

CHEAT AWAKENING

Chapter 1: Chapter 1. Myne

Chapter 1. Myne

Forest Behind the Town of Lucas ...

Aaaaaaaaaa Helppppp

A loud ear-piercing scream sounded inside the Forest.

If I return to town safely I kill that motherf*cker old man, who says that storm rabbit is easy to hunt.

While I am still thinking about how easily I believe in that old man's words, a storm rabbit comes behind me and uses his skill [Strom kick] and kicks on my butt and sends me flying in the sky.

"Ahh," that kick was really powerful, although because of that kick I managed to save my life, but today I am probably not going to sleep peacefully, ahh, my butt..."I thought while rubbing my painful butt.

My name is Myne. I am 14 years old soon to be an adult and an apprentice hunter.

I was 9 years old when my parents pass away due to some sickness or something else, I really don't know the reason, but all I know is that they are dead.

After the deaths of my parents, I start living alone, like every other orphan.

But because my father was a professional hunter, when I become 5 years old he start teaching me about hunting And my mother was a retired advisor of the old king. my mother was from a high-class noble family.

It is still a mystery to me, how did my dumb father manage to seduce her and marry her in the end.

After marrying to father, my mother runs out of her home and comes to this Town with my father and becomes a housewife.

Because my father starts teaching me about hunting, my mother also started to teach me all types of general to deep knowledge about every topic that she knows, and although she was a woman but because she was from a noble family, her favorite topic in teaching was always is scamming peoples, politics, business, like how to read people, how to make profit any kind of situation, etc...

She wanted to teach me everything that she knows, that is why she makes a rule that in the family no matter what happened no one kept any secrets, and because my mother was the boss of the family, we can only follow her order like servants.

After that day my mother and father started telling me all kinds of gossip that happening in the town, who is the most idiot person in town, even about there's sexual life, everything about sex and how it feels good after having sex and how much time my father last, etc...

Because of this, since our house is not much big and we only have 1 main hall, 1 kitchen and 2 rooms after they start talking to me like a friend, I started to hear mother loud 'moan' every night.

The first time when I heard that I thought something happens to her but when I secretly peek into their room I show that mother riding on father completely naked and doing up-down and moaning loudly, while her E-cup size big breasts jiggling fastly, after that day they completely open in front of me and I received a permanent free sex show membership from them.

So yes you can say that I can watch sex every night and because in town alchemy shops also sell birth control pills they also didn't have to worry about pregnancy.

Anyway so because of 4 years of training with my parents, I learned many things from them and after their death, I don't have much trouble adjusting without them and also because they left enough money for me to survive 3 years without any kind of worry.

So even after their death, I managed myself quite well.

For most of my free 3 years ( because I don't worry about money ) I practice all skills that I learned from my parents.

I know that my parent's money soon will end so I made various types of traps that could be used to catch small animals like rabbits so I can sell them for some money.

Thanks to my mother's lessons, I can sell my gain at a good price and because of my little age, I can easily scam people with the help of my sweet words and cuteness ( that I took from my mother ). I also have a little talent that I easily find out words that make other people feel good, this trick works better with women, and managed to gain some profit no matter what I do. All thanks to my super mother.

'Ahh,' I really miss her, Myne thought sadly.

( A/J: by the way, your father was also dead you know! he completely forgets his father, poor soul.) ( A=Author, N=Note, J=Joke )

Today I came to the forest because the butcher old man, whom I always sell monsters that I hunt in the forest, said that on the west side of the forest some people saw Strom Rabbits.

Butcher Old man said that Strom rabbit is not a powerful monster and sold at a good price. Although I don't know if that news about Strom Rabbit is right or wrong but because I am already going on hunting, so I thought let's see if I find any Strom Rabbit, and now, I am heading towards the Lucas Town while bandaging my injuries.

Before returning home let's see if something is caught in my traps, Myne thought while checking the traps that he set up in the forest.

"Phew, there is also nothing here as well, it seems like is not my lucky day," Myun said unhappily.

These are a total of 6 traps and 5 traps that I checked to have no prey, now only one trap is left unchecked.

Although most of the time I hunt with my bow and arrow or dagger, and I rarely depend on traps but they are also a source of my little income until I receive my skills from awakening.

There are still 2 days before my awakening ceremony. After 2 days I will become 15 years old and officially an adult who can go to an awakening ceremony to awaken his skills.

Every adult receives different types of skills from their awakening.

