

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 181

10 minutes read

“Amber is vicious? Mom, I want to ask you this question. Is Amber that bad? If she was so bad, would she tolerate you, an evil mother-in-law, bullying her? If she was so bad, she would have been driven away for no reason. Would she tolerate a mistress and an illegitimate daughter to take her place? Mom, if you use your brain, the truth is in front of you. Can't you tell who is the real one?”

“How dare you scold me for being impartial?” Rachel was so angry that she picked up the teacup in front of her and threw it on the ground.

Rodney looked at her coldly. “I'm not scolding you. I just want you to see the truth clearly. You don't have anything to do now. You'd better calm down and think about it. Maybe you think a very bad person is a very kind person. On the contrary, you think a kind person has always been pretending to be kind.”

“I have my own eyes. I will see it myself. I don't need you to remind me!” Rachel shouted at her son.

“I hope so. But I have one more thing to remind you. Don't hold too much hope for the baby in Celia's belly, lest the greater the hope, the greater the disappointment!” Rodney reminded.

“What do you mean? Are you trying to get rid of the baby in Celia's belly?” Rachel straightened her neck and shouted, “You unfilial son. If you dare to hurt the baby in Celia's belly, I'll fight with you!”

Rodney frowned. “Mom, I won't touch the baby in Celia's belly. She will give birth to it if she wants, but don't regret it when she gives birth to it.”

Seeing that her son suddenly refused to let go of the child in Celia's belly, Rachel was extremely happy. She had no time to care about her son's unreasonable behavior just now.

Although Amber said that there was no need to hire bodyguards, Noemi and Elliot were still worried about her safety. They also hated Celia for being so hateful. Celia was so hateful because she was pregnant with Rodney's child. She was good at hiding her true identity to confuse Rachel, so Rachel had always supported her. If it weren't for Rachel's support, Elliot frowned and came up with a plan.

It seemed that she had to put some drug on Rachel's eyes to let Rachel know that Celia was not such a clever and kind person. As long as Rachel hated Celia, she would see how Celia dared to be so high-profile.

During this period of time, Celia was recuperating in the hospital. Elliot deliberately bought a nurse to make her angry with Celia and make her lose her temper.

Celia looked gentle, kind and considerate in front of Rachel, but there was no need to pretend now. She was in a bad mood, so she had to vent her anger as much as she wanted.

As a result, a video of Celia cursing the nurse in the ward and saying dirty words was sent to Rachel. It took her a long time to come to her senses when she saw Celia, the shrew in the video.

Was this Celia, who was gentle and well-behaved in front of him? Rachel herself was not easy to deal with. In terms of acting like a shrew, she was not inferior to Celia. However, although she acted like a shrew and did not curse, Celia was completely different.

She had learned a lot of dirty words since she was a child in the cat's alley. Although she was sent to the lady's school by Shannon to change her appearance and wrap up, it could only change her appearance. In fact, she was still Celia, who was self-abased and timid in the cat's alley.

Her gentleness, kindness, and generosity were only for the noble ladies and daughters of the upper class. As for those who were not as good as her at the bottom, she naturally did not need to be polite.

The nurse didn't have any power for Celia. The little nurse who didn't have any power dared to provoke her, so Celia naturally didn't stand on ceremony. So she thoroughly showed her hidden face. A lady and a shrew were kind and vicious. Celia, who was completely two extremes, really stunned Rachel.

Rachel was not a fool. She suddenly realized that Celia might have been pretending all the time. Her nature was totally different from the gentle and kind look she saw.

Realizing this, Rachel began to feel uncomfortable. However, Celia was pregnant with her grandson and there were two of them. No matter how uncomfortable she was, she would wait until the baby was born.

Itzel had made up her mind to find Ashton for Celia. Ashton was now living in Elliot's villa, and she did not have Ashton's phone number. It was not easy for her to meet Ashton. In the end, Itzel stayed near Elliot's villa for a few days. In the end, she blocked Ashton while Ashton was shopping alone. "Brother, I have something to tell you."

"Didn't you say last time that we never met again?" When Ashton saw Itzel, he knew that what he was worried about had finally happened. Itzel was not a trustworthy person at all.

"We can't cut off our blood ties. Brother, we are brother and sister. How can we not meet each other?" Itzel said with a smile.

Ashton looked at her with disgust. "Do you have anything to say?"

"It's not convenient here. Let's find a place to sit down and talk." Itzel pointed to the tea room next to her. "Let's talk here."

Ashton knew that he couldn't get rid of it, so he entered the tea room without saying a word.

"Brother, what are you drinking? Dragon Well or Big Red Robe?"

Ashton sneered. "If you have something to say, I'm going to buy some vegetables."

Itzel didn't care about his impatience. She ordered a cup of tea for Ashton on her own accord. "Brother, I won't come to you for nothing. I came here for Amber. Can you take him away?"

"What does Amber have to do with you?"

"It's not that she's in my way. It's that I'm worried about her safety." Itzel pretended to be a woman. "You know what kind of person Shannon is. Now that Amber is in the way of her daughter's future, I'm worried that she'll hurt Amber."

"How can you be so kind?" Ashton naturally knew that Itzel would not be so kind. She definitely had a motive.

"I'm really kind. No matter what, Amber is my niece. I can't bear to see him in danger. Brother, just listen to me and leave with Amber and the child."

“Do you think I don’t want to? I’ve planned to move abroad with Amber. I’ve already done it, but I didn’t expect that something went wrong. If Rachel hadn’t told Amber, Amber wouldn’t have been restricted to go abroad now.” Ashton sighed. “We can only go out after a year.”

Itzel didn’t expect this. If she had known this would happen, she would have stopped Rachel from accusing Amber. But now it was too late to regret, but she was still unwilling to give up. “Brother, have you ever thought about taking Amber to other places to live? I mean to avoid Shannon for the time being.”

“You’re so vicious that you can’t even wait for a year?” Ashton glared at Itzel. “I know who you are. Shannon wants to deal with Amber, right? If it weren’t for Rachel, would you hate Amber so much? To tell you the truth, I took Amber away because I don’t want to be entangled with you. Don’t go too far. I don’t want to provoke you!”

Ashton had always been gentle and gentle. He had never been so ruthless. Itzel was shocked and did not dare to force him again.

After breaking up with Ashton, Itzel returned home. On the way home, she received a phone call from Shannon. “I have good news for you. Rodney is not going to touch the baby in Celia’s belly.”

“Really?” Although Itzel was very happy to hear that, she still didn’t quite believe it. “Is there a mistake?”

“That’s right. It was Rachel who called to tell Celia not to worry and to take good care of her body.” Shannon couldn’t hide her pride. “She must have figured it out. After all, Celia is pregnant with two children. Many families dream about the twins.”

Itzel couldn’t figure out why Rodney would suddenly change his mind. However, it was a good thing for him to change his mind. Celia didn’t have to be afraid in the future, but Amber was always a problem.

Noemi had nothing to do at the TV station today. She went home in advance. Not far from the villa, she suddenly saw Ashton walking in front, followed by Itzel. The two entered the tea room one after the other. Noemi was shocked. What was the purpose of Ashton and Itzel meeting?

Noemi was a person who couldn’t stand it. When she went home, she told Amber about it. Amber didn’t believe it and said that she must have made a mistake. Noemi naturally didn't admit that she had made a mistake, so she took Amber to wait outside the tea room. After a while, she saw Itzel and Ashton coming out of the tea room.

Amber had no choice but to believe that what was Itzel and Ashton going to do when they met?

Celia didn't dare to touch Amber after being beaten by Shannon, but she didn't want to be polite to Noemi. Noemi had beaten her daughter so badly, so she had to fight back.

Shannon also knew that it was at the top of the storm. If she touched Noemi, it would bring unnecessary trouble, so she had to find a suitable opportunity to let things happen naturally.

Shannon took time to go to the beauty salon. Wendy called Malone as soon as she saw her. Malone was also very excited to see Shannon. He came up to hug her and kissed her. "Why didn't you come to see me for such a long time? I miss you so much."

Shannon pushed him away and said, "I have something to tell you."

"What's the matter?" Malone didn't intend to let go of her and held her hand.

"Damn, are you going to die?" Shannon was angry and pushed Malone away. "Your daughter has been beaten half to death. How can you still be in the mood to have fun?"

"Who dares to hurt Celia?" Malone was nervous on the surface, but he didn't take it seriously. He knew very well whether Celia was his daughter or not. However, since Shannon liked acting, he would play along with her.

"Who else? She's Channing's biological daughter!" Shannon was not angry, so she told Malone about Celia.

Malone frowned and said, "It's not easy to deal with this matter. Let's put it aside for now."

"How can it not be easy? You know so many people. Isn't it a piece of cake to do such a thing?"

“It’s easy for you to say that. It’s not the right time to take action at this time. If they dig out our relationship, will you live the rest of your life?” Malone shook his head.

“I know that. Didn’t I ask you to discuss it with me?” Shannon reached out and poked Malone’s head. “Can I hurt you? Don’t worry. I’ve thought of a way. You can carry it out.”

“Tell me about it.” Malone didn’t seem to believe it.

“I’ve asked around. Noemi is irritable and loyal. She likes to stand up for any injustice. If you ask someone to act in front of her, she will definitely do it. This way, she can take the opportunity to teach her a lesson. She wants Celia to be beaten black and blue. You can let her ruin her image. If you find out who she is, it will be a mistake. At most, you can compensate her with some compensation.” Shannon told him her plan.

Malone nodded repeatedly. “You’re really good at making such a great plan. I’ll ask someone to do it.”

After Shannon left, Wendy came in. “Brother, what does she want to do with you this time?”

Malone told what Shannon wanted to do to Wendy. Wendy frowned and shook her head. “Brother, you’d better not do it. That woman is not a good person. Every time she comes to you, she always makes use of you. Celia doesn’t look like you at all, but she always says that she is your daughter. She wants to take advantage of your affection. We have just had a few peaceful years, and we don’t want anything to happen at this time.”

“I know, but she has a good plan this time. Ordinary people won’t think of it.” Malone was relieved of his sister’s feelings.

“As the saying goes, if you don’t know it, you can’t do it. No matter how good your plan is, there will be a day when the world will be exposed. I’m still worried. Recently, my eyelids have been twitching fiercely. I’m always worried about what will happen.” Wendy was not at ease.

“Brother, Shannon is going to take advantage of you and kidnap you to do things for her for the rest of her life. As I said, let’s go. We should stay away from her so that she can no longer find us.”

“Wendy, it’s not that I don’t want to leave, it’s that I can’t. She has something on me.” Malone sighed. This was the first time he had said something about me in front of his sister. “If I leave with Shannon’s viciousness, she will definitely expose my secret. I will die then.”

“What kind of evidence is it?” Wendy was also anxious. She only knew that Shannon took advantage of her brother, but she didn’t know that there was such a thing. Since it was a big deal to control her brother’s weakness, what should she do?

“Wendy, you don’t have to ask.” Malone refused to say it.

“Brother, don’t keep it in your heart. Tell us and we’ll find a way. Maybe we can find a way.”

“There’s no other way. It’s a matter of life and death. I had no choice in the past. Alas...”

Wendy was also stunned when she heard that it was a matter of life and death. What should she do? Would she be controlled by Shannon for the rest of her life?

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 182

9 minutes read

Noemi went to a nearby restaurant to have lunch at noon. After ordering, she took a sip of water. Suddenly, an unfriendly voice came from the side. “How could you do this to me? I gave birth to your children and worked hard to support your family, but you raised a mistress with my money. How could you be so shameless?”

Noemi looked over and saw a woman in a work suit angrily pointing at a couple of men and women who were eating. The woman’s face was full of anger and despair.

The woman next to the man in fashionable clothes was not frightened at all. Instead, she sneered at her original wife and said, “Look at yourself. You’re sallow and thin, and your eyes are dull. It’s impossible for a man like you to like you.”

“You’ve gone too far!” The woman in the uniform was so angry that she trembled. She grabbed a dish on the table and poured it on the fashionable woman’s head.

The woman screamed, and her face was full of vegetables and grease. She was so angry that she got up and grabbed the woman in the uniform to fight with her. The fashionable woman was naturally no match for the woman in the uniform. She shouted at the man, “Why are you still standing there? Why don’t you help me?”

