

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 641

Soon, a row of black cars stopped around the crowd, the doors opened, and dozens of men in black got out of the cars.

The leader was a well-dressed middle-aged man. The man glanced across the audience, and then his eyes fell on Augustine.

"Mr. Augustine, I think you arrested the wrong person and did the wrong thing." The middle-aged man first nodded to Augustine, and then said coldly.

"Boss, it's from Satan." A man in front of Augustine whispered, his expression extremely nervous.

No need to be reminded by others, Augustine knew in his heart that this middle-aged man had been with Satan in the past, so he also had some impressions. It seems to be a military adviser who specializes in negotiations.

"Oh... I remember, your name is Feng Jin." Augustine looked at the middle-aged man for a few times, then looked away, and sneered.

"Mr. Augustine, you remember correctly." The middle-aged man was expressionless.

"Hahaha, interesting, why, Satan didn't dare to come to Philadelphia, so he asked a dog next to me to chat with me?" Augustine said with great interest, provocatively, tearing at Selena's hair.

"Mr. Augustine, I think you made a mistake. Feng did not come to chat with you, but to persuade you. If you release Keren now, everything will be easy to talk about. Otherwise, your consequences may be disastrous." Feng Jin said.

Hearing Feng Jin's words, Augustine couldn't stop laughing. The whole of Philadelphia is his world. He can even call the police force in Philadelphia directly. Not to mention the dog in front of Satan, there are just a dozen people in this district, even if it is Satan came in person, and he had to die in Philadelphia!

In an instant, Augustine's expression was extremely gloomy, as if he could drip water: "You have no right to talk nonsense with me here, but since I'm here, I will do my best to be a landlord, and you too...stay here forever ..."

As Augustine's words fell, hundreds of black hole guns suddenly aimed at Feng Jin.

At this moment, Feng Jin's expression was fearless, and he was still extremely calm. He opened his mouth slowly and said, "Since Mr. Augustine didn't listen to the advice, what Feng said before was in vain. Please Mr. Augustine alone."

After the middle-aged man Feng Jin finished speaking, for some reason, he took the initiative to retreat towards the rear, directly ignoring the dark muzzles of the guns.

In the next second, dozens of black cars rushed from all directions, blocking the street.

Seeing this, Augustine's complexion changed slightly, and his brows frowned slightly. However, in the blink of an eye, Augustine calmed down, and said with a sneer, "Why, is that what Satan is capable of now? These few people just want to be with me, and the whole Philadelphia's power against?!"

At that moment, Augustine dialed the phone and said only two words: "Do it."

In an instant, the siren sounded.

In the middle of the night, in this dead Philadelphia, sirens sounded one after another, twice as many as the cars Feng Jin brought.

"Hahaha, you are fat sheep. The Philadelphia Police Department is also very interested in you. I said earlier, let alone you, even if satan came in person, he would die here." Seeing nearly a hundred people in full armor The police force surrounded Feng Jin's people, and Augustine laughed wildly, his face quite ferocious.

Dozens of police cars roared to surround Feng Jin's people, almost all of which were the strength of the Philadelphia Police Department.

Chapter 642

There was a trace of madness on Augustine's face. He had said long ago that at this moment, he was the king of Philadelphia, not to mention those sons of Satan, even if Satan showed up in person, he would have to die in Philadelphia!

Feng Jin looked at the police cars surrounding him. The doors of these police cars were opened, and police guns were pointed at the crowd through the windows. More police officers were armed with anti-riot shields, completely blocking all escape routes, trying to force Feng Jin Jin and these people caught them all.

"Hahaha, these are Satan's people, they won't surrender, why not kill them all!"

Augustine winked at the strong man behind him.

The strong man understood, and immediately looked at Feng Jin in the crowd, and pulled the trigger.

boom!

Suddenly, a loud noise spread throughout the audience.

However, what shocked everyone was that Feng Jin, who was supposed to be hit by the bullet, was unscathed. Instead, it was the strong man behind Augustine who fired the gun.

Just hearing a "plop", the stiff body of the strong man fell to the ground.

"Sniper?!"

The complexions of Augustine and the police chief beside him changed slightly.

