

Cruel Heart Lover

Novel

Chapter 801

The old man carefully held the little guy's hand, "That's right... This is the flesh and blood of my Ning family... I can feel it..."

After seeing Xiao Treasure, the old man had already put all his energy on the little guy, holding the little guy's hand and looking over and over again, "Like...it really looks like Selena...Look at these eyes... This nose..."

The old man kept saying that Little Treasure looks like Selena here and there...

Selena could only answer one sentence, but she was thinking in her heart, isn't Rick carved out of the same mold as Daniel?

How can it be like her?

"Selena, take the child out first, I have something to say to him alone." The old man looked at Daniel and said with a serious expression.

"Grandpa, do you want to take a break? Don't be too tired!" Selena said worriedly.

"It's okay, grandpa is not tired, are you still afraid that grandpa will eat him?"

"Selena, take Rick out first." Daniel also said.

Selena had no choice but to take a look at Daniel and take Rick out first to wait.

In the ward, the old man stared at the man in front of him probingly, "You and my family, Selena, what's going on?"

"When we found out that Selena was pregnant, we were going to get married, but we separated because of some misunderstandings, and we didn't meet again until five years later..."

Selena waited for half an hour before Daniel finally came out.

"What's the matter?" Selena hurried up to meet her and asked.

"Grandpa asked you to take Rick in and show him."

"Oh oh..." Selena hurriedly led Rick in.

Just when he was about to talk to the old man, the old man had passed her and looked at Rick, his tone couldn't be more gentle, "Rick, how old are you this year?"

Rick wrote 5 on the clipboard.

"Go to school yet?"

went to kindergarten

"Is your father and mother usually on good terms?"

it is good

Selena was worried that there would be problems with Rick's communication with her grandfather, but she didn't expect that the old and the young got along very harmoniously, and she became redundant.

The old man who was on the verge of death just now seemed to be alive again.

I don't know what Daniel said to the old man inside, and how he explained it to him. After chatting with Rick for a long time, the old man said to her earnestly, "Selena, stay with Daniel well, It's not easy to find someone who treats you sincerely!"

"Grandpa, I will."

"Grandpa knows that you are career-minded, but you can't ignore the people around you too much, you know?"

"Oh, I see..."

After leaving the hospital.

Selena was confused, "Hey, Daniel, what on earth did you say to Grandpa? Why is Grandpa turning to you like this all of a sudden? He's talking for you! It stands to reason that you made my stomach bigger, shouldn't he be I really don't want to see you, right?"

"Want to know?" Daniel looked at her meaningfully.

Selena nodded repeatedly, "Think."

Daniel: "Father is more valuable than son."

Selena: "..."

The father is more expensive than the son... This description... is absolutely perfect...

"I told my grandpa, considering your current job, we can't get married. As long as you ask, we can go to get the certificate at any time."

"Uh..." That's too bad! In that case, wouldn't it all be her fault? Although what Daniel said seems to be true...

"That's it? What else? What else did you say?" Selena always felt that it was not that simple.

Daniel glanced at her, and then said unhurriedly, "I told Grandpa that we plan to have three to five children in the future."

"Pfft...cough cough cough..." Selena almost choked on her own saliva, "Three to five? That's too much!"

I never expected that this guy... would be so good at pleasing the old man!

Chapter 802

After leaving the hospital, the two sent Rick to school.

On the way back, Selena couldn't help holding her head and asked Daniel who was driving next to her, "Then... how did you explain our matter to Grandpa?"

Last night Daniel kept saying that he would handle it, so she didn't ask any more questions, and now she was really curious.

Looking at Chuyang behind the snow outside the window, Daniel quietly replied while driving, "I said...we met by chance, fell in love at first sight, and fell in love at first sight, because we couldn't help but tasted the forbidden fruit and had Rick. When we were young, the love was like the wind, it always came and went quickly, because of some small misunderstandings, you left me and Rick and went away. Five years later, we met again and found that we still couldn't forget each other. The road is unpredictable, but we still choose to be together and face it together..."

This was the first time that he heard so many words from Daniel at once, it was still so incredible, it didn't seem like what he could say at all.

Selena's jaw almost dropped when she heard it from the side, "I'm going... Daniel... You're so good at writing, you can be a screenwriter... And you're also a screenwriter for a romantic idol drama!"

Daniel glanced at her from the rearview mirror with his deep eyes, and said slowly, "It's not a lie, this is what I think in my heart. It would be great if we could meet sooner."