The man stood up and raised his hand to slap the woman in the uniform. The woman in the uniform was supposed to have the upper hand, but she was knocked out by her husband’s mouth. “You hit me? I’ll kill you!”

When she reacted, she reached out to grab the man’s face, and the man reached out to grab her hair and had a few more mouths. How could the woman be a match for the man? She was quickly beaten to the ground by the man. The woman next to her saw that the woman had no power to fight back, so she arrogantly pulled the woman’s hair and slapped the woman’s face. She scolded her as she fanned. Noemi, who was watching from the side, became angry and rushed over.

“What are you doing? Let go of me!” She reached out to pull the fashionable woman.

How could a fashionable woman be willing to listen to her advice? She opened her mouth and scolded, “You little b*tch, are you full? How dare you meddle in other people’s business? Do you believe that I will slap you to death?”

Noemi glared at him and said, “These days, how dare the mistress be so arrogant? Is there any justice in this world?” As she spoke, she slapped her mouth. The fashionable woman did not expect that Noemi would really hit her. She shouted like a pig being slaughtered, “Honey, why are you still standing there? This bh hit me. Beat her to death!”

Hearing this, the man sealed Noemi’s collar and punched her in the face. When the fist was about to land on Noemi’s face, a figure flashed in front of her, and then a man’s groan came into her ears. Before Noemi could understand what was going on, the man’s huge body had fallen out.

Noemi looked at the man who couldn't get up from the ground and screamed in surprise. Then she looked at Elliot and Deon who suddenly appeared in front of her. It took her a long time to react. "You... you... why are you here?"

"Are you scared silly?" Elliot said with a playful smile, "It depends on your own strength. If I hadn't been here today, you would have been in danger, wouldn't you?"

Noemi did not care about the shift in his mouth. She just stared at the man who was lying on the ground and screaming. There was horror in her eyes. "You... where did you hurt him? How could he scream so miserably?"

"It was just a coincidence that I kicked him in the waist," Elliot replied indifferently.

"Did you break his waist?" Noemi's eyes widened.

"This kind of heartless man should be punished. I don't think he has a waist. How can he keep me as his mistress?" Elliot sneered.

"Aren't you worried?" Noemi was too angry just now, so she went out to help. Now when she saw the man screaming on the ground, she realized that things were getting complicated. Elliot wouldn't be put in jail, would he? If she really did what she did today, she would lose more than she gained.

"What am I worried about?" Elliot asked.

"The police are looking for trouble with you?"

"Don't worry. Someone will settle this trivial matter. Let's go to another restaurant for dinner." Seeing that Noemi didn't move, Elliot reached out and pulled her. "Let's go."

Noemi stumbled out of the restaurant dragged by Elliot and got in his car. She was still in a state of shock. "Elliot, will you really get into trouble?"

"No," Elliot replied.

"But I'm worried that I'll be sent to jail for intentional injury."

"Don't worry, nothing will happen." Elliot started the car. "But you, I'm telling you, don't be so reckless next time. If I'm not here today, you'll be in trouble. If you're disfigured, what should we do if we can't get married?"

Noemi smiled bitterly and said, "Anyway, I can't get married. It's not a big deal to be disfigured."

"Why are you so pessimistic? I think you're pretty good, aren't you?" Elliot comforted her.

"Do you really think I'm good?"

"Of course, you are beautiful, talented, and independent. The most important thing is that you like to pretend to be a woman now. You are not pretentious at all, and your character is also pleasing..." Elliot suddenly stopped. He had never praised a woman like this. How could he say such praise so smoothly? He was not awkward at all. He subconsciously looked at the rearview mirror and saw that Noemi's face was a little red.

He didn't know why, but he suddenly said, "You look very good with your face blushing."

After saying this, she realized that it was a little ambiguous, so she immediately explained, "I don't mean anything else. Please don't mind me."

Originally, Noemi was a little shy because of Elliot's compliment. After listening to Elliot's explanation, she was in no mood at once.

After eating with Noemi, Elliot left. On the way back, he received a call from Walter. "It's settled. I gave him some money and promised him. He was sent to the hospital for treatment. Later, I went back to the hospital because I had something to do. Guess what I saw?"

"Don't be annoying! What did you find?"

"mistress and his wife are as good as a person. It's so weird!"

"It's indeed weird. Ask someone to keep an eye on it." Elliot ordered. Walter replied, "There's one more thing to tell you. Recently, there are rumors of Celia and her daughter being harmed in the upper class circle."

"What kind of rumors are these?" Elliot was immediately interested.

"It's said that Shannon was the mistress, while Celia was sinister and vicious. At this time, such a rumor appeared. I suspect that someone deliberately let her out..."

“Even a fool would know that someone released him on purpose.” Elliot interrupted him.

“No, I haven’t finished my words yet. I suspect that this news was released by Rodney.”

“Is that so? Then there’ll be a good show soon.” Elliot laughed. “Since he’s lost, I’ll give him a hand. You should take action as soon as possible. Have Mr. Moore’s wife, who doesn’t get along well with Shannon, find Rachel and tell her about Shannon and Celia’s scandal.”

“I’ve asked someone to handle this matter. If my guess is right, Mrs. Moore should tell Rachel this news soon.”

“Well done. Rachel likes Celia, doesn’t she? I just want to disgust that old woman to death!” Elliot laughed happily.

Rodney went to visit Mel again. Mel’s attitude towards him had not changed much, and it was still indifferent to him. Rodney was depressed and flustered. After looking at Mel, he went home dejectedly.

He pushed the door open and saw his mother sitting on the sofa, looking unhappy. He did not have the energy to pay attention to his mother and went straight upstairs. Rachel was in a worse mood when she saw her son’s dejected look.

Today, the wife of Mr. Moore, who had a good time in her circle, came to see her. It was supposed to be a happy thing, but when the two of them talked about Shannon and Celia, everything became unpleasant.

Mrs. Moore didn’t know where she heard the rumor that Shannon gave birth to Celia before she got married. She asked, “Rodney and Celia didn’t break the engagement because Shannon was the mistress?”

Rachel always thought that only she knew that Shannon was the mistress, but she didn’t expect that Mrs. Moore also knew it.

Mrs. Moore was famous for her big mouth. When she knew, many noble madams in the circle would definitely know. Rachel’s good mood suddenly changed because of Mrs. Moore’s words. Of course, she would not admit it. So she asked, “Where do you mean?”

“You don’t have to hide it anymore? The news has spread.”

“It’s spread? Who did you hear it from?” Rachel was surprised. Recently, it was inconvenient for her to go out. After hearing Mrs. Moore’s words, she started to stir up trouble in her heart. Was everyone really aware of it?

“My daughter came back and told me,” Mrs. Moore replied. “It has been spread all over their social circle. Now, Celia doesn’t dare to go out because of this matter.”

Celia didn’t go out because Rachel knew that she was pregnant. But who was the one who spread the news that Shannon was a mistress? “Do you know who spread the news?”

“I don’t know, but you must know better than me, right? We have such a good friendship, but you hide it from me.”

There was a grudge between Mrs. Moore and Shannon. She looked like she was gloating. “That Shannon, I’ve always thought that she’s the secretary’s wife putting on an act. I can’t stand it, but now I know that she’s a mistress. Luckily, Rodney and her daughter have broken off the engagement. Why don’t you face a mistress’ daughter all day? You must be in a bad mood.”

Rachel smiled bitterly. It was not true at all that Rodney and Celia had broken off the engagement. However, since the news had spread, it would not be wise to let Celia marry into the family in the future. She had a headache. She had already promised Itzel. How could she explain if she went back on her word?

Mrs. Moore didn’t know Rachel’s distress. She continued to tell Rachel the news she had heard. “By the way, do you know what Shannon did before she married Mr. Black?”

“I don’t know.”

“She used to live in the cat’s alley in the South City. That’s the most messy and poor place in the South City,” said Mrs. Moore.

“It’s said that she was nicknamed a flower in the cat’s alley at that time. It was so funny that she called me a flower. It’s the same as those prostitutes’ names in ancient times.” Mrs. Moore thought it was funny.

Rachel naturally knew the name Parkview Street. She had never dreamed that the noble and elegant secretary's wife would come from there and have such an indecent title.

However, heroes didn't care about their backgrounds. Although Shannon didn't come from a good family, she did have some ability to become the secretary's wife in such a place. Of course, she had to abandon her mistress to get the position. Looking at Mrs. Moore's gloating look, she felt a little uncomfortable, so she said, "Shannon is beautiful. No wonder she is called a flower."

Mrs. Moore said disdainfully, "What's so great about being beautiful? There are many women more beautiful than her. If everyone becomes a mistress like her, the world will be in chaos."

"Maybe she has some difficulties." It was the first time that Rachel spoke for her mistress, and her face was a little hot.

"What difficulties? What difficulties shouldn't we break up other people's families? Yu Zhenfang, why are you so strange today? Don't you hate your mistress the most? Why did you put in a good word for her today?" Mrs. Moore was very dissatisfied with Rachel's words for Shannon.

"I didn't put in a good word for her. I just think it wasn't easy for her." Rachel quickly clarified.

"Let me tell you, this woman is not an ordinary mistress. Other people have their own difficulties in being a mistress, but this Shannon is much more disgusting than those who take the position of mistress. I heard that she and Channing's wife are best friends, men who steal their best friends. It can be seen that this kind of woman has a bad character. The most important thing is that she did not have a good character before. I heard that she had an affair with many gangsters in some cat's alley. How dirty is this kind of person?"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 183

9 minutes read

"Are you telling the truth?" Rachel's face suddenly changed. Her father had been taken away by her mother's good friend, so she hated her mistress very much. Although she felt uncomfortable about the fact that Shannon was the mistress, she forced herself to close her eyes because she wanted to deal with Amber. Now that the matter had been exposed by her friend, she could not pretend to be confused.

“Of course it’s true. It is said that the wife of Mr. Black was very kind to her. She asked Mr. Black to go on a business trip to see her. Unexpectedly, this shameless woman seduced the husband of her best friend and gave birth to a daughter. No one could stand it. Therefore, Mr. Black’s wife left in a car accident because of this. Shannon and her daughter were taken advantage of. From then on, she became the third wife and forced the daughter of Mr. Black’s first wife away. Later, Mr. Black was continuously transferred to other places, causing no one to know about these things. Everyone thought that she was the original wife, but they didn’t know that the real wife was someone else.”

Rachel was really upset. “Isn’t Amber the one I used to be?”

It was the same for her at that time. Her father cheated on a mistress and forced her to live alone outside. Fortunately, she had a husband who loved her and no mother-in-law bullied her.

After marrying Rodney’s father, her life had been very sweet. If her husband hadn’t left the world because of illness, her life would have been very happy.

But Amber was different. She was too pitiful. She was in love with her son, but she broke up with him. Most importantly, she was ready to let Shannon’s daughter marry into the family. No wonder Amber was at odds with her.

Rachel was not an evil person. When she figured it out, she suddenly felt guilty.

Mrs. Moore then changed the topic and said to Celia, “Shannon is not the only one who is disgusting. Her daughter is also disgusting. Let me tell you, she is not as pure and kind as she looks. She is vicious in her bones and is even better than her mother. Because she is a fake, the people in the circle don’t play with her. She has no friends, so she has to find a person named Zoe who has a bad family background to be friends. She is actually a servant who does things for her. By the way, do you still remember the last time you and Rodney were attacked and scolded?”

How could Rachel not remember? But wasn’t it Amber who did this? What did it have to do with Celia?

Mrs. Moore continued, "Wasn't Rodney with his ex-wife during that period of time? Celia was resentful, so she asked the paparazzi to follow Rodney and deliberately wrote everything about them. She also asked Zoe to find someone to make trouble in Rodney's ex-wife's company and called his ex-wife a mistress. Later, after this matter was found out, she put the blame on Zoe and asked Zoe to take the blame for her."

"Really?" Rachel didn't expect that Celia would do this at all. She couldn't believe it at all.

"Why not? Listen to me carefully. I heard that the matter between Rodney and his ex-wife was also caused by her. Her purpose was to make you hate Rodney's ex-wife. In the end, Rodney was smart enough to do such a interview on TV to suppress this matter..."

"Who did you hear these things from?" Rachel couldn't stand it anymore and interrupted Mrs. Moore.

