she had another purpose to stay in the Barron family. The salary that Shannon gave her was also extraordinarily high. How could it be cost-effective to get two of her wages? If Rodney really asked to take care of Rachel and let the new one take care of her, how could she have a status in the future?

She was afraid that Rodney would really ask her to take care of him, so she immediately confessed her feelings. “I’ve been by Madam’s side for a long time, so I’m more familiar with her preferences. Madam, don’t worry. I’m sure she won’t be satisfied with my new care.”

These words made sense. Rodney nodded and said, “If you can’t hold on any longer, just tell me.”

Amber waited in the car for a while before Rodney came out. Seeing him get in the car, Amber couldn’t help asking him, “Is your mother okay?”

“Riya said she’s fine. She’s recovering quite well.”

“Go and see her.”

“I’ll find some time to visit her,” Rodney replied. He started the car and asked Amber a question. “Did Riya and Clem say hello at the door just now?”

“Yes?” Amber was a little confused. “Why do you ask this?”

“Nothing. I’m just trying to verify if my eyes have any flowers.”

After sending Amber back, Rodney and Deon left together. On the way, he told Deon everything he saw today. "The two people you know pretend not to know each other. There must be something fishy about it. Go and find out who Clem is."

Deon nodded in agreement.

Although Channing had just said that Celia was not allowed to go out, how could Celia stay at home? Not to mention anything else, Rachel was in the hospital, so she had to find time to be attentive and see Rachel's attitude to her.

Seeing that Channing was not at home, she bought Rachel's favorite food and went to the hospital. Seeing Celia coming to see her, Rachel was very happy. She took her hand and asked for a long time. Celia naturally answered with her words, which made Rachel very happy. The more she looked at it, the more she felt that Celia was more pleasing to the eye than Amber. "Celia, do you have any news?"

Celia smiled shyly. "That one didn't come."

"Really?" Rachel was overjoyed. "Did you check it out?"

"Not yet."

"Hurry up and check it out. If there is good news..." Rachel suddenly felt like the clouds were setting in the morning. If Celia was pregnant, it would be a dream for Amber and Rodney to start with.

Celia saw that Rachel had returned home. She told Shannon about Rachel's reaction and the mother and daughter were talking about their experiences. Channing had just returned. When he entered the door, he told Shannon to clean up the room immediately and set up a children's room.

Shannon didn't need to ask to know that she wanted Amber's son to live in the house. She hated him in her heart, but she didn't show it on her face.

"Does Amber want to live in the house with the child?"

"Yes!" Channing replied briefly. "It's beautifully arranged."

Aunt Maleah was very excited when she heard that. "Secretary, leave this to me. I will definitely arrange it very beautifully."

“Thank you.” As soon as Channing finished speaking and sat down, Celia served him tea. Channing took the tea and took a sip. He looked at Celia and said, “It’s been several years since you graduated. Do you have any plans?”

Celia was stunned by his question. She didn’t have any other plans except to marry Rodney, the envious wife of the president, and Rodney. She hesitated and said, “I haven’t thought about it yet.”

Channing frowned. An adult didn’t even have plans for the future. How could he be called a human? Thinking of Celia and Amber, he began to feel uncomfortable. They were both his daughters. Why did they look like two different people?

Amber kept a low profile and kept a low profile. Even when he married Rodney and became the wife of a rich and powerful family, Amber kept a low profile. He had never seen her go to any high-end place.

Celia, on the other hand, was different. She only knew how to go to high-end places and fight with those rich young ladies all day long, as if she only knew how to enjoy herself. He hated her, and his eyes became colder. “Since you haven’t planned well, I’ve thought about it. Why don’t I send you to study abroad?”

“Going abroad?” Celia was stunned. She had planned to marry Rodney. Wasn’t going abroad clearly to disturb her good things? “Dad, I don’t want to study abroad.”

“What do you want to do if you don’t want to study abroad? Others like you start work early and run around for life. Only you have nothing to do all day long and only know how to eat, drink, and have fun. Do you think it’s interesting for you to live like this for the rest of your life?”

“I...” Celia couldn’t answer his question. She just looked at Shannon for help.

“Celia didn’t have nothing to do. She also wanted to go to work at the beginning, but she was delayed for a long time. Later, she got sick and stayed at home to recuperate...” Shannon immediately spoke up for her daughter.

Channing said with a faint smile, “The previous things were our fault as parents, which wronged you. Now I want to compensate you and send you to study abroad. As long as you study hard, I believe you will achieve something.”

“Why should I send Celia to study abroad? I’m not familiar with the place and I don’t want my daughter to suffer.” Shannon quickly took over.

“Are you suffering? Why do you treat it as suffering when someone else wants to go abroad with a sharp head?” Channing raised his voice unnaturally.

“Dad, I don’t want to go out. I don’t want to leave you,” Celia begged.

“You can’t bear to leave us? What are you talking about? Do you want to stay at home with us all your life?” Channing just sneered. Celia lowered her head and said nothing. Shannon quickly interrupted, “Mr. Black, if I don’t want to, you don’t have to force her. I’ll ask her to find a job and start working another day.”

“Now it’s not about work, it’s about Amber. Amber and Mel will move back soon. At that time, Rodney will inevitably come over. Celia is at home all day long. I don’t think it’s good, so I think it’s better to send you out to study. It’s good for everyone.”

Celia bit her lip and said, “Dad, if you are worried about this, I will move out.”

“You still don’t understand what I mean. If you stay here, it will only make troubles for Amber and Rodney, so the best way is to go abroad.” Channing had just made it more clear. When he said this, Celia’s face changed greatly. She looked at Shannon and said, “Mom, I don’t want to go out. I won’t go out even if you beat me to death!”

Shannon’s heart was as uncomfortable as a cat’s paw, but she still had a smile on her face. “Since it’s for Amber, let Celia study abroad. Mr. Black, you go and arrange it. I will persuade Celia to agree.”