In an instant, Selena's heart seemed to be hit hard by something...

Daniel's words just now echoed in his heart.

It would be great if we could meet sooner.

This is also what she said to herself many times in her dream at midnight...

Wouldn't it be great if I could meet the man in front of me sooner?

The next second, when there was a red light ahead, Selena leaned over and covered Daniel's lips...

The girl's sweet breath suddenly invaded all senses. Daniel was startled for a moment, then turned his head away, turning his back...

When the light turned green, Daniel didn't come back to his senses until there were urging sounds from behind the car, panting slightly, "I'm driving, don't mess around."

Selena puffed her cheeks, "I didn't mess around, I was just going to kiss you, it's obviously you who messed around!"

Daniel: "..."

The next day was Saturday, when Selena took Rick to see the old man, the old man was already able to get out of bed and walk, not only that, but also played with Rick for a whole morning.

In the first few days, Selena was still apprehensive, afraid that the old man would come back to life or something.

It wasn't until the old man's health improved day by day that he finally felt at ease.

"Grandpa, it's almost time for visiting patients, so I'll go first? Rick, goodbye to grandpa..." Every time she came here, she staggered the time for visiting patients, so as not to run into Susie and the others.

The old man patted Rick's head contentedly, "Well, let's go. Selena, don't worry, grandpa won't tell anyone about this."

If those people find out about Selena's relationship with Daniel, they don't know what troubles will happen. At least they have to wait for the two to get married. Otherwise, the news of Selena's unmarried pregnancy will spread and affect her. Definitely not good.

Now that he has a lot of things to do, knowing that the Ning family still has this trace of blood, he can close his eyes even if he dies.

However, for the sake of Selena and Bao Bao, he still has to live well, support Selena and Bao Bao, and wait for his great-grandson to be born on the 2345th...

Chapter 803

After Fashion Week, when Zeling proved his strength in the Golden Top Awards, because of Qin Shengyue's influence and fame, the market finally opened up a key breakthrough. In the past few days, people have started to use various channels Contact them to express cooperation intention.

However, these mermaids are a mixed bag. If they are not professionals in the industry and cannot accurately identify them, then it is very likely that a single cooperation will ruin all the previous hard work.

All of a sudden, Selena's workload suddenly increased. Gong Shangze and Han Momo had to catch up with ready-to-wear samples, while she had to collect the authors' information one by one.

When she was so busy, Qin Shengyue's trump card finally came long overdue.

Hearing the doorbell ring, Han Momo immediately raised her head, "Is our marketing director here? I'll open the door!"

A moment later, Han Momo led a woman in.

I saw that the visitor was wearing a neat champagne-colored dress, his hair was tied in a bun behind his head, and there was no superfluous expression on his face. He had the fierce aura of an urban white-boned spirit, and he really looked like an ace.

"Qiao Weilan, Boss Qin asked me to come and report." Qiao Weilan said simply, with a businesslike tone.

"Hello, I'm Selena, the person in charge of Zeling, Director Qiao, please sit down." Selena politely led him to the office.

"Because some work needs to be handed over there, it was delayed for a few days." Qiao Weilan explained.

"It's okay, it should be." Selena expressed her understanding.

After exchanging a few casual greetings, Selena raised the most important point directly, "I don't know if Boss Qin has told you about my situation here, we are a newly opened small studio, and the commission is with you at Boss Qin's side. It's definitely not comparable. Although you were assigned to me by President Qin, but a twisted melon is not sweet, if you don't want to stay with me, I can help you to tell President Qin. "

"No, I have no objection to Boss Qin's arrangement." Qiao Weilan said expressionlessly.

Selena took a look at Qiao Weilan's expression. Although she wasn't overly eager, she didn't see any particularly repulsive reaction. She seemed to be obeying orders perfectly.

It was much better than she expected.

Originally, she was transferred halfway, and she didn't expect her to blend in so quickly.

So, Selena continued to introduce, "The situation in our studio is very simple, I believe I don't need to explain further, let me introduce two colleagues to you first, this is our design director Gong Shangze, this is his Assistant Han Momo."

Several people got to know each other for a while, Qiao Weilan's eyes only lingered on Gong Shangze for a while, and then returned to the robot-like state.

After introducing the person, Selena showed her a brief tour of the studio and the office arranged for her, "Currently our business is mainly divided into high-end customization and ready-to-wear stores, and our core positioning is only for the high-end market, so the customer base Must go through strict screening..."