"Zoe? In order to please her, Zoe has done so many things for her. She has done a lot of hard work, but you can guess what happened. She didn't leave a trace of friendship. She promised to ask Zoe to give Zoe a sum of money to arrange a good job for her, but she didn't expect that the money and work had not been fulfilled. Zoe was so angry that she told the truth."

"It's not credible. Maybe it's revenge."

"As the saying goes, there's no smoke without fire. Do you have time to take revenge?" Mrs. Moore saw that Rachel did not believe it and added, "Let me tell you, Celia is not as gentle as you think. She is simply a shrew. I saw her cursing the nurse in the hospital that day. Tsk, tsk, tsk, tsk..."

Naturally, Rachel had seen the video of the nurse being scolded. Her heart sank. There was no guarantee of success. Celia would not be so simple.

When she thought of how she had thought so highly of her and trusted her so much in the past, Rachel felt really upset.

After Mrs. Moore left, she had always felt uncomfortable. Why was she so stubborn at the beginning? Thinking about her past with Amber, Rachel felt that she had gone too far.

The last time when Celia schemed against Amber's ugly behavior, she finally forced Zoe to take the blame for her. Zoe did not dare to swallow her anger and become the scapegoat for Celia.

Of course, Zoe spared no effort to help Celia as a scapegoat. In addition to not daring to offend Celia, she also wanted to gain some benefits.

However, she thought it was too simple. She had thought that she would be detained for a few days, but she did not expect that Elliot and Rodney would not let her go. In the end, Zoe was charged with slander and was sentenced to three years of imprisonment by the law office.

The most serious charge of slander was less than three years. Elliot and Rodney knew that the culprit was not Zoe, but just to warn Celia, so they did not show weakness to Zoe and forced her to be sentenced to three years.

The detention was something that Zoe had never thought of. Celia asked someone to send a message to her, telling her not to be afraid. She would arrange it for her and not let her stay in prison for three years. When the news was over, she would be released.

At this point, Zoe had no choice but to accept it. Shannon didn't break her promise. In order to shut her up, she asked someone to give her a sum of money, arranged a good job for her family, and also took care of her boyfriend.

Of course, Shannon wouldn't say anything about it. Zoe finally calmed down. She had been locked up in prison for more than half a year. When no one noticed it, Shannon asked someone to sentence her to death. Zoe was released after being locked up for more than half a year.

Zoe, who was out of prison, did not have a job, and Shannon asked someone to find a job for her. The job was very easy and the salary was not bad. The condition was that she should not show up in front of Celia again and work for Celia.

Zoe had suffered so much because of benefits. She had been by Celia's side for so many years, and she had suffered a lot. Now that she was away from Celia, she could hold her head high, so she agreed without hesitation.

It turned out that she thought that she could live a comfortable life from now on, just thinking that it was one thing, and reality was another thing. Life after she was released from prison was very different from what she thought. She didn't know who leaked the information about her imprisonment. People in the unit began to whisper and slander her behind her back when they saw her.

After staying by Celia's side for a long time, Zoe had not changed her habit of showing off. Now was the time to pick up her tail and be a good person. However, she was not sensible and thought that she was Celia's right-hand man.

Seeing that someone was making fun of her, the people around her had been offended by her for a period of time. No one in the office liked her and began to unite to push her away. Even the leaders often gave her small shoes.

Her work was not going well, and her relationship was in trouble. Her boyfriend actually fell in love with another woman behind her back. Zoe's life was full of internal and external troubles.

Zoe began to miss the days when she was Celia's henchman. At that time, because of her good relationship with Celia, everyone thought that she and Celia thought highly of her. She thought about it for a while and decided to find Celia, hoping that she could still be her follower like before.

However, Celia turned her back on her and asked her to stay away from her. She said that she had already given her what should be given to her, so that she could be more sensible.

Only then did Zoe realize that she had been completely abandoned instead of being temporarily abandoned.

Thinking that she had worked for Celia in front of and behind her over the years, but she had treated her like this, she had a grudge against Celia in her heart. She thought that if there was a chance, she must play a trick on Celia and avenge her.

Just as Zoe was thinking about this, a young and beautiful lady Sherry suddenly came to her and asked her to give her money to publicize Celia's scandal.

Zoe was worried that Celia would retaliate against her, but she agreed for the sake of money. Sherry, who looked for her young and beautiful, was also from the upper class. Sherry's car was a limited edition, and her clothes were fashionable and luxurious.

The most important thing was that Sherry was modest and polite, unlike Celia who was polite to her in front of others. She didn't treat her as a human when no one was around.

Sherry was generous, unlike Celia, who was stingy. She asked her to go to a high-end beauty salon to do hair and beauty care. She also bought new clothes for her. Celia used to take her to the party, but she never took her to enjoy life in a high-end beauty salon. She gave her clothes that she didn't want.

In comparison, Zoe was more appreciative of Sherry in her heart. If she could follow her, her life would definitely be much better than before.

However, Zoe was a little confused about Sherry's identity. She had been with Celia for a short time, so how could she never know that there was such a Sherry in South City?

However, her doubts were quickly dispelled. When Sherry took her to a gathering, she heard the people around her talking about her and finally knew Sherry's identity.

It turned out that Sherry had just returned from abroad, and her family business was very big. Zoe also heard from those people that Sherry liked Rodney. After connecting it with the purpose of Sherry looking for her, she immediately understood that Sherry regarded Celia as her rival in love.

Zoe had to take the initiative to show off in order to win Sherry's favor, so she told Sherry everything about Celia's original appearance. What hypocrisy, viciousness, and insidiousness... Zoe told her everything she knew about Celia.

Of course, Zoe did not know that Sherry was not a rich lady, but a secretary of Rodney's company. He asked her to look for Zoe in order to dig out Celia's true colors.

Sherry recorded all Zoe's words with a recording pen and gave them to Rodney. After listening to Zoe's words, Rodney felt extremely disgusted with Celia.

Wasn't Celia good at disguise? He would tear off her mask and expose her ugly face in the sun.

He ordered Sherry to continue to take Zoe to attend the gathering of young ladies, so that Zoe could tell everyone about Celia's scandal.

Zoe used to be Celia's servant, so what she said was naturally credible. Therefore, the daughter of a rich family in the upper class despised Celia to the extreme.

Because Celia and Shannon were also despised. In the past, because Shannon was the secretary's wife, many people followed her and flattered her. After this matter was spread, those who flattered her began to distance themselves from her.

In these days, the mistress was not a good person. Because of their status, everyone was more or less troubled by the third party, so it could be imagined how much they hated the mistress.

Shannon didn't know that when she and Channing just arrived at the party and saw those people looking at her with strange eyes, she felt strange in her heart. How could these people look at her like that?

She felt strange in her heart, but she still walked over with a smile on her face and was ready to say hello to the familiar people. A strange scene happened. Those who usually took the initiative to approach her pretended not to see her and continued to talk to themselves...

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 184

8 minutes read

Shannon felt uncomfortable, so she only chose Kash, who had a good relationship with her, to say hello to her. Kash reluctantly said a few words to her and then took the excuse to leave.

Every time Kash saw her, she couldn't finish her words. What happened this time? Shannon realized that something was wrong. She realized that something was wrong. Channing also realized it. On the way back, he asked her, "Mrs. Zhang, didn't you have a good relationship with you? Why did you suddenly ignore you?"

Shannon didn't know. "I don't know either. It's probably because of climacteric."

Channing said with a snort, "What are you talking about? You must have offended her. Didn't I tell you to pay as much attention as possible when you deal with them? Kash is about to be promoted. We can't offend such a person."

Shannon felt very uncomfortable after being scolded by Channing, but she didn't dare to refute. She was full of anger and went home, but she couldn't find an answer after thinking about it.

The more Rachel thought about it, the more unhappy she felt at home these days. She had been living in lies and deceptions these years. To be honest, she didn't have so much affection for Celia at first. It was her good friend Itzel who praised Celia in her ear again and again, saying that she was beautiful and gentle and kind. She had said so many words, so she began to like Celia.

However, although she felt that Celia was pleasing to the eye, she did not intend to let her and her son be together until her son and Amber were together.

The daughter-in-law in Rachel's heart was not only beautiful, but also had to have an identity. Amber's family background was not good, so her intuition told her that she didn't like him. However, her son didn't listen to her and treated Amber as a treasure.

She was unhappy to talk about these things with Itzel, so Itzel naturally vented her anger on her. She said that Amber was not qualified to carry Celia's shoes. It was better to marry the daughter of the secretary than to marry such a woman with no background or identity. It would be helpful to Rodney's career and so on.

Rachel thought about it and found it reasonable. She could see Celia's feelings for her son because she wanted Amber to give up and let her choose to be close to Celia.

This intimacy found that Celia was really good. She knew her preferences very well, and her words were also very pleasing to her. If she had such a considerate daughter-in-law to accompany her, she would definitely live a good life.

After Rodney and Amber got married, she still felt uncomfortable in her heart. She still couldn't like Amber. No matter how good she treated him, she couldn't like him. And Celia clearly knew that Rodney was married, but she came to see her every now and then. She said that she wanted to accompany her and make her happy.

She used to believe it firmly, but now, after knowing so much bad news about Celia, she suddenly felt that she had been cheated. Celia had been acting at her all these years.

She must have wanted something to do with her acting. Thinking that Shannon shamelessly seduced her best friend and took the opportunity to get the position, Rachel began to suspect that Celia was planning something like her mistress from the beginning.

This idea made Rachel particularly uncomfortable. Since Celia was so shameless that she insisted on having a baby with Rodney, Rachel became more and more suspicious. "Was I set up by someone from the beginning?"

Being framed was not a good thing. It made Rachel very uncomfortable, so she called Itzel to discuss it. When they met, she asked, "Itzel, have you heard any gossip about Celia recently?"

This question was strange. Itzel felt that something was wrong, but she couldn't figure out what Rachel was going to say, so she asked with a smile, "Why did you suddenly ask this? What happened?"

"Recently, I heard something bad about her. I came to ask you." Rachel told Itzel about what Mrs. Moore had told her about Celia. "I feel uncomfortable. It's not convenient for me to go out during this period of time. I don't know what's going on outside, so I asked you to ask."

"I haven't heard of it." Itzel was surprised. She tried to persuade her. "Isn't that Mrs. Moore and Shannon against each other? Maybe she hates Shannon, so she deliberately slandered Celia. I don't think her words can be trusted."

"Mrs. Moore and Shannon have been enemies for a long time. Why didn't she say it earlier because of resentment and deliberately slandered Celia? Why did she have to wait until now?" Rachel naturally did not know what role this woman in front of her, who she regarded as a good friend, played. She also thought that she was deceived by Celia like herself, so she showed the video she received to Itzel. "Before Mrs. Moore told me these, I also received this. Look at this."

Itzel was surprised when she saw the video. "Who is it that wants to make trouble for Celia?" Itzel didn't show her surprise on her face, but tried to persuade Rachel to get rid of her doubts.

"Wasn't Celia in a bad mood because of Amber? The doctor said that she seemed to have been stimulated. Shannon also said that Celia has been different recently. She seemed a little crazy and often lost her temper. When she returned to normal and asked her, her answer seemed to be an illusion. It was estimated that this situation happened only when she was out of control."

"An illusion? Crazy? Isn't this the rhythm of mental illness?" Rachel was anxious. "Will Celia be mentally ill? If so, the child she gave birth to must be abnormal, right?"

"She's not insane." Itzel comforted her. "She only reacted when she was stimulated. Think about it. She was spoiled since she was a child. Her parents treated her like a treasure. How could she accept it when she was beaten by Amber like this? She'll be fine in a while."

Speaking of Celia, Rachel thought of Amber. If it weren't for Shannon's shameless intervention, Amber would have been Channing's treasure. If Amber were Channing's daughter, she wouldn't have objected to their relationship and things wouldn't have happened in the future.

Thinking of this, she snorted. "What treasure? I'm angry when it comes to this. I used to know that Shannon was a mistress, but I didn't know that she was more disgusting than those mistresses."

"Where do these words come from?" Itzel had a bad feeling. What exactly did Mrs. Moore say to Rachel?

"Let me tell you, that Shannon is not just a mistress. She is ten thousand times more disgusting than an ordinary mistress. She dared to steal her best friend's man. If I had known that Shannon was such a disgusting person, I wouldn't have let Celia have anything to do with Rodney." Rachel was furious.

