Chapter 124: Definition of A True Brother...

Seriously! Are you kidding me now? What kind of nonsense is this? Other than some simple information, and a little bit about her skills which look very powerful by the way, appraisal show me nothing, also a lot of question marks are okay but why the hell are there so many weird symbols in her status?

I had no idea what the f*ck they are, Myne thought dumbfoundedly this is the second time he failed to see other people's information, and now he is having doubts about Appraisal skill's godly power.

Maybe Appraisal skill is not as powerful as I thought, but anyway, if you can't see her other information so that's it. It's not like I wanted to steal her skills in the first place.

Sigh, if only I can see her age, but looking at her beautiful young face I think her age shouldn't be too big, otherwise things would become very difficult if later I made up my mind, but I can't see much hope about it this time since she already has four big children, Myne thought while starring at Sylphy's mother imposing figure.

Sylphy's mother is a very beautiful lady with long black hair, an undescrivable attractive face, big and round blue color eyes, a short nose, red lips which just seeing people wanted to taste, a perfect hourglass shape body with a two giant G-Cup size breast, which are also the main reason of Myne falling for her at first sight, big bubbly butt, and many other wonderful places hidden in her long seductive blue color dress which are currently unavailable for him or any other men in this world other than The King her husband.

Seeing Myne starred at her full of admiration like an ill child who had just gotten out of the house first time, and watches everything like it is the most beautiful thing in the world, Garnet laughed a little while coming close to Myne, and pinched his cheeks gently with a smile on her red lips.

Then she lower her face and whispered in Myne's ear with her sweet voice, "You shouldn't just casually appraise a girl, you know."

Ahhh... She smells so nice, and she is too close her boobies are touching my chest, this is not good, at least not when I am now with so many people. Aaahhuu, Calm down Myne otherwise you will definitely get the official title of pervert today, Myne thought while taking deep breaths and trying to calm down.

As for Sylphy's mother knowing that he was appraising her, Myne doesn't care about it since he knows that at this moment everyone in the room other than Aisha is aware of his original skills.

"Sorry about that, I did it out of habit accidentally, I can't control it, so please forgive me oh, beautiful young lady, next when I meet you again I won't use my skill," Myne said flirtingly while bowing in front of Garnet, shamelessness runs in Myne every vein and there is no way he would stop trying to impress a girl no matter if she is the queen or mother of 4 fully grown children, as long as she is beautiful and have a good character, with some well-developed body parts, Myne willing to do almost anything within his limit to get under her panties.

"Fuu, haha, you are really interesting, it has been a long time since someone has talked to me so carelessly like you, let's not talk about flirting with me, and that too in front of my husband and children, hahaha, as expected of my son-in-law," Garnet spoke happily while giving Myne a tight hug, and patting on the top of his head.

While Garnet giving Myne otherworldly pleasure with her super-size giant boobs, Sylphy who finally couldn't take it anymore came into view after clearing her throat loudly, "Mhm, Ahem!!"

"Ahh, dear, what's the matter? Did you catch a cold? Sylphy, your wedding ceremony is coming up, you know, it would be bad if you get cold during such an important event. Shall I prepare a decoction for you?" Garnet asked playfully trying to act innocent while pressing Myne's head deeper into the chasm of her giant soft boobies.

F*ck yes!!! I am in heaven, Sylphy is really a good wife, she now how to make her husband happy, I'll thank her nicely later, Myne thought with closed eyes, as Garnet continued to massage his head between her soft heavenly boobs.

"I am extremely healthy, Mother! ...Rather, Hahaue! Please get away from Lord Husband, you're spoiling him!! Look at his face, it has become red from lack of breath," Sylphy said angrily and pull Myne out of heaven.

"Ohh my, is my little daughter jealous of her own mother? That's really a foolish thing to see. But I have taken a liking to my son-in-law. He is so cute and brave after all, completely my type, hehehe," Garnet said playfully making Sylphy's face red from embarrassment.

"Hey, I am not jealous, I just worry about Lord Husband," Sylphy hurriedly tried to defend herself.

"As If I believe in your nonsense. Dear, I gave birth to you, you did not give birth to me, that's why I know you more than you yourself," Garnet said with a smile while pinching Sylphy's cheek.