"There are snipers..." Augustine looked gloomy. Snipers were impossible to guard against. He never thought that Feng Jin had arranged for snipers to lurk in the dark before. No wonder he was so confident.

The chief of police opened his mouth, as if he wanted to say something.

However, at this moment, an explosion sounded like thunder in the dog days, sounded from behind, and the shocking eardrums hurt.

"what happened?!"

Several police cars were smashed to the ground. Augustine and the others looked behind, but they saw that it was a military armored car!

"Military armored vehicle?!"

The police chief in front of Augustine suddenly changed his expression.

There were several machine guns mounted on the armored vehicle, and armed personnel with light and heavy weapons on the rear compartment. At first glance, it really looked like a regular army.

"Dmn it, it must be Satan, destroying that armored vehicle!" Augustine shouted angrily, concluding that Satan must be in that fully armed vehicle.

"Boom"

"Boom"

"Boom!"

As Augustine's voice fell, the sound of roaring rang out in a loop. Under the surprised and horrified eyes of everyone, military armored vehicles came slowly one after another. In less than half a moment, the military armored vehicles seemed to be piled up into a mountain!

On the top of each military armored vehicle, there are two men in full armor carrying shocking heavy machine guns.

"Mr. Augustine, just now Feng said that all the consequences will be borne by you." Feng Jin looked at Augustine and said very politely.

"you wanna die!"

Augustine was furious, and after speaking, a certain man behind him shot Feng Jin at Augustine's signal.

However, before the trigger could be pulled, the man behind Augustine was directly shot dead by the sniper lurking in the dark.

"Mr. Augustine, I understand your reluctance and anger, but with all due respect, there is no essential difference between you and an ant. Here, you can't kill anyone." A gleam of disdain flashed in Feng Jin's eyes.

"Fight with them, don't be afraid, with this 5lut in my hands, Satan will have to submit obediently!" Augustine said viciously, but in fact he didn't have any confidence in his heart.

buzz buzz —

Suddenly, there was a shrill sound like a lawn mower above the void.

Augustine and the Chief of Police looked up at the void subconsciously, and couldn't help but gasp.

Chapter 643

Several helicopters were seen hovering above the heads of the crowd, but after a while, Kevin, who was dressed in black, quickly fell from above.

"Dmn it, Kevin!"

Augustine couldn't help yelling, he never thought that Kevin would come over in person!

However, before Augustine could finish cursing, the person following Kevin was... Feng Xiaoxiao!

Next, not only Augustine, but also the police chief next to him was trembling all over. He had long felt that Satan was not easy to mess with. As expected, tonight confirmed his conjecture.

Armored vehicles, helicopters, like a fully organized army, what kind of force is this?

And Kevin, Feng Xiaoxiao, which one is not the one who is not talked about?

And now, these people actually appeared together!

Augustine caught this... who the hell is it?

Soon, the armored vehicles scattered towards the two sides, and a very ordinary silver car drove up.

This small car looks very old, its shape is even a bit like a classic car, there is still a lot of dust on the body, it looks dirty, it looks out of place in such a lineup.

Under the watchful eyes of the audience, Kevin walked up to the silver car step by step, opened the door by himself, and Feng Jin, Feng Xiaoxiao and others also waited respectfully beside the car.

Just when everyone was at a loss, in the next second, a man slowly stepped out of the dilapidated car.

I saw the man's silver shattered hair fluttering gently in the night sky as if alive, his slightly long bangs covered half of his eyes, and the other light brown eye seemed to be sinking in a deep pool, with strands of light shining. air conditioner.

Selena looked at the silver-haired man not far away unsteadily, with a dazed expression, almost thinking that she was hallucinating...

It turned out to be...how could it be...

"S... satan!!!" The moment he saw the man, Augustine's expression was as if he had seen a ghost.

Very few people have seen satan in real life, but they know his iconic silver hair...

crazy crazy! All crazy!

Just because of a woman, under such circumstances, he dared to leave the straits and come to Philadelphia, and he even used so much force to make such a big commotion. It's courting death!