"You can't beat him to death. This criminal has to be changed. What's more, Celia is Celia, and Shannon is Shannon. We can't mix them together." Itzel was really upset, but she had to persuade her with a smile.

"It's not like that. I didn't have any impression of Celia before. I heard you say that she's a good person, so I also think she's not bad. Now that I think about it carefully, the more I think about it, the more strange I feel. She knew that Rodney was married and still came to me every day to please him. Do you think she wants to be a mistress like her shameless mother?"

"No! You think too much."

"I also hope that I've thought too much, but now I have to think so." Rachel had been holding it in for a long time, and she regarded Itzel as her confidant. Naturally, she was not unhappy. "At that time, she clearly knew that Amber was her sister, but she pretended not to know her at all in my house. She even deliberately found an opportunity to get close to Rodney. This must not be simple."

"She didn't do it for Amber, okay?" Itzel persuaded. "You really think too much. Think about it. With Channing's status, there's no need for Celia to be his mistress. Many rich families are looking forward to marrying her."

"What you said makes sense, but I still feel that it's not normal. Today, I asked you not only to tell you these things, but also to let you keep an eye on them for me to see if these rumors are true or not."

After leaving the Barron family, Itzel called Shannon immediately and told her everything Rachel said. Shannon was very surprised. "Weren't these things done very secretly? How could it be spread out?"

"I don't know. Think about it carefully. What's wrong with her? You have to find a way to remedy it as soon as possible. Rachel has begun to suspect it now. But her legs are not convenient now, so it's not good for her to confirm it in person. If she does it in person, it will be terrible."

"I know." After hanging up the phone, Shannon's face suddenly darkened. Celia, who was standing aside, saw that her mother looked pale and asked, "Mom, what happened?"

"Rachel heard something about us from Mrs. Moore. She asked Itzel to verify it," Shannon said briefly.

Celia didn't know that she had become the object of everyone's disdain. She was pregnant now, so she didn't have the energy to attend those parties. Every day, she just stayed at home and dreamed of having a mother and a son.

Hearing her mother's words, he was dumbfounded. "What should I do? If even Rachel hates me, how can I win?"

"Don't you have a child?" Shannon comforted her. "Now we have to find out who hurt us behind our backs."

Shannon frowned. "There weren't many people who knew that we schemed against Amber, and there weren't many who knew about you. Itzel wouldn't tell anyone about it. Only Zoe was there. Could it be her?"

Hearing her mother's words, Celia also remembered that Zoe came to beg for her refusal. "Mom, it must be that b*tch Zoe who did it. She came to me last time, but I ignored her. She must have a grudge against me on purpose."

"Why didn't you tell me about this?" Shannon couldn't help complaining to Celia. "If you told me, it wouldn't be like this."

"Didn't I say that I was afraid that her appearance would cause Rodney to be unhappy? Back then, Zoe and I had cut off all ties because of the matter of framing Amber. Now that we've messed up with Rodney, she must be up to something. That's why she came looking for me. I rejected her outright."

"You are still too young. If you don't raise a dog well, you will become a wolf. Even if you don't want to have anything to do with her, you have to stabilize her." Shannon complained.

"Mom, now is not the time to complain about me. Let this b*tch disappear as soon as possible, or she will hurt me endlessly."

"I know. Let me think about how to get rid of this bh."

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 185

8 minutes read

Shannon could think of a way to shut Zoe up so that she couldn't walk around outside. She was still a little worried about dealing with Noemi, but dealing with Zoe didn't need so much trouble. She just called Malone and asked him to deal with it.

Malone immediately asked someone to break Zoe's leg. After Zoe was sent to the hospital, Rodney immediately knew that although Zoe's character was not good, she would not attract others to kill her. Rodney naturally thought of Celia and her daughter. It seemed that they were not fighting alone. They must have helpers. For now, he had to find her helpers.

Rodney ordered Deon to investigate this matter carefully. He had to find out who was the accomplice of Shannon and her daughter.

Shannon grew up in the cat's alley and fought fiercely with the gangsters in the cat's alley. It was very likely that this group of fierce people came from the cat's alley.

Deon was investigating those gangsters who had a good relationship with Shannon in the Parkview Street. This investigation unexpectedly brought him unexpected gains. He even found Casen, who had tried to kill Amber on TV when he was in the Parkview Street.

Casen had committed a lot of crimes, but no one would be watched by the police like this. He had been hiding outside for a long time and had no peace like a stray dog. Blake, who had asked him to do this, had already gone abroad. He had spent almost all his money. Thinking that the most dangerous place was the safest place, he sneaked back to the cat's alley and planned to hide for a while before thinking of a way.

But he didn't expect that he would be so unlucky to be discovered by Deon. Although Casen was dressed in sloppy clothes and had disheveled hair and dirty face, Deon still recognized him. It was not a waste of effort. Deon was overjoyed and immediately got someone to control Casen.

Deon immediately brought Casen to Rodney. Of course, Rodney was not polite to Casen. He got someone to teach him a lesson and asked him why he was doing this to Amber.

Casen only knew that someone wanted him to deal with Amber, but she didn't know who the person behind him was. She couldn't stand the beating and only confessed to Blake.

Blake had already moved abroad, so it was not easy to find him. Rodney asked someone to send Casen to the police station and asked the police to sue for arrest of Blake.

Although Casen did not know the real mastermind behind the scenes, Rodney had already guessed that the mastermind behind the scenes must be Shannon. The hatred in his heart was that Shannon and her daughter were too hateful. He could not let them go easily. He must make them pay for what they did.

Rachel asked Itzel to pay attention to the rumors about Celia. She had been waiting for several days without Itzel's reply, and then came to visit Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Moore told her that she had recently seen Rodney have a good relationship with a woman Sherry and asked her about the origin of the woman Sherry.

Rachel didn't know anything about her son. She wondered if her son had found another woman after he had enlightened his Apertures. But this possibility was very small.

Not to mention his son's deep love for Amber, now that Mel was ill, how could his son be in the mood to find a woman?

Mrs. Moore then told Rachel that Sherry and Celia's former friend Zoe had been fighting fiercely recently. She meant to tell Rachel that the rumors about Celia might have been released by Sherry.

Mrs. Moore came to tell Rachel these things with her own purpose. Her daughter also had some thoughts about Rodney. However, Celia had always been in front of her, so she had never had a chance. Now that she heard about Celia's scandal, she naturally would spare no effort to tell Rachel to pave the way for her daughter.

However, Sherry, who had suddenly appeared recently, was very close to Rodney, which made her daughter, who had thought that there was hope, very unhappy. So, she told her about this matter and also said that Celia's former friend was very close to Sherry.

Her daughter suspected that it was Sherry who bribed Zoe to let her out.

When Mrs. Moore heard this, she was overjoyed. Rachel hated people who made trouble. It was better for her to tell Rachel the news so that Rachel could refuse Sherry's idea.

Rachel was very angry when she heard that. Her intuition told her that in order to make her hate Celia, her son deliberately made Celia sick so that she could reconcile with Amber. In the evening, when Rodney came back, Rachel went to the study to question him.

Rodney didn't want to tell Rachel these things at first, but when he saw that his mother was stubborn, he became angry. So he threw the recording Zoe said to Celia to Rachel.

Rodney sneered again and told her that because Zoe told the truth, someone was resentful and broke her leg. He also told Rachel that Shannon was fighting with some gangsters in Parkview Street before she married Channing. She was not a good person.

Rachel was shocked when she heard the recording. She knew very well that someone was waiting for an opportunity to take revenge. If Zoe was lying, Shannon and her daughter could have picked up the law weapons to protect themselves. They didn't need to do anything behind the scenes.

It seemed that what Zoe said was definitely true. Shannon and her daughter were not only vicious, but also black and white. At this point, Rachel finally hated Celia to the extreme.

There was no reason to like a person, but it was the same to hate a person. Rachel now hated Celia very much, but she was full of guilt for Amber. Thinking of her past with Amber, she felt sorry in her heart, so she decided to talk to Amber.

Amber was very surprised by Rachel's visit. She didn't want Rachel to enter the house, but when she saw her sitting in a wheelchair, she thought that her leg was injured, so she couldn't do anything. So she let Rachel enter Elliot's villa.

Upon seeing Rachel, Mel was so scared that she hid in Ashton's arms. "Grandpa, the bad mother-in-law is here. Hurry up and drive her away!"

Rachel's heart ached even more when she saw how frightened her grandson was. Amber motioned for Ashton to bring Mel into the room and poured Rachel a cup of tea. "I wonder why Mrs. Barron has come to see me?"

"Amber, I... I'm here to apologize to you today!" Rachel had always been strong, so she had never been so humble to others. Her apology was full of words.

Amber was also shocked by her apology. “Did the sun rise from the west today?”

Rachel held the cup nervously. “It was my fault in the past. I misunderstood you. Now I formally apologize to you. I hope you can forgive me for what I have done before.”

Amber couldn’t figure out why Rachel suddenly came to apologize. After thinking about it for a while, she realized that Mel was her purpose. She warned herself, “Mrs. Barron, there should be something else to say other than an apology.”

“Yes, in addition to apologizing, I have other things to tell you.” Rachel felt that it was a little hard to say the following words.

It was she who forced her son and Amber to divorce. At that time, she never dreamed that she would take the initiative to ask Amber and Rodney for a new marriage. She paused for a moment and said, “It was my fault in the past. I broke you up with Rodney. This time, I came to apologize and hope that you could reconcile with Rodney.”

Amber was shocked. Rachel took the initiative to let him and Rodney reunite. Was there something wrong with her ears or was Rachel talking nonsense? “Mrs. Barron, are you all right?”

After saying this, Rachel was not so embarrassed, so she continued, “I’m telling the truth. You are pregnant, so you can’t give birth without a father, and Mel can’t without a father. There has always been you in Rodney’s heart. I hope you can reconcile with him. Don’t worry, I won’t disturb you after you get married. You are alone.”

Amber couldn’t understand why Rachel was so reasonable. She wouldn’t answer her if she didn’t understand. “Mrs. Barron, let’s talk about this later.”

“You can’t take it easy anymore. It’s been several months since you were pregnant. You’d better get married to Rodney as soon as possible. This will be good for you, Rodney, and for the child.”

“Speaking of being good to the child, I have a question for Mrs. Barron. Isn’t Celia also pregnant with Rodney’s child? Why don’t you think about the child in her belly?” Amber asked tentatively. Rachel’s sudden change was really surprising, so Amber had to be on guard.

Rachel blushed and stammered, "I didn't recognize her before, but now I know I was wrong... Celia... I won't let her enter the Barron family."

Hearing Rachel's words, Amber couldn't figure out what she wanted to do. "Mrs. Barron, I appreciate your kindness. It depends on fate. Don't worry, after the child gets sick, I will let him reconcile with you. You don't have to worry about the problem that the child can't reconcile with you."

Hearing Amber's words, Rachel felt that she was too petty before. She apologized to Amber again. "I know it was all my fault in the past. Please forgive me for my re-marriage with Rodney. I beg you!"

Amber was really surprised that Rachel asked her for help. She had always been kind. Rachel was an elder after all. Since she was willing to bow her head and apologize, she didn't have to take it. So she replied, "Mrs. Barron, you're too kind. Amber has offended you a lot in the past. Last time when you were injured, Amber apologized to you."

Rachel saw that Amber spoke politely. She knew that what she had done in the past had made Amber very wary of her. It didn't only take one or two days for her to remove her vigilance. So she said a few more words to Amber and said goodbye.

It didn't take long for Rodney to come back. When he entered the door, he asked her with a gloomy face, "Mom, what are you going to do with Amber? Can't you calm down a little so that I can be at ease?"

If her son had questioned her like this before, Rachel would have been furious. But today, she asked her son to sit down with a good temper. "Why don't you ask me why I went to find her?"

"Do you still need to guess why you went to see her? You must be persuading Amber to let the child return to his ancestral roots and make her stay away from me." Rodney was not happy.

"Did Amber tell you that?"

"No, I guessed it."

"You're wrong. I went to Amber today to beg for her forgiveness." Hearing that, Rodney stared at Rachel with his eyes wide open. He didn't believe that his mother would say something like that.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 186

9 minutes read

“Don’t look at me like that. I thought a lot last night. I basically didn’t sleep all night. It was my fault that you and Amber ended up like this. In the past, I always wanted to find a woman of equal status to you, so my requirements were inevitably higher. I was also a lot harsher to Amber. In fact, I didn’t have bad intentions. Now I know I was wrong, so I went to apologize to Amber and let her marry you again.”

