

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 191

9 minutes read

She hurriedly walked over and squatted down to check on Rachel's condition. She saw that Rachel's eyes were closed and her face was pale. There was a palm print on her face, and the upper right part of her forehead was red and swollen, as if it was caused by something.

Her heart sank, and she gently patted Rachel's shoulder and called Mrs. Barron twice. She didn't see any reaction. She hurriedly checked her breathing and heartbeat. Both of them were very weak. She couldn't help but be more anxious. She shouted twice, took out her mobile phone from the purse she brought with her, and dialed 120 emergency calls.

When she called, Riya also came up. As soon as she saw the situation in the room, she jumped up. "Oh, Miss. Stone, what did you do to Madam? Did you hit her?"

Amber hung up the phone and frowned. "What nonsense are you talking about? I saw her lying on the ground as soon as I came in. I don't know what's going on."

Riya stared at her suspiciously. "It's impossible. When I left, Madam was still fine. How could she fall to the ground for no reason? Look, there's a palm print on her face. You must have just come in and hit her and pushed her to the ground. How could you do this?"

"I didn't. Don't talk nonsense." Amber was anxious and angry. He really didn't expect that he would be misunderstood like this. He glanced at Rachel, who was unconscious. She knew that it was not the time to argue. It was more important to save her first.

She asked Riya to carefully turn over Rachel's body and wrap her head aside. Then she picked up the quilt on the bed and covered her with it to prevent her from getting cold and worsening her injury.

She was doing this, but Riya shouted and went downstairs, shouting, "Come on, Madam fainted, come on!"

Amber ignored her. She picked up her phone and dialed Rodney's number.

“Amber, why are you looking for me?” Rodney’s voice was full of joy. It was rare for Amber to take the initiative to call him. No wonder he was so happy.

Amber bit his lip and said, “Rodney, I’m at your house now. Your mother fainted. Come back quickly.”

Rodney sucked in a breath of cold air. “What did you say? What happened to my mother?”

“I don’t know what’s going on either. You’d better come back as soon as possible!” At this time, Amber couldn’t explain what had happened clearly in a few words. Amber decided to wait for Rodney to come back and explain it to him in person.

On the other side of the phone, Rodney said eagerly, “Okay, I’ll go back right away. Have you called an ambulance?”

“It has been called. The ambulance should arrive soon.”

The phone was hung up, and there were footsteps and noises outside the door. Riya ran upstairs again, followed by Ryan and a security guard, who were specially driving for Rachel by the Barron family.

Riya pointed at Rachel and said to Ryan and the others, “Take Madam to the hospital quickly.”

Amber quickly stopped her. “Her head is injured now. She can’t be touched casually. She has to wait for the doctor to come.”

“There is some distance between the hospital and us. We don’t know how long it will take for them to come. Why don’t we send it by ourselves?” Riya said as she pushed Ryan’s arm. “Why are you still standing there? Hurry up and lift Madam.”

“I told you to wait for the doctor to come. Why don’t you listen to me?” Amber stopped him.

“It was she who made Madam like this. She can’t listen to her. Hurry up and send her to the hospital. Hurry up!” Riya didn’t listen.

“Riya, are you in charge of this mess?” Amber was angry.

Seeing that Riya did not speak after hearing her words, she picked up the phone and called Rodney. "Mr. Barron, come back quickly, Madam passed out."

About ten minutes later, the ambulance arrived. The medical staff did a preliminary check on Rachel. They carefully carried her onto a stretcher and sent her to the car. Then, they hung the medicine and put it in an oxygen bag.

Amber and Riya followed the ambulance to the The First Hospital. On the way, Amber called Rodney again and asked him to go straight to the hospital.

When they arrived at the The First Hospital, Rachel was sent to the emergency room for further examination. At this time, Rodney and Deon also came over. He was very familiar with the director of the The First Hospital. On the way, he had already called the director. The director immediately called the most experienced chief doctor in the scar department to treat Rachel. He also came to command the rescue personally.

After the examination, Rachel was diagnosed as seriously injured. Her head was hit by a heavy object, or she fell and started to bleed. She needed immediate surgery.

Rodney was called to the office by the doctor to sign for the operation. Amber stood at the door of the office, worried about Rachel.

Soon, Rachel was pushed into the operating room. Rodney, Deon, Amber and Riya were waiting at the door of the operating room.

Just now, Rodney was busy handling all kinds of procedures for Rachel's academy entry operation. He had no time to ask about the reason for Rachel's injury in detail. Now, he calmed down and sat down. He looked at Amber and asked, "Amber, how did my mother get hurt?"

Before Amber could speak, Riya, who was sitting beside her, said angrily, "Mr. Barron, it must be Miss. Stone who pushed Madam to the ground and hurt her."

Amber looked at Riya in astonishment. "Nonsense. I didn't push her."

Rodney looked at Riya and then looked at Amber. He frowned and asked, "What's going on? Amber, tell me."

Amber glared at Riya and said to Rodney, "It's like this. This afternoon, Riya suddenly went to me with a insulated box. She said that your mother made bird's nest for me and wanted me to eat it in front of her. I opened it and saw that there was a hidden red flower in it. You should know that drinking the hidden red flower would result in a miscarriage, right? I didn't eat it. Instead, I went to your house with the bird's nest. I wanted to ask your mother why she wanted to hurt the child in my belly. Unexpectedly, when I walked into your mother's bedroom, I saw her lying unconscious on the ground. I called an ambulance in a hurry and called you again."

"It's not like that, Mr. Barron." Riya hurriedly argued. "How could Madam put things like red flowers in the bird's nest? Mel and the child in Miss. Stone's belly are her grandsons. How could she hurt her grandson?"

Amber sneered. "I don't know. You saw that there were red flowers in those bird's nests. I didn't wrong her. I didn't expect her to be so vicious that she even wanted to hurt her grandson."

Rodney's face darkened. He looked sharply at Riya and asked in a deep voice, "Riya, is that true? Is there really a hidden red flower in the bird's nest?"

Riya hesitated for a moment and said, "Madam made the bird's nest herself. I don't know if there is anything else in it. After she made it, she put it into the thermal container and asked me to send it to Miss. Stone. I also needed to see Miss. Stone eat it. I didn't look at it at that time, so I sent it directly. Miss. Stone said that she was full and didn't want to eat it for the time being. I asked her to pour out the bird's nest and return the thermal container to me, so that I could go back and report to Madam. Miss. Stone took the bird's nest into the house. After a while, she said that there was something wrong with the bird's nest. She said there were hidden red flowers. I opened it and found that there were indeed hidden red flowers in it. But I don't think Madam would do that. Mr. Barron, you have to check it out. Don't let Madam be framed."

Riya's words clearly meant something. Amber heard it and felt a burst of anger in his heart. He glared at her and shouted at her, "What do you mean? Am I going to put red flowers in the bird's nest to frame Mrs. Barron?"

Riya curled her lips and said, "I didn't say that. Anyway, I believe that Madam will never hurt people. I really can't figure out why this hidden red flower appeared out of nowhere."

Amber said, "What did you come out of nowhere? You were the one who sent it here."

"That's enough. Stop arguing." Rodney raised his hand to stop them from arguing. He already understood what was going on.

He only felt that this matter was too incredible. As Rachel's son, he knew his own mother very well.

Although Rachel was irritable and domineering, she was not vicious. She would never put red flowers in the bird's nest to hurt Amber, not to mention that the child in Amber's belly was her grandson. If the child was gone, Mel would not be saved. She wanted a grandson so much. How could she hurt her grandson?

As for Amber, Rodney was also very familiar with her. She was kind-hearted and open-minded, so she couldn't do anything like deliberately putting red flowers in the bird's nest to frame Rachel. But now, it really happened. How could he not feel strange?

Of course, he had to investigate this matter thoroughly, but the most important thing now was to figure out the cause of Rachel's injury. He softened his tone and asked Amber, "Amber, you just said that when you walked into my mother's bedroom, you saw her lying unconscious on the ground, didn't you?"

Amber replied, "Yes, I came to your house with Riya. Originally, I wanted Riya to call your mother downstairs, and I waited for her in the living room. But Riya said that your mother took a nap upstairs and told me not to disturb her. I didn't listen to her, so I went upstairs. I knocked on the door and no one paid attention to me. So I pushed the door open and saw your mother lying on the ground."

Rodney nodded and asked Riya, "Riya, you just said that Amber pushed my mother to the ground. Did you see it with your own eyes?"

Riya said, "I didn't see that. She aggressively argued with Madam. I was afraid that she would hurt Madam, so I told her that Madam had taken a nap upstairs. As a result, she rushed upstairs to question her. At this time, the phone rang, and I went to answer the phone. When I answered the phone, I saw Madam lying on the ground. She called 120. There was a palm print on Madam's face. She must have hit Madam and pushed her to the ground, causing Madam to be injured and in a coma."

Amber retorted excitedly, “Nonsense. I didn’t hit her or push her. When I went in and saw her lying on the ground, I called her a few times. When I saw that she was unconscious, I called you up. I didn’t quarrel with her at all.”

“Madam is in the room. How could she fall to the ground for no reason and even hurt her head? How can you explain this? It must be you who did it.”

“How would I know why she was injured and fell to the ground? If I said it wasn’t me, then it wasn’t me.”

The two of them began to argue again and again. Rodney’s expression became more and more ugly. Deon watched from the side and hurriedly said, “Miss. Stone, Riya, this is a hospital. It’s not good to make a big noise. I think we should talk about this later. When Mrs. Barron wakes up after the operation, she will naturally know what’s going on.”

“Yes, everything will be clear when my mother wakes up.” Rodney turned his eyes to the door of the operating room. Looking at the light on the door, he felt heavy in his heart. What happened today was too bizarre. Now his mind was in a mess and he didn’t want to think about anything. He only hoped that his mother could come out of the operating room safely.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 191

9 minutes read

She hurriedly walked over and squatted down to check on Rachel’s condition. She saw that Rachel’s eyes were closed and her face was pale. There was a palm print on her face, and the upper right part of her forehead was red and swollen, as if it was caused by something.

Her heart sank, and she gently patted Rachel’s shoulder and called Mrs. Barron twice. She didn’t see any reaction. She hurriedly checked her breathing and heartbeat. Both of them were very weak. She couldn’t help but be more anxious. She shouted twice, took out her mobile phone from the purse she brought with her, and dialed 120 emergency calls.

When she called, Riya also came up. As soon as she saw the situation in the room, she jumped up. “Oh, Miss. Stone, what did you do to Madam? Did you hit her?”

Amber hung up the phone and frowned. “What nonsense are you talking about? I saw her lying on the ground as soon as I came in. I don’t know what’s going on.”

Riya stared at her suspiciously. “It’s impossible. When I left, Madam was still fine. How could she fall to the ground for no reason? Look, there’s a palm print on her face. You must have just come in and hit her and pushed her to the ground. How could you do this?”

“I didn’t. Don’t talk nonsense.” Amber was anxious and angry. He really didn’t expect that he would be misunderstood like this. He glanced at Rachel, who was unconscious. She knew that it was not the time to argue. It was more important to save her first.

She asked Riya to carefully turn over Rachel’s body and wrap her head aside. Then she picked up the quilt on the bed and covered her with it to prevent her from getting cold and worsening her injury.

She was doing this, but Riya shouted and went downstairs, shouting, “Come on, Madam fainted, come on!”

Amber ignored her. She picked up her phone and dialed Rodney’s number.

“Amber, why are you looking for me?” Rodney’s voice was full of joy. It was rare for Amber to take the initiative to call him. No wonder he was so happy.

Amber bit his lip and said, “Rodney, I’m at your house now. Your mother fainted. Come back quickly.”

Rodney sucked in a breath of cold air. “What did you say? What happened to my mother?”

“I don’t know what’s going on either. You’d better come back as soon as possible!” At this time, Amber couldn’t explain what had happened clearly in a few words. Amber decided to wait for Rodney to come back and explain it to him in person.

On the other side of the phone, Rodney said eagerly, “Okay, I’ll go back right away. Have you called an ambulance?”

“It has been called. The ambulance should arrive soon.”

The phone was hung up, and there were footsteps and noises outside the door. Riya ran upstairs again, followed by Ryan and a security guard, who were specially driving for Rachel by the Barron family.

Riya pointed at Rachel and said to Ryan and the others, "Take Madam to the hospital quickly."

Amber quickly stopped her. "Her head is injured now. She can't be touched casually. She has to wait for the doctor to come."

"There is some distance between the hospital and us. We don't know how long it will take for them to come. Why don't we send it by ourselves?" Riya said as she pushed Ryan's arm. "Why are you still standing there? Hurry up and lift Madam."

"I told you to wait for the doctor to come. Why don't you listen to me?" Amber stopped him.

"It was she who made Madam like this. She can't listen to her. Hurry up and send her to the hospital. Hurry up!" Riya didn't listen.

"Riya, are you in charge of this mess?" Amber was angry.

Seeing that Riya did not speak after hearing her words, she picked up the phone and called Rodney. "Mr. Barron, come back quickly, Madam passed out."

