Chapter 110: Elder Wife's Responsibility...

"Now then, Lord Husband. Let's exchange reports," Sylphy said while drinking tea made by Aisha.

"Um, sure," Myne nodded his head while eating snacks.

"We'll start first. The Town Lord easily give us permission to build the Clan House without any problems, and he also didn't ask for any fee for land and said everything is free, thanks to Mother-in-law and Father-in-law," Sylphy said with a smile.

"Huh? What do you mean?" Myne asked confusedly, he doesn't understand what did this have to do with his parents.

"Well Town Lord said that Mother-in-law and Father-in-law were beneficial to this town, and had saved the town from a lot of crises back then. They seem very well know figures when they are alive if only I can meet them at least once, sigh," Sylphy said sadly.

"Yes, I also wanted to meet Mother and Father and get their blessing while merring Myne," Aisha agree with Sylphy and nodded her head sadly.

Those two idiots, sometimes they really left me speechless, maybe I should give them some interesting to eat to increase their sad mood, also that fatty Town Lord actually willing to give such a big land for free?

Even though it is a deserted area but still it is in the town, looks like that fatty trying to get close to Sylphy in the name of giving her free land, Myne thought while rubbing his chin.

While Myne thinks about the fatty Town Lord scam, Sylphy finally put away her sad look and continues, "Well, that's the gist of it. Town Lord will visit us before long, so we'll draw up the contract for the land then. Honestly, the actual price of this area is overwhelmingly cheaper than I originally thought, probably because the land around our house is originally cheap.

It depends on the price of the quality materials, but it seems like the funds Father prepared for us would be more than enough for construction."

Well, that is a piece of good news, but I didn't like taking things free from someone without my skills, since that guy giving a favour he defiantly asks for something back, and this also applies to Sylphy's Father although he is King, but still better safe than getting embarrassed later if things go wrong, which is not what I wanted to see, so...

"Sylphy, let's forget about taking things for free, and pay for everything. It is not a good thing to hold others' favour. Anyway, combine with the money you brought, I think we have more than enough money to make our clan house. And if our house is not made by ourselves then how will we call it our," Myne said with a smile, making both Sylphy and Aisha stunned.

"Lord Husband, are you sure you don't want to take Father's help? We might not have enough money to build our clan house," Sylphy asked with worries.

"Hehe, don't worry, I'm not as poor as you think, and If later we run out of money, we just have to give a visit to your younger brother to gather the remaining funds, so you can relax," Myne said with a smile.

"Huh? What does this have to do with my younger brother?" Sylphy asked confusedly.

But Aisha who was also confused about where Myne going to get so much money, after hearing about Sylphy's younger brother, suddenly thought about Adol Town's dungeon, and understand everything.

"Let's talk about this matter later, you can ask Aisha, she understood what I mean, next is my turn to report," Myne said while giving Aisha a meaningful glance and told them what he discuss with Roku.

"I see, so if I am not wrong then it probably took a week or so before Mr. Roku finished his all work. Until then, we'll need to finish up the contract for the land before then. Seems like it'll be better for us to send out a fast messenger horse to Father. Let them dispatch it to a specialist to handle the design of the building and such, and make advance arrangements with Mr.

Roku, anyway at least he can do that much," Sylphy said, and this time Myne didn't refuse her suggestion.

After that, the three of them contributed various opinions, and after making a rough plan, they finished their discussion three hours later.

"Now then since our discussion is complete, you guys wait a little while I make dinner," Aisha said with a smile and stood up from the couch.

"No dear, you are not going anywhere, today I wanted to make dinner for everyone, just take it as a small gift from me. You just relax and leave the rest to me," Myne said while forcing Aisha to sit down on the couch again.

Then while ignoring Aisha and Sylphy's protest, he patted their head with a smile, and enter the kitchen.

"That is not fair, cooking food for everyone is my job, how can he kick me out of the kitchen? I hope he doesn't bring outdoor food again otherwise he is just asking for a beating," Aisha said angrily, but then with a sigh she lay down on the couch helplessly as she know that she can do nothing to change Myne's decision.

While Aisha was thinking about what Myne going to make for dinner with his low cooking skill, suddenly Sylphy who was sitting opposite to her, hurriedly run to her and directly jump on her couch, and ask with curiosity full eyes, "Aisha, tell me what is Lord Husband means when he said that about getting enough fund by just meeting my younger brother?"

"Ohh, about that, let's me tell from the start, anyway we have a lot of time now," Aisha replied with a helpless expression and start telling Sylphy about their adventure in the dungeon of strength, although before this she told her about it, but that time most of their talk was focused on her and Myne sex experience, so Sylphy still didn't know that there are a lot of powerful monster's dead bodies laying in Myne inventory.

While Aisha tells Sylphy Myne's deeds, Myne himself, on the other hand, prepares normal things which he can do, like making vegetable and fruit salad, different kinds of fruit juice, various types of sauces etc, after making all those side dishes, he took out main dinner course from his Inventory, which are super delicious dishes made by his Master chef Big Sister Maya, which are not only healthy but homemade as well, so Myne didn't have to worry if Aisha later complains that he again brought outdoor food home, as Maya, is not an outsider.

Yoch, everything is ready, after eating Big Sis Maya's hand food, Aisha and Sylphy defiantly become her fans, hehe, I am looking forward to seeing their dumbfounded face, Myne thought with an evil smile.