Rodney couldn’t believe that his mother would be so reasonable. “Mom, are you talking nonsense?”

“What nonsense? What I said is true. Amber is so pitiful. He has no mother at such a young age and has gone through so many hardships. And he also met his mother’s mother-in-law who was so unreasonable... What happened in the past was all my fault. I have figured it out. I will not stop you from being with Amber in the future. You can ask her for help.”

“Mom, why did you change so much?” Rodney was really too surprised.

“My child, why do you have so many questions? You were unhappy when I stopped you and Amber in the past, but now I agree to let you be together. Why do you have questions?”

“I just can’t believe it. Mom, you didn’t change your mind just because you wanted to sleep, did you?”

“No, don’t worry. Go and beg Amber to turn back. I’m still waiting for my grandson to call me grandma.”

“Thank you, mom!” Rodney left home excitedly. Rachel looked at the smile on her son’s face and suddenly realized that this was the first time she had seen such a comfortable smile on his face in recent years. She sighed in her heart. Why was she so pedantic in the past? If she had figured it out earlier, her son would not have had such a bitter face for so many years.

Rachel and Rodney were in a good mood, but Riya began to feel nervous. Because she had asked someone to take care of her, Rachel’s dependence on her was getting less and less. Today, she didn’t take her with her when she went out, so she didn’t know why Rachel went out.

After Rachel came back, she had always wanted to figure it out. Coincidentally, Rodney came back. The more she hid aside, the more clearly she heard the conversation between Rodney and Rachel. If Rachel went to ask Amber and Rodney to reconcile, what about Celia?

Riya knew why she stayed in the Barron family. No, she had to tell Shannon about it and let her find a way to deal with it.

Hearing Riya's report, Shannon panicked. She immediately called Itzel and asked her to go to Rachel's place to find out what made Rachel change her mind and beg Amber.

Itzel immediately bought some fruits that Rachel liked to eat and went to the Barron family's house. Rachel was very happy to see her and said, "It's fine as long as you're here. Why do you bring things with you every time?"

As she spoke, she asked Riya to quickly pour tea. Itzel took a sip of tea and deliberately mentioned Celia. "Celia went to the hospital for a check-up today. I heard that everything is very good."

"Don't mention her! It will affect your mood!" Rachel frowned when she heard Celia's name.

"What's the matter? Is it also because of what happened last time?" Itzel pretended to be a person. "You're wrong about Celia. I heard that it was a lie made up by Zoe. She blackmailed Celia. Celia ignored her, and she tried to get revenge."

"Really? I heard that Zoe's leg is broken and she lives in the hospital. Why is her leg broken?"

"What happened this time? How come I don't know?" Itzel pretended to be surprised. "Since Zoe didn't learn well, she must have offended someone."

"Don't you think it's too coincidental?" Rachel asked, "She just talked about Celia's embarrassing things, but her leg was suddenly broken. It seemed that someone had deliberately taken revenge."

"I don't think it was Celia who did it. As a rich young lady, she is weak. How could she know those people?"

“She doesn’t know her mother. I heard that her mother had a very good relationship with some local ruffians before.” Rachel felt uncomfortable when Itzel spoke for Celia and her daughter. “Itzel, why did you always speak for Celia?”

“I didn’t speak for them. I just thought that Celia was weak and didn’t look like that kind of person.”

“So she disguised herself well!” Rachel sighed. “I’ve seen so many people in my life, but I didn’t expect that she would fall into a trap. She’s really shameless! Celia and Shannon are not simple people. I was deceived by her false image and realized that I didn’t realize it until today. Fortunately, Rodney has always insisted. Otherwise, wouldn’t I be looking for trouble if I married such a disgusting person back home? She’s also the daughter of a mistress, and she’s so vicious. If I really let her marry Rodney, wouldn’t I lead a wolf into my house?”

“Do you mean that you don’t intend to let Celia and Rodney be together?”

“Of course. She’s such a vicious woman. How can I let her in? It’s too late to avoid her.”

“But she’s pregnant with Rodney’s child?” Itzel reminded him.

“Speaking of the child, I have something to tell you. You know that Rodney has never liked Celia. Whether she is pregnant or not, he doesn’t like her. This time, Rodney has always been tough to let her have the child. I was dizzy and forced Rodney to not dare to do anything. Now, think about it. If the child is left behind, it will be a disaster. I already have two grandchildren. It’s not like I can’t have any grandchildren in the future. There are plenty of opportunities to have grandchildren. Why do I have to have a baby with such a vicious woman? I can’t keep the baby in Celia’s belly, which will affect the relationship between Rodney and Amber.”

Itzel didn’t expect that Rachel would change so much. For a moment, she had no idea. “But Celia has a problem with her health now. She can’t lose her baby. If she does, she can’t give birth to a baby.”

“That’s a problem.” Rachel sighed. “Why do you think this Celia is so shameless as to insist on having Rodney’s child? She clearly knows that Rodney doesn’t like her. Why does she have to give birth to a child for Rodney?”

“She likes Rodney, doesn’t she?”

“No! I don’t believe that she loves Rodney. If Rodney is poor, would she choose to be with him? Amber is different. When she was pregnant, she didn’t choose to stay. Instead, she chose to give birth to the child and raise it alone. How ambitious do you think she is? So Amber and Rodney are suitable for each other. No matter how poor and rich Rodney is, she can fight with Rodney.”

Hearing Rachel praise Amber and Itzel, she was really upset. In the past, she had been at a disadvantage compared to Ashley, but now her daughter was at a disadvantage compared to Ashley’s daughter. How could she be angry?

However, it was not the time to be angry. They had to see how Rachel was going to deal with Celia. “Now that Celia’s child can’t be removed, how are you going to deal with her?”

“What else can we do? She must give birth to the child, and then let her give birth, but she can’t talk about the child. Anyway, I won’t be fooled, and Rodney won’t be fooled either.”

“What if she asks you for children?”

“I don’t have the money to give her. I have to make it clear to her and find a lawyer to make an agreement. She is willing to give birth to the child, and it has nothing to do with us. Either we give birth to the child and raise it for us, we don’t want her to give us any money, or we can get rid of the child. Anyway, if we don’t listen to us and give birth to the child, we won’t give her a penny.”

Itzel didn’t expect Rachel to say something like that. Rachel’s ruthlessness to Amber had been replaced by Celia’s. Itzel hated her in her heart, but she was afraid that Rachel would suspect her, so she didn’t dare to say good words for Celia, so she had to leave.

Itzel didn’t feel good about leaving the Barron family. Although she used to think that Rachel was good at changing things, she had never been targeted at others.

Rachel’s change of mind at this time was a big blow to them. If Celia was not pregnant, and if Celia’s health was fine, they could take a step back now. But now they had no way back.

Celia had to give birth to this child, and she had to be recognized by Rodney. However, Itzel was very clear about Rachel's personality. When she liked someone, she liked him unconditionally, and when she hated someone, she also hated him unconditionally.

Because she knew this characteristic of hers well, she had never forgotten to belittle Amber and raise Celia. Therefore, Rachel hated Amber so much that she had never changed her mind.

Itzel never dreamed that the trick she had used to deal with Amber would be used on Celia. What should she do now?

She had to discuss it with Shannon and find a way to deal with it as soon as possible.

Shannon did not have a good time these days. After she was sent to the police station by Rodney, the police interrogated her again and made a special confession.

Because Channing had a special case of Casen, after the interrogation, people in the police station called Channing to report this matter to him.

When Channing heard that the person who framed Amber was caught, he immediately went to the police station in person. After reading the interrogation report, Channing's expression began to become abnormal.

The person who had instructed Casen to deal with Amber was Little Nine, the leader of the local ruffians in Little Parkview Street? Little Nine and Amber had never known each other before, so how could she have thought of dealing with Amber?

Blake was definitely not the real mastermind behind the scenes. There must be someone else behind the scenes, but who could it be?

Amber was kind and never made trouble. Channing was sure that Amber would not offend anyone. So who wanted to hurt Amber?

When he heard that Casen was sent here by Rodney, Channing went to see him and asked him what he thought about this matter. Rodney smiled faintly and said, "Didn't Casen say that it was Blake who ordered it? Since someone has been confessed, let's wait until the police catch Blake."

“Do you think that the mastermind is Blake?” Channing asked.

“Or what?” Rodney smiled politely, but the smile did not reach the bottom of his eyes. What did Channing want to ask him about? To find out the truth, or to find out who was behind this.

Rodney used to have some respect for Channing, but recently, he despised him very much. He slept with his wife’s best friend, made a mistress, and left his own daughter outside for so many years. Was this a human thing?

He didn’t believe that Channing was sincerely helping Amber. To Channing, his black cap was more important than anything else. If he knew that it was Shannon who dealt with Amber, he might not really want to help Amber. On the contrary, he would find a way to suppress this matter because of his reputation and reputation. What Rodney needed to do now was not to let Shannon get away with it, but to let Shannon get the punishment she deserved.

“I don’t think it’s that simple. Blake is just a gangster who has no grudge with Amber. How could she think of harming Amber? There must be someone behind this.” Channing had just told Rodney about his worries. “I suspect that there are other people behind this.”

“Who are you suspecting?” Rodney asked in reply.

“I...” Channing had just suspected that the person was Shannon. Shannon was from Parkview Street, so she naturally knew Blake and the others. However, there was no evidence. Besides, Shannon was his wife. How embarrassing would it be to say that this wife schemed against his daughter?

Channing suddenly realized one thing. If this matter was found out to be true, it would have a bad impact on him. His reputation would definitely be ruined, and there would be no hope for him to improve his reputation.

Channing swallowed back his words. This matter couldn’t be exposed. He had to investigate it slowly. If it was Shannon who rushed him, he would have a thousand ways to kill her.

Seeing that Channing was hesitating, a look of mockery appeared in Rodney’s eyes. This Channing was just as bad as he thought. Fortunately, he had already fallen into a trap.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 187

9 minutes read

After breaking up with Rodney, Channing also began to doubt whether Rodney had a suspicious target or not. He had to find out the truth as soon as possible. He had to get rid of the danger before others found out the truth.

Channing had been suspicious of Shannon, but when he came back, he looked at Shannon with a meaningful look.

Although Channing didn't say anything else, for Shannon, who had been looking at him with her eyes, there was something wrong with her meaningful eyes. So Shannon asked the driver, Clem.

Clem followed Channing every day, so he knew his schedule like the back of his hand. He immediately reported to Shannon about Channing's trip to the police station.

Hearing that Casen had been arrested, Shannon was frightened. It seemed that Casen must have confessed something that made Channing suspect her at first.

Shannon had a guilty conscience, and she had been a little frightened. However, she didn't plot against Amber directly with Hua Yuchi, but used Blake to do it. As long as she didn't catch Blake, she would be safe.

Shannon was glad that Blake had moved. Otherwise, she would be in trouble now. Although Channing had just suspected her, there was no evidence. She had been to a dead pig and was not afraid of boiling water. Channing had no choice.

However, it was not a good idea to hang on like this. She had to find a way to save herself. She could not let Channing keep an eye on her.

Shannon thought of Itzel and decided to discuss it with her.

She had just picked up her phone and was about to call Itzel when Itzel called. She said that she had something important to discuss with her and wanted her to come out immediately.

Itzel's voice was very abnormal. Something bad must have happened. Shannon began to panic when she found out that she had asked Itzel to inquire about Rachel. Did something happen to Rachel?

Shannon immediately came to the place where she often met Itzel. As soon as she entered the room, she saw that Itzel's face was very ugly.

Itzel was also a scheming person. She never revealed her thoughts easily. Looking at her current state, Shannon's heart sank. She could not care less about her own business. She asked first, "You look sad. What happened?"

"I just came out of the Barron family. Rachel has made it clear that she is going to change her mind!" Itzel sighed.

"No way, how can this old woman change so easily? She doesn't even have the slightest bit of credit?"

"Granddaughtership? What is credit?" Itzel asked with a sneer, "For Rachel, there is only one thing that can be said, whether she likes it or not. There is never a word about credit."

"Then what should we do?"