"Satan, you...what do you want to do? Don't forget, who am I..." Augustine seemed to see the devil Satan, his whole face was terrified, and he walked towards him step by step with the man , cold sweat rolled down his forehead like a waterfall, "Shoot! Shoot! Shoot him to death!"

Augustine roared at his frantic opponents.

However, facing the dark crowd, the silver-haired man seemed to be in no one's land, his lazy eyes were empty, there was nothing, and he didn't put anything into his eyes.

As for Augustine, when the silver-haired man appeared, all the hearts of the people over there were already distracted. Although they had guns in their hands, these guns were useless to them, because let alone shooting Well, they didn't even dare to take a second look...

All of a sudden, the entire scene was tense.

They have no doubt that in the next second, this man will leave Augustine dead.

However, to everyone's surprise, the silver-haired man passed him expressionlessly as if he hadn't seen Augustine, and walked straight to the girl behind him.

He stood still for a while, and then slowly put his chin on the girl's shoulder, wrapped his arms around her waist, and said in a coquettish tone, "Honey, miss me?"

Chapter 644

Augustine: "..."

Kevin: "..."

Feng Xiaoxiao: "..."

Feng Jin: "..."

And, all the people at the scene who were nervous and ready to go to war: "..."

Big brother, this is full of gunpowder, can we see the occasion when we talk about love?

Selena only felt a tall shadow falling in front of her, and then an extremely familiar voice came from her ear, and she could still see a strand of silver hair gently swaying in the night wind from the corner of her eye...

However, Selena didn't stay in a daze for long.

Because this guy suddenly and unceremoniously lifted his entire body weight like a big dog, Selena's thigh that was shot was pulled, and there was a heart-piercing pain immediately, and his chaotic brain suddenly woke up. Come here, gritted your teeth, and said word by word...

"I... miss your uncle!!!"

The man raised his brows slightly, and his voice was hoarse, "Huh? My dear, did you say two more words?" You must be thinking of him, right? Why is it his uncle?

"Talk more about your uncle!!!"

"Baby is so smart, but I just said too much, sir."

Selena didn't have time to teach him the profound Chinese, so she couldn't bear it anymore and said, "Get up! I've been shot in the leg!"

Hearing this, the man finally straightened up slightly, glanced at the horrific wound on her thigh with his cold eyes, and said in a deep voice, "It's really useless."

"You..." Selena's physical strength was already at its peak, but now she was pissed off by this guy, her body swayed, and she almost fainted.

The man firmly caught the girl's soft body with one arm, and then hugged her by the waist, looking at Kevin with his hazel eyes, "Have fun with them."

Seeing the man holding Selena in his arms and going in the direction of the small broken car, Feng Xiaoxiao rubbed her nose and followed up to remind her, "What... my junior sister has injuries, this car is too broken, let's take the helicopter! "

"Not so delicate." The man said, and directly stuffed him into the small broken car.

Behind her, the corner of Feng Xiaoxiao's mouth twitched, and she vomited, "Tsk, this EQ... deserves that little junior sister ran away with someone else..."

Hearing this, Kevin turned his head to look at Feng Xiaoxiao.

Feng Xiaoxiao was horrified by him: "Why, did I say something wrong?"

Kevin: "That's right, very accurate."

Feng Xiaoxiao: "..."

Feng Xiaoxiao glanced at Augustine and the others, "What should these people do now? What do you mean by playing? Do you want to play to death?"

Feng Jin's face was a bit dignified, "After all, he's from there, it's hard to explain if he's dead, so save your life."

Kevin nodded, expressing that he had no objection.

What's more, today's incident is really too big. If it alarms the government of country X, the consequences will be disastrous, and it must be resolved quickly...

Inside the silver broken car.

Selena leaned weakly on the seat, feeling that she might pass out at any moment, but she didn't dare, and could only use her last bit of strength to force herself to wake up.

Beside him, the man was talking in English with the person on the walkie-talkie.

Selena was in a daze, heard a few words vaguely, and suddenly came to her senses, "Do you want to transfer them all?"

Just now she seems to have heard this guy say that most of the organization's secret strongholds have been exposed, and now they are going to retreat to Country Y as a whole.

