

Cheat. A 111

Chapter 111: Special Night Part 1 (Half R-18)

With the opening and closing of the door, the steam became a lot less compared to before, and Myne can see the beautiful views in front of him clearly.

Sylphy after seeing that she was standing in front of Myne naked, hurriedly wrap one arm on top of her small breast, which weren't as small as Myne thought and the second one between her leg to hide her most important part. Her face was red as a tomato, and she continuously looked toward her feet nervously, sweat start falling down from her forehead, and her body was shaking once in a while.

Myne look at the fine large tits spilled free, with an astounding size and ripe roundness, each one stood firmly completely ignoring the laws of gravity. A pale pink areola surrounding her jutting nipples. Her flat abdomen held traces of muscles, likely the result of her training, and her amazingly wide hips and extra thicc thighs stole his gaze.

Sigh, if only she wasn't so nervous, she looks really cute I want to tease her, but I doubt that if I tease her even a little she might directly pass out from embarrassment, Myne thought with a helpless smile while looking at Sylphy voluptuous body with lustful gaze. Then he took a deep breath to calm down his little brother and throw his towel which was placed beside him toward Sylphy.

The towel directly falls on Sylphy's face, coughing her off guard, but she soon comes back to her sense, and hurriedly wrap the towel around her body and covered her private parts.

He give me the towel, doesn't this means he didn't want to see my naked body? I hear from some maids that when men see a naked woman they lose their control and show their true selves, and will do sex with them no matter if that woman wants it or not. Does this mean he has no interest in me? He doesn't even look at me carefully, am I so ugly? Seem like he only considers Aisha his wife, huh?

Maybe I am doesn't matter much to him, but this is also not his fault, it was me who wanted to marry him for my own benefit, we never had a love for each other.

Maybe I am thinking too much that he will love me if I help him in every possible way, such an idiot am I, Sylphy thought with a sad smile, and wanted to go out of the bathroom, but suddenly found that the bathroom door is locked from outside.

Aisha really lock the door from the outside, I thought she was just joking to scare me, seem like she is already considering me as her sister. Sigh, she is really a nice woman, I can never be nice as her, I am just a fork in the road in both of their lives, maybe after marriage, I should just leave them alone, instead of disturbing their life...

"Are you finished overthinking?" While Sylphy's train of thought drifted further and further away from the right track, suddenly Myne's calm voice brought her back to reality.

"Huh? What do you mean, Lord Husband?" Sylphy asked confusedly.

"If you really wanted to know, then come here and wash my back, your today's free service ticket is over, and now, if you want anything from me you have to pay for it," Myne said with a smile and turn around, move a little further, making some space for Sylphy behind him in the bathtub and again sit down while facing his back toward Sylphy.

Sylphy heard Myne reply, and her face became even redder, she took many deep breaths to calm down her speedy heart and slowly walked toward Myne. The closer she approached the bathtub the faster her heart beat.

After coming behind Myne, she picks up the washing cloth from the bucket, slowly enters the bathtub and sits down behind him embarrassingly, and then with trembling hands, she gently starts washing Myne's back.

I am washing a man back, I never have done something like before, I hope I don't mess everything up, Sylphy thought.

After feeling Sylphy breath calm down a little, Myne spoke again bringing Sylphy back from her thought, "Tell me Sylphy, what do you think about Aisha, what type of woman she is?"

Hearing Myne's question Sylphy take aback, but since she didn't want to disappoint Myne more, she thought a little and reply honestly, "Aisha is the nicest person I ever saw, she is beautiful, innocent, brave, intelligent, gentle, and many more. Although from the age she is clearly younger than me, but in reality, she is actually an elder sister to me, whom I can rely on.

She show me the right path when I was confused and encouraged me when I was depressed... She is the same as my mother, an ideal to me, whom like I want to be," Sylphy said emotionally with a smile while wiping Myne's back.

Haha, she really thinks very highly of Aisha, Myne thought with a chuckle.

"Yes, she has quite some traits you describe but believe me she is not that perfect. Aisha also has some bad habits, it's just you don't know about that yet. Anyway, now tell me if you get a chance to become like Aisha, what would you do?" Myne asked.

"I will try my best to hold that opportunity and never let it go," Aisha said with a little hesitation.

"Haha, you really have good spirit," Myne said while laughing then he turns around and sits down face to face with Sylphy, and while looking into her eyes, he asked with a smile, "Then answer me Sylphy, since Aisha is trying her best to make us close, so we all become a family, then why are you think that you are a burden on me and Aisha?"

"What!! How do you know that I am thinking about it?!" Sylphy exclaimed with shock.

Myne didn't answer Sylphy's question and continued, "Do you really think that if I or Aisha didn't like you, then we still try to get close to you? Don't you realise how causally we are behaving with you recently? That is because we already accept you as a family member.

Although you might be older in age from both me and Aisha, but in reality, to Aisha, you are her younger sister, and to me, you are my cute little hard-working wife, nothing more than that. So never even think that we both don't love you and you are the third wheel between me and Aisha, do you understand?" Myne said with a smile while gently patted on her head.

