9 minutes read

In the end, Celia chose to meet Breanna in the tea room near the Black family. Breanna rushed to the tea room, but Celia had not come yet. She was a little angry. What was wrong with Celia? This tea room was in front of her door, but she asked her to wait for her?

While she was dissatisfied, Celia came in. She sat down and urged her, "Tell me what you want to say. I don't have time."

"Are you so busy, Ms. Black?" Breanna sneered. "Since that's the case, I won't say it anymore. You'd better go and deal with your own business."

"Ms. Hammond, what do you mean? It's not easy for me to find time to see you. How can you play tricks on me like this?" Celia was unhappy.

"I'm not fooling you. What I want to tell you is very important. You have to show me your sincerity." Breanna said as she ordered the waiter to serve the tea. She picked up the cup and took a sip, but Celia did not move the cup. Breanna felt even stranger, but she did not think about anything else. Seeing Breanna drinking tea slowly, Celia was anxious. She did not have time to talk nonsense with Breanna, so she asked, "What sincerity do you want?"

"Ms. Black, you have to answer a few questions honestly." Breanna stared at Celia. "You have given up on Rodney, haven't you?"

"This..." To Celia, Breanna was just an outsider. How could she tell an outsider that she had feelings for Rodney?

Celia's reaction was human nature. Although Breanna was young, she was good at scheming. She did not ask Celia to answer this question. She just wanted to see her reaction to judge. If Celia was determined to give up, then it proved that she had no feelings for Rodney. Now that Celia was hesitating, her hesitation was very clear.

"You don't have to answer this question, Ms. Black. I already know the answer." Breanna put down the teacup in her hand.

"Ms. Black, you hid it because you don't trust me. It's understandable. Since I'm in love with you first, I don't like your half-sister Amber very much. I believe that Ms. Black has heard of it. I won't tell you the reason. Be straight. I came to you today to cooperate with you."

"How do we cooperate?"

"I want to deal with Amber. I want her to stay away from my brother and my fiancée. And Ms. Black believes that I have the same purpose. It's not easy to cooperate with each other, so I came to see Ms. Black to show my sincerity. I hope that Miss Herrera also has your sincerity."

At this point, Celia was a little more cautious. "Ms. Hammond, what's your idea?"

This showed that she agreed to cooperate, which was expected by Breanna. "I think Ms. Black should know that Amber's child is Rodney, right?"

Celia nodded, and Breanna asked again, "So Ms. Black knows that Amber is pregnant?"

"Pregnant? Amber is pregnant?" Celia was shocked. Rachel didn't tell Itzel the news, so she naturally didn't know.

Breanna always thought that Celia knew that Amber was pregnant. Seeing that she was so surprised, she knew that Celia did not know. She lowered her voice.

"Amber was pregnant with Rodney's child in order to save his son. If this child is born, she and Rodney will have two children. At that time, it will not be easy for Ms. Black to turn the tables. Ms. Black, do you understand what I mean?"

Celia didn't understand. She was shocked by the news and couldn't think about it at all. Breanna looked at her and continued, "I want to discuss with Ms. Black a way to satisfy both sides... Ms. Black, are you listening?"

Looking at Celia's absent-minded look, Breanna waved her hand.

Celia came to her senses and looked at the faint smile on Breanna's face. Her face was a little hot. She had just lost her composure. Her mother was right. She was indeed not old enough and needed experience. Compared with her, Breanna was much more experienced.

Amber's pregnancy was unknown. She couldn't decide it on her own. She had to discuss it with her mother first. Celia controlled herself and tried to make herself smile as if nothing had happened. "Thank you for telling me about it, Ms. Hammond. I've been out for too long. I'm afraid that my mother will be worried. I'll go back first. We'll contact each other in the future."

The meaning of Celia's words was to go back and discuss it with Shannon. Breanna knew it very well, so she did not stop her. She handed Celia a business card. "This is my personal number. If Ms. Black has something to do, you can call me. I hope you can continue to drink tea and chat with Ms. Black in the future."

"Thank you very much, Ms. Hammond. I hope we will be friends in the future." Celia took the business card and tried to keep herself elegant and left the tea room.

Rodney, Kelsey, had never doubted him. But today, when he heard from Amber that Kelsey had once made up a lie to provoke Amber, he couldn't remain calm.

Kelsey was kind-hearted in his heart. He had never thought that she would do such a thing behind his back. If it was someone else who said so, he would definitely think that the person had ulterior motives. However, it was Amber who said those words. Amber could not lie.

Rodney had a lot of questions in his heart. He had to ask Kelsey why she did this.

It was just that there had been no news from Kelsey since she went abroad to study. Her phone had been out of contact for a long time, and she didn't have any new contact information about Rodney. Rodney called Deon, ready to ask for Deon's contact information. After the phone was connected, Deon said first, "Mr. Barron, where are you? I have something important to tell you."

Deon's important matter was definitely not an ordinary one. Rodney guessed that his investigation during this period of time should have some new discoveries, so he replied, "I'll come to the company in 20 minutes. Let's talk about it when we meet."

Twenty minutes later, Rodney entered the company and saw him come back. Deon followed him into the office. Rodney was eager to find Kelsey to ask. Before Deon could ask, he asked, "Is there any news about Kelsey?"

Deon shook his head. "Ever since Kelsey went abroad, she couldn't get through to us through her phone. She didn't take the initiative to contact us. I checked the school where she went abroad to study. There was no such person in the other side's reply."

No matter how he looked at it, it was so strange that Kelsey had disappeared without a trace even though she was studying abroad. Rodney frowned. Could it be that Kelsey had been lying to him all this while? Hadn't she gone abroad at all?

A feeling of being betrayed rose in his heart, and his face turned cold. "Go and find out who she has been in contact with during that period of time."

"I've checked. She has the most contact with Itzel," Deon replied.

"Itzel?" Rodney was shocked. Previously, he and Kelsey had suspected that Itzel was Kelsey's mother. Later, Kelsey had denied it herself. Since Itzel was not Kelsey's mother, why did she have to interact with Itzel? This was very strange.

Thinking of the fact that Kelsey had called Amber to lie, Rodney became more and more uneasy. He controlled himself and told her that Kelsey had invited him to dinner. "What do you think of this?"

"Kelsey is such a person?" Deon was obviously shocked. Kelsey had been in contact with him for a long time, and he also had a good impression of Kelsey. Now that such a thing had suddenly happened, Deon obviously could not believe it.

"Amber won't lie. Kelsey must have called her. What motive do you think she has?"

"Could it be that Kelsey was bribed by Madam?" Deon asked tentatively.

"That's what I'm thinking as well. But what's the purpose of her trying to get me drunk? Is it just to stimulate Amber and make her leave?" Rodney felt that it would be too much of a big deal if it was just a small issue.

The thing that happened that night would not be so simple. Although he could not drink, he would not be drunk after a few drinks. He thought of Celia, who suddenly appeared.

Rodney could not help but shudder. He remembered that he had only drunk a few cups of wine that night and was not drunk to the point of being unconscious. However, that day, he had fallen asleep and was sent home by Celia. This matter was very strange.

“Mr. Barron, do they want to repeat the birthday party again?” Deon reminded him.

“The birthday party?” After being reminded by Deon, Rodney also remembered the embarrassing thing that happened on his mother’s birthday.

Itzel had a good relationship with her mother. Did they bribe Kelsey? Did they ask Kelsey to drug her? Did they want her to be with Celia?

If this kind of speculation was true, then something must have happened that he didn’t know that night. Rodney didn’t dare to think about the result. His heart beat fast. “Has Celia done anything recently?”

“She went to the hospital to have a physical examination before, and I asked someone to follow her and see her enter the orthopedics examination. Later, I asked someone to check what she did, but nothing was found.”

“What do you mean? She didn’t have an examination?”

“No, the people following her can be sure that she has been checked, but there is no such thing as her in the hospital. That is to say, Celia used someone else’s name to check her body. I think it’s very strange. Why did she do it secretly? Is she planning something?”

“Don’t beat around the bush and get straight to the point.” Rodney was a little impatient.

“So I went to do an investigation in person. I asked the people who checked Celia’s photos to identify her, and then recorded all the check-up projects of Celia. Then I went to another hospital to find a few see-up doctors and reached a conclusion that these check-up projects seemed to be doing an artificial physical examination.”

“What did you say?” Rodney raised his voice unnaturally. Celia was an artificial tutor? How could it be so incredible? “Why does she want to be an artificial tutor?”

“I’ve checked it out. Although Celia did these examinations, she didn’t do any artificial surgery, so I found it very strange. Because I couldn’t figure out what she was going to do, I came to tell you.”

This sudden situation made it hard for Rodney to think clearly. He felt that his mind was in a mess, like a mess. He couldn’t figure out anything.

Deon saw that he was frowning and didn’t say anything, so he didn’t dare to speak. After a while, when he saw that Rodney didn’t say anything, he said tentatively, “Could it be that Madam is going to let Celia get pregnant again?” Deon didn’t dare to be completely sure, so he was a little hesitant when he said that.

Her mother had always been dissatisfied with the fact that she was with Amber, and Celia had never given up on her. With the two of them combined, Rodney stood up immediately. “Oh no, I might really have been tricked!”

“Don’t panic, Mr. Barron. It’s just a guess. Maybe it’s not that serious. Let’s find out what happened that night. Didn’t you invite a designated driver that night? Let’s go to the hotel immediately to ask the designated driver about the situation.”

Rodney and Deon rushed to the Huston Palace. They wanted to find the designated driver that night to find out more about the situation, but the hotel told Rodney that they didn’t have such a designated driver. When he found out that the designated driver was called by Kelsey, Rodney smiled bitterly. He knew very well that he had been scheming since the beginning of the meal.

Since someone had set up a trap to plot against him, it was impossible for him to find the designated driver so easily. It was meaningless to continue to look for the designated driver now. Rodney walked out of the hotel with a sullen face without saying a word.

“Mr. Barron, what should we do now?” Deon also knew the seriousness of the matter.

“Let’s go home!” Rodney spat out two words.

“Madam is injured now...” Deon was worried that he would quarrel with Rachel when he went back, so he reminded him of Rachel’s injury. Rodney shook his head and said, "It's meaningless to quarrel now. I went home because I wanted to know what happened that night."

"If all this was planned by Madam, she wouldn't tell you."

"If she didn't say it, someone would naturally say it." Rodney sneered. "You forgot about the surveillance at home. I want to see what happened that night!"

When Celia returned home, Shannon's face darkened. "Didn't I tell you not to go out at home? Why aren't you obedient?"

"Mom, I have something important to tell you." Celia pulled Shannon into her room and closed the door. She lowered her voice and said, "I just got a message that Amber is pregnant."

"Where did you hear that?" Shannon was also surprised. Celia told Shannon about what Breanna had seen. Shannon was a little nervous. Breanna must have come to Celia to show her kindness to deal with Amber. However, it still needed to be confirmed.

She immediately called Itzel. "I heard that Amber is pregnant?"

Itzel, who was at work, was stunned when she heard that. "No way. I didn't hear Rachel talk about this."

"Breanna told Celia that this child lived a bad life in order to save the sick child. I'm not sure, so I asked you."

Shannon didn't panic anymore when she saw that Itzel didn't know anything. Maybe the news was false. From the bottom of her heart, she certainly hoped that Amber wouldn't get pregnant.

Itzel naturally hoped that Amber was not pregnant. However, as the saying goes, there are no waves without wind. It was impossible for Breanna to lie to Celia.

With Rachel's desire for her grandson, she would be very happy if Amber was pregnant. Why didn't she tell anyone about it?

However, it was indeed possible to cure leukemia with blood. Itzel pondered for a moment and said, "I'll take time to visit Rachel and inquire about her from time to time."

Itzel immediately bought fruits and went to the Barron family's house. Rachel was very happy to see her and chatted about some family affairs. Itzel deliberately mentioned Mel's condition and asked Rachel about the follow-up treatment. Rachel sighed and said, "At present, the child's condition is relatively stable. He is not a patient. Rodney said that there was no big problem. As long as Amber gave birth to the child and treated it with blood and water, it will be cured."

This was the first time that Rachel had mentioned Amber's pregnancy in front of Itzel. Itzel secretly hated the old man for keeping it a secret. Fortunately, Breanna had leaked the news. Otherwise, it would have been a long time before they found out.

