

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 201

9 minutes read

A group of policemen suddenly appeared in the nightclub, and together with them appeared a group of police officers. They said that the reported nightclub sold fake wine and wanted to search the nightclub. Soon, the police blocked the nightclub and checked the wine in the nightclub's warehouse. They found that the Western wines worth millions in the warehouse were all fake wine.

The sales personnel were punished for selling fake wine in the nightclub, and the illegal and illegal goods were confiscated. The value of the authentic goods of the same kind would be reduced to more than 50% and less than three times. Because of the huge number of fake wine, they would be sentenced to death according to the law.

This was undoubtedly a feeling of going from heaven to hell for Clem and the others. The nightclub was locked up, the money was gone, and they were almost charged. If it weren't for the fact that Shannon had just found someone to smooth things over through Channing, they would have suffered even more.

Clem had lost all his assets. Malone and Shannon were better than him, but they had also lost a few shops that had worked so hard over the years. If it weren't for the fact that there was a beauty salon to support them, they would have no loss.

There was no savings in the house. Riya scolded her son, but her scolding could not solve the problem. The money she lost would never come back.

The mother and son couldn't catch their breath for a few days. Clem didn't have a place to live now, so he had to rent a house.

At the same time, in the luxurious private room in the night, Rodney squinted and leaned against the sofa. Things had gone smoothly. It could be imagined that Riya, her son, and Shannon were ugly.

He thought that it would be too late for him to regret losing all his money. It didn't matter. This was just the beginning. In the future, he would slowly let them experience a life worse than death.

At first, Rodney wanted to scheme against Riya and her son, but Clem asked Mr. Moore to get rid of it. Clem, who had no job, returned to his previous friend circle. He was not on guard against his former friends and told them that he was ready to do business.

Therefore, Rodney asked his friends to persuade Clem to open a nightclub. Clem didn't have so much money, so he would definitely ask Riya to find a way to deal with Shannon. However, Shannon didn't have so much money in her hands, and she wouldn't lend such a large sum to Riya.

The management of the nightclub had always been very good. Shannon was greedy and selfish. She heard that such a good money-making student would not miss it. As long as they got into his trap, they would pay the price first.

Of course, Rodney had to thank Amber for being able to deal with Shannon in this way. Amber called him that night after listening to Elliot's words and told him that Shannon had a man outside. He was surprised that the accomplice had the role of a lover.

He had asked someone to find out that this Malone had opened several shops, and someone had been looking after him, so the business was not bad. Rodney guessed that the person on the shop must be Shannon.

Shannon was really a vicious woman. She coaxed Channing to be the secretary's wife happily while looking for men to have fun outside. He had been thinking of ways to deal with Shannon before. Now that he had heard the news of this affair, he found that it would be very easy to deal with Shannon in the future.

He would slowly put on a show in the future. What he needed to do now was to make them pay for it and make them pay for it. Human nature was greedy. In the face of something tempting, he forgot to think rationally. This time, Shannon and Riya would love each other for many days.

Of course, if it wasn't for the fact that Mr. Moore happened to ask him to hand over the nightclub, he wouldn't have thought of such a good idea.

As he was thinking, the door was pushed open and a middle-aged man came in. "Thank you, Mr. Barron, for helping us get through the difficulties!"

Rodney curled his lips. "Mr. Moore, you're too polite. It's just a small matter."

“It’s a small matter for Mr. Barron, but it’s a big deal for me.” Mr. Moore was very grateful to Rodney. The real boss of that nightclub was Mr. Moore. Because Mr. Moore was a public official, the legal representative had always used someone else’s name. Because of Mr. Moore’s care, the nightclub business had always been very good. In recent years, it had made a lot of money. Last month, Mr. Moore suddenly heard that a provincial discipline committee had begun to garrison in South City to investigate official property.

Mr. Moore was worried that this matter would be exposed. If the two rules were exposed, he would lose more than he gained. Just when he was anxious, something happened to him after he bought the goods. A batch of wine worth millions of dollars was dropped and turned into fake wine.

Mr. Moore was not too worried about fake wine. Over the years, he had made a lot of money in the nightclub, but he had to find a way to sell it. He had a good relationship with Rodney. He had been looking for Rodney to buy the fake wine. When Rodney heard this, he came up with an idea for him. He wanted him to sell the fake wine and someone else to take over the fake wine.

At that time, when he gave the dishes to Clem and the others, the wine in the warehouse was real. It was moved from the Sheng Dynasty of Rodney. However, after the handing in, the real wine was replaced by fake wine.

Rodney first made Clem and the others happy for a few days, and then asked someone to call to report. It was easy to send them from heaven to hell.

Since Mr. Moore had lost a hot potato without losing a penny, he was naturally very grateful to Rodney. He immediately gave him a guarantee and said, “If you need me in the future, feel free to come to me.”

Rodney smiled faintly. “Thank you very much. I won’t stand on ceremony if anything happens in the future!”

He really had something to ask Mr. Moore. He had already inquired about it. Riya’s gangster man, Clem’s father, was now locked up in prison for a few months and would be released. Rodney did not want to wait so long. He had something to ask the gangster to do. He had to ask Mr. Moore to find a way to sentence him to a sentence for a few months so that he could come out earlier.

Mr. Moore naturally agreed to Rodney’s request and told him to wait for his good news.

After breaking up with Mr. Moore, Rodney drove to the hospital. His mother was still in a coma. He stood outside the ward and looked at his mother through the glass. He was really upset.

The guard next to him reported, "Dr. Lott came to see you again today."

Rodney didn't say anything. It seemed that Itzel didn't give up at all!

Shannon framed her mother to frame Amber because her daughter, Celia, could marry into the Barron family. Riya was grateful for Shannon's help, so she was bribed as an accomplice. Why did Itzel deal with her mother like this?

Rodney couldn't figure out Itzel's motive at all. Over the years, Rachel had always treated Itzel as a close friend and had always been very polite to her. Every time she had something good, she would leave Itzel a share. It could be said that Rachel was very kind to Itzel. Itzel didn't have any motive to hate her mother.

Itzel was a doctor. She was not short of money and had nothing to ask for Shannon's help. Why would she be willing to be Shannon's accomplice? He had to find out Itzel's motive to deal with this heartless woman.

Rodney had investigated Itzel before for Kelsey. That time, he only wanted to know if Itzel was Kelsey's mother. However, he was later denied by Kelsey. After that, something unexpected happened, the investigation ended up with nothing definite.

Now that Rodney had started investigating Itzel again, he quickly found out that Itzel was Queena. Itzel and the current Ashton were his half-sisters. Ashley was his half-brother and half-brother. Since Amber was her niece, she was his half-brother.

According to common sense, Itzel only had an elder sister like Ashley. She should have a good relationship with her elder sister, but in fact, this was not the case. Amber didn't even know that she had such an aunt.

Judging from the fact that Amber didn't know Itzel's identity, Ashley must have never mentioned Itzel to her. Why didn't she mention Itzel to her daughter?

Itzel should have known Amber's identity. She knew that Amber's identity helped Shannon and her daughter scheme against him for artificial guidance. It could be seen that Itzel hated Amber, her niece.

Itzel had never interacted with Amber, so where did her hatred come from? From this, it could be inferred that Itzel hated Amber because she hated Ashley.

Although he was not born of the same parents, he was still a mother. Why was Itzel so distant from Ashley?

Previously, Rodney believed Kelsey's lie and thought that she had nothing to do with Itzel. But now, he was completely sure that Kelsey was Itzel's daughter. Otherwise, she would not have helped Itzel scheme against him.

Kelsey had lost her voice ever since she went abroad. Previously, Rodney suspected that she had not gone abroad and was hiding somewhere in the country. But now, he found out that Kelsey had indeed gone abroad, but she was nowhere to be found.

What on earth was going on? Could she use the Invisibility Skill? Or did something happen?

With the follow-up of the investigation, everything between Itzel and Ashley was soon revealed. They had turned against each other for a man, and this man was Elliot's father, Reece.

Although he didn't know about the relationship between Itzel and Ashley and Reece, now Ashley was dead, and Itzel was still alive and living with Reece. He was sure that she was the winner of this love triangle.

In this case, why did she hate Ashley so much that she even transferred her hatred to Amber after his death?

Rodney thought of Kelsey again. Itzel was pregnant before she got married. Who was Kelsey's biological father? Could it be Reece? Thinking about it, Itzel, who was Reece's child, did not need to hide in the cat's alley to have a baby.

However, except for Reece and Itzel, there were no other men who liked her. However, because she was beautiful, there were many people who liked her. There were many men who liked her in college. Even when she was in the cat's alley, she attracted the attention of many gangsters. The most typical one was Shannon's cousin.

Itzel and Shannon's relationship started from Parkview Street. Itzel was beautiful. When they were in Parkview Street, Shannon's cousin had always had feelings for her. When Itzel was in Parkview Street, Shannon's cousin went to Shannon's house from time to time. Some said that the relationship between Shannon's cousin and Itzel was unusual. It was said that Shannon's cousin said that he had slept with Itzel when he was drunk.

However, someone said that they had nothing to do with each other. It was just that Shannon's cousin had a crush on Itzel and often tried to please her. People laughed at him for making up a lie after he wanted to eat swan meat.

It was said that Shannon's cousin was not good-looking and didn't study well. Itzel was like a flower. It was said that he was a college student. How could he like him? Thinking about it, it made sense. Shannon's cousin was a gangster. With Itzel's high regard, it was impossible for her to like a gangster.

However, it was a fact that Shannon's cousin liked Itzel. According to the investigation, Itzel's cousin did pester her when she was in Parkview Street. Itzel was neither cold nor warm to him. Later, when Itzel was pregnant and lived in Parkview Street, the man had always taken good care of her and listened to her. However, Shannon's cousin was sent to prison because of a crime.

Could it be that Itzel had helped Shannon and her daughter because Shannon had taken her in back then? Thinking of Itzel hiding in the cat's alley to give birth to a baby, Rodney frowned. Why wasn't Itzel asking for help from her brother, Issac, at the most difficult time? Why was she looking for Shannon?

The real Ashton had died a long time ago. The current Ashton was Issac'er. Why would Issac'er pretend to be Ashton? What kind of unknown secret was behind this? These questions were so confusing that he couldn't figure it out even if he wanted to.

"No, I have to talk to Ashton!"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 202

7 minutes read

Rodney made an appointment with Ashton, but he didn't beat around the bush. "I called you here today because I want to ask you something about the past. I hope you don't hide it from me."

Ashton had already guessed that he knew his identity when he heard Rodney's words. He was very calm. "What do you want to know?"

"I have a lot of questions. First of all, I want to know why you are pretending to be Ashton." Rodney didn't beat around the bush. "Second, I want to know something about Itzel."

"In fact, I didn't mean to pretend to be Ashton." Issac young master sighed and told him about the loss of his bag because of the famous painting.

"When Ashton died in an accident, I was disheartened and returned to South City. There was no place for Amber's mother to take me in. At that time, in order to avoid trouble, I used Ashton's identity to survive."

"Channing and Shannon, do you know that you are a famous designer?" Rodney asked again.

Issac shook his head. "There are very few people who know that I'm a designer. Channing and Shannon only know that I'm brother and sister with Itzel. They probably don't know that I'm a designer."

"I think Channing should know your real identity, because the lost famous painting is now in my hands."

"Why are those paintings in your hands?" Issac was shocked.

"Channing gave it to me." Rodney told me about the painting that Channing had painted for him. Issac said with a wry smile, "It was really done by him! At that time, Amber told me that Channing had collected a valuable ancient painting. At that time, I suspected that Channing was the one who changed my ancient painting, but I was not completely sure."

"You really don't know what's good for you. It's hard to imagine that the great secretary did such a thing! It's just that you have been wronged for so many years." Rodney sighed with emotion. It was really pitiful for a genius designer to be killed by a hypocrite like Channing.