After listening, Qiao Weilan said directly, "I will select suitable partners within three days from the existing customer base resources, and I will hand them over to you for review before negotiating with the other party and discussing further cooperation plans in detail."

"it is good."

Although the other party's attitude was a little bit cold, fortunately, he had nothing to say about his professional level, and Selena's urgent need was instantly solved.

As for the future, whether she will continue to complete the tasks step by step, or whether she can truly blend in, depends on fate...

The most important point is that this beauty is not her type, very good, her virginity is preserved!

Chapter 804

"Then I'll leave it to you first. I'll make an announcement later. If you have anything to do, contact me in time!"

"Okay, sister Xi, hurry up... Remember to help me take more photos of Louis...It's best to take a photo of you two together..."

This time Selena was on a talk variety show with high ratings. Because of the popularity of "The World" recently, the program team invited the main creators of the crew to talk about the creative process behind the scenes.

The protagonists tonight are Susie and Zhao Sizhou. All the topics and interactions basically revolve around these two people.

Louis is quite special, even if he is playing a role, such announcements would want to pull him in, not to mention that he also played the role of the second male.

When the host was chatting with Susie and the others, Selena sat quietly by the side, not interrupting and not rushing to steal the spotlight.

However, because she and Louis acted as lovers in the play, the host's topic often abducted her by the way.

"Selena, this time you and Louis have earned a lot of tears from everyone, and your popularity is also very high. Everyone thinks that you are a perfect match in the film. The two of you were even selected as one of the top ten on-screen couples of the year. And in this voting, the most popular male character in the play is your military doctor Sun Huanqing! Are you happy?"

"Huh? Really?" Selena showed some surprise.

"That's right, look, this is an online vote, and Sun Huanqing leads the way! Even Sizhou, the male protagonist, has been compared!" The host said, and a picture of an online vote appeared on the big screen. Makino was far ahead in the number of votes.

For a while, everyone was waiting for how Selena would respond. After all, the host's words were really difficult to answer, and if they were not good, they would offend others...

Apart from the popularity of the character Sun Huanqing, the biggest reason why Louis had such a high number of votes was of course because Louis's fans were fierce.

However, if you said you were happy, proud, and that the genius doctor is amazing, wouldn't that be slapping Zhao Sizhou and Susie in the face at the same time, and offending the fans of the two leading actors?

Selena lowered her eyes slightly, then laughed, "It seems that those words really came true!"

"What?" the host asked curiously.

Selena glanced between Zhao Sizhou and Louis, "The male lead belongs to the female lead, and the second male belongs to everyone!"

As soon as Selena finished speaking, not only the host laughed, but also the fans of Susie, Zhao Sizhou, and Louis cheered.

Selena's reply was so ingenious that no one was offended.

Backstage at this moment, the director of the program team looked at the camera and found that the photographers in several camera positions gave close-ups of Selena's face to some degree.

Selena's skin condition is really good, her face is flawless, perfect for being photographed, even if she doesn't speak, but when she just quietly watches and listens to others, her eyes are unusually bright and bright, It is inevitable that the camera always favors beauties...

"Turn back and save three close-up shots of Selena, and put her and Louis's shots together." The director urged the assistant on the side.

After the show ended, Susie said goodbye to the show crew with a smile, exchanged a few words with Selena and the director, and then got into the nanny's car.

As soon as she got into the car, Susie's original smile immediately turned into a sinister one, and she picked up her mobile phone to call home...

Chapter 805

Janice and the little assistant on the side were obviously used to Susie's low pressure and increasingly bad temper these days, and they all tried not to speak to reduce their sense of presence, so as not to be affected by Chi Yu.

"Xiao Ling, how is grandpa doing these past few days?" Susie asked the maid at home.

"Miss, the master has been in good health these days, and he invited Mr. Xi and the others to go fishing this morning, and he came back in the evening, and he looks in good spirits..."

"How about the thing I asked you to check?"

"I've already checked. During the days when the master was in the hospital, apart from the family members and several shareholders of the company, no suspicious people went there."

"What about Selena?"

"The little nurse said that she had been there a few times, but she just looked at the old man and chatted with him. She didn't do anything special."

"Okay, I get it!"

After finishing the phone call, Susie hung up the phone, her expression even worse.

What exactly is going on?

The old man clearly saw that he was going to die the day before, why did he suddenly get better, and his spirit became better and better, and he even went to the company to hold a shareholder meeting yesterday.

