

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 211

9 minutes read

Breanna had no appetite because of her thoughts. After eating half a bowl of rice, she put down the bowl and sat down on the sofa in the living room to continue to think about something.

While she was deep in thought, Pierce's cell phone on the tea table in the living room suddenly rang. Breanna picked it up and took a look at it. She saw the two words "Kel" on the mobile phone screen. She was about to ask who Pierce's Kel was when Pierce got up and took the phone over to answer it.

Breanna was curious. She pricked up her ears and listened carefully, only to hear Pierce call Kel in a gentle tone. Then he said something. Pierce cried out and said, "Look at my memory. You keep it for me first. I'll get it when I come back. Thank you." Then he hung up the phone.

Breanna deliberately asked, "Brother, who called you? Why does it sound like a woman? Don't tell me you have something to do with another woman behind Sister Amber's back?"

Pierce hurriedly explained, "What are you talking about? I left my watch there when I went to the villa in the suburbs to give rose pine soil. The gardener in charge of taking care of flowers and plants picked it up and called me."

"Brother, don't lie." Breanna said with a smile, "I saw the name of the person on the phone just now. How could you record the number of your servant into your mobile phone!"

Kel is not a servant of our family, but now she is helping to take care of the flowers and plants in the villa, so I say she is a gardener.

"Who is Kel?" Madam Hammond put down the bowl and chopsticks and walked over. Hearing Pierce's words, she became interested.

Pierce had no choice but to tell her the story of saving Kelsey.

Madam Hammond said with a gratified smile, "My grandson is so kind that he can hold out his hands to strangers. Speaking of which, this girl is really pitiful. You should help her find out her identity as soon as possible so that it will be more helpful to restore her memory."

Pierce smiled and said, "Grandma, that's what I'm going to do."

These days, Breanna's attitude toward Breanna had become much colder. She was trying her best to please the old lady. When she heard the old lady's words, she immediately said, "Brother, send Kel's photo to my mobile phone. I want my friends to help me find out if anyone knows her."

Madam Hammond gave Breanna a look of approval. "That's right. There are many people in Breanna's group. You can ask her to help you spread the news."

However, Pierce's face darkened. "No, we can't send Kel's photos online. Otherwise, I would have done it a long time ago."

"Why can't I? Looking for people on the Internet is the most important thing." Breanna was a little confused.

Pierce said, "Have you forgotten what I just said? When I found Kel, she had scars on her body. And judging from the situation at that time, she seemed to be chased by someone. If I posted her photos on the Internet, it would be terrible if her enemy found out. I can only ask someone to investigate secretly and not make it public."

Breanna nodded. "You're right. You can't do that. How about this? My good friend Linda's husband is a private detective. Give me Kel's photo. I want him to help me investigate it secretly."

"Well, this is a good idea. I thank you on Kel's behalf." Pierce took out his mobile phone and sent Kelsey's photo to Breanna's mobile phone.

Breanna picked up her phone and looked at it. She couldn't help exclaiming in surprise, "Brother, why does this Kel look so much like Amber?"

Pierce smiled and said, "Yes, I also think they look alike. If I hadn't known that Amber didn't have sisters, I would have thought that Kel was her sister."

"Really? Let me have a look." Madam Hammond went forward to take Breanna's mobile phone and looked at it carefully. She also clicked her tongue and exclaimed, "It does look like it. This girl looks younger and prettier than Amber, and her character must be very docile."

Pierce smiled and said, "Grandma, you're really amazing. You can guess her character just by looking at the photos. Kel's character is really quiet and she is diligent. Ryan and others like her very much."

Seeing Pierce praising Kel, Breanna immediately came up with an idea. "Brother, I think it's better to invite her to our house to have a meal. It's pitiful for a girl to go through such suffering in a foreign country. Besides, grandma likes to be lively, so she can have a better meal when guests come to her house."

Breanna also agreed. "You're right. Our family is so big, but we don't have many people. It will be more lively if friends come here often. Why don't you bring Kel back to meet us?"

"Okay, I'll take her to you tomorrow and let you know her." Pierce thought it was reasonable. Tian Wan was gentle and well-behaved. Madam Hammond would definitely like her. If she could often come to accompany Madam Hammond, Madam Hammond would definitely be very happy. Besides, he was going to return to our country soon, so he might not be able to come back for a while. Now Madam Hammond hated Breanna very much. She would not accompany her like before. If Kelsey could accompany and take care of Madam Hammond on behalf of Breanna, he could leave at ease.

Having made up his mind, Pierce decided to go to the villa in person tomorrow and discuss it with Kelsey. If she was willing, he would let her move to the Gu mansion. However, he never expected that his decision not only changed his relationship with Amber, but also his life.

...

After the dream of doing business was ruined, Riya and her son's days were really sad. In the past, there were millions of savings in their bank cards. Clem stood straight, surrounded by a group of friends who went to the nightclub every few days to have fun.

At that time, there was a group of people around him, and the number of people was Brother Li. The young ladies saw that he was eager to come over. Now that they had no money in their pockets, those bad friends who used to surround him every day no longer contacted him. Occasionally, when they saw him on the street, they turned their heads away and pretended not to see him. Clem finally knew what the world was like.

Fortunately, not everyone abandoned him. Henry, who had encouraged him to do business before, treated him the same way as before. When it came to Henry, Clem really felt that he was good enough.

In the past, Clem had teased him a lot. Henry finally welcomed him with a smile and was not angry at all. He still called him Brother Hua behind him.

Clem looked down on Henry. Henry was ugly. He couldn't fight, he couldn't be brave, and he couldn't talk. Such a person was destined to be a follower and couldn't achieve great things.

Although he looked down on Henry, Clem still liked to follow him. After all, with someone like Henry, he had a particularly sense of accomplishment and superiority.

Of course, Henry was not a good-for-nothing. He actually found a woman with good looks and big breasts to be a horse. This was the only advantage of Henry.

