Chapter 103: What! You Guys Made Love?

Seeing yne silent without any intention of talking just starrng at the chilling, Anieue hurriedly spoke before things get out of hand according to him,

"Aah, don't misunderstand, I honestly don't care nor have any interest on what kind of secrets you have at all. Father seems to quite care about it, but... in the end, Sylphy didn't say anything about your skills to us.

After she said that she didn't know because she didn't ask at all, Father persuaded her by saying that it'll be fine if she tells him once she knows, but she firmly said that she will absolutely not talk about it ever again. Well, it's something you don't want to talk about, right? I don't mind that. What I know is that you have some kind of power other than the skills you were bestowed with.

I don't care about the details."

Huh? Now this is quite interesting, I didn't expect this kind of answer from him. Also, it seems like Sylphy didn't break her promise, well, maybe now I can at least trust her, Myne thought and look at Anieue with a confused face, not understanding what is he trying to say.

"Hahaha, you look like you're wondering about something. Right now, are you thinking "Why do I am talking about your skills, even though I said I didn't care?" Anieue said with a smug expression on his face.

Myne reflexively nodded his head.

"Let me see, first of all, you didn't come at me seriously, rather, at full strength because you don't want to reveal whatever your secret is, right?"

"One more thing, though you made a conviction to try fighting, you probably don't have much experience fighting with a person, if I am not right you might have never fought with some properly, of course, I am not talking about fighting with skills."

"The reason you lost in the previous fight is because your fighting style relies too much on skills like magicians, you are completely a novice in terms of melee fighting. You don't have enough experience in the so-called battle sense, or the way to move your body."

That doesn't matter if you're up against a monster, but if your opponent's another person, that's a completely different story," Aniue said with a deadly serious face.

Well although I already knew about it that I am a complete loser in melee fighting but hearing it from someone else really didn't give me a nice feeling, but I still didn't understand what he trying to say telling me all of this? Myne thought with a frown for some reason he is having very bad feelings after seeing Aniue's serious face.

"So as being your elder brother, It is my responsibility to help you, so from tomorrow onward I am going to train you," Aniue said with an evil ear-to-ear wide grin on his face.

"Huh? What!!!" Myne exclaimed loudly and stood up in shock.

"Did you not hear me? I said that I'll train you so that I can beat... I mean teach proper fighting techniques. Wow, by the way, I didn't expect that your little brother would be so big," Aniue said with amazement while looking at Myne's little brother with little envy.

"Hey, don't cast your evil eye on my little brother, I can take everything but this, also what do you mean by teaching me, aren't you going back tomorrow? After all, you will have much more important tasks than teaching me," Myne said angrily while hurriedly sitting down again in the bathtub, and hiding his little brother from a pervert.

"What nonsense are you talking about, I am just casually saying that your little brother is quite big even at such a young age, what do you take me as gay or something," Aniue said annoyingly while showing Myne his big fist.

"Well the way you are looking it, indeed not very pure, I have some doubt about your motive," Myne said suspiciously with one eye close.

This f*cker, maybe I shouldn't have told him to be relaxed with me, he was quite good when he was formal with me, Aniue thought while trying to control his anger, Sylphy is already angry with him, and he didn't want to give her more trouble beating Myne again, while he is still recovering from his previous injuries.

"Well let's forget about this topic, I want to train you for two reasons. First, although I didn't want to accept it, soon we'll become a family, I didn't want to see someone else other than me beat you, and second, so you can protect my cute little sister from every danger, do you understand that?

So when next we fight after your teaching, you must certainly have to win," Aniue said seriously while pointing his index finger at Myne who nodded his head speechlessly.

"Sigh, seem like my hard days are coming, If I had known that things would turn out like this, I probably should have used magic to win the fight, Myne thought with a face like crying without a tear.

"Okay stop making that kind of face, and come here I'll wash your back for you! Sit over there! Aniue said and forcefully drag Myne in front of himself and start washing his back with an evil smile on his face, which Myne of course didn't see, otherwise he would have defiantly run away.

Like this Myne obtained a master's without his will, and his lazy, comfortable life get messed up.

Myne who had his back scrubbed at full strength could only endure nothing but the pain. If not for the fact that he has the Rock Skin skill activated all time, maybe the top layer of skin on his back would have peeled off.

After taking a bath, and venting his anger on Myne's back Aniue left the bathroom with satisfy smile, and Myne while cursing Aniue all the time, again filled the bathtub with new hot water for Aisha and Sylphy.

Just as Myne came out from the bathroom, he saw Aisha and Sylphy standing in front of him with towels in their hands, clearly they are waiting for him to complete his work.