She hated Rachel to death in her heart, but she didn't show it on her face. "This is a good thing for you. Not only can you cure your grandson's illness, but you can also have another child."

"Of course, having more grandchildren is a good thing, but the mother of this child is not a good thing. I have a headache. You also know that Rodney is determined to start over with Amber. Now that Celia is pregnant, what should I do about it? I have a headache."

There seemed to be something wrong with Rachel's words. Now the matter of the sports meeting had been settled, and Rachel was not the kind of person who kept his promises. If she went back on her word, it would be difficult to deal with this matter. Itzel became anxious. "Although the success rate of treating leukemia with blood is high, it also requires a successful matching treatment."

Rachel naturally did not understand this. "What do you mean?"

"It's just that the blood of the child that Amber is pregnant with must be compatible with Mel's," Itzel explained.

"What should we do? If the child Amber is pregnant with doesn't deserve the shape of Mel, what should we do with Mel?" Rachel became anxious when she heard that.

“Don’t worry. I’m just talking about the probability. Besides, Amber is pregnant. Isn’t Celia pregnant as well? She’s also pregnant with Rodney’s child. Maybe the blood of the child she gave birth to can make her happy.”

“Yes, Celia is also pregnant with Rodney’s child. Amber can’t do it, so he can use Celia’s.” Rachel understood immediately.

“So you don’t have to have a headache. Just wait for them to give birth to the baby, and not only can you treat Mel, but you can also have a few grandchildren all of a sudden. You can’t be happier.”

Rachel nodded. “You’re right. You have to think twice before doing anything.”

As she spoke, the sound of a car came from the door. Riya came in and reported, “Mr. Barron is back.”

Rachel stood up with a smile on her face. “Why are you back so early today?”

While they were talking, Rodney strode into the living room. Deon followed closely behind him. Seeing Itzel in the living room, Rodney frowned slightly.

He used to have a good impression of Itzel, but now when he saw her, he felt like he was an accomplice. Although he didn’t like her, he wouldn’t show it on his face. He nodded politely to Itzel and strode into the study.

Closing the door, Rodney turned on the computer and turned on the surveillance video. There were several security cameras installed outside the Barron family’s villa. Naturally, there were security cameras in the room. As long as the surveillance video was brought out, he could clearly know what had happened that night.

When Rodney was transferred to the date of that day, he soon saw the scene that night. His car was driven into the Barron family’s villa at about 11 o’clock. When the door opened, Kelsey got out of the car first, followed by Celia. Then the two of them helped him out of the car.

At this moment, Rachel and Itzel also opened the door to welcome him. He was helped into the living room by several people and then went upstairs.

There was a surveillance camera in the bedroom, so naturally, he couldn’t see what was going on inside. However, he could clearly see a few people helping him into the room walking out of the room one by one. Kelsey came down from the upstairs and left the Barron family.

However, Celia did not leave. After Kelsey left, she went back to her bedroom. When she saw Celia enter her bedroom again, Rodney's face changed.

Deon's face also changed. The two looked at each other and continued to stare at the monitor. Itzel and Rachel were chatting in the living room. The monitor could only see the picture but could not hear the sound, so he could not understand what they were talking about.

Rodney's heart was in his throat. He only hoped that Celia would enter his bedroom again because something had fallen into his room.

However, this idea was undoubtedly far-fetched. As time went by, Celia entered his room for about an hour before she opened the door and came out.

Itzel and Rachel stood up to welcome them. They didn't know what they had said to Celia. In the end, Celia and Itzel said goodbye and left the Barron family.

Why did Celia stay in her bedroom for more than an hour? What had happened in the past hour?

Could it be... Rodney couldn't imagine that he would have s*x with Celia in more than an hour. At that time, he was unconscious. How could a person without consciousness do that kind of thing?

However, he could not rule out the possibility that Celia would take the initiative. He suddenly felt disgusted. It was hard to imagine that Celia, who appeared to be gentle and kind-hearted on the surface, would have a relationship with him while he was unconscious.

What happened today had completely overturned his values. Kelsey, whom he had invested in studying, was actually an ungrateful person. Celia, who had been pretending to be gentle and virtuous beside him, was a white lotus flower, and her own mother. She could not distinguish right from wrong. She schemed against her son for her own personal gain, and her mother's best friend Itzel. None of them were good people.

Having been in the business world for so many years, he had always been vigilant, but he didn't expect that he would fail in the end.

Thinking that he might have slept with Celia because of their scheme, Rodney felt disgusted. A great humiliation and anger filled his heart. Deon saw that Rodney's face darkened little by little.

"President Murong, perhaps things aren't that bad." Deon tried to persuade him. "Back then, you were in a coma. How could a man do something like that when he was unconscious?"

Rodney didn't say anything. If they had been scheming to plot against him, they wouldn't have let him off so easily. He wasn't sure what exactly had happened, but he wouldn't be kept in the dark. The mystery would be revealed sooner or later. It was just a matter of how long it would take.

It was impossible for Celia to do nothing in her room alone. Rodney forced himself to face this problem. Either he had an unconscious relationship with Celia, or Celia was in his room to steal sm, and then went to the hospital for artificial medical examination, hoping to wait for an opportunity to get pregnant?

Why was she so happy to have her own child? In the past, she was forced by her parents in order to pay the debt. But now?

Now, no one forced her. She knew that she could not leave Amber. She also knew that there was a fragile relationship between her and Amber. She could not stand any storm, but she still did not hesitate to do such a shameless thing. What did this mean?

Celia was not as gentle and kind as she was. She was pretending.

From what had happened in the past and the combination of what had happened now, the so-called words of Celia must be fake. She just made it up to deceive herself.

She had pretended so deeply that he had believed her words. Rodney found that he was really a joke. He had been fooled by a woman and punched on the table. It was so hateful!

He would not let this matter go so easily. He would definitely let them know that the consequences of scheming against him were terrible!

In the evening, when Noemi got home from work, Mel ran over and took her hand and told her, “Aunt Noemi, that big liar came again today. I ignored him and threw out all the things he brought.”

“Good job!” Noemi gave a thumbs-up to Mel. “If he comes again in the future, you will pour water on his face and make him retreat from difficulties.”

“What do you mean by retreating from difficulties?” Mel asked.

“He won’t dare to come again,” Noemi explained.

“Well, if he dares to come tomorrow, I’ll pour cold water on him.”

Amber frowned as he listened. “Noemi, don’t kick up a fuss.”

“This is not nonsense. Mr. Barron abandoned you and your child so shamelessly at that time. How can he come back to recognize your child now? I am teaching Mel to be reasonable to prevent Mr. Barron from stealing the children’s rights from you in the future.”

“He shouldn’t be so shameless.”

“That’s hard to say. Rodney’s mother is not an easy person to deal with. With her backing, anything can happen. We must be on our guard.”

Amber smiled helplessly. Noemi was thinking for her. Of course, she couldn’t blame him. However, when she thought of the pitiful look on Rodney’s face today, she couldn’t bear it. To be honest, Rodney was not so hateful.

In addition, no matter what, Rodney was Mel’s father after all. She could not let Mel live with hatred. It was not that Rodney was unforgivable. During this period of time, it could be seen that he was trying to make up for it with his heart.

She could not allow Mel to hate him like this and be unfair to him. In the evening, she coaxed Mel to sleep. Amber and Mel mentioned Rodney. “Don’t be so rude to your father in the future.”

“Mom, he is a big liar and a bad guy. Mel doesn’t want such a person to be a father.” Mel insisted.

Since he was a child, he had been longing for his father so much, but he didn't expect that his father didn't want him to be engaged to his mother and other women. In Mel's young mind, he had already sentenced Rodney to death. He was a big liar, and he hated him!

"Don't scold me like that, Mel. I had no choice back then."

"What do you mean by having no choice?" Mel asked.

"There's a reason," Amber explained. "There's a reason for my father's engagement with that auntie."

"That's not because he wants to marry another woman?" The scene of the engagement ceremony between Rodney and Celia was deeply engraved in Mel's mind...

"No, I'm not going to get engaged to another woman. It's just a look."

"But I saw it. Mom, don't lie to me."

"Mom didn't lie to you. That's because the one who got engaged with Dad got sick. Dad got engaged to her in order to take care of her."

Amber couldn't find a reason to excuse Rodney. He remembered that Rodney once told him that he was engaged to Celia because she couldn't have children, so he took it out and told Mel.

"Why doesn't Daddy take care of mom and me? Why does he have to take care of others?" Mel asked.

"Because he feels guilty about that auntie. He owes that auntie." Amber continued to explain, "And it's not that he doesn't love Mel, but he doesn't know about Mel's existence at all."

"Why doesn't he know my existence?"

"Because I didn't know when I was pregnant with Mel. I didn't tell him."

"Is it because Dad made you unhappy that you didn't tell him?"

Amber nodded. "Because he hurt my mother's heart at that time, my mother didn't tell him that there was a Mel in his belly. Mel was born after my mother and my father were separated. My father never knew that Mel was his child."

Mel felt a little better after hearing Amber's explanation, but she was still unhappy. "Dad is a bad person. He hurts my mother's heart. I still can't forgive him."

"It's not your father's fault. It's an adult's business. You'll find out when you grow up. Now you just need to remember that your mother loves you and your father loves you."

"No, I don't believe that Dad loves me. If he loves me, he won't abandon his mother and get engaged to others." Mel was very stubborn.

Amber sighed. "Dad has already broken off the engagement with that auntie. He's single now."

"Mom, have you forgiven Dad?"

Amber nodded. "Mom has forgiven Dad, so Mel has to forgive Dad. Life cannot rely on hatred to live with love. Only in this way can you be happy."

After saying this, Amber suddenly thought of himself. She had always been unwilling to forgive Channing because of hatred. It could be seen that things in this world could not be done so easily. She had no way to do it herself, so how could she expect a four-year-old child to do it? It seemed completely unrealistic to change Mel's attitude towards Rodney immediately.

Rachel called the door several times, but Rodney ignored her. He was extremely disappointed with his mother. All his respect and love for her had been worn down by her unreasonable behavior.

If it weren't for the fact that he couldn't make a choice, he would rather not have such a mother. After sitting in the study for a long time, he raised his body and opened the door.

Seeing Rodney come out, Rachel complained, "Rodney, what are you doing inside? No matter how busy you are, you have to eat? What time is it?" She then ordered Riya, "Hurry up and get the food ready!"

Riya soon put the food on the table. Rodney was not in the mood to eat, but he thought that Deon must be hungry since he stayed with him until now, so he invited Deon to eat.

The two of them ate silently. The food was like wax in Rodney's mouth. When he finally saw Deon putting down his chopsticks, he also put down his chopsticks.

Rachel sat in the wheelchair and said that her son had lost weight recently. Rodney looked at his mother with a sarcastic smile. He stood up from the dining table and went straight out of the door. When he saw his son finish eating and leave, Rachel shouted behind him, "Rodney, where are you going?"

"I'm full to digest food." After finishing his words impatiently, Rodney went out of the door. Deon knew that he was sad in his heart, so he followed him with duty. Rodney looked back at him and said, "You go home first. You don't have to follow me."

Deon didn't want to listen to him. Rodney said, "This little thing can't make me lie down. I want to go to the garden alone to have a rest. You go home and rest first. You can only do what I give you after you have a good rest."

Deon didn't leave until he heard that. He watched Deon leave and Rodney went to the garden alone.

Although he had been thinking about it in the study for a long time, he still could not control his anger. He was afraid that he could not help but question his mother and quarrel with her. Now it was not something that could be changed by quarrel. He needed to be quiet and slowly digest it. He needed to come up with a solution.

His mother was still as stubborn as ever. When he thought of how he had even knelt down and begged her to help him and Amber, he felt that he was too childish.

And Celia's shamelessness was beyond his imagination. Thinking of her poor performance in front of him again and again and making him believe her, Rodney couldn't help sneering.

He was really confused. He was fooled by such a low-level trick and ignored the truth. Fortunately, he had always loved Amber. From the beginning to the end, he had never changed. Fortunately, he was in time now.

Rodney lit a cigarette. The cigarette's tip flickered between bright and dark, and his expression was also dark.