About ten minutes later, the ambulance arrived. The medical staff did a preliminary check on Rachel. They carefully carried her onto a stretcher and sent her to the car. Then, they hung the medicine and put it in an oxygen bag.

Amber and Riya followed the ambulance to the The First Hospital. On the way, Amber called Rodney again and asked him to go straight to the hospital.

When they arrived at the The First Hospital, Rachel was sent to the emergency room for further examination. At this time, Rodney and Deon also came over. He was very familiar with the director of the The First Hospital. On the way, he had already called the director. The director immediately called the most experienced chief doctor in the scar department to treat Rachel. He also came to command the rescue personally.

After the examination, Rachel was diagnosed as seriously injured. Her head was hit by a heavy object, or she fell and started to bleed. She needed immediate surgery.

Rodney was called to the office by the doctor to sign for the operation. Amber stood at the door of the office, worried about Rachel.

Soon, Rachel was pushed into the operating room. Rodney, Deon, Amber and Riya were waiting at the door of the operating room.

Just now, Rodney was busy handling all kinds of procedures for Rachel's academy entry operation. He had no time to ask about the reason for Rachel's injury in detail. Now, he calmed down and sat down. He looked at Amber and asked, "Amber, how did my mother get hurt?"

Before Amber could speak, Riya, who was sitting beside her, said angrily, "Mr. Barron, it must be Miss. Stone who pushed Madam to the ground and hurt her."

Amber looked at Riya in astonishment. "Nonsense. I didn't push her."

Rodney looked at Riya and then looked at Amber. He frowned and asked, "What's going on? Amber, tell me."

Amber glared at Riya and said to Rodney, "It's like this. This afternoon, Riya suddenly went to me with a insulated box. She said that your mother made bird's nest for me and wanted me to eat it in front of her. I opened it and saw that there was a hidden red flower in it. You should know that drinking the hidden red flower would result in a miscarriage, right? I didn't eat it. Instead, I went to your house with the bird's nest. I wanted to ask your mother why she wanted to hurt the child in my belly. Unexpectedly, when I walked into your mother's bedroom, I saw her lying unconscious on the ground. I called an ambulance in a hurry and called you again."

"It's not like that, Mr. Barron." Riya hurriedly argued. "How could Madam put things like red flowers in the bird's nest? Mel and the child in Miss. Stone's belly are her grandsons. How could she hurt her grandson?"

Amber sneered. "I don't know. You saw that there were red flowers in those bird's nests. I didn't wrong her. I didn't expect her to be so vicious that she even wanted to hurt her grandson."

Rodney's face darkened. He looked sharply at Riya and asked in a deep voice, "Riya, is that true? Is there really a hidden red flower in the bird's nest?"

Riya hesitated for a moment and said, "Madam made the bird's nest herself. I don't know if there is anything else in it. After she made it, she put it into the thermal container and asked me to send it to Miss. Stone. I also needed to see Miss. Stone eat it. I didn't look at it at that time, so I sent it directly. Miss. Stone said that she was full and didn't want to eat it for the time being. I asked her to pour out the bird's nest and return the thermal container to me, so that I could go back and report to Madam. Miss. Stone took the bird's nest into the house. After a while, she said that there was something wrong with the bird's nest. She said there were hidden red flowers. I opened it and found that there were indeed hidden red flowers in it. But I don't think Madam would do that. Mr. Barron, you have to check it out. Don't let Madam be framed."

Riya's words clearly meant something. Amber heard it and felt a burst of anger in his heart. He glared at her and shouted at her, "What do you mean? Am I going to put red flowers in the bird's nest to frame Mrs. Barron?"

Riya curled her lips and said, "I didn't say that. Anyway, I believe that Madam will never hurt people. I really can't figure out why this hidden red flower appeared out of nowhere."

Amber said, "What did you come out of nowhere? You were the one who sent it here."

"That's enough. Stop arguing." Rodney raised his hand to stop them from arguing. He already understood what was going on.

He only felt that this matter was too incredible. As Rachel's son, he knew his own mother very well.

Although Rachel was irritable and domineering, she was not vicious. She would never put red flowers in the bird's nest to hurt Amber, not to mention that the child in Amber's belly was her grandson. If the child was gone, Mel would not be saved. She wanted a grandson so much. How could she hurt her grandson?

As for Amber, Rodney was also very familiar with him. She was kind-hearted and open-minded, so she couldn't do anything like deliberately putting red flowers in the bird's nest to frame Rachel. But now, it really happened. How could he not feel strange?

Of course, he had to investigate this matter thoroughly, but the most important thing now was to figure out the cause of Rachel's injury. He softened his tone and asked Amber, "Amber, you just said that when you walked into my mother's bedroom, you saw her lying unconscious on the ground, didn't you?"

Amber replied, "Yes, I came to your house with Riya. Originally, I wanted Riya to call your mother downstairs, and I waited for her in the living room. But Riya said that your mother took a nap upstairs and told me not to disturb her. I didn't listen to her, so I went upstairs. I knocked on the door and no one paid attention to me. So I pushed the door open and saw your mother lying on the ground."

Rodney nodded and asked Riya, "Riya, you just said that Amber pushed my mother to the ground. Did you see it with your own eyes?"

Riya said, "I didn't see that. She aggressively argued with Madam. I was afraid that she would hurt Madam, so I told her that Madam had taken a nap upstairs. As a result, she rushed upstairs to question her. At this time, the phone rang, and I went to answer the phone. When I answered the phone, I saw Madam lying on the ground. She called 120. There was a palm print on Madam's face. She must have hit Madam and pushed her to the ground, causing Madam to be injured and in a coma."

Amber retorted excitedly, "Nonsense. I didn't hit her or push her. When I went in and saw her lying on the ground, I called her a few times. When I saw that she was unconscious, I called you up. I didn't quarrel with her at all."

"Madam is in the room. How could she fall to the ground for no reason and even hurt her head? How can you explain this? It must be you who did it."

"How would I know why she was injured and fell to the ground? If I said it wasn't me, then it wasn't me."

The two of them began to argue again and again. Rodney's expression became more and more ugly. Deon watched from the side and hurriedly said, "Miss. Stone, Riya, this is a hospital. It's not good to make a big noise. I think we should talk about this later. When Mrs. Barron wakes up after the operation, she will naturally know what's going on."

"Yes, everything will be clear when my mother wakes up." Rodney turned his eyes to the door of the operating room. Looking at the light on the door, he felt heavy in his heart. What happened today was too bizarre. Now his mind was in a mess and he didn't want to think about anything. He only hoped that his mother could come out of the operating room safely.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 192

9 minutes read

Amber looked at Rodney's frowning and gloomy face and knew that he must be in a very heavy mood at the moment.

His father died early, and it was Rachel who raised him up. The mother and son had a deep relationship. Now that Rachel had been given the notice of critical illness, the doctor said that the operation was very risky. She might not be able to get off the operating table, or she might have been in a coma and become a vegetable.

At this moment, Amber had completely forgotten all the bullying and insults that Rachel had done to him. He only hoped that the heavens would bless him so that Rachel would be safe and sound. That way, Rodney would not be sad. At this moment, she realized that she was still deeply in love with Rodney. That was why she felt sad for him and anxious for him.

She gently touched Rodney's hand and said softly, "Rodney, don't worry too much. Mrs. Barron is blessed by heaven. She will be safe and sound."

Rodney looked up at her and said, "I hope so." Then he turned his head away and stopped looking at her.

Amber's heart sank. "Oh no!" He thought to himself. "Did Rodney suddenly become so cold to me because he believed Riya's words and thought that Rachel's injury was caused by her? If that's the case, it would be terrible. If Rachel doesn't wake up, no one can prove her innocence."

Just as she was about to explain, Riya, who was sitting on her right, suddenly whispered, "It sounds good. I don't know how to take pleasure in your misfortune!"

Amber suddenly turned his head and glared at her. "What did you say?"

"I said I was going to the bathroom." Riya curled her lips, stood up, and turned to the bathroom in the corridor.

Walking into the bathroom, Riya took a deep breath. She checked the compartments one by one and made sure that there was no one inside. She quickly took out her mobile phone from her pocket and dialed a number.

After a while, the phone was connected. She said in a low voice, “The matter has been settled. Rachel is having an operation. The doctor said that the situation is not optimistic and it may be life-threatening. Even if she is rescued, it is hard to guarantee that she will not become a fool. Now Rodney has begun to doubt Amber and is very indifferent to her. Well, I will call you if there is any situation.”

Hanging up the phone, she looked up at her pale face in the mirror on the wall in front of her and took a deep breath. The scene that happened in the Barron family at noon came back to her mind again.

After Itzel came to the Barron family’s house, she took the initiative to ask Rachel for a bird’s nest for Amber. Rachel agreed because of Itzel’s arrival.

She walked to the door with the bird’s nest in her hands. Suddenly, the villa was out of power. She shouted and asked the security guards in the security room to check what was wrong. The two security guards were busy checking around. When there was no one’s idea, she let Shannon in.

After Shannon entered, she quickly entered the living room. Today, the nurse who took care of Rachel asked for leave. In the villa, there were only security guards and drivers. The driver, Ryan, received a call from his wife half an hour ago and left in a hurry. The security guards were busy looking for the sudden power failure outside. The monitor was blank because there was no electricity. Their plan had officially begun.

In the living room, Rachel was talking to Itzel. When she heard the noise, she turned around and saw Shannon, who was dressed up.

“Why are you here?” Rachel looked at Shannon in surprise, and then she saw Riya coming in. “Didn’t you go to deliver the bird’s nest? Why are you back?”

“The driver isn’t here. We’ll see him off later.” She answered and closed the door behind her.

“Call Ryan? Why isn’t he working?” Rachel frowned.

“Mrs. Barron, don’t be so cruel. The driver is also a man, and he has his own business. It’s really chilling for you to answer people like this.” Shannon sneered and said.

“You’re not in charge of my family business.” Rachel sneered when she heard Shannon’s sarcasm.

“I’m going to interrupt.” Shannon sat down. “Don’t you wonder why I’m here?”

“Why are you here?”

“I’m here to settle the score with you.” Shannon looked at Rachel with a fierce look in her eyes.

“You wicked old witch, my daughter has been tricked by you to delay her youth for so many years, and she can’t even get healthy because of this. How can you change your mind so easily? Are you a human?”

Shannon had always been polite to Rachel. She was so angry that Rachel gasped. “You shameless mistress, how dare you come to my house to make trouble! Get out of here!”

“I won’t leave until I see your old witch get her retribution,” Shannon said slowly. “To tell you the truth, I came here today to watch how you die.”

“You are so lawless. Ask the security guards to drive her out!” Rachel ordered Riya, but she stood still. Rachel stared at her and said, “Why don’t you listen to me? Do you want to rebel?”

“Can’t I?” Riya sneered. “Since I came to the Barron family, you’ve been giving me the cold shoulder. If you don’t like me, you’ll scold me. I’ve always wanted to ask you, what on earth is your heart made of? How can you be so vicious?”

“Listen, listen...” Rachel didn’t expect that Riya, who had always swallowed her anger, would suddenly challenge her. She turned to Itzel, who had been silent.

“Have you ever seen such a arrogant servant? If I don’t deal with you today, you won’t know what you’re capable of.”

As she said this, she grabbed the teacup and smashed it like Riya. Riya dodged it and pointed at Rachel. "You old witch, how dare you be so fierce when you are about to die! Do you really think that no one can deal with you?" As she said this, she raised her hand and slapped Rachel.

Rachel had never dreamed that she would be slapped by a servant in her life. She was so angry that she gasped for breath. "You... you just wait and see how I will deal with you!"

"Get rid of me? Dream on!" Riya hated Rachel to the extreme. She was about to fight again, but Itzel, who had been silent for a long time, reached out to stop her. "It's enough to slap you in the face! If you slap me too much, it will be a bad thing."

Her words made Rachel turn to look at Itzel. "What do you mean?"

"In fact, I really want to hit you, but I can't hit you now." Itzel said slowly, "Rachel, do you know how much I hate you? You are snobbish, selfish, insidious, and unreasonable like a shrew. I, Itzel, am really blind to make friends with a friend like you."

"You..."

"What?" Itzel sneered. "You're smart, but in fact, you're as stupid as a pig. Don't you understand what you're going to face now?"

"You're on the same team?"

"It's too late for you to understand now, isn't it?" Shannon said, "Speaking of you stupid woman, I want to laugh. I think I'm smart, but in fact, I'm doing stupid things. Do you know why my daughter, a v*n girl, is willing to be pregnant for your son? Do you really think it's for Amber's good? Let me tell you, it's all my design. My daughter took a fancy to your son, and I felt that your family was good, so I had to fulfill my daughter's wish. But you, an old witch, don't keep your word and do things. You wasted my daughter's so many years of youth. I want to bite you at the thought of this!"

"As expected, Celia has a purpose to approach me from the beginning. You shameless b*tch. You are a mistress, and you even let your daughter be a mistress. Do you want to spread the name of a mistress from generation to generation?"