"It's all in the past. fame and wealth are nothing more than floating clouds. I've lived in seclusion in South City for the past few years. Although I've suffered a lot, I'm still very happy." Issac was not as angry as Rodney had imagined.

“I really admire you for being able to see through all of this.” Rodney sincerely admired Issac. The former glory of Issac had suddenly changed from a famous designer to a low-class passer-by. Whether it was the change in identity or life, it was a kind of te for him. It was really not easy for him to become so fearless.

Issac smiled faintly. “Amber doesn’t know that I’m not her biological uncle, so I hope you don’t tell Amber that I’m your son. I hope you can reduce her emotions.”

“Don’t worry, I won’t tell her.” Rodney promised. Everyone could see how much Issac’er cared about Amber. To Amber, Issac’er was her biological uncle. There was no need for him to break this kind of harmony. “I also have something to ask you about Itzel. You must know her very well, right? What kind of person do you think she is?”

Issac was silent for a while before answering with another eight words, “Selfish and evil.”

“Amber should have told you about my mother. I suspect that Itzel must have plotted against my mother.”

Rodney felt very sad when he thought of his unconscious mother in the hospital. He told her that Itzel had helped Shannon and her daughter plot against him and his mother.

“To be honest, I have always been afraid of blaming her. After all, she is my mother’s best friend. My mother has treated her as a bosom friend all these years, so I have to start from the beginning. I will never wrong a good person or a bad person. Because of this, I have come to you. I have never figured out why Itzel wants to deal with my mother and why she wants to help Shannon, an outsider, to deal with her niece.”

“She is a person who will not fail to achieve her goal. I don’t know why she schemed against your mother, but I know the reason why she helped Shannon deal with Amber. She hates Ashley, so she naturally hates Ashley’s daughter.”

“Amber’s mother is her only sister. Why does Itzel hate her? Is it because of Reece? But hasn’t she already gotten Reece?”

“No! She never got Reece! It’s because she didn’t get Reece that she hated Ashley.”

“In addition to Reece and Itzel, have you ever had any other men?” Rodney asked again.

“No, if she had another man, she wouldn’t be so upset about the fragrant lady.”

“But I found out that Itzel once gave birth to a child...”

“Child? Itzel gave birth to a child? Could it be that you’ve made a mistake?” Issac’s face was full of shock.

“You don’t know that she gave birth to a child?” Rodney was also stunned. He thought that he could get some information about Itzel from Issac, but he didn’t expect that Issac knew nothing about Itzel.

“I don’t know.” Issac shook his head. Back then, he had been disheartened after encountering such a turn of events. Furthermore, his father and stepmother had both passed away. He had sealed himself up and had no idea what had happened to Itzel.

Rodney was very disappointed. After thinking for a while, he asked, “Do you think it’s possible that Itzel’s child will be Reece’s?”

“It’s absolutely impossible!” Ashton shook his head. “Although I don’t know much about what happened to her later, she and I are brother and sister after all. I know a little about her. If the child she gave birth to is really Reece’s, she will definitely try her best to make use of the child.”

“Who else could it be but Reece?” Rodney frowned. Did Itzel really have something to do with Shannon’s cousin? Was that gangster her child’s father?

Back then, Tony was the closest person to Shannon and Itzel. He must have been very clear about what had happened back then. Rodney had originally wanted to find out about these things from Tony. However, considering the relationship between Tony and Shannon, he was afraid that he would not be able to trust him, so he first went to find Issac.

Now that Issac didn’t know the details, it seemed that he had to find Tony to find out more. Before finding Tony, he had to investigate Tony’s people.

Rodney asked Deon to do this right away. The sooner, the better.

After meeting Rodney, Issac was very angry. He knew that Itzel was not a good person, but he didn't expect her to be so bad. Issac was kind. Although Itzel had done those despicable things to Ashley, she was his sister. He felt that he should give her a chance.

Over the years, he had always thought that Itzel would repent, but he didn't expect that she didn't change at all. In order to separate Amber and Rodney, she could even kill people. Until now, Issac realized that he couldn't change his behavior. His silence and tolerance wouldn't get Itzel's remorse. On the contrary, it would boost her arrogance.

Itzel had been threatening him with the fact that he wasn't Ashton. In the past, she didn't want to worry about Amber. In order to live a peaceful life, he chose to endure. But now, Issac found that he couldn't bear it any longer. He had to find a chance to talk to Amber about this matter, not about Ashton.

Ever since she met Rodney in the hospital last time, Celia had already gone to the hospital to visit Rachel. Of course, she would not be so kind as to hope that Rachel would be fine. She just wanted to attract Rodney's attention.

Last time, after Rodney took out a handkerchief to wipe her tears, Celia went home and told Shannon happily. Shannon was surprised by Rodney's change. She guessed that Rodney's change must be because of the child in Celia's belly. The Barron family's desire to have children for generations was very strong.

Previously, Rodney was confused by Amber and could not see how good Celia was. But now, because of Rachel's coma, he hated Amber. Moreover, Celia was pregnant with twins, so it was impossible for Rodney not to like her.

Thinking of this, Shannon thought that the child was a must-have family member, so she told Celia to make use of the child in her belly to move in front of Rodney and attract his attention.

Of course, the reason why Shannon asked Celia to go to the hospital every day was not just to please Rodney, but also to let Celia learn about Rachel's health condition from the nursing and doctors. She had asked Malone to do something to Rachel before, and Malone told her that it was impossible to do it after he went to the hospital.

Rachel's ward was the best ward in the hospital. Not only was there a special care unit to keep an eye on Rachel, but there were also security guards keeping an eye on her. When strangers approached Rachel's ward, security guards came up to ask.

The return of the scholar made Shannon very worried. The hope of taking action was shattered. The situation was very unfavorable to them. Although Rachel was still in a vegetative state, it would be troublesome if she didn't die every day. Itzel also said that there was a precedent that a vegetable would wake up. It was hard to say that Rachel would wake up one day. They had to know the situation and deal with it quickly.

Sure enough, when Rodney and Celia met in the hospital several times in a row, their attitude toward her became better and better. From the beginning, they didn't ask much about her physical condition, fetus situation, and even asked her about the situation of the pregnancy check-up and if Celia needed him to accompany her.

Rodney actually offered to accompany her in the examination, which made Celia very happy. Since she was pregnant, Celia had been looking forward to such a day in her dreams. In fact, she didn't need to go to the examination at all, but it was too difficult to have a chance to communicate with Rodney intimately like this. Celia nodded repeatedly and happily went to the Department of native Medicine with Rodney.

Seeing that Celia and Rodney appeared together and said that they were going to have a checkup, the doctor who was doing the checkup for Celia was very surprised. Hadn't Celia just done it?

Celia's birth examination had been carried out in the hospital where Itzel was. Later, in order to get close to Rodney, Celia specially went to the hospital where Rachel was. Itzel was worried that others would find a familiar doctor for Celia's birth examination.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 203

9 minutes read

Although he was surprised by Celia's behavior, the doctor was good at looking at her. He immediately took care of Celia's weight, blood pressure, and heart rate.

Rodney had been standing aside and watching Celia do these examinations. When the doctor's examination was over, he began to carefully ask the birth examination doctor about Celia's health condition.

The doctor told Rodney that the fetus's condition was very good and it was well developed. After hearing this, Rodney was very satisfied. "I think she is so thin, and she is still worried about her health. Now that you said that, I am completely relieved."

Celia's heart was filled with sweetness when she heard Rodney's words of concern for her. He asked the doctor again if he could know the gender of the fetus now.

There was a school in the hospital that revealed the gender of the fetus, but Rodney's identity was different. Therefore, the doctor gave Celia a B-shaped check-up and said that the relationship between the fetus and the baby was not very clear. It should be two boys. Rodney was very excited when he heard this. "Are they really two boys? Are you kidding me? Even if they are not two boys, they should be twins. The descendants of the Barron family are too weak. I still hope that my son can choose a leader."

This was the first time that Rodney had formally talked about the gender of the fetus in front of Celia. Celia had never cared about the gender of the baby before. Now, seeing that Rodney valued the gender of the fetus so much, she began to care about it.

The only heir of the Barron family for several generations naturally liked boys more than girls, so Rachel thought so highly of Amber's Mel. As for Celia, she also hoped that the children in her belly were two boys or twins. In this way, she would have an advantage in both inheritance and inheritance. If it was two girls, it would be different. With Amber's son standing in her way, even if she could win the favor of Barron Enterprises, she might not be able to control it.

Celia put the baby's gender in her mind. When Rodney went out to answer the phone, she lowered her voice and asked the birth examination doctor, "Are they really two boys?"

"No, B is affected by the fetus's influence, so it can't be seen clearly. I think he must likes boys, so he said it could be two boys," the doctor replied.

Celia was very disappointed when she heard that. The doctor lowered his voice and said, "I'll do it later."

“Is there any way to accurately find out the gender of the fetus?” Celia asked again.

“Yes. At present, your condition is suitable for a blood pressure puncture and a blood loss examination. It’s estimated to be 99% higher.” The doctor looked outside.

Celia nodded and planned to go back to discuss with her mother about a blood test to determine the gender of the fetus. If it was two boys or a dragon-phoenix fetus, it would be the best. If it was two daughters, she had to find a way earlier.

She was planning this in her heart, and then she told the doctor in a low voice, “Remember to tell him that it’s not easy for me to be pregnant in front of him, and he’ll be worried that I’ll come to take a checkup more often in the future.”

Of course, the doctor agreed. After a while, Rodney came in after answering the phone. The doctor remembered Celia’s instructions and told him that although the child looked healthy, the mother of the child was not in good health, so he had to pay more attention to Celia.

The doctor had originally wanted to go along with Celia’s words to let Rodney care about Celia because of the child. However, he did not expect that Rodney would become anxious after hearing these words. “Will pregnant women’s health affect the fetus?”

The doctor didn’t expect that these words would make Rodney start to worry about the child. She immediately replied, “No, the condition of the fetus is very good. You don’t have to worry.”

“How can I be worried?” Rodney asked, “Didn’t you say that she is not in good health? A pregnant woman who is not in good health will certainly affect the fetus. Celia is now pregnant with two children. I remember that the previous examination also said that she is sick. No, it’s too dangerous. I have to make sure that my child is healthy.”

“Rodney, there shouldn’t be any problems with the child,” Celia said.

“I was worried, wasn’t I? To eliminate all potential problems, one of the female employees in our company’s finance department gave birth to a silly child because she didn’t have a good pregnancy check-up...” Speaking of this, Rodney paused and turned his head sternly to ask the test doctor. “You are Celia's test doctor. Can you guarantee that the child in her belly won't have any variation or other congenital defects?"

Rodney's face was serious and his tone was cold. The heart of the delivery doctor was beating fast. Although it might not necessarily happen when the fetus was deformed, it could not be ruled out. It would not be a good thing if the child really found her in the future. She could not beat him.

"I'm not even sure about that... It's just that there are hereditary or pregnant women who come into contact with something poisonous. Miss Herrera and you don't have a family history, so it shouldn't be very likely."

"That's not a good idea. Celia has been in poor health before. After taking so many drugs, can't the medicine also make the child's veins change? I'm still worried that this matter can't be taken lightly." Rodney still insisted on it. "Is there any way to deal with it now?"

Celia was scared when she heard that Rodney was going to take it seriously. She winked at the doctor, but under Rodney's dignified gaze, the doctor didn't dare to get tired of her. "If you are worried, you can do a blood pressure puncture check for her. But she is pregnant with twins, so there is a certain risk. I think we should still be careful."

"Rodney, there must be no problem with the child. I think it's better not to do it." Celia was pitiful and her heart was beating fast. Would Rodney have any other plans for her?

Rodney looked at Celia gently. "I know it's not very likely, but your body is not very good, isn't it? I'm very worried about you. For our child, it's better to have a check, just to make me feel at ease."