After leaving the Barron family, Itzel called Shannon immediately to prove that Amber was pregnant. Shannon was very anxious when she heard that. "It's not peaceful at all. She is also pregnant. It's troublesome. Why don't we get rid of the baby in her belly?"

"It's not a good idea. The baby in Amber's belly was pregnant to save Mel. If you kill Rodney, you will have another baby with her. They can do anything for the baby."

"Then what should we do? Should we just watch them give birth to the baby? What about Celia? What about the baby in Celia's belly?"

"At present, I don't have any good ideas. This child is not born in a short time. Let's think about it carefully. There must be a way." Itzel didn't have any good ideas.

"That's true, but there's still a big problem on my side. Channing is forcing Celia to go abroad. I can't afford it." Shannon was anxious.

"What kind of trouble is this? Let Celia pretend to be sick and you can avoid it." Itzel didn't take it seriously.

"It's easy for you to say. How can Channing be so easy to cheat? He won't believe that he is sick at this time. He will definitely send Celia to the hospital for an examination in person. This examination will definitely cover up. At that time, if we accidentally find out about Celia's pregnancy, with Channing's partialness, he will definitely force Celia to abort the child. In this way, all our previous efforts will be wasted." Shannon retorted.

Itzel was silent for a moment. "If it doesn't work, I'll let Channing know about Celia's pregnancy."

"No! Absolutely not!" Shannon refused.

“When the time comes, tell Channing that if Celia can’t give birth to a baby in her lifetime, no matter how hard-hearted Channing is, he won’t let her daughter be lonely for the rest of her life.”

“He won’t believe this lie!”

Itzel let out a long sigh. “There’s one thing I haven’t told you. It’s not easy for Celia to get pregnant. That’s why I suggested that we give her artificial guidance instead of natural pregnancy. I actually didn’t have much hope for the operation this time. Fortunately, God has eyes and made her pregnant. If she were pregnant this time, she might never get pregnant again in her life.”

Shannon was also stunned. “Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

“So what if I told you earlier?” Itzel smiled bitterly. “It’s not like you don’t know that Celia was pregnant with Rodney’s child. If that child could be saved, I would definitely try my best to make her give birth to that child, instead of letting her frame Amber.”

“Didn’t Celia turn red because she ate something she shouldn’t have eaten when she couldn’t keep the baby?” Shannon really didn’t want to believe that her daughter’s health would be bad.

“This is just one of the reasons. Back then, in order to convince Rachel that her child was killed by Amber, didn’t we scheme to make her go and provoke Amber? That time, Amber pushed her to the ground and caused some harm to her.

“Although the doctor who performed the operation at that time was a novice, the operation was carried out during the process, which caused damage to her body.”

Itzel explained, “Although I’ve improved and improved her body later, it’s hard for Celia’s body to go back to how it used to be.”

Shannon was both hateful and angry. She had never dreamed that her daughter’s health would be damaged because she had plotted against Amber. This was the so-called going for wool and coming home shorn. However, she would not blame her daughter like this.

She swore fiercely, “Celia has become like this because of Rodney. No matter what, this time, I must marry him, I must!”

Channing asked someone to go abroad for Celia and did not forget to visit Amber and Mel. On this day, he bought gifts and went to Elliot’s villa. Amber was taking a walk with Mel outside. When he saw Channing, Mel stretched out his fingers and said, “Mom, grandpa is here again.”

“Mel, look at what Grandpa bought for you!” Channing just waved at Mel with big and small bags in his hand with a big smile on his face.

Mel looked at Amber and saw that she was not unhappy, so she walked to Channing with ease. When she saw that all the things Channing had just bought were what he liked, his little face was full of smiles. “Grandpa, you are so nice!”

Channing put the things on the ground and reached out to hold Mel in his arms. He kissed Mel’s face a few times, and Mel reached out to push him. “Grandpa’s beard is so sharp.”

Amber’s heart skipped a beat. Such a situation was so much like when he was a child. At that time, when Channing just got off work and went home, he always held her in his arms and kissed her. Like Mel, he disliked her. “Dad’s beard is so sharp.” His mother, Ashley, stood on the side with a gentle smile.

“At that time, everything was so beautiful!” Thinking about it, Channing lifted Mel over his head and began to spin. Mel giggled happily.

Channing felt a little breathless after walking around with Mel in his arms. He couldn’t help but sigh. “Grandpa is old. He didn’t feel tired at all when he was holding your mother. Now he is struggling to hold Mel in his arms. It’s useless.”

These words made Amber look at Channing. Seeing the white hair that vaguely appeared on his head, Amber couldn’t bear it. She went over and picked up the gift that Channing had bought for Mel on the ground and walked into the house. “Let’s talk inside.”

Channing was flattered by Amber’s invitation. He quickly followed Amber into the villa with Mel in his arms. Ashton was not there. Amber made a cup of tea for Channing and put it in front of him. He then ordered Mel, “Good son, go to the side and play!”

Mel nodded and began to play with the toys that Channing had just bought. Channing had just picked up the cup of tea and took a sip. He sighed slightly and said, "The tea that Amber made is really delicious."

Amber was silent. It was said that there were all parents in the world. Wasn't it too much for her to treat Channing like this?

While thinking, Channing said, "Amber, I've asked Aunt Maleah to arrange a children's room for Mel. It's right next to your room. You can move it back with Mel! In this way, everyone can have a passport."

Amber shook his head. It was normal for Channing to like Mel, but Shannon and Celia were different. The mother and daughter were not good friends. If they had any bad intentions, the consequences would be unimaginable. "Forget it, I appreciate your kindness. If you want to visit Mel at any time, you don't have to move back."

"Are you worried about Celia? I've already decided to send her abroad to study. I'm now handling the procedures. She'll be done soon..." Channing told him about sending Celia abroad. "There won't be any problems between you and Rodney after she leaves you."

Amber didn't expect that Channing would do this for her. She shook her head and said, "One of the reasons why I don't move back is because of Celia and her daughter. But there is another reason, which is that I won't stay in our country for long. I will take Mel abroad in the future."

"You're not going to get married to Rodney?" Channing was surprised.

"I don't have any plans for now."

"Amber, Rodney is a good man. It's my fault. Please forgive him." Channing pleaded for Rodney.

"This has nothing to do with what happened back then..." Amber didn't know how to explain the relationship between her and Rodney.

"That's because of Celia? Amber, it's not his intention for Rodney and Celia to be together. He was set up by that hateful Kelsey."

Channing had just told Amber about what Itzel had told him. “Amber, Rodney isn’t an unforgivable villain. He’s also a victim. You should give him a chance even for the sake of his child.”

Amber looked at Channing in surprise. She didn’t know that Celia and Rodney were drunk on the bed at all. Now that Channing had said it out loud, she was simply too shocked.

No matter whether Rodney had been tricked or not, it was a fact that he slept with Celia. Amber smiled bitterly. Before this, she might have thought of giving him a chance, but how could she give him a chance when such a thing happened?

Channing didn’t know what was on Amber’s mind. He lowered his head and said, “Amber, I’m an experienced man. I can understand his helplessness.”

Amber interrupted him. “Is it because you are all cheating men that you feel sorry for each other?”

“No! Dad didn’t cheat back then.” Channing tried to defend himself.

“When I was drunk, something should not have happened between my father and Shannon. My father has a deep affection for your mother. I have always blamed myself for what happened. I didn’t dare to face your mother for a long time, for fear that she would know. That kind of remorse has always been with me.”

“But didn’t you also allow the mistress to marry into your family?” Amber sneered. If Channing had married her after his mother’s death, he would have supported his decision. But in the end, he had taken the mistress as his wife. It was the most unbearable thing for her to let go of the mistress.

“Back then, I was possessed by a ghost.” Channing forced a smile. “Amber, this is the most unforgivable thing that I have done. I know that I am a bastard, and I have regretted it for half of my life because of this. Because of this lesson, I came to advise you that you and Rodney have mutual feelings for each other. You can’t be separated because of being schemed against by others. Kelsey deliberately planned to scheme to separate you and Rodney so as to achieve her goal. If you really separate from Rodney, won’t you satisfy her? I hope you won’t do such a thing, which will make people hate you.”

Amber remained silent. Channing continued to persuade him earnestly, "There will always be many unexpected changes in a person's life. What you've encountered now is nothing more than a scratch in your long life. I hope that you won't run away from it. Instead, I hope you can face it bravely and face it together with Rodney. Think about it. If you hadn't run away at that time, I would have heard Rodney explain that you and Rodney wouldn't have become like this. So, Amber, you must give Rodney a chance."

Amber's mind was in a mess. There was a reason behind Channing's words, but it was too surprising that Rodney and Celia were framed by Kelsey. She couldn't think about it in a short time. "Let me think about it!"

Channing had just left. Amber sat by the bed in a daze after coaxing Mel to sleep. Was it Kelsey who plotted against Celia and Rodney? And it was the night before he left.

That night, Rodney did not return. She had once called Rodney. It was Rachel who answered the call and said that Rodney was sleeping at home.

The next morning, she went to the hospital to check if she was pregnant. After leaving the hospital, she received a call from Kelsey and told her very arrogantly that she and Rodney were together last night.

At that time, her heart was full of joy and excitement after she was pregnant. She did not care about Kelsey's provocation. Now that she thought about it, it was really strange. Since Kelsey had plotted against Celia and Rodney, why did she lie to her?

"Wait!" She suddenly remembered something. At that time, in the hospital garden, she heard Celia and Shannon talking about checking her body. At that time, Celia seemed to be in her period. Since her period was here, how could she have s*x with Rodney?

There was something strange about this. Was Kelsey lying or was Celia lying?

Channing had just said goodbye to Amber and was ready to go back to the municipal government, but he didn't expect to receive a call from Shannon on the way. "Mr. Black, come back quickly. Something big has happened!"

"What's the big deal?" Channing was impatient.

"Celia... Celia, she... she's pregnant!" Shannon said hesitantly.

Channing suddenly sat up straight and looked at Clem, who was driving. “Go home immediately!”

As soon as Channing returned home, Shannon was walking back and forth in the living room. Celia was crying on the sofa with her hands covering her face. Channing strode in and saw Channing and Shannon coming over. “What should we do now?”

“Go to the hospital immediately!” Channing ordered briefly.

She was going to the hospital to get rid of the baby without giving any chance to explain. Shannon and Celia felt cold in their hearts. Celia continued to cover her face and cry, while Shannon said with a bitter face, “I took Celia to the hospital when I found out.”

“So the child has been made?” Channing had just let out a sigh of relief.

“No.”

“Why don’t you do it?” Channing’s face suddenly darkened.

“Celia’s body is not allowed!” Shannon handed a check-up list to Channing. “The doctor said that Celia is in poor health. If she gives birth to this child, she will never have another child in her life, so...”

Channing did not look at the check-up list handed over by Shannon. His cold eyes swept over Shannon and Celia’s faces. He knew his daughter’s feelings for Rodney very well. Now that she was pregnant with Rodney’s child, she must have tried her best to stay. This so-called poor girl would not have a child for the rest of her life. It was probably that they had come up with a perfunctory excuse.

Channing sneered in his heart. Although his hands and hands were full of flesh and blood, compared with Amber, Celia and he owed Amber the most. He was the one who caused Amber’s current situation. He would never allow such a thing to happen again.

Channing tried his best to make his voice sound normal. “Celia, don’t cry. I’ll take you to have a check.”

It seemed that she was concerned, but Shannon knew very well that Channing didn’t believe that there was something wrong with Celia’s health.

She reached out to pull Celia up. "Don't cry. I know a lot of people. Let's follow me for a check-up. Maybe it's a mistake."

Her words were very loud and clear. Channing smiled meaningfully and took the lead in striding out. Shannon supported Celia and followed her closely. They got into the car. Channing just ordered Clem, "Go to the nearby City C."

Shannon didn't expect that Channing was so heavily guarded. He didn't check Celia's body in the South City. Instead, he would rather run to the nearby City C. City C was hundreds of kilometers away from the South City. No matter how long he was, he couldn't reach there. It seemed that Channing didn't trust her anymore. Shannon was worried. Fortunately, there was something wrong with Celia's health. Otherwise, she would be sad.

How could Channing, who had been an official for many years, not know what Shannon was thinking? He said lightly, "There are too many people in South City, so it's inevitable that it will be exposed. No one in C City will know us."