Seeing that Shannon was reasonable, Channing looked better. He ignored Celia, who was crying, and said, “I’ll ask someone to do it right away. You can prepare for it in the next few days.”

Seeing that Channing had just entered the study, Shannon and her daughter also went back to their room. After closing the door, Celia said with a sad face, “Mom, Dad forced me to leave in order to make Amber comfortable. I am also his daughter. How can he be so partial?”

Shannon didn't say anything. Channing had been kind to her and Celia just now. Why was he acting out of normal now? Was it because of Amber's return, or was it because he was beginning to suspect something?

Celia became more anxious when she saw that her mother did not speak. "Mom, why did you promise him just now? You should find a reason to refuse him."

"What are you arguing about?" Shannon frowned. "Aren't you sitting here now? I'm just trying to stall for time. I'm more powerful than you. Don't worry, I won't let you go abroad."

"What can you do now?" Celia was really anxious. "Mom, why don't we tell Dad about my pregnancy? Maybe he won't let me go abroad."

"Idiot!" Shannon glared at her. "Tell him at this time that you want to die soon. With my understanding of him, he will definitely force you to go to the hospital to have a baby."

"What should we do? Don't tell him until he is born?"

"There's no need to wait so long. I'll think of a way. Stay at home obediently these days and don't go anywhere."

As soon as Channing entered the study, he frowned. It was normal for Celia, who was crying and unwilling to go out, to react. She was used to having meals in the South City, so she was definitely unwilling to go abroad and go abroad.

Shannon spoiled Celia so much. According to common sense, she would also object. Channing just thought that she would also stop her like Celia, but she just raised her objection and immediately agreed. This was not like a normal reaction as a mother. Although Shannon paid attention to him after she married him, why did she feel that what happened today was not normal?

Aunt Maleah knocked on the door and came in to serve him tea. She looked at him and comforted him with a frown. "Don't worry, secretary. The young lady just lost her temper for a while. She will be fine after a while."

Channing nodded. After thinking for a while, he suddenly asked, "Is your family still normal recently?"

“Nothing’s wrong,” replied Aunt Maleah.

Channing replied with a “Hum” and said, “You have to work harder at home.”

Aunt Maleah nodded. “I’ll be careful.”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 167

8 minutes read

Seeing Rodney leave, Riya also bought some Honeysuckle and left the pharmacy. On the way back, she called her son. “Tianhua, he won’t doubt anything, will he?”

“Don’t worry. I have nothing to do with you. He won’t think of it,” Clem replied.

Riya felt at ease after hearing Clem’s words. Clem had always kept the matter of his son a secret. Only Shannon and she knew about it.

Speaking of which, she and Shannon were from the same village. Back then, she was also a member of Little Parkview Street. She was a few years older than Shannon, so it was not surprising to call her an old friend.

Parkview Street was full of bad people. It was difficult for people living there to get rid of mud and water. Riya’s family was poor, so her life was naturally not comfortable. She had set up stalls with her parents since she was a child. From early morning to night, she didn’t get much money. Her parents were getting older day by day. Looking at her family’s disciples, Riya was very annoying.

When she was worried about life, a ruffian came to seduce her when she was young. The ruffian gave her some money from time to time. Every girl was in love. Under the attack of the ruffian’s material and sweet words, Riya quickly lived with the ruffian and had a son before getting married.

Riya’s parents were young and weak. In the end, they died one after another. Riya led her child to live a few days with the local ruffians. However, the good times did not last long. Soon after she gave birth to her son, the local ruffians were arrested and put in prison. Riya, an unmarried big girl, could not live with her child. Later, she listened to other people’s advice and gave the child to a family without children. The Moore family raised the child.

After the Moore family adopted the child, they made a condition that they would not allow her to appear in the local area. Naturally, Riya was worried that the ruffian would come out to find trouble with the child, so she agreed to the condition of the Moore family. The family was decent and gave her a sum of money for this.

There was no way to settle down in the cat's alley. Riya was forced to go abroad. During her work, she met a man Watson. Later, she naturally got married to him.

In the beginning, she lived a sweet life for a few days. Later, Watson heard of her pregnancy from somewhere and began to beat her. She knew that she had made a mistake first, so she tried her best to fulfill it. However, it made Watson even more arrogant. He thought that he was a v****n when he married her, but she was a loser, so he began to look for a woman outside.

Riya knew that she had no choice but to compromise. Seeing that she didn't say a word, the man Watson became more open-minded. He even brought the wild woman home to sleep with her.

She couldn't stand it. She finally resisted. The man Watson didn't take her seriously. He punched and kicked her, which made Riya's face black and blue. Riya didn't belong to the kind of timid person in her bones. She hated him so much that she hated the man Watson. So she grabbed a hammer to resist. The man Watson accidentally was beaten to death by her.

As a result, she was sentenced to prison for more than ten years. Riya was released in advance for her good performance. In order to save her, she began to look for jobs everywhere. At this time, she met Shannon, who was already the secretary's wife. Shannon helped her find a nanny job for the sake of being from the same hometown.

Riya had been a nanny for several years. Later, Shannon tried to make her a nanny in the Barron family. From being a nanny in an ordinary family to being a nanny in a rich family of hundreds of millions of years, it was a big change for Riya.

Although she was a nanny in the Barron family, she had much better food, clothing, housing, and transportation than ordinary people. In order to live in the Barron family for a long time, she changed her ways to please Rachel. No matter how angry she was, she would accept it. Her merits had been recognized by Rachel, and she would establish a foothold in the Barron family from then on.

About three years after she came to the Barron family, she secretly returned to the South City and went to inquire about her son's situation. However, she learned that her son was going to be sentenced because of an accident. Therefore, she went to ask Shannon for help. Shannon thought of a way to help her son avoid punishment and let her son learn how to drive. In the end, she even let her son become Channing's driver.

Later, she learned that Shannon had her own purpose to let her become a nanny in the Barron family. She was just a pawn. Riya was not a fool. However, Shannon had done her a favor and was supported by a big tree. She slowly became the accomplice of Shannon and her daughter. It was her credit that Amber could not get pregnant.