“Anyway, you don’t have much time left. I’ll let you have your fun. But before that, I have to tell you one thing. Do you know why Amber married Rodney for three years?” Shannon sneered. “I’m telling you, it’s not that Amber doesn’t know how to give birth, but that we made her unable to give birth. Understand?”

“In fact, she is not sick. The so-called illness was forged by me. As for whether she can give birth or not, it depends on her.” Itzel pointed at Riya.

“I fed Amber with an aphrodisiac. How could she get pregnant if she couldn’t get pregnant?” Riya also sneered. “Later, we made her faint and secretly gave her a plastic surgery. It was even more impossible for her to get pregnant!

“Why are you so vicious!” Rachel trembled with anger. Looking at the three women’s malicious faces, she struggled and shouted, “Guard! Security!”

“Don’t waste your effort. The security guards have been sent away by me. He can’t hear your call for help.” Riya sneered. “Mrs. Barron, be good. Maybe you can leave in pain.”

“What do you want to do?”

“I don’t want to do anything. I’m just going to send some things in your bird’s nest that can cause miscarriage to Amber. Soon, the child in Amber’s belly will have a miscarriage because he ate something he shouldn’t eat. The sick grandson will die without treatment, and the Barron family will have no children and no grandchildren...”

“I’ll fight to the death with you!” Rachel was so angry that her face turned blue, and she made a hissing sound in her throat. She struggled to get up from the wheelchair and rushed to Itzel.

Riya reached out and pushed. Rachel’s legs had not recovered yet. Being pushed by her like this, she could not stand steadily and fell down immediately. Her head slammed heavily on the tea table and she fainted.

Riya reached out and tried her breath. “There’s still Qi.”

“Help her to the wheelchair first, and wait for the security guard to come back.” Itzel ordered. The three helped Rachel to sit in the wheelchair and let her turn her back to the door.

“Ryan is about to come back. Let’s leave first. When the security guard comes back, you let him see Rachel sitting in the living room. When the security guard leaves, he will push her upstairs and throw her on the floor. Then he will immediately send the bird’s nest to Amber and lure her here.”

“Will Amber come?”

“Yes, we have arranged it. Don’t worry.”

“He won’t wake up, will he?”

“No, she is sick. Didn’t you change the medicine she took during this period of time? Her illness was not controlled, so it caused her to be in a coma. Now she has fallen like this. It will be difficult for her to die. When you bring Amber here, I guess she will be fine.” Itzel’s plan was very precise.

Riya nodded and went out to have a look. The security guard on duty had not come back yet. She asked Shannon and Itzel to leave first. A few minutes after Shannon and Itzel left, the security guard also came back. One of the security guards went to the living room and reported, “It was the nearby wood workers who built the branch and accidentally cut off the wire, which led to the power failure on our side. They have called to report the repair, and soon someone will come to repair it.”

“Got it. Go and do your work,” Riya ordered.

The security guard agreed, and the security guard left. Riya helped Rachel to the second floor, threw her on the floor, forged the scene, and left with stewed bird’s nest.

When he was about to go out, he ordered the security guard, “Be careful. Madam is sleeping in the morning upstairs.”

What happened afterward was that she went to send the bird’s nest and then led Amber to the Barron family. The bird’s nest was no longer Rachel’s bird’s nest, but a lost one. It was mixed with a hidden red flower. In order to prevent Amber from having a miscarriage after eating the bird’s nest, Shannon asked Celia to call Amber last night and deliberately showed discomfort when she asked her to send the bird’s nest. She also left a hidden red flower in the bird’s nest, so that Amber could tell that there was something wrong with the bird’s nest at a glance. Then she questioned Riya. Riya took the opportunity to ask her to find Rachel to confront the bird's nest, and successfully made Rachel fall into a coma and marry Amber.

Judging from Rodney's attitude toward Amber just now, he should have suspected Amber. However, he had to wait and see. He hoped that Rachel would not wake up, or that she would simply become a vegetable. Only in this way could Amber be unable to defend himself.

Riya took a deep breath in front of the mirror, calmed down, and then walked out of the bathroom.

In the corridor, she could see from a distance that Rodney was waving his hands at Amber. He was agitated while Deon was trying to persuade him.

Riya was happy in her heart. Things began to develop according to their design.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 193

8 minutes read

Riya took a few steps forward and quickly approached Amber and Rodney. She saw a paper cup scattered on the ground, and there were water stains all over the ground. She pretended to be surprised and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Madam is in a bad mood and Mr. Barron is in a bad mood," explained Deon.

Riya was good at looking at others. Although Deon was trying to smooth things over, she could tell at a glance what was going on. It must be Amber who poured a cup of water for Rodney. He knocked the cup over. She was secretly delighted.

Amber's face was flushed red. Just now, she noticed that Rodney's mouth was cracked, so she went to pour him a glass of water. Unexpectedly, Rodney didn't appreciate it. He raised his hand and knocked over the glass of water in her hand, saying that he didn't want her to pretend to be kind.

Rodney had always had a good temper with Amber. Even when he divorced her back then, he had never scolded her like this. Amber felt a little wronged. If it weren't for the fact that he was worried about Rachel, she would have left a long time ago.

She did not continue to stand by and wait for the result. After standing for such a long time because of pregnancy, she felt a little sore in her waist. So she reached out and rubbed her waist. Rodney's eyes were fixed on the door of the operating room, and his face was gloomy. No one knew what he was thinking.

Seeing Amber rubbing his waist, Deon knew that she must have been standing there for a long time, so he kindly said to Amber, "Miss. Stone, you are still pregnant. You are tired after waiting here for so long. You'd better go back and have a rest. I will inform you if there is any news."

After hearing Deon's words, Rodney looked at Amber. His face did not change at all, and his eyes were cold. "Why don't you leave? Do you want to see how miserable my mother is?"

Amber didn't say anything. She knew that Rodney was upset and didn't want to argue with him.

Riya was so happy to hear this. "Miss. Stone, you'd better go back. It's useless to stay here. It makes Mr. Barron upset."

Amber glared at Riya. "It's all this woman's fault. If she hadn't said those words, Rodney wouldn't have treated me like this. Why did this woman say that? What's her intention?"

She wanted to question Riya, but when she thought of Rachel's operation inside, she held her breath and her phone rang.

Amber didn't go back until he came out. Ashton was worried that he would call to ask about the situation. Amber lowered his voice and told him about Rachel's injury. He said that he was in the hospital now and would go back later.

Finally, the door of the operating room opened, and a nurse pushed Rachel out.

"How's it going?" A few people who were waiting outside immediately gathered around him.

The doctor came out from behind and answered, "The patient has severe cerebral hemorrhage and is in a coma. He may never wake up again. You have to be mentally prepared."

Rodney's expression changed drastically. "Is there no other way?"

"The best might be like this, the worst..." The doctor did not continue. What he meant was that the worst might be that Rachel would never wake up.

Rodney's body swayed a few times. Amber reached out to hold him, but he pushed him away. "Why are you pretending to be a good person?"

Riya didn't see the scene where the cup was overturned with her own eyes, but she saw it clearly. Rodney's face was full of anger, and he looked at Amber coldly with hatred.

Deon stretched out his hand to hold Rodney. "Mr. Barron, calm down. We don't know exactly what's going on. How heart-wrenching are you?"

Riya scolded Deon a few times in her heart. "This damned Deon, why are you trying to smooth things over at this time?" But she didn't dare to cheer for him. Rodney and Deon were not fools. All she had to do was to describe the facts that she had seen as logically as possible so that Rodney could associate them with Amber.

After sending Rachel to the intensive care unit, Rodney asked Deon to find two professional guardians to watch over Rachel. He said coldly, "Go home!"

Riya knew that he was going home to investigate. She was a little nervous, but she thought that there was no loophole in what she had just done, so she followed Rodney. Seeing Rodney striding away, Deon immediately followed him. Amber was stunned and followed them.

The car soon drove back to the Barron family's house. Rodney opened the door and strode into the living room. The living room was still the same as before. Rodney glanced around and ordered Deon, "Tell all the people in the villa today to come here."

Deon agreed. Soon, the security guards and the driver were called in.

Rodney looked at the security guard and asked, "Did anyone else come here today?"

"Yes." The security guard replied. "Doctor Xu has been here."

“Dr. Lott said that he brought some nutrition products for beauty for Madam abroad.” Riya’s finger pointed at Itzel, who was still in the living room.

Rodney picked up the things brought by Itzel and put them down. “When did Dr. Lott leave?”

“Dr. Lott left at noon,” Riya replied.

Rodney nodded and looked at the security guard. “Well, bring me the monitor outside.”

“The surveillance today is incomplete, and the power has been cut off for a few hours,” the security guard replied.

“A power failure? When did it stop?”

“Dr. Lott Xu didn’t stop for a long time after he came. He stopped for about two hours.” The security guard returned.

Rodney’s brows furrowed. He had originally planned to turn on the surveillance camera to see what was going on when Itzel had arrived. But now, what was the opinion of the surveillance camera?

“Wait a minute. The security guard said that Itzel only had a power switch when she came. Does this mother’s coma have something to do with Itzel?” Rodney’s eyes swept over the people in the room. “When was the last time you saw Madam? Give me a detailed description.”

“Madam didn’t come to see me today. I stayed in the company until I heard that something had happened to Madam.” The driver, Ryan, replied.

The security guard Xiao Zhang thought for a moment and said, “Madam didn’t go out today, nor did she take a walk. The last time I saw her was when she was in a coma.”

Another security guard answered, “I saw Madam when I was reporting about the power failure. At that time, Madam was sitting with Riya in the living room. I left after reporting the situation.”

At that time, the security guard was standing at the door of the living room and reporting. He only saw Rachel’s back and naturally did not know that Rachel had been in a coma at that time.

Rodney frowned. This meant that Rachel was good when Itzel left.

Riya replied, "The last time I saw Madam was when she fell on the floor. There was a palm print on her face, and Miss. Stone gave her first aid..."

"Wait a minute!" Rodney interrupted her. "Did Madam ask you to give me the bird's nest?"

"Yes, Madam asked me to find the bird's nest last night and said that she wanted to stew it to nourish Miss. Stone's health. Early in the morning, Madam got up to cook the bird's nest herself, but she refused on my behalf..."

"Why didn't the bird's nest cooked by Madam personally send it over? Instead, she asked you to send it over?" Rodney asked again.

"Madam was going to send it to you in person, but Dr. Lott came. It took time to talk to Dr. Lott Xu. Madam has the habit of taking a nap at noon every day. When she finished talking with Dr. Lott, it was already noon, so she asked me to send her bird's nest." Riya explained.

Rachel's habit of taking a nap at noon every day was naturally known to Rodney. Rodney looked at the security guard and asked, "Is there any other situation in the future?"

"No, we stayed in the security room all the time. We didn't see anyone or hear anything until Riya and Miss. Stone came."

"You can go down." Rodney ordered Riya's security guards and the driver to leave. Only Deon and the other two were left in the living room. He was silent for a moment and looked at Amber. "I want to hear what you said."

"I've said what I should say. When I found that there were hidden red flowers in the bird's nest, I came to question her and came in with Riya. She answered a phone call, and I went upstairs to find your mother. I shouted a few times, but no one answered. When I opened the door, I saw her lying on the ground..."

"Amber, do you think that your words are convincing?" Rodney interrupted her angrily. "My mother was fine before, and you were the last person to see her. You'd better tell the truth. What did you do to my mother so that she was in a coma?"

“Rodney, are you being unreasonable?” Amber’s face turned red. “Didn’t I tell you that she was already lying on the floor when I entered...”

“Do you think anyone will believe your words?” Rodney’s eyes became colder and colder. “Amber, you dare to act and take responsibility. Since you have done it, you should admit it. Don’t shirk it. Tell me, did you accidentally push her?”

“Rodney, how many times have I told you to believe me? I didn’t push her?” Amber went mad. The feeling of being wronged really didn’t feel good.

“Who can prove your innocence?” Rodney asked, “There is a clear handprint on my mother’s face. How dare you say that you didn’t hit her in anger?”

“I didn’t hit her, Rodney. I really didn’t hit her.” Amber realized that even if he jumped into the Yellow River, he wouldn’t be able to clear his mind.

“Don’t deny it. Last time, I saw you hit her because I chose to tolerate it because I loved you. But why didn’t you realize it at all? Amber, you have to admit that it was you who hit my mother and pushed her to the ground, causing her injury. I know that you don’t want to hurt her like this. It’s just a mistake. It doesn’t matter. As long as you admit that you are pregnant, I will forgive you.”

“How can I admit that I haven’t done those things? Rodney, how can you doubt me like this?” Amber shouted.

“It’s not that I doubt you, but it’s the fact that it’s in front of me now. Amber, you really let me down! My mother has already taken the initiative to apologize to you. Why do you still treat her like this? I know that my mother used to treat you badly. You must have killed her because of your resentment.”

“You’re unreasonable!” Amber was furious. “Rodney, I’m telling you, slanderers are illegal. If you say that I pushed your mother, I have to show you the evidence. If you suspect me, you should call the police immediately and let the police deal with it, so that I can be innocent.”