She was explaining why she had to stay away from him. When Channing was about to put on an act, Shannon followed suit. She pretended to be flustered and said, "I didn't think too much. This morning, I found something wrong with Celia, so I took her to the hospital for an examination. What should we do? Won't we be found out?"

"I don't think so!" Channing didn't want to talk about this topic anymore, so he took out his mobile phone and began to make a phone call. The phone was quickly connected, and a smiling voice sounded. "Mr. Secretary, why do you have time to call our civilians?"

"I have something to ask of you, don't I?" There was a smile on Channing's face.

"If you have something to tell me, just tell me. If you want to ask me for help, I'll take it as an outsider!"

"Then I won't stand on ceremony. I want to ask my old classmate for help with an abortion."

"A human flow?" The other party was shocked. "Who's pregnant?"

“It’s a little embarrassing. I won’t hide it from my old classmate. My daughter is pregnant, but there are some unspeakable secrets. I can’t keep this child, so I came to ask my old classmate for help.”

“No problem. I’ll wait for you in the hospital.” The other party was very straightforward.

A few hours later, the car stopped at the gate of a large hospital in City C. Channing and Shannon entered the hospital together. After Channing entered the hospital, he took Celia to the orthopedics department. His old classmate, Chen Ning, was the director of the department. Seeing him coming, he directly took Celia to the examination room. After a check-up, he looked serious and asked Channing, “She had human traffic before, and then there was some problem with the operation, which had an impact on her body.”

“What kind of influence?”

“Let me tell you this. Normally, she can’t be pregnant in this situation. It’s really a miracle that she can be pregnant this time. If she is pregnant with this child, she may not be able to have a baby for the rest of her life.”

Channing didn’t expect that what Shannon said was true. He was stunned for a moment.

“And I want to tell you that the baby in her belly has just been revealed by the blood test. It’s twins.”

Channing didn’t care about whether it was a twin or not. What he was worried about now was the sequelae. If Celia couldn’t give birth in this life, it would be too cruel for her to give birth to this child. If she didn’t do it, it would inevitably affect Amber and Rodney. What should she do?

Shannon gently pinched Celia with her hand. Celia didn’t respond and looked at her mother blankly. Shannon exerted her strength, and her voice carried a hint of crying. “What should I do? Celia, my poor child!”

Celia understood and knelt down in front of Channing. “Dad, I beg you to let me keep this child! If I kill him, I will never have a child in my life!”

“Celia, it’s not that Dad doesn’t want you to keep this child, but this child... Hey!” If it was another man’s child, Channing would have asked Celia to stay. However, this child belonged to Rodney. He had just gone to find Amber to let her reconcile with him. Now that such a thing had happened, how could he face Amber?

Shannon reached out and wiped her tears. “Child, this is your life. Just accept it!”

“Dad, it’s cruel for a woman not to have children. I was framed. It’s not my fault. You can’t do this to me!”

Celia was not pretending at this time. If Channing really wanted her to have a miscarriage, then her whole life would be over. Rodney would not have anything to do with her, and she would not have a child. It was easy to imagine the days in the future.

“Dad, I know you are afraid that I will disturb my sister and brother-in-law. I swear! I will not disturb them. I will go far away. Don’t you want me to go abroad? I will leave right away. I will never stay here!”

Channing looked at his daughter, who was kneeling on the ground and crying. He also felt uncomfortable. He reached out to help Celia up and said, “Get up. Let’s talk about this when we get back.”

This was a concession. Shannon and Celia felt relieved. Shannon reached out to help Celia up, and the whole family returned to South City. On the way back, Channing had been closing his eyes and resting, without saying a word.

Shannon and Celia didn’t say anything, but the mother and daughter finally calmed down. As the saying goes, tigers never eat their children. Channing’s soft heart was expected, and they won in the end.

A few hours later, they returned to the South City. The car stopped outside the villa. As soon as Channing opened the door and got out of the car, Shannon and her daughter followed him in.

As soon as Channing entered the house, he went straight into the study and motioned for Shannon and her daughter to follow him in. He closed the door and said, “I just thought about it in the car. Since this matter has already happened, I should actively find a way to deal with it. Now Amber and Rodney still don’t know about it. In order to prevent things from expanding and for everyone's good, Celia, you go abroad immediately. You can give birth to your child abroad. Don't come back if there is nothing in the future."

"I'll listen to Dad." Celia looked well-behaved. As long as Channing agreed to let her give birth to a child, it would be a victory for her. As for never coming back, was it possible? Not to mention that she would never go abroad, even if she went abroad and didn't come back, now the country was so developed, how could she leak the news of pregnancy to Amber?

With her around as a time bomb, Amber and Rodney wouldn't be able to get married again.

Celia thought so, but Channing just spoke again. "I haven't finished my words yet. I agree to let you give birth to this child only because of your body. There is no other reason. Don't have any bad ideas. You think giving birth to this child is an opportunity. I'll put the ugly thing in front of you first. You can't imagine Rodney!"

"Dad, don't worry. I don't have any feelings for him anymore," Celia promised.

"It's best if you don't have any thoughts. I have to warn you that you must keep the fact that Celia is pregnant a secret for me. If I know that you deliberately leaked the news to Amber, I will never be polite!"

The mother and daughter hurriedly promised that they would never reveal anything. Aunt Maleah put the food on the table and invited them to eat. Channing and Shannon were hungry. The three of them ate silently, while Aunt Maleah waited on them.

After dinner, Channing just entered the study, and Aunt Maleah was busy tidying up. Celia said that she was tired and went upstairs to rest. Shannon brought tea to Channing and went to her daughter's room.

"Mom, what should we do now?" Celia lowered her voice and asked.

"The most important thing now is to reveal the news of your pregnancy to Amber."

"I know, but with my father's attitude now, if we reveal the news of my pregnancy at this time, he will definitely think that we did it. What should we do?"

“Isn’t there a ready-made one at home?” Shannon sneered.

“Are you talking about Aunt Maleah?”

“Yes, she is very kind to that little b*tch. You deliberately vomited in front of her, and she will definitely think of this. At that time, she will help us to leak the news to Amber.”

Celia nodded. “Good idea!”

The mother and daughter were here to discuss how to let Aunt Maleah tell Amber about it. Channing had also called Aunt Maleah into the study and told her about Celia’s pregnancy. “You have to keep it a secret. You can’t tell Amber about it. If you tell him, she will definitely not forgive Rodney.”

Aunt Maleah nodded. “I see. I won’t tell Amber.”

Shannon robbed the man of Ashley with Celia, and now her daughter had ruined Amber’s child. How could she bear it? Aunt Maleah really wanted to kill the child in Celia’s belly.

However, Channing had just said that the child could not be moved, because there was something wrong with Celia’s body. If she got the child, she would never have a child in her life. Aunt Maleah was vicious and thought that it would be good if the child was gone and she would be rewarded.

There was no light in the room. Rodney stood by the window and looked out quietly. Rachel’s shrill voice came from downstairs. It should be Riya who had made her angry again. Her mother’s temper had always been bad. She could deal with a little thing. Ordinary people could not bear it at all.

Rodney remembered that the nanny at home used to change frequently until Riya went to their house to be a nanny.

Riya had a good temper and was willing to do whatever she wanted. No matter how hard her mother tried, she could bear it. He also cared about Riya and gave her an unusually high salary. In this way, Riya had never left because of her mother’s blame.

The scolding downstairs was getting louder and louder, and it seemed that the more she acted, the more violent she became. Rodney frowned and wondered what his mother was going to do.

It seemed that recently, she had been more dissatisfied with Riya than before. Rodney didn't want to interfere, but he finally couldn't stand it and opened the door and went out.

Looking down from the second floor, he saw that Rachel was sitting in a wheelchair and scolding Riya in excitement. Riya had her back to her mother. She lowered her head, took a towel, and knelt on the ground to wipe the floor without saying a word. Rodney stood upstairs and was about to persuade her, but he swallowed his words when he saw the resentment on Riya's face.

He never dreamed that Riya, who usually kept silent and only endured humiliation, would show such an expression. He coughed softly. As he coughed, the resentment on Riya's face suddenly disappeared and was replaced by her usual docile and humble look. Rodney even suspected that there was something wrong with his eyes just now.

He came up with an idea and went downstairs. "Mom, what are you doing?"

"I asked her to cook sugar-coated bird's nest for me. She put so much sugar in it. Does she want me to die of sweetness?" Rachel was very angry.

"This is a small matter. Is it really worth it?" Mu Rodney frowned.

"It's not a big deal. She has been in our house for more than nine years. She has been a person for nine years. She can't even grasp the taste of a master. It proves that she doesn't work hard at all. Shouldn't you say it?"

The number made Rodney frown more tightly. He and Amber met and got married nine years ago. Thinking about it, he knew that Riya was indeed the nanny who came to their house after he and Amber got married. Seeing his mother continue to scold Riya, Rodney signaled Riya to leave and stop listening to her mother's nagging. He pushed his mother to the event room.

After closing the door, Rodney said with blame, "Mom, there's always something wrong with a horse. You don't have to make such a fuss once in a while. Think about what others have done for you. Not everyone is willing to work hard for you."

"What are you talking about? I didn't give her any salary. Think about it. Which nanny's salary would be so high? She spent at least a few million dollars in our house for nine years."

“So we should cherish it. She has saved so much money in the past few years. She doesn’t need to work so hard at all. Instead, she can use this money to do a small business and enjoy her old age.”

Rodney continued to persuade her. “She stayed at our house to prove that she has feelings for us. Mom, we are human beings. Even if a dog was raised for nine years, it would still be reluctant, let alone a human being. You can’t treat him like this.”

“Do you think she really wants to stay in our house?” Rachel snorted. “Let me tell you, her staying in our house has nothing to do with feelings. It really has something to do with money.”

“I can’t work for nothing. It’s natural to make money by labor.”

“I didn’t want to expose her scandal. Since you’re so protective of her, I’ll show you who she is.”

Rachel was also angry. “Let me tell you, this Riya is not a good person at all. She actually keeps a toy boy outside. Do you know who the man she keeps is? I have seen Channing’s driver. He is dozens of years younger than her. You say, this old man is not shy. If he wants to find a man of similar age, why should he find such a young man? He can be a mother...”

“She’s just a nanny for our family, not a slave. We can’t meddle in other people’s private affairs.” Rodney interrupted Rachel.

That day, he saw in the pharmacy that Channing’s driver and Riya felt that something was wrong, so he asked Deon to check it out. There was no result yet, but he didn’t expect that his mother would say that Riya and Channing’s driver had such a relationship.

“We have to choose a person with a good moral quality to choose employees. Why would I want such an immoral thing to be an eyesore in our house?” Rachel asked.

Hearing this, Rodney sneered. “Mom is right. Since you hate people with loose morals, why do you have to marry the daughter of a mistress?”

Rachel was rendered speechless by his question. Rodney continued to ask, “Don’t you hate moralists the most? But your best friend, Itzel, is an honest mistress. You should think about yourself when you talk about people.”

Rachel became angry from embarrassment. “The reason why Itzel and I are good friends is not because of this. We are grateful for our kindness. In the past, Itzel treated me well, so I naturally should treat her well. As for Celia, she is kind. She has never done anything against morality. Although she is the mother of a mistress, Celia doesn’t want to. You can’t blame her for this.”

No wonder it was unreasonable to say that he liked one person and hated one person. Rachel’s protection of Celia was within Rodney’s expectation. He had never thought about changing his mother’s opinion of Celia in a short time.

At this moment, he didn’t want to expose his purpose too early. Celia was so pretentious that she even deceived him, let alone his mother. He would slowly tear off her disguise so that his mother could see it clearly.

After persuading his mother to go back to her room to sleep, Rodney also went back to his room. After taking a shower, Deon called him and said, “Mr. Barron, Channing just took Celia and her daughter to the hospital in City C today.”

“Going so far to the hospital?”

“Yes, after I got someone to follow him, I only knew that Channing had just found his old classmate, Chin. Because only a few of them were in touch in private, I was not sure what they were going to do. However, this Chen Ning is a famous see-through expert in City C.”

“Is that so?” Rodney’s mind was racing. At this time, what was Channing going to do with his wife and daughter to look for the see-through experts?