Originally, Amber wanted to leave the Barron family after the divorce, but Shannon persuaded her to stay. She said that she would help Celia marry into the Barron family in the future, so she stayed.

Although Rachel was snobbish, she was not bad to her. Originally, she planned to save more money for her son in the Barron family for a few more years and then find a place that no one knew. But recently, Rachel began to serve her more and more. Because of her health and mood, she kept cursing her every day.

Riya found that she couldn't bear it anymore, so she asked her son to discuss it with her. She meant that she was going to leave, but her son said that she would wait. Hearing her complaining, she was scolded badly. Her son meant that he would buy some medicine in the pharmacy that could make people sleep and give it to Rachel so that she could sleep all day and not curse. The mother and son were ready to go to the pharmacy to see the situation, but she didn't expect to meet Rodney.

Although her son said that Rodney would not doubt her, Riya was still a little afraid in her heart. As the saying goes, if you do not do anything bad, you are not afraid of ghosts knocking on the door. She had done so many bad things. How could she not feel guilty?

When she returned to the hospital, Rachel was losing her temper in the ward. When she saw her coming in, she opened her mouth and scolded, "Where did you go?"

“I went to the pharmacy to buy some Honeysuckle water.” Riya smiled and said, “I just saw Mr. Barron. He said he would come to see you right away.”

Although she had been injured for a hundred days, Rachel’s injury was not serious. After the doctor’s surgery, she was actually fine. The reason why she was lying in the hospital was to seek her son’s sympathy, but it was contrary to her wishes. Rodney had already gone to ask the doctor and knew that her condition was not serious, so he was relieved to ask a doctor for Mel.

During this period of time, Rodney had disappeared without a trace, not even a phone call. Rachel was extremely angry. Now when she heard from Riya that her son would come to see her, she immediately became energetic and her mood became better.

Sure enough, Rodney came to the hospital to see her in the afternoon. When he saw his son, Rachel, he couldn’t help crying. “Rodney, where did you go? I’ve been lying in the hospital these days and it’s so painful. How could you do this to me? You don’t even want your mother for a woman?”

“Mom, what nonsense are you talking about? I went to find a doctor for Mel, didn’t I?” Looking at his mother’s appearance, Rodney felt uncomfortable.

“How is Mel?” Rachel dried her tears.

“It’s not a big deal at the moment. The doctor asked me to take medicine to check the situation,” Rodney replied. Then he looked at Rachel and said, “Mom, I just went to ask the doctor. He said that you don’t need to stay in the hospital, and you can be discharged from the hospital. I want to find two nurses for you to take care of you.”

Rachel originally wanted to perform in front of her son to tell him how she felt and how painful she felt. Unexpectedly, her son had already inquired about the situation. She blushed and couldn’t say a word for a while. Rodney quickly invited two professional nurses to take Rachel home.

With her son accompanying her home, Rachel was in a much better mood. On the way home, she kept asking about the news of Mel. Knowing that her mother had a sharp tongue and a soft heart, Rodney showed the photos he had taken with Mel at noon to her mother.

Rachel couldn’t help but laugh when she saw how adorable Mel was. If her grandson could stay with her every day, it would be a wonderful thing. She thought of the request she had made for Rodney. “Rodney, can you bring Mel home to have some fun?”

“This won’t do.” Rodney firmly refused.

“Why not? Mel is my grandson. As a grandma, I want to see what’s wrong with him.”

“Mom, do you think he would be willing to see you when you treated him like that last time?”

Thinking of the child’s resistance to her, Rachel was a little discouraged and muttered, “It’s all Amber’s fault. If it weren’t for her, would I have been separated from my grandson?”

“Don’t blame Amber. Amber is not as unbearable as you think. She said that as long as Mel gets better, she will let Mel reconcile with me. At that time, it will be easy for you to see your grandson, won’t it?”

“Did she really say that?” Rachel was suspicious. “Son, did she lie to you on purpose?”

“Does she need to lie to me?”

“That’s hard to say. She might have done it in person. Maybe it’s her plan to stall for time. I’m telling you, if I hadn’t warned her to hurt people on purpose and restricted her rights, she might have taken the child abroad and married Pierce.”

Rodney didn’t say anything. It was true that if his mother hadn’t warned Amber to restrict her marriage, Amber might have taken the child abroad to get married to Pierce. Thinking of this, he felt a little depressed.

“Let me tell you, we won’t stop her from getting married, but we must keep the child. I can’t let my grandson call someone else’s father.” Rachel was nagging.

Rodney was a little annoyed. “The best way to prevent your grandson from calling someone else’s father is to let Amber marry me. Otherwise, you won’t be able to stop Amber.”

“Who said that? Can’t I just fight for the child’s right to raise her?” Rachel did not feel that it was inappropriate at all.

Rodney couldn’t help sneering. “Mom, do you think you have the ability to compete with Amber for the right to raise Mel?”

“Why not?”

“Not to mention that Amber has suffered so much with Mel for so many years, Mel has her own choice. You can’t pass the test of Mr. Black. Do you think you will ignore the competition between you and Amber for Mr. Black Mel?”

Rachel was speechless. How could she forget that Amber’s biological father was Channing? Indeed, as long as Channing helped her, she would never be able to get Mel’s right to raise her.

However, if she was allowed to help Rodney and Amber, she would feel uncomfortable. With Amber’s current status, he would definitely not be as submissive as he used to be. At that time, there would definitely be a lot of noise and disputes. Then, she would not be able to spend the rest of her life in the family.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 168

10 minutes read

Rachel left the hospital and went home. As an old friend, Itzel naturally came to see her. The two of them talked about some family affairs and soon talked about Celia.

Itzel told Rachel that Celia had gone to the hospital for a check-up and it had been confirmed that she was pregnant. She asked Rachel to make plans early. Rachel was naturally happy to get the exact news of Celia’s pregnancy. It was a good thing for the Barron family to have many grandchildren, but it was a problem for her son. She couldn’t be in a hurry. She had to do it slowly.