Those shareholders who thought that the old man was about to die and were ready to turn to Ning Yaohua, saw that the old man was in good health, and they all gave up their thoughts and stood still.

After all, although Ning Yaohua is mainly managing the company now, the real power and shares are still in the hands of the old man!

Not only is the situation at home in a mess, history has had frequent problems since the Golden Top Award, and after the fashion week, Zeling snatched more than a dozen big orders in a row, although these orders are nothing to them. It was a drop in the bucket, but if Zeling continued to grow and develop, it would definitely not be a good sign.

However, as a top priority, she still has to do the most important thing right now.

The huge network resources obtained through the entertainment industry are her top priority, and she must not lose this position.

"What's going on with Selena recently? What kind of films have you received?" Susie asked with a vigilant expression.

"She just made a second female lead, what a great resource she has. It is said that she fell in love with the heroine of a drama, but was cut off by Liang Biqin. Don't worry, as long as Su Yimo is around, she will be there." It won't be too easy in Shengshi." Janice said.

Susie calmed down a little, "Recently, I've been helping me get more literary films with a positive image. As long as the director has won an award, the salary doesn't matter!"

When Janice heard it, she immediately understood what she meant. Although literary films were unpopular and had a low box office, they were easy to win prizes. In the past, Susie definitely would have disdained to accept them.

However, Susie's current popularity is enough, what is lacking is a heavyweight award.

It is not enough just to have a "World" with an unknown future...

The waves behind the Yangtze River push the waves ahead, there are too many little flowers in the same period, and they all try their best to take a step forward and turn to strength. The next Golden Palm Award will definitely be fiercely competitive...

"Understood, I will try my best to pick it up for you." Janice replied, but in fact she was suffering.

Because Susie was too eager for quick success before, and acted in too many bad commercial movies and TV dramas that were free and had a bad box office reputation. The nationality is quite high, but the overall compulsion has been lowered. Those who really went to win awards The director, even if he was looking for an unknown newcomer, he wouldn't want to find someone like Susie...

Chapter 806

A few days later, the talk show was broadcast, and the effect was very good.

In addition to Zhao Sizhou and Louis's fans, because of the problem of who has more shots of the two in the show, they also carried out a routine pinch.

In the end, Selena's performance unexpectedly got the attention of many fans...

Selena is so low-key, did you notice that? The fourth girl was still the fifth girl, and she kept jumping up and down interrupting other people's conversations, but Selena, a real second girl, didn't speak, okay? Occasionally, it was her turn to ask her questions, and she answered them all very decently, with a feeling of super high EQ! I'm going to be a fan!

That's not the point! The point is the value of the face, the value of the face, is it good? Say important things three times! I'm already a fan!

Hands up! I am a cp fan! I also noticed a small detail, pay attention to the camera, Louis's eyes are almost on Selena most of the time! I don't believe it if they say that they have nothing to do with killing each other in private!

Because of this interview, Selena's Weibo has started a new round of fans. In addition to the fans who gained during the release of "The World", Selena's current number of fans is also quite impressive.

Most of the comments below were for her to post photos, or to ask her about Louis's situation.

Naturally, Selena would not do such things as using other celebrities to gain popularity from fans, even if this person is Louis.

It's just that, taking selfies is too boring, so Selena simply posted some photos of herself spying in disguise.

Originally, it was only used to post daily favorites and relax the Weibo atmosphere. Unexpectedly, the response was very good, and I gained a large number of two-dimensional fans.

Shengshi Entertainment Company Building.

"These are the scripts that have just been delivered, go back and have a look!" Ling Zhizhi handed Selena a bunch of scripts that had been sorted out.

After "The World" came out, Selena finally had a masterpiece with a good reputation.

The two supporting roles in the play, Meng Changge and Sun Huanqing, are well known to be as popular as the protagonists in the play, and the number of scripts sent by major companies in Lin Zhizhi's case also increased all of a sudden.

Probably because Selena portrayed the role of Meng Changge so perfectly. The scripts for her were either to play a concubine who brought disaster to the country and the people, or the most beautiful woman in the world, or a stunning oiran, a glamorous vixen, and most of the time. It's the second girl and the third girl, and occasionally there are invitations from the heroines of small productions.

Selena put away those scripts, "Okay, I'll go back and take a good look!"