Every time they met, everyone would stare at his girlfriend. Not to mention that her breasts were really attractive, Clem actually had no interest in women with big breasts. He didn't know what was going on. Probably because he had been short of love since he was a child, he had always liked old women, and sleeping with old women gave him a different feeling.

Therefore, Clem always looked for mature women. Although mature women could meet his heart's requirements, it would disgrace him if he took them out. Therefore, Clem only went through thick and thin with the old woman in private. He had always been alone in the gathering with his friends.

At that time, he was rich, and he often boasted that he had something to do with the secretary. During the gathering, he was surrounded by many people. Both men and women were flattering him, including Henry's big-chested girlfriend.

Henry, Henry's big-chested girlfriend, loved him very much, but that woman didn't care about him that much. She heard that Clem had something to do with money, and that the single woman had her eyes on him.

Some bad friends told Clem in private that the woman had a crush on him, but he didn't pay much attention to it at first. After listening to his friend's words, he found that the woman often looked at him with affection.

Everyone was interested in Henry's woman, but this woman was only interested in Clem. Men were all hypocritical. Although Clem didn't have much interest in that woman, he couldn't resist the temptation of that woman, so they went to bed after getting drunk.

After that woman hooked up with Clem, she naturally wanted to kick Henry out. However, Henry loved her so deeply that he refused to break up with her.

In order to make Henry give up, the woman deliberately asked Clem to have s*x with her. Seeing his woman and Clem lying nd on the bed, Henry's face turned blue and his fists clenched tightly.

Clem was also frightened. Although Henry couldn't fight, it was said that the hatred of taking his wife was absolutely irreconcilable. It wouldn't be a good thing if he really wanted to kill himself.

However, it turned out that Henry was really useless. After a moment of anger, he laughed out loud and said to Clem that women were like clothes. Clem, if you liked it, he would give it to you.

It was said that friends and wives couldn't be bullied. In the circle of gangsters, people were loyal to their friends. Clem's behavior was improper. Later, he gave Henry a lot of benefits.

Probably because he had made up for it, the relationship between the two did not become distant because of the woman. This time, Clem was down and out, and others kept a respectful distance from him. Only Henry was as usual. Not only did he not look down on Clem, who was currently penniless, but he also knew that he was embarrassed now. He would be very considerate and give him some money and food. It was said that it was true after suffering. Compared with others, Clem more and more believed that Henry could have a good relationship with him.

Henry had his own things to do, so he couldn't come to accompany him every day. Clem didn't have anything to do, so he didn't feel that his life was really difficult. So he took his mobile phone and went online every day to kill time. Soon he hooked up with Ruby, who was as calm as water, on WeChat. Originally, it was a matter of prostitutes and armed escorts, but when it came to sad things, they began to pity each other for the same illness. Ruby was cheated by men for money. Clem failed in his business, and soon they talked together.

Of course, they wanted to meet each other. Ruby knew that she was old and was afraid that Clem would dislike her, so she dressed up. In the end, she was worried for nothing. Clem didn't mind that she was more than ten years older than him. They fell in love at first sight and soon went to bed.

With Ruby's company, Clem felt that his life was much better. However, money was always a hard blow. He had to find a way to make money as soon as possible.

Ruby proposed to let Clem go to work at the nightclub where she lived. Clem felt that he couldn't afford to lose face, so he refused Ruby's proposal.

Ruby saw that he was unwilling and did not force him. She was originally wary of men after being deceived by Snake, but she did not know why she did not guard against Clem at all. Instead, she had a feeling of intimacy with him. She told Clem that she could earn money to support him and let him rest and recuperate before she began to think of a way.

Ruby's considerate care warmed Clem's heart. Life had not completely abandoned him. It was really a blessing for him to meet such a confidante in such a down-and-earth situation.

The days passed like this for another period of time. The relationship between Clem and Ruby became more and more intimate. He even had plans to spend the rest of his life with Ruby.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 212

8 minutes read

But he was afraid that his mother Riya would object. Ruby was not only a prostitute but also a big shot. His mother would definitely not agree. Now he still had to rely on his mother. He had to talk about it slowly.

On this day, Henry brought a few bottles of wine with him, and some cooked dishes came to drink with Clem. While drinking, he suddenly talked about his business with Henry. "Clem, recently I heard about a little rumor about your nightclub being sealed. I don't know if it's true or not."

"Tell me about it." Clem felt ashamed because he didn't have money. He didn't go out recently and stayed at home every day to surf the Internet. He didn't know anything about what was going on outside at all.

“I heard that the night club you opened has something to do with your partner. I heard that your partner has offended someone he shouldn’t have offended, so he deliberately closed the store.”

“No way! Who did you hear that from?” Clem didn’t believe it. Wasn’t Shannon’s friend the one who opened the store? Who in the South City would dare to touch a gold signboard like Channing?

“I heard it from Brother Biao’s men,” replied Henry.

“Brother Biao? Why haven’t I heard of this person?”

“You haven’t gone out recently, haven’t you? Of course, you don’t know Brother Biao. Brother Biao came to South City recently, and he’s from the capital city. The old man is in an important department, and he came here to hide from trouble after committing a crime in the capital city.” Henry explained, “Brother Bill is a big boss. Every time he goes out, there are dozens of bodyguards in black running the way. Every time he spend money, he will be in a prosperous age. Rodney and Mr. Moore of the Public Security Bureau see him and smile.”

“He must be a master who can make Mr. Moore and Rodney think highly of him.” Clem believed him. “How did you know his men?”

“Don’t they need some familiar thugs to come to South City? Let Mr. Young find someone. I have a good relationship with Mr. Young’s nephew, so I’ll introduce him to you.”

Henry explained, “Brother Biao said that South City was a good place and wanted to set up a stronghold here. Coincidentally, he took a fancy to the store that you had been sealed up before, and then he went to clear up the relationship and re-open the store. After that, he found out why you were sealed before. People from the capital city are really different. They have a good relationship with each other!”

“Damn it, I was wondering why I was so unlucky. It turns out to be because of this. Do you know who the partner offended?”