She told Itzel that this matter must be kept a secret. She would let Celia take care of her health first. When the time was right, she would tell her son. When the time came, she would settle the matter between Celia and Rodney. She wanted to see what else Amber could do.

This time, Itzel came to see Rachel's attitude. Seeing that she was very enthusiastic about Celia's pregnancy, Itzel was relieved. However, Rachel told her about the auction for the sports meeting.

The bidding for the sports meeting had entered the countdown. Naturally, Rachel had been paying attention to it. She heard that Elliot was using a native-style design team. Although Rodney had found Zico as the chief designer, Rachel still felt uneasy.

There was always an accident, just like the last city development. Her son and she had always thought that it was settled, but in the end, they lost to Elliot. This time, they couldn't relax. They must do it safely.

Although her son was trying his best to solve the problem and told her not to meddle in it, how could Rachel not care about it? If such a big project could be managed by her son's company, her future would be limitless.

On the contrary, if the Parableutions snatched it this time, it would have a huge impact on the Barron Enterprises. It would not be a good thing if the status of the head of the Barron Enterprises was shaken.

Itzel had said before that Shannon would think of a way to help Rodney. Thinking of this, Rachel especially asked Itzel if there was any explanation for it.

Itzel nodded. "I'm not only here today to talk about Celia, but also about this matter. Shannon has already helped Rodney get a copy of the venue's Forging Design. With this Forging Design and the owner of Barron Enterprises' bid, he will definitely win the bid this time."

As she spoke, she opened her bag and took out the drawing she got from Issac. Rachel was overjoyed. She thanked Itzel and promised that as long as Barron Enterprises won the sports meeting, she would not treat Celia badly.

With Rachel's guarantee, Itzel left happily. Rachel was also very happy. She immediately called her son and asked him to go home as soon as possible, saying that she had something important to discuss with him.

When Rodney returned home, Rachel gave Rodney the Forging Design that Itzel had given her. Rodney was shocked when he saw the Forging Design. He took the Forging Design and hurried back to the company. He immediately summoned the designers for a meeting. The chief designer, Zico, was shocked when he saw the drawing. “Mr. Barron, where did you get the drawing? This design is very similar to Issac’s style?”

“I think so too.” Rodney agreed with Zico’s words. “I’m just not sure!”

“I’m sure this is Issac’s work.” Zico took the drawing and looked at it carefully for a while. “I heard that he lived in seclusion in South City and didn’t care about worldly affairs. I didn’t expect that he would give me such a big gift. With this drawing, I don’t have to worry about accepting the sports meeting.”

On Rodney’s side, the bidding for the sports meeting was a foregone conclusion. On Elliot’s side, he wasn’t idle either. With the Forging Design that Issac had given him, he already knew the result of the bidding.

On the day of the bidding, after dozens of experts’ discussion, they came to the same conclusion that the design drawings of the main stadium sent by Barron Enterprises were ingenious and were sent to the main stadium by Sheng Shisheng.

Although the main stadium sent by the Parableutions was not as good as the Barron Enterprises, the deputy stadium and the staff members were better than the deputy stadium and the staff members sent by the Barron Enterprises. In the end, everyone agreed that the main stadium would be built with the Barron Enterprises’ Forging Design, while the deputy stadium and the staff members would be built with the drawings of the Parableutions.

The result of the collaboration between the Parableutions and the Barron Enterprises could be said to be a great joy. Elliot was already aware of this result and was not surprised. However, Rodney did not have much objection to this result. On the other hand, Rachel was not satisfied at all after hearing the result. The construction of the venue and the Parableutions were going to share a piece of the pie, which made her feel very uncomfortable.

For this reason, she called Itzel and told her about it. Itzel was also puzzled. The drawing she gave Rachel was her brother’s work. By right, Barron Enterprises’s decision was certain. How could there be an accident? Could it be that Channing had done something behind the scenes?

Although it was not confirmed that Channing was playing tricks, in order to deal with Rachel’s nagging, she immediately put the blame on Channing. Rachel had no other choice. After venting her dissatisfaction for a while, she had to hang up the phone.

Because the sports meeting was organized by two companies, Elliot and Rodney specially set up a joint venture company. Barron Enterprises was led by Rodney, while the Sheng Shi Group was led by Elliot.

The joint venture company held a press conference after a few days of cooperation. Elliot and Rodney appeared at the press conference in a suit and looked handsome. They answered the questions of the reporters one by one.

The two people, who used to be rivals, now had a smile on their faces when they became partners. People who didn't know them would think that they were good friends.

Amber couldn't help sighing in his heart when he saw the two of them appear on the television without any grudges. Who said that the actors were all actors? The people in the business world were much better at acting than the actors.

In the evening, the two companies naturally held a celebration ceremony. Elliot just showed up on behalf of Deon and asked him to preside over the event, while he returned to Amber's villa in the western suburbs.

In the villa in the western suburbs, Ashton cooked a table of good dishes with the help of Noemi. He was waiting for Elliot to come over for dinner. Elliot came in and congratulated him in a room. Even Mel also congratulated him in a childish voice.

Elliot happily held Mel and kissed her crazily. Noemi and Ashton put the food on the table. Elliot opened the wine cellar with a smile and took out the good wine he had treasured. For a moment, the fragrance of wine was overflowing, and the whole room was filled with laughter.

Amber was pregnant and couldn't drink, so she only drank some juice. Noemi and Ashton drank a lot with Elliot, and they were all slightly drunk. In the end, Elliot didn't leave because he drank too much, but lived in the villa in the western suburbs.

It had been some time since Breanna returned to South City. Ever since she returned, Elliot had only shown up once and had never been seen again. On the contrary, Elliot, who was an outsider to Amber, had been reporting every day.

Breanna knew that Elliot had asked Amber to live in his villa in the western suburbs. She was very angry. Her real fiancée had been thrown into the hotel and ignored, but Amber was living in Elliot's villa. What was going on?