"Food's ready!!!" Myne called out, and Aisha and Sylphy hurriedly run into the kitchen like hungry beggars.

"Omg, Lord Husband! Did you make all of those dishes? How did you do that? Aisha said your cooking is not much better than mine, then how?" Sylphy asked surprisingly, while Aisha on the other hand inspect the fresh food on the dining table with a frown on her face.

Huh, weird, such wonderful dishes I don't think any Inn or restaurant chefs can make, they didn't have this level of cooking skill, then where did Myne bring their dishes, Aisha thought while wondering where Myne get those dishes. To tell the truth, even Aisha herself felt that those dishes are much better than what she made.

"Sorry, Sylphy, but this is my secret, I can't tell you guys where those dishes come from, but let me clear one thing, those dishes are fully homemade and not brought from outside, so some people don't have to look at me with suspicious eyes," Myne said with a forced smile and give Aisha a meaningful glance.

Aisha after hearing Myne's comment just stare at him for some second, before nodding her head, and sitting down at the dining table with Sylphy, while Myne served them dishes on their plates.

"Lord Husband, you really hide very well, I didn't expect that you can even clear the dungeon of strength, no wonder you didn't care about money, with Troll Gazer and the other two bosses' bodies, you can indeed earn enough money for our clan house without any problem," Sylphy spoke with half of her mouth filled with food.

"And those dishes are so delicious, many times more delicious than the ones made by Aisha."

"You foody don't talk while eating, where are your lady like manner, you are now behaving like Ted," Myne said and hit lightly on Sylphy's head.

"Ouch, it's hurt," Sylphy complain but her hand didn't stop and filled her mouth with more food, clearly, she's already surrendered to Maya's god-class cooking, and even forget her act well behave lady in front of Myna and Aisha.

Hearing that, Aisha and Myne spontaneously looked at each other helplessly, and then they started giggling.

"Phew, nothing is more comfortable than taking a bath in hot water after a long day," Myne said while relaxing.

After dinner, Myne wanted to clean the tableware, but this time neither Aisha nor Sylphy give him any face, and directly threw him out of the kitchen while rolling up their sleeves and saying 'don't rob other people's work.'

Although Myne didn't understand when did he rob their work, as he is just in a very good mood, and wanted to give them free time but since they didn't want then what can he do, so he decide to take a bath before going to sleep.

So he heated up the bath, according to regulating the water temperature, and because he is already experienced doing this, it was ready in just five minutes, the fastest so far.

if only it was a little less steamy then it would be perfect, now it is very hard for me to see anything, While doing nothing but thinking that, Myne heard the sound of the door opening, and someone came into the bathroom.

"Ohh, Aisha, you naughty girl, can't wait to have fun with me huh? What if Sylphy finds out that you are missing? Doesn't she feel sad?

You can just wait a little more we can start our couple's thing in the bedroom without being disturbed by anyone, right?" Myne said lazily with a smile, although he said that he wanted to wait so Sylphy doesn't feel sad, but deep down he himself wanted to eat Aisha very much, and now since she come to him, then there is no chance that she can leave before playing two or three round.

"Huh? Aisha, why are you so silent?" Myne said with a frown and look at the door, and saw that person's body swung with a start as he called out Aisha's name again.

Is it Aisha??? Wait a minute. It isn't Aisha?? Then...

"Don't tell me Is that it you, Sylphy?" Just Myne as said that, that person's body trembled violently, and she hurriedly opened the door in a panic and exited the bath.

Well, seem like next time before speaking I should confirm the other party's identity, otherwise, Sylphy might become more embarrassed. But what the hell she is doing here in the first place even after knowing that I am in? Myne thought confusedly while rubbing the back of his head.

"Why the hell did you run out? What in the world you do if just run out like a child? He is your husband, you have to face him today or tomorrow. So listen carefully now, unless you tell your feeling to him, don't even think about coming out from the bathroom as I am locking the door from outside, now go and do what you are telling me for the last two days," Aisha said angrily in lord's voice.

Probably frustrated by listing Sylphy's continuous nonsense.

Myne who faintly heard their conversation couldn't help but give thumbs-up to Aisha, although she know that helping Sylphy get close to Myne would only reduce her time with him, but she still did her best to help Sylphy, this kind of thing not many people can do.

"Sigh, now my respect for Aisha increased by directly 10 levels, I really have the vision in choosing a wife, and I will make sure that she never has sadness on her face, just because I can't give her enough time," While saying that Myne determines to give Aisha top priority in his heart.

"But I am ahh..." Although Sylphy wanted to say something, but Aisha didn't listen to her, she grab her hand, open the bathroom door, and push her in before closing the door.

Maybe this is not enough to open her up in front of Myne, Aisha suddenly thought after closing the door, and then she hurriedly opens the door again and in front of Sylphy and Myne's surprised eyes, she grab Sylphy's bath towel which was wrapped around her body and pull it off, making her completely naked, and again quickly close the door, and lock it from outside.

"Now they can communicate properly like a real couple, I am really genius but sigh, it seems like today I am going to sleep alone without having Myne's little brother inside me. I am really missing it," Aisha said while exhaling a deep breath. She put down her hand inside her skirt, and touch her wet panty helplessly.

"I hope tomorrow Myne can calm down my heat, it is really not easy to become an elder wife, sigh..."