“They didn’t say that, but they said that Malone was not the real boss. The real owner was Mr. Black’s wife. Later, after the nightclub was sealed, Mr. Black went to find him. It was said that it was his wife’s work. In the end, he returned the money that Mr. Black's wife had donated to him. Only you were unlucky and didn't pay back a penny."

"Are you telling the truth?" Clem was so angry that his face turned green.

"That's what they said. I guess 90% of it is true. Think about it. The officials are protecting each other. Even though Mr. Black has been an official for so many years, it's not a big deal."

"So I'm the only one who has nothing to lose?" Clem was so angry that he said, "I can't let it go like this!"

"What do you want?"

"I have to get my money back."

"What should I do? Mr. Black has power. What do you have? How do you want the money?"

Clem was stunned by Henry's question. What ability did he have now? He had so much money just because of his mother. If it weren't for his mother, he wouldn't even be a fart. It seemed that he had to discuss this matter with his mother.

Clem went to find Riya and told her what Henry told her. Riya was not happy, but she was afraid that her son would make trouble when he was young, so she shook her head and said, "Shannon helped me when I was at my lowest. She did me a favor. I don't think she would treat us like this. We can't trust rumors easily."

"Now the news has spread outside. Anyway, only we will suffer losses in this matter. Since she has got half of the money, she should want to share it with us. She can't take it all for herself."

"Are you stupid?" Riya glared at her son. "If Shannon wanted to split it, why did she have to wait until now? How can you ask her for it without evidence now?"

"Doesn't she have something in our hands?" Clem asked back.

“Idiot, although the evidence is harmful to her, it’s not harmful to us. If Rodney knows that we help Shannon do things, he will be the first to let us die. You’d better give up!”

Her mother’s reminder made Clem break out in a cold sweat. Indeed, her mother was Shannon’s accomplice. If this matter was exposed, they would die faster. But would they just let it go? He was unwilling to give up.

In the evening, when Ruby came back, Clem told Ruby about it. Of course, he didn’t mention that Shannon and his mother were in cahoots with each other. He just told Ruby about what Henry said.

Ruby also told him, “I also heard about this from two guests in the nightclub today. I was thinking about coming back to tell you.”

“It seems that this matter is almost true?” Clem was very angry. “Damn it, the store was closed because of them, but I was the unlucky one. The more I thought about it, the angrier I became!”

“Yes, they are not honest. Anyway, they should give you half of the money.” After all, it was worth millions of dollars, so Ruby was naturally tempted. If she could get the money back, with her relationship with Clem, there must be something good. “We have to find a way to get the money back.”

“What should we do? We’re civilians, and they’re officials. They don’t have the ability to fight them!” Clem sighed.

“We don’t have the ability to fight them openly, but can we find a way to deal with them secretly?” Ruby sneered. Today, not only did she hear that Clem was cheated, but she also knew another shocking news. It turned out that the secretary’s wife was a flower in the cat’s alley!

When she was a child, she was very familiar with a flower. At that time, she was only 14 or 15 years old. The flower was at the peak of her career in the cat’s alley. Many gangsters liked her and praised her for being beautiful. They wanted to please her in various ways. She envied and envied the flower and often imitated her words and actions, hoping that she would become as beautiful as she grew up and attract the attention of so many men.

The man she liked was Vicente, a gangster in the cat’s alley. Vicente, who was five years older than her, was a loyal fan of a flower. He often tried his best to block a flower in front of a flower house, but he didn’t like Vicente.

Later, a flower was taken home by a gangster to mess with. Vicente also came. He heard the noise of a flower and the gangster in the room. Vicente couldn't bear it and picked up a stone to smash the window of the gangster. At that time, he was saved by her.

At that time, her brother, Rudy, was also a big shot in Parkview Street. Naturally, the gangster who was in cahoots with his brother did not dare to offend her brother, because her rescue of Vicente was naturally grateful to her. She deliberately seduced him, and the two of them went to bed later.

She had a big belly at the age of fourteen. At that time, Rudy was so angry that he investigated the people who had made her pregnant everywhere. She didn't say anything even if she bit them to death. Later, this matter was hidden. But Wen Xiaolong was scared by his brother and went out to hide for a period of time.

Later, her brother was caught by Vicente and came back. Because of this, Vicente treated her well. Later, he went to another city to drive a truck for her and kept in touch with her.

Once, when she went to see Vicente, he was a little drunk and revealed a secret to her. He said that he was afraid and didn't want to do this. Ruby naturally supported Vicente to not do this kind of thing, so he persuaded Vicente not to do it.

At that time, Vicente also agreed not to do this under her persuasion. Later, she went to the city to see Vicente again. It was when she saw him hit someone with his car on the street.

That woman had lost a lot of blood. It was said that she died after being sent to the hospital.

After Vicente hit her, he went back to his own residence. When he saw Ruby, he was shocked. Ruby witnessed the whole thing, so she forced Vicente to ask if he was ordered by a flower. But he didn't admit it even if he was beaten to death. It was not until she threatened to tell the police that Vicente told the truth. At that time, he knelt down and begged her not to tell anyone about it.

Ruby chose to remain silent because she liked Vicente. Later, she surrendered to Vicente and was sent to work in Sichuan to change. Until now, there was still no news.

“Do you still have to worry about dealing with me when you know the secret of a flower?” Ruby told Clem about it and planned to threaten Shannon with it.

This was a hard blow to Shannon, and it didn't affect the mother and son at all. Hearing this, Clem immediately agreed. The two of them discussed and wrote an anonymous letter to Shannon.

Amber was going to stay for two more days, but Channing didn't let her go. He insisted that she and Mel stay for a few more days. Shannon was afraid that Amber would deal with Celia, so she made an excuse that Celia was in poor health and sent Celia to a private hospital to nurse her fetus and Celia to leave home. Clem didn't know that the mother and daughter moved out, so the letter sent back was in Channing's hands.