“Does Channing know that Celia colluded with her mother Itzel to plot against me? No, I have to talk to Channing and tell him that I have nothing to do with Celia.”

After thinking about it, Deon added, “I asked someone to investigate Riya and Clem and found that they were very abnormal. It seemed to be that kind of relationship.”

Rodney nodded. “I’ve just heard about it. Let’s put this matter aside for now. Just keep an eye on Celia.”

The next morning, Celia deliberately retched in front of Aunt Maleah to let her know that she was pregnant, but Aunt Maleah didn't even look at her. During the meal, Celia covered her mouth and went into the bathroom.

After going back and forth for three times, Aunt Maleah finally said, "Miss, you don't have to pretend to be pregnant at home. You have to pretend to be pregnant outside. It's not a good thing to let others know that you are pregnant."

She knew that she was pregnant. Celia and her daughter were petrified.

Aunt Maleah continued, "The secretary said that you'd better not go out in this situation, so as not to cause any trouble. After he has finished your study abroad, he asked me to accompany you to go abroad to have a baby. So it's better not to go out during this period of time."

Celia hated her so much. Aunt Maleah wouldn't leak the news to Amber at all. What should she do?

"Let Itzel reveal it? No, my father is very suspicious of them now. He can't let Itzel reveal this kind of thing at all. Channing has just made it very clear. If Amber knows about it, he won't be soft-hearted."

This matter had come to this point. With Channing's ruthlessness, he would definitely get rid of her child without hesitation if he was angered. Was he really going to have a baby abroad as Aunt Maleah had said? Was he going to do the same thing as his mother had done when she gave birth to the child?

Her mother's situation at that time was completely different from what she was now. Channing had just become an official. He was most afraid that this kind of behavior would affect his career, so he was forced to marry his mother. However, Rodney was different. He was a businessman, so he didn't care about his style or style. It was completely impossible for her to fight back like her mother. The only thing she could do now was let Amber give up completely on Rodney.

At the thought of this, Celia was filled with hatred. If Breanna hadn't told Rodney about Amber's child, it would have been impossible for Amber and Rodney to be together.

When she thought of Breanna, she thought of the business card Breanna gave her. Why not use Breanna to let Amber know that she was pregnant?

Celia called Breanna and told her about her pregnancy. Breanna was very happy when she heard that. She couldn't think of a way to deal with Amber. Now this matter could be used to attack Amber.

Rodney went to see Channing. Channing was, after all, a secretary and Amber's father. Therefore, Rodney gave Channing some face and did not directly say that Celia and her mother had worked together to do dirty things. Instead, he gently expressed his meaning.

"I want to make it clear to you that except for Amber, I have no interest in Celia. I agreed to the engagement in the past because she would not have a child. Now, Mel is sick. All I care about now is Amber and Mel. I don't want to have any more problems. Please help me keep an eye on Miss Herrera. I don't want her to appear in my house again and have anything to do with my mother."

Channing's old face was a little hot. He naturally knew that Rodney had given him face, so he did not mention that Celia had slept with him.

He did not believe Celia's one-sided words about the relationship between Celia and Rodney. Kelsey had schemed against him because she thought that Celia was unreasonable, so she had to find a way to make her go abroad and cut her off.

Now that Rodney had asked him to deal with Channing so straightforwardly, he also knew that Rodney hated him to the extreme. It was really pathetic for a woman not to know that she was hated by a man.

He hated both Celia and Shannon for not being able to teach the girl properly, so he said, "I'll handle it. I'm going abroad now. I'll send her out of the country soon. She won't bother you in the future."

Rodney had no objection to Channing's way of dealing with the matter. Only Celia knew what had happened that night. Thinking of what Deon had said about Channing and Celia going to the hospital, Rodney couldn't help but ask his own question. "I heard that you went to the hospital in City C yesterday. Is there anything wrong?"

Channing just wanted to hide the fact that Celia was pregnant, but when he saw that Rodney began to pay attention to her, he smiled bitterly and said, "Celia is pregnant."

"What did you say?" Rodney suddenly jumped up and found that he had lost his composure. He sat down again. "How are you going to deal with this matter?"

"I was going to let her have this baby, but Celia's body doesn't allow it. The doctor said that if she had an operation, she might not be pregnant for the rest of her life."

"What do you mean? Are you going to let her give birth to the baby?"

"I'm sorry! I don't want to do this either. But if I don't let her give birth to the baby, she will never have a baby again in this life. I really can't bear it."

"No! I can't give birth to this child!" Rodney refused firmly. "I've never intended to have another woman give birth to a child for me. I used to have it, but now it's the same. I won't let this child give birth to it!"

"But Celia is too pitiful." Channing had just pleaded. "Rodney, let her give birth to the baby. I will send her abroad and make sure she doesn't come back for the rest of her life."

"She is a human being, not a cat or a dog. Mr. Black, do you think you can wipe out everything by sending her abroad?" Rodney sneered. "If she brings the child back, how will I face it in the future?"

"But the doctor said that Celia became like this because of the miscarriage that year..."

Rodney interrupted Channing rudely. "In the end, you are the ones who have wronged her. It has nothing to do with me. I have made up for her with so much money over the years. If she wants to be a person with a conscience, she should know how to stop and not continue to pester her shamelessly. Let me tell you, this child was obtained by Celia by illegal means. Her purpose is to get the position by relying on this child! I will never sympathize with such a shameless and shameless person! Mr. Black, I tell you very clearly that I will not accept this child. Celia will not give birth to this child. It has nothing to do with me. Now there are only two choices. One is that you let her have this child, and the other is that I will use all means to let her have this child!"

Seeing that Rodney's attitude was tough and there was nothing Channing could do, he knew in his heart that Rodney was worried. However, after all, Celia was his daughter. No matter how cruel he was, he would not let his daughter have no one to rely on in her next life. This Rodney was too heartless.

The two parted unhappily when they met this time. Channing was angry in his heart, and Rodney was also angry in his heart. When he thought that he had been rd by Celia for no reason and let her have a baby, he was f*cking wronged.

Before that, he still had an illusion that he would start over with Amber. However, after such a scene, he clearly realized that it was impossible for him and Amber to be together anymore.

He was very depressed. Celia wanted to give birth to the baby, in her dreams. No matter what, he would make her lose the baby.

Rodney was depressed. Breanna came to look for Amber. "Amber, you're so pitiful. You're so loyal to him that you helped him raise his child and save his son, but he's secretly in danger with your sister."

"Ms. Hammond, you're wrong. I saved my son and had nothing to do with Rodney. It's just that my mother is doing what I can do. As for Rodney, he and I are already divorced. It's only right and proper for him to be with another woman. There's no secret plan like you said."

"You are really generous, but I don't think your generosity is sincere. I don't believe that you are not sad at all." Breanna sneered. "Let me tell you again, your sister is pregnant."

Amber was stunned for a moment. "Didn't Rodney say that Celia wouldn't have a baby? What's wrong with this child?"

Seeing that she was in a daze, Breanna knew that she had hit the nail on the head. She smiled even more evilly and said, "I heard that she is pregnant with twins. You said that if she gave two sons to Rodney, your child would be worthless. As the mother of your child, shouldn't you think of a way to let your child get what he deserved?"

"It's none of your business, Ms. Hammond. My child is a priceless treasure in my heart. As for the right and influence you mentioned, it's something that can only be considered by an incompetent worm. My child has hands and feet, and he has the ability to create his own beautiful life.”

“Just pretend. I don’t believe that you really regard money as dirt. If you were really like this, you wouldn’t have been entangled with my brother and Elliot all the time. Instead, you would have found a poor man to marry.”

“That’s just Ms. Hammond’s wishful thinking. It’s good that I know what the truth is. I don’t need anyone to understand it. We’re not fools. You came here today just to see how sad I am. Are you satisfied with my current situation?” Amber looked at Breanna with a mocking smile.

Breanna’s mind was exposed, and her face suddenly turned red. “Amber, I’m only here to tell you because I feel sorry for you. Don’t treat it like a donkey’s heart!”

“Then I’m really sorry. I really treat Ms. Hammond’s good intentions as ill intentions!” Amber sneered. “I still have things to attend to, Ms. Hammond. Please excuse me!”

Breanna left angrily with a red face. When she met Rodney at the door, he felt uncomfortable as he looked at Breanna. “Ms. Hammond, why are you so diligent? What are you up to?”

“This is my fiance’s villa. It’s none of your business if I want to come and go.” Breanna was full of anger.

“Of course, it’s none of my business if you come to your fiance’s villa. But I want to warn you that my wife and children live in this villa. Don’t have any designs on them. If you annoy me, I’ll be rude to you!”

“What wife? She’s just a ex-wife. Do you think I’m afraid of you?” Breanna retorted.

“I know Ms. Hammond is not afraid, but I want to make a bet with Ms. Hammond. Do you believe that I will ask someone to strip you nd and throw you on the street to make the headlines tomorrow?”

Breanna looked at Rodney’s gloomy face and did not dare to retort. This was South City, Rodney’s territory. The consequences of provoking him would not be too good.

Seeing Rodney, Amber controlled the disgust in her heart and tried to talk to him calmly. "Mel hasn't slept for long. If you want to see him, go in and have a look. Leave when he wakes up, in case he sees you unhappy."

Rodney shook his head. "Amber, I'm not here to see Mel. I have something to say to you."

Amber nodded. He invited Rodney to sit on the sofa and pour him a glass of water. He lowered his head and did not dare to look at her.

After he broke up with Channing, he was both angry and desperate. He was angry because Celia was too shameless. Despair was impossible for him and Amber to live in this life. In the past, he had been waiting in the same place because he did not cheat. He thought that he had a reason to let Amber forgive him. But now, he had no reason to let Amber forgive him.

It took Rodney a long time to gather up his courage to come here. He wanted to tell Amber everything. "Amber, Celia is pregnant."

Rodney told Amber everything that had happened. He didn't hide anything. He didn't know what kind of punishment he would face. He didn't expect Amber to forgive him. He only hoped that Amber wouldn't stop him from seeing the child.

"Do you mean that she worked with Kelsey to drug you and then waited for an opportunity to get pregnant?"

Amber looked at Rodney in shock. She had never thought that he would tell her about this matter. In her opinion, he would try his best to hide it from her instead of telling her now.

Rodney nodded. "I can't remember what happened that night at all, so only Celia knows the real reason. I guess she must have used some means to get pregnant when I was in a coma."

Amber felt uncomfortable when he thought that Celia had entered such a shameless place to do such a thing to Rodney.

Rodney had nothing to do with her anymore. It was natural for him to be with another woman. She shook her head and tried her best to drive away the discomfort in her heart. "Don't you know? He must have forced you when you were in a coma..."

After saying this, she suddenly stopped. She remembered that the next morning, she heard Celia and Shannon talking about the period check-up in the hospital. Celia was pregnant, so how could she have s*x with Rodney?

Even if she was hungry and had s*x with Rodney, the possibility of pregnancy during her period should not be so big, right?

Seeing that Rodney was so annoyed that he didn't dare to look up at Amber, Amber felt a burst of sympathy in his heart. "Rodney, I have something to tell you. Celia was on an occasion that night. I don't think she has anything to do with you."

"How did you know?" Rodney couldn't believe that such an accident would suddenly occur.

"That day, I happened to hear the conversation between her and her mother when I was checking on her pregnancy in the hospital. They seemed to be doing some kind of examination. It just so happened that they needed to be on leave for a physical examination," Amber explained.

"She was doing a man-made physical examination." After Rodney said that, he was stunned. Celia was on leave at that time, so she shouldn't have done that kind of thing with him. Then could it be that Celia's child was done by the man-made technology? Did she just steal her own sm that night? This matter had to be investigated.

"What are you going to do now?" Amber asked, frowning. She had already divorced him, so it was a little strange for him to tell her about this.

"I'm going to let her have s*x with this child!" Rodney replied.

"Rodney, don't act on impulse. That's your child, and your mother likes Celia so much. Since you're pregnant, you can get married. I can rest assured," Amber said sincerely.

It was no wonder that it was a blessing in disguise. Although it was not comfortable for her to have a child with Rodney and Celia, it had already happened and there was no need to be passive. On the contrary, as long as Rodney had his own child, he and his mother would not compete with him for the child, so it was relatively good.

