

Cruel Heart Lover Novel Chapter 71-75

---

Chapter 71

"Don't worry, let me see which one to choose!" Guo Qisheng excitedly flipped through the script.

Selena anxiously thought: Director, director, choose the forty-sixth scene! If you let me play this show now, I will definitely be able to play very well!

In that scene, Sun Huanqing rescued a girl when she was in the military camp, and then she was hooked up by that girl. Meng Changge was very hot-tempered, misunderstood him cheating, and beat him up...

Louis seemed to see through her thoughts, bent slightly and whispered in her ear, "Honey, do you really want to play the scene where you beat me up?"

Selena flashed a meter like an electric shock, "ba5tard, stay away from me!"

Thanks to this guy, her current hatred is so stable that even ten bulls can't pull her away.

She could already imagine what kind of storm Jia Qingqing and Susie, especially Jia Qingqing, would greet her with.

Times were hard enough, and it just got worse.

Selena was doomed to be disappointed. It was impossible for the director to arrange for the scene where she beat him up on the first day Louis came. After thinking for a moment, she said, "Just the thirty-seventh scene!"

Selena had already memorized the script fluently, and after a little recollection, she remembered the plot of scene thirty-seventh, and her face turned dark on the spot.

Although it's not a bed scene or a k!ss scene, it's not much better.

This is a scene where Meng Changge molested Sun Huanqing...

The director called the two over and began to tell them about the play.

"The Meng family has been generals for generations and has accumulated illustrious military exploits. The words of high meritorious service have put the general's mansion in jeopardy. Today's holy magistrate is mediocre and stupid, and he listens to slander, which leads to the death of Meng Changge's father. Fortunately, Meng Changge's eldest brother Meng Changfeng has been able to take over the position of his father by himself, making Xiao Changge's life still carefree, fighting cocks and running dogs all day, and being a little devil in Chang'an City..."

When the director mentioned the little devil in the world, Louis glanced at Selena with the corners of his lips curled up, and said with the shape of his lips: "It looks like you."

Selena ignored him and continued to listen to the play seriously.

"This little devil, she dresses up in men's clothing all day long and doesn't look like a girl at all. Until she was sixteen years old, she met Sun Huanqing on the street and fell in love with him at first sight. Since then, she has been pestering him every day..."

Louis raised his hand and spoke, "Director, isn't this the female version of a bully who robs Xiao Baihua?"

Selena: You are a bully!

Guo Qisheng coughed lightly, and praised, "Louis, you understand very well, and that's about what it means. So the point I want to make is that in the past, you played characters with a strong and active character, but this time it was completely Instead, so be sure to watch out for conversions..."

Hearing this, Selena was also a little worried. This guy used to play all the roles of domineering president, domineering senior, domineering prince, etc. Can he handle a bookish and weak doctor like Meng Changge?

Louis nodded earnestly to express his understanding, "Understood the director, I am the weak and forced one!"

Guo Qisheng looked at the two worriedly. In fact, he was more worried about Selena than Louis, worried that a woman like Selena would not be able to act like Meng Changge's street bully.

"The reason why I chose this scene is that this scene can best reflect the feelings between the two of you. Most of the time in the scene, you are cynical and gentle. If you can perform this scene well, basically the next It's not a big problem. Well, let's stop here, everything will be seen in practice, you two go to put on makeup and change costumes!"

Chapter 72

Selena was the first to get her makeup done.

Dressed in a neat red and white Jianghu young hero, with a handsome high ponytail, thick black brows and raised eyebrows, he is heroic and has no sense of disobedience to the sixteen-year-old Meng Changge she wants to perform.

Even those who had always rejected Selena had to admit that her image was flawless.

Guo Qisheng was worried that such a beautiful actress like Selena would have a single way of acting, but he didn't expect her plasticity to be so strong, so he praised a few words with satisfaction, and then he worriedly said, "Selena, you must let go later. One point, don't be burdened by idols, you know? You have to be as rogue as possible in this scene!"

"Director, don't worry, I believe she can do it!" At this time, Louis also changed his clothes and came out of the dressing room.