Although she was angry, she did not forget the three-year agreement that Elliot had made with her. Elliot had said that she had no right to interfere with his business. Only when she could tolerate it would she continue the three-year agreement. On the contrary, everything would be ruined.

Breanna was upset, but she didn't dare to act on her own, for fear of provoking Elliot's bad luck. However, the success of this sports meeting was the top priority for the Parableutions. Her fiancée was not in South City, but now in South City, Elliot had to give her some face to take her to attend the event, right?

But she was wrong. She waited from morning to night, but Elliot did not make a phone call. Breanna was so angry that she went to the place where Elliot's company was holding a celebration, regardless of the consequences. When she arrived at the place, she found that Elliot was not there at all, leaving only Walter and several backbones to support her.

Breanna knew where Elliot had gone to. She drove to the villa in the western suburbs angrily. Looking at the brilliant lights in the villa and listening to the laughter coming from inside, Breanna was angry. Amber occupied the nest. He hung his eldest brother Pierce and was entangled with Elliot. She had to talk to him.

The next day, Breanna came to visit Amber. Seeing that Elliot's real fiancée came to visit Amber, she was more polite. She invited her to sit down and poured tea for her. However, Breanna did not appreciate it and said coldly.

"Amber, you seem to be living comfortably in my fiancée's house, don't you? But I don't know if my silly brother is clear about the situation here?"

"Pierce knew about this. He was the one who asked Elliot to take care of us," replied Amber.

"My big brother is playing the hero on purpose. In fact, he may not think so in his heart." Breanna smiled playfully. "Amber, you and Elliot once had that kind of relationship. Do you think my big brother will really rest assured in his heart?"

“Ms. Hammond, Elliot and I had a relationship before, but since you got engaged to him, we were just ordinary friends. As for Pierce, I have known him for so many years, and he knows me well. He knows that I am not that kind of person, and I know my identity very well.”

“Really? I have one more thing to remind you. Amber, you’re just an outsider to Elliot, and I’m his real fiancée. Do you think it’s appropriate for me, your real fiancée, to live in a hotel and be neglected every day for you?”

“I’m sorry, I was negligent. I’ll find a place to move out right away.” Amber finally understood what Breanna meant. He was unhappy to see himself living in Elliot’s villa and wanted to drive him away.

Breanna was now Elliot’s fiancée. She was different from before. She did have the right to drive him away. Amber chose to give in.

“Move away? Where can you move out? Don’t tell me you’re going to complain to Elliot right now?” Breanna did not believe that she would really move out.

“Don’t worry, Ms. Hammond. I won’t be so despicable.” Amber thought for a moment. “I’ll just move back to where my uncle lives.”

“Amber, your uncle lives in Elliot’s house. Don’t tell me you don’t know that you’re playing dumb?” Breanna sneered.

“Elliot was really willing to put in a lot of effort for you, so he deliberately asked someone to put on such a show. In fact, you are so smart. I don’t believe that you won’t know the inside story at all.”

Breanna told them that the house that Amber rented belonged to Elliot.

“Ms. Hammond, you’re being too serious. I really don’t know that the house belongs to Elliot. Since that’s the case, I’ll find another house to stay in.” Amber naturally did not expect Elliot to do such a thing for him. She felt extremely apologetic.

“Amber, you don’t have to find a house to live in. If you want me to rest assured, you have a very good choice.”

“What choice?”

“Rodney? Rodney has so many houses in South City, and Mel is his son. It’s natural for me to raise my son. If you move into Rodney’s house, nothing will happen. Elliot won’t pester you, and I will also believe you. It’s such a good thing that the three of you can join the group.”

“That’s impossible!” Amber refused. “Rodney and I are already divorced. I won’t have anything to do with him anymore.”

“Amber, your words are really puzzling. Rodney is your ex-husband and Mel’s father. After the divorce abroad, your husband has to bear the burden of his wife and children’s children. It’s natural for you to use his money to live in Rodney’s house. But why did you always refuse? I couldn’t figure it out even if I thought about it before, but today I finally understand.”

“I wonder what Ms. Hammond has understood?”

“Amber, you’re a typical example of eating in a bowl and looking at a pot. You’re hanging up my brother and Elliot while you’re hanging up. Are you very proud that men are willing to sacrifice themselves for you?”

“Is this what a well-educated young lady like you said? I really doubt Ms. Hammond’s upbringing!” Amber’s expression changed and he spoke rudely. He did not have a good impression of Breanna, but he had tolerated her for the sake of Pierce. Now that Breanna wanted to provoke him further, he would not be polite to her.

“I don’t think there is anything wrong with my upbringing. But Miss. Stone, if you are well educated, please don’t be so shameless to live in someone else’s fiancé’s house. Don’t be pregnant with other people’s children and want to marry my brother. My brother is not a good-for-nothing.” Since they had fallen out, Breanna didn’t want to continue to pretend. She began to talk in a strange tone.

“You...” Amber was so angry that his face turned green. “Get out!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 169

8 minutes read

“Amber, you don’t have to be angry from embarrassment. I’m telling you, your best choice now is to marry Rodney. Anyway, you already have two children. No matter how much you want them to be together with their own fathers, it’s better to find their stepfathers.”

“Mom!” A childish voice suddenly sounded. Mel stood at the door of the room and looked at Amber and Breanna innocently. “Aren’t you going to marry Uncle Pierce? Why are you Uncle Rodney again?”

Amber was stunned when he saw his son. Mel was taking a nap in bed. When did she wake up? He must have heard all of her conversation with Breanna from her son’s expression. Damn Breanna!

“Because Uncle Rodney is your biological father.” Breanna saw Mel’s vicious answer.

“Breanna!” Amber raised his voice. She really wanted to tear Breanna’s mouth apart.

“Uncle Rodney is my father? Is this true?” Mel looked at Amber. He only believed in his mother’s words. He wanted to prove it to his mother.

“Of course it’s true. The baby in your mother’s belly is Uncle Rodney... No, it belongs to Daddy, Rodney.”