“Do you think I won’t do anything to you? Amber, God is watching you. My patience is limited,” shouted Rodney.

“I told you, if you really doubt me, you can call the police.” Amber couldn’t stand it anymore.

“Good! You win! Amber, I won’t let this matter go so easily. Just you wait, I won’t let it go so easily!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 194

9 minutes read

Listening to the quarrel between Amber and Rodney coming from the living room, Riya showed a proud smile on her face. Looking at Rodney’s current appearance, she completely believed that it was Amber who made Rachel faint. The following play would be worth watching.

While thinking, the door was suddenly opened. Amber rushed out of the living room angrily and left the Barron family.

“This woman is too vicious. How dare she be so self-righteous after doing such a heartless thing? Does she think that I don’t dare to call the police to arrest her? Deon, call the police immediately. I’d like to see how long she can last.” After Amber left angrily, Rodney was so angry that he grabbed a teacup and threw it on the ground, screaming crazily.

Hearing Rodney’s words, Riya was a little scared. “Did he really call the police? If he really called the police, it would be difficult to deal with this matter. She had heard that the police were very good at solving cases. They wouldn’t find out that Shannon had been here, would they?”

Thinking of this, Riya panicked. She immediately went into the living room, squatted down, and tidied up the broken cup that Rodney smashed, while observing the movement.

“Mr. Barron, calm down! It’s not the time to act on impulse!” Deon comforted him. “Although it’s against Amber now, there is no evidence to prove that it was Amber who did it. Besides, I don’t think Amber is such a cruel person.”

Deon still spoke for Amber as usual. Originally, Riya was very angry with Deon’s words for Amber, but now she hoped that Deon could help her say a few more words to dispel the idea of Rodney.

“How can I calm down? How can I calm down? My mother is like this now, but Amber doesn’t regret it at all. As a son, can I just watch and do nothing?” Rodney roared. “I’m going to let her go to jail. This woman is too hateful!”

“Miss. Stone is pregnant now. Can’t you treat her like this?”

“Yes, Miss. Stone is pregnant now. It’s not good to send her to the police station.” Riya also chimed in.

“I don’t care anymore. She just threatened me with her child. There are so many women who can give birth to children. Why do I have to hang myself on a tree? You saw it. Amber is so vicious. How can I miss such a person? I used to think that I was blind.” This time, Rodney was so angry that he even said such words.

“In that case, you should at least think about the child. Mel is still ill. Miss. Stone is not alone now. She is related to three people.” Deon was really panicked. He was afraid that Rodney would really deal with Amber and quickly brought Mel out. Although he did not understand what had happened at that time, looking at Amber’s aggrieved look just now, Deon had an intuition that Rachel’s fainting had nothing to do with Amber.

“Yes, I think Miss. Stone didn’t do it on purpose. Maybe she will regret it when she goes back.” Riya wanted to persuade Rodney to give up the purpose of sending Amber to the police station, and to pour the dirty water on Amber.

“Could it be that we can’t just let it go like this?” Rodney head-on smashed a fist into the coffee table. “No, we can’t just let it go like this!”

“I mean, isn’t Madam still being treated? Who knows, she might even recover. You should just endure for a while and wait to see what the situation is like.” Seeing that Rodney was still angry, Deon could only try his best to persuade him.

“How can she recover? The doctor said that the current situation is the best. My mother, she... she will never wake up.” Rodney’s voice was choked with sobs.

Riya was scared by Deon’s words, but now she calmed down after hearing what Rodney said. “No matter how bad the situation is, you have to endure it. For the sake of the child, you have to wait until the child is born and Mel is cured.”

Rodney clenched his fists. “You’re right. Let her give birth to a child first, and then I’ll teach her a lesson. She’s treating my mother like this. She’s such a vicious woman. I won’t let her continue to take care of her child. I want her to experience the pain of living a life worse than death.”

Rodney and Deon went to the hospital again. Riya breathed a sigh of relief and hid in her room. She called Shannon and told her what had happened just now. Shannon was very happy and told her to be careful and not to expose herself.

When Amber returned home, Ashton was playing with Mel in the living room. When he saw Amber looking worried, he asked, "How is Rachel?"

"The situation isn't very good. The doctor said that she might not wake up for the rest of her life." Amber sighed.

Although he didn't have a good impression of Rachel, Ashton still sympathized with her when she became like this. "What happened? Why did she become like this?"

"I don't know either. When I arrived at her house, she was already in a coma." Amber told Ashton what he saw. Thinking that Riya had been slandering him, she added angrily, "I don't know if Riya is sick, but she told Rodney that I was the one who pushed Rachel into injury. Rodney actually believed her words and suspected me. I was so angry that I had a big fight with him."

"You guys had a fight?" Ashton was surprised.

"Yes, I was very angry at that time, so I didn't think much about it and quarreled with Rodney. Uncle, you said that Riya had no feud with me. Why did she say these irresponsible words to mislead Rodney?"

"Maybe she didn't mean it."

"No, I feel that she did it on purpose. She said those words on purpose to make Rodney suspect me."

Ashton comforted him. "Amber, although Rodney suspects you, he is in a bad mood at this time, and Riya has been misleading him. It is inevitable that he will lose his judgment. It will be better when he calms down."

"I hope so. But I didn't push Rachel. I'm upright and fearless. I don't care what he thinks."

As for Rodney and Deon, the car drove out of the Barron family. Deon said worriedly, "Mr. Barron, I still don't believe that Miss. Stone would do such a thing. You should have wronged her."

“I don’t believe that Amber would do such a thing either,” Rodney replied.

“Then what about you just now?” Deon was shocked when he heard that. He subconsciously glanced at Rodney.

“Just now, it was just a show.” Rodney sneered, and his eyes were cold.

“To act? To whom?” Deon was puzzled. Just now, everyone in the room was invited by the Barron family. Who exactly was Rodney on guard against?

“Have you listened carefully to what Riya and Amber said?” Rodney asked.

“Did you hear that? Is there anything wrong with their conversation?”

“That’s because you didn’t listen carefully, and I did. Listening to their conversation, I found that there were many doubtful points. The questionable point was that Amber found that there were hidden red flowers in the bird’s nest to question my mother. If you were a nanny, what would you do?”

“I will definitely explain and stop her,” Deon replied.

“Yes, this is the performance of a normal person, but Riya didn’t. At this time, she should stop Amber from seeing my mother. And when Amber insisted on going to see my mother, she should call me immediately and ask me to come back to stop her. As a result, she didn’t do anything, but took Amber back to the Barron family. Amber asked her to call my mother down, but she refused with the excuse of my mother taking a nap. When Amber went upstairs, she didn’t follow him, but her phone rang. She stayed to answer the phone and let Amber go upstairs alone. This is the second doubt.”

“Maybe it’s just a coincidence?”

“Continue listening to me. The third doubt is that my mother will never sleep for more than an hour. This is her habit of not being able to move for so many years. Riya went to send the bird’s nest to Amber. It takes nearly an hour to get there. It’s the same when she comes back. It takes more than two hours to go back. At this time, my mother has already woken up. Although her legs are inconvenient, she can already walk with the help of something. When she heard Amber’s scream, she would not continue to stay in the room. Amber also said that she screamed a few times at the door and did not agree to let her push the door. That is to say, my mother had fainted before Amber came to my house.”

When Deon heard this, his face showed surprise. Rodney continued to say, "The most important thing is that my mother likes her grandson so much. Even if she has a great grievance against Amber, she will not hurt the child. So my mother will never give Amber a bird's nest with red flowers, and Amber will not slander my mother for no reason. Except for my mother and Amber, Riya is the only one who has touched the bird's nest. Therefore, the bird's nest can only be done by Riya." Rodney showed a sneer on his face.

"Although what you said makes sense, I can't find a reason for Riya to do this."

Deon looked incredulous. Riya had been working in the Barron family for so many years, but she had always been honest. The Barron family had never treated her shabbily. Deon could not find any reason to do so.

"Don't you think that she is deliberately against Amber? Since she didn't see Amber pushing my mother, she shouldn't accuse Amber like this. After all, this is a matter of life and death. Any careless remarks can make people misunderstand."

"Maybe she is just too worried about Madam. After all, she has been with Madam for nine years and has feelings for her."

"If my mother treats her well, I believe she will have feelings for my mother. But you know that my mother has a bad temper and her mouth is also vicious. Riya has been bullied by my mother for many years. For her, without my mother, her life will be much better than it is now."

Rodney sighed slightly. He thought of the resentful look in Riya's eyes when he saw her that day. Riya had a reason to hate Rachel.

"Even so, it's impossible for her to do such a thing to Madam, isn't it? She can completely resign and not do it?"

"There are some things that can't be inferred by common sense. You and Riya don't have a grudge against each other, nor do you have a grudge against Amber. So when I was targeting them, you were persuading her, not adding fuel to the fire. As for Riya, she was in the Barron family for nine years. She clearly knew my feelings for Amber, but after the incident happened, she didn't make any objective and fair decisions. Instead, she used such words to make me think of Amber as much as possible. I am sure that there is something wrong with her."

Rodney insisted on his point of view. “That’s why I deliberately treated Amber like that. I saw her performance and found it more and more strange. She treated me like that before, but when she heard that I was going to call the police, she suddenly pretended to be a person to persuade me. It’s really strange!”

Hearing this, Deon also remembered. Indeed, when Rodney lost his temper and said that he wanted to call the police, Riya did come in to persuade him, and she was not like this before. “In this case, let’s keep an eye on her. If there is something wrong with her, she will definitely give herself away.”

“Not only do you have to keep an eye on her, but you also have to keep an eye on Itzel. Itzel had a power failure after coming here today. Don’t you think it’s strange? Go and investigate the person who cut the short wire by mistake. Also, although the power in the villa area has been cut off and there is no monitor to watch, there is no power failure on Itzel’s way here. Ask someone to investigate the route of Itzel’s driving over, and don’t let go of any suspicious points.”

Deon nodded. “I’ll do it right away.”

“Let’s investigate the person who cut the wire first. We can investigate the matter of Itzel in a few days. Remember, don’t alert the enemy. You must be careful.” Rodney warned.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 195

9 minutes read

Rodney drove to the hospital and met Itzel, who had come to visit Rachel. She saw Rodney and Itzel wiping their tears as they walked over. “Rodney, what’s going on here? I went to see her during the day and she’s fine. We even agreed to wait for her legs to recover before going on a trip. Why did she end up like this in just a few hours?”

Itzel tried to cry as she spoke, looking heartbroken. Rodney controlled his disgust for the old woman and pretended to be angry as he answered, “My mother became like this because of Amber. She came to my house today to make trouble for my mother and pushed her down, causing her to become like this.”

“Amber pushed me? Is there a mistake?” Itzel looked as if she didn’t believe it.

“It can’t be wrong. It must be her. Last time, she came to my house to make trouble with my mother and slapped my mother in front of me. This time, there is no one else. What else can’t she do?” Rodney clenched his hands tightly. “If it weren’t for her pregnancy, I would have thought... this woman was too vicious!”

Itzel saw Rodney’s anger and helplessness in his eyes. He looked so angry and conflicted. If Amber wasn’t pregnant, he might have done something irrational to her. Itzel heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. Indeed, their plan was flawless.

In fact, just now, Shannon called her and told her that Rodney and Amber had a falling out. She didn’t fully believe it and came to see what was going on. Now that she saw Rodney with her own eyes, she was completely relieved. As long as Rachel didn’t wake up, everything would be perfect.

Itzel tried to persuade Rodney before leaving with reddened eyes. When his figure disappeared, a cold smile appeared on Rodney’s face. He instructed the two nurses who had been specially hired for Rachel, “Don’t let anyone approach my mother alone, not even a doctor.”

The two guards nodded. “Don’t worry, Mr. Barron. We’ll keep an eye on you all the time.”

Rodney left the hospital in a heavy mood. He wanted to explain to Amber, but it was not the right time, so he went straight home. Riya immediately greeted him when she heard his voice. “Mr. Barron, how is Madam?”

“That’s still the case,” Rodney replied.

“I’ve packed up. I’ll go to the hospital to take care of Madam tomorrow morning.”

“No, I’ve already hired someone to take care of her.” Rodney knew that Riya was showing her loyalty, but how could he let a suspect approach his mother again?

“I’ve been taking care of Madam for so many years, and she has gotten used to my care. You’d better let me go. To be honest, I’m worried that someone else will take care of her.” Riya pleaded.

“I know that Riya is good to my mother, but she is unconscious now. The doctor said that she needs professional people to take care of her. I have already found professional people to take care of her,” Rodney replied. “My mother has become like this now. Her family is in a mess. I don’t have time to deal with the Gu family. You’d better take care of her. There is no supervisor in this family.”

This meant that the Barron family should be handed over to her. Riya did not expect such a good thing to happen. She knew how good the Barron family was. Riya was secretly happy and prayed that Rachel would never wake up.