The moment Louis opened the curtain and walked out, there was a gasp of air, and even Selena raised her eyebrows in surprise.

After the makeup was fixed, Louis's whole demeanor changed. He was dressed in a blue bamboo pattern gown, his face was like a jade crown, and his eyebrows were gentle, as if he had stepped out of an ancient painting.

Louis glanced triumphantly at Selena who was in a daze, and said in a low voice, "How is it? Isn't my brother handsome like this?"

It's a pity that it was ruined as soon as I opened it...

Selena maintained a humble expression as if she was exchanging plots with Louis, and said three words: "Very weak."

"you..."

"What me? I'm sorry to tell you that you are being suppressed by me the whole time in the play!"

"Really, how do I remember that I counterattacked? It seems to be a sex scene..."

Not far away, Jia Qingqing watched the two of them leaning against their heads and biting their ears from time to time, feeling so jealous that they were about to lose their minds.

As soon as Louis came, all his attention was on Selena, he didn't even look at her, she didn't even have a chance to say hello to him.

Susie next to her kept softly "comforting" her, "Qingqing, don't be angry, things are already like this, after all, luck is also a part of strength in the entertainment industry. Selena's luck is really good, to have Louis Acting with her, I guess after this drama, she will at least enter the ranks of second-tier actors, even the first-tier actors may be..."

"Heh, on the first line? Dare to steal my things, do you think I will make her feel better?" Jia Qingqing's originally pretty face was extremely distorted and hideous at this moment.

"Qingqing, don't be too impulsive. The company is going to train Selena vigorously. If you fall out with her, I'm afraid..."

"So what if we fall out? Am I still afraid of her, a vixen who can only hook up with men!"

When Jia Qingqing heard that the company was planning to train Selena, Jia Qingqing was even more furious. After all, she and Selena were close in acting, if the company favored Selena, it would take away her resources to a large extent.

Seeing Jia Qingqing who was completely provoked, Susie secretly curled her lips.

With Jia Qingqing's saber, she didn't have to do it herself at all, she just had to sit on the mountain and watch the tigers fight.

However, Selena's recent luck seems to be a bit too good, so she has to guard against...

"Where's Xiao Cui, are the props ready?" Guo Qisheng called out.

"Come here, director, can you see this?" The prop master brought a thick hemp rope over.

"Success!" Guo Qisheng nodded, and then greeted Louis, "Louis, I'm going to wrong you!"

"Don't be wronged, it's necessary for the shooting!" Louis looked very dedicated, and Shi Shiran lay down on a large carved bed, letting the prop master tie up his hands and feet.

That's right, this scene is just as the director said, very intense...

Meng Changge's confession to Sun Huanqing was rejected, so he was directly tied to the mansion...

Chapter 73

The little girls at the scene watched this scene and started a new round of madness.

"Ahh! Makino's bondage py! I want to tie up Makino and throw him on the bed in my dreams!"

"Why are you so excited? You won't be up later!"

"I'm so angry, I'm so angry, why is it that annoying vixen!"

"That's right, I hate it, can't Makino tell the director to change him? She's not good enough for Makino at all!"

"Ahem..." Guo Qisheng coughed to signal everyone to be quiet, then clapped his hands and shouted, "Okay, all departments are ready, three, two, one, start!"

Selena was not affected by the surrounding discussions at all. As soon as the director finished speaking, her eyes changed instantly.

Clean and clear, as energetic as the sun, these are the eyes of a sixteen-year-old girl, and there is also a lazy and carefree expression on her face.

She lifted the hem of her clothes, raised her foot, and kicked open her door.

Then the camera switched to Louis's side.

I saw the young man lying on the big red bed curtain with his hands and feet bound, this color made his complexion paler and weaker, it really made people feel very molested and ravaged.

Hearing the sound of kicking the door, Sun Huanqing slowly opened her eyes, looking at the girl walking against the light in front of the bed with a slightly dazed expression.

Meng Changge sat down on the edge of the bed, and took out an oil-paper bag from his arms, "Fuxinglou's candied chestnuts, I waited in line for an hour to get them, do you want to eat them?"