“Breanna, hurry up and leave! Otherwise, I won’t be polite to you.” Amber reached out to push Breanna. Breanna saw that Amber was angry, so she didn’t dare to stay. So she left. Mel stood at the door of the room and cried.

Amber quickly hugged him and coaxed him. “Mel, be a good girl. Don’t cry.”

“Mom, is Uncle Rodney really my dad?” Mel was determined to know the answer. Amber sighed and nodded. “Why doesn’t dad want us? I saw his engagement with another woman on TV. Why doesn’t he want me and mom?”

“It’s not that Dad doesn’t want us, it’s just that Dad has his own difficulties,” Amber explained. It was just that her explanation was completely meaningless to a child.

Mel saw with its own eyes the news that Rodney and Celia were engaged. Although it was disappointed in the past, for him, Rodney was just an uncle, so it had not been so sad.

Now that his uncle had become his father, his young mind could not accept this fact. He was already very obedient and his mother was very good. Why did his father not want him and his mother?

Mel couldn't understand the fact that her father didn't want her and her mother. He was very sad. "Mom, Dad is a bad guy, a bad guy!"

"No... Dad isn't," Amber explained.

"He is! He is a big bad guy! I hate him!" This was the first time that Amber heard Mel's words of hatred. The target was Rodney, his biological father. She didn't know what to say but just hugged Mel to comfort him.

At this time, Rodney came. During this period of time, he took time to visit Mel every day. Usually, after Mel took a nap, he didn't stand out today. Rodney carried a lot of Mel's favorite food and toys. When he entered the door, he saw Amber holding Mel in his arms and crying. He was very surprised.

"What's wrong?"

Mel broke free from Amber and ran to him when she saw him. He reached out to hug him, but Mel grabbed his hand and spat fiercely. "Bad guy, you're a bad guy! I don't want to see you again!"

Rodney grimaced in pain, but Mel turned around and ran back to the room. After a while, he rushed out with a toy gun in his hand. He pointed the gun at Rodney, his face full of anger. "You liar, get out of my house, or I'll kill you!"

Rodney looked at Mel, who was excited. He could feel Mel's anger. A child would never hide his feelings. He had a feeling that if the child had a real gun in his hand, he would definitely shoot it into his chest.

"What happened?" Rodney looked at Amber again. Amber smiled bitterly. "Breanna just came here to make a scene. She told us about your relationship with Mel. Mel heard it."

Rodney stood rooted to the spot. He had thought of countless scenes of him being reunited with his son. He had always thought that he would be happy and happy, but he had never thought that it would be filled with such a smell of gunpowder.

His son's beautiful and clear eyes were no longer filled with his previous dependence and trust. Instead, they were filled with anger. No matter how Amber tried to persuade him, he refused to let go of his gun.

He continued to point his toy gun at Rodney. "Liar, you big liar, get lost! We don't want to see you, and we don't want to see you even if we die!"

Rodney looked at Mel's hateful eyes and listened to his disgusted words. His heart was like a knife being cut by a knife. This was his child.

Half of his own blood flowed in his blood. If it weren't for those accidents, he should have had fun with him and admired his father very much. Their relationship should have been very good, but now everything should have become something that shouldn't have happened. The happy scenes between father and son didn't appear on him and Mel. For Mel, he was an unforgivable bad guy and a devil.

"Rodney, can you go back first?" Amber saw that Mel was emotional and unwilling to listen to his advice, so he had to persuade him to leave. However, he stood there and did not move. His eyes were fixed on Mel. He really wanted to apologize to Mel and ask for its forgiveness. But at this moment, he could not find any words to say in his usual tone.

How could he make up for the harm he had done to the child? How could he make Mel forgive him? God, please help me! I beg you! At this moment, Rodney was helpless. He had never been so helpless and pitiful.

Rodney returned home with a heavy heart. Rachel was eating the nutritious soup made by Riya for her. When she saw her son coming back, she was very happy and hurriedly ordered Riya to serve a bowl of soup for Rodney.

Rodney was not in the mood to drink soup. He was driven away by Mel from Elliot's villa. The food and toys he bought for Mel were also cleaned up and thrown out by Mel. Although his son was young, he was very clear about right and wrong. In his small heart, Rodney knew that he had become a big demon. He could not forgive him at all.

Later, he sat in the car in a daze for a long time. His son's angry face had always been in his mind, and he didn't know what he should do next.

After thinking about it for a while, he had to go home. He didn't take a sip of the soup that Riya gave him. He just sat there in a daze until Rachel finished the soup and called him a few times. Only then did he come to his senses.

"Son, what happened to you today?" Rachel was confused. Rodney raised his body and pushed Rachel into the study. He closed the door of the study and sighed. "Mom, Mel knows that I am his father."

“Isn’t this a good thing?” Rachel was overjoyed. “When will you bring him home?”

“Take him home? Mom, how can you think so easily?” Rodney smiled bitterly. “Mel hates me very much. He hates me for abandoning his mother and son. He aimed the toy gun at me and asked me to get lost. He even called me a liar...” Rodney could not continue. His son’s angry face and scolding had always been in his mind, and his mood could not be described in words.

“It’s all Amber’s fault. If she had told the child the truth earlier, would the child hate you so much?” Rachel pushed the blame onto Amber when she saw her son in pain.

“Mom, this has nothing to do with Amber. I finally know why Amber doesn’t want me to reconcile with Mel. She has no selfish motives, because she knew that Mel would hate me.”

“What do you mean?” Rachel was confused.

“Mel saw the press conference of my engagement with Celia on TV. Although he was young, he also understood what was going on. So he thought that I abandoned him and Amber, so he couldn’t understand me.”

Rachel couldn’t say a word. She was in charge of the press conference of the engagement between Rodney and Celia. Her original purpose was to make Amber give up. However, she didn’t expect that this scene would be seen by her grandson.

It was very quiet in the study. After a while, Rachel said, “The child is still young. He doesn’t know anything now. He will understand when he grows up in the future. You should feel wronged now and coax him more. He will definitely change his attitude toward you.”