Hearing the heartwarming conversation between the mother and daughter, Myne who was left alone by both of them, finally manages to calm down the boiling heat inside his body little by little.

Not caring whether the conversation going in a completely different direction before everyone knew it, Aisha and Ayri were also dragged into it, and it became quite chaotic very quickly.

So this is the legendary girl's talk? It has quite a terrifying power indeed, Myne thought worriedly while shaking his head as he was forgotten by all three beauties and a cutie.

Same as Myne, Faren, and Aniue after seeing that the ladies' talk is not going to stop anytime soon, they also decide to not disturb them and move toward Myne along with Lewis, and another person who seems to be a little younger than Ayri.

"You've already met Lewis, right?" Aniue asked with a smile, and seeing Myne nod his head, he brought the young boy in front of himself.

"This is the Third Prince Rector. Though we have different mothers, he's my precious little brother, so you get along with him as well," Aniue said while patting Rector's head.

Rector is a young boy age around 14 years, with long black hair, and brown eyes, and looks very different in front of his other brothers and sisters, but he is also very cute and well-behaved, without any hint of arrogance or ego on his face, which shows that even after being the child of the second queen his childhood spend very well.

"Yo, I am Myne, I hope we can become friends Tector," Myne said with a smile and move his hand forward.

It's Rector, not Tector, Brother Myne it is unfair, you treat Ayri like a princess and even give her gifts but when it was my turn you even forgot my name within just some seconds, Rector poutily replied while holding his hand and shaking it with lightly.

"Ohh my dear younger brother, let me tell two truths about the world.

The first one is, never hope that boys will get the same treatment as girls from anyone, and the second is, never expected that a real brother who loves you would treat you nicely, yes, he will help in your trouble time, will even be ready to put his life on the line, but if he treats you gently and lovingly daily without making any kind of trouble for you, then either he does not consider you a real brother and just acting to be a good brother for formalities, or he has some ulterior motives," Myne said with a deadly serious expression.

Hearing Myne's golden words, which can make even a world-class scholar speechless, everyone present in the room couldn't help but look at him with surprise.

"Wow! Brother-in-law, I didn't expect that you have such a high wisdom, this kind of thing, I am afraid not even many well-known scholars could say," Lewis said with a surprised expression on his face. Beside him Faren his father also nodded his head, he was also quite surprised by Myne's wisdom, this level of deep knowledge is not something that can be seen in commoners.

"Sylphy, I think your Lord Husband is much more interesting than I expected, You wouldn't mind if I borrowed it for a while later, would you? Maybe he can help me with my work, you know just how troublesome those calculations are in my work right? Garnet said with a smile.

"Sorry, Mother, I have to deny your request, although I have to admit that Lord Husband is indeed very intelligent for a commoner but this doesn't mean that I can let him work with you all day long, don't forget he also has a clan to manage," Sylphy said with a frown.

"Well, don't deny me so quickly, let's talk about it later, maybe my Son-in-law wouldn't mind helping his Mother-In-law," Garnet said playfully while messing with Sylphy's hair dotingly.

"Brother Myne, is what you true? Then doesn't this mean that I won't get any gift?" Rector spoke with an unbelievable expression.

"Well, you can say that, but I am not so cheap person who couldn't give his younger brother any gift, but of course, it won't be free, if you complete a simple task given by me, then I will give a wonderful reward which you will earn by your own effort. So do you want to take my task?

Remember once you say yes, then there is no turning back, either you complete it and take your reward or you can just give up and cry silently," Myne said while looking into Rector's eyes, waiting for the fish to take a bit.

"Yes, I am willing, Elder Brother Aniue always told me that if you don't have the courage to take risks then you will never become a powerful man," Rector said seriously but thanks to his immature face he look very cute.

"Good, Elder Brother Aniue is really the best example of how a real brother should be, now come with me, the task I am going to give can only stay between you and me if other people know about it, then you might as well say goodbye to your wonderful reward," Myne said while giving Aniue a thumbs up for making his fun more interesting, and then he put his arm on Rector's shoulder before walking toward a random corner for privacy.
