Chapter 9

Because it was rush hour and there was a serious traffic jam on the road, it was already late when Selena arrived.

Janice and Susie came out of the interview building with happy faces, surrounded by a group of people to congratulate.

Seeing Selena sweating profusely coming from a distance, Susie looked at her exactly the same way as five years ago.

Overlooking the eyes like ants.

Watching Susie get in the nanny's car and leave in a haughty manner, Selena didn't leave, but ran quickly into the building.

It's not too late now!

Halfway through the run, I bumped into a group of people talking and laughing head-on. They were the judges of the crew of "The World".

"Sorry, I'm late!" Selena bowed deeply.

Looking at Selena who suddenly blocked their way, the judges looked at each other with displeased expressions.

No one likes being late.

The assistant director said with a stern face, "The audition is over, what's the use of you rushing here now? Young people nowadays are becoming more and more unreliable!"

"I'm not here to audition for the female lead!" Selena said.

"Oh? You're not here to audition for the female lead? Then you're here to audition or something?" the screenwriter asked with interest.

"I'm here to audition for the second female lead, Meng Changge! As far as I know, you didn't find a suitable candidate for the second female lead last time!" Selena raised her head as soon as she finished speaking.

The moment Selena raised her head, the scene was silent for at least five seconds, and the eyes of the assistant director who had spoken in a bad tone just now were straightened.

I saw the girl with red lips and white teeth, black hair reaching to her waist, and a bright red dress with a collar. Such a strong color could not suppress her beauty and became her foil.

She just stood there quietly, as if she was standing in a forest full of misty mist, like a spirit fox who had practiced for thousands of years, those ecstatic eyes let people fall into the boundless spring scenery without paying attention, although she was very good Deep, but it seems that he has never set foot in the mortal world, and the bottom of his eyes is clear and clear...

"What's your name?" It wasn't until the director Guo Qisheng spoke that the judges woke up, as if they were having a beautiful dream.

"Selena."

Director Guo exchanged glances with the assistant director, screenwriter, producer, etc. beside him, and then said: "I have a little impression, isn't Empire an artist? You go back and prepare, the second female will be you! When the start time is up Will let you know."

"Thank you director, I will prepare well!" Selena bowed and thanked.

Selena's goal from the beginning was the second girl.

For this role, she pondered for three full months, trying her best to understand Meng Changge's feelings and temperament, and tried her best to impress the judges with just one glance.

Although there were many twists and turns, fortunately, she succeeded...

After Selena left, Director Guo sighed again and again, "It's really hard to find anywhere, and it didn't take much effort to get here! Although this girl signed with Empire, her qualifications are too bad. She came to audition for the lead role under such conditions. I didn't take it to heart at all, but I didn't expect that I am so much prettier than in the photo!"

Screenwriter Ye Linglong couldn't suppress her excitement, "The most important thing is her temperament. This girl's eyes just now are too good. Before Meng Changge became a disaster girl, she was an upright female general. She can be coquettish, But it must not be vulgar, and you must even maintain a pure and detached sobriety. Those artists who came to the audition before played me as the courtesan of a brothel, which really drove me to death!"

"Hahaha, don't be angry, don't be angry, isn't this finally your long song!"

At the same time, the First People's Hospital of City B.

The ward where Rick was located was full of people.

The little guy curled up on the window sill with his bare feet, his emotions were so agitated that he couldn't come down no matter what the doctors and nurses said.

Saul coaxed him sweetly from below, but they didn't buy him as his uncle at all.

There was no other way, so Saul had no choice but to quickly call back Daniel who had just been called away by the company.