Ling Zhizhi pinched the center of her eyebrows, hesitated a bit and said, "Also, Louis's new film is currently filming, there is a small role in a small role, Liang Biqin was originally scheduled, but Liang Biqin is filming another film, there is no time to make a temporary decision Pushed, there is no suitable candidate right now, I want you to go there to meet the emergency."

"Louis's new play? The one directed by Shen Mian? Sure, of course it's fine!" Selena readily agreed.

In director Shen's play, it's an honor even if it's a cameo, let alone a character who can show his face!

Besides, Louis had helped her a lot, wouldn't it be a trivial matter for her to save her in an emergency!

When Liang Biqin took on the small supporting role, she wasn't as famous as she is now. Now that she's famous, she's also paid a huge salary to take on a big production from a famous director.

Ling Zhizhi handed her a script, "There aren't many scenes, and it should be finished soon. I've listed your parts separately for you."

Chapter 807

Because the crew was in a rush, Selena and Lin Zhizhi discussed it a bit, and then rushed to the crew with Xiaotao.

What she was going to play was Louis's late first love girlfriend, and there was only one scene of the two dying before their death, so it was quite simple, and if things went well, it would be over in a day.

"Why are you here?" Louis looked suspicious when he saw her.

"Sister Zhizhi asked me to come and help out!" Selena replied.

Louis's eyes turned to Lei Ming who was at the side.

Lei Ming coughed lightly, and muttered, "Isn't it true that you are not satisfied after reading more than a dozen? I have no choice but to borrow someone from Zhizhi..."

Selena's head was full of black lines, "I'm convinced of you too. This role is just one scene from beginning to end. The director didn't say anything about the terminally ill hiccup. Why are you so picky?"

"What's wrong with a scene? That's my first love!" Louis had a righteous expression on his face.

The corner of Selena's mouth twitched, "Correct you, it's just the first love in the play."

She was really speechless towards Louis, she had never seen such a hard-to-serve actor.

In a play, the hero and heroine often have a higher status than the director and producer, and have a lot of power to speak. Shen Mian probably has nothing to do with him.

Shen Mian is young, only in his early thirties, and started filming just after graduating from university. His first film "Stars, Moon, and Sun" became popular all over the country, and was named "Asian Star" by American Business Weekly. The protagonist in the play is popular. Through half the sky, they are now a sister and a brother in the entertainment industry.

The youth-themed movie "Love in the Future" produced later won the box office champion of the year, leading a large number of youth movies and trends.

Shen Mian is a very talented director, he likes to shoot unexpected things every time, whether it is choosing scripts or actors, he has a very poisonous vision.

It's a pity that although the films he has made in the past few years are not rushing, none of them can surpass those two. Some outsiders say it harshly, and even say that he is a genius...

Selena was actually quite sorry about this, but she also knew that for a director like Shen Mian, this result was almost an inevitable compromise after integrating into this circle.

"Director Shen, he's here, why don't you take a look?" Lei Ming ran to the director beside him.

"What's the use of me taking a look? Is that kid willing?" Shen Mian and Louis have cooperated several times, and they have a good relationship in private, so their words are quite casual.

"Our Louis side is fine! You just need to nod your head!" Lei Ming hurriedly said, if there was no other way, he would not borrow someone from Ling Zhizhi, and every time he was caught between Louis and the director, He is very difficult to do ah.

"Oh?" Shen Mian, who was busy, paced over.

Seeing the director, Selena immediately said hello, "Hello, Director Shen, I'm Selena!"

Shen Mian looked at Selena probingly, "Selena... is she the second female lead in Director Guo's "The World", right?"

Unexpectedly, Shen Mian would know about herself, Selena was a little happy, "Yes!"

"No wonder this guy has no objection! I watched your play, and it's considered Louis's acting skills are at their peak." Shen Mian couldn't help but look at the girl in front of him more.

From the audience's point of view, they only saw that the two matched well and cooperated tacitly, and saw the change in Louis's acting style.

However, he had cooperated with Louis several times, and he could tell at a glance that this woman must have two talents to bring Louis's acting skills to that level.

Chapter 808

After the two parties confirmed that everything was fine, Shen Mian started talking to Selena.

The filming of this scene went very smoothly, and only three of them passed, and the other two were for different angles.

In the end, Shen Mian looked back at the video in the camera, feeling emotional, no wonder Mr. Guo has publicly praised this newcomer many times in the director circle!

After the filming ended, Selena changed into casual clothes for convenience. After all, more and more people knew her now.