Rodney suddenly became excited. “Amber, except for Mel and the child in your belly, I won’t want any other woman to give birth to a child for me. I won’t keep Celia’s child.”

“Rodney, it’s your business whether you stay or not. It’s meaningless to tell me.” Amber sighed. “I just want to take good care of my child now. I don’t want to care about other things, and I don’t have the energy to care about them.”

“I know. I’m here to tell you that I don’t want you to be upset. Since Celia has done such a shameless thing, she will definitely come to disturb you. I’m afraid that she will come to disturb you and add to your troubles.” Rodney sighed deeply.

“Amber, in the past, I wanted to get your understanding and be with you again. But after experiencing such a thing, I knew that it was impossible between us. I will no longer fantasize about starting over with you. I just hope that you will not stop me from seeing my child because of this in the future.”

“You don’t have to worry about that. As long as the child is willing to recognize you, I will never stop him!”

In the evening, when Noemi and Ashton came back, Amber told them that Celia had plotted against Rodney’s pregnancy. Noemi was very angry when she heard that. “I’ve never heard of such a shameless person in this world.”

“Sure enough, like mother, like daughter. Shannon used to plot against your mother in the same way. Now her special skills have also been passed on to her daughter.” Ashton was also very angry.

“Yes, I’m angry when I think of this. Shannon robbed your mother’s man, and now the little bh came to rob your man. Damn it, we are easy to bully.” Hearing Ashton’s words, Noemi couldn’t help but swear.

“Pay attention to your image!” Amber smiled, and Noemi stuck out her tongue. “I’m too angry.”

Ashton sighed. "This time, Rodney stepped on shit. With such a mother and such a disgusting woman, he wouldn't be able to get rid of her no matter how hard he tried. In fact, I think this time, Rodney is a man. If I encountered such a thing, I wouldn't have the courage to say it out loud."

"Yes, Rodney is really pitiful. He is actually very innocent." Noemi originally had no sympathy for Rodney, but this time she stood on Rodney's side for the first time. "But Rodney's mother should be very happy. She used to like the little b*tch so much, but now when she heard that the little b*tch was pregnant, was she not happy?"

"Maybe, but Rodney said that he wanted to get rid of this child." Amber told them what Rodney had said to him today.

"If it were me, I would have killed the baby. Who would like such a calculated child?" Noemi nodded. "I admire Rodney very much this time. I hope he can get rid of the baby in the little b*tch's belly immediately and let the little b*tch cry at that time."

"How could it be so easy to deal with it?" Amber shook his head. "Rachel will definitely stop it."

"That's right. With Rachel around, it won't be easy for Rodney to get rid of Celia's child." Noemi was a little frustrated. "Is he such a cheap b*tch?"

"What else can I do?"

"I feel uncomfortable. Why should I let the little b*tch succeed? They have been very happy these years. If I can't do it, I must find a way to let them know the pain." Noemi's eyes suddenly lit up.

"Amber, that little b*tch doesn't want to marry Rodney, does she? Why don't we play with her? If you marry him again, that little b*tch will get nothing."

"What a bad idea!" Amber glared at her.

"What I believe in my life is that if you don't offend me, I won't offend you. If I were you, I would definitely reconcile with Rodney. The conditions for that are to let Rodney give all his assets to Mel and the child in your belly. In this way, even if that b*tch gives birth to the child under the protection of Rachel, she will have nothing in the future. That b*tch schemed against Rodney for the sake of the property. How bad would it be for her?"

The more Noemi said, the happier she became. She saw Amber and Ashton staring at her, so she had to stop talking. "Forget it. Don't think about it. I'm just addicted to talking."

The next day, Noemi told Elliot about Celia's pregnancy. Elliot was also very surprised. "Such a shameless person is really rare in the world!"

"Yes, the mother and daughter are really using their shamelessness to the extreme. It's not worth it to think about it for Amber." Noemi echoed, "We have to find a way to get revenge."

"Isn't Rodney going to kill the child? This is the best way to get revenge." Elliot sneered. "It's so painful to kill a person's hope in an instant."

"Rachel won't agree." Noemi sighed.

"If Rodney is determined to do this, Rachel won't be able to stop him."

"You're right." Noemi nodded. "By the way, what happened to Shannon?"

"I went to check and found that the beauty salon was opened by a man named Wendy. Wendy and Shannon went out of the cat's alley and didn't find anything abnormal. Moreover, Shannon has never been there recently."

"How could this be?" Noemi sighed in disappointment. "I thought I could find the evidence of the old bh and kill her, but I didn't expect that there was no progress."

"It's not like there's no progress. As long as we keep an eye on her, we'll definitely get hold of her, so you don't have to worry too much."

After breaking up with Elliot, Noemi went back to the TV station. When she got off work, she was unexpectedly stopped by Breanna at the gate of the TV station. "You are Noemi, right? I have something to talk to you about."

"What's the matter?" Noemi naturally knew Elliot.

"Miss Herrera, do you think it's appropriate to stand here and talk about it?" Breanna looked down on Noemi. Recently, she heard that Elliot had met Noemi several times, and she began to feel uncomfortable.

Although Noemi was not as beautiful as Amber, she was also a beauty. Could it be that she had an affair with Elliot? She had to teach Noemi a lesson.

According to Breanna's opinion, Noemi was just a small director of the TV station. When she saw her, she would definitely feel guilty. At that time, she would definitely be defeated if she continued to suppress her.

Unexpectedly, she was wrong. Noemi didn't take her seriously at all. "It's not something shameful. What can't I say here? I'm very busy. Ms. Hammond has something to say. I have to go home if there's nothing."

Seeing that Noemi didn't give her any face, Breanna couldn't help asking, "Miss Herrera, I heard that you live in my fiance's villa?"

"That's right. Ms. Hammond should have known about this earlier, right?"

"Do you think it's nice to live in my fiance's villa?"

"What's wrong?" Noemi asked, "I don't live alone, and it's your fiance who invited me. If you're not satisfied, you can ask him. What's the point of looking for me?"

"Ziren is handsome and rich. Many women want to hook up with him in their dreams. Elliot has been playing with women since he was a child. He just wants to have fun with women. The Thomson family is not an ordinary family. Not many cats and dogs can build ties with him. I hope that Miss Herrera knows her limits."

"You also know how handsome Elliot is, don't you? It's normal for such a man and other women to have ideas?" Noemi smiled faintly at Breanna. "To tell you the truth, I like Elliot very much. I just like him, and I don't have any other ideas. Since you said so, I have to give it a try."

"You..." Breanna didn't expect that Noemi and Amber didn't play the same trick. After a brief moment of surprise, she immediately adjusted herself. "You know Elliot likes Amber, don't you? You are Amber's friend..."

"Do you want to tell Amber that I like Elliot?" Noemi interrupted her. "Let me tell you, the friendship between me and Amber is not something that can be made up with a few words. If you don't believe me, give it a try."

After saying that, Noemi left in high heels. She got in the car and started the car. In the rearview mirror, she saw Breanna standing still and looking at her. Noemi snorted in her heart. "What a rich girl. She is a good-for-nothing. It's Amber who doesn't fight with others. It's her bad luck to meet her."

She started the car and left while humming a song. On the way, she thought for a while and called Elliot. "Your fiancée just stopped me at the door of the TV station. She told me not to miss you."

"Really?" Elliot laughed. Breanna went to find Noemi. According to Noemi's temper, she would definitely not give her good results. He was very interested in how Noemi dealt with Breanna. "How did you deal with her?"

"What are you talking about? I was so scared by her that I burst into tears. I'll call you and report it to you right away."

"Humph! Are you the kind of person who is scared out of his wits?"

"Haha, you don't believe me. In fact, I don't believe that I will be scared to cry. I told her that I like you to be rich and handsome. She was so angry that she was in a daze. Maybe she was scared by my toughness."

Hanging up the phone, Elliot frowned. This Breanna was a dog that couldn't be changed. It seemed that he couldn't let her mess up here. He had to let her go back.

After thinking for a while, he called Pierce and told him that Breanna was here. He asked Pierce to find a way to get Breanna back.

Hearing this, Pierce was also very angry and immediately told the old lady. The old lady was very angry. She knew that her granddaughter was worried, but she didn't expect her to be so worried. She immediately called Breanna and asked her to go back quickly.

Breanna did not dare to disobey the old lady's request, so she had to pack up and return to the United States.

After seeing Amber go back, Rodney was confused. He took out the surveillance video of that night to have a look. Celia was wearing a skirt that day. When she helped him up, she didn't bring anything at all. When she came out, she also came out empty-handed. Since that was the case, how could the sm be stolen?

Rodney was afraid that his eyes might have missed something, so he took the surveillance video to the company and looked at the staff of the company's technical department. The staff of the technical department confirmed to Rodney that Celia did come out empty-handed and did not bring anything out.

So how did Celia's child get pregnant? Rodney couldn't figure it out.

However, he was very clear about one thing. It was that the reason why Celia tried her best to build a relationship with him was not because she loved him very much, but because of her hundreds of millions of assets.

Rodney sneered. Celia had made the wrong decision to take his property. He would not give her a penny.

In order to make her give up, he would leave all the property to Mel, Amber, and the baby in Amber's belly. He wanted to see if Celia would still be so eager to become a poor b*stard.

When Rodney said that he would do it, he immediately called a lawyer to hand over the property and gave it to Rachel. This matter was soon known by Rachel. She immediately called Rodney to go home, but he ignored her. During this time, Rachel did not like Riya very much, so she asked the guard to send her to the company.

Seeing that Rodney and Rachel's eyes were red, they began to ask, "What do you want to do by giving all the property under your name to others without my permission?"

"Do I also need your approval to give my child my property?" Rodney asked in reply.

"They're still so young. Even if you give them the property, they won't be able to manage it."

"Aren't I in charge? What are you afraid of when I'm here?"

"That won't do. If that woman Amber does something bad, you won't be able to get a position in the company."

"I don't know if Amber will do something bad, but I know why you're so excited. Don't worry, I didn't do anything to you." Rodney sneered.

“Don’t you think so? I didn’t say that for the sake of my property. My property is yours, isn’t it?”

“I don’t dare to take your property. If I could, I would rather be born in someone else’s house. At least I wouldn’t feel the pain of being schemed against by my own mother.”

“What did I plot against you?” Rachel felt a little guilty. What did her son mean? Did he know something? Thinking about it, Celia should not be so stupid to tell her son that she was pregnant at this time. Thinking of this, she was full of confidence, so she retorted with a bluff.

“Let me ask you, how did Celia’s child get pregnant?” Seeing that his mother was still trying to fool him, Rodney could not hold back his anger.

“You know? Celia is not pregnant with you and her...” Rachel wanted to tell her son about Celia’s pregnancy, but she didn’t expect that her son would know it in advance. In this case, she would pretend not to know and see what her son could do.

“I’m drunk? Do you still want to deny it at this time?” Rodney interrupted Rachel. He was really speechless about his mother now.

“Let me ask you. You and Itzel are sitting in the living room. What are you trying to do by letting Celia enter my room?”

“I...” Rachel knew that she couldn’t deny it. “If you hadn’t listened to me and insisted on getting together with Amber, would I be like this?”

“Is there a mother like you? If my son likes it, he will do everything he can to destroy it. If my son doesn’t like it, he will try his best to come to Stronghold. Are you my mother or not?”

“It’s my fault, but now Celia is pregnant and the whole thing has been done. Don’t complain anymore. Listen to me and get married to Celia as soon as possible!”

“In your dreams!” Rodney sneered. “I’m not afraid to tell you that Celia wants to marry me in vain! I won’t marry such a disgusting woman even if I die. You’d better give up.”

“This has nothing to do with Celia. It’s all my idea.” Rachel put in a good word for Celia. “Celia doesn’t want to either. It was my mother who begged her.”

“You can only lie for a while. You can’t lie for a lifetime. I know better than you what kind of person Celia is. I advise you to clean your eyes and don’t regret it at that time.”

“Son, it’s my fault. I can understand why you are angry with me, but you have to think about Celia. She is pregnant with your child.”

“Child, do you think I’ll let such a disgusting woman give birth to my child?” Rodney asked, “I’ll tell you the child in Celia’s belly, and I’ll find a way to make him disappear.”