The man hung up the walkie-talkie and was staring at her with a cold light in his light brown eyes. Then, he stretched out his slender fingers and gently pulled off the crooked wig that was about to fall off her head, and said softly , "Honey, it's not you, but us."

Chapter 645

The moment the wig was taken off, Selena's jet-black long hair fell down like a waterfall. Against the pale face with big palms, there was a heart-pounding morbid beauty.

"I...?" Selena's face immediately changed when she heard the words, a trace of panic flashed in her eyes, as if she had fallen into a trap, "None of my business! I'm not leaving! I came here to make it clear to you, The relationship between us has already been cleared up, from now on, you will follow your sunny path, and I will cross my single-plank bridge, please stop interfering in my private affairs!"

The man propped his head up and looked at her with a half-smile, "Oh, clearing up? My dear, you are all mine, how do you want to clear up with me?"

Selena was half dead with anger, "sh1t! Who's yours now!"

"Oh? It's not mine. Whose is it? Daniel?" The atmosphere around the man suddenly sank.

"I'm nobody else's! Am I my own?"

The man was obviously not convinced by this sentence, he twirled her hair once and for a while, and said in a dangerous tone, "Honey, I can let you go out to play, but it doesn't include cuckolding me, so Now, I take back your freedom."

"Dmn it! We're not a couple, do you really know what love is?"

"I don't know, you teach me?"

"Teach your sister!"

"I don't have a sister."

"..."

Selena simply shut up to save some energy.

Tilting his head against the car window, looking at the dark night, a trace of despair slipped through his glass-colored eyes.

If she leaves with him now, she will probably never come back...

...

Dib City, Hotel.

Last night, the crew had a carnival all night, and they all slept until noon.

When a group of people were eating at noon, they suddenly found that there was one person missing.

"Huh? Why didn't Selena come? Has she eaten yet?"

"I don't know, give me a call and ask!"

Louis took out his cell phone and called Selena, but he didn't get through. He frowned slightly and said, "It's turned off."

"Didn't she go to the bar with us last night? She hasn't woken up yet, has she?" screenwriter Ye Linglong asked.

Louis stood up, "I'll go up and have a look."

Louis went upstairs, walked to Selena's room, and rang the doorbell for a long time, but there was no response.

"What are you doing? If you don't go with us, could it be that you went to have fun by yourself? It's too disrespectful!"

Louis felt depressed for a while, so he didn't care anymore, and went down to eat.

After lunch, seeing that the time for the flight home was getting closer and Selena was still gone, Louis, who was still sulking, couldn't help feeling something was wrong.

Although Selena played like crazy, she would never delay the business.

How could it be possible to play until now and not come back?

"What? Still haven't contacted Selena?" Guo Qisheng walked over and asked.

"Yeah." Louis looked at the phone absently.

Guo Qisheng glanced at the time on his watch, "If you don't go to the airport, it will be too late."

Louis didn't intend to leave, "Go back first, I'll wait for her here."

Guo Qisheng frowned, "Let me wait too! Let the others go first."

After all, he is the one leading the team this time, and he is responsible for the members of the team to the end.

Therefore, the other members of the crew returned to the country first, and Guo Qisheng and Louis stayed behind to wait for Selena.

Chapter 646

During this period, Guo Qisheng and Louis made a few more phone calls, but Selena's phone was always turned off.

The two finally got anxious and started asking the front desk if they had seen Selena. After learning that they hadn't noticed, they asked to check the surveillance video.

The hotel's monitoring process is a bit complicated, and it was already night when they saw the video.

Surveillance showed that Selena did go to bed as soon as she arrived at the hotel last night, and she didn't go out at all during the night, and she didn't go out until the next morning.

And since she went out in the morning, until now, she hasn't come back...

"What's the matter? Where did he go and he hasn't come back yet!" Louis frowned.

Judging by her outfit on the surveillance camera, she doesn't look like she's going out to play, does she? Besides, it was early in the morning when she went out...

Guo Qisheng paced back and forth, with a worried expression on his face, "The security in some parts of Country X is not very good...Although Dibu City is still good, the surrounding areas are not so peaceful. Selena probably left Dibu City? Didn't she tell you yesterday where she's going today?"