“I will coax him, but whether he can accept me is another matter.” Rodney sighed heavily. “Mom, I’m telling you this. I want you not to disturb Amber and Mel in the future. Mel is ill now and can’t stand any t*****e. As for Amber, he has been very tired for Mel these years. Don’t bother him anymore and distract her.”

Rachel didn’t say anything. She had made up her mind to compete with Amber for the right to raise Mel. If she agreed with her son, it didn’t mean that she would give up. Seeing that her mother didn't speak, Rodney knelt down in front of Rachel. "Mom, I beg you!"

Rachel was not happy to see her son like this. Everything she did was for her son, but now it seemed that her son was not grateful. Looking at her son's sad look, she sighed and said, "Well, mom, I can promise you that I won't disturb Amber, but you have to promise me one thing."

"What request?"

"Don't hang yourself on a tree. There are many good women in the world. You should have your own life."

Rodney was not in the mood to think about this, but his mother said that she would not disturb Amber and Mel, which was a big change for him. He nodded and said, "Let's talk about it when Mel is cured."

Rachel agreed not to disturb Amber and Mel for her own purpose. First, Mel was sick, so it was better for her mother to take care of her. Second, Celia's desire for her grandson was not so strong because she was pregnant with Rodney's child. She took a step back just to go further.

The next day, Rodney bought food and toys to see Mel. However, as soon as he entered, he was hit by a ball thrown by Mel. "You big liar, bad guy. You are not allowed to come here. Go now!"

Rodney's heart ached. He tried to comfort him. "Mel, I brought you your favorite toy..."

"You're not my father! I don't want you to be so kind! I don't want anything! Go!"

Ashton heard the voice and shook his head when he saw this scene. "Mr. Barron, you'd better not come. Mel won't forgive you."

Rodney looked at Mel's angry eyes and sighed in his heart. "Where's Amber?"

"Amber went out to buy vegetables," Ashton replied.

"Grandpa, don't talk to a big liar. Throw him out!" Mel pointed at Rodney's face and said angrily.

“You’d better leave as soon as possible. Don’t provoke the child. He can’t stand the stimulation in his current state!”

Rodney didn’t dare to irritate his son. He could only turn around and leave the living room, preparing to wait for Amber to come back from outside the villa. He stood outside the door for a while, and there was a noise behind him. Rodney turned around and saw Mel bring out the things he had bought.

All of a sudden, it smashed in front of him. He was small, so those things couldn’t be lifted at all. He ran three times in a row before he smashed all the things brought by Rodney on the ground.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 170

8 minutes read

After doing all this, he slammed the door. Rodney smiled bitterly. Amber was really good-tempered. He squatted down and picked up the things that Mel threw out. A sarcastic voice came from behind him. “Hey! Isn’t this Mr. Barron? What is he doing outside my house?”

Rodney turned around and saw Elliot standing by with his arms crossed. His eyes were filled with ridicule. Rodney did not say anything. He picked up the things one by one and put them into the bag. Only then did he reach out to Elliot and said, “Mr. Thomson, nice to meet you!”

“Don’t! I can’t afford it.” Elliot had no intention of shaking hands with him. “Rodney, I’m looking down on you more and more. Do you think you can’t wait to compete with Amber for the child? Mel is your son. He’s sick. Don’t you think it’s cruel for you to tell him all this at this time?”

Elliot didn’t know the whole story, but he heard from Noemi that Mel already knew that Rodney was her father. Amber didn’t tell Noemi that Breanna came to provoke him. Noemi had a bad temper. If she knew that Breanna came to provoke him, she would definitely tell Elliot. Amber didn’t want to see the difference between Elliot and Breanna.

“I didn’t say that!” Rodney felt that he had been wronged. “I never thought that I would snatch the child from Amber.”

“Alright, stop explaining. Who else could it be if it wasn’t you? Could it be your mother? As far as I know, your mother’s body hasn’t fully recovered yet. It’s not the right time for you to find an excuse.” Elliot would never believe Rodney’s explanation.

Rodney smiled bitterly. “It wasn’t my mom. It was your fiancée who told Mel.”

“Breanna? How is that possible?” Elliot could not believe it.

“That’s the truth. Your fiancée came here yesterday because she told Mel all this.”

“Damn it!” Elliot’s face suddenly changed. How could he forget that there was a time bomb like Breanna? Breanna had always been good at scheming. She was indeed a person who could do such a thing. Elliot was originally ready to enter the house, but because of Rodney’s words, he turned around and drove away.

It seemed that he was going to look for Breanna’s bad luck, but Rodney didn’t have time to care about it.

Speaking of these things, it was Breanna who did it. She deliberately revealed that Mel was her child for her own benefit. She was the one who incited her mother to bring Mel back to the country. She was the one who told Mel that she had a relationship with Mel. Now that their family was in such a mess, how could she stand by and watch them?

When Amber came back from grocery shopping, she saw Rodney standing at the door and putting a few bags on the ground. The bags were filled with food and toys. She immediately understood what was going on. “Mel is very resistant now. Come back after a while.”

“Amber, I want to talk to you. Let’s have a good talk.” Rodney pleaded.

“What are you talking about?” Amber asked.

“Let’s talk about Mel and our relationship.”

“Mel doesn’t want to see you now, and so do you. As for us, we have nothing to say for a long time.” Amber said faintly.

“Amber, you said that you don’t want to hear me say sorry, and I don’t want to say sorry again. I want to say something to you. Let’s reconcile for the sake of the child. Go and get the marriage certificate immediately.”

“You don’t have a fever, do you?”

“No, I think it very clearly. The reason why Mel resisted me now is that I think I abandoned you and your mother. I want to change her impression of me.”

“So in order to reverse Mel’s impression of you, you want to reunite with me?” Amber smiled playfully. “Rodney, you really don’t have to make such a sacrifice. Mel’s prejudice against you is because he is still young. I will tell him slowly not to hate you. I don’t have much ability, but I will keep my word.”