Sun Huanqing turned her head away, closed her eyes, with an attitude of not wanting to talk to her at all.

Meng Changge peeled off one and threw it into his mouth, with a sly smile on his face, "Don't eat? Then I'll feed you! In a way that might make you shy..."

"You..." Sun Huanqing opened her eyes immediately, three points of anger and seven points of embarrassment in her eyes, "You are a girl, how can you be so shameless!"

Meng Changge squinted at him and raised his eyebrows, "Shame? What's the use of shame? Can you go out and kill the enemy, or get a wife?"

Sun Huanqing was full of indignation, "The Meng family has been loyal for generations, your ancestors fought for the country on the battlefield, but you... you spend all day ignorant, bullying men and women, how can you be worthy of the ancestors of the Meng family?"

Meng Changge had heard these words from the people around him long ago. He dug his ears with his fingers, and with a chestnut in his mouth, he raised his voice and said, "You are so old that you have not married a wife. There are three ways to be unfilial." , no descendants are great, how can you be worthy of your grandson family ancestors?"

Sun Huanqing was almost pissed off by her strong words, and said with a stern face, "This is two different things, let alone Sun Mouzhi is not here!"

Meng Changge stepped on the edge of the bed, threw the whip in his hand on Sun Huanqing's body, and finally pressed it against his chin, with the expression on his face like a cunning and mischievous little fox, "Doctor Sun , Otherwise, do you think this is good? I will be your daughter-in-law, and when I become your daughter-in-law, I will listen to you in everything in the future. You let me go east, I don't go west, let me learn well, and I will listen to you obediently, so Don't our ancestors deserve it?"

Sun Huanqing was taken aback, and a trace of haste slipped across her face, "You...don't talk nonsense!"

Meng Changge seemed to have discovered the new world, and moved closer, almost touching his face, "Hey? Doctor Sun, you are blushing! Actually, you like me too, right? How about we just cook raw rice? "

"Card—"

Until the director called the card, everyone was still thinking about it, why didn't they act, why didn't they continue to act! I want to keep watching! I want to see raw rice cooked into cooked rice!

Chapter 74

The actors on both sides were of equal strength and performed very well, especially Selena's performance brought them into the play completely, so that their rejection of Selena disappeared.

In the beginning, they didn't want Selena to touch their idol, but in the end they clamored for her to do it quickly. When they saw her doing it, they were as excited as they were themselves.

Of course, after they came to their senses, they still didn't want to see Selena, they all went around Louis, asking him how he was, and praising him for his outstanding acting skills.

Apart from Jia Qingqing, Zhao Sizhou was probably the most depressed today.

Originally, he had the highest status in the crew and was the most popular among girls, but when Louis came, all the attention was drawn to him, and his side was suddenly deserted.

As for the happiest person, it is naturally the director.

The few scenes that Selena and Louis tried today went very smoothly, the two of them had a tacit understanding as if they had worked together a hundred times.

But today to Selena, there are only eight words: magnificent and magnificent, the rest of life after the catastrophe.

When work was about to end, Louis was surrounded by a group of people who wanted to invite him to dinner and clean him up. While Selena was packing her things, the phone in her bag rang.

After checking the caller ID, Saul.

Saul's number was stored in her phone forcibly by him a few days ago.

What is this guy calling her at this time?

Selena looked suspicious, and hurriedly found a corner to answer the phone.

"Hello, Second Young Master?"

"Hey... little... Xi... Xi..."

Saul's voice on the phone was weak, as if his body had been hollowed out...

Selena was speechless, "What's wrong with you?"

"What's the matter... I still want to ask you what happened! What did you do to my brother last night?" Saul asked furiously.

Selena was confused, "Ah? What do you mean? What can I do to him?"

"You didn't care about him, so why is he in a state of berserk today? It's been a full twelve hours since the meeting started at eight o'clock in the morning until now!"

"Uh... this is your company's business, so it should have nothing to do with me, right? Maybe he just went to work after a long vacation, so he has a lot to deal with?"

"Impossible, I have known my brother for so long, I can tell what he is thinking with just one look, this matter is definitely related to you! It is you who caused us! Now he is going to torture everyone in the company Dead!" Saul insisted that it was her fault.

