

Cheat. A 115

Chapter 115: An Uninvited Guest

Morning...

Sylphy open her eyes slowly and saw an empty bed beside her confusedly.

Huh? Was what happened the last night just a dream? Sylphy thought but soon she saw the mess-up bed and herself laying naked on it and understand that wasn't a dream.

"If it wasn't a dream then where is Myne?" Sylphy mumbled and stood up, but before she could step forward her legs trembled and she fall down on the bed.

"Sigh, Myne was too rough last night, I can't even stand properly, but now I think about it, I really wanted to do it once more, if only Myne was here, I can make more love with him," Sylphy spoke helplessly, and after trying sometimes, she manage to walk but very awkwardly.

After that, she wears some of Aisha's loose clothes without any bra or panty, which she found in the wardrobe and walks out of the bedroom, and heads toward her own room.

"Aisha's clothes were in Lord Husband's room, doesn't that mean that both of them are sleeping together in the same room all the time? Then why did they give me a separate room?

I don't mind staying with them in the same room, and the bed is also big enough that all three of us can sleep together," While mumbling unhappily Sylphy open the door of her room, but seeing the view in front of her, she opened her eyes wide with shock before closing the door again.

"Maybe I should try to prepare breakfast, they look quite tired, let's not disturb them, but just how much love they made that they mess up the entire room? I think I still need to learn a lot of things, I will ask about it Aisha later, and Lord Husband is also so mean, can't they stay with me for at least one night?

It is not like Aisha was going anywhere," Sylphy spoke jealously while walking toward the kitchen.

But unknown to Sylphy just as she closes the door, Aisha who just fall asleep around 1 hour or so ago after making love the entire night like a wild animal in every possible position both of them could think, slowly opens her tired eyes with a smile plaster on her face.

Hahaha, she is defiantly jealous as hell after seeing my and Myne's deeds. I shouldn't tell her about Myne's skill which can recover stamina although he never himself told me about it but even an idiot can understand after recovering from exhaustion magically within some second.

Let's tease her a little when she asks me about it later, I would make a random story, hahaha, I can't wait to talk to her, Aisha thought and get out of Myne's bear-like hug.

"Well, last night was really amazing, my pussy was still quite sore, thank god Myne use his stamina-recovering skill on me before falling asleep otherwise, I might not be able to open my eyes now," Aisha said and look at Myne who was sleeping like a baby, she then gives him a kiss on his forehead, and wear her clothes scattered around the room.

"Now where the hell did Myne put my panty? I think I heard him saying something like taking it as a reward. Forget it I will ask him later when he wakes up," Saying such Aisha walks out of the room. She first washes her face, before going into the kitchen where Sylphy again making an unknown dish.

"Good Morning," Aisha spoke while taking her apron hanging on the wall, and putting it on herself.

Hearing Aisha's voice, Sylphy look at her with surprise as she didn't expect that she would wake up so soon, but she quickly come back to her sense, and greeted her back with a smile, "Good Morning."

"Here is your bowl Myne," Aisha said while handing a bowl filled with meat soup to Myne on the dining table.

"Thank you, Aisha," Myne said while taking a bowl from Aisha and looked at Sylphy who was eating breakfast with a depressed expression on her face.

"Hey, what's wrong with her? Why is she making that kind of gloomy expression?" Myne asked low to Aisha who just sit down beside him.

"Haha, don't worry about her, she just tried to cook something again, but the result was quite bad, so she is a little depressed she should be fine after some time," Aisha said calmly.

But Myne who felt little bad for Sylphy, put down his bowl on the table and lightly patted her head.

"Cheer up Sylphy, every new thing starts with failure, no need to be depressed because you didn't succeed in making a dish, just don't give up, try again, next time ask Aisha more questions, and you will defiantly succeed. Remember, A wise man once said that failure is the mother of success.

So be positive and eat your breakfast now before it gets cold," Myne said with a smile, motivating Sylphy who was on the verge of crying.

"Since you believe in me, I will do my best, thank you for encouraging me Lord Husband," Sylphy said with a smile while making a cute face.

Seeing Sylphy's speed of changing mood, both Myne and Aisha shook their head helplessly.

"So Sylphy how was your first time?" Aisha who doesn't like silence while eating, in order to make breakfast more interesting asked Sylphy.

Just as Sylphy heard Aisha's question, she quickly recalls her and Myne's deeds, and couldn't help but bashfully looked downward in shame.

"Hahaha, why are you so embraced? Here is no outsider, we all are family, right? Tell me about your experiences, after which I will tell you mine, and believe me you like it a lot," Aisha said in a teasing tone, making blush both Myne and Sylphy.