“You still have the nerve to keep your word. Since you keep your word, you shouldn’t have forgotten what you promised me, right?” Rodney asked, “You promised me that you would give me a chance for Mel, but now you’ve broken your promise.”

“Don’t tell me you don’t know why I broke my promise?” Amber sneered. “I’m indeed prepared to give you a chance, but you’re too much. There’s no need for me to keep my promise to a man who keeps lying.”

“Amber, even if you give the death penalty criminal a chance to sue him. Tell me, what on earth has made you leave without hesitation?”

Amber looked at Rodney for a while and said faintly, “It’s nothing. It’s just that your lover, Kelsey, called me and told me that she was with you. You will live soon.”

“It’s impossible. I haven’t been with Kelsey. That night, she was about to invite me to dinner. I drank some wine and then invited a designated driver. On the way, I encountered Celia’s car broken...” Rodney told her what he remembered that night.

“Was it Celia who sent you home?” Amber was stunned.

“I don’t remember. When I got up in the morning, my mother said that,” Rodney replied, “From the beginning, Kelsey and I were innocent when we left her. I never intended to let her be my lover. Amber, ever since you left, I have never touched a woman. I swear!”

Amber didn’t say anything. That night, she called Rodney. It was Rachel who answered the phone. She was sure that Kelsey was not with Rodney. So was it Kelsey’s prank?

She shook her head. “Rodney, everything that happened in the past is in the past. There’s no need to investigate further. Right now, I only care about my son’s condition. There’s no point in doing anything else.”

“Amber, for the sake of the child’s illness, you should also reunite with me. Mel needs a father. What we need to do now is to solve everything and get together again, to give the child a happy and happy family. Only in this way can the child’s illness recover quickly.”

Amber smiled bitterly. “Rodney, it’s not that I don’t want to give you a chance, it’s just that I can’t give you a chance. Your mother won’t give us a chance either. Your mother and I are in such a mess, so don’t have any more complex illusions. It’s better to keep it in mind.”

“I’ve already told my mother that she won’t stop us anymore…”

Amber interrupted him. “Rodney, your mother never goes back on her words. You’d better not believe her too much.”

“Amber, this time, it’s true. You don’t have to worry about my mother’s reaction. I won’t let her affect you.” Rodney eagerly confessed.

“Amber, didn’t you just say that you would let them all go through the past? Let’s not fuss about the past now. Let’s look forward. You are pregnant now. Mel will have no father when she is born. You don’t want this child to have no father when it is born, do you?”

Amber was silent for a while before he said, “Rodney, I’ll find a way to communicate with Mel. He hates you now. I’ll try to communicate with him and see his reaction. As for you and me, I don’t think we should talk about it for the time being. There are a lot of unknown elements. Let’s take it one step at a time.”

Rodney had no choice but to remain silent when he heard Amber’s words. The matter between him and Amber could not be rushed. She had been hurt so badly that she was disheartened. It was not something that he could understand with just a few words. The most important thing was to make Mel no longer resist his approach.

Elliot drove to the hotel where Breanna lived. He was very happy to see her. “Elliot, why are you free to come over now?”

“Breanna!” Elliot stared at her and said word by word, “You really can’t change your character!”

When Breanna saw that Elliot was so angry, she immediately understood that he knew that she had gone to find Amber yesterday. Amber was indeed playing a trick on her face. She controlled her anger. “What did I do?”

“Why did you tell him that Rodney is Mel’s father? Why did you do that?”

“I just accidentally spilled the beans...” Breanna defended herself.

“Well, you don’t have to explain. Do you still remember what I said to you?” Elliot sneered. “I said that although we are engaged, you didn’t interfere with my life. If you can’t bear it, you can break off the engagement. Now that you can’t bear it, let’s break off the engagement!”

“I won’t cancel the engagement. Elliot, you can’t be so heartless to me. I didn’t disturb your life. I just accidentally spilled the beans.” Breanna wouldn’t give up. “It’s my fault this time. I won’t do this again.”

Elliot looked at Breanna and felt annoyed. “Breanna, I don’t love you. I don’t love you at all. You don’t have to insist. Let’s stop here!”

“Elliot, I won’t give up on you. You said that you would marry me in three years. This is what you promised me. You can’t break your promise!” Breanna knew that Elliot was a person who kept his promises, so she deliberately used Elliot’s words to shut him up.

This was indeed what he said. Elliot now found that he was really stupid. He looked at Breanna and sneered. “Since you don’t turn back, I’ll help you!” After saying this, he strode away without looking back.

Looking at Elliot’s back, Breanna bit her lips tightly. “Amber, I’ve given way too much. Don’t blame me for being so aggressive. Elliot, don’t want to get it. Don’t want to get it, either. Don’t even want to get it from Rodney!”

She turned around and entered the room to call Celia. “Ms. Black, I’m Breanna. Let’s meet!”

Celia was very surprised to receive Breanna’s call. She had no contact with Breanna. Why did Breanna want to see her? She was pregnant now, so it was better to be careful about everything. So she refused. "I'm sorry, Ms. Hammond. I don't have time to see you. Just tell me on the phone."

"It's not clear on the phone. Let's talk about it when we meet." Breanna insisted.

Although she could tell Celia about Amber's pregnancy on the phone, her people who couldn't see her didn't know how she would react. The most important thing was that she wanted to discuss the latter with Celia. She wanted to make it impossible for Amber and Rodney to be together.

"I really don't have time." Celia still refused to meet her. Her mother said that she should be careful during this period of time and not make any trouble. She naturally had to be careful.

Breanna chuckled. "Ms. Black, don't be so wary. I'm telling you that I have something important to tell you when I see you. I'm warning you that if you don't come to see me, it will be a great loss for you, and it may make you lose Rodney forever."

This sentence made Celia a little uneasy. Was Breanna telling the truth or exaggerating? If she didn't go to see her, she would miss an important piece of news. Breanna felt strange when she saw Celia hesitating. What was Celia afraid of?