Channing saw that there was no signature on the envelope, so he had doubts about the letter in his heart, so he secretly opened it. Originally, he wanted to seal it after reading it, but he didn't expect the content in the letter to be so explosive. He was so angry that he fainted.

Channing was soon sent to the hospital for rescue. When he woke up, he was staring blankly at the ceiling. He couldn't believe that Ashley's death was caused by Shannon. Channing hated her so much! He really wanted to cut Shannon into pieces to relieve his hatred.

He couldn't put this matter on the table. He couldn't tell the public at all. If people knew that Channing had just cheated and that his mistress had killed his wife and succeeded in becoming the secretary's wife, would he still have a place to put his face down?

The most important thing was not only his face, but also his work would definitely be affected if this matter broke up.

“How could he let go of her until now? But I can't let it go like this. Shannon is such a wicked woman. I won't let her go!” Channing thought, “I have to find a way to avenge Ashley. I must make Shannon suffer!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 213

8 minutes read

After asking Pierce for the photo, Breanna returned to her room. After closing the door, she picked up her mobile phone and looked at Kelsey's photo carefully. There was a proud smile on her face. She was worried about how to stop Pierce from coming back, but she did not expect that Kelsey, who looked like Amber, would appear. So she immediately came up with a good idea and decided to use this unknown girl to keep Pierce.

Therefore, she deliberately pretended to pity Kelsey's situation. She wanted Pierce to take Kelsey home, and then try to find an opportunity to carry out her plan. However, before she carried out this plan, she had to fulfill her promise just now. She had to send Kelsey's photos to her good friend Linda and ask Linda's husband to help check Kelsey's identity.

These days, because of Amber, Madam Hammond and Pierce had been very angry with her. They no longer loved her as much as before, but were much colder and more distant.

For this reason, she was very anxious and tried her best to please Breanna. However, the effect was not good. Breanna and Pierce had always been indifferent to her.

Just now, she clearly saw Breanna looking at Kelsey with admiration when she heard that Linda's husband was going to help Kelsey find out her identity. Pierce was also very happy. She wanted to take this opportunity to change their views on her.

It should be noted that Madam Hammond and Pierce were both kind-hearted people. They liked people who were kind and loyal. She could only show her kindness and enthusiasm in front of them, and then they would slowly change their attitude toward her and like her again.

In addition, she was also very curious about Kelsey's identity. In addition, she wanted to use Kelsey to stop Pierce from returning to our country. If she could figure out Kelsey's identity, it would be of great help to her plan.

After Breanna found Linda's phone number, she dialed it and told her about Kelsey. Linda was a native from the Middle East and Breanna was her classmate. They had a good relationship, so she naturally agreed. She asked Breanna to send Kelsey's photo to her immediately.

Hanging up the phone, Breanna opened Linda's number on WeChat and sent Kelsey's photo. Then she strolled through the WeChat group before putting down the phone and preparing to take a shower.

As soon as she took the change of clothes and was about to go into the bathroom, her cell phone rang. Breanna picked it up and found it was Linda. She couldn't help wondering if Linda's husband was so efficient. It had only been half an hour and he had already gained something.

She pressed the call button and asked, "Dear, is there any news?"

Linda said, "What news? Why didn't you send me the girl's photo for a long time? I've already told William that he's waiting for you to send it!"

Breanna was shocked. "I just sent you a photo. Didn't you receive it?"

"Where are you?"

"You haven't been online yet, have you?"

"I've always been online, so I didn't receive it at all. Did you send the wrong message?"

"No way, let me have a look." Breanna hurriedly hung up the phone to check message. At first glance, she found that she had sent the wrong message. She actually sent Kelsey's photo to Celia, because the picture they used was the same, so she sent it wrong when she didn't pay attention.

She secretly cursed herself for being so careless. She hurriedly took out Kelsey's photo and was ready to send it to Linda. When she was about to click the button to send it, a phone call came in. It was from Celia.

It seemed that Celia felt strange when she saw Kelsey's photo. She called and asked what was going on. Breanna pressed the call button and wanted to explain to her that she had made a mistake. However, as soon as the phone was connected, Celia shouted on the other side of the phone before she could speak, "Ms. Hammond, why did you send Kelsey's photo to me? Do you know her?"

Breanna's heart skipped a beat. "What did you say? Do you know that girl?"

Celia said, "Yes, she is a student of the University of the Southern native Medicine. A few months ago, she went to study in the United States. I didn't expect you to know her."

“Oh, that’s right. Once she got lost on the street and asked me for directions. When we talked, we knew that we were from the same hometown, so we got to know each other. But she didn’t mention you. I didn’t expect you to know her.” Subconsciously, Breanna didn’t want to tell Celia about the memory loss of Kelsey, so she made up an excuse.

Celia believed it, but she didn’t expect that Breanna was lying to her. She smiled and said, “The world is so small. You know each other like this. By the way, why did you send her photos to me?”

“Well... I...” For a moment, Breanna did not know how to explain it to Celia.

Celia thought that she was smart and said, “I see. You must have sent it to me because she looks like Amber, right?”

Breanna said, “That’s right. I just thought she looked like Amber, so I sent it to you. Do you think she looks alike?”

“Yes, I was also very surprised when I saw Kelsey for the first time. I didn’t expect her to look so similar to Amber. It’s because of this that Rodney noticed her and kept her as his mistress.”

When it came to this matter, Celia felt uncomfortable. Although Kelsey did not have any development with Rodney later, when she thought that she had attracted Rodney’s attention with a face similar to Amber’s and stayed with him for such a long time, and Rodney also took good care of her, she became jealous of him.

“What did you say? Rodney is also very familiar with her? Does Kelsey know Amber? Can you tell me in detail about their relationship?”

This news made Breanna even more excited. She did not expect that one mistake would not only clarify Kelsey’s identity, but also further understand some information that was very beneficial to her plan. So she decided to ask Celia about everything about Kelsey.

“This...” Celia was a little hesitant. Just now, she was so angry that she spilled the beans and revealed the relationship between Rodney and Kelsey.