"Stop messing with her, can't you see she is feeling awkward, she is not like you, she needs some time before she can fully open up with us," Myne who couldn't take Aisha's teasing anymore lightly hit on her head, and said with a frown.

"Ouch, that hurt, don't hit on my head all the time, what if I become an idiot?" Aisha complained with a puffed-out face.

"Don't worry about it if someday you become an idiot, then I will take care of you, so now silently eat breakfast," Myne said with a poker face.

Seeing Aisha and Myne's lovely quarrel, Sylphy who is feeling shy couldn't help but laugh out loudly attracting both of their attention on her.

"Hahaha..."

Like this, they eat breakfast in harmony

A week passed in a blink of an eye. During this entire week, Myne spends most of his time accompanying Aisha and Sylphy.

Other than eating and sleeping, Myne was making love with both girls. At the start, it was still relatively peaceful but later as if both of them made a bet or something, they both become very wild and whenever they saw him free, they directly jump on him like hungry beasts and then start nonstop f*cking session until they won't pass out from fatigue.

Although Myne also liked this kind of life very much, but later even with his Stamina Recovery skill it become a little difficult for him to handle both of them.

But finally just when Myne thought that he is about to get the title of loser who can't even satisfy his wives, one day fatty Town Lord come to his house saving his dignity. Not only he but Roku who come to the preliminary inspection of the Clan House site, and the construction specialist from the capital city requested by Sylphy also came.

Myne and Sylphy spend some time with them and further perfect their clan house construction plan. This process last 4 hours before all three of them said farewell, giving Myne some peace.

"Ahaha, seems like you guys are working hard, wait for a little let me make something interesting for both of you," Aisha said with a smile while looking at Myne and Sylphy who were laying on top of each other on the couch like a dead dog.

"Aisha is very lucky, she doesn't have to worry about those kinds of tiring work," Sylphy said envyingly, she was being tortured by Town Lord's nonstop questions for 3 entire hours, and so tried that she didn't want to move a finger now.

"Yes, you are right, but this is also good, otherwise if all three of us now laying lazily then who cooks delicious food for us?" Myne said with a chuckle while hugging Sylphy more tightly and burying his face deeper into her boobies, which grow a little after getting a fair amount of massage from him every day.

"Lord Husband, please don't hug me so tightly, I am covered with sweat, and smelling unpleasantly," Sylphy said shyly but didn't do anything to move Myne away from her, clearly she is just saying for formalities, and actually liked being cuddled by Myne.

"Bow-bow-bow..."

"Woof-woof-woof..."

Just when Myne wanted to say that he don't mind her sweating small at all, suddenly he heard Ted and his father barking voice, seem like someone has come in front of his house.

"Sigh, don't go anywhere I will come back quickly. I still want to rest on my most fragrant boobies pillows," Myne said while giving Sylphy a light kiss on her lips, before walking toward the main door.

Myne open the door and saw the figure of an imposing carriage at the entrance of his house.

The whole carriage was coated in pitch black, and the edges are ornamented with a golden colour, with a flag hanging on the top of it which he doesn't recognise. An extremely extravagant-looking carriage.

Ted and his Father stood at the entrance of the house, barking at a middle age uncle magnificently dressed in a stylish butler uniform with a splendid moustache, and stopping him from entering the courtyard.

"Okay, Ted, calm down, and you uncle who are looking for?" Myne asked with a frown, he can already predict that this butler's uncle and whatever in the carriage is nothing but big trouble for him, so he didn't try to be polite with him.

"Finally, you are willing to come out, are you the owner of this house? We have heard that Your Highness Sylphid is here and arrived to visit her," The butler said in a loud and arrogant voice as if he is talking to his servant.

"Huh? Princess Sylphid? I've never seen her. you might come to the wrong address, why not you go in that direction, if you drive the carriage fast maybe you can meet her after 7 or hours later," Myne said innocently without any hesitation while pointing toward the capital city.

"What did you say? Are joking with me, boy? Do you even know whom are you messing..."

"Enough!!!"

Just as the butler trying to scare Myne, a man wearing elegant clothes with excessively extravagant ornaments on them came out from the carriage stopping the butler from speaking further.

This man has a slim build body, big black colour hair, a fox-like face, and sharp eyes with dark circles under them as if he is heavily addicted to narcotics and hasn't slept very well for many days. Completely refreshing image of a real noble which Myne has in his mind.

A real noble, wickedness gleams from his face. Sighhh, here goes my peaceful afternoon nap, Myne thought helplessly staring at the enemy of his peace.

As Myne was thinking that while looking at that noble, the first thing that came out of his mouth was something which Myne predict just after seeing his expression.

"Aah, what is the meaning of this! For a Royal and lovely person like Her Highness Sylphid to stay in such a dirty little shack!!"