Louis shook his head, "I didn't say anything, I dragged her to the bar and didn't go, and said I would come back to catch up on sleep!"

The two started looking for someone from noon, but until late at night, there was still no news from Selena...

At the same time, in the imperial capital, a certain commercial reception.

Daniel was dressed in a black suit, standing in front of the huge French window, looking a bit absent-minded.

Behind him, Mo Lingtian walked over, put one hand on his shoulder, with a look of disbelief, "Hey, hey, what are you thinking about? Why do you always seem to be absent-minded lately? It doesn't matter if you don't drink at the reception." Forget it, you don't even bring Hun'er now?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Mo Lingtian noticed that Daniel's phone was still on, and in the next second, he had an expression that was about to go blind, "Holy sh1t! Spicy! Spicy eyes! What is this? Daniel, did you eat it wrong?" Medicine?"

Daniel glanced at his friend beside him, his expression was cold, as if he felt that his words had insulted his phone screen.

The standby screen of Daniel's mobile phone was a photo sticker, inside it was a family portrait of Selena, Little Treasure and him, a family of three.

In the photo, the three of them made a bun face with their hands on their cheeks to show cuteness. Rick is cute and cute, Selena smiles brightly, and Daniel is out of place with an expressionless face, but his eyes can't hide it Gentle and pampering...

The faces of the three were covered with a lot of messy little stickers, and each of them had a pair of pink cat ears on top of their heads. If it was just Rick and Selena, this photo would be quite cute. After Daniel was paralyzed, The whole style of painting seemed extremely strange.

So, it's no wonder that Mo Lingtian had a hot-eyed expression, "Dmn it! You actually filmed this kind of thing! I really convinced you! Those who didn't know thought you were possessed by something!"

Daniel completely ignored his friend's complaints, opened Selena's WeChat on his phone, and sent her a message: Have you got off the plane yet?

If it wasn't late, Selena's flight should have arrived at the airport at this time. Because of a social engagement, he couldn't pick it up in person.

After Daniel finished sending the message, there was no response from the phone.

After a while, his cell phone rang suddenly. He thought it was Selena, but he didn't expect the caller ID: Louis.

Chapter 647

"Hello, uncle!!!" Louis's voice sounded extremely excited.

"What's the matter?" A man's low voice came from the other end of the phone, and the other end was a bit noisy, as if it was at some business reception.

Louis didn't dare to hide it now. After all, he was not familiar with the place abroad. If Daniel came forward, it would be much more convenient due to his connections, so he said directly, "Uncle, Selena is gone! She has disappeared." All day long! I called the police, but the surveillance on the police side only found that she had entered Philadelphia, and the Philadelphia side didn't know what went wrong. All the monitoring was faulty and I couldn't find any information. I was going to rush there, but was caught Let me know that there is martial law over there, I'm worried about Selena..."

Luxurious banquet hall, under the sparkling crystal lamp, the man is wearing a black suit, holding a mobile phone in his hand, the whole person is wrapped in ice for a moment, against the night outside the huge floor-to-ceiling windows, the frosty side face changes color, " What did you say?"

Philadelphia...

Selena didn't go to Dib to promote the film, why did she go to Philadelphia?

Beside him, Mo Lingtian shuddered and rubbed his arms, "Daniel, what's wrong with you? You look so ugly?"

"I need to know the identity of that person before tomorrow."

Daniel dropped these words, and then the frost-stained figure left the banquet hall without looking back...

"Dmn it! Tomorrow... I'll try my best to check the time for you, but it's not enough!" Behind him, Mo Lingtian had a scolding expression on his face.

However, judging from Daniel's attitude just now, it seemed that something serious had happened, so he didn't dare to delay any longer, and immediately went back home to make appointments.

ten minutes later.

In the night sky, on a helicopter.

A black laptop was placed on Daniel's lap, and his face was full of stormy looks.

Sure enough, the entire network in Philadelphia was paralyzed, as if someone deliberately did it to cover up something.

After more than half an hour, he finally found some intermittent fragments...

Even though it was just a few short scenes, it already made him lose his mind!

He saw that Selena was being surrounded and chased by a group of people...