It was the first time that Rodney had said so affectionately that he was worried about her and even mentioned his child to Celia. Celia's heart was filled with sweetness. As a result, her opposition was no longer so strong.

Rodney then ordered the doctor, "Arrange for the blood pressure puncture operation immediately!"

The doctor hesitated for a moment and looked at Celia. "We need to make an appointment in advance for the blood transfusion operation. There are many people doing it..."

Before she could finish her words, Rodney picked up the phone and dialed. “Is it Dr. Dean? I’m Rodney. I want to do a blood pressure puncture operation for the child’s mother. Help me arrange it. You must be an experienced doctor.”

Dr. Dean naturally agreed to Rodney’s request. He immediately arranged for the authoritative expert of the hospital, Dr. Curry, to perform an operation on Celia. Before the blood transfusion, blood was needed to be extracted for the growth of the fetus, such as plum, poison, Ai, and illness. In addition to the health examination, there was also a B+ check to see the growth of the fetus and so on. Celia had taken blood to do these things before, so she was directly led by Dr. Curry to the operating room.

Dr. Curry first gave Celia a B-mode check-up on the fetus’s condition. The two fetus conditions were examined. Dr. Curry ordered the nurse to start making preparations. The nurse took a B-mode head and placed it on top of the womb to monitor the baby’s condition. Then, she prepared for disinfection on Celia’s belly. Dr. Curry prepared the needle for the operation and asked Celia to close her eyes and not look at it.

Celia secretly glanced at the needle, which was more than ten centimeters long. She was so scared that she closed her eyes. Dr. Curry, an expert in charge of the field, touched Celia’s belly and inserted the needle into her belly without hesitation.

Because he was afraid that Celia would not feel any pain at all, in a minute, Dr. Curry drew 20 seconds of blood sugar, and the whole operation ended here.

After the blood tube was removed, Dr. Curry did a B plus. He also let Celia look at the baby’s little heart. It was beating strongly, which proved that there was nothing wrong with it. Dr. Curry told Celia to rest in bed and not take a bath that day. Then he asked her to get up.

After Celia got up, Rodney came in. Celia threw herself at Rodney with tears in her eyes. “What a long needle! I was so scared just now!”

Rodney held her up and said in a very gentle voice, “You’ve suffered for the sake of your child.”

Celia wanted to rub herself into Rodney’s arms, but Rodney helped her sit on the chair and turned to ask Dr. Curry about the operation. Dr. Curry said that the result would come out in about two weeks. When the result came out, he would call to inform Rodney. Rodney thanked Dr. Curry and went out of the hospital with Celia.

This time, Rodney had never been so considerate. He actually opened the car door for Celia in person, and also told the driver who sent Celia to the hospital to drive a little slower, which moved Celia a lot.

After Celia left, Rodney turned around and got in his car. After getting in the car, his face suddenly turned cold.

Although he suspected that the baby in Celia's belly was not his, he was not completely sure. As the saying goes, one should not be afraid of anything. He had to figure it out before he could feel at ease.

Rodney knew very well that Celia had come to the hospital to do superficial work, so he deliberately changed his attitude to accompany her for a checkup. He had investigated and found out that the doctor was specially arranged by Itzel, so he deliberately asked about the gender of the fetus and pretended to want a son.

In fact, he was not interested in the gender of the fetus at all. The purpose of doing this was to let Celia think that she cared about the baby in her belly and that she had a chance.

Rodney checked the information. Celia had been pregnant for more than four months, and now she could be identified as a DNA agent. He had been very indifferent to Celia before, but now in order not to arouse her suspicion, he pretended to have s*x with her in order to gain Celia's trust and carry out his plan.

Originally, he thought that it would take a few days for the blood pressure to be penetrated, but he didn't expect that Celia's mother-in-law would say that Celia was in poor health. Rodney had an idea, so he might as well take the opportunity to perform a blood pressure puncture on Celia with the excuse of removing the blood pressure.

Rodney had been in South City for many years, and he had been in contact with people from all walks of life. The director of this hospital had a good relationship with him, so he naturally fulfilled all his requests.

When Dr. Curry was doing the blood pressure puncture operation for Celia, Rodney told the director that it was useful for him to keep Celia's blood pressure. Celia's blood pressure was now waiting for the blood pressure to be removed along with the specimen he provided.

Rodney was not completely at ease. He had people keep an eye on him, so he called Deon and asked him to supervise this matter personally.

A few days later, the DNA test results were placed in front of Rodney. The child in Celia's belly had nothing to do with him. Seeing this result, Rodney let out a long sigh of relief. The stone in his heart was finally relieved. He took the test results to find Amber. Amber looked at the results and was silent for a while. "What are you going to do now? Do you want to tell Celia about this result?"

Rodney shook his head. "This is the child that she schemed with all means to give birth to. Even if I tell her now that this child is not mine, she may not be willing to believe it. You also forgot Celia's current situation. If she doesn't want these two children, she will lose the qualification to be a mother for the rest of her life."

"But isn't this too..." Amber didn't continue. If Celia knew that her hard work was all in vain, how desperate would she be? Would she break down because of this?

"Amber, I know what you mean. It's just a kind of cause and effect. It's cruel to be soft-hearted to the enemy." Rodney sneered. "It's all thanks to them that my mother has become like this. I won't let go of any of them! Just wait and see!"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 204

8 minutes read

"Because of Itzel." Issac Shao sighed and told Amber about Itzel's threat to him. "If it weren't for Itzel being so hopeless, I would have buried this matter in my heart for the rest of my life. But now, I don't think I can do this anymore. Since Itzel could do such an evil thing to Rachel, she can do it to others. I am afraid that she will hurt people again."

"Do you have any secrets in Itzel's hands?" Amber asked in reply. Issac had always been aloof from worldly affairs. He had never offended anyone. The only thing Itzel could threaten Issac was his true identity.

However, over the years, Issac had been very kind to him. His grandmother had married Issac's father. Although he had nothing to do with Issac because of his blood lineage, he was indeed his uncle. This was not a threat at all.

Issac rarely saw Amber remain silent like this. After a while, he said, "Because she knows that I like your mother."

"What did you say?" Amber's voice changed.

"I've always liked your mother. Because of my identity, I couldn't express my feelings for her. Back then, I didn't return to the Southern City because of the famous painting, but because I knew that my feelings couldn't be admitted by others..."

Issac didn't know what to say. Although he didn't have a blood relationship with Ashley, in terms of courtesy, they were brother and sister. Ordinary people couldn't understand or accept the fact that he liked Ashley.

There was dead silence in the living room. Amber didn't know what to say. It was beyond her imagination.

From the moment she could remember, Issac appeared in her life as her uncle. Later, when her mother passed away, she left Channing and went to find her uncle.

It was her uncle who had been taking care of her. Her uncle was not only her uncle, but also played the role of her father and mother. He was her most trusted relative in this world.

Her most trusted relatives had suddenly changed their identities. He was not Ashton. He was the genius designer, Issac. Although Amber was shocked, he could still accept it. After all, she had never seen her dead uncle, Ashton, and she had no feelings for him. For her, Issac was Ashton, and Ashton was Issac. They were the same person, and they were both uncles.

But now, his uncle said that he liked his mother. Amber was in a mess. How could his uncle like his mother? They were siblings. Even if they were not related by blood, they couldn't have other feelings other than siblings. Wasn't this the so-called love disorder in the world?

"Amber, it's my fault. Your mother doesn't know that I like her. It's my wishful thinking and has nothing to do with her. Don't have any bad thoughts about your mother. If you want to hate her, then hate your uncle.” Seeing that Amber didn’t speak, Issac was a little flustered.

Amber came back to his senses. Seeing Issac’s nervous look, she gave a wry smile. “Let me calm down, let me think about it carefully!”

She really needed to think about it carefully. She got up and walked into the bedroom under Ashton’s worried gaze. She closed the door and saw Amber sitting by the bed in a daze. How could this be?

Seeing that Amber had shut the door for a long time and there was no movement, Issac could not sit still. He went to knock on the door and called Amber a few times. Amber ignored him. Issac, reached out and pushed the door open. He panicked when he found that the door was locked from the inside. Amber was pregnant now. He told Amber that all this would not have any bad impact on Amber, right? He immediately called Noemi. “Noemi, come back quickly!”

“What happened?” Noemi was very surprised.

“It’s about Amber. I can’t explain it clearly on the phone. You’ll know when you come back.” Hearing her flustered tone, Noemi didn’t ask any more questions. She immediately asked for leave and rushed back.

After thinking about it, Issac was worried that he would call Elliot again and ask him to come back as soon as possible.

The TV station was close to the villa, and it took about half an hour for Noemi to come back. When she entered the door, she saw Issac walking back and forth in the living room. There was no sign of Amber in the living room. Noemi asked, “Uncle, where is Amber?”

“Amber is in the room.” Issac pointed to Amber’s room. “Noemi, help me open the door for Amber.”

“What happened?” Noemi asked. She and Amber were best friends. Noemi knew how much Amber loved her uncle, Ashton. But now Amber locked the door and couldn’t even ask Ashton to leave. There must be something important happening.

“I…” Issac smiled bitterly. “Now is not the time to talk about this. Help me call the door.”

Noemi walked to Amber's door and knocked on it. "Amber, open the door!"

There was no movement inside. She knocked on the door and shouted a few more times, but still no one answered. Elliot came back and asked when he entered, "What's wrong?"

Issac looked at Elliot. "Amber already knows."

"What do you know?" Elliot did not react for a moment.

"My identity."

"Who told her?" Elliot was stunned. Issac pointed at himself. Elliot cried out, "What are you telling her at this time?"

Thinking about it, it was not the right time to complain. He rushed to Amber's door in a few steps and knocked on it a few times. "Amber, open the door."

Amber closed the door and sat on the bed. Her mind was in a mess. The two voices alternated to let her choose. A voice said to her, "Love is not something that can be controlled. There is no blood relationship between Issac and Ye Ashley. He loves Ye Ashley. There is nothing wrong with that."

Another voice was reminding her that although they were not related by blood, they were brother and sister in reputation. This kind of relationship was not allowed.

Issac just liked Ashley. He didn't do anything else. Was it wrong to like a person?

It was not wrong to like someone, but he liked his sister. This was wrong!

The two voices defended themselves. Amber didn't know what to do. At this time, her cell phone rang. After a while, Amber picked up the phone and answered it. A woman's voice came. "Amber, I'm Itzel. Let's meet!"

Why did Itzel want to see him? Amber remembered that people used to say that she looked like Itzel. Someone once said that she and Itzel were mother and daughter. At that time, she didn't pay much attention to them. Now she knew that Itzel was actually a sister of her mother. If she had known that she had such a relative in the past, Amber would have been very happy. But now, when she knew that Itzel was one of the murderers of Rachel, she couldn't be happy.

She was very clear about how good Rachel was to Itzel. However, Itzel was so heartless that she tried to frame Rachel. One could imagine how disgusting this person's character was. Itzel had called her as soon as she saw Issac. It was definitely not a good thing. Amber was pregnant now, so he was on high alert. How could he meet such a dangerous person?

She replied faintly, "I don't have time to see you. If you have anything to say, just tell me on the phone."

"It's not convenient to talk on the phone, why don't you come out and talk?"

"I told you, I'm not free!" Amber emphasized. She didn't want to be perfunctory with people like Itzel. "I'll hang up if you don't tell me."

"Well, since that's the case, I'll tell you that Ashton is not your biological uncle..."

"Dr. Lott, you said it too late. I already know." Amber interrupted Itzel. "This woman is really not a good person. Fortunately, Issac told her first. Otherwise, she would be shocked by her words."

Itzel was stunned. She didn't expect him to tell Amber about her identity so quickly. No wonder he was not polite at all when he met her. It turned out that Amber already knew his identity. Itzel hated him in her heart. "What I want to say is about Issac and your mother."

