

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 29

So what?

Selena was speechless, "Boss Lu, you are so elbowing out to help artists from other companies, are your employees making it up?"

It looks like she definitely doesn't know, and she is not famous now, so this great god definitely doesn't know her.

He was really defeated by Daniel.

After all, Shengshi Entertainment is also a subsidiary of your Lu Corporation!

Although Saul is in charge of Shengshi now, the boss behind the scenes of Shengshi is Daniel, the president of the Lu Corporation.

The Lu Group started to get involved in the entertainment industry five years ago, acquired Shengshi Entertainment, and created an entertainment empire. It came from behind, and its status is close to the oldest and the current leader in the industry, Empire Entertainment.

So it can be seen how fierce the competition between the two companies is now. The two companies are at odds with each other from artists to managers to assistant makeup artists and stylists. As long as there are artists from these two companies on the same set, they will definitely fight.

Daniel raised his hand and looked at his watch, "The nanny's car is at the door, you can make up and make up on the way there, there's still time, it's up to you whether you go or not."

Selena struggled with liver pain, and finally gritted her teeth, "Go!"

Since Daniel doesn't care anymore, what else should she care about!

Seeing Daniel following him, Selena was surprised, "Are you going too?"

"Otherwise, who will drive? And Rick wants to stay with you for a while." The tone was taken for granted again, as if he was telling the truth and she was asking stupid questions.

Rick on the side nodded vigorously.

"Ok..."

Finally, together with the stylist Arthur, the four got into the nanny van together.

Daniel didn't even change his clothes. He was still wearing his house clothes. He was driving in front. Selena and Arthur were in the back seat, and Rick was lying on the back of the chair and looking at them curiously.

Arthur looked at Selena carefully, and his eyes showed great admiration, "This young lady has perfect facial features and a very good skin foundation. She basically doesn't need to move much, just a light makeup is enough. I just don't know what you want today, Miss. What kind of occasion are you attending, so I can choose clothes for you."

"Well, it's a film opening ceremony..."

Selena was afraid that the other party would ask more questions and then find out that she was an artist from Empire, and beat her up. Fortunately, Arthur didn't ask more questions, nodded to show his understanding, and continued to put on makeup for her.

When they arrived near the opening ceremony, Selena's complete outfit had just been done, and the timing was very precise.

Daniel turned off the engine and parked the car, with his arms across the back of the chair, and his eyes wandered to the woman who was already in shape behind the car.

"How is it?" Selena asked nervously.

"good."

It's not easy to tell the truth from Daniel's harsh mouth, not to mention Rick staring at her with his little head raised in amazement.

Selena immediately felt full of confidence, and then hugged Rick apologetically, "Honey, I'm sorry for my slip of the tongue, but Auntie promises you will finish work quickly and come back to accompany you!"

Little Treasure clung to Selena's arms reluctantly for a while, knowing that she was in a hurry, he quickly let go of her and waved to her.

Looking at the two people behind her, one big and one small, Selena's heart was swollen, full of...

Fighting alone for so long, this is the first time I have such a warm feeling.

After Selena left, the driver was naturally replaced by Arthur.

Arthur couldn't suppress his gossip anymore, and asked cautiously while driving, "Boss, who was that lady just now? Is it a new artist recruited by our company? Why haven't I seen it before?"

Dmn! There is actually a woman next to their boss, this is huge news!

Daniel tilted his chin, and answered unhurriedly, "An entertainer from Empire Entertainment."

Arthur: "..."

At that moment, the expression on Arthur's face was as aggrieved as if he had eaten a catty.

Boss adults! You actually asked me to do styling for Empire's artists!

What kind of trouble is the boss taking the lead in treason and collaborating with the enemy? Hey!

Even if the second young master is looking for a young lover, he will definitely not look for an artist from Empire, okay?

If it was the Second Young Master who was sitting here, he would absolutely scold him with righteous words.

But this is the Great Demon King Daniel...

So he could only suffocate to death but didn't even dare to fart.

What made him even more troubled was that he was extremely skeptical that this unknown artist from Empire would be their future proprietress, right?

After all, this is a woman who can make the little prince look good...

It's not easy...