"How would I know what to do?" Itzel answered angrily. When she thought that it was all because of Shannon, Itzel was full of anger. She really wanted to slap Shannon's face a few times.

But she could only think about it in her heart, but did not dare to take action. She knew very well that it was not the time for her to fall out with Shannon. Her daughter's current status was obtained by Shannon. She had to think about her daughter.

Feeling that she had lost her composure, Itzel picked up her teacup and took a sip of tea, which resolved her dissatisfaction with Shannon, and temporarily suppressed the anger in her heart.

Of course, Shannon knew that Itzel was very popular. She had never been so angry before, but she was not in the mood to argue with Itzel. It was a critical moment. She still had to rely on Itzel, the wicked woman. It would be fine for her daughter to be bullied for the time being.

After comforting herself in her heart, she tried her best to say as if nothing had happened, "Isn't Rachel most obedient to you? Why don't you persuade her?"

"If you can persuade me, do I need to discuss it with you? I don't know which bastard exposed you as a member of the family. Rachel hates to get involved in the affairs of the mistress most. I heard that you and Ashley are friends. She said very clearly that she would not let the daughter of the mistress marry into the family, and she also suspected that Celia approached her for another purpose."

Itzel sighed and said, "The most terrible thing is that she began to dislike me for helping Celia. I was afraid of making her suspicious, so I didn't dare to speak for Celia."

"Rachel likes children, doesn't she? You use children to move her. I don't believe that she won't like the two children that Celia is pregnant with. She has to endure it for the sake of the children, right?"

"Don't mention the child. I'm even angrier. Rachel said that she already has two grandchildren. It's not that Amber doesn't know how to give birth to a child. If you want a grandson in the future, let Amber have a baby." Itzel told Shannon what Rachel had said.

"Rachel now only thinks that Amber is good. She hates Celia as much as she hated Amber. Amber used to have Rodney's support, but now Celia doesn't like him at all. I think it's impossible for Celia to be with Rodney."

"This old woman is really hateful. Damn it, we should have told her earlier if we wanted to change our mind. Now that we are in such a situation, what should we do?" Shannon was so angry that she began to curse.

"Yes, if Celia is not pregnant and there is nothing wrong with Celia's body, we still have a way out. What should we do in this situation?" Itzel also had a headache.

"If it doesn't work, we can get some money. Rodney has so much money, and he used to be generous to Celia. If he has a child, he will definitely not treat her badly. Besides, the child belongs to him, and he will inherit the inheritance in the future. If we can get some shares of the Barron Enterprises, our Celia will not suffer losses."

“Stop dreaming. Rachel said that she would not give a penny to Celia. Her money is for Amber’s child. It’s okay for Celia to give birth to a child, but either raise the child for her or find a lawyer to sign a contract with her. The child belongs to Celia. They don’t have to bear any responsibilities.”

“It’s too vicious!” Shannon was furious. “Didn’t she want her grandson to go crazy and agree with Celia’s artificial pregnancy? Otherwise, how could Celia, a vn girl, be so wronged that she got pregnant before getting married to help her inherit the family? Because of her, Celia, a vn girl, has been an artificial tutor twice in a row, and now she has turned her body into such a mess, but she said that she wouldn’t do it. How could there be such a cheap thing in the world? No, I have to argue with her.” As she said this, she was about to stand up.

Itzel hurriedly reached out to stop her. “Calm down. What’s the use of scolding her like this? It’ll only make things worse.”

Shannon gritted her teeth and said, “But how can I bear it?”

“For Celia, you have to endure it no matter what. Now things have become like this, and your anger can’t change anything. We have to find a way to deal with it.”

Itzel tried to persuade her. In her memory, Shannon had always been able to stay calm. How could she suddenly lose her composure like this? Looking at Shannon’s behavior just now, she was afraid that Shannon would lose her mind and go to Rachel to make trouble.

Now Rachel had already hated Shannon. If Shannon came to make trouble again, she would definitely annoy Rachel. At that time, Celia would no longer count on marrying into the Barron family.

“How to deal with it? Rachel has already made her stand like this. It’s impossible to count on her.”

“There’s always a way out. There must be a way.” Itzel comforted her. “Calm down first. We’ve come out of that predicament. Is everything we’re facing now worse than it was in the past?”

Shannon nodded and also picked up her cup to take a sip of tea. She had indeed lost her composure just now. What was in front of her now was not only about Celia, but also about Channing, who had suspected her at the beginning. The two things added up made her anxious, so she had no idea for a while. Itzel was right. She couldn't change her anxiety now. She had to find a way to face it actively.

Back then, she had nothing but advantages and could defeat Ashley to become the secretary's wife. What was more, there were still so many favorable conditions. She didn't believe that she couldn't find a solution.

Seeing that Shannon had calmed down, Itzel was relieved and asked tentatively, "You are not so impatient usually. What's wrong with you today? Why are you suddenly so impatient?"

Shannon sighed. "Casen was caught."

"Ah! When did this happen?" Itzel was shocked. She was also aware of what had happened to Casen. If Casen had bitten Shannon, Channing would have skinned her. No wonder Shannon had lost her composure like this. "Does Channing also know about it?"

"Yes, he went to the police station. When he came back, his expression was not right. I felt that something was wrong, so I asked the driver. The driver said that Casen had bitten Blake. I thought that Channing must have had an idea about me, so he came to discuss it with you."

"This is bad!" Itzel panicked. There was no hatred between Amber and Blake. Channing would definitely contact Shannon.

Channing was cunning and knew what he should do. If he suspected Shannon and began to investigate, he would not be able to hide some things from her. "How much does that Casen know?"

"Casen doesn't know much. I contacted Blake, and Blake found Casen. At present, although Channing suspected me, he doesn't have any evidence. After all, Blake has already moved," Shannon explained.

"Fortunately, Blake has moved, but this matter can't be treated simply. We must find a way to distract Channing so that he won't have time to pay attention to this matter."

"That's what I mean. Only his position and Amber can distract Channing's attention. We can't move his position, nor can we do anything about it. But Amber is different. We attacked Amber..."

Itzel nodded. "That's right. We'll start with Amber. But with so many people around him, there's nothing we can do about it."

The private room was quiet for the time being. The two began to think about their own ideas. After a while, Itzel suddenly said, "I have an idea."

"What is it?"

"To create a disturbance between Amber and Rachel, and find a way to make Rachel and Amber estranged from each other, and make them as useless as before."

"It's a little difficult. I heard from Riya that even Rachel lost face and went to apologize to Amber in person. Amber is not the kind of person who is cruel and vengeful. They will definitely make peace." Shannon felt that it was not realistic to alienate Amber and Rachel.

Itzel, on the other hand, was different from what she had thought. "It's not like a day to freeze three feet. Rachel's request for peace this time won't convince Amber. She must suspect that Rachel has other motives. What we're most afraid of is distrust. As long as Amber doesn't trust Rachel, we can sow discord."

"But isn't Rodney in the middle? We won't just sit back and watch." Shannon still thought it was impossible.

"Don't worry, I must trap all of them this time..." Itzel lowered her voice and began to tell Shannon her plan.

"That's great. You're really amazing. You actually came up with this idea." After hearing Itzel's words, Shannon's eyebrows danced with excitement. "In this way, not only will Rodney no longer be as loyal to Amber as he used to be, but he can also get rid of Rachel and give Celia a chance. It's really a good idea to kill three birds with one stone."

Shannon praised Itzel so much, but she was not complacent at all. "This time, I can't leave Riya's help. You have to talk to her and let her prepare. Don't drag us down when the time comes."

"Don't worry. I'll talk to her."

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 188

9 minutes read

Not only was Amber surprised that Rachel had come to apologize, but Ashton was also surprised. Rachel had always been arrogant and arrogant. How could she suddenly lower her head to apologize?

Amber pushed Rachel's leg and broke it. At that time, Rachel hated Amber to the core and wanted to sue Amber for hurting her and sending her to the prison. How could she be so kind now? Not only was she willing to accept her again, but she also felt regret for what had happened that year. It was really incredible.

After Rachel left, Ashton discussed with Amber. He felt that Rachel's change was strange. There must be another purpose, so he asked Amber to be on guard against her.

Amber also had the same idea. He felt that Rachel was abnormal and could not believe her words. As they were talking, Rodney came in a hurry. When he entered the door, he asked, "Amber, did my mother come to apologize just now?"

Amber nodded. "That's right. My uncle and I are talking about this. Why did your mother suddenly change?"

"She knew the true colors of Celia and Shannon, so she regretted it very much. She said that it was her fault in the past, and now she will no longer oppose us being together." Rodney told Amber, "Amber, you used to be worried that my mother would stop us, but now she has said that she would not stop us. For the sake of our child, let's get married again."

She had seen Rodney's sincerity very clearly during this period, but she was really afraid of Rachel. She had a child, but she couldn't afford to be td. This matter couldn't be rushed. Amber was about to speak, but Ashton spoke in front of her. "Rodney, your mother is a changed person. You can't believe what she said, and Amber can't stand it. We'd better wait until Mel gets better."

"Amber!" Rodney looked at Amber with a pleading voice. Amber smiled faintly. "Rodney, I'm right. Mel is ill now. Let's talk about this later."

Rodney returned home with a dejected look on his face. Rachel saw her son go out happily, but when she returned home, she knew with a sullen face that he must have suffered a setback because of Amber.

She comforted her son. "It's all my fault. It was my mother who didn't want Amber to be cold-hearted. Don't worry. From now on, my mother will take the initiative to care about her and her child. People's hearts are all flesh and blood. Take it easy. After a long time, she will change her mind about us."

Rodney had no choice but to say, "Mom, you should be more concerned about Amber in the future. If she gives you a cold shoulder, you can tolerate it. For the sake of your grandson, okay?"

"Okay, I will bear it." Rachel promised.

Riya had been secretly paying attention to the conversation between Rodney and Rachel. She immediately told the conversation between Rodney and Rachel to Shannon. Shannon was very happy to hear that Amber did not buy Rachel's kindness.

It had to be said that Itzel was indeed better than him. She had long guessed that the feud between Rachel and Amber would not be resolved so easily. This was a great thing for them. It seemed that they had to speed up their work. She had already known everything about her relationship with Riya.

During this period of time, Riya was often scolded by Rachel. Seeing that Rachel was ready to distance herself from her, Riya hated Rachel to the core and naturally agreed with Shannon's plan.

Shannon told her to pay more attention to the movements of Rachel and Amber. She didn't want to let go of important things and trivial things. Riya agreed to find their soft spot to help them deal with things.

Although the police wanted to arrest Blake, Rodney knew that there was no progress in this matter so quickly. The current efficiency of the police was really poor. Blake's crime was not a big criminal case. There were countless cases like this in the international criminal police department, and they couldn't deal with it in a short time.

The capture of Blake had to be done in a different way. Rodney thought of Elliot. The Thomson family had a black-and-white relationship outside the country. If he asked the Thomson family for help, it would definitely be much more effective than the police.

While he was thinking about something, Deon came to report that he saw Elliot's men following Shannon. It seemed that Elliot also found something wrong.

Deon meant that it was better not to make enemies. There was no grudge between Rodney and Elliot. It was all because of Amber that they became like this.

Now that both of them were devoted to Amber, it was better for them to shake each other's hands and make peace.

Both Rodney and Elliot were proud and arrogant. In the past, it was impossible for either of them to take the initiative to lower their heads and make peace. However, the situation this time was different. Rodney was ready to risk everything for Amber, so he took the initiative to call Elliot and ask him out for dinner under Deon's suggestion.

Elliot naturally did not reject Rodney's invitation. He knew that Rodney had asked him to meet him for Amber's sake. Rodney's recent attitude was on the other side, and Rachel had begun to make peace with him. However, Amber did not express his opinion. He guessed that Rodney must have wanted him to persuade Amber.

When Elliot entered, Rodney had been waiting for him. When he saw Elliot coming in, he poured tea for him personally. Elliot picked up the teacup and took a sip. "Mr. Barron, what can I do for you?"

"Let's talk while eating." While they were talking, the waiter went into the restaurant one by one. Seeing that all the dishes that Rodney ordered were his favorite, Elliot narrowed his eyes and said, "Since Mr. Barron has tried so hard to find out my preferences, it seems that your meal is not so delicious."

"It's just a matter of a word for Mr. Thomson." Rodney smiled and personally poured wine for Elliot. "Mr. Thomson, please!"