While I am thinking about what kind of skill I will awaken... I heard a noise like a bird from the location where I set my last trap, and I hurriedly run in that direction.

"...Hmm? is that a guruppi??"

Since it's difficult to hunt a guruppi because most of the time they fly in the sky and hardly come to the ground. So their price is also quite high and if I am not wrong then I can sell them to the trading guide in 5 silver coins.

[ By the way,

10 copper coins = 1 silver coin,

100 silver coins = 1 gold coin, and

100 gold coins = 1 platinum coin. ]

I took out my bow from behind my back and start walking toward them silently.

When I was only 10 meters away from the trap, I saw that one guruppi caught in my trap while 2 guruppi standing behind her and making noise.

That trapped guruppi is probably a female otherwise what fuck are those two guruppi's doing there?

Without hesitation, I fired the arrow.

The sound of the arrow piercing through the forest.... Landed on the guppies it made a crying sound and plopped on the ground and die without knowing who killed him, what a sad life.

Just as I kill the first guruppi, the other guruppi starts to fly with all his might, but before he can make a proper distance between us, I also took his life as well.

With one more arrow, I also kill the third guruppi who is caught in the trap, and just like that, I made 15 silver coins, without much trouble.

Today I made a good profit, I thought happily while taking out my storage bag, which my father left for me. It's a normal convenient magic item that can store any item, except living beings. this storage bag can store 100 kg of items.

I picked up the carcass and put them into the storage bag and started to walk toward the town.....

After half hour later I arrived at the trading guide.

When I was about to enter the trading guide counter where we can sell or buy our things, I heard an annoying voice from behind me.

"Ah! boss why are you here, you just have ordered me, and I can complete your work."

I turned my head and saw black hair, blue eyes, thin body, but with a little cute-looking boy standing behind me with 3 other random boys.

This is Ansem, son of a trading guide leader.

He is the same age as me, and why is he calling me boss, because of a childhood incident.

When I am 6 years old, he starts to bully me, and after my mother found out about that, she strictly started to teach high-grade hand-to-hand combat and after 2 months of non-stop hellish training, I went all my anger of training on them and I beat the hell out of them. From that day onward he became my fan out of little fear, little respect, and start calling me boss.

"Ansem, how many times do I have to say to you that I am not your boss?"

"But boss you are the most powerful youth in entire Lucas town under 15."

He is calling me youth because I didn't turn 15 so I am not an adult yet.

"Because none of you motherf*ckers tries to train at all," I said annoyingly.

Hm? What's the matter? while I was ready to give Ansem and his gang members a little beating, I heard a heavy voice from behind me.

I look back and saw Ansem's father standing behind me while looking at Ansem angrily.

"Myne, did the Ansem trouble you again? guide leader asked me seriously." the guild leader asked with a frown.

"Dad, what are you talking and how can I give trouble to the boss?" Ansem answer immediately before I could say something.

Before those father and son start their family drama in front of me, I hurriedly said "It's all right guide leader we just talking."

After saying that I make a little excuse and after saying bye to everyone, I hurriedly run toward the exchange counter. I come in front of the counter where a young-looking female doing her work, we'll this can't consider work since she is just putting makeup on her face but I don't care about it and I just put down my all 3 guruppis on her desk.

After seeing the counter girl who seems to like to put on makeup even though she is only 21 years old like there is no more tomorrow, I immediately figure out that this girl likes to attract other people's attention otherwise why is she doing this useless work since there is already so much makeup on her face.

But people like her, I like them most in the business since they are too easy to manipulate.

The counter girl looked at me after seeing my prey on her desk and I give the counter girl a cute smile while saying "beautiful sister I want to sell them, can you help me please."

By the way, she is not that beautiful, If you put her on a beauty scale of 1 to 10, then she only receives 3 points on her beauty scale, she is not beautiful at all, and her boobs are flat like they didn't exist at all, but because I didn't want to offend her and lose my profits because of some stupid words, I have to do something that makes her happy and this trick always works.

After hearing a compliment from me, first, the counter girl nodded with satisfaction that I can see her beauty, after which she give me happy smile and said...

"Although normally we buy guruppi at the price of 5 silver coins but since you are a good boy, that's why your this beautiful sister will give you 6 silver coins for every guruppi."

( See, this trick always work. )

"Thank you, beautiful sister," I said while taking 18 silver coins from her and start walking towards my house.