Breanna was just her partner, not her best friend. She did not want to say so much to Breanna. After all, there were some things that could not be casually said to outsiders. For example, she took advantage of Kelsey to alienate the relationship between Rodney and Amber. She also asked Kelsey to help her drug Rodney, causing the illusion that she had slept with Rodney.

Although these things had become the past, after all, they were all conspiracies. Even if Breanna would not tell others, she did not want Breanna to know.

Breanna immediately felt Celia's concern. She didn't like Celia at all. She knew very well that Amber, her half-sister, was not a good person. Otherwise, she wouldn't have snatched his love without caring about their sisterhood, causing Rodney to divorce Amber.

Now she urgently needed Celia's cooperation in order to better deal with Amber. She could only suppress the disgust in her heart for the time being and pretend to be affectionate.

"Ms. Black, have you forgotten our cooperation? If you want to deal with Amber better, you must seize all the opportunities you can make use of. Since Rodney used to be very close to Kelsey, why don't we make good use of this to destroy the relationship between him and Amber?"

Celia said, "Oh, I know what you mean, but now Kelsey has gone to the United States, and Rodney will no longer have any contact with her. She doesn't seem to have any value, does she?"

"You can't put it that way. Although Kelsey is in the U.S., her heart may still be in South City and stay with Rodney. You should be very clear that it's impossible for Kelsey not to be tempted by him with such conditions. I'll add fuel to the fire here and make her want to possess Rodney. Then we can use her to deal with Amber."

"But what if Kelsey really chased after Rodney? Wouldn't that affect the relationship between me and Rodney? Besides, Rodney has already fallen out with Amber. There's no need for us to create any more trouble, right?"

Breanna really wanted to scold her. How could this Celia be so cunning? She couldn't persuade her for a long time, and her tone was not pleasant in a hurry.

"Ms. Black, why didn't you understand what I meant? I just said that I took advantage of the fact that Kelsey liked to destroy the relationship between Amber and Rodney. I didn't mean to help her win his heart. What are you worried about? Besides, do you think that Rachel's coma can make Rodney hate Amber for the rest of his life? Have you ever thought about how deep Rodney's feelings for Amber are? Maybe he will forgive Amber soon. What if Rachel wakes up again? In that case, it will be easier for Rodney to forgive Amber."

These words startled Celia. She was really worried that Rachel would wake up, so that Rodney would know that the real murderer was not Amber, but Itzel and Shannon. In that case, he would not blame Amber, but would also be angry with her, so that she would be more difficult to be with Rodney.

After thinking about this, she felt that Breanna's proposal was indeed feasible, so she told Breanna everything about Kelsey. Of course, she did not say that she used Kelsey, nor did she know the relationship between Kelsey and Itzel. She did not know that Itzel had sent Kelsey abroad and then killed Kelsey. Otherwise, she would not have told Breanna that she knew Kelsey.

Breanna only needed to figure out Kelsey's identity and the dispute between her and Rodney and Amber when she was in South City. As for whether Celia had made use of Kelsey, she did not care at all. She did not intend to use Kelsey to destroy the relationship between Amber and Rodney at all. Instead, she wanted to use her to destroy the relationship between Amber and Pierce.

Celia finally said, "That's all I know. Kelsey is very simple and easy to trust. As long as you care about her more, she will trust you as a good friend."

Breanna was secretly happy. "Okay, I understand. Wait for my good news. I will definitely charm Kelsey. I must make her a stumbling block between Amber and Rodney."

Celia smiled and said, "Ms. Hammond, thank you so much!"

"Ms. Black, you don't have to be so polite to me. I told you that we are partners. If there is any news in South City in the future, remember to tell me at any time. In addition, for the sake of safety, don't mention me to Kelsey, lest she is suspicious."

"No, I didn't have much contact with her. Even if I did, I wouldn't be so stupid to tell her."

After a few more words, the two hung up the phone. Breanna remembered that she had not replied to Linda. Now she already knew Kelsey's identity, so there was no need for Linda to help with the investigation. So she called Linda and told her that someone had found out Kelsey's identity and there was no need for Linda to help. Linda believed it, so she did not ask Linda to send photos.

Now she couldn't let Pierce know Kelsey's real identity for the time being, otherwise, it was likely to affect her plan. Fortunately, Pierce had just begun to find someone to investigate, so she wouldn't be able to find out so soon. She still had time to carry out the plan.

She took out another photo of Kelsey and sneered at the beautiful face. "Don't blame me for using you. I don't want you to have a face so similar to Amber's!"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 214

10 minutes read

While Breanna was looking at Kelsey's photo and plotting, Celia was also looking at Kelsey's photo with her mobile phone. However, she was not alone, and Shannon was standing beside her.

The mother and daughter moved out of the Black family's senior ward in the private hospital and lived a comfortable life. When Breanna called Celia, Shannon was taking a shower. When she came out of the bathroom, she saw her daughter in deep thought and asked who she was calling just now.

Celia had mentioned to Shannon about Breanna's cooperation with her before, so of course, she would not hide it from her this time. She immediately told Shannon about the content of the call between Breanna and her.

"How could it be such a coincidence? Breanna actually saw Kelsey in the United States?" Shannon knew that Itzel had sent Kelsey abroad to study, but she did not know that Itzel was trying to kill Kelsey. At that time, Itzel told her that the reason why she sent Kelsey out was that she was afraid that Kelsey would leak out the fact that they had planned to have s*x with Rodney and Celia that day, so she wanted to send her to the distant U.S. so that she would no longer have anything to do with Rodney. She did not expect that Itzel would think that Celia was her own daughter, and Kelsey was her daughter. Itzel was afraid that the exchange of babies would be exposed, so she wanted to kill Kelsey.

Celia said, "Yes, I didn't expect it either. But that's fine. Breanna also wanted to deal with Amber. Now it's her turn to encourage Kelsey to continue to help us, which saved us a lot of trouble."

Shannon frowned. "Is this Breanna reliable? I always feel worried. After all, she is Pierce's younger sister. If she tells these things to Pierce and he tells Amber, won't it be terrible?"