Elliot didn't raise his glass. "Rodney, I'll state in advance that I won't help you persuade Amber to change his mind. Don't get me wrong. Compared to you, a heartless man, I would rather Amber and Pierce be together."

Rodney was not angry. "Mr. Thomson, you're worrying too much. To tell you the truth, no one can help Amber change his mind. I've never expected someone else to help me. I'm looking for you this time for something else."

Hearing that he didn't want to persuade Amber, Elliot picked up his cup and clinked it with Rodney's. The two drank it up in one gulp. Rodney's attitude was very good. He took the initiative to cook for Elliot. "Mr. Thomson, try this fish. It's a wild Yangtze River knife fish. It's fresh and fresh. Try it, Mr. Thomson."

Elliot tasted the taste of the fish. As expected, the meat was tender and delicious. It took him a lot of effort to eat the fish at this time. He put down his chopsticks and said, "Mr. Barron, just say it."

"I want you to help me investigate a person."

"This person is abroad?" Elliot immediately understood. In the country, if Rodney wanted to investigate someone, he didn't need his help at all. If he asked him for help, it would be beyond his reach.

"Yes."

"It's a small matter. Give me the information and I'll send it to the old master right away and have him order someone to do it." Elliot was very straightforward. "Thank you very much, Mr. Thomson!" He didn't expect Elliot to be so easy-going. Rodney was overjoyed and immediately took out Blake's information and handed it to Elliot. "This person's nickname is Blake. This is his information."

"Can I ask you what's the matter?" Elliot took the document and glanced at it before putting it aside.

"Yes, do you remember the person who schemed against Amber during the marriage? This person is the mastermind." Rodney told Elliot about how he had caught Casen.

Elliot shook his head. "This person has no feud with Amber. How could he think of harming Amber? I'm sure that Blake isn't the real mastermind. The real mastermind is someone else."

Rodney nodded. "That's what I think, too. That's why I have to find Blake and find out who the mastermind is!"

“Well, leave it to me. I’m sure you’ll be satisfied. But I need to ask one more question. Mr. Barron must have a suspect of the real mastermind, right?”

Rodney nodded. “Indeed, I suspect that it was Celia and her daughter who did this.”

“It’s the same as I thought. If that’s the case, why didn’t Mr. Barron tell Mr. Black about your suspicions?”

“To tell you the truth, Channing just came to me and asked me if I had any suspects. I didn’t tell him.”

“Why don’t you tell him? If you tell Channing your doubts, with his help, Shannon will be exposed soon.”

“I’ve thought about telling Channing, but I’m very suspicious of Channing’s character.”

“Why do you say that?”

“I think you also know the relationship between Shannon and Amber’s mother. Channing has just cheated on his wife’s friend, and he even let mistress marry into the family. He has left his biological daughter to Ashton for so many years without asking about it. Do you think he will really be a daughter of such a father?” Rodney asked.

“Well, you’re right. It’s not reliable to tell Channing. It’s more reliable to investigate it by yourself.”

“I’m afraid that after I tell Channing about it, he will be afraid of ruining his reputation and choose to cover up for Shannon. In this way, it will be impossible for him to deal with Shannon. It’s better to beat a snake to its core. Everything will be a piece of cake before he has no evidence. I’m trying to find Blake and get the truth from him. When the time comes, I’ll put the evidence in front of Channing. Even if he wants to protect Shannon, there’s nothing he can do.” Rodney didn’t intend to hide it from Elliot.

Elliot nodded. “Actually, I’ve been investigating Shannon recently. I haven’t made any progress.”

“Why do you want to investigate Shannon?” Rodney was confused.

“I suspect that Shannon is in charge of the murder of Amber’s mother. It’s just that there is no evidence.” Elliot told Rodney about what his mother had told him.

Rodney’s face became serious. “If what your mother said is true, Amber’s mother’s death must not be an accident. We have to investigate this matter carefully.”

After Elliot and Rodney broke up, he immediately sent the information about Little Nine that Rodney had given him to the old master, asking him to help him find out the traces of this person and control him.

The old master naturally fulfilled his grandson’s requests and promised to immediately send someone to investigate. However, the old master also said that this matter was difficult and could not be achieved in a short period of time. Elliot naturally knew that it was not easy to find someone. After hanging up the phone, he called Pierce and asked him to help keep an eye on this person’s whereabouts.

Rachel now really regretted wanting to make up for Amber. Now that Amber was pregnant, she felt that there should be something to express, so she bought a lot of children’s clothes, toys, and pregnant women’s supplies and sent them to Amber.

Amber saw that Rachel’s attitude was as polite as the last time. Seeing that Rachel had bought so many gifts and was very kind, Mel was not so afraid of her. When she saw Rachel, she did not hide anymore. Instead, she stayed by Amber’s side and watched Amber and Rachel talking.

The more Rachel looked at Mel, the more she liked her. Because of illness, Mel was not as fat as those healthy children. Instead, she was a little thin and pale. Rachel felt very sad when she saw her grandson. It was all her fault. If she hadn’t treated Amber like that, Amber wouldn’t have suffered so much, and her grandson wouldn’t have fallen ill.

She wanted to hold her grandson in her arms and kiss him, but she was afraid that she would scare Mel like that last time. She tried to please Mel and gave the toys she bought to her. Mel hesitated and looked at Amber. Amber nodded, and then Mel reached out to take it.

Seeing that Mel was willing to take her toy, Rachel was very happy, so she tried to touch Mel's little hand. Since Mel did not refuse, Rachel was even happier.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 189

8 minutes read

Rachel saw that Amber was thin and looked very thin. She knew that Amber was worried about Mel's body, so she tried to comfort her so that Amber could relax. Now the most important thing was to take good care of his body. As long as the baby in his belly was healthy, Mel's condition would be treated. Rachel saw that Amber was thin and looked very thin. She knew that Amber was worried about Mel's body, so she tried to comfort her so that Amber could relax. Now the most important thing was to take good care of his body. As long as the baby in his belly was healthy, Mel's condition would be treated.

After talking for a while, Rachel said goodbye and left. On the way back, Rachel still felt worried after thinking about it. Amber was so weak. How could the child he was pregnant with be healthy? No, she had to find a way to raise Amber's body. Rachel thought about buying something nutritious to nourish Amber's body.

After going back, Rachel especially checked the pregnant women's condition and found that the pregnant women of Hong Kong and the pregnant women had started to eat bird's nest two or three months before they got pregnant. Not only could they make their mother strong, but they could also make the newborn babies stronger, whiter, more beautiful, and more difficult to get sick.

The bird's nest was a good tonic. Rachel's eyes lit up and she decided to bring the bird's nest to Amber to nourish her body.

Rachel had eaten a lot of bird's nest during these years. She asked Riya to find the bird's nest and prepare to send it to Amber the next day.

Shannon told Riya not to let go of Rachel's every move. Of course, Riya listened to her. She did not let go of any of Rachel's actions. She even read carefully the gifts that Rachel had bought for Amber and her child. She also called to report to Shannon. Shannon praised her for being careful. Now that Rachel was going to send her bird's nest, she immediately told Shannon about it secretly.

Hearing this, Shannon came up with an idea. She gave Riya an order, and Riya nodded repeatedly.

During dinner, Riya took the initiative to tell Rachel that she was good at making bird's nest. She asked Rachel to send it to Amber after she cooked the bird's nest. In this way, she would be more sincere.

Rachel felt that what she said made sense. The bird's nest was not only meant to nourish Amber's body, but also more important. She decided to cook the bird's nest and send it to Amber personally.

Over the years, she had lived a comfortable life and rarely cooked. If she cooked bird's nest for Amber, Amber would be moved when he saw her sincerity. It would be great if she was moved to loosen her mouth and start over.

After Rachel left, Amber's mood was very complicated. Rachel had bought so many gifts, and it was obvious that she had tried her best. Seeing her cautious look at Mel, Amber was a little moved.

Ashton also said that Rachel seemed to have changed into another person, completely different from before. While they were talking, Amber's phone rang. She answered Celia's voice. "Sister, how have you been!"

Amber frowned. "What's the matter, Ms. Black?"

"Did my sister receive a gift today?" Celia asked back.

"How did you know?"

"Because I also received it. I don't know whether Ms. Grant treats us equally or not." Celia drawled. Today, Ms. Grant gave me some things for pregnant women. She said her name. Amber looked like she was giving them to him.

Celia was very proud. "Sister has Mel. Ms. Grant told me to buy more toys and told me not to worry about it. How can I care about it? We are sisters, so we won't care about it."

"Shameless!" Amber was furious.

"Sister, why are you so angry?" Celia said with a smile, "Ms. Grant said that she would send me bird's nest tomorrow. It's a superior red bird's nest. She wants me to nourish her body and give birth to two big fat grandchildren for her. She said that you also have a share. Why do you think that Ms. Grant is so kind to us? Does she want us both to be her daughter-in-law?"

"Shut up!"

"Sister, don't be angry. Let me finish my words. We are sisters. Although you have always been biased against me, I have no prejudice against you. There are some things that I should make clear to you. Sister, don't dream of being together with Rodney. I am the one Ms. Grant likes all the time. She will not let you marry into our family. So you'd better be prepared. Don't be fooled by the illusion. It will be too late to regret it."

"Ms. Black, you don't have to worry about this, but I have to remind you that you know very well what's going on with the baby in your belly, don't you? It's an accident to do such a shameless thing. Isn't Ms. Black worried that there will be something wrong with the baby you gave birth to?"

"Amber, I kindly told you to be careful of Rachel. It's okay if you don't appreciate it, but how can you scold the child in my belly?" Celia's voice changed. "Amber, believe it or not, it's up to you. But I warn you in advance that for your child, you must not eat the bird's nest that Rachel gave you, or you will have to bear the consequences!" After saying this, Celia hung up the phone.

Although he was very clear about Celia's character, Amber was still stimulated. Didn't Rachel say that she didn't like Celia? In this case, how did Celia know the gift that Rachel bought for him? Did Rachel really buy the same gift for her and Celia at the same time?

This possibility really existed. The child Celia was pregnant with was not Rodney, and it had not been fully confirmed yet. Rodney said that he did not tell Rachel. Rachel did not know that with her love for children, it was very likely that she would buy two gifts for her and Celia at the same time.

If that was the case, then her good intentions could be explained. She did not want to let go of both of them. Her target was Mel and the child in her belly.

Although it was just a guess and he was not sure, Amber began to feel uncomfortable.

Rachel got up early in the morning and began to put the bird's nest in the water. She was ready to stew the bird's nest and send it to Amber to drink. Riya proposed to cook for her, but she refused. This was a matter of sincerity. Rachel felt that she wanted to show her sincerity to Amber.

Speaking of stewed bird's nest, Riya was taught by her. Although Rachel was born as a rich young lady, she was not a rich young lady who could do nothing. She was a cook in the hall. When she and Rodney's father loved each other deeply, she often made soup for her husband's bird's nest.

She washed the bird's nest in person, put it in the water, and soaked it in soft water. Then she cleaned up the things in the bird's nest, put the bird's nest in the water, and made it bigger. Then she put the bird's nest and the water in the bird's nest into the stewed cup, added sugar candy, put it into the steamed pot, and stewed it in the fire.

While cooking the bird's nest, Rachel had been sitting by the side. Finally, the bird's nest was cooked. Rachel packed the cooked bird's nest and was ready to go out to give it to Amber.

At that moment, Itzel suddenly came to the Barron family. Seeing Itzel coming over, Rachel had no choice but to return to the house. Riya reminded her that the cooked bird's nest was not cold, so it was better to send it to Amber immediately.

Rachel looked at Itzel and hesitated. She couldn't leave Itzel behind when Itzel came, could she? So Riya volunteered to help Rachel deliver the bird's nest to Amber.

Rachel thought about it and agreed, so Riya went out with the bird's nest soup.

Amber and Ashton were playing with Mel in the living room when the doorbell rang. Amber got up and went out to open the door. He saw Riya standing at the door with a thermal container and looking at her with a big smile.

"What are you doing here?" When Amber married into the Barron family, Riya often helped Rachel bully her. She had never liked Rachel, a loyal lackey. Now, seeing Riya suddenly come to her, she became alert and her tone was not pleasant.

Riya didn't seem to care about Amber's attitude at all. She put the insulated box in her hand in front of Amber and said with a smile, "Madam asked me to bring you some bird's nest soup."