Noemi had been on a business trip in the past few days. When she came back and opened the door, she smelled the fragrance of a room. She was very happy. “I’m so lucky. I can eat delicious food as soon as I come back.”

Hearing the voice, Amber turned his head and smiled. “It’s not that you’re lucky, but that your uncle specially prepared it for you when he found out that you’re back today.”

“Really? Oh, uncle is so nice to me!” Noemi looked around the room and asked, “Where’s my son?”

“I’m here!” Mel ran out of the room.

“Good girl, come and let me kiss you!” Noemi opened her arms and threw herself into her arms. She raised her small mouth and kissed Noemi first. After that, she asked, “Aunt Noemi, where is my gift?”

“How many times have I told you to call me godmother and call me Aunt Noemi?” Noemi pretended to be angry.

“You can’t call your godmother.” Mel was very serious.

“Why not?”

“Uncle Elliot asked me to call him Godmother. I’ve already agreed. If I call you Godmother, won’t you be Uncle Elliot’s wife?”

Noemi and Amber looked at each other. Mel said, “Uncle Elliot doesn’t have a wife. Auntie Noemi, you’re not married, are you? Why don’t you marry Uncle Elliot? That way, I can call him Godson and call you Godson again.”

“You little devil, what are you talking about?” Noemi’s face suddenly turned red.

“Mel’s suggestion is not bad!” Ashton brought out the dishes from the kitchen and teased Noemi. Noemi’s face became redder.

At this moment, a voice with a smile sounded. “Son, Dad is coming!”

Elliot was carrying a large bag of things in his hand. He pushed the door open with a smile and walked in. Mel shook her head at him. “It’s my sworn father, not father!”

“Okay, it’s my sworn father.” Elliot followed his words and put the things in his hand on the table. He took a deep breath and said, “It smells so good! I have to see what delicious food there are tonight.”

“It’s said that a greedy cat has a sharp nose. Mr. Thomson’s nose is even better than a cat’s.” Amber teased.

“You didn’t know that until now?” Noemi also smiled.

Elliot ignored their teasing and walked around with Mel in his arms. Then he went straight to the restaurant. Seeing Ashton’s dishes, Elliot showed a greedy look. “There are so many delicious food. I’m so lucky tonight.”

“Auntie Noemi said the same thing just now. You and Auntie Noemi are both greedy cats,” Mel said in a childish voice.

Elliot laughed out loud. “I’m not a greedy cat. Your Auntie Noemi is the greedy cat.”

“Aren’t you a gluttonous cat?” Mel asked curiously.

“I’m the God of Eclipse.”

“Humph!” Noemi snorted with dissatisfaction.

Ashton brought out the last dish from the kitchen. “It’s time to start!”

Of course, Ashton’s cooking skills were not for show. He was full of wine and food. The group of people sat in the living room and chatted. Elliot asked Amber.

“Did you know that Rodney’s mother was injured and hospitalized?”

Amber nodded and told them what had happened that day. Hearing that Rodney suspected that she had caused Rachel’s coma, Noemi was so angry that she was jumping.

“Rodney is someone who doesn’t know right from wrong. I used to treat you like that, but now I suspect you. Amber, let’s ignore him in the future.”

Amber was very angry before, but now that he had calmed down, he was not as angry as before. “I understand the pain of Rodney. Although he was very angry at that time, now I think about it. If I were him, I’m afraid that I would be the same as him in that situation.”

“You’re still speaking up for him?” Noemi looked as if she was exasperated at him for not being able to live up to her expectations. “What do you want me to say? That Mr. Barron has already treated you like this, but you’re still like this. I think you’re not being bullied enough by him.”

“Noemi, this is not a small matter. Is it about human life?” Amber reminded Noemi, “If it was Rachel who fell down and got injured, it would be okay. But I don’t think it’s that simple.”

“Yes, I don’t think it’s that simple either.” Elliot interrupted. “I’m not sure about anything else, but I don’t believe that Rachel would send a bird’s nest with a hidden red flower for Amber to eat.”

“Maybe this old witch wants to end the relationship between Amber and Rodney completely?” Noemi still insisted on her opinion.

“No, Rachel has been looking forward to her grandson for a long time. She may do something like snatching the child from Amber, but she will never do something like killing her grandson. There is no reason at all.” Elliot thought about it. “The most important thing is that such a thing happened when Amber chased after Rachel of the Barron family. No matter how you look at it, it’s a conspiracy. The purpose is to make Rodney and Amber hate each other.”

“Who is so vicious?” Hearing Elliot’s words, Noemi also felt that things were a little serious.

“Isn’t that obvious?” Elliot sneered. “Who doesn’t want to see Amber and Rodney have anything to do with each other?”

“Celia?” Noemi was stunned. “It’s really possible, but her hands are too long, aren’t they?”

“The night when Rachel asked Riya to send the bird’s nest to me, Celia called me...” Amber repeated what Celia called him and said, “I thought that Rachel wanted to please me, but now I think it shouldn’t be like that. Celia knew that someone in the Barron family must have told her that Rachel bought a gift for me. Combined with the fact that Riya deliberately targeted me that day, I guessed that the person was Riya.”

Elliot agreed. “After hearing what you said, I also think that Riya is not simple. She must have been bought over by Celia and become their accomplice. Now let’s see if Rodney can figure it out.”

While they were talking, the sound of cars came from outside. Soon, the doorbell rang. Noemi opened the door and Rodney came in.

“You still have the nerve to come here?” Seeing Rodney and Noemi, she was not angry.

Rodney ignored Noemi and went straight to Amber. “Amber, I have something to say to you.”

Amber was also surprised to see Rodney. “You came at the right time. I have something to tell you. Let’s talk outside.”

The two of them went to the garden together. Amber was about to sit on a chair in the garden. Rodney reached out to hold her. “I’m cold. Wait a minute.” He took off his coat and put it on the chair. Amber looked at him with a complicated expression and sat down. Rodney sat next to her. He reached out and held Amber’s hand. “Amber, I’m sorry!”

Amber’s eyes turned red when he heard the two words “I’m sorry” in his guilty voice. “Rodney, you bastard!”

“It’s my fault. Amber, please forgive me.” As he spoke, he reached out to hold her in his arms. Amber pushed him. “Let me go.”

“Amber, let me hug you. It’ll be fine in a while.” Hearing the sadness in his voice, Amber’s heart suddenly felt uncomfortable. She did not push him anymore. Instead, she said to him, “Rodney, it really has nothing to do with me that your mother has become like this. I think someone is deliberately scheming against us.”

“I know. I didn’t mean to scold you that day. I didn’t doubt you at all. My mother would never send you a bird’s nest with a red flower hidden in it. I don’t believe that you caused her to be unconscious. I suspect that we have been set up. Riya may be an accomplice, in order to numb the other party and I deliberately did that to you. I didn’t come to explain to you before because I was afraid that they would pay attention to your side and disrupt my plan. Now I am sure that no one is paying attention to this side, so I came here today.”

“I also think that Riya is abnormal. She deliberately targeted me. She must have been instigated by someone else. I suspect that the person who directed her is Celia.” Amber told her about what Celia had called him.

“In this case, it must be her. There must be some credit for Itzel’s help.” Rodney sneered. “I have asked Deon to check it out. I believe there will be a result soon. But before that, I will make you suffer.”

“I’m fine. As long as I can find out the truth, I can accept any grievance.”

Deon felt the seriousness of the matter after hearing Rodney’s words. In order not to alert the enemy, he personally went to investigate the green soil worker who had cut the short wire.

The worker who built the branch was called Jason. He had been working as a green plant for more than 20 years. He usually liked gambling and drinking. A few days ago, he lost 200,000 dollars when he was gambling in the casino.

200,000 dollars was not a small number for a worker. But to everyone’s surprise, Jason didn’t have a sad face, which was no different from what he usually did.

After hearing this information, Deon had an intuition that something was wrong. There must be something wrong with Jason.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 196

9 minutes read

Deon immediately arranged people to follow Jason, and then went to the police station to find familiar people to adjust the surveillance of the road where Itzel’s family was located. He found that a person was sitting in the back seat of Itzel's car when he went to Rodney's house. The person in the back seat was tightly wrapped, and his appearance could not be seen clearly.

It was the same on the way back. There was still such a person in Itzel's car, but later Itzel drove the car into a small alley. When she drove out again, there was no one in the car.

Although he couldn't see that person's appearance clearly, this discovery was exciting. When Itzel went to the Barron family's house, there was still no power switch, and the surveillance in the villa area was also not turned off. Maybe she could see something.

Deon horse rushed back to the villa area and transferred the real estate surveillance video. He found that there was this person in the surveillance video when Itzel's car entered the villa area. However, after Itzel drove the car to the Barron family, this person disappeared mysteriously.

Deon immediately told the news to Rodney. Rodney carefully looked at the surveillance video copied by Deon. He sneered and said, "This person is in the car."

Seeing that Deon did not understand, he explained, "Itzel's car is attached to the front and back side of the car except for the rear. Only the camera in the front can see someone in the car. You can see that person sitting in the back seat, so you can see her in the front seat. However, after entering my house, that person should squat down and lie down alive and hide in the car, so that the camera in the front can't see the situation in the car. The security guards at home didn't pay much attention to her because Itzel was an acquaintance, so they naturally didn't notice that there was someone hiding in her car."

"That makes sense." After Rodney's explanation, Deon also understood. "In this case, this person has been hiding in the car. After the power failure, the security guard will leave. Without the surveillance, she will come out of the car. In this way, the fainted Madam must have something to do with this person."

Rodney nodded and said, "I just suspected that Itzel was abnormal when she came to my house that day. I didn't expect that she would make such a big discovery. It's true that people don't know what they are looking for."

"Itzel and Madam are friends. There's no grudge between them. Why does she want to harm Madam?" Deon was too surprised.

“This is also what I want to know. As long as I keep an eye on Itzel, the truth will be revealed.” Rodney sneered.

Although she had tried to sound out Rodney, Itzel was still worried. She asked Shannon to tell Channing about Rachel’s injury and coma.

Hearing that Amber was the one who hurt Rachel, Channing was very surprised. He did not believe that Amber would do such a thing, so he went to find Rodney personally to ask about the specific situation.

After Rodney and Channing met, their attitude was very bad. He told Channing very clearly that he and Amber were over. Now that Amber was pregnant and Mel was ill, he would not pursue it for the time being. But it did not mean that he would not pursue it for the rest of his life. When the child was born and Mel’s condition got better, he was bound to take back the right to raise the two children. He was so angry that he said that the child was not good for the child’s growth with such a vicious mother.

Channing had said a lot of good words for Amber, but Rodney still insisted on his attitude. Seeing that he couldn’t do anything about it, he was in a bad mood after returning home.

The child was Amber’s life. How could she let Rodney take away the child? But since Rachel had become like this, Rodney would never let it go so easily.

“What should I do about this?”

Channing looked terrible when he returned home. Shannon deliberately asked him what Rodney said, but Channing was angry. “Rodney is too unreasonable. So what if you make Rachel unconscious? Rachel is so vicious. She deserves to be punished.”

These words had come to a deadlock with Rodney. In the past, Rodney had seen that Channing had always been polite. This time, it seemed that he had really fallen out with Channing.

Shannon was secretly happy. She told Itzel about this. Itzel was relieved. It seemed that Rodney really believed that Amber was the one who caused Rachel’s injury. This time, the plan was perfect. The only flaw was that Rachel did not die as they imagined. Instead, she was still alive.

Although Itzel had confirmed that the chance of Rachel waking up was not high, it was still a problem. She had to find a way to get rid of it.

Since then, Itzel had gone to the hospital to visit Rachel several times. She wanted to see if there was a chance for her to make a move. However, she did not have the chance to get close to Rachel alone at all. The guards that Rodney had hired had been diligently watching her from the side.

Hearing that Itzel had gone to the hospital to visit her mother several times, Rodney sneered. It seemed that Itzel was not going to give up. She and her mother had been friends for so many years. Why did she treat her mother like this? And who was the person in the car that day? As long as he figured out these things, he could draw the net. At that time, there would be injustice and revenge. He would definitely make the person who harmed her mother die without a burial place.

Deon asked people to keep an eye on Jason day and night. At first, Jason was very normal. He worked normally and did not contact anyone else. But two or three days later, Jason went out on a night.

He got on a bus, took a dozen or so stops, got off the car, and then took a taxi to a large shopping square. After strolling for a while in the shopping square, Jason received a phone call and went to the bathroom.

A few minutes later, Jason came out of the bathroom with a bag in his hand. The people who followed him could clearly see that Jason's hands were empty when he entered, so he immediately called Deon and told him that Deon had driven to the shopping center.

He found the person in charge of the shopping square and asked him to adjust the monitor. In the monitor, he saw a man in sunglasses walking into the bathroom with a bag before Jason entered the bathroom.

Deon transferred all the surveillance cameras to find out the man's whereabouts. As a result, he soon saw the man get in a car with a tail number 465 in the underground parking lot.

After investigation, he soon found out that the owner of this car was King Cindy, the mother of the bar street. Deon began to pay attention to Cindy.