"Mom, you don't have to worry about this. Breanna is Elliot's fiancée. I don't know how much she hates Amber. Otherwise, she wouldn't have told me that Amber was pregnant with Rodney's child and even helped me find a way to deal with Amber. Although Rodney has misunderstood Amber because of his mother and refused to forgive her, he has a deep affection for her. Mel and the child in Amber's belly are his flesh and blood. What if he forgives Amber one day? We should still be on our guard and let Amber leave Rodney completely."

Shannon thought about it for a moment and agreed. "What you said makes sense. We should be more prepared. But you have to remind Breanna not to let Pierce contact Kelsey, or it may be bad."

Celia smiled and said, "Don't worry, Mom. Breanna is very clear about Pierce's feelings for Amber. She won't be so stupid to ask Pierce to destroy our plan."

Shannon nodded, but she wanted to find some time to talk to Itzel about this. She wanted to know Itzel's opinion. With Itzel's help these days, they were getting closer and closer to their goal. She admired Itzel even more and wanted to discuss anything with her.

Channing had just fainted and was hospitalized. At that time, it was a mess and no one noticed the letter he threw on the ground. It was not until Aunt Maleah cleaned up the study that she saw the letter. Seeing the contents of the letter, Aunt Maleah was shocked and understood the reason why Channing had just fainted.

Aunt Maleah didn't dare to say anything. When Amber was away, she took the time to ask Channing. Aunt Maleah had been loyal to Channing in the Black family for so many years, and Channing didn't hide it. He asked Aunt Maleah to keep this matter in the bottom of her heart, especially not to let Amber know. He also said that he would start to deal with Shannon when he thought of a good way.

Aunt Maleah knew that Channing was worried. If Amber knew about this, she would definitely not let go of Shannon. She would definitely spread this matter. At that time, such a scandal would definitely affect Channing's career, so this matter must be carried out secretly.

Aunt Maleah then asked Channing how he was going to deal with Shannon. Channing had just told Aunt Maleah that he wanted to lock Shannon up first and deal with her when the interrogation was clear.

When Channing had just told Aunt Maleah that he wanted to deal with Shannon, Shannon and Celia lived in a private hospital's senior ward. Suddenly, they felt their eyelids twitch. "Is something going to happen?"

She was thinking that Channing's driver had arrived. He said that Channing had suddenly fainted and asked her to go over and take a look.

Shannon heard that Channing had just fainted and left with the driver in a hurry. She didn't expect that the driver didn't send her to the hospital, but took her to Channing's villa in the suburbs.

Seeing that Shannon didn't ask the driver about the route, the driver replied that the secretary didn't want to live in the hospital. She said that the villa in the suburbs was fresh, so she planned to talk about it after a few days of illness.

Shannon didn't know that Channing had a villa in the suburbs. She thought to herself that Channing was really a ghost. She had been married to him for so many years and knew nothing about his property. If he hadn't been sick this time, she didn't know how long he would hide it from her. Shannon thought to herself, "Channing has been an official for so many years. He must have collected a lot of property. It seems that I have to find a way to get all his property in the future."

Thinking of this, the driver drove the car into the villa. When Shannon got out of the car and entered the villa, she saw Aunt Maleah standing in the living room. When she saw Shannon coming in, she pointed to the study and said, "The secretary is waiting for you in the study on the second floor."

Pushing open the door of the study, Shannon saw Channing sitting in a chair and staring at her. "Didn't you say that he was not in good health? Why didn't he lie down and rest?" Shannon asked thoughtfully.

“Can’t you fall asleep?” Channing let out a long sigh.

“Even if you can’t fall asleep, you have to lie down. I’ll help you to the bedroom, okay?” Shannon walked over and was about to help him, but Channing just reached out and grabbed her hand. “How many years have we known each other?”

“It’s been more than 20 years.”

“It’s been such a long time?” Channing’s voice became more and more gentle.

“Why did I climb into your bed in the past? It’s incredible.”

“Aren’t you drunk?” Shannon forced a smile. What did Channing mean? He hadn’t talked about this for so many years. Why did he suddenly talk about it? Did he suspect something?

“Back then, I was very panicked and scared. My intuition told me that something that shouldn’t have happened between you and me had happened. But when I thought about it now, I suddenly realized that it was very strange. Why did you have to give birth to this child even though you knew it was wrong? What are you thinking?”

She looked at Channing. The expression on his face was the same as usual, but the more this was the case, the more she couldn’t take it lightly. Channing asked her questions now, and he had asked her before. Shannon’s answer was that she fell in love with him the first time she saw him.

If Channing was not Ashley’s husband, she would definitely pursue him at all costs. Later, she kept this affection in her heart. She did not expect that the incident of being drunk that day, but she did not blame Channing at all. She was willing to give herself to him. Later, after finding out that she was pregnant, she was also very contradictory. In the end, she could not bear to hit the child.

Although she knew that this was not good and would hurt Ashley, her love for Channing made her willing to give birth to this child for Channing. She planned not to tell Channing for the rest of her life. If something had not happened to Ashley, she would have secretly raised the child. But later on, something had happened to Ashley, and she could not control her yearning for Channing. The child often asked her if she wanted a father, so she took the child to find Channing.

Now Channing had asked this question again. Although Shannon didn't know what he meant, she still told him what she had said before.

After hearing what she said, Channing suddenly laughed. In fact, he didn't believe Shannon's words at that time. It was just that someone happened to report him that year, and he chose to let Shannon marry him in order to avoid trouble.

Later, when he saw that Shannon knew when to stop, he slowly forgot about these things. If it weren't for the anonymous letter, he wouldn't have doubted it for the rest of his life. He thought that he was really stupid to let such a venomous snake stay by his side for so many years. "Ashley has been dead for so many years. Have you ever felt uneasy in your heart these years?"

Her words made Shannon's heart skip a beat. She forced a smile and said, "Yes, I've always been uneasy about what happened that year."