At the last second, it was the scene of Selena being shot...

Daniel's tone even started to tremble slightly, "Go to Philadelphia."

Cheng Feng, who was on the side, also looked terrified when he saw the monitoring screen on the computer. He suddenly woke up when he heard Daniel's words, and hurriedly said, "Boss, the whole of Philadelphia is in chaos now, it's too dangerous now."

As soon as he finished speaking, Daniel looked at him with an extremely frightening look, and Cheng Feng could only keep his mouth shut.

It's over, it's over, it's over...

Boss, please don't worry...

otherwise...

Daniel had no idea how he spent the last few seconds when he saw the picture, it was like walking through hell.

He closed his eyes and opened them again three seconds later. It was already as deep as a thousand-year-old deep pool, without a trace of waves.

He took out his cell phone and made a call.

"Minister Naka, I'm sorry for bothering you late at night."

"Ah...Mr. Lu, my distinguished guest, I called late at night. Is there something urgent?" The tone on the other end of the phone was quite friendly.

"There is indeed something to ask for."

"Oh? Mr. Lu just speak up!"

"Want to borrow an army from the minister."

"What? This... this..." Unexpectedly, the moment Daniel opened his mouth, he was making such a scary request from the army, and the other party's drowsiness was instantly frightened away, "Mr. Lu, what happened?"

"I need to go to Philadelphia."

"Your Excellency, absolutely not! Philadelphia has been controlled by a group of Italian Mafia during this period, even if there is an urgent matter, please wait until the situation stabilizes..."

"My wife is in those hands."

Chapter 648

"My wife is in those hands."

Hearing Daniel's words, the minister on the other end of the phone was shocked, "What?! These people are so daring!"

Daniel is one of the important investors of Country X, and has countless ties with the government of Country X. Now his wife has been kidnapped on the border of Country X. If something happens, the consequences...

However, the situation in Philadelphia is complicated, and it affects the whole body. The most important thing is that there is only half a year before the re-election. This kind of thing happened.

Daniel was naturally worried tomorrow, "Don't worry, Minister, I will try my best to solve the problem peacefully."

Try... that means the possibility of a solution by force is not ruled out?

The minister was in a cold sweat.

However, this person must also be saved!

The border of country x.

The night was illuminated and a great rumbling sounded.

Above the void, a helicopter slowly descended.

The hatch opened, and Daniel in a black suit stepped out of the helicopter, followed by only Cheng Feng. Because the incident happened suddenly, he got on the plane as soon as he received the call, without anyone with him.

In this remote place, an old man with white hair has been waiting for a long time.

Seeing Daniel's appearance, the old man smiled, stepped forward and shook hands with Daniel, and said, "Mr. Lu, I didn't expect this to happen. Let me apologize first."

Daniel was still polite: "Minister Naka, I'm very sorry for disturbing you late at night."

Normally, he would never trouble the minister easily, because it is not a good thing to get too deeply involved with the government.

But now, Selena's life and death are uncertain, and the matter is urgent, so he can't control it too much.

Minister Naka sighed: "Recently, Philadelphia has been controlled by the Italian Mafia. Although our department intends to suppress it, the current situation in country X is relatively tense. For the time being, there will be time to rectify it in the future. I never expected that Mr. Lu's The wife will suddenly show up in Philadelphia, and even this kind of thing..."

Daniel is a business giant in China, controlling the lifeline of the economy. He is also an important investor in several countries in X, and has a great relationship with the government. The government of X also values Daniel very much.

This wasn't just country X. It was rumored that Daniel had invested heavily in several countries, and his strength was extremely strong, but he was not just a simple businessman.

Otherwise, he, a dignified minister, would not have to pick him up in such a tense middle of the night.

If something happened to Daniel's beloved wife in Philadelphia, he wouldn't be able to hold back as a minister. If it caused Daniel to feel resentment towards Country X, withdraw his investment, or even cause other disputes... This matter is really difficult to handle. .

Cheng Feng quietly followed behind Daniel, and continued to search for Selena's whereabouts without stopping.