“How dare you!” Rachel was anxious. “Whoever dares to lay a finger on my grandson, I’ll fight him to the death!”

“You can try and see if I dare or not!” Rodney did not buy it at all.

Rachel was so angry that she went home in a daze. It seemed that this matter was a little urgent. Her son was angry now, so he might do something extreme. She had to ask Celia to hide first and talk about it after this period of time.

Celia was not idle either. After hearing Breanna say that she had leaked the news to Amber, she waited for Amber and Rodney to make a scene. However, there was no movement at all. Amber’s life was still going on.

On the contrary, Breanna had returned to the United States. Channing had also warned her that she should behave herself and not go out unless there was something wrong. He also said that Rodney might lay a finger on her and get rid of the baby in her belly.

Celia did not expect Rodney’s reaction to be so strong. She had no choice but to turn to Rachel for help. Unexpectedly, Rachel called her at this time, asking her to be careful, just like what Channing had said.

Celia was scared. It was completely beyond her expectation that Rodney would ignore Rachel’s reaction. Without the last protective barrier, she would not be able to escape.

No, Rodney already knew the truth of the matter, and Channing didn't find out who leaked it. She didn't have to worry about Channing punishing her now. Celia decided to see Amber.

Amber took Mel out for a walk. A woman wrapped tightly in sunglasses and hat walked over to them. The woman in front of him suddenly stopped her and called her sister. Only then did Amber realize that she was Celia.

Amber looked at Celia angrily. "Why did Miss Herrera stop me?"

"I have something to talk to you about. Let's talk over there." Celia was sneaky.

"I don't have time." Amber refused directly.

"Sister, I'm pregnant! I beg you to help me! I'm really desperate!" Celia begged in a low voice.

Amber looked at Celia's disgusting look. "What does your pregnancy have to do with me? Did Ms. Black ask the wrong person?"

"I know that you hate me and hate me, but I was also framed this time. It's all because of Kelsey. That woman is too vicious. I originally planned to go to the hospital to have this child, but the doctor said that there was something wrong with my body. If I had a child, I would never have another child in my life." Celia handed a check-up sheet to Amber. "Look, this is the doctor's proof."

Amber didn't take it. He just looked at her coldly. "What does this have to do with me? It's not that I don't want you to have a baby?"

"But Rodney doesn't want me to keep this child. Sister, you should persuade Rodney, right?" Celia wiped her tears. "What I am pregnant with is not a child, but two. They are both Rodney's children. Isn't Mel sick? Maybe she will need them in the future."

"Ms. Black, I'm really surprised that you're such a saint. It's just that I'll find a way to cure my own child's illness. You don't need to worry about it as an outsider."

"Sister, I beg you, please let me give birth to the baby. Don't worry, I will stay far away from you and Rodney. What you are worried about will never happen!" Celia knelt down in front of Amber.

“Ms. Black, don’t put on an act anymore. I’m not a fool. I know very well that a wolf will never keep its word to a sheep. Besides, your relationship with Rodney has nothing to do with me. You’ve really found the wrong person!”

“Amber, how can you be so cruel? No matter what, I have the same blood as you. No matter what, you are the mother of a child. How can you be so cruel?” Celia stood up angrily when she saw that Amber was unwilling to help her.

Amber had long known that she was a wolf with a big tail, but he was still very angry. “Ms. Black, you found the wrong place with sympathy, didn’t you? When you schemed against Rodney, you should have thought of today. I don’t understand. How dare you come to me?”

“Amber, I’m shameless, but you’re not necessarily much better than me. You say that you have something to do with Rodney while hanging him with a child. If it weren’t for you, would I have been separated from Jinyan? And you know better than me how you’re pregnant with the child in your belly.”

Celia didn’t expect Amber to sympathize with her. Now that she saw that Amber didn’t show mercy, she didn’t need to pretend.

“I’m not much better than you. At least, I didn’t covet a married man. Your mother and you are a pair of weirdos. You and your daughter are so disgusting. How many men can you find in this world even if you want to steal a man?” Amber was furious.

Both of them were pregnant. Rodney treated Amber like a treasure and treated her like grass. Although his mother said that she could not touch the child in Amber’s belly, there was no one around. If he pushed Amber to let her have a miscarriage and give birth like he did in the past, what would happen to Rodney?

Celia thought to herself. She immediately glanced at the car behind her out of the corner of her eye. When she saw Clem’s video of her and Amber in the car, she was relieved and immediately attacked Amber viciously.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 179

“Don’t you hate me because of my mother? Amber, you’d better be a little more promising. It’s your short-lived damn mother who doesn’t have the ability to tie up her man. Why are you so persistent to transfer your hatred to me?”

What's more, Rodney is a perfect man. If he is clean, will he be set up by others? Because of a man, you are so cruel that you ignore your brotherhood. Amber, you will be punished." Celia knew what Amber's most vulnerable part was, so she deliberately pointed out his weakness.

Amber was so angry that she couldn't bear it anymore and slapped her in the face. Celia covered her face and didn't fight back. However, she stared fiercely at Amber's belly. She couldn't take the initiative to push Amber now. She must stimulate Amber to do it first. In this way, she could push Amber without anyone noticing, so that she could clear the suspicion.

"Look at your son. He got such a disease at such a young age. It's all because of you, his mother..."

Before she could finish her words, a voice suddenly came out. "Bh, you've grown up. How dare you come here to behave wildly!"

Noemi went home and didn't see Amber. She guessed that Amber brought Mel here for a walk, so she came over. She happened to see Celia attacking Amber. How could she bear it? She pulled Celia and slapped her in the face. Celia was caught off guard and saw stars.

Noemi had just seen clearly that this little b*tch should hide from others because she had done such a shameless thing, but she dared to provoke and scold Amber.

She was so angry that her liver ached. How could she stop after slapping her face? She kicked her leg again and said, "Don't you like to kneel? Kneel down and beg for forgiveness!"

Celia was kicked on the leg and immediately knelt down. Noemi grabbed her hair and slapped her again. Celia covered her belly with her hands and kept cursing Amber and Noemi. Noemi was so angry that she said, "Bh, believe it or not, I will kick you to a miscarriage."

Amber was shocked. Noemi's temper was not ordinary. If she lost her mind in anger and made Celia have a miscarriage, it would be terrible. She hurriedly stopped her. "Noemi, be careful and don't hit her belly."

Noemi was not stupid, so she naturally knew what Amber meant. Celia was the daughter of the secretary. If she had a miscarriage, there would definitely be trouble. So she didn't touch her belly, but just slapped Celia's face hard.

Celia was beaten so hard that she screamed. In the end, she couldn't bear it anymore and began to shout, "Clem, you're dead! Why didn't you come to help me when you saw me being beaten?" As she shouted, a man hurriedly got out of the car and pulled them away.

With the help of Celia, she was confident. She pointed at Noemi and asked Clem to beat her. "Kill this b*tch!"

Amber sneered. "You'd better think about it. If you dare to do something, I'll let you go through the prison!"

Clem was not stupid. Amber was not someone he could mess with. If he dared to make a move today, Elliot, Rodney, and even Channing would kill him.

The key point was that the reason why he came here with Celia today was not to beat people. He lowered his voice and reminded her, "Miss, be careful of your health. Let's go to the hospital to have a look!"

Seeing that Clem didn't dare to fight, Celia naturally knew his concerns. Her face was swollen and burning, but under Clem's reminder, she covered her stomach and cried, "Oh, my belly, take me to the hospital!"

Clem quickly helped Celia into the car and started the car to leave. Noemi spat at them and said, "Bh, you're lucky!"

Celia was sent to the hospital. After a check-up, the doctor said that she had a miscarriage and asked her to rest in bed. After hearing the news, Shannon rushed over. "Do you want to die? Why do you want to find Amber?"

"She didn't do anything. I was trying to provoke her, but I didn't expect that that b*tch Noemi would come out to help." Celia touched her swollen and numb face and said with hatred, "If there is a chance, I will definitely kill that b*tch Noemi."

"Take care of yourself and save the baby in your belly first." Shannon's heart ached when she saw her daughter being beaten like this. "Noemi, I will send someone to deal with her."

"Mom, if you have the ability to deal with it together with Amber, I will save trouble!"

“She can’t move now. She can make trouble, but Noemi has no background and no money. I can kill her like pinching an ant!” Shannon’s face was full of resentment.

“I knew you would say that.” Celia took out her mobile phone and handed it to Shannon. “Would you like to see if there’s anything wrong?”

Shannon opened the video and showed a sinister smile on her face. “Good, you did a good job of playing the victim’s trick, but don’t take such a risk next time. If Amber makes a move on your belly, you will lose more than you gain.”

“I know. I’m afraid that Amber will hurt my belly. I deliberately tied several sponges on my belly.” Celia was quite proud. “When the time comes, I’ll show this video to Dad. I’ll see if he has anything to say after seeing Amber beat me so viciously.”

When Channing heard that Celia had been beaten to the hospital, he also went to the hospital. When he saw that Celia’s face was swollen like a steamed bun, he was shocked. “Who beat her?”

“Amber hit me.” Shannon saw that Channing was beginning to cry and said, “Celia asked for it. I don’t blame her.”

“Amber did it?” Channing was shocked. He was really surprised that Amber hit someone. He looked at Celia suspiciously. “Didn’t I warn you not to look for her?”

“I didn’t go to see her. It was my sister who asked me to meet her.” Celia grimaced and performed the pain to the extreme.

“She already knew that I was pregnant. I didn’t want to see her, but I felt guilty and wanted to explain it to her. I begged her on her knees and let her let me go for the sake of our sisterhood. But my sister didn’t agree. She scolded me for being shameless and her mother. Later, she hit me and asked her friend to hit me. Sob...”

Channing frowned. Although he felt bad for Celia’s bruised nose and swollen face, he still did not believe that Amber would hit her. “Amber is not a unreasonable person. You must have provoked her.”

Celia knew that Channing would protect Amber. Fortunately, she was prepared. She handed the phone to Channing. “Dad, I was afraid that you would suspect my purpose, so I asked the driver to accompany me. I also asked him to record it on the spot. Look at this.”

Channing took the phone and turned on the video. He saw Celia kneeling in front of Amber. She saw Amber slap Celia in the face. Celia didn't fight back. Then Noemi jumped out and punched and kicked Celia. When the video was taken, she deliberately turned off the sound, so he couldn't hear the sound of scolding. He could only see the camera.

Channing frowned. It was normal for Amber to be angry. Previously, he had been worried that he would not dare to talk to Amber about this matter. Now that Amber knew it himself, he decided to go to see Amber and tell her about what had happened to Celia. He begged Amber to forgive him. Celia had the same blood as him. Maybe Amber would be soft-hearted.

Thinking of this, Channing put his mobile phone on the table. “Celia, rest assured. I'll talk to Amber!”

After Channing left, Celia was so angry that she threw her phone on the ground. “Dad is too partial. He didn't even blame that b*tch when he saw that I was beaten like this. I'm so angry!”

Shannon picked up her mobile phone and said, “It's normal for him to protect her, so I told you not to provoke her. You can either defeat her with one move or wait for the right time. Now you're pregnant. As long as Rachel wants the baby in your belly, you won't lose.”

As she spoke, the door of the ward was pushed open. Itzel came. When she saw Celia's bruised face and heard that it was Amber who beat her, she was so angry that she gritted her teeth. “How can this b*tch be so cruel?”

“She has been cruel for a long time. Only now do you know that?” Shannon sneered. “She was so young, but she did such a thing in order to force me and Celia to leave. It's much worse than now. Amber is actually more vicious than everyone else. She either doesn't make a move or is ruthless.”

“A cruel move? I want to see who is cruel!” Itzel left angrily. She had always regarded Celia as her own daughter. Now that she saw her daughter hurt, she felt incomparable pain in her heart. “Amber, wait for me to let you go!”

Celia was recuperating in the hospital with a swollen nose and a swollen face, but Rodney asked Deon to go to the hospital for an investigation again because of suspicion. Before that, Deon did not pay attention to the period when he went to confirm it. Now, after inquiry, it was confirmed that there was indeed one thing that needed to be checked when the period came. The number of times that Celia had s*x with him might be zero.

What Rodney needed to know now was what was the reason for Celia's pregnancy.