"Just uneasy? Didn't you sleep late Club Cobalt? Didn't you have nightmares and dream of death?" Channing's voice suddenly became louder.

"What do you mean?" Shannon was stunned.

"What do you mean? Shannon! Look at what this is!" Channing had just smashed the anonymous letter on Shannon's head.

Shannon picked up the letter that had fallen to the ground. When she saw the content, she panicked. She pretended to be calm. Who did this? Only she and Malone knew what had happened that year. Malone would definitely not rush to do something. Then who was this person?

But now was not the time to figure out the identity of the person who wrote this letter. What she needed to do now was to let Channing believe in her. "Mr. Black, don't believe this. Someone must have deliberately framed me and ruined our harmony."

"As the saying goes, there are no waves without wind. Why didn't that person frame others but just find you to frame him? I thought about it for a while and felt that something was wrong with that drunk night. You wicked woman's reputation in Parkview Street was not good, so you must be deliberately scheming against me. As long as you know that you are shameless, you will choose to kill the evil child after the accident, not to give birth. And since you secretly gave birth to the child, why didn't you secretly take the child all these years? Why did you come to me? Don't say that you can't bear to see the child without a father. When you choose to give birth to the child, you should know that I won't admit her!"

"At that time, I really couldn't bear to let the child have no father, so I came to you." Shannon defended herself.

"Sly woman, tell me honestly. Have you ever told her that you gave birth to an evil child? Otherwise, she wouldn't have asked Issac to do her funeral before she died, and she would never have given Amber to Issac. You must have met her in advance!"

Channing was not a fool. In the past, he was afraid and did not think about it in this way. Now, after reading the anonymous letter, there was nothing he could not understand. Ashley must have known everything after she told Ashton about it before she died. Who else could reveal all this except for Shannon? Seeing that Shannon still wanted to lie to him, he could not bear it anymore.

"You wicked woman! Your daughter has a father, but the daughter of Ashley has lost her father. My carefree life has run away from home for this reason at such a young age..."

Channing couldn't continue. Ashley was killed by Shannon, and Amber was forced to run away from home since he was a child. However, he married this wicked woman and made her live a luxurious life for so many years. He was confused!

"I didn't! Mr. Black, don't you know what I have done to you over the years? You can't wrong me!"

Shannon began to panic as she spoke. Since Channing was suspicious, he would definitely not let her and Celia live a good life in the future.

"Since you feel that Amber has been wronged, then compensate her with all your property. Celia and I don't want anything. In order not to make you worry, Celia and I will move out. I want you to see that Celia and I have no intention of doing anything to you!"

"Move out?" Channing laughed. "Are you really willing to quit the position of secretary's wife that you finally got?"

“Mr. Black, I really didn’t covet anything from you. If you insist on saying that I have bad intentions, it means that I love you too much, because I love you so much that I want to stay by your side day and night...”

“Shut up!” Channing slapped Shannon in the face. “Bh, do you think I’m a fool? Love? How can a bh like you deserve love?”

“Mr. Black! I know you’re so angry that you don’t believe what I said. It doesn’t matter. I’ll let you believe it. I’ll take Celia away right away. I’m leaving now!”

Shannon retreated to the door of the study. Channing’s current state had just made her scared. She could not help but feel a chill in her heart. She had to leave this place as soon as possible!

Seeing that she was retreating, Channing didn’t respond. Shannon didn’t care about opening the door and was about to run out in a panic. As soon as she went out, she saw the driver and Aunt Maleah standing at the stairs on the second floor looking at her. Both of them had a sneer on their faces.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 215

8 minutes read

“You crazy b*tch, do you think you can escape unscathed from here?”

Looking at the smiles on the faces of the driver and Aunt Maleah, Shannon felt a chill in her heart. She had done a lot of bad things, and now she had a strong hunch. So she immediately opened her bag and took out her mobile phone from her bag, ready to make a call. She wanted to tell Celia that she was trapped, but the prompt she made was that her number was already in debt.

Channing looked at Shannon with a sneer. “I have already asked someone to pay for your phone number. At present, your only way is to choose to call the police! I am waiting for you to call the police!”

Shannon didn’t dare to call the police. Seeing that she didn’t dare to call the police, Channing was completely sure that Ashley’s death had something to do with her. He took out an iron stick from the corner of the study and walked toward Shannon step by step. Shannon wanted to run, but the stairs were blocked by the driver and Aunt Maleah. She couldn’t run at all. She looked at Channing with fierce eyes and forced her with an iron stick. Her desire for survival made her jump down from the second floor.

With a scream, Shannon fell heavily to the ground. She was in so much pain that she felt uncomfortable. She tried to stand up, but her feet couldn't exert any strength. Shannon sadly realized that there was something wrong with her feet. The three people on the upstairs looked down at Shannon, who was struggling on the ground, with no sympathy in their eyes.

After a long time, Channing walked down with an iron stick. Seeing that Shannon was still wailing, he raised his iron stick and smashed it on Shannon's face.

The screams continued. Channing smashed again and again. No one knew how many times he hit Shannon. Shannon's face had changed completely and she was covered in blood. Channing was so tired that he was gasping for breath. Aunt Maleah stepped forward and pulled him away. "Secretary, it's almost time. If you hit her again, you will beat her to death."

Channing had just dropped the iron stick in his hand and ordered the driver and Aunt Maleah, "Take this b*tch to the Crazy Kuang Academy and lock her up. Remember not to treat her! I will let her spend the rest of her life in the Crazy Kuang Academy!"

Shannon was soon sent to the hospital. She pleaded with the doctors and nurses of the hospital that she was Channing's wife, but no one believed her.

This crazy woman, whose face had been disfigured and who was talking nonsense, was really hateful. She dared to say that she was the secretary's wife. It seemed that she had been out of her mind to the extreme.

The doctor and the nurse thought that she was disgusting, so they took advantage of her and locked her up in ICU. Those who lived in ICU were the most seriously ill people. After the nurse pushed Shannon to the innermost bed, the nurse turned around and left.