Sylphy shyly thanks Myne for his hard work and quickly enters the bathroom with a red face after seeing Myne half naked, Aisha who is long since used to raiding Myne and always sleeping with him naked didn't care about it, she gives him a kiss on the lips as a reward of his hard work, and also enter into the bathroom and close the door.

"Sigh, at least someone knows how to appreciate other work," Myne mumbled with a happy smile.

"Phew~, this is wonderful.... When did you guys build such an amazing thing?" Sylphy asked Aisha who just enter the bathtub surprisingly while submerging herself till her shoulders. She clearly remembers that it wasn't here when she visited this house before.

"Actually, after you departed, the both of us soon went to Adol for an adventure. We then stayed in a high-class inn, and Myne seem to like the bath there very much and said that he will build it once we returned home. He also said that it would probably make you happy as you might be used to taking baths daily," Aisha said softly with a smile, even though Myne never mention this thing.

"I see, he said something like that, huh? Although he didn't show it on his face, but he seems to care about me as well, no good, my face is get red by itself. Probably because I don't have any experience associating with the opposite sex up until now, I'm happy and embarrassed with such a trivial thing, Sylphy thought while trying to hide her shyness.

"B, by the way, has anything changed while I was absent?" Sylphy asked quickly to hide her embarrassment.

But as she said that Aisha's expression clouded a little while thinking about a lot of wild things she and Myne did.

"Are you alright Aisha?" Sylphy asked with a frown, she is having a bad feeling seeing Aisha like this.

Should I tell her the truth? After all, she is also going to marry Myne so it is natural to tell her that I and Myne already made love, right? Aisha thought and decide to tell Sylphy about her and Myne's deeds.

"I am very sorry, Sylphy, while you were not here, I and Myne went on the adventure, we spend our time together, and later things get a little further and unknowingly we both made love..." Aisha stop after saying the love word and her face become a little red, although now she doesn't get embarrassed easily while talking about sex-related things, but telling them to someone who is going to become her sister, she felt a little awkward.

Hmm? Made love?

What?!!!

"Explain to me in detail!" Sylphy exclaimed with shock, her tone became stern while she wasn't aware.

Aisha then explains all matters while removing some of the unnecessary information which can ruin her innocent and naive image in Sylphy's mind.

"You mean that Myne wanted to hunt trolls, so you guys went to the Adol town dungeon. There you stayed at the Inn, at first, you planned to take separate rooms, but because of some trouble, you guys only get a single room.

Later that night while you taking a bath, Myne come back from bringing food but after not finding you he accidentally enters the bathroom, and after some awkward moments, you guys took a bath together, and then things become serious and you guys ended up having sex together, right?" Sylphy asked and Aisha nodded her head.

Well, this is clearly stated by Lord Husband, so I can't say anything to Aisha, with her cowardly nature it is night impossible for her to make the first move. In the first place, it's not that like he had a relationship with a passing woman, Aisha is also her fiance so it was natural they had sex, and she is clearly much more close to Myne than me.

But since everything is normal then why I am feeling like I lose something very important, and this gloomy feeling that coming out from my heart... Sylphy thought while staring at the chilling with a sad face.

"I see, since it was you then I don't care much about it, anyway you have as much right to love him as I do, so don't worry. But tonight I will get him to love me, you don't have any objections, right?" Sylphy asked with a serious red face.

"Of course, I don't have any problem, You can have as much fun as want," Aisha said with a smile while giving Sylphy an Ok gesture.

Yosh, I've gotten Aisha's approval. I'm quite nervous, but at any rate, it's necessary to make a baby or two. Let's do this, you can do it Sylphy, Sylphy thought the fire of perverted determination can clearly be seen in her eyes.

"Ahm, by the way, Sylphy, didn't Elder Brother Aniue say that he will sleep in Myne's room tonight?" Just as Sylphy was making herself ready for the upcoming battle, Aisha pours cold water on her sweet dreams.

Aah, come to think of it he did say that, didn't he!? D, Dammit, this elder brother of mine!!! How far do you plan on being a hindrance to me, huh, I'll never forgive you!!! Sylphy scolds Aniue in her mind while greeting her teeth.

"Huh? Elder Brother what's wrong? After ruining my sweet sleep as well, you don't look happy," Myne asked seeing Aniue's shaking body.

"No, nothing, for some reason I suddenly felt a chill down my back," Aniue said with a frown while ignoring Myne's complaint.

"I see, maybe your soldiers would be missing you, after all, you have given them some days of vacation, and they would be feeling lonely without you," Myne said mocking while covering himself with the quilt, he has no mood talk entire night with his annoying elder brother.

Maybe..."