Cindy's real name was not Cindy. Her previous name was Ruby. She disliked it and changed her name to Cindy. Cindy had not learned well since she was a child. At the age of fourteen or fifteen, she was broken by a man and was pregnant with a child. Later, the man abandoned her and left. She looked around but found nothing. Later, she became a whore.

As a whore, she naturally began to decline after she was more than 30 years old. When Cindy was old, not many men were willing to accept her, so she started to do the business of pulling the strings. Of course, she not only pulled the strings, but also met some old men who were not picky about food and were unwilling to spend a lot of money to find young girls. She personally went to the party to have fun with them.

Cindy usually did not have much interest in sleeping with old men. Later, the ladies around her used a mobile phone to chat on the Internet. She heard from the ladies that the online chat could be transferred to many men. Ruby also decided to give it a try. She gave herself an Internet name that sounded literary and indifferent. She was very proud of herself. This nickname was both artistic and her own name. She was really talented. A person who was good at playing games also thought that she was talented. It was typical that she wanted to be a prostitute and build a memorial arch.

Ruby had been as calm as water for a period of time, but she had not got a man. She was very depressed. When she talked about this matter with the young ladies, everyone laughed at her bad name, saying that people nowadays had to stimulate novel works. Of course, such an artistic name was not attractive.

Ruby thought about it for a while and couldn't think of anything good. She saw that the young lady's online name was filled with some strange symbols. She asked the young lady to pick one for her. The young lady thought for a while and thought, "How about this? Don't you like the name 'As Still as Water'? Just add a symbol on the back and use your surname as a new name. Ruby didn't think the name was good at all, but she couldn't think of any novel name. So she followed the young lady's suggestion and changed the nickname 'As Calm as Water'."

But she didn't know that this was actually a trap made by the young lady. Ruby was very vicious and stingy as a mother. She often asked the young lady about the commission. The young ladies hated her to the core. The purpose of this young lady was to embarrass her.

However, it was really effective to change her name. Someone was going to have a chat with her soon. Ruby changed a lot with her indifferent nickname,

Ruby. Although most of them were scared away after meeting her, some of them liked to sleep with old women. She found a lot of fun on WeChat.

Later, Ruby met Snake. Snake was as black as his name was, but he was strong and had good skills in bed. The first time he went to bed, Ruby was obsessed with him.

Ruby had not slept with a young man with skills for a long time, so she was naturally obsessed with this Snake. After a night of affection, they left a phone call to each other, and then they began to live together.

Ruby's rival, the young lady, was so vicious, but she didn't treat men like this. Maybe because she was old, she was very kind to Snake. She often brought him home to spend the night and provided him with pocket money.

In a flash, Snake had been with her for several months. That night, Ruby returned home from the nightclub and found that Snake was not at home. She called him but no one answered.

Ruby felt strange in her heart. What on earth was going on with Snake? There had never been such a thing before.

As soon as Snake left, there was no trace of him for two days. Ruby was puzzled. "Is this little guy tired of playing with me and running away?"

It was said that prostitutes were ruthless, but Ruby was different. She really took Snake as her reliance. After Snake did not show up for two days, she suddenly woke up and immediately checked her bank card. She was so angry that the bank card's deposit was gone.

Ruby was furious. Her bank card and mobile phone were bound. Why didn't she receive a text message notice after the money was transferred? She went to the bank to check angrily, only to find that the mobile phone number she left in the bank had been changed. In the past, Snake and she were a couple, eating and living together in this bank. There were some things that she did not hide from Snake. The only person who could make her defenseless was Snake.

Ruby was so angry that she almost died. The police reported the case. After Ruby went to report the case, Deon knew it immediately. He targeted Ruby just to find the whereabouts of Snake. It turned out that he thought he could dig out the truth soon, but he didn't expect that Ruby didn't know the truth at all. But it was convenient for Deon to approach her when Ruby reported the case.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 197

7 minutes read

He went to ask Ruby with the police. Ruby didn't know much about Snake's situation, but she gave him a clue, which was that Snake often talked to a person named Malone behind her back.

At that time, she was still wary of Snake. Every time when Snake called Malone, she would hide and eavesdrop. At that time, she suspected that Malone was another woman that Snake kept outside, so she secretly checked his phone while he was taking a shower and even recorded Malone's phone number.

Now the police asked Ruby to give the phone number to the police. After Deon checked the number, he knew that Malone's real name was Malone.

Deon checked and found that this Malone had opened several shops. He was straightforward and generous, and he had many gangsters under his command. Snake had indeed been with him before.

Although it was found on the file, it didn't mean anything. Now the first thing to do was to find Snake. Previously, Rodney didn't allow the public to find out because he was afraid of alerting the enemy. Now with Ruby as a report from the police, the investigation of Snake could be carried out on the surface. The police began to arrest Snake.

When he heard that Snake was wanted by the police, Malone was very angry. Snake had long wanted to wash his hands. This was the last time he helped Malone do something.

Of course, Malone did everything meticulously. He even asked Snake to give him cash. After it was done, he gave Snake a sum of money to let him leave South City and find a place to start a new life. But he didn't expect that Snake was greedy and took away all Ruby's money.

Malone secretly cursed Snake in his heart. He asked someone to inquire about Snake, who was wanted by the police. After confirming that it was only because Ruby reported the case, Malone felt a little relieved. This matter could be big or small. First of all, the police might not be able to arrest Snake.

Even if they found Snake, they would only be sentenced to a sentence of one and a half years as long as they returned the money.

Of course, Malone was not completely assured. Snake was still wanted. He had to find a way to make Ruby sell the case. This was the best way.

Since he had heard about Snake showing off his relationship with Ruby, he did not care about how good that woman was to him. Since such a thing had happened, he wanted to meet Ruby.

Malone went to Ruby's nightclub, and a woman with heavy makeup came to him. She took the initiative to reach out and pull him. "Sir, are you alone? Do you need any service?"

Malone almost threw up when he smelled the pungent perfume on her body. He controlled himself to push her away and walked in, but the woman did not know what to do and kept introducing her to him. Hearing her explaining the situation of the young lady in the room, Malone realized that the woman was Ruby.

He found a seat and sat down. Ruby also sat next to him and continued to promote the young lady. Malone originally hated the smell of her, but after guessing that she was Ruby, he did not show his disgust, but began to size her up.

The light in the nightclub was dim. He didn't see her face clearly just now, but he felt that she was wearing heavy makeup. After taking a closer look at her now, he was shocked.

"Why does this woman look so familiar?" After carefully searching in her mind, she suddenly shivered. "Isn't this Ruby?"

Malone screamed in his heart. He had to run away before Ruby recognized him. Thinking of this, he immediately stood up and left. Ruby saw Malone sit down and listened to her talk. She thought it was a good idea. Unexpectedly, Malone suddenly got up and left the nightclub as if he was avoiding a plague. Ruby felt unlucky and spat at Malone's back. "Bah! What the hell?"

Malone hurried out of the nightclub and returned to his car. His heart was still beating fast. "Ruby is Ruby? This is a f*cking accident."

“She didn’t recognize me, did she?” Thinking about it, “She probably didn’t recognize me. If she recognized me, it would be strange if she didn’t make trouble with Ruby’s temper.”

He wiped his sweat. It was he who broke the melon for Ruby. At that time, Ruby was only in her teens. Later, she had an abortion after she was pregnant. Her brother, Rudy, had asked around about who had caused her sister’s belly. Ruby did not say that she loved him deeply. Later, if Rudy had not been caught because of the crime, he would have died without a burial place.

Of course, he was afraid of Ruby, not because he had made her pregnant, but because he had done another thing for her with his own eyes.

If Ruby told him what he had done, he would die!

When Malone returned home uneasily, Wendy saw his panicked expression and asked, “Brother, what’s wrong with you?”

“No... nothing...” Malone replied hesitantly.

Although Wendy was confused, Malone didn’t want to say that she had no choice. She poured a glass of water for him and said, “Brother, Shannon will come to the beauty salon tomorrow.”

“Did she call to inform you?”

“Yes, she asked you to go there earlier. She has something urgent to discuss with you.” Wendy looked at Malone with concern. “Brother, is there anything good about that woman looking for you? If you can hide, just hide.”

“We can hide for a while, but we can’t hide for a lifetime.” Malone sighed.

Deon immediately knew that Malone had sent people to inquire about Snake. It seemed that Malone was not willing to part with Snake. Rodney asked him to keep an eye on Malone and see what he was going to do next.

Shannon didn’t dare to meet Itzel during this time because she didn’t want to arouse Rodney’s suspicion. Therefore, she could only use her phone to contact Itzel in private. Both of them were smart enough not to let others find out. They used another mobile phone card to call each other, for fear that they would expose some clues and draw trouble.

Although Rachel was lying in bed unconscious, the doctor also said that the possibility of her waking up was very small, unless there was a miracle. Itzel was a medical student. The doctor was not sure whether Rachel would wake up or not, but it did not mean that she would never wake up. As long as there was a one in a million chance, it would be trouble.

Itzel had gone to the hospital several times to see if there was a chance to pull out Rachel's oxygen, but she had never had a chance. Seeing that the two well-behaved guards did not allow anyone to get close to them alone, Itzel was afraid. She was very clear that Rachel was a time bomb for her and Shannon, and it could explode at any time. As long as Rachel woke up, she and Shannon would not be able to escape.

She told her worries to Shannon, who had the same idea as her. After discussing it for a while, they decided to find a way to cut off Rachel's life.

Itzel had no chance to do it, but it didn't mean that others didn't. Shannon proposed to find someone to do it. The person Shannon trusted the most and was most likely to order was Malone. Of course, she thought of Malone, so she called Wendy and asked her to tell him that Malone was waiting for her at the beauty salon. She had something important to discuss with him.

Although he knew that it was not a good thing for Shannon, he couldn't avoid it, so he had to go to the beauty salon on time to wait. Shannon didn't talk nonsense. She told him about Rachel the moment they met. She wanted him to find a way to keep her from waking up.

It was naturally much easier to deal with a sick and unconscious person. Malone promised. Shannon was very happy. She hadn't been with Malone for a long time. The two of them fell in love with each other for a while and then left.

Rodney had been asking people to keep an eye on Malone, and so did the people who followed him after he went to the beauty salon.

The beauty salon opened by Wendy had a male guest area. When the stalker saw Malone enter, he followed him and found that Malone entered a VIP room.

It didn't take long for Shannon to enter the beauty salon. She also entered the VIP room where Malone entered. A man and a woman stayed in a room. Even a fool knew that their relationship was abnormal. The stalker took a photo of Shannon with a micro camera and sent it to Deon.

When Deon saw the photo, he was shocked and immediately reported it to Rodney. He heard that Malone and Shannon met at the beauty salon. No matter how stupid Rodney was, he knew what it meant.

Her mother's coma must have been arranged by Shannon, and Itzel and Riya were her accomplices.

Rodney didn't expect that Shannon and Itzel would hurt his mother so crazily. It seemed that her mother's attitude toward Amber had changed, forcing Shannon to do something to her mother. She wanted to blame everything on Amber, so that she and Amber would turn against each other. However, Shannon's wishful thinking was wrong.

Her mother would never lay her hands on her grandson to hide the red flower. Amber would never be that kind of vicious person. Of course, more importantly, he trusted Amber's character. If Rachel's coma was really caused by her, she would not refuse. Instead, she would admit it and find a way to make up for it.

As the saying went, the hatred between parents was irreconcilable. Since Rachel was unconscious, Rodney had never stopped taking revenge. To be honest, he had thought about Shannon and her daughter before. The reason why he didn't move was that he was afraid of alerting the enemy because he was afraid of blaming a good person. Now the meeting between Shannon and Malone confirmed his guess.

Elliot had been ordering people to follow Shannon. It was said that Shannon had gone to the beauty salon again, and the people following her had also entered the beauty salon. As a result, the people sent by Deon found the same result.

Shannon had a private meeting with a man in a VIP room of the beauty salon. The person who went with her took a photo of Malone and sent it to Elliot. Elliot looked at the photo and sneered. It was so interesting that Shannon had just cheated behind Channing's back.

He had to tell Amber about this and let her decide.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 198

8 minutes read

Shannon's viciousness made Rodney very worried about Amber's safety. Since Shannon could deal with her mother so crazily, she would definitely do something to Amber. He had to tell Amber about this matter so that Amber could be more careful.

Rodney went to see Amber and told him about Shannon and Malone. Amber was very surprised. There was no doubt that Shannon, who seduced Channing and gave birth to Celia, was a person with loose morals. However, Amber never thought that she would hurt people so viciously.

"This woman is too vicious. Call the police and arrest her immediately." Amber was angry and worried.

Rodney shook his head. "We can't call the police! It's too easy for them."

"What do you want to do?"

"An eye for an eye!" Rodney sneered. "They schemed so hard against us. It would be too easy for them if we just arrested them and put them in jail. I want them to have a taste of being framed."