Although country x is a relatively barren small country, it cannot be compared with medium-sized countries, let alone big countries, but it also has a large regular army, especially the recent war between country x and some other small countries. Many powerful businessmen from various countries have also seen the strength of country x.

However, although the strength of the x team is not small, the economic aspect is a headache, especially after the outbreak of the war, it needs money to support it. The economic construction of country x is not enough, so they pay more attention to businesses like Daniel. giant crocodile.

Chapter 649

"Minister Naka, please excuse me. My wife's life and death are unknown in Philadelphia. I need to borrow a regular army." Daniel seemed to have a calm expression, but when he looked closely, he could find a frightening undercurrent in his eyes.

"This...Mr. Lu, if you think about it, you also know that the current war in country X is tense, and the regular army..." Minister Naka looked hesitant to speak.

"Minister Naka means that." Daniel looked at the old man in front of him meaningfully.

"It's like this, Mr. Lu, Country X currently has some more important investment projects, and these projects are linked to the military. If Mr. Lu...is willing to invest, I think, immediately call a regular army for Mr. Lu, It's not a big problem, but I don't know what Mr. Lu wants?" Minister Naka secretly looked at Daniel's attitude.

Cheng Feng frowned slightly. Minister Naka was clearly taking advantage of the fire!

Daniel looked at Minister Naka, and his tone suddenly changed: "Minister Naka, I'm not in the mood to discuss business with you right now."

"Then...it's not easy to handle. It may take some time to mobilize the regular army..." Minister Naka said again, with a deliberately embarrassed expression.

"Okay." Daniel nodded.

Hearing Daniel's words, Minister Naka was overjoyed, but what Daniel said next made Minister Naka's expression suddenly changed.

"If that's the case, then withdraw all of Lu's previous investments in country x. After that, Lu may go to China to find project investment." After Daniel finished speaking, without looking at Minister Naka, he took Cheng Feng and turned around to face The helicopter goes.

"Your Excellency, please stay here..." Immediately, Minister Naka hurried to catch up and stopped Daniel in a hurry.

Originally, he thought that Daniel would agree to further investment because he was anxious, but he didn't expect that Daniel would not buy it at all.

If Daniel really withdrew country x's project investment, he might be blamed by the higher-ups, and he himself would not get any benefits.

"Mr. Lu, what I said before is only for the future. Our top priority is to get Mr. Lu's wife out of Philadelphia, isn't that right?" Minister Naka said hastily after stopping Daniel.

"What about the regular army?" Daniel looked at Minister Naka with cold eyes.

"That's how it is... I don't know how to send a team of 300 people to Mr. Lu?" Minister Naka seemed to be asking for Daniel's opinion.

"Three hundred people..." Daniel narrowed his eyes slightly.

What is the current situation in Philadelphia, he has no idea at all. Not to mention the Italian mafia, it is still unknown whether there are other forces in a place where fish and dragons are mixed. There are only three hundred people, which is not enough. It can solve the problem, why should he bother, just bring someone here, what is he doing with this minister?

"The four hundred people?" Minister Naka asked again seeing Daniel's worried expression.

However, Daniel still stared at him without saying a word.

Naka got a little anxious, rubbed his hands together and said, "Mr. Lu, according to your intention, what exactly is it?"

"Twenty tanks, five fighter jets, excluding the pilots of the fighter jets and tanks, plus 500 people equipped with light and heavy weapons." Daniel said lightly.

The moment Daniel finished speaking, Minister Naka had a dull expression on his face, and almost scolded her.

Twenty field tanks plus five fighter jets, and 500 men equipped with light and heavy weapons, this Daniel's tone is really too big, why didn't he grab it?

The nearest military fortress doesn't have twenty field tanks and five fighter jets. Even if there are, they can't be dispatched casually!

"No! Absolutely not! This must not work!" Minister Naka seemed a little excited, and couldn't do it one by one.

"Since it doesn't work, then Lu has nothing to say and leaves." Daniel shook his head.

"Mr. Lu!" Minister Naka said: "Mr. Lu, your request is too much! The nearest military fortress only has five tanks and two fighter jets! Even if you want to mobilize, you can only mobilize these !"

"Deal." Daniel nodded.