Selena was really wronged, she said helplessly, "I really didn't do anything!"

The only possible thing last night was that she went to the airport to pick up Louis, and then she was bumped into by Daniel while taking a shower at his house...

Is it because of this?

But his subsequent reaction was obviously normal, right?

"I don't care, I don't care! It must be because of you! The disaster is caused by you, you must get rid of him! Otherwise, we will turn into ghosts after death and won't let you go! Just now the head of our finance department has been tortured and passed out, his ghost must be on his way to find you..."

Selena: "..."

What the hell! What is this called? She was shot while lying down...

What should she do now?

What can she do to save them?

Isn't this an international joke?

Selena was so worried that she received a multimedia message.

Saul sent him two pictures.

One is a photo of a man who fainted and was carried away by ambulance, and the other is a photo of the entire conference room. Everyone sitting around the table has a panic expression as if they are about to be killed by Qiu Houwen. The Great Demon King is just like King Yama who judged them!

Looking through the photos, Selena seemed to feel a gloomy air-conditioning...

Chapter 75

Daniel was playing "The Last Judgment" over there, why did he let her save the game?

Saul's phone call was simply inexplicable!

Selena originally decided to let her go, but for some reason, there was always such a guilty conscience deep in her heart...

Depend on! Why should she feel guilty?

She had already made up her mind to leave it alone, but Saul ding dong ding dong sent another short video.

In the video, Daniel's gaze was as cold as a knife, and Selena was taken aback. She froze for a moment before realizing that he must be looking at Saul.

"Saul, I'll give you half an hour to make a new plan for me. Now, just do it here. If you can't do it, go to the finance department to settle your salary!"

Then the video screen goes black.

Selena: "..."

At the moment when the screen flickered to black, she seemed to have seen Saul's last bloody scream and plea for help...

Even a layman like her knows that it is completely impossible to make a new plan within half an hour.

But!

She really really didn't know how to save him!

Selena's brain was spinning rapidly, and Sun Tzu's thirty-six tactics in the art of war were turning over in her mind one by one...

Waiting for work at leisure? Saul's ghost will kill her!

Capture the thief first and capture the king first? Daniel himself is the king!

Surround Wei and save Zhao? Where is Wei to surround her?

Could it be... a beauty trick? bah bah...

In the end, Selena slapped her head, "Yes! Tune the tiger away from the mountain!"

Selena took a deep breath, calmed down, and dialed Daniel's number...

At the same time, the Lu Group.

In the meeting room, the large screen that was being projected was connected to Daniel's mobile phone, playing an internal material.

The senior executives below watched with 120,000 ounces of concentration, because Daniel wanted to ask questions later.

This is simply the same as the horror before the teacher asked questions in class when I was a child...

At this moment, Daniel's cell phone rang suddenly.

Daniel didn't even look at it, and just swipe to answer. Then, the next second, a woman's sweet and soft voice came out from the speaker connected to the phone...

"Hey, Daniel, are you busy?"

Huh?

In an instant, the expressions of all the higher-ups were stunned, and their faces were filled with bewilderment.

what's the situation?

This is the boss's personal phone, right?

There was a woman calling in, with such a sweet voice, calling him by his name...

However, what shocked them even more was what was yet to come...

After Daniel heard that voice, the aura around him changed imperceptibly.

It's like a gust of breeze from the world blows the Bana flowers beside the Naihe Bridge...

Saul, who was busy catching up with the impossible plan, was so excited that he burst into tears the moment he heard Selena's familiar voice.

Sister-in-law, you are here...

Daniel's voice only paused for a moment. Then, he unplugged the data cable connected to the device and put the phone next to his ear. His expression didn't change at all, and his tone was equally cold, "What's the matter?"

Selena on the other end of the phone wanted to back off when she heard such a terrifying voice, but in the end she held on and murmured in a soft, pleading tone as much as possible, "Well, will you be back tonight? We promised I want to accompany Rick to eat hot pot today!"

Daniel said with a cold face, "I'm busy, so I might not come back."