Rachel's life and death in the hospital were uncertain. He was mentally and physically exhausted, but the person who schemed was living a free and easy life. Rodney was willing to accept it. Going to jail was just a means, and it could not change anything. Rodney felt that letting a person suffer was not to let her die, but to let her target miss, let her endure the te of physical and spirit, and let her live a life worse than death.

He had to use his own method to make the perpetrator suffer, so he would not simply send them into jail.

Amber understood Rodney's pain. "Do you need me to help you with anything?"

"As long as you take good care of yourself and Mel, it will be of the greatest help to me. In order to prevent them from being anxious, I have arranged several bodyguards for you. Someone will protect you from behind when you go out in the future."

“No, it will make me feel uncomfortable.” Amber shook his head. It would be very uncomfortable for someone behind her to be noticed by others. She didn’t want to be like this.

“No, you have to listen to me this time. That Shannon is a vicious person. If she does something to you, the consequences will be unimaginable.” Rodney insisted. “I will ask them to try not to attract your attention. I’m just afraid that you will find out that someone is following you and have a misunderstanding.”

“All right.” Seeing that he insisted, Amber had to agree. She was pregnant now, so she didn’t go out often. Apart from bringing Mel to the hospital, she stayed at home. The existence of this bodyguard wouldn’t affect her life.

“Don’t tell anyone about what happened to Shannon and the others. Don’t ruin my plan,” Rodney warned again.

“Uncle, can’t you tell me?”

“No, you’re the only one who knows about this.”

Elliot told Amber about Shannon’s affair. Walter came. He had been investigating the man who was injured by Elliot in the restaurant for the past few days. He told Elliot that the identities of the three people had been checked. The man was the owner of a bar in the street of the western area. His name was George. One of the two women was his wife, and the other was his fault.

“It’s really love and a mistress. But didn’t you say that they are as good as a person? It’s very rare to see love and a wife get along well in this world. The key is that since they are so good, why do they put on such a show in the restaurant?” Elliot was strange.

“I also felt strange, so I carefully investigated George. After a few days of investigation, I found some information. George used to be a gangster. He cheated, cheated, fought, and fought countless times. In the last two years, he began to take the right path and opened a shop in the western area. He has been very well-behaved in recent years and has never committed any crimes.”

“Does this mean that we are suspecting the wrong person?” Elliot frowned. “Forget it, let’s take it slow. Pay more attention to this person.”

He gave the photo of Malone to Walter. “This person has a special relationship with Mr. Black’s wife. Keep an eye on him recently. It’s best if I can get the photos of them together.”

Walter took the photo and looked at it in surprise. “Why is it him?”

“Do you know this person?”

“This person is called Malone. He used to hang out with George, but now the two of them don’t want to do business...”

“What did you say?” Elliot suddenly stood up. With the ambiguous relationship between Shannon and Malone, the answer was almost out.

Elliot went to have dinner in the evening and told Amber about Shannon’s private meeting with Malone. Amber had already heard about the whole thing from Rodney. She was not very surprised when she heard Elliot’s words. The only strange thing was that Rodney said that Shannon colluded with Malone to harm people, while Elliot said that Shannon cheated on him. She had to tell Rodney about it.

Amber looked calm, but Noemi was very excited. “I used to think that this b*tch often went to the beauty salon to do something bad. It’s exactly what I thought. I have to tell Mr. Black about this immediately and let him see what kind of person the woman around him is!”

“No!” Amber stopped him. Rodney had said not to alert the enemy. Wasn’t what he was doing now ruining his plan? “As the saying goes, catch the stolen goods, catch the stolen goods, catch the stolen goods, and arrest the stolen goods. We didn’t get any evidence to prove that Shannon and that man are together. It’s hard to believe.”

“Are you afraid that Channing would not believe it?” Noemi sneered. “The most hateful thing for men is to be cuckolded. Channing was just about to hear about it. Even if Shannon didn’t cheat on him, he would never believe that she was innocent.”

“In fact, I’m not afraid that he won’t believe me. I just don’t want him to regret it! After all, it’s unbearable to anyone.” Amber shook his head. Channing would never tolerate his woman cheating, but Shannon was not easy to deal with.

As long as she heard the news, she would definitely find a way to remedy it. If this matter was not handled properly, it would alert the enemy. Of course, the other reason why Amber didn't want to affect Rodney's plan was that she really didn't want to make trouble for Channing.

There was nothing wrong with her parents in the world. After all, Channing had given her life. She had no reason to let Channing have to endure such humiliation at such an old age.

"Everyone has to take responsibility for themselves. This is retribution. Shannon shamelessly seduced her best friend, so she should be punished." Noemi insisted.

"Noemi, I don't want to have anything to do with them. I have my own life, so I don't have to be entangled with them. I won't be happy either."

"I knew you would do this. It's really a good opportunity." Noemi curled her lips. Ashton interrupted, "People can't live in hatred. They will be very tired and they won't be happy. I think Amber is right. I support Amber!"

"Uncle!" Noemi stamped her feet. She hoped that Ashton could help her persuade Amber, but she didn't expect that Ashton would say that.

"Life is short and there is no need to suffer because of other people's mistakes. Channing's life has nothing to do with us. Whether Shannon cheated or did anything against the law, it has nothing to do with us. Let's not get involved and just live a good life."

Seeing that both Amber and Ashton were against it and were not interested in dealing with Shannon, Noemi and Elliot had to give up.

After dinner, Elliot said that he wanted to go to the bar to drink. When he asked Noemi if she wanted to go with him, Elliot had never invited her to drink. Noemi felt that he had something to say, so she went out with him.

However, Elliot did not have anything to say as Noemi had imagined. Instead, he took her to a bar in a roundabout way.

The bar was not the kind of high-end bar, and the atmosphere was also very bad. Noemi felt strange. Elliot had always been used to going to high-end places. Why did he suddenly think of visiting such a small place?

After drinking a few mouthfuls of wine, Noemi was in a bad mood, so she complained to Elliot, "I'm so angry! Why do you think Amber is so stupid? This is obviously a good opportunity to deal with Shannon. Why doesn't Amber use it? And uncle, I really suspect that he is not Amber's biological uncle. Does he have such an uncle? Seeing his niece being bullied and his sister being framed, he swallowed his anger!"

Elliot smiled. "Calm down. They have their own reasons. Ashton was not wrong. He just wanted Amber to live a simple and happy life. In fact, he was right. If he had been talking bad about Channing and Shannon in Amber's ear, Amber would not be like this now. She would definitely hate Channing and become extremely extreme. But now Amber is not like this. She is full of enthusiasm for life. She has hope. It's undeniable that it's Ashton's credit."

"You also changed your mind? So you don't want to deal with the b*tch and her daughter?" Noemi was very disappointed.

"If Shannon regretted her mistake that year, and if she just made a mistake at that time, I would consider letting her go, but she was obviously not like that." Elliot sneered. "Do you still remember what happened in the restaurant that day?"

"I remember." Speaking of this, Noemi was a little embarrassed. "I caused you trouble that day."

"No, that's not what I'm going to say. Look over there. Do you think it's familiar?"

"Wasn't that woman the one who cheated on the man that day?" Noemi recognized the woman.

"You have a good memory. Look over there." Elliot pointed to the other side. Noemi followed and saw the man who was beaten and his wife talking with each other.

"What's going on? Did they make up?" Noemi was confused and looked at the emotion not far away. There was no need to make up in front of the emotion.

"This man is the owner of this bar. The woman is the boss' wife. That's because he's a waiter here," Elliot explained.

Noemi looked around and was completely confused. The story of these three people was not the version she saw. The boss of the bar hooked up with the waiter's wife and there was no such thing as working hard to support the family.

"Do something smart in the future. Not everything is worth it..." Before Elliot could finish his words, Noemi suddenly stood up. He grabbed Noemi's hand and asked, "What do you want to do?"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 199

8 minutes read

"I have to ask them. They can't play with people like this."

"Sit down. I haven't finished my words." Elliot pulled Noemi to sit down. "Do you know why they worked together to lie to you?"

"Aren't I going to ask?"

"They won't tell you even if you ask. Let me tell you." Elliot sneered. "That man is a friend of Shannon's lover. Didn't you hit Celia? I thought they wanted to deal with you."

"Are you going to put on such a show to deal with me?" Noemi looked incredulous. If he really wanted to deal with her, he could just find someone to beat her up. Why did he have to work so hard?

"I just figured it out." Elliot sneered. "You beat Celia so hard that her face is swollen. Shannon must hate you. But now in the center of the storm, she doesn't dare to deal with you openly, so she did something like this. You were injured in the face of injustice. No one will investigate this matter deeply, understand?"

Noemi, who was not an idiot, immediately understood. Indeed, it was different to be beaten simply for the sake of justice. If she was beaten, the police would definitely file a case to investigate. At that time, she would have to ask who she had a grudge against.

She had only beaten Celia, and Shannon would be exposed. It was different for her to be beaten for being righteous. The police would at most sentence the person who beat her to injury, and they would not have thought that someone would plot against her. Noemi was shocked and broke out in a cold sweat. If it were not for Elliot, the consequences of that day would have been unimaginable. She gritted her teeth and said, "What a vicious woman!"

"Yes, this woman's viciousness is beyond our imagination. I'm very worried about Amber." Elliot looked around and stood up. "I called you out to tell you something more important than this. There are too many people here. Let's go out and talk."

When they got in the car, Noemi asked impatiently, "What's the matter?"

"It's about Amber's mother, Ashley." Elliot told him what his mother, Lannie, told him. "I suspect that Ashley's death has a lot to do with Shannon. I was just suspicious and didn't dare to confirm it before. But now that Rachel is in trouble, Shannon must have plotted against you behind the scenes. Now I find out that she is plotting against you behind the scenes. This woman's viciousness has exceeded my imagination. She can do so many evil things for Celia, but she can do something to deal with Ashley for her position. It can be imagined that Ashley's death has something to do with her."

"How could such a thing happen?" Noemi was also shocked. "If Ashley was really trapped by Shannon and had a car accident, Amber would have been in great pain. All these years, she always thought that Ashley's car accident was an accident."

"Yes, Shannon secretly made an appointment with Ashley outside at that time. It can't be as simple as talking. I think she deliberately provoked Ashley and caused him to have a car accident because he had a mental breakdown."

"It must be so! This b*tch is so vicious. If we don't teach her a lesson, heaven will not tolerate her. We can't let her go on like this. We have to find a way to deal with her."

"I have the same idea as you. It's just that this woman is so vicious and scheming. I can't use ordinary methods to deal with her. Now that I found out that she was cheating with another man, I wanted Amber to expose her scandal to Channing. But after thinking about it carefully, I found it inappropriate. What if this woman is desperate to deal with Amber? We should think about it carefully."

"I think we should at least tell Amber the truth now. We can't keep her in the dark for the rest of her life."

“I thought about telling Amber that I didn’t have any evidence before, so I didn’t say it. Now that Amber is pregnant, I’m worried that it will affect her mood.”

Noemi naturally knew how much influence this matter had on Amber. “What should we do now? Should we keep waiting?”

“We’ll talk about it after Amber gives birth to the baby.” Elliot sighed. “Amber is still pregnant, and Mel is ill. We can’t let her be distracted. It’s good that we know about this. In the future, you should pay more attention to it. I will also ask them to protect Amber to prevent Shannon from jumping over the wall. We’ll talk about it after Amber gives birth to the baby.”

Noemi couldn’t come up with a good idea. She knew what Elliot was worried about. Amber was exhausted for Mel, so he shouldn’t have used these things to affect her mood. However, Noemi was really unwilling to let Shannon be free like this.

Rachel was in a coma in the hospital, and Rodney and Amber fell out. Celia was in a good mood. Now the child in her belly had been in the hospital for more than four months, and the chance of accidental miscarriage was very small. Celia did not want to hide in the house to live anymore. She had to take the initiative to let Rodney see her big belly and treat her differently.

However, Channing had just banned her from coming into contact with Rodney, and she had no reason to see him. Celia came to think about how to find a way out from the hospital.

She was now pregnant and had to go to the hospital often to have a checkup. In order to have a chance encounter with Rodney, Celia deliberately went to the hospital where Rachel was hospitalized for a checkup. After going to the hospital for a checkup, of course, she had to visit Rachel. She had been there several times, but she had never met Rodney. Celia did not give up and went to the hospital after asking about the general time of Rodney’s visit to Rachel at the hospital.

The same as before, the two nurses did not allow her to enter the ward. Celia did not come here to visit Rachel. She did not allow her to enter. In the past few days, she had inquired very clearly. Rodney came to visit Rachel every day at this point. She wanted to meet him to see his attitude.

Sure enough, after standing outside the ward for a while, Rodney appeared. He hadn't seen Celia for several months. When he saw Celia with such a big belly, he was obviously stunned. Then his eyes fell on Celia's belly.

Because they were twins, Celia's belly was very big. Seeing that Rodney was paying attention to her belly, Celia was secretly happy, so she deliberately straightened her belly.

Rodney naturally took Celia's actions into account. This b*tch's belly was already so big!