"Issac has already told me about this. You don't have to worry about Dr. Lott anymore," Amber said with a sneer.

"Did he tell you?" Itzel could not believe that Issac would tell Amber about this. "What did he say?"

"What he said has nothing to do with you. What else can I do for you?"

Amber's tone made Itzel angry. She had been trying to scheme against him, but to her surprise, it was useless. She gritted her teeth and said, "I didn't expect you to accept the fact that they were in a mess so calmly."

“Itzel, clean your mouth,” Amber said angrily. “Uncle said that he liked his mother, but she didn’t know.”

“He lied to you. Amber, there are too many things that you don’t know. Do you know why your mother wanted to marry your father? It was because of her and Issac’s affair that was exposed that she chose to marry Channing in a hurry in order to block everyone’s mouth.”

“Bullshit!” Amber swore.

“Don’t be excited! If your mother and Issac were innocent, why didn’t she tell you Issac’s identity? When your mother died, you were already sensible. If they didn’t have ghosts in their hearts, they wouldn’t lie to you at all.”

“Itzel, I’m very clear about what kind of person you are. You’d better stop here. It’s useless for me to sow discord.”

“Amber, I’m just telling you everything I know. It’s up to you whether you believe me or not. I’m telling you, Wu Shengfeng lived in the South City in the name of Ashton in order to maintain a relationship with your mother for a long time! If you don’t believe me, you can go back and ask Channing. Channing knows clearly about what happened between your mother and Issac. It was he who caught Ashley and Issac in bed!”

“Bastard!” Amber was so angry that he was shaking all over. He couldn’t help throwing his phone out.

The phone fell to the ground and fell apart. Itzel’s voice disappeared, but what she had just said did not disappear. It was your father who caught Ashley and Issac in bed! It was your father who caught Ashley and Issac in bed!

Itzel’s words rang in Amber’s ears over and over again as if they had taken root. No matter how hard she tried, she could not wave her hands away. Amber held his head in pain.

In her impression, her mother was so gentle and kind. No matter how she looked at it, she did not look like that kind of person. It must be Itzel who was framing her! It was impossible for her mother to cheat on Issac young master! It must be Itzel who was framing her mother. It must be!

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 205

8 minutes read

Rodney was determined to let Celia give birth to a child. He told Amber that all this was because he was afraid that Amber would misunderstand Celia's attitude. In order to numb Celia, Shannon and others, they believed that he had really begun to change the child in Celia's belly. It wasn't long before Celia went back home through a blood pressure operation in the hospital. Rodney told Deon to prepare a gift and send it to the Black family.

Celia was lying on the bed and talking to Shannon about what Rodney had said in the hospital today. Shannon had a bad feeling when she heard that Rodney had been accompanying her for a pregnancy check-up and asked Celia to do a heart attack.

Rodney had changed Celia greatly. When Celia was just pregnant, Rodney had gritted his teeth and said that he would kill the baby in Celia's belly. Would he take this opportunity to do something to the baby in Celia's belly?

Shannon called Itzel and told her about her worries. She planned to send Celia to Itzel for a check-up. Itzel became anxious and told Shannon to send Celia over immediately. At that moment, the doorbell rang. Deon appeared at the door with several boxes of gifts. "Mr. Barron asked me to send them here. He said that Ms. Black was in poor health."

Shannon was surprised when she saw the high-grade tonics that had been sent over. What on earth was Rodney trying to do? Deon was the most capable person around Rodney, so sending the tonics in person meant that he represented Rodney. Shannon was a little relieved. Maybe she was too nervous in her heart, just in case she sent Celia to Itzel to check.

Itzel hung up the phone and immediately called Celia's examination doctor to ask her to inquire about the news. The examination doctor found a familiar colleague and learned that Celia's test results had indeed been sent to the test room for a test.

Although it was so, Itzel was still not at ease. She had to do a check-up for Celia personally. Celia was sent to the hospital where Itzel was. Itzel immediately checked Celia and found that the fetus in Celia's belly was normal. Itzel and Shannon were relieved.

When Itzel was giving Celia a blood test for the fetus, Celia suggested that Itzel help her check the gender of the baby. Itzel was the same as what the birth examination doctor said. If the fetus was not in a good position, the gender could not be seen clearly.

“It’s good to be sure that your child is normal now. Don’t worry about gender.” Itzel comforted him.

“How can I not be worried? Rodney said today that it would be best if it was a pair of boys or twins, so that his career could be inherited.”

“Did he really say that?” Itzel and Shannon looked at each other, their eyes full of surprise.

“Yes, so I’m worried. What should I do if she’s a boy or not?” Celia frowned bitterly. “Amber is pregnant now, and she already has a son. If she gives birth to another son, it will be terrible. If I give birth to a daughter, my child will definitely not be able to compete with her.”

“I don’t think she’s my daughter.” Itzel was a little uncertain.

When Shannon heard this, she was completely anxious. If Celia was pregnant with two daughters, her daughter would not be able to get her hands on their property. She asked, “Is there any other way to find out the gender?”

“Yes, the doctor said that we can have a blood test and a blood test,” Celia replied.

“Then you can wait for a few days. Isn’t your blood pressure tested? At that time, I’ll ask your mother-in-law to pay attention to the results.”

“No, you don’t understand what I mean. I’m sure you’ll know the results of the test before me. What if it’s a daughter?” Celia expressed her concern. “I have to know the results before the test results are out.”

“Then you can take a blood test to see the result first. The result will be faster than the result of the blood test in about two days.” Itzel also knew that this was a big deal, so she immediately arranged a blood test for Celia.

Two days later, the results came out. The baby in Celia’s belly was a pair of boys. When she heard the results, Celia was completely relieved. With a boy in her belly and the love of Rodney, Amber and her child could not compete with her.

Celia was not worried about Itzel. Although Rodney and Amber had made such a scene, Amber’s child was still his flesh and blood. The existence of the child was always a problem. She had to find a way to let Amber leave quietly like before and hide in a place that Rodney could no longer find to avoid trouble.

Itzel then went to find Issac and told him that Rodney accompanied Celia to do the pregnancy check-up and buy tonic for Celia.

“Rodney loves Celia very much now and has no feelings for Amber anymore. I was worried that he would snatch Amber’s child, so I came here to tell you that we are all Amber’s family. We have to think of Amber. If in the future, after the child is cured by Mel disease, Rodney really wants to steal Amber’s child, how sad will she be? In order to prevent this, I advise you to find a way out as soon as possible.”

“Do you have any good idea?” Issac asked.

“What I mean is that you and Amber should leave South City with your child. As long as you leave South City and find a place that Rodney can’t find, you can avoid these things from happening.”

Issac looked at Itzel’s face and wished he could slap her in the face. Itzel was treating him like a fool. If it weren’t for the fact that he was afraid of affecting Rodney’s plan, he would really like to ask Itzel in person what kind of agreement she had reached with Shannon. Why did she spare no effort to help Shannon and her daughter deal with Amber?

After much difficulty, Issac put down his anger and replied faintly, “Thank you for your reminder. However, it has nothing to do with us who Rodney likes. As for stealing the child’s authority, the court in South City is not run by his family. I don’t believe that he can control the whole world!”

“Brother, why don’t you think about Amber? How can you bear to see her fight with Rodney for the sake of her child?”

“As the saying goes, disaster cannot be avoided. If Rodney really wants to start a lawsuit, we can’t avoid it.”

“I mean, you should hide for a while first. When the court removes Amber’s ban, you can go abroad. At that time, there will be no way to find you when you go abroad to Rodney.”

“Go abroad?” Issac laughed. “How can we go abroad if we don’t have money?”

“Well... If you really don't have money, I can give you some.” Itzel was generous.

“How much can you give us?” Issac couldn't help asking, “Tens of millions or a few hundred million?”

“Brother, I'm just helping you out of kindness. How can you...”

“Thank you for your kindness.” Issac interrupted Itzel. “To be honest, I really can't find a reason to leave. Rodney is so rich, so it's at least much better for the child to follow him than to follow Amber. The Barron Enterprises is so big, so Rodney can give the child some shares. At that time, you and Amber can also enjoy a happy life together. Only a fool will leave.”

“You...” Itzel's expression changed. Issac had never valued money. What was going on now? “Don't forget about Rachel. When the child is born, Rodney will definitely get even with Amber.”

“She wouldn't be afraid of ghosts knocking on the door if she didn't do anything wrong. Amber didn't do anything to Rachel. Why should she be afraid of Rodney?” Issac sneered. “But you, I haven't seen you care about Amber before, but now you spare no effort. Why do I feel that you have other purposes?”

“You're so kind. What's my purpose?” Itzel asked. She was not confident at all.

Issac looked at Itzel and said, “I know your purpose, but I want to tell you that Amber will never leave South City, and I don't want to have anything to do with you. Last time I told you very clearly that you should never come to me again!”

Itzel and Issac eventually parted unhappily. On the way back, Itzel's face was full of resentment. Now that Issac was stubborn, it would not work on his path. In this case, don't blame her for being cruel. It seemed that she had to tell Amber that Issac was not Ashton. As long as Amber knew that Issac was not Ashton and had other relations with Ashley, this play would be fun.

At that time, if Issac'er jumped into the Yellow River and couldn't be washed away, Amber would despise him because of the chaos between him and Ashley'an. Of course, he wouldn't miss the place in South City, nor would he stay with Issac'er.

The more Itzel thought about it, the more excited she became. "That's it! I'll do it right away!"

After breaking up with Itzel, Issac went home. When he entered the door, he saw Amber sitting on the sofa with a serious look on his face.

Seeing her uncle Amber's complicated expression, she took Mel to the hospital for an examination today. When she came back and saw Ashton and Itzel enter the tea room one after another, she was very confused. Last time, Noemi had told her that Ashton and Itzel had met here. At that time, she also asked Ashton. At that time, Ashton looked a little abnormal and said that she had gone in for tea.

She didn't want to doubt her uncle, so she chose to believe him. She saw such a situation again. It was not strange for Ashton to go to the tea room to drink tea. What was strange was that he appeared at the same time with Itzel twice. Amber really didn't want to suspect anything about Ashton. But recently, too many things had happened around him. She didn't want to waste her time suspecting, so she decided to ask Ashton about it.

"Uncle, where did you go just now?"

"I went to see someone," Issac replied.

"Who is it?"

Issac wanted to find an opportunity to reveal his true identity to Amber, but he didn't know how to say it. He felt that he couldn't delay any longer when he met Itzel today. Now that Amber was asking, he said, "I went to see Itzel."

Amber was relieved. Since her uncle didn't want to hide anything from her, she just breathed a sigh of relief. Issac said, "Amber, I have something important to tell you."

Amber looked at him. In her impression, her uncle had always been gentle and harmless. He would never lose his temper. But now her uncle looked serious. She had a hunch that something bad would happen. Sure enough, Ashton said something that surprised her, "I'm not the real Ashton. The real Ashton is dead. My name is Issac..."

Issac Shao revealed his true identity to Amber. Amber didn't dare to imagine that his honest uncle had suddenly become a famous designer. It sounded too absurd. Seeing Amber's shocked look, Issac Shao was a little worried. "Amber, I didn't mean to lie to you, but I had my own difficulties. Don't blame your uncle. I have no choice but to forgive him."

It took Amber quite a while to recover from his shock. She forced a smile when she saw Issac looking at her with concern as he kept apologizing to her.

No matter whether Issac was her biological uncle or not, the love he had given her over the years was no different from that of her real uncle. There was no reason for him to apologize to her. "I don't blame you. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't know what would have happened. I just want to know why you told me your real identity now."

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 206

8 minutes read

Elliot knocked hard on the door outside and asked Amber to open the door. However, no matter how hard they tried, there was no reply from inside. Worried that something would happen to Amber, Elliot turned to look at Issac and Noemi. "It seems that I have to knock the door open!"