"A bird's nest?" Amber stared at the thermal container in disbelief. Celia had just reminded her last night that Rachel was going to send the bird's nest. Today, Riya came to deliver the bird's nest. What did Rachel want to do?

Riya nodded and said, "Yes, Madam said that you are pregnant now, and you have to take care of Mel. It's too hard, so she cooked bird's nest to nourish your body. This is top-level bird's nest. It is very nutritious and is most suitable for pregnant women. The most important thing is that Madam cooked the bird's nest herself. I have never seen Madam cook bird's nest in these years. It's really touching that she insisted on making bird's nest for you even though it's inconvenient for her to cook bird's nest for you!"

Amber tried his best to smile. "It's rare that Mrs. Barron is so enthusiastic that she even cooked bird's nest for me in person. How can I be embarrassed?"

"Haha, what's there to be embarrassed about? Mel and the child in your belly are both descendants of the Barron family. You're going to get married to Mr. Barron soon, and we'll be a family in the future." Riya's eyes fell on the thermal container and she said eagerly, "Eat it while it's hot!"

Amber thought of Celia's warning. "You'd better not eat those bird's nest soups, or you'll have to bear the consequences!"

She smiled faintly. "I just ate something, and I'm not hungry at all. I'd better stay and eat the bird's nest."

"If the bird's nest is cold, it won't taste good. It's better to eat it while it's hot. This is Madam's kindness. You have to accept it, right?" Riya persuaded.

"I appreciate your kindness. Go back and tell her that I'll eat bird's nest soup and let her rest assured."

"Well..." Riya frowned in embarrassment. "Miss. Stone, you know your wife's temper. She hates people who lie the most. If she knew that I lied to her, she would definitely not let me go. You'd better eat it, even if you take a bite."

These words made Amber even more alert. "Why does Riya want to watch me eat? Is there really something fishy in the bird's nest?"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 190

9 minutes read

Amber already had doubts about Rachel's sudden improvement. Now, the doubts in his heart became more and more obvious. "Did Rachel deliberately confuse me and let me let down my guard, and then find an opportunity to hurt me?"

Although this idea was a little incredible, she did not dare to joke with the child in her belly. She smiled faintly and said, "Well, I like to add milk in the bird's nest. I'll add more milk."

As she spoke, she turned around and entered the house. Riya followed behind her. After a few steps, Amber turned around and stopped Riya. "Oh, I forgot one thing. Mel suffered a great shock when she was picked up by Mrs. Barron last time. She has always been afraid of seeing you and her. You'd better not go in and be seen by him, in case he cries."

Riya stopped and asked awkwardly, "Is he afraid of me?"

"Yes, that day when he came out of the hospital, he always said that the two bad old women were so hateful. If they dare to bully him again in the future, I will call the police to arrest them."

What she said was half true and half false. Mel just said that she wanted the police to catch Rachel, and she didn't say that she wanted to catch Riya. However, when Amber saw Riya's embarrassment, he vented his hatred and lied to her.

As expected, Riya felt even more embarrassed. "Well, I'll wait for you here."

Amber smiled at her and turned to walk into the house.

Back in the house, Ashton looked at the thermal container in her hand and asked, "What's that? Who sent it?"

"Uncle, this is the bird's nest that Rachel asked Riya to send me. She said it would nourish my body." Amber put the insulated box on the tea table.

Ashton was shocked. "Did she really send you bird's nest? How could Celia guess so accurately? Is there really something wrong with this bird's nest?"

Amber glanced at Mel, who was sitting on the ground and playing with her toys. He motioned for Ashton to follow her into the kitchen and told her about Riya's strange performance just now.

Ashton's face darkened. "There must be a problem. Please don't eat it."

"Don't worry, I don't know how to eat," Amber said as he opened the lid of the insulated box. He glanced at the contents of the box and a strange expression appeared on his face.

There were more than half of the cooked bird's nest soup in the insulated box. The soup was orange-red in color and had a kind of fragrance, which was different from what she had eaten before.

"Hey, why is the color of this bird's nest so red? It's impossible for the red bird's nest to be so red!" Over the years, Amber had eaten many tonics in order to give birth to a child. In addition, the Barron family was a rich family, so the delicacies of the mountains and the seas were as common as usual. Although the red bird's nest was precious, Amber had eaten it many times. He felt that something was wrong at a glance.

Ashton went up to take a look. He picked up the insulated box and sniffed it. His expression changed drastically. "There's the smell of red flowers hidden in this bird's nest."

"What! Hidden red flowers?"

"That's right." Ashton took a pair of chopsticks and rummaged through it. He picked up a slender orange stem and said with a solemn expression, "Look, this is a red flower. The person who cooked the bird's nest wasn't meticulous enough. He didn't choose the red flower and left this one behind."

Amber took a deep breath. She knew that Ashton often read medical books for Mel's illness, especially during these days, he studied traditional native herbs every day. It was not surprising that he knew the hidden red flowers. She suspected that Rachel would play tricks in the bird's nest, but she didn't expect that she would put the hidden red flowers in the bird's nest. After all, the hidden red flowers had the effect of abortion. Wasn't Rachel trying to hurt the child in her belly?

Thinking of the consequences of eating these bird's nests, Amber was not cold but trembled. "Why is this old witch so vicious? She actually wants to harm my child."

"I don't think there's anything wrong with this. She knows that the baby in your belly belongs to Rodney, and Mel is waiting to save you with blood. Why did she kill you?" Ashton was calmer than Amber, so he immediately thought of this question.

Amber gritted his teeth and said, "She must hate me for breaking her leg, and she also ruthlessly admires Rodney for refusing to listen to her. That's why he tried to kill me."

Ashton shook his head. "I don't think she would do that. 'Tiger poison doesn't eat its children'. Mel and the child in your belly are both her grandsons. No matter how cruel she is, she won't do anything to her grandson."

Amber didn't take it seriously. "For Rachel, that b*tch Celia is also her grandson. She has always liked that b*tch. Now that the b*tch is pregnant with twins, she is more important than Mel and the child in my belly."

"No, she wants a grandson so much. No matter who gave birth, as long as it is the blood of the Barron family, she will care. I think there must be something wrong. You just said that she sent someone here. Who is that person?"

"It's her nanny, Riya. I want her to wait in the garden."

Ashton raised an eyebrow. "Could it be that the nanny did something to her?"

"No way. I have no feud with Riya. How could she want to hurt me? Even if she did something to me, it was also Rachel's order."

In the past few years in the Barron family, Amber had always been polite to Riya. He knew that he had never offended her, so she would not harm her. However, Riya had been a nanny in the Barron family for many years and had always listened to Rachel. If it was Rachel who ordered her to do this, she would not dare to disobey.

Ashton pondered for a moment and said, "Then go and test Riya first and see what she says."

“Okay, I’ll go and ask her now.” Amber also felt that Ashton’s words were reasonable. He hurriedly closed the door, picked it up, and wanted to leave, but was stopped by Ashton.

“Wait a minute. Get some bird’s nest soup and keep it as evidence. Take a hidden red flower and show it to her.”

Amber understood that Ashton was afraid that Rachel would not admit it. He took a bowl of bird’s nest soup and went out.

Walking out of the door of the living room, Amber was even more annoyed when he saw Riya looking anxiously at the house. He walked quickly to her and put the insulated box in her arms. He said sternly, “Riya, take a good look at what is inside. How dare you give it to me?”

Riya looked at the insulated box in confusion. “Isn’t this bird’s nest?” Then she opened the lid and checked it.

Amber pointed to the thermal container and said, “Do you see it clearly? Is the bird’s nest cooked in this color? Is it so fragrant? You have been in the Barron family for so many years and often cook bird’s nest. You should know it better than me, right?”

Riya stared at the bird’s nest in the insulated box and exclaimed, “Oh, how could this bird’s nest be in this color? Madam clearly said that this was a good red bird’s nest, and she deliberately asked someone to buy it from Mount Xie. It is absolutely a genuine one. Why does it look like a man-made defective product?”

“What defective product? There are obviously hidden red flowers in it. Look at what this is.” Amber picked up the hidden red flower mixed in the bird’s nest and handed it to Riya.

“A hidden red flower? No way!” Riya opened her eyes wide and looked at the hidden red flower in her hand in disbelief.

“Stop pretending!” Amber sneered. “No wonder you asked me to eat it right away. It turned out that you were afraid that if I didn’t eat it, your plot wouldn’t succeed. Tell me honestly, did Rachel ask you to do this?”

Riya waved her hand hard and said, “No, no, the bird’s nest was soaked in water from the beginning to the end and put into the thermal container. I’m only responsible for bringing it to you. I really don't know what's going on. If you don't believe me, you can ask Madam."

"Okay, let's go to the Barron family and ask Rachel in person who did it."
Amber took the lunch box, grabbed Riya, and walked out.

Riya just struggled a little and followed her out of the gate of the villa. There was no panic on her face, only confusion.

Seeing this, Amber felt that Riya really didn't know about it. Otherwise, she would definitely be very scared.

One must know that Rachel's temper was famous for being irritable. If she was a little dissatisfied, she would be furious with Riya. If Riya was really ordered by her to hurt her, now that her conspiracy had been exposed, she would definitely put the blame on Riya. After that, she would definitely scold Riya badly.

It seemed that it was really Rachel who did it. She didn't expect that the old witch would be so cruel that she didn't even care about Mel.

The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. When the driver of the Barron family, saw them coming out, he immediately got out of the car and opened the door. Amber did not care. He opened the door and got in the car directly, followed by Rachel.

On the way, Riya defended Rachel, saying that Rachel would not be so malicious to hurt the child in Amber's belly. She must have made a mistake accidentally.

Amber glared at Riya. "Don't tell me she's blind. She can't even tell if it's a bird's nest or a hidden red flower."

Riya hurriedly explained, "No, what I mean is that Madam may have taken the traditional native medicine called Tibetan Flower and cooked bird's nest for you. She accidentally mixed the two things."

Amber sneered and said, "Humph, she ate Tibetan red flowers on her own? Is she having an irregular period or is she having an affair after delivery? I don't know if she still has that kind of function at such an old age."

Riya was stunned for a moment before she realized that Amber was mocking Rachel for being an old woman. She didn't need to take the Hidden Red Flower at all. After a few seconds, she smiled apologetically and said, "Didn't you say that the Hidden Red Flower could nourish one's face and beauty? Maybe it was for this reason that Madam ate it?"

"Okay, you don't have to explain it to her." Amber interrupted her, feeling that it was ridiculous. Even if Rachel really wanted to use the hidden red flowers to nourish her face, it was impossible for her to cook the soup herself, and it was even more impossible for her to pour the soup from the hidden red flowers into the bird's nest.

Riya stopped talking. Looking at Amber's gloomy face, she didn't dare to say a word.

...

The car drove into the Barron family's house and stopped. Amber opened the door and got out of the car. Riya followed her closely.

Walking into the living room, Amber put the insulated box on the tea table, sat down on the sofa, and said to Riya,

"Where's Rachel?"

"When I left, Madam took a nap upstairs. She should be sleeping upstairs now," Riya replied.

"You asked her to come down?"

"Madam doesn't like to be disturbed when she is sleeping. Miss. Stone, I think you'd better wait here for a while. Let's talk about it when Madam wakes up."

"Why are you taking a nap at this hour? Could it be that you don't dare to come out to see me after hearing that I'm here?" Amber sneered. "Okay, she won't come to see me. I'll go see her."

As she spoke, she walked upstairs. Riya stopped her. "Miss. Stone, you can't go upstairs."

“What are you doing? I told you to ask her to come down, but you didn’t. What do you mean by stopping me from going up?” After that, she shook off Riya’s hand.

Riya followed her for two steps, and the phone at the corner of the sofa suddenly rang. She had to turn around and answer the phone.

Amber had lived here for many years and knew where Rachel’s bedroom was. Without waiting for Riya, he went upstairs.

Rachel’s bedroom was on the right side of the second floor, which was closest to the inside. Amber walked to the door, raised his hand, and knocked on the door. When he heard no sound, he knocked again, but still no one responded. He was a little impatient. Without any courtesy, he pushed the door open and went in.

As soon as he entered the room, Amber was stunned. On the wooden floor in front of the bed, Rachel lay motionless on the ground, as if she had fainted.