All the mental patients in the room gathered around. Looking at the deformed faces and dull eyes in front of her, Shannon was extremely frightened. "Don't come over!"

However, no one listened to her. Those seriously ill patients were very interested in this person who was covered in blood. Some reached out to pinch her face, some pulled her hair, and some kicked her injured leg. Shannon screamed until she fainted.

It was in the evening when she woke up. Several strong nurses came to her with dinner. Shannon's wounds were so painful that she asked the nurse about the pain pain pain. The nurse ignored her, put down the food, and left.

Those mental patients began to grab food, and Shannon's food was quickly taken away. She had not had enough water and rice for a day and a night, and she was in pain. But there was nothing she could do, so she had to endure it and fell asleep.

When she heard the rustling sound in the middle of the night, she felt cold all over. When she opened her eyes, she saw a patient peed at her and wet her quilt. Shannon was so disgusted that she struggled to move away from the bed, but she didn't expect that the more disgusting thing was still behind her. A patient pulled up the shit in the ward.

The pungent smell filled the ward. What was even more disgusting was that those patients were playing with the shit in their hands. One of them even smeared the shit on Shannon and wanted to feed her.

At this moment, Shannon felt like she was dying. She would rather die than stay here! But it was hard for her to die now!

Clem and Ruby were waiting for a reply after sending out the letter to threaten Shannon, but there was no news for more than a week. Clem couldn't control himself and went to the vicinity of the Black family, but he didn't see Shannon.

Clem asked Riya, and Riya replied that Shannon had gone abroad. She hadn't seen Shannon for a long time. Clem was unlucky. Why did she have to go abroad when he was extorting money?

Could it be that Shannon chose to escape after reading her blackmail letter? He went back and told Ruby about it. Ruby also thought that it was very likely that Shannon would choose to escape, but they were not afraid. Shannon must be guilty because they didn't believe that Shannon could hide outside for the rest of her life.

The two began to plan how to deal with Shannon when she came back. Because of the bad smell, their relationship began to grow rapidly. Clem found that he could not leave Ruby. Clem was thinking about telling Riya about himself and Ruby. Even if his mother opposed him, he had to tell her.

Ruby's old friend didn't come at all. Ruby had been a whore for so many years, and she had been doing business. This time, she met Clem and felt that she had found her Mr. Right, so she let go of the baby. Her old friend didn't come to the hospital, so she went to the hospital for an examination. The doctor told her that she was pregnant.

Ruby told Clem that she was pregnant. Clem was very happy. With a child, he believed that his mother Riya would definitely agree to let him and Ruby be together for the sake of the child.

Therefore, he talked to Riya about this matter. Hearing that his son was dating a woman in his teens, Riya felt that it was unreliable. Just as she was about to object, her son said that the woman was pregnant and wanted to marry her and give birth to a child.

Clem had not been learning well all these years and had never seen him care so much about any woman. Riya knew that her son was tempted. Although she was not happy, she did not have any clear opposition. Riya replied to Clem and let him think about it. She had to see this old woman who fascinated her son first.

Knowing that her son lived with Ruby, Riya went to her son's downstairs to wait for her. She wanted to see what kind of person Ruby was. From a distance, she saw Clem and a well-dressed woman coming over. Looking at the woman's behavior, Riya felt uncomfortable. It didn't look like a life. She had to think about it carefully and couldn't let her son do whatever he wanted.

With this in mind, she hid aside and didn't intend to meet her son. Clem walked over with his arms around Ruby's waist, but he didn't find his mother hiding aside. When they got closer and saw the woman who was holding his son, Riya felt as if she had been struck by lightning!

"How could this be? Ruby is Ruby? How could my son and Ruby be together?"

Good heavens! What on earth had she done wrong?

After hearing Breanna's suggestion, Pierce intended to take Kelsey to Old Old Hammond's side and take care of her. However, before that, he had to let Old Grandma see Kelsey and understand Kelsey's character. If Old Grandma liked her, he could ask her to stay. On the other hand, he couldn't send a person that Old Grandma didn't like to accompany Old Grandma.

The next day, Pierce got off work earlier than usual. He planned to go to the villa in the suburbs to pick up Kelsey to have dinner at the Gu mansion.

After these days of contact, Pierce knew something about Kelsey. He knew that she was gentle and quiet, and she was a little shy. He was afraid that directly inviting her to dinner at the mansion would scare her, so he decided to find an excuse to take her to the Gu mansion first. At that time, if Old Grandma liked her, she would naturally ask her to stay, which would not seem so deliberate.

As long as Madam Hammond expressed her love for Kelsey, he would immediately propose to Kelsey that she should move to the Pierce house and help take care of Madam Hammond in name and accompany her. He believed that with Kelsey's gentle and kind character, she would be very happy to take care of the old lady and would take good care of her.

In order to fulfill his plan, he did not drive to the villa in the suburbs this time. Instead, he took a taxi.

Seeing Pierce suddenly come to the villa again, Kelsey was very surprised. Last night, Pierce clearly said that he would come back to pick up his watch after he came back from abroad. Why did he come here today?

She naturally greeted Pierce and said, "Brother Pierce, wait here for a while. I'll go up and help you with your watch."

Pierce was eager to take Kelsey back for dinner, so he didn't notice her uneasy look. He took a look at her family dress and said, "Well, you can change your clothes and go to the mall with me later."

Kelsey was confused. "To the mall?"

Pierce said, "Yes, I'll be back in two days. I want to buy a set of clothes for my fiancée, because it's my first time buying clothes for her. I'm worried that it's not suitable, so I want you to help me choose. In addition, your appearance is very similar to her, and your figure is almost the same. By the way, I can try it on."

"So that's what happened," Kelsey thought. "Pierce didn't come here on purpose, but came here to help me become a model and buy clothes for his fiancée." Feeling a little uncomfortable, Kelsey replied in a low voice and turned to go upstairs.

Walking into the bedroom, Kelsey reached under the pillow and took out something. She looked at it with a reluctant face and then pressed it against her heart.