Issac and Noemi had no other choice but to nod. Elliot stepped back and slammed the door open. When he opened the door and saw Amber sitting on the bed with his head in his arms, the three of them breathed a sigh of relief.

The door suddenly opened, and Amber was shocked. She widened her eyes and looked at the three people at the door, her face full of shock. Noemi closed the door and walked to her side. "Amber, you scared us to death!"

Amber gave a wry smile. "Why are you back?"

"Uncle called to ask us to come back. What happened?" Noemi sat down beside Amber and looked at her with concern.

Amber didn't know how to tell Noemi about this. She twisted her fingers in silence. Noemi didn't force her to look at the broken mobile phone on the ground. She walked over and picked it up. "Who called you just now?"

"Itzel."

“Her?” Noemi was stunned. What did Itzel say to Amber that made him so angry that he smashed his phone? “Itzel is not a good person. Don’t take her words to heart.”

Itzel was such a vicious woman, so there must be something wrong with what she said. She should not believe it, but Issac young master had admitted that he liked his mother. If there was really something ambiguous between his mother and Issac young master? Amber did not dare to think about it. He was afraid of what might happen, but he was afraid of what might happen!

Noemi picked up the phone and put it on the bedside table. She walked to Amber and sat down next to him. She reached out and took Amber’s hand. “Amber, you are pregnant now, so you can’t let your imagination run wild. It’s not good for you or for the child.”

Amber remained silent. Noemi reached out to hold her hand. “No matter what happens, I will always support you from behind. I will always be your backing! I will always be your backing!”

Amber looked at Noemi’s sincere eyes and grinned bitterly. “Noemi, I’m very confused.”

“I know, so I told you not to keep it in your heart. It will be fine if you say it out loud.”

“It’s really embarrassing.” Amber heaved a long sigh and told her about what had happened to Wu Xianjie.

Noemi listened to Amber’s words and comforted her. “Amber, isn’t there a saying that goes that a person’s grace is not as big as a person’s grace? Although Issac Shao is not your biological uncle, he has been no different from you over the years. I don’t think you should worry about this.”

“Noemi, I’m not thinking about this. I’m thinking about another thing. Issac actually likes my mother.” Amber smiled bitterly. “Although they are not related by blood, I still feel uncomfortable...”

Noemi was startled. It was hard for Amber to accept this matter. After thinking for a while, she said, “Amber, Issac’s and your mother are not related by blood. Our country doesn’t ban direct blood relationship between blood relatives of more than three generations. Even if Issac’s and your mother are in a relationship, it’s not against the law. What’s more, there is no progress between them. It's just that Issac'er likes your mother only. Love is not something that can be controlled by human beings. It's a matter of the last generation. You can take it easy."

"Noemi, do you know what Itzel just called me and told me?" Amber bit his lip. "She said that Issac didn't have a good relationship with my mother and that Channing caught her in bed. I... I really can't imagine it."

"Itzel is so vicious. What she said must be fake." Noemi shook her head. "Amber, that woman must be trying to provoke you. You can't fall into her trap."

"I don't believe what she said is true. I'm just afraid of what... what if it's true?"

"Amber, even if it's true, it has nothing to do with you. As I said, Issac and your mother are not related by blood. Even if they are together, they can't be called rebels."

"Noemi, I know you are doing this for my own good, and I also know that I shouldn't be entangled in this, but I really don't want things to become like this. My mother, she... she has a different position in my heart. Channing has already made me very disappointed. I don't want my mother to become like this, do you understand?"

Channing had cheated on Amber during the wedding, causing a great shadow in Amber's life. If his mother had not had much affair with Issac during the wedding, Amber could not accept it at all.

"Amber, since that's the case, you should trust your mother even more. She won't be that kind of woman, and she won't let you down." Noemi comforted him. "Also, I think you should also trust Master Wu. Since he dares to say this to you, it proves that he has no ghosts in his heart."

"If he had told me this earlier, I would have believed that there was no ghost in his heart, but now I know that he had no choice but to tell me these things. If Itzel hadn't threatened him, he would have buried these things in his heart for the rest of his life."

"I think you misunderstood Issac'er. He doesn't want to tell you that he doesn't want to cause trouble for you. Now he has no choice but to tell you all this because he is afraid that you will be hurt. You should believe in the character of such a person who has been thinking about you all the time."

Noemi was telling the truth. Amber knew very well how good Issac had been to him over the years. She should believe in him and her mother.

Noemi stayed in the room to comfort Amber, while Elliot and Issac'er anxiously sat on the sofa in the living room and waited for the result. Elliot couldn't help complaining to Issac'er. "What are you talking about at this time? Isn't this making trouble?"

"I didn't intend to tell Amber about these things, but Rodney came to me and told me something about Itzel. You Ran and Rodney were separated because of Itzel. I don't feel good." Issac told Elliot what Rodney and he had said when they met.

"Itzel has been more thoughtful than others since she was a child. Besides, she has done many bad things in recent years. I was worried that she would have any bad thoughts about Amber, so I thought about telling him what happened that year. At that time, I just didn't intend to say it. Today, Itzel came to me again, and she treated me as a fool. Her words implied that she wanted me to take Amber away. I was really angry, so I told her some unpleasant words. Later, I thought that Itzel could no longer be saved. She could do anything for her purpose. I was afraid that she would talk nonsense to Amber and think that I would be better if I talked to him first, but I didn't expect that Amber's reaction would be so strong."

"Itzel and Ashley are sisters after all. As the saying goes, a dead man dies a hundred times. No matter how much hatred you have, it should disappear with Ashley's death. However, she has always been upset. She has helped Shannon and her daughter to deal with Amber several times. It's really hateful!" Elliot was very angry. "What benefits did Shannon and her daughter give her to let her spare so much effort?"

Wu nearly laughed bitterly. "She and Shannon are in cahoots with each other. She has done many evil things in the past few years. There must be some secrets between them that can't be revealed."

When it came to Shannon, Elliot thought of Ashley's death. "Do you know Shannon?"

"I don't know," Issac replied. "I used to think that she was a good person, but I didn't know that she had an affair with Channing. You can imagine how bad her character is."

“To become the secretary’s wife from the social affairs of gangsters, Shannon is not an ordinary person.” Elliot sneered. “By the way, have you ever suspected that Ashley’s death is abnormal?”

Issac shook his head. “The death of Ashley was just an accident. The driver ran away after hitting someone. Later, he was caught and sentenced for ten years. At that time, he was only sentenced for three years. It was Channing who found someone and gave him the most serious punishment.”

Elliot sneered. “Channing is really hypocritical. If he hadn’t cheated on Shannon, and if Shannon hadn’t gone to Ashley to expose their scandal, Ashley wouldn’t have been in trouble at all. He and Shannon were the cause of all this. He did this just to make himself feel at ease.”

“What did you say? Shannon is looking for an incense burner? How did you know that?” Issac was very surprised.

“My mother told me.” Elliot told Issac less about what Lannie told him. “I showed my mother the photo of Shannon. She said that the person who met Ashley at that time was Shannon. I suspect that Ashley’s death has a lot to do with Shannon.”

Issac couldn’t believe it at all. “Could it be that your mother has mistaken you for someone else? At most, Shannon didn’t hurt people so viciously because of her loose morals, did she?”

“No, when my mother saw Shannon’s photo, she identified her as the person who met Ashley. As for the viciousness, what Shannon has done so far is vicious? The man who seduced his good friend wanted to frame Amber for Celia’s vicious method of killing Rachel. By the way, last time, Noemi hit Celia, but she didn’t move on the surface, but secretly asked someone to hurt Noemi. Fortunately, I was there at that time, otherwise the consequences would be unimaginable.”

Elliot sneered. “In the past, I was just suspicious. But with what she has done recently and the fact that Ashley had a car accident after meeting her, I can almost be sure that she must have said something improper to Ashley in order to take the throne. It was she who indirectly caused Ashley’s death.”

Issac’s face turned blue. “Shannon secretly came to see Ashley. No wonder Ashley told me on the phone that Channing had an affair with a child. So it was not a coincidence that Ashley had an accident, but a car accident caused by Shannon?”

He raised his head and his face suddenly changed. “Amber! You...”

No one knew when Amber’s door opened. Noemi and Amber stood at the door and looked at them motionlessly. It seemed that she had heard what Elliot had just said.

Under Issac’s surprised gaze, Amber walked up to Elliot step by step. “Can you repeat what you just said?”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 207

9 minutes read

Elliot stood up and supported Amber. “Sit down first. I’ve always wanted to tell you about this, but I’m afraid that you won’t be able to accept it. Since you’ve heard everything today, there’s no need for me to hide it. I suspect that your mother’s death was caused by Shannon.”

Elliot repeated what he had just said. Amber’s face was pale and her body was trembling. She wanted to grab something, but there was nothing she could do. So she grabbed the sofa cushion tightly. Because she was too strong, her fingertips were white. Seeing her like this, Noemi was frightened. “Amber, are you okay?”

Amber didn’t say anything. She was still in school when her mother died. When she heard the bad news and rushed to the hospital, she only saw her mother’s cold body. She remembered her mother’s appearance at that time. She was covered in blood and her face was pale.

Her mother stayed in the peaceful room of the hospital for two days. Later, the driver who caused the accident took the initiative to surrender, and everything was treated as a traffic accident.

When his mother died, Channing was still in a meeting in a foreign place. His uncle did not inform Channing and directly held a funeral for his mother. When Channing came back and saw only his mother’s ashes, the two of them immediately quarreled.

Channing was roaring, questioning his uncle if he had the right to set his mother's grave without waiting for him to come back. His usually silent uncle suddenly hit Channing in a rage and shouted at him fiercely.

"Channing, touch your conscience. Don't you know what you have done behind her back? I'm telling you, she knows about your scandal. That's what she meant. She asked me to do this before she died!"

Channing was originally very angry, but because of his uncle's words, he suddenly became angry. At that time, she did not know why Channing was afraid of his uncle.

Later, three months after her mother's death, Shannon took Celia into her home. When she saw the girl who was four years older than her mistress and heard that she was called Channing's father timidly, she was extremely disappointed with Channing. Later, she ran away from home without hesitation to find her uncle.

Over the years, she had always thought that her mother's death was an accident, but she had never thought that there would be such an unknown side.

If it weren't for Lannie, no one would have known that her mother had seen Shannon before she died. Her mother died in a car accident after seeing Shannon. Lannie said that her mother was in a trance. What did Shannon say to her mother cause her to be in a trance?

Although Amber didn't know what Shannon had said to his mother, he was sure that her mother's death must have something to do with Shannon. Thinking of his tolerance and concession to Shannon and her daughter over the years, Amber really hated himself.

She had actually tolerated the murderer who had killed her mother, and she had allowed them to live a carefree life. She was a useless woman! Amber gritted his teeth and spat out a few words word by word, "I will never let them go!"

Seeing Amber's excitement, Noemi was extremely worried. "Amber, this is just a guess. Don't get excited. We need to calm down. Calm down, okay?"

"Yes, it's just a guess. It's not necessarily the truth." Issac also tried to comfort him. "Don't get excited. You're still pregnant."

“I’m not that fragile.” Amber loosened his grip on the sofa. Her nails had been broken because of the force, but she didn’t feel any pain at all. “I must find out the truth about this matter!”

“Don’t worry. I’ve been investigating. Rest assured that I’ll tell you when I find out the truth.” Elliot took over her words.

“No! This matter can’t be faked. I want to investigate it myself!” Amber had a determined look on his face.

“How are you going to investigate when you’re pregnant? You’d better leave it to Elliot.” Noemi tried to comfort him.

“A fox will always show its tail. If my mother’s death really has something to do with Shannon, she will never hide it so well. I will go back to the Black family and expose her true identity.”

“Shannon is so vicious that she won’t let you catch her. The most important thing is that you are still pregnant. If she is against you, it will not be a joke. For the sake of the child, you shouldn’t take this risk.” Noemi firmly disagreed with Amber’s decision to investigate the truth.