"What..." Minister Naka still came to his senses, he seemed to be following Daniel's advice?

The majestic Minister of Naka of Country X spent half his life in politics, and was finally given a job by a businessman...

Chapter 650

It was obvious that Daniel was well versed in the psychology of negotiation. It would be much easier to first make a request that the other party could not agree to, and then propose what he really wanted.

At the moment, Minister Naka was a little helpless: "Five field tanks, plus two fighter jets, equipped with a regular army of 300 people fully armed, these forces are enough to wipe out Philadelphia, Mr. Lu, are you okay?"

"Yes." Daniel said.

Seeing Minister Naka's sad expression, Daniel said, "Minister Naka is not worried. If any losses are caused, I will bear the compensation. And, as I said before, I will try my best to resolve it in a peaceful way."

"With Mr. Lu's promise, I'm relieved. Please." Minister Naka ordered the hatch to be opened, and he and Daniel got into the helicopter and drove towards the nearest military fortress.

Philadelphia.

Augustine was being supported by several strong men at this time, walking towards the direction outside Philadelphia.

There are only about 20 people left in the team of more than 100 people, and all their clothes have been pulled out.

That Feng Xiaoxiao and Kevin were somewhat apprehensive, they arrested seventy or eighty of his subordinates, and confiscated all the weapons, and asked Augustine to bring enough money to redeem him, especially that Feng Xiaoxiao, who actually asked someone to send him away. Their clothes were stripped off!

Augustine's trousers were stained blood red, and his lower body was directly crippled by Kevin.

"Santan, Kevin...I want you...to die a terrible death!" Augustine's face was ashen, with an astonishingly violent aura in his eyes. If eyes could kill, satan, Kevin and others would have died countless times , It's a pity that eyes can't kill.

"Boss, what should we do now... The Philadelphia police are a bunch of trash. Seeing Satan, he ran faster than anyone else and killed us!" A strong man holding Augustine asked cautiously. road.

In fact, everyone knew in their hearts that it was none other than Augustine who caused them misfortune. If he hadn't insisted on touching Satan's woman, how could everyone have fallen to this point.

Especially for Augustine, whose lower body was crippled by Kevin, and in order to keep Augustine alive, Kevin and Feng Xiaoxiao asked the doctor they brought to perform an operation on Augustine, suture the wound and give him a strong painkiller!

This lower body is much more important than the ears...

"I'll make them pay a terrible price! I'll make Satan and Kevin die badly, badly!!" Augustine almost roared.

Hearing the sound, more than 20 subordinates shook their heads. What kind of character is Satan, known as the King of the Night, not to mention Satan, even Kevin can easily crush Augustine to death. Augustine wants revenge, why? By mouth?

At this moment, Augustine has already made a plan in his heart, first inform the upper management of this matter, and the upper management will definitely not let it go! By the time...

Rumble...

Rumble...

At this moment, suddenly, bursts of roaring sounds sounded nearby, and the sky above also lit up.

I saw two fighter jets hovering over Philadelphia, with huge lights shining on every corner, as if they were searching for something.

"Where did the helicopter come from?"

"Helicopter...strange...? Dmn, that's a military fighter plane!!!"

I don't know who yelled, and the more than 20 people present looked at it carefully, and their faces turned pale. It was indeed a fighter jet, and it was a military fighter jet of country X!

"What's the situation, x uses a fighter jet, why did it appear in Philadelphia?!"
A trace of cold sweat oozes from the forehead of a certain subordinate.

I thought to myself, could it be that the government of country x wants to eliminate the mafia in Philadelphia?

However, it is absolutely impossible for their power to attract the attention of the government of country x. Besides, during this period of time, a foreign war broke out in x, how could it be possible to use military power to waste a city in Philadelphia?

But... that is indeed a military fighter jet of country X, there is nothing wrong with it!

"Battle tank!"

After a few breaths, a number of giant tanks slowly appeared in the line of sight of Augustine and others. The huge artillery was equipped with a muzzle brake. When the gun came down, the scene...

There are two military fighter jets in the air, and five country X-field tanks on the ground!

Augustine and the others were completely stunned. They just wanted to know what happened...
