

Cheat. A 128

Chapter 128: What! When Did You Get Married?!!!

"Hey what are doing, let me go, you idiot can't you see I am angry, let me go," June said angrily while hammering her fists on Myne's back.

"Sure I will, after you forgive me, by the way, why are you not wearing anything below your skirt? Although I am not complaining but still feeling your wet pussy on my arm ruining your all effort, after all you are currently angry rather than horny right?" Myne said with an evil smirk on his face.

June who was still struggling a moment ago violently stop suddenly hearing Myne's words, then she saw his knowing smirk and her face couldn't help but turn red from embarrassment. Since she just come back from work, and other than Myne who was also her half-boyfriend no one ever come to her house to visit her, so she actually wore very casual clothes at her house.

Before Myne knock on her door, she was preparing to make dinner and only wearing an apron on her naked body, so when she heard Myne's voice, in the excitement she only wore her one-piece dress she just remove and hurriedly open the door. But who'd have thought that Myne would carry her up like a child, exposing all her fake attempts to make Myne feel guilty for ignoring him?

"Shut up, this is none of your business what I wear in my own house, okay? Now take me down, otherwise..."

"Otherwise what! Do you kick me out of your house? Or will you beat me to death with your soft and tender hands?"

Believe me, this is not going to work, of course if you start biting me, then maybe I can get hurt, and release you without getting your sweet kiss and forgiveness," Myne said with a pondering expression while pushing June up a little to feel her soft boobs with rock hard nipples rubbing on his chest.

Hearing Myne open challenge June becomes silent, after all, she can't just bite Myne to death just because he is trying to persuade her for ignoring her, and although she is struggling to get out of Myne's embrace but in reality she herself enjoying it very much, otherwise she wouldn't be wet down there for no reason.

"Haha, don't hurry, take your time and think properly, we have an entire night ahead for us, by the way, what is in dinner, I am dying from hunger right now," Myne asked with a giggle, seeing silent June who was trying to hold back her true emotion. Then he locks the main door and walks toward the kitchen still carrying June on his arm, to see what she's going to make for dinner tonight.

Along the way, he also saw how carefree can a girl who lives alone, with a lot of unclean clothes, bras, panties, shoes, snacks packets, etc spread all over the living room as if a storm just passed by from here.

"Sigh, you should pay attention to your cleanliness, as a girl how can your home be so dirty? Let's not talk about cleaning entirely but at least you shouldn't throw your clothes in the living room like this, it is me so it doesn't matter as I have seen your more personal things than just clothes but if it was someone else in my place what would he think about you, That you are descendant of a pig?"

"F*ck! Are you serious now? Are you actually planning to eat morning food again? With some raw vegetables? How lazy you have become after not seeing me for a week or two?"

You were not so lazy before, or are you, just I don't found out about it?" Myne asked doubtly while looking at the kitchen which was probably the cleanest place in June's entire house, and from cleanest means empty, there was nothing to eat in it.

"Haha, today I have to do an extra shift at work, because of it I am working the entire day and become very tired till I come home.

Also, I was not much hungry since I eat some snacks an hour ago, so I thought it would be a waste of time making dinner as I don't have much appetite, haha, you understand what I mean right..." June said shamelessly while laughing cutely, trying to hide the fact that she was too lazy to make dinner and decide to eat morning food after heating it up.

"No wonder you are so thin and weak, with this level of laziness unless you found a nice boyfriend like me, it would be a miracle if you still get fat," Myne said helplessly and shook his head. Then he brought June to the dining table and place her on her seat.

And then in front of confused June who still doesn't understand why Myne who was unwilling to let her go just a moment ago, suddenly put her on the dining chair, Myne took out hot delicious dishes one by one from his Inventory and start placing them on the table.

"Omg, how are you doing this? Where did you hide all those dishes and they are still hot and fresh?" June with astonishment and shocked expression, start bombarding Myne with question after question.

"If you promise to forgive me then I am more than willing to tell you about this trick," Myne said with a smile, sat down beside June, and start serving food on her plates. Although Myne decides to not tell anyone about his secret but many people already know about his original skills and June is also half of his family member so telling her about his Inventory skill is not much of a big deal.

"If I am satisfied with your explanation then I might consider forgiving you," June said while calming down her curiosity, and eating the dish Myne put on her plates.

Ummm, so delicious, someone who can make such high-quality food is certainly a more experienced cook than me, I wonder where Myne bought those dishes, June thought while eating food mannerlessly like a hungry beast.

Sigh, and she just said that she has no aptitude, but looking at her now, anyone would think that she is hungry for days.

And she is a chef herself, I am wondering if the place where she works even doing well or not, Myne thought with a sigh, and hit on June's head lightly, before speaking, "Eat slowly, food is not going anywhere, at least don't make me think that you are a boy in girl outfit, otherwise how can you have no girlish manner at all, today I feel like I was tricked by you, If only I had known about these qualities of yours now maybe I would have thought twice before doing deeds with you."