“The most dangerous place is the safest place. Shannon would never dare to hurt me. Now her daughter is pregnant. If something happens to my child, she will be the first suspect. She is not so stupid.” Amber sneered.

“I used to think that it was a good thing that I didn’t fight for it, but now I know that it’s stupid to fight for it. From now on, I’m going to compete with them. As long as they want it, I’m going to fight for it. I’m going to let them treat me as a thorn in their flesh. I’m going to make them feel like they’re stuck in their throats. It’s difficult for them to get to the extreme!”

“I know how you feel, but you’ll definitely make them suspicious if you suddenly come back to the Black family. I think it’s better to make a long-term plan.” Elliot saw that Amber insisted on going back and couldn’t stop him. He understood Amber’s mood, but Amber’s sudden return would definitely make Shannon and her daughter suspicious. It was definitely not good for the investigation to alert the enemy.

“Channing has been asking me to move back, but I didn’t want to see those ugly faces in the past, so I refused. Now it’s not abrupt for me to move back.

It's Channing's birthday in a few days. I can take it as a reason for his birthday. They won't doubt anything."

Rodney asked Deon to investigate the situation of Shannon's cousin, Tony. Tony was sentenced to 10 years of imprisonment because of his attempted robbery and a miscarriage. During the period of imprisonment, he escaped from prison when he was in charge of relaxation.

After Tony escaped prison, he actually stabbed Yumi, the victim who had asked him to go to jail, three times. Although he did not stab Yumi to death, the plot of deliberately killing people when he escaped prison was too serious, so he was arrested and sentenced to death. He was still in prison.

Deon told Rodney that when the police caught Tony, he didn't regret it at all. Instead, he claimed that he didn't kill Yumi. He just wanted to ask Yumi why she pretended to be pregnant and wrongly accused him, causing him to be sentenced for a few more years. He also said that Yumi had fallen into a pool of blood when he arrived at Yumi's house.

Rodney furrowed his brows. Why was Tony such a vicious man who would not repent? Could there really be a hidden reason behind this?

Rodney decided to meet Tony. Tony had been in prison for so many years. He looked thin and pale, and his eyes were dull. This was a typical state of losing hope for life.

According to the prison's discipline, generally speaking, people who performed well in prison could be deducted of their sentence. Many people went out in less than 20 years. But Tony was different from others. He had never repented and had been shouting for injustice. He had always been passive in his work. Because he had never repented, he had never punished him. In this way, he had been yelling for more than 20 years. It was not until the end of the year that he stopped. He did not shout or complain.

Deon tried to communicate with Tony. In the face of Deon's inquiry, Tony remained silent. He seemed to be in a passive position. Deon saw him shaking his head at Rodney.

Rodney lit a cigarette and handed it to Tony. Tony looked up at Rodney with his turbid eyes and then at Deon. Finally, he reached out and took the cigarette. After he took a few breaths, Rodney suddenly said, "Tony, do you still remember Queena?"

The name Queena made Tony's hand tremble. Rodney continued, "Queena is now a famous seer in South City. She has a good relationship with the secretary's wife. Do you know who the secretary's wife is?"

Tony smoked silently and turned a deaf ear to Rodney's words.

"The secretary's wife is called Shannon." Rodney smiled faintly. "You seem to have a cousin named Shannon, right?"

Tony still didn't speak. Rodney continued, "By the way, I forgot to tell you the secretary's name. The secretary's name is Channing. Do you think it sounds familiar?"

"It does sound familiar." Tony finally spoke.

"Let me add it again. The secretary's wife is from the cat's alley. She used to be nicknamed a flower. Your cousin, Shannon, also called her this nickname. Am I right?"

"How is that possible?" Tony looked at Rodney in shock. If his cousin Shannon was the secretary's wife, how could she ignore him? He had been in prison for so many years, and his cousin had a good relationship with him, so she knew his grievance. Since she was the secretary's wife, she would definitely avenge him.

Rodney smiled faintly. "I brought you photos of the secretary and his wife. Take a look." He handed the photos of Channing and Shannon to Tony.

Tony took it and took a look at it. His face changed. Rodney took it in his eyes and said, "I have asked the judge and judge. In your case, you can be sentenced to death for more than ten years at most, but you have stayed here for such a long time and haven't been punished. Do you know why?"

"Why?"

"Because someone doesn't want you to go out." Rodney looked at him with pity. "You know too many things. There are only two ways to shut you up. One is to make you never speak, and the other is to make you lose your freedom for the rest of your life. The person who made you never speak couldn't bear it, so he chose to make you lose your freedom for the rest of your life."

“Impossible!” Tony lost his voice. He was not a fool and naturally knew what Rodney meant.

“Why is it impossible? As a gangster like you, you can’t get rid of it even if you get involved with it. Who would be willing to have something to do with you? Besides, you should know what happened that year better than anyone else. And let me tell you, your cousin Shannon has been the secretary’s wife for more than ten years. If the secretary’s wife wants to meddle in this matter, it should not be difficult. But why haven’t anyone paid attention to you for so many years? You are a smart person. You don’t need me to explain such a simple thing carefully, do you?”

“Why did you tell me this?”

“Because I want to do business with you. Tell me what I want to know, and I will find a way to avenge you and let you get out of here. What do you think?”

Tony smoked in silence. Rodney continued, “I’ll only give you one chance. It depends on whether you can provide me with something valuable. I’m warning you, there’s only one chance. If you miss it, you’ll never have it again! I hope you can think it through carefully. If you want to know, tell the discipline.”

After saying this, he motioned for Deon to leave. Walking out of the prison gate, Deon asked Rodney strangely, “Mr. Barron, how do you know that someone doesn’t want him to go out?”

“It’s a guess,” Rodney replied. “Tony is Shannon’s only cousin. No matter whether Tony has been wronged or not, according to common sense, Shannon will definitely find a way to help his cousin find connections so that he can stay in prison less for a few years. But the fact is that she doesn’t care about this cousin, and everyone in Parkview Street knows that this is the best relationship between them. What does this mean?”

Deon understood. “So you suspect that Shannon deliberately didn’t want Tony to go out.”

“And why is Tony able to escape from prison and kill Yumi? Think about it. There must be a reason.”

“Mr. Barron is still careful.” Deon admired Rodney so much that he almost fell to the ground. “But will he be willing to cooperate with us?”

“He’ll figure it out!” Rodney replied.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 208

8 minutes read

Amber planned to move back to the Black family home, but he didn’t expect that in the evening, Rodney called her and told her that he saw Channing being sent to the hospital and asked her if she wanted to go and have a look.

Yesterday, Amber also saw the news that Channing had just had a meeting in the province on TV. At that time, Channing looked energetic and didn’t look like he was sick. Why did he suddenly stay in the hospital today?

Thinking of the last time when Channing pretended to be ill and stayed in the hospital, Amber guessed that Channing must have gone to the provincial meeting to see what had happened. So he chose to pretend to be ill like last time, so he didn’t take it to heart.

After dinner, Aunt Maleah called and told Amber that Channing had just fainted and was hospitalized. She asked Amber to go to the hospital to see him.

When Amber arrived at the hospital, there were only Channing and Aunt Maleah in the ward. He didn’t see Shannon and Celia. Amber felt a little strange. Shouldn’t Shannon and her daughter be trying to please Channing at this time? Why didn’t they come today?

Seeing her come in, Aunt Maleah stood up and pointed to Channing, who was sleeping on the hospital bed. “He hasn’t woken up yet.”

Amber lowered his voice. “What’s going on?”

“I don’t know.” Channing had gone out to the provincial meeting the day before yesterday. He said that he would go for three days when he went out, and he would come back tomorrow. She was preparing dinner at home tonight. Channing’s driver called her and told her that Channing was in the hospital and told her not to disturb anyone.

Aunt Maleah knew that she didn’t want to alert anyone, so she didn’t want Shannon and her daughter to know. Channing had just gone to the meeting, so Shannon naturally wouldn’t stay at home. There was only Celia at home, so she found an excuse to come to the hospital. When she arrived at the hospital, she found that Channing had been sleeping all the time. She was worried, so she called Amber and asked him to come and have a look.

“Where’s the driver?” Amber asked Aunt Maleah.

“He has been guarding here all the time. I’ll let him go out for dinner.”

“How did he get sick? What did the doctor say?”

“The doctor said it was because of high blood pressure. He said that everything would be fine if we were hospitalized for observation.”

As she spoke, the driver pushed the door open and came in. The driver was new and did not know Amber. Seeing a surprised look on the face of a stranger in the ward, Aunt Maleah immediately told him Amber’s identity. Amber asked the driver, “Did something happen before you fainted?”

The driver shook his head. “I sent the secretary to the provincial meeting. According to the schedule, she should have come back tomorrow, but after the meeting, we came back. On the way home, the secretary suddenly turned pale. He said that he was in a bad mood, so he asked me to send him to the hospital. After he arrived at the hospital, the doctor checked the secretary and said that the secretary’s blood pressure was very high, so he asked me to stay in the hospital for observation. I originally wanted to call Madam, but the secretary told me not to call. He just asked me to call Aunt Maleah and told me not to tell anyone about his stay in the hospital except for Aunt Maleah.”

Amber glanced at Aunt Maleah. “Is his blood pressure very high?”

Aunt Maleah nodded. “I’ve been taking medicine, but I’ve never seen anything like this before.”

Amber always thought that Channing was in good health, but she didn’t expect that he had already begun to take medicine. She was a little worried, so she went to find the doctor.

Not long after Amber left, Channing had just woken up. Aunt Maleah was very happy. “Secretary, you’re awake! Do you feel better?”

Channing nodded and struggled to sit up. The driver hurried forward to help him sit up. Aunt Maleah asked Channing with concern, “What would you like to eat, Secretary? I’ll buy it for you.”

Channing glanced at the driver and said, "Go and buy some porridge for me." The driver promised to leave. When the driver disappeared, Channing looked at Aunt Maleah and asked, "Is she not at home today?"

She was referring to Shannon. Aunt Maleah nodded and said, "I went out early in the morning and said that I had an appointment with someone for shopping and beauty. I didn't come back when I came out."

Channing's face was a little gloomy. "What kind of clothes did she wear when she went out?"

Aunt Maleah told him what Shannon had worn when she went out. "What happened to the secretary?"

Channing didn't say anything. On the way home, he inadvertently glanced around and saw a man and a woman kissing in a car parked on the side of the road. The woman's figure was so similar to Shannon's. At that time, his heart skipped a beat and he felt a headache.

At that time, when he saw that the woman looked so much like Shannon, he was so angry that he felt dizzy and couldn't breathe. If he hadn't suddenly felt dizzy and had an illness, he would have asked the driver to stop the car and check it out.

The woman he saw kissing with a man in the car looked like Shannon, but the clothes she wore were different from what Aunt Maleah said. Did it mean that he had mistaken her for someone else?

Channing had just thought about it when Aunt Maleah spoke again. "Amber came to see you. I saw that you didn't wake up just now, so I was worried that you would go to find a doctor."

"She's pregnant. Why are you making her worry?" Channing complained.

"When I saw you in a coma, I was frightened at that time."

Amber came back as she spoke, followed by the doctor. When she saw that Channing had just woken up, she let out a sigh of relief. The doctor checked on Channing again and said that the situation was very stable and there was no need to worry.

After the doctor left, the driver came back with porridge for Channing. Amber opened the porridge and looked at it. He shook his head and said, "This is seafood porridge. The secretary will be allergic to seafood. We have to change it."

"I'm sorry!" It didn't take long for the driver and Channing to know about this taboo. "I'll buy another one."

"Forget it, I'll go with you." Aunt Maleah said, "Amber, you can chat with the secretary in the ward. I'll be back soon."

After Aunt Maleah and the driver left, only Channing and Amber were left in the ward. Channing's eyes were a little wet. He never dreamed that Amber would remember that he was allergic to seafood.