Selena has been very busy these two days, and finally took advantage of this time to catch her. Louis immediately ran over to stop her with glowing eyes, "Would you like to go to my house tonight? I'm still three games away." You have advanced! You must not lose!!!"

"What good does it do for me to help you advance?" Selena frowned slightly.

"You still want to benefit from me for such a small matter? Are you still a brother?"

...

"Louis, tomorrow..." Shen Mian was about to talk to Louis, when she saw the young man beside him, she froze for a moment, "Your friend?"

The corners of Louis's mouth twitched slightly, "Director, did you see this guy just now?"

Selena coughed lightly, stretched out her hand and shook, "Director, it's me!"

Shen Mian was dumbfounded, with a ghostly expression on her face, "You...you are Selena?"

The "youth" in front of him was wearing a black leather motorcycle suit, with neat short hair and unruly brows. He was clearly a man whose aura did not belong to Louis...

But if you really had to look carefully, you would find that it was indeed Selena's face...

Why is there such a gap and change in the same person who just changed his clothes and makeup?

Such a change of temperament from the inside out is completely impossible to be done by changing clothes and wearing a wig! Not even acting can be so natural and perfect!

"Uh, as an actor, it's not free, so I have to find a way... Director, you know..." Selena showed a knowing expression.

After she got off work and put on this men's attire, Selena naturally changed even her tone of voice and demeanor.

Those who didn't know simply thought that there was a chic and unrestrained man living in her body!

Shen Mian couldn't describe the feeling deep in her heart at this moment, the long-lost excitement that seemed to make her blood flow upstream...

"Uh... Director Shen... What's wrong with you, Director Shen?" Selena was a little terrified by the fiery gaze.

Louis waved his hand in front of Shen Mian's face with displeasure, interrupting his sight, "Hey, Director Shen, don't tell me you like men?"

What is that look?

Shen Mian waved his hand away, "Get out, if I like men, I will be the first to sneak you!"

Selena laughed out loud, she didn't expect Shen Mian to have such a personality in private.

Shen Mian didn't know what was going on, ever since seeing Selena, she was in a state where she seemed to be about to go berserk at any moment.

He took out a cigarette from his pocket, took a deep puff, then took out another and handed it to Selena, "Do you smoke?"

The veins on Louis's forehead twitched violently, "Shen Mian, what the hell are you doing?"

Selena smiled and declined, "Director, I quit smoking, so don't hook me up."

Shen Mian pinched her cigarette, and ran straight forward, while running, she turned her head and told Selena, "Wait for me, don't go!"

After a while, Shen Mian pulled his little assistant over under the confused gazes of Selena and Louis.

Chapter 809

Shen Mian's little assistant is a girl in her twenties. She was arranging the props just now, and when she was suddenly pulled over, she looked confused and panted, "Director, what's the matter in such a hurry?"

Shen Mian stared at Selena with fiery eyes, then glanced at her watch, pointed to the little assistant and said, "I'll give you ten seconds to make her fall in love with you, and if you do it, I promise to make you a hit !"

This moment.

Selena: "..."

Louis: "..."

Assistant girl: "..."

what?

Make a girl fall in love with a girl?

Is Shen Mian crazy?

When Louis looked like hell and his little assistant was completely confused about the situation, Selena had already noticed something in advance. It was an opportunity!

The moment Shen Mian started counting, Selena grabbed the hand of the assistant girl unexpectedly, sat on a large prop chair behind her, and took her to sit on her lap...

The little assistant subconsciously exclaimed, but Selena frowned and stopped her with a serious expression, "Don't move!"

Then, Selena carefully took off the assistant's high-heeled shoes, and looked at the redness and swelling on her ankle...

Ten seconds hadn't come yet, and even Selena had only two words of "don't move" from the beginning to the end. The assistant girl stared at the man's tense side face and the pity and love in her eyes, her heart was beating rapidly, her breathing was rapid, her face was flushed, I can't even speak...

Shen Mian looked at her, and said directly, "The test is passed, now, follow me."

Selena helped the little assistant take off her high heels, then put her own flat sneakers on, and then helped her stand up, and then stood up herself, and replied to Shen Mian, "Okay!"

Louis, who was completely ignored, had black lines all over his head, "I'll go! Shen Mian, where are you taking her!"

Shen Mian had already driven Selena away like a gust of wind...