Sylphy at first didn't react but soon her eyes filled with tears, she didn't care about her image or shyness anymore. She directly jump into Myne's embrace, and soon the sound of sobbing echoed throughout the bathroom.

"Thank you for accepting me, and giving me a place in your family and heart, I promise that I will never let our family suffer because of me," Sylphy said while crying heartedly in Myne's embrace.

Myne who long know that Sylphy holding something deep in her heart, let her cry so that all her negative emotions can come out, this kind of thing is very normal in the noble and royal families who hold their true emotions all their life just to maintain their aloof image.

For Sylphy who just spend some days with Myne and Aisha, and is still willing to let go of the emotion hidden deep in her heart shows that her childhood was not like other royal families and there is the warmth of family to protect her from becoming cold and emotionless.

Sylphy cried for around 5 minutes in Myne's arms like a child while telling him her all bad memories which left some shadow in her heart, Myne, of course, listened to her all stories painterly while crashing his hand gently on her back making her more comfortable, but doing that unknowingly he also unlocks her towel which is already fall into bathtub, but because Sylphy was lost in emotions she didn't realise that she was laying naked in Myne embrace.

"Thank you, Lord Husband, for listening to me, I am feeling very light now," Sylphy said shyly while getting out of Myne's embrace but then she accidentally looked down and saw Myne's little brother giving his salute to her.

Sylphy's eyes bulged in surprise... Omg, how can it be so big? Although Aisha said that it is very big, I thought she was joking, will it even fit in me? Sylphy thought with eyes wide open but soon she realized what she was doing so she quickly averted her gaze and saw Myne looking her up and down very attentively.

Huh? Why is Lord Husband looking at much with such eyes? Sylphy thought embarrassingly, but then her eyes fall on the towel under the water on which she was sitting, then she look at herself and finally realised why Myne looking at her so seriously.

"Ahhhh!!!!" Sylphy screamed out of surprise, and hurriedly wanted to hide her private parts but Myne quickly grab her hands and stop her from doing what she wanted to do.

"Sorry dear, but not this time, unless you tell me those three magical words which I know you know, I won't release your hand, now it depends on you how long you want to let me see your beauty," Myne said with an evil smile while licking his lips pervertedly, he ignores Sylphy struggle and starts observing her entire body carefully.

"Hum, even though your boobies are a little, I mean a lot small than Aisha but they have their own beauty, maybe after getting my daily massage, increasing their size is not impossible," Myne said while touching Sylphy's boobs with his face, as his hands are busy holding Sylphy.

"Please, don't say such words," Sylphy said while trying to get free from Myne's iron-like grip but after seeing Myne have no mood to let her go, she took a deep breath, and finally gather her courage to say three magical words, "I Love You."

"Huh? Did you say something? I didn't hear it clearly can you respect it," Myne said teasingly, finally removing his eyes from Sylphy's C-Cup size perfect shape boobs.

Before today Sylphy always wore a very tight bra out of old habit as a knight she need to do various flexible movements during fights, and big boobies can only drag her back, so Myne always thought that Sylphy's breast is A-Cup size, but only today he realises that she is hiding her treasure very deeply.

"I Love you, Lord Husband," Sylphy spoke in a loud voice embarrassingly while lowering her head, now she wish she can find a hole in the ground and bury her face in it.

"Good, always remember that I love you as much as I love Aisha," Myne said with a smile, while putting his index finger under Sylphy's chin and raising her face.

Sylphy looked at Myne's calm face with a gentle smile, although she didn't know what going to happen next, but her heart told her to just close her eyes, giving him the consent to do whatever he wanted with her.

Myne seeing Sylphy's funny expression as she close her eyes, and waited for his action, didn't tease her anymore, he got closer and locked his lips with her's in a soft, warm, and moist embrace. After a few moments of this gentle kiss.

Sylphy whose first kiss was finally stolen by Myne, couldn't help but open her widely while breathing heavily.

Myne who is already very experienced in kissing, in order to make things more entertaining, instead of using his kissing skill to impress Sylphy, lets her take control while he becomes passive. They switched between locking their upper and lower lips every few moments.

Sylphy who has no idea what to do during kissing just lets her body do the thing which resulted in a sloppy kiss only steered by instinct and passion.

But it didn't mean that the kiss wasn't enjoyable.

"Mnnhh~"

Sylphy hummed in his mouth, her mind melting in pleasure and happiness. She cupped Myne's face with her hands, leaning and pushing her body on him as she did so, wanting to get as close as she could.

Although Myne having a lot of fun, but because it was Sylphy's first kiss Myne didn't tease her too much, and quickly removed his lips from her while giving her time to breathe.

"Hahaha, are you okay? You look like you just run dozens of kilometres," Myne said while laughing and hugging Sylphy more tightly to make her calm.

"Don't tease me, Lord Husband, this is new to me," Sylphy said fake angrily and hit her fist on Myne's chest gently.

"Sorry, sorry, I won't do this again all right," Myne spoke with a smile.

"Lord Husband, if you don't mind, then let's make love..."