Both of them were his daughters. Celia and Amber were two extremes. Celia had lived with him for so many years. She knew that he was allergic to seafood, but she never cared about him, the taboo.

Because Rodney liked to eat seafood, and Celia often asked Aunt Maleah to buy seafood every few days. She tried her best to please him, but she completely ignored his feelings.

Although he felt uncomfortable at that time, he still persuaded himself not to be angry. Young people nowadays were all like this. They only cared about themselves and rarely cared about others. Today, when he saw Amber remember his taboo, he realized that he was wrong. "Amber, I was wrong! I'm sorry!"

Channing had said countless apologies to Amber, but at this moment, the apology was completely different from the previous one.

Amber also felt his emotional changes. She poured a glass of water for Channing. "You didn't betray me. In the past, I couldn't think it through, but now I think it through. You gave me your life, which is the greatest gift for me. I didn't ask you to do anything for me, and I didn't have the right to hate you."

The more Amber said this, the more upset Channing felt. "Amber, I'm most sorry for you and your mother in this life. I can still make up for your father's hope. I know that your mother will never be able to make up for it in this life. I only hope that in the future, we can meet underground and beg for her forgiveness."

Amber looked at Channing and thought of Itzel's words. She controlled her emotions and said, "I want to ask you, has my mother done anything to you in this life?"

"No! Your mother is a good woman. She has worked hard after marrying me. She has never done anything bad to me. I betrayed her," Channing replied firmly.

Amber felt relieved. "Mom is indeed not that kind of person. I'm really stupid to be suspected by a vicious woman like Itzel's words. I shouldn't have done that."

Aunt Maleah and the driver quickly bought Channing some porridge. Channing had just finished his porridge and it was getting late. He was worried about Amber's health, so he asked Amber to go back to rest. Amber saw that he was fine, so he did not insist on staying. She told the driver who took care of Channing to stay and leave the ward. When he walked to the door, Channing suddenly stopped her. "Amber, it's my birthday the day after tomorrow. Can you take Mel home for dinner?"

Amber nodded. "I'll take Mel back."

Channing didn't have much hope at first. Seeing that Amber agreed with him, he was very happy and talked to Amber about asking Amber to move back to his room. "Mel's room has been arranged by Aunt Maleah. You can bring Mel back and live there for a few days."

Amber did not object. "It depends on the situation."

After Amber went back, he told Issac and Noemi about his promise to Channing to move back. Noemi was still worried, so she told this thing to Rodney and asked him to find a way to persuade Amber. Hearing this, Rodney was also anxious. Shannon was such a vicious woman. How could she kill Amber? He couldn't let Amber take the risk.

Rodney came to look for Amber in the evening. "Amber, think about it. Shannon is too vicious. Even if you don't want to do something for yourself, you have to do something for the baby in your belly. We can't take such a risk."

"I know, I will be careful."

“No matter how careful we are, it’s impossible to completely avoid sudden accidents. As the saying goes, it’s not too late for a gentleman to take revenge for ten years. We’ve been waiting for so many years. Let Shannon live a carefree life for a few more months. When the child is born, it won’t be too late for us to take revenge after Mel recovers its health.”

“Also, after all, so many years have passed. With Shannon’s cunningness, she must be very wary of you. It’s not easy for you to find evidence from her. You can leave the investigation to me. I’m investigating Shannon and Itzel now. I’ve got something to tell you. There will be a result soon. Just wait patiently for a few days!”

Seeing that Rodney was so worried, Amber had no choice but to give in. “Well, I won’t move back to the Black family for now. Let’s talk about it when your investigation results come out. But tomorrow is Xia Zhenyang’s birthday. I have promised him to take Mel back for dinner.”

“Since you’ve already promised him, you should go back. Remember to be careful when you’re there,” Rodney warned.

This was the first time that Amber had accompanied Channing on his birthday after leaving home for so many years. Channing was simply too happy. Although it was his birthday, he ordered Aunt Maleah to prepare all the dishes that Amber liked to eat. He also personally picked up Amber and Mel.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 209

8 minutes read

Seeing that Amber and Mel came back to celebrate Channing’s birthday, Shannon and Celia were shocked. They looked at each other and knew what Itzel meant. Didn’t Itzel say that Amber would soon leave South City? But the situation now was completely different from what Itzel had said. It seemed that they had to find time to ask Itzel what was going on.

The mother and daughter tried their best to smile at Amber and Mel. Shannon praised Mel. “Mel is so beautiful. When she grows up, she must be a handsome guy!”

Celia agreed with her mother. Mel asked Amber, “Mom, who are they?”

Amber pointed at Shannon and Celia and explained, “This is Mrs. Black, and this is Mrs. Black’s daughter. You can call her Ms. Black.”

Mel nodded. "Nice to meet you, Mrs. Black and Mrs. Black!"

This title almost made Shannon and her daughter spit blood. Seeing Celia's big belly, Mel was very surprised. "Mom, Ms. Black's belly is bigger than yours."

"Yes, Ms. Black is pregnant with twins, so she is naturally older than her mother," Amber said with a smile.

They thought that Amber would be very angry and unhappy when he saw that Celia was pregnant, but when he saw that Amber didn't seem to mind at all, Celia and Shannon had an intuition that something was wrong, but they couldn't figure out what was wrong.

Channing was also worried that Amber would say something unpleasant when he saw Celia's belly. Amber's reaction made him feel relieved. He took Mel's hand and said, "Mel and Grandpa, go upstairs to have a look at the room."

Mel was taken upstairs by Channing, and Amber followed him. Looking at the intimacy between Channing and Aunt Maleah, Shannon and Celia were really upset.

Celia lowered her voice and asked Shannon, "Mom, how could she act as if nothing had happened?"

"How would I know?" Shannon was not happy. "Calm down tonight. I don't think it's that simple. Amber is not easy to get along with. We have to be careful."

Shannon and her daughter had never been at ease. They were afraid that something bad would happen to Amber. As a result, they had thought too much. They ate happily at dinner. Amber did not make trouble for them. When they had dinner and chatted, he even kindly told Celia to pay attention to some pregnant women. There was no hostility at all.

The more Amber behaved like this, the more restless Shannon and her daughter became. At night, Mel and Amber lived in the Black family. Mel was unwilling to sleep alone, so Amber was naturally worried about letting him sleep alone. The mother and son slept in the same bedroom.

Watching Amber take Mel into the bedroom, Celia also went back to her own bedroom. After a while, Shannon brought her a glass of milk and closed the door. Celia lowered her voice and said, "Mom, why do I feel that Amber is abnormal?"

"I also feel that she is abnormal. She has never liked you. How can she be so kind to you? If she is still calm to me, the more she is like this, the more uneasy I will be. I am worried that she will come back suddenly for the baby in your belly."

"Will you?" Celia was shocked.

"That's possible. You can never get pregnant again if you don't have a child. If she wants to hurt you, things will be unimaginable. We have to find a way to deal with it."

"How to deal with it?" What Shannon said was true. If she didn't have a child, she would have no bargaining chip in the future. She had to be on guard against Amber.

"You can stay outside for a few days and come back when she leaves." Shannon had no other choice but to persuade her daughter to stay away.

Celia was also afraid, so she agreed with her mother's proposal.

Shannon, who was lying on the bed in the evening, couldn't fall asleep. She kept guessing Amber's intentions and didn't fall asleep until the latter half of the night.

Shannon was dreaming. In her dream, it was the scene that happened on the road outside the tea room that day. Ashley was covered in blood and lying in a pool of blood. She stood at the door of the tea room and watched her struggle in pain. Looking at the blood on her body flowing away little by little, she felt happy.

After a few seconds, Ashley, who was lying on the ground, suddenly jumped up and threw herself at her. She shouted, "Shannon, give me back my life!" Shannon was scared out of her wits. She wanted to run away, but she couldn't move.

When the bloody hands were about to grab her neck, Shannon suddenly opened her eyes. For fear that she would turn over and sit up, she felt that her back was covered with cold sweat. Channing, who was beside her, had just been awakened by her actions. He muttered, "What's wrong?"

“Nothing. I’m thirsty. I want to get some water.” Shannon got up gently. She didn’t want to drink water, but her heart was beating fast. She was afraid that Channing would find her abnormal, so she chose to avoid it.

After pouring a glass of water in the kitchen, Shannon sat beside the dining table and drank up the glass of water. She felt a little calmer. She had had a lot of dreams like this after Ashley’s death, but they were all about a few days after Ashley’s death. Now she couldn’t stand the death anniversary of Ashley at all. What was wrong with her? Why did she dream of this again?

She felt a little uneasy. She didn’t believe in ghosts and gods, but she didn’t know why she always felt uneasy today. She had been in a panic. Was something going to happen?

She recalled the scene of Ashley’s death. That day, she had an appointment with him. When Ashley rushed to the tea room, she smiled and said, “Shannon, didn’t I ask you to come here and go directly to your home? Why don’t you go?”

Looking at Ashley’s smiling face, she didn’t smile at all. “It’s not appropriate to say it in your house!”

“What happened?”

She opened her bag and took out a photo from it and handed it to Ashley. “Look at this!”

Ashley took the photo and looked at it. Then she gave it back to her. “Whose child is he? He’s very beautiful!”

“Is she beautiful? Don’t you think she’s different when she’s beautiful?” she asked coldly.

“Other things are different?” Ashley took back the photo and looked at it again. “This child looks like you.”

“You look like me? It’s said that a daughter looks like a father, but this child doesn’t look like me, but she looks quite like her father.” She continued to sneer.

“Who is her father? Do I know him?”

“We know each other, how can we not know each other? You get along with each other every day?”

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Ashley was stunned.

“I’m not talking nonsense. This is indeed your husband’s child. He was born with another woman!” When she said this, Ashley’s face suddenly changed. She picked up the photo and looked at it carefully for a while.

The more she looked, the uglier her face became. Looking at Ashley’s pale face, she quickly understood. “Don’t you want to know who her mother is?”

“Who is it?” Ashley put down the photo and asked in a trembling voice.

“Me!” She sneered and said a word softly to Ashley. Ashley’s face changed and she looked at her in horror. “Impossible! How is that possible!”

“Why is it impossible? Other things can be deceived. Can this kind of thing also be deceived?” She looked at Ashley’s pale face. “I remember that Channing just came to South City for a business trip a few years ago, right? As a wife, you should find that the underwear he brought is missing. The underwear is still in my house.

Shannon’s reminder reminded Ashley of Channing’s trip. She had always been the one to clean up and change clothes for him. When he came back from that business trip, he had lost a pair of underwear.

At that time, she asked curiously. At that time, Channing’s expression was a little unnatural. He said he lost it, but she didn’t think about it in this way.

However, she didn’t expect that his underwear would be left in her best friend’s house. She didn’t know how to feel. Ashley glared at her and said, “Shannon, I’ve always treated you as my best friend. There are so many men. Why do you want to be with Channing? Why?”

In the face of Ashley’s questioning, she sneered. “You should ask your husband this question, not me. If he wants to have a relationship with me, can I refuse?”

“I didn’t expect you to be such a shameless person. Well, I’m blind. Shannon, from now on, you’re the one-on-one of me!”

Ashley looked at her with contempt, but she was not as mad as she thought. After saying this, she got up and was ready to leave.

Seeing that she was about to leave, Shannon stopped her. "Wait a minute. I have something to tell you!"

Ashley ignored her and moved away. Shannon stopped her. "In fact, Channing had more than one lover. He had another woman outside and had a child."

"Get lost!" Ashley gave her a word.

"Don't believe it? I'll let you believe it." Shannon sneered. Ignoring Ashley's disgust, she whispered three words in her ear. After she said those three words, Ashley's expression instantly became as ugly as dead ash. "Nonsense!"

"Whether I am talking nonsense or not, you can check it out. You robbed her man. With her hatred for you, what can't you do?" Shannon reminded her coldly. "I forgot to tell you that her child and my child are born to be together."