If they didn't have any relationship with each other, they would definitely steal the sm and start an artificial operation. However, they couldn't carry out an operation immediately after stealing his sm. In order to save the sm stock, they had to keep the sm. Now the most effective place to keep the sm was definitely a hospital. But that night, Celia got in the car and left after leaving his house. He went to the traffic bureau to investigate Celia's driving route and found that Celia went straight home.

Rodney was worried that Celia had given the stolen sm to Itzel. She had also investigated Itzel and confirmed that Itzel had not been to the hospital.

It was strange. Since they had never been to the hospital to store sm, where did the sm come from?

What surprised them the most was that there was no record of Celia's baby performing a test test at all in the hospital. Could it be that Celia was born from heaven?

Just when Deon went to the hospital again for an investigation, a nurse gave him a clue, saying that she once saw Itzel coming to the operating room of the hospital that night. At that time, she asked why Itzel was here. Itzel replied that she was here to get something, but she didn't pay attention to it at that time.

According to the time, it should be Itzel who had an artificial operation on Celia that night. However, Rodney couldn't figure out where the sm of Celia's pregnancy came from.

Could it be that they were operating on someone else's sm? Rodney was shocked by his own idea. It seemed that he had to carefully check the source of the sm.

When Amber and Noemi returned home, Noemi angrily told Ashton about Celia's behavior today. Ashton was shocked when he heard that. He told

Amber, “Don’t go so far alone in the future. If they have bad intentions, what will you do to deal with you?”

Noemi also agreed. “If I hadn’t gone in time today, I wouldn’t have known what that bh was up to. So you must be careful next time, Amber.”

Amber nodded. “I’ll be careful next time.”

In the evening, Elliot came to have dinner. Noemi told him what had happened today. Elliot laughed and gave Noemi a thumbs-up. “Good job!”

He then turned to Amber and said, “Be careful next time. It seems that they won’t stop harassing you. I’ll hire two bodyguards for you in case something unexpected happens.”

“There is no need to hire bodyguards. I will try not to go out in the future.”

As he spoke, Channing called. He said that he had something to see Amber and was waiting for her in the tea room outside the villa.

“It seems that the b*tch has complained, so the secretary is blaming her.” Noemi guessed.

“So what? I’m going to see what he’s going to do.” Amber went to see Channing in anger.

Seeing Amber coming to Channing, he took out a key from his pocket with a smile and handed it to her. “Dad has something for you.”

“What’s this?” Amber didn’t take it.

“This is the key to the safe of the bank. There are some jewelry and gold bars in the safe. I’ll leave Dad to you today,” Channing replied.

“Why do you want to give this to me?” Amber thought that Channing had just come to question him, but he didn’t expect that he would give him his property. But why did he give it to him at this time? He had come several times before, but why hadn’t he given it to him several times?

“Amber, I have something to ask of you.” Channing did not dare to look at Amber.

“For Celia?” Amber sneered. She just wondered why Channing was so kind.

“You know what’s going on with Celia. There’s something wrong with her body. If she loses her baby, she won’t have a child for the rest of her life. So Dad came to see you and wanted you to...”

“Mr. Black, don’t you think you’re looking for me in the wrong way?” Amber interrupted him. “Celia is pregnant with Rodney’s child. If you want to find him, you should go and find Rodney and Rachel.”

“Rodney is very angry and will definitely kill this child... This is not Celia’s fault, and she is innocent. I don’t want to see her lonely in her next life.”

“So it’s better for you to look for Rodney?”

“Amber, Rodney will listen to you. If you persuade him, he will definitely listen to you.” Channing saw that Amber didn’t buy it at all, so he had to say bluntly, “You and Celia are sisters after all. You can help her this time.”

“Mr. Black, I’ve told you many times. My mother only gave birth to me. Please don’t drag those disgusting things with me. And I have nothing to do with the illegitimate daughter you want to help you, but please don’t bother me!”

Amber got up. Channing was so detestable. He clearly knew that she hated Celia, but he wanted to take advantage of her. It made her disappointed.

“Amber!”

“I used to sympathize with you, but now I really feel sorry for you. Mr. Black, I don’t want to have anything to do with you. I don’t need your so-called property. You’d better leave it to your illegitimate daughter!”

Channing looked at Amber’s determined figure and sighed. Did he do anything wrong? There was nothing he could do about it.

Rodney told Deon to investigate the sm warehouse of the Southern City Hospital. Sure enough, he found traces of Itzel. On the night when the little nurse met her, Itzel did go to the hospital to get the sm, but the sm was not registered in the rogue warehouse of the hospital, but was stored by Itzel.

The Peony Store staff told Deon that the sm was stored here by Itzel four years ago. When Deon reported the news to Rodney, both of them contacted a problem at the same time. Was it the sm that Rodney had given to Rachel? Had Itzel not used it up at that time and chose to keep it and then used it for Celia this time?

If that was the case, it would be a good show.

Rodney felt that he should do his best and remind Celia, so he called Celia. When Celia saw Rodney's call, she didn't dare to answer it for a long time. In the end, she picked it up nervously. Rodney's voice was cold.

"Ms. Black, I advise you to go to the hospital to get rid of the baby in your belly, lest you get into trouble."

Celia was unwilling to listen. "Rodney, there's nothing I can do. I won't have any more children in my life after I give birth to this child. I beg you, let me give birth to this child. I promise I won't disturb you and my sister!"

"Ms. Black, I asked you to abort the baby for your own good. You can not listen to me, but you will bear all the consequences in the future."

Rodney saw that Celia was stubborn and did not want to say anything more. This woman was too disgusting. If she was willing to give birth to this child, then she could do whatever she wanted.

Rodney went to see Amber again and told him everything he had found. Amber was too surprised by what Rodney had said.

If that was the case, Celia would give birth to another man's child. Celia carefully planned that if she knew that the child was the child of another man, she would definitely go crazy.

She had a different feeling for Celia. Suddenly, she remembered what she had said in the Dream of the Red Chamber. The mechanism was too smart. Celia probably belonged to this type.

Rodney asked for a marriage request again. "Amber, let's go get our marriage certificate and give Mel and the child in your belly a complete home."

Amber shook his head. "Now is not the time to talk about this. Mel is about to wake up. You should go!"

Rodney sighed softly. Amber was tactfully rejecting him, and he knew that this was not the time to force her. It was time to do what had always been between them.

He would never let go of those who had stirred up misunderstandings and made him and Amber separate! He would never let go of anyone who had tried so hard to ruin his and Amber's happiness! He would never let anyone off!

Itzel's heart ached when she saw that Celia was beaten black and blue. As the saying goes, a mother and a son are closely related. She regarded Celia as her daughter. She didn't expect that her plan would be seen through by Shannon and she would be caught again. Of course, she didn't know that Celia was not her daughter, but Kelsey, who had been chased by her.

Itzel was a vicious person to begin with. Back then, she could even kill her sister, Ashley, because of her personal gain, let alone Amber, who had taken the initiative to attack Celia. She gritted her teeth in hatred when she left the hospital and thought that she had to take revenge.

Itzel thought about it but could not come up with a good idea to deal with Amber. In the end, she could only think of a way to report to Rachel. Rachel had been looking forward to her grandson for a long time, and she did not have a good impression of Amber. If she heard that Amber treated Celia like this, she would definitely dislike Amber even more.

With Rachel in his way, it would be a dream for Amber to reunite with Rodney.

Thinking of this, Itzel went to find Rachel. She first asked about Rachel's health condition, and then told her about Amber's attack on Celia.

She described Celia's injury in an exaggerated way, which was too horrible to look at. "It's too vicious. Celia's face was swollen like a steamed bun. If the driver hadn't been present and sent to the hospital, Celia would have had a miscarriage!"

Rachel was shocked. "My grandson is fine, isn't he?"

"The doctor said that she had a miscarriage and asked her to rest in bed."

Rachel was very worried when she heard that. Celia was pregnant with two of them. If anything happened to her, she would be distressed to death. So she was so angry that she scolded, "How could Amber be so vicious? How could Celia be her sister? Why didn't she even let go of her sister?"

"How can such a vicious woman have family affection?" Itzel was full of hatred. "As long as she is a little kind, she will sympathize with Celia. Celia is now pregnant with two children. You know how small the chances of the twins are. She is both vicious and jealous. She is afraid that Celia will give birth to the baby and compete for the favor with her child."

Rachel cursed angrily, "She's too cruel. No, I have to tell Rodney to expose her true colors."

Rachel immediately called Rodney and told him about Celia's misery on the basis of what Itzel had said. Rodney sneered and said, "She was lucky this time. She didn't have a miscarriage. If she dares to provoke Amber again, I will let her have a miscarriage."

Hearing her son's answer, Rachel was so angry that she scolded her son for being cold-blooded. Rodney ignored her and hung up the phone.

Generally speaking, it was a big deal for people to have twins, so Itzel had taught Celia how to give birth to twins. At that time, she had made a good idea, hoping that Rodney would change his attitude toward Celia because of the twins. However, she did not expect that Rodney did not buy it at all.

Rodney's ruthlessness made Itzel's heart turn cold. She was an experienced person. She had seen Reece's attitude towards Lannie very clearly.

In the past, Itzel had hoped that Rachel would be able to forcefully suppress Rodney so that Celia could successfully marry into the family. Now that she saw that Rachel was also at a loss, she began to realize that it was not a wise choice to let Celia get pregnant this time.

Rachel couldn't live for the rest of her life. In the future, she would definitely be Rodney's girlfriend. Since Rodney didn't like Celia, it was easy to imagine her life in the future.

Although she had this kind of consciousness, she was now forced to a dead end. Celia's child had to be born. Otherwise, she would be pitiful for the rest of her life. Itzel had to comfort herself in her heart. If she could not give birth to the child, she would make some money. The child belonged to Rodney. He would not treat his son badly with so much money.

Itzel did not know that Rodney had already given his property to Amber and her two children. Although Rachel knew about it, she would definitely not tell her about it. After the two of them spoke a few words, Itzel left angrily.

Itzel's anger after leaving the Barron family had not been eased at all. On the contrary, she was even more upset. She could no longer control things. She was worried about Celia's future, so she had to find a way to keep Amber away from South City.

Naturally, she had no way to control Amber. Luckily, he had Ashton by his side. Itzel decided to look for Ashton and try to persuade him to leave South City.

After Itzel left, Rodney came back. His car and Itzel's car passed by each other. In the incident of Celia's pregnancy, Itzel was an accomplice. When she saw Itzel coming to her home again, she felt extremely disgusted.

There was definitely nothing good about Itzel's arrival at home. The news that her mother's leg hadn't fully recovered was quite blocked. It seemed that she was the one who told her mother that Celia had been beaten. If Itzel helped Celia like this, what benefits did Celia give her?

Thinking of this, he stopped the car and strode into the house. Rachel heard the sound of the door opening and turned around. "You're back?"

Rodney walked over and asked bluntly, "What is Itzel doing here?"

"She was worried about my body, so she came to visit me by the way and chatted with me by the way..."

"She's worried about your health? Why is she so kind?" Rodney sneered. "I think she has ulterior motives, right?"

"She's my best friend, so it's normal for her to care about me."

"Don't try to hide anymore. Itzel should be the one who told you about Celia's beating, shouldn't she?" Rodney sneered. "I said that she was just spouting nonsense. What other bad idea did she come up with for you?"

"What nonsense? Is what she said not true? Is it false that Amber beat Celia like that?" Rachel was also angry.

“It’s true that Celia was beaten, but it’s her own fault!” Rodney sneered. “She is shameless to plot against your pregnancy, and she still dares to provoke Amber. She deserves it!”

“Son, Celia is pregnant with your child and twins. Even if you don’t want to see a monk, you have to see a Buddha. Fortunately, Celia was sent to the hospital in time, otherwise, my two grandsons...” Rachel dared not imagine.

“It’s good to have a miscarriage. That kind of vicious woman is not worthy of a child.” Rodney never attacked people, and this time it could be said that he hated Celia to the extreme.

“How can you be so heartless?” Rachel was even angrier. “You like Amber, and all you see is his kindness. You can’t see how vicious she is. She even wants to deal with her own sister. How vicious is such a woman? My grandson can’t be raised by her, and he will be ruined by her.”