Behind him, the little assistant was still staring at the direction Shen Mian's car was leaving, "Senior Jiang, who was that handsome guy just now? Did the director take a fancy to him and want to choose him as the male lead of the new play? God! It's so charming! When he hugged me and helped me change my shoes just now, my heart almost jumped out!"

Louis's face was scorched, "Are you blind? That was a woman just now!"

"It's impossible!" The little assistant was suddenly surprised.

Louis gave her a blank look, "Is it good for me to lie to you?"

The little assistant covered her flushed face when she heard the words, "Wow, it doesn't matter if you're so handsome, it doesn't matter if you're a woman... Oops, am I going to bend over!"

Louis: "..."

Shen Mian directly brought Selena to her company.

Selena glanced at the office casually. There were no stills or productions. Shen Mian's office was very simple, and all the pictures on the walls were the relationship diagrams of the characters in the script and the photos of the casting actors...

"I have a script in my hand, and it has been backlogged for three years, because I haven't been able to find a suitable heroine. Originally, I could just find a few popular artists to cook in a big pot, and the box office will definitely not be too bad when it comes out. It's just that I can't bear to part with this book." Shen Mian said, opened the bottom drawer with a key, and took out a script.

The pages of the script have turned yellow, and it looks like it has been read many times.

Selena took the script carefully and read the outline first.

After reading it, I finally understood the reason for Shen Mian's strange actions just now, "Woman disguised as a man?"

Chapter 810

"Yes, have you read Shakespeare's 'Twelfth Night'?" Shen Mian asked.

Selena's eyes lit up, and she nodded immediately, "I've seen it."

It was one of Shakespeare's classic comedies, and it was also Selena's favorite among Shakespeare's comedies.

It's about twin brother and sister who are separated in a shipwreck and think each other is dead.

The younger sister disguised herself as a man instead of her brother and became a servant of the Duke's family, and fell in love with the Duke, but the Duke loved another countess deeply.

The younger sister helps the Duke run errands to court the young lady, but the young lady falls in love with the younger sister who is disguised as a man and rejects the Duke.

The most important character in the play is the brave, passionate and innocent sister. She disguises herself as a man to accompany her sweetheart, loves him silently, pursues his sweetheart for him, but also hints at him from time to time that she loves him very much. .

Another female character in the play, the Countess whom the hero fell in love with, is smart, beautiful, kind-hearted, cherishes friendship, has a single-minded affection, and is bold and persistent. She rejected the love of the noble duke, but fell in love with the mistress who was just a small servant, and finally bravely wooed the twin brother who she mistakenly thought was her younger sister.

In the end, the two heroines both fulfilled their wishes and obtained their own happiness.

A very positive and beautiful work.

"This play is adapted from Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night", but the background is changed to modern times, which is more in line with the aesthetics and tastes of the current people. However, I don't want to make it a simple urban idol drama, so , the requirements for actors will be very high." Shen Mian explained.

Selena nodded her head to express her understanding, and at the same time, a flame suddenly ignited in her heart.

Shen Mian's script is definitely better than the one she read before!

In the previous script, she mostly went for the many exciting plots in the drama to be playable, after all, she still had selfish intentions, but this one is several levels higher in terms of plot and implication.

What's more, Shen Mian spent three years grinding it out!

Shen Mian stared blankly at the twilight outside the window, she was only in her early thirties, but the expression on her face was as if she had aged long ago, as if all her enthusiasm had been exhausted...

He sneered and said, "When I first entered the industry, I was passionate, for art, for dreams...but now...do you know how everyone makes movies now? It's not the director or screenwriter who decides what to make. But an investor! And a director? Not a creator, at best a puppet, just a part-time worker! Artist? That's bullsh1t!"

Listening to Shen Mian's words, Selena didn't know what to say. The current situation in the industry cannot be changed by the ability of one or two people.

In the end, even a talented director like Shen Mian still compromised, but Shen Mian still felt unwilling in his heart after all!

"Selena, there are some things that I need to clarify with you in advance. I plan to shoot this movie independently and will not accept any investment, so the salary I will give will not be too high.

Moreover, including you, all newcomers will be used, so the risk will be very high, and it is very likely that they will rush, and even the word-of-mouth you have worked so hard to accumulate before "The World" will be abolished. So, whether you want to pick it up or not, you have to think carefully about it.

"Shen Mian said, with a trace of tension in her eyes.

After finally meeting a Selena, he was going to die once, but he has no right to ask others to accompany him to go crazy...