Rodney sneered in his heart. "Celia must be dreaming of giving birth to her own child. Well, I should let her have a good dream and let her give birth to these two children. I will let her know how cruel the cost of scheming against people is!"

When Rodney walked up to Celia, she called him gently. His pitiful appearance made her feel sorry for him. Rodney stopped in his tracks and asked, "What are you doing here?"

"I'm here to see Auntie. She used to treat me so well..." Celia's voice choked with sobs. "It's said that something unexpected happened. How could Auntie become like this? How could the heavens treat her like this?"

"Yes, God is really blind." Rodney responded with deep feelings. Looking at the tears rolling down Celia's eyes, he felt disgusted. In the past, he actually believed that she was kind and innocent. As expected, she was blinded.

Fortunately, she had already found out her true identity. Didn't Celia like acting? Well, he accompanied her to act. Thinking of this, he took out his handkerchief and handed it to her.

Celia didn't expect that Rodney would be so kind to her. She was overjoyed. She hurriedly took the handkerchief to wipe her tears, and then sobbed to comfort him. "Rodney, you don't have to worry too much. Good people have their own fate. I will be safe and sound."

"How can I not be worried? The doctor said that my mother's best condition is her current state." Rodney sighed. During this period of time, Rachel was in a coma in the hospital. Itzel, Shannon, and others had come to the hospital often to ask around. Rodney knew their fear, so he naturally had to put on a good show.

“It won’t happen. Auntie is such a good person. She will definitely get better.” Celia repeated.

“Let me borrow your auspicious words.” Rodney sighed. After staring at Celia’s belly for a few seconds, his voice suddenly became soft. “How many months has it been?”

“It’s almost five months,” Celia replied.

“It must be very hard to have such a big belly, right?”

“It’s not hard,” Celia replied. After thinking for a while, she added, “The child can move.”

A complicated emotion flashed through Rodney’s eyes when he heard that. He seemed to want to reach out to touch Celia’s belly, but when he stretched out his hand, he retracted it dejectedly. “Thank you for your hard work! If my mother sees you like this, she will be very happy.”

Celia had been looking forward to seeing him touch her belly, but when she saw him shrink back, she was a little disappointed. However, when she heard Rodney’s words, it seemed that he was looking forward to the baby in her belly, she became happy again.

Rodney’s attitude towards her this time was completely different from the past. Celia could feel that if this situation continued, she firmly believed that she would be able to regain Rodney’s attention by relying on the child in her belly.

Rachel was in a coma and stayed in the hospital. As the saying goes, there is no tiger in the mountains but a monkey in the mountains acting like a bully. No one is leading a good life behind the scenes. Riya felt that her life was too comfortable.

She secretly met her son several times and discussed her future plans with him. Riya used to want to leave with her son after getting the money, but now the days were so comfortable that she didn’t want to leave, so she had to stay for a good life.

In the past few years, he didn’t make much money by driving for Channing. All the sources of income came from Riya.

Rodney's salary for Riya was so high that he cut off the source of income after leaving the Barron family. Therefore, Clem had always supported Riya's resignation from the Barron family.

Every time Riya couldn't stand being bullied by Rachel and came to complain to him, he would try his best to comfort her and let her think about it more.

Now that Riya took the initiative to say that she didn't want to leave Clem, he naturally fully supported Riya's decision.

Since he knew that Riya was an accomplice, Rodney had never stopped monitoring her and did not let go of the investigation of her. Rodney knew very well that Riya met Clem. Rachel had said that Clem was Riya's sugar daddy. Rodney did not believe it at that time, but now he began to doubt it after seeing Riya meet Clem frequently.

Could it be that Riya really had that kind of relationship with Clem? While Rodney was wondering, the people who sent people to investigate Riya quickly found out about Riya's past.

Knowing that Riya had a hooligan in prison and that the driver of Channing was actually Riya and the son of the gangster student, Rodney sneered.

Rodney deliberately let Riya go before to numb her nerves and let her experience the feeling of going from heaven to hell. Now that she had so much news, she had to add some seasoning to Riya's life.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 200

9 minutes read

Clem was an ignorant and incompetent person. He could not eat, drink, spend, and gamble. In order to compete for the girl's injury, he almost went to jail. Later, it was Shannon's help that saved him from jail.

Shannon helped Clem not because she was kind, but because she wanted to use Riya for her own use. Sure enough, Riya did not let her down.

Clem had nothing to do all day. Riya was worried that her son would learn bad things again, so she asked Shannon for help to find a job for her son.

It took Shannon a lot of effort to find a job for Clem. Clem didn't have much education, but he couldn't be high or low. He was very picky about work. He had to be relaxed and get a high salary.

Shannon found several jobs for him in succession, but he smashed them by himself. Later, there was really no way to get him to drive beside Channing.

Clem had been working at the bottom of society. When he suddenly heard his mother say that she asked someone to find a job to serve the secretary, he was very happy.

Although he was just a driver, being able to get close to the secretary was something that most people didn't even dare to imagine. It was said that Clem's secretary was driving. Those who had worked with him before were very envious of his work and thought highly of him. Clem also felt very proud of himself and began to pay attention to this job.

Clem had always been a celebrity in society, so it was needless to say that he was good at observing people's behavior. Channing saw that he was clever and had a good impression of him.

However, recently, Channing began to hate Clem. That day, Mr. Moore of the Public Security Bureau came to talk business with Channing and inadvertently talked about Clem.

"Is the secretary's driver named Clem?"

"What's wrong?" Channing had just asked, but his intuition told him that Clem had done something that was being watched by the police.

"That day, I arranged to sweep the yellow flowers. I caught a lot of young ladies and clients in the L.S., and one of them is called this name."

"What did you say?" Channing's face changed. Although Clem was just a driver, if this matter was spread out, it would definitely have a bad impact on him. He would say that it would be effective.

"The person who went out of the police station that day wanted to take him back to the police station. He moved you out and said that he was your driver. Later, the police saw that he was driving your special car because he was afraid that this matter would not be good for you, so they let him go. Later, they caught him in another nightclub a few days later. They were drinking K powder or driving your car. Such things happened twice in a row. I thought I had to tell you about it. As the saying goes, dogs can't change their nature of eating shit. If this person is really your driver, you should be on guard. It's best if you don't use it or not, in case you cause trouble."

Channing nodded. "I see. Thank you for reminding me."

After Mr. Moore left, Channing frowned. A piece of rat shit messed up a pot of soup. This Clem could never be used again.

Channing did things without hesitation and soon dismissed Clem. After Channing dismissed Clem, Riya immediately called Shannon and told her.

Shannon was also very surprised that Channing had suspected something. Did Channing really find out that Li Tianlan was doing something for her? She didn't ask Clem to help her a lot. In addition to asking him to inquire about Channing's news, she also asked him to throw Mel into the hospital's stinking ditch. It was unlikely that Channing had found out.

In the evening, Channing just came back and changed the driver. Shannon naturally asked Channing, "How did you change the driver? Where is the previous Clem?"

"Don't mention it. This person can't be used anymore." Channing had just told Shannon that Clem was going to hang out with women and take drugs. Only then did Shannon feel relieved. As long as she didn't suspect her, it was good. She helped Riya to calm down and let her rest assured.

Riya saw that Clem's resignation had nothing to do with helping Shannon, so she was relieved. Over the years, she had made a lot of money in the Barron family. After her son resigned, there was nothing else to do. She wanted her son to do business.

Clem knew nothing about business, nor did he know what business was good for. Riya said that she wanted him to open a supermarket with great profits. Clem also planned to open a supermarket. Later, he talked about this with his friends, but his friends said that opening a supermarket was too small. We were former guards, so if we wanted to come, we would have something new and exciting, such as a night club or a bar.

It was said that the wine in the bar was made with a lot of profits. Clem's eyes lit up when he heard his friend's words. He remembered that he used to go in and out of the bar often. When he opened the western wine, he would get a lot of money. It was indeed a good job to make money.

He told Riya his idea. When Riya heard that the profits were so high, she was also tempted. She asked her son how much it cost to open a bar or a nightclub.

Clem didn't really understand. He answered that Riya asked for about ten thousand dollars. Riya was shocked. "How could you ask for so much money?"

"This is still in the middle-class. If it's high-class, it will be more expensive." Clem explained, "I asked a friend. He said that a friend of his opened a mid-class nightclub, and his monthly pure income is more than one million dollars, and he will take it back in less than a year."

"Make so much money?" Riya didn't believe it. "Let's put this matter aside for now. I'll ask someone else."

"The other people that Riya is talking about are naturally Rodney. Rodney's business is so big, and he is a shrewd businessman. Let's see what he said."

When Rodney came back in the evening, he deliberately asked about the night club and said that she had a friend who wanted to open a shop. He didn't know if she could make money. Rodney smiled faintly and said, "The profit of this shop is very good. Sometimes, I take people to spend money. It's common for people to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars a night. I heard that their profits are several times more."

Riya's eyes lit up when she heard Rodney say that he spent more than 100,000 dollars a night. Sure enough, this was for making money, so she agreed to her son's request.

However, she couldn't take out so much money at once. She asked her son to find a store first so as to see if there was any suitable one. Clem immediately went to find a store with his friends. It was a coincidence that he happened to meet a night store that was ready to transfer funds. The decoration facilities were eighty percent new and the traffic in the area was very good. The boss said that it would earn at least ten million dollars a year, but he wanted to go abroad, so he transferred it at a low price.

As soon as Clem heard that, he was moved. The boss was sincere about transferring and asked Clem to look at the management of the nightclub. Clem stayed in the nightclub for a whole night. When he saw the nightclub's business was booming, his heart was moved even more.

The transfer fee proposed by the boss was 12 million dollars. How could Clem have so much money? Riya had worked in the Barron family for nine years. In addition, her salary, as well as the usual corruption and the hush fee given by Shannon, was no more than five million dollars in total.

These five million dollars was still far from 12 million dollars. Riya couldn't afford so much money, so she had to persuade Clem to give up. However, the huge interest made Clem's eyes red. He said to Riya that he would borrow money from Rodney. Riya didn't dare to say anything to Rodney. He asked Riya to ask Shannon for it. She said that she had done so many things for Shannon, so he had to give her some rewards. Moreover, this money was not for nothing. She could lend it to him, and she would pay it back when she made money in the future.

Riya had no way to talk to Shannon about this. Shannon was angry when she heard that she wanted so much money. This old b*tch dared to ask for so much money! She even dared to ask her for a few million dollars. She also said that she wanted to borrow it, but could she still afford it? The key was how could she have so much money all of a sudden?

She was angry in her heart, but she didn't dare to offend Riya. After all, she had used her too many times before. If she didn't help now, Riya would be dissatisfied. Riya had mastered so many secrets of her. If she accidentally said it, it would be terrible.

Shannon didn't agree to help, nor did she refuse. She just said that she didn't have so much money at the moment, so she had to borrow money from her friends.

Riya saw that she didn't refuse or doubt her and left. After breaking up with Riya, Shannon went home angrily. She hid in the room with Celia and said, "This old b*tch has a big appetite. What a nightclub. She earned ten million dollars a year. Did she earn ten million dollars?"

Celia saw that she was angry and comforted her. She asked the name of the nightclub and was very surprised. "Mom, I have been to this nightclub before.

Business is really booming! If I can really earn ten million dollars next year, it is indeed not a dream.”

“Is that true?” Shannon didn’t know that she didn’t go to the nightclub. She was tempted by her daughter’s words. She had worked hard to get Malone to open a few shops outside these years. The business of these shops were not bad, but they didn’t have such a big investment. If the nightclub really made money like this, it would be better to ask Malone to invest in it. In this way, everyone could make money. This was also a good way to deal with Riya, and she didn’t have to worry about Clem borrowing money to pay it back.

Shannon wanted to call Wendy immediately and tell her that she had something to see Malone, so she asked Malone to go to the beauty salon as soon as possible.

After the two met, Shannon told Malone about the nightclub. Malone was also very surprised. He had naturally heard of this nightclub. Such a prosperous nightclub had to be bought.

However, Malone didn’t have so much cash in his hands. It was just that making money in a nightclub was too tempting. After a discussion, Malone and Shannon decided to sell the few shops in their hands. In this way, they could have enough money to buy a nightclub.

Malone was discussing the shop. Shannon went to Riya and told her that she could not borrow money. However, she knew a friend who was doing business. The friend had money in his hand and planned to open a nightclub. In this case, it would be better to cooperate with Clem to open a nightclub, so there would be little risk.

Riya went back and told Clem. Clem agreed. The two sides met and agreed to cooperate. In order to get a better share of the money in the future, they discussed how to pay half of the money. Malone dealt with the shop well enough to pay six million dollars, but Clem still needed one million. In the end, he mortgaged the house and paid enough money. After receiving the money, the owner of the nightclub quickly transferred the account of the nightclub to them.

There was no need to worry about the staff working in the nightclub. Clem, Shannon, and the others were happily waiting to count the money.

The business in the nightclub was really booming. Every week, there was a huge profit in the shop, which made Clem and the others very happy. However, on the eighth day, something suddenly happened.