"Why? Why are you doing this to me?" This was a big blow to Ashley. Her eyes lost their luster. Suddenly, she raised her hand and slapped Shannon hard on the face and stumbled away.

Not long after that, Ashley was knocked down by a truck on the side of the road. She witnessed the whole process. There was blood all over the ground, and she was struggling in a pool of blood...

Because it was late Club Cobalt, the room was too quiet. This memory made Shannon feel frightened in her heart. She didn't dare to stay down anymore, so she got up and went upstairs. When she turned the stairs, she saw a white figure with disheveled hair. She couldn't help screaming.

The screams in the middle of the night were so shrill and high-pitched that everyone in the villa was awakened. Channing, Celia, and Aunt Maleah rubbed their eyes and walked out of the bedroom to check.

"What happened?" Looking at Shannon, who was standing at the corner of the stairs, and Amber, who was about to go downstairs, Channing asked with a frown.

“I don’t know either.” Amber innocently spread out his hands. “I was thirsty and wanted to drink water, so I went downstairs to pour some water. When I walked to the stairs, Mrs. Black just came up and suddenly shouted. I don’t know if she was possessed.”

Shannon covered her chest. She was the best at reacting to situations. “I seem to have seen a black cat just now. Its eyes are green. I’m most afraid of cats!”

“What’s the big deal? What’s there to be afraid of?” Channing frowned. “And there’s no cat in the villa. How did you see a cat?”

“She must be seeing things.” Celia immediately spoke up for her mother.

Amber didn’t say anything. She saw clearly that Shannon suddenly screamed when she looked up at her. She was not afraid of ghosts knocking on the door. What was she afraid of?

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 210

9 minutes read

It had been several months since Amber returned to the country. Pierce originally thought that he would be able to deal with the factory in three or five days and go back to accompany her. However, he didn’t know that the factory incident was getting more and more intense. Later, he was reported to the court by a worker and couldn’t leave the country at all. He could only stay in the U.S. and couldn’t return to the country.

During the days of returning to the country, Elliot had called Pierce to tell him about all the troubles Amber had gone through. Every day, Pierce was worried about Amber. He only hated himself for not being able to help her take care of her. Fortunately, Elliot had been taking care of Amber on his behalf, making him feel a little more at ease.

Now that the factory affairs had been basically dealt with, he planned to go back to our country in a few days.

After getting off work that day, Pierce did not go home. Instead, he went to a villa in the suburbs.

This villa was bought by Pierce last year. He intended to let Amber live here with Mel. Because it was located in the suburbs, the air here was very clear. It was the most suitable place for Mel to recuperate.

When Pierce bought this villa, Madam Hammond did not agree to his marriage with Amber. He thought that he and Amber would never be together in this life. Buying this villa was simply to buy a place for Amber and Mel. Now that Madam Hammond had agreed to their marriage, he was overjoyed. He immediately renovated the villa and planned to use it as their new home in the future.

Now, the villa had been decorated and there were many flowers and plants in the garden. A large area of the garden was planted with roses. Pierce planned to propose to her in the rose garden when Amber came back.

Today, Pierce came here because he wanted to see those roses. At the same time, he also wanted to say goodbye to Tian Xiaoman, who had been helping him take care of the flowers and plants.

A few months ago, Kelsey was rescued by Pierce and stayed in the hospital for nearly a month. Her injuries had been cured, but her memory was still not recovered.

Because Kelsey's purse certificate had been taken away when she was in a coma due to injury, there was nothing to prove her identity. She could not remember who she was, so Pierce had to take her out of the hospital and temporarily put her in the staff dormitory of the company.

After a casual chat, Pierce learned that Kelsey liked flowers and plants very much. Thinking that he had planted a lot of flowers and plants in the villa in the suburbs, he planned to ask Kelsey to move there temporarily and asked her to take care of the garden with the servants who were cooking flowers and trees in the villa. He also hoped that the environment could help her regain her memory as soon as possible.

When Pierce arrived at the villa, Kelsey was watering flowers in the garden.

The afterglow of the setting sun shone on the ground, and the sunset all over the sky dyed the sky colorful. Kelsey wore a light pink dress, with her black hair hanging in the purple and red flowers. The sun cast a layer of gold on her hair and skirt, making her look like a fairy in a painting.

When Pierce saw this scene outside the fence, he was stunned and didn't recover for a whole minute.

If it weren't for the fact that he knew very well that Amber was in the country, he would have thought that the fairy-like beautiful woman in the flowers was her.

This woman who lost her memory looked so much like Amber!

While he was in a daze, Kelsey raised her head and smiled at him. "Brother Pierce, you're here!"

"Yes, I'm here to take a look." Pierce came to his senses, pushed the door open, and walked in.

Kelsey put down the shower in her hand and approached him. She pointed at a rose and said with a smile, "Brother Pierce, you came at the right time. The Rainbow Rose has blossomed. You look so beautiful!"

Pierce looked in the direction she was pointing and saw two flowers on the rose tree. The color of the flowers was very strange. They were made up of seven colors: red, orange, yellow, green, green, blue, and purple.

This kind of rose was called Rainbow Rose. It was also called Seven-Colored Roses and Happy Roses. Its flower language was romantic, dreamy, happy, gorgeous, and noble. In addition to gorgeous colors, it could also give off a sweet fragrance. This kind of rose was very rare. It was carefully cultivated by the servants of Pierce. It was used to give it to Amber to express his affection for her.

Seeing the special color of the Rainbow Rose, Pierce excitedly walked over and bent down to smell it. He sighed and said, "It really lives up to its reputation. This kind of rose is really beautiful."

Kelsey looked at Pierce's handsome face with a smile and suddenly felt a little disappointed. She had heard from the gardener who taught her how to grow flowers that Pierce had a fiancée. He planted this kind of rose for his fiancée and expressed his love for her. She really envied that woman. Pierce was handsome, smart, and so kind. How happy it would be to marry him!

"Thank you, Kel." Pierce stood up straight and thanked Kelsey gratefully. In order to make it easier for him to address Kelsey, Pierce gave her the name

Kel. The reason why he called her Kel was that she wore a jade pendant, so Pierce gave her the name in the name of jade.

“Brother Pierce, you’re too polite. Uncle Ryan spent a lot of effort to cultivate this flower. I’m just helping you to water it.” Kelsey blushed slightly and felt embarrassed for her loss of composure just now.

How could Pierce know what was on Kelsey’s mind? He thought that she was shy, but she blushed after he praised her. He had a better impression of her in his heart. Nowadays, it was rare to see such a blushing girl.

Thinking of this, he couldn’t help but say, Kel, you really look like a person.

“Is that so? Who is she?”

“She’s my fiancée.” When it came to Amber, Pierce was happy and his eyes were full of smiles.

Kelsey was a little surprised. “Your fiancée?”

Pierce smiled and said, “Yes, her name is Amber. Her eyes and mouth are very similar to yours, but she is a few years older than you.”

“Amber?” Kelsey frowned. She felt as if she had heard this name somewhere before.

Pierce noticed Kelsey’s strange expression and asked hurriedly, “What’s wrong with you, Kel?”

Kelsey hesitated for a moment and said, “I seem to be very familiar with this name.”

“It’s not strange. It must be Ryan who told you!” Pierce did not expect that Kelsey would know Amber. He thought that the servants in the villa told her. The servants here were all transferred from the family. Everyone knew Amber, so it was not surprising that they would mention Amber to Kelsey.

“Maybe.” Kelsey knew that the people here did not mention the name of Pierce’s fiancée to her. But when she thought that she could not know Pierce’s fiancée so coincidentally, she did not think too much about it.

After enjoying the roses for a while, Pierce and Kelsey busied themselves with watering flowers and pine soil for a while before entering the house with

Kelsey. They sat down on the sofa in the living room. Pierce told Kelsey that he was going to return to our country. Then he took out his mobile phone and said to her, "Kel, sit down. I'll take a photo of you."

Kelsey only felt strange. "Why do you want to take photos for no reason?"

"I'm going to take your photo to a friend of mine. I want him to check it out and see if he can find out your identity. In addition, I'm going back to our country soon, and I can also go back to our country to check it out." These days, Pierce was busy dealing with the factory affairs, so he had no time to help Kelsey find out his identity. Now he was going to return to our country. He planned to take Kelsey's photo to Elliot and ask him to check it out to see if he could find out Kelsey's identity.

Kelsey was overjoyed. She quickly tidied up her hair and clothes, sat upright, and asked Pierce to take photos for her.

Pierce raised his phone and took two photos of her. After chatting for a while, he took his leave and went back to his home.

Back home, Pierce decided to make a phone call to Amber and tell her that he was going back to the country.

On the other side of the phone, Amber's voice was a little tired. Pierce was very careful and immediately noticed it. "Amber, are you feeling unwell?"

Amber smiled. "No, I'm fine."

"You should pay more attention to your health. You are pregnant now, and you have to take care of Mel. Don't be too tired." Thinking of Amber's hard work, Pierce felt distressed. He gave her a few more words of advice before hanging up the phone.

Thinking about it, Pierce was a little worried. He immediately called Elliot and asked about Amber's situation.

"I was about to call you to report it to you!" Elliot said in a serious tone. He told Riya that Rachel was injured accidentally and was in a coma. Riya insisted that it must be Amber's doing.

Pierce was shocked. "How could this be? It's impossible for Amber to do that."

Elliot said, "I also believe in Amber's character. She's kind-hearted. No matter how much she hates someone, she won't be so ruthless. She must have been framed."

"Then does Rodney trust her?" Thinking of how he was a filial son, Pierce was really worried that he would vent his anger on Amber.

"Rodney and Amber used to be husband and wife. He knows Amber better than us, so he naturally believes her." Although he had no good feelings for Rodney, Elliot was very pleased to see that Rodney trusted Amber so much. He did not hate him as much as before.

Pierce thought that it made sense. If even Rodney didn't understand Amber, then he would have treated her as his husband for nothing.

Elliot continued, "Rodney is currently asking someone to investigate this matter. I've also helped to investigate it together. I'm already starting to have some ideas."

Pierce heaved a sigh of relief. "That's good. I'll be back in a few days. I'll investigate with you when the time comes. You must prove your innocence to Amber."

"Okay, let's talk about it when you come back."

During dinner, Pierce told Breanna that he was about to return to the country. He also told her that Rachel was injured and in a coma. However, he was afraid that Breanna would be worried, so he didn't tell her that Amber was framed.

"Alas, it's so pitiful." Madam Hammond had always been compassionate. Although she hated Rachel's behavior of taking Mel away from her when she came to the United States, she immediately forgot her mistake and sympathized with her when she heard that she had suffered such an unexpected life-and-death situation.

Breanna, who was sitting next to him, said angrily, "Hum, what's so pitiful about that kind of person? At that time, he treated Amber like that and took him away regardless of Mel's body. Now it's karma. He deserves to die."

Madam Hammond glared at her with dissatisfaction. "What are you talking about? I'm so miserable now, how can you take pleasure in my misfortune?"

“Grandma, I’m just feeling sorry for Amber!” Breanna muttered and did not dare to say anything else.

In fact, she had heard about it from Celia. She also knew that Rodney suspected that it was Amber who did it. She also hated Amber. Now, Pierce was in a hurry to return to our country. It must be for this matter.

When she heard Celia say that Rodney and Amber had a falling out, it was difficult for them to reconcile. Breanna was happy for a long time for this. She hoped that Rodney would never forgive Amber again. However, she was a little worried at the same time.

She hated Amber so much that she couldn’t wait to kill him. Naturally, she didn’t want her to be able to live a happy life together with Rodney. However, if Amber and Rodney turned against each other, it was very likely that Amber would return to Pierce’s side. That would be even more difficult for her to accept.

Now, Pierce was going back to see Amber, which made her even more anxious. She ate nothing and kept thinking about how to stop him from coming back.