"Sorry, I was carried away, this food is just too delicious I can't stop myself, by the way where you bought those dishes from? I want to eat more food made by that person," June asked awkwardly with her mouth filled with food.

"First of all, don't talk with food in the mouth, and second, this food is made by my wife, so of course it would be super delicious..."

"What!!!"

"Are you serious, when did you even get married? Most importantly why did you get married?!!!" June exclaimed with shock, she stood up from her place and grabbed Myne's collar and while shaking him like a tree, she again bombarded him with questions.

"Okay, calm down, let me explain everything," Myne said calmly although he expected June would be shocked after hearing this news but he didn't expect that her reaction would be so great.

Sigh don't tell me she is already fallen for me, my charm is just too great once someone is caught in it, there is no way that person can get out of it easily, Myne thought helplessly and after June sit down, he told her everything she needed to know...

"Who would have thought that a cute and innocent-looking boy like you turn out to be such a big player, it is okay to seduce a normal girl but even Your Highness Sylphid couldn't escape from you, this is just too much, no wonder I'm so easily fooled by you," June said with a sigh while shaking her head.

"Hey, don't talk like I am playing with them just for fun, my feeling for my all-girls are real and I love them all, okay? Only things with you are a little complicated because of your special circumstances," Myne said with a frown while flicking June's forehead.

"Ouch, it hurt."

"Then stop your nonsense, and tell me where you take a shower, I need to wash my body before sleeping," Myne said annoyingly, clearly he gets tired of June's continuous questioning.

"Open the door left side of our bedroom, but please don't be angry I actually forget to clean it today as well," June said while biting her tongue between her teeth in a cute way.

"As if I expected anything better after seeing so much," Myne said and rolled his eyes, before walking toward the bathroom.

June's house bathroom wasn't much different from the bathroom Myne had before the renovation, a simple 9X9 bathroom without anything worth mentioning, there are 2 wooden buckets in the bathroom one small probably to carry water, and another one is big enough that an adult can comfortably sit inside it while soaking its entire body.

Also as June said before the bathroom was indeed not clean, there are dirty footprints everywhere in it, and a lot of dirty clothes of a young woman can be seen everywhere with her panties and bra mixed in them as well.

"That girl is completely hopeless, thank god we both don't have any plan to make our already deep relationship any further, otherwise if she also becomes my girlfriend then it would be more like raising a naughty child than an adult girl," Myne mumble while collecting June's clothes from the ground and throwing them in the empty bucket, then he took out magic pebbles and filled the big bucket with comfortable hot water, which is his bathtub today.

"Haa, finally after traveling all day like an animal finally now I can relax a little, and later I also have to satisfy a certain horny woman who was waiting outside like a hungry ghost. Poor me, can't even sleep peacefully cuddling a beautiful lady while burying my face in her boobs.

Sigh, being an adult is also not easy, too many responsibilities," Myne let his mind wander around and starts thinking useless things while relaxing in hot water.

But his peace doesn't last long, as the door of the bathroom opens with a bang, and June comes in carrying a big bucket filled with water while panting heavily.

"Myne, I brought water for your shower...? How did you fill the bathtub? I didn't see you bring water with you," June asked dumbfounded while coming in front of Myne and putting her hand in the bathtub.

"F*ck, where did you get hot water?" Before Myne could reply first her question, June again throw one more question at him, leaving him speechless.

She wasn't so talkative before right? When did she become like this? Myne thought but to his surprise, before he could say anything, he saw June removing her one-piece dress and throwing it casually on the ground.

Then in surprise eyes of Myne, June first seducingly smile at Myne while gently rubbing her boobies with her both hands, then she climb into the bathtub (big wooden bucket) while Myne was still dazing starring at her body and sat down in it while leaning against him, his little brother who was already become hard the moment Myne saw June naked body, now rubbing itself on top her pussy enjoying very itself well.

"Hey, why did you suddenly come in? This bathtub is not big enough that we both can fit in comfortably," Myne said with a frown while wrapping his arm around June's stomach and hugging her tightly so both of them can sit more easily, clearly although he is dissatisfied with June but still has he has no mood to let her go.

"Sorry, I can't stop myself seeing already prepared hot and comfortable bath, if you are angry then you can punish for my behavior, but please don't chase me away," June said with a begging voice while rubbing her pussy on top of Myne's little brother making it harder.

"Punishment you say huh? Okay then let me punish you properly," Saying such, first Myne put his hand on June's soft boobs and massaged them just for fun, then he grab his little brother with one hand, and wrap the other one around June's flat stomach and lift her up a little, and put the tip of his little brother at the entrance of her pink cave.

After preparing everything, he put his mouth beside June's ear, and whisper in a soft voice, "Time to punish my wild cat."

Then he let go of the arm holding June up and push up his little brother at the same time, sending it deep inside her pussy directly kissing her G-spot.

"Ahhhh..."
