

Cheat. A 135

Chapter 135: Divine Protection

Myne took a deep breath and slowly moves his right hand toward the Fenrir's child and uses the Stealing Hand skill to remove his slave collar.

Then in the surprised eyes of Fenrir and her remaining children, The collar on the Fenrir child's neck suddenly disappeared before Myne's hand could even touch it.

"What! Myne, how did that slave collar suddenly vanish by itself?" Fenrir stared at Myne fixedly seems like she didn't understand what had happened.

"Huh? Can't she see my hand moving? Was the stealing hand power so great that even someone as powerful as Fenrir can't see how it works? After all, I only know how it works, In fact, I never have seen how my hand move and steals other's things by itself.

Maybe she was too focused on her child's safety that she didn't notice my hand's movement, Myne thought, while opening his Inventory and saw the slave collar in it.

It shouldn't explode the moment I took it out right? Myne thought and decide to check it after he remove the other collars as well, but before he answer Fenrir's question who was staring at him with astonishment.

"I use one of the skills I copy from a thief to remove the slave collar and then quickly put it away in my storage type skill," Myne said calmly while rubbing the head of the brave kid in front of him, who show unbelievable trust in him, making him little emotional.

"I see, no wonder it vanished suddenly, but thank God you removed that dangerous thing from my child without any accident, now quickly free my other children too, I don't want to see that damn thing around their neck anymore," Fenrir said impatiently which was very normal in this kind of situation.

"Okay, as you wish my lady," Myne said jokingly now since he find out that he can safely remove those slave collars he also become a little relaxed, and continued speaking while gesturing her remaining children to come close to him. "By the way, to tell the truth now I feel like I am that kind of friend whom everyone can easily take advantage of."

"Don't say such a thing, you are a nice person who likes helping others, people like you are very rare nowadays," Fenrir said shamelessly clearly not wanting to admit that she is indeed taking advantage of Myne in the name of friendship and ordering him like a servant.

As if I'll believe your bullshit, Myne thought while rolling his eyes, and continued detaching the collars from her remaining children.

"Yosh, finally you guys are free now," Myne said happily while wiping sweat from his forehead.

"Uooooooooooooooooo..."

Seeing the collars gone from her all children, Fenrir couldn't help but raise her voice in delight.

Uooooo...

Woofffffff...

While Fenrir and her children were happily howling, Myne made some distance from them and after taking a deep breath, he use Rock Skin and Unbeatable skill for safety, and with his full speed, he took out one of the slave collars from his Inventory and throw it away.

Seeing Myne's action Fenrir and her children also stop their howling and starred at him wondering what is he doing.

Myne on the other hand after confirming that the slave collar not showing any sign of explosion, slowly walked toward it, he pick it up from the ground and put it back in his Invenotrory with an uncontrollably excited expression.

F*ck yes, I get my hands on treasure, once I handed one of those three collars to my Father-In-law as proof and get merit for revealing those dirty nobles' plans, I will try to learn how to use this thing, and next time when I meet some bad girl like Foxgirl I can use those collars on them to know their secret. Of course, I don't have any pervert thoughts for them...

Okay I have but that depends on what kind of crime they commit, Myne thought with an evil smile on his which he quickly put away seeing Fenrir staring at him with a frown.

"Cough, why are you all looking at me like this, I am just trying to test whether those collars would explode after I take them out of my storage space or not," Myne explained calmly.

"Ohh, nothing, my children are saying that they wanted to thank you and play with you but you are behaving weirdly so they can only wait for you till you finished your experiment," Fenrir said with a knowing smile, but decide to ignore Myne previous expression.

She has seen enough world to know that Myne was probably thinking to use those slave collars to fulfil some of his pervert desire but now she has enough faith in Myne and believe that he is not the kind of person who uses those collars on innocent people, and even if he did, what this has to do with her?

Myne is the saviour of her children and best friend of her and that is what matter to her the most.

"By the way, since you work so hard, it would be a very shameful act if I don't give you any reward right?" Fenrir said with a smile while walking toward Myne in slow steps.

Finally, the moment I am waiting for coming, now she will give me a lot of precious treasures making me super rich, enough that I boast in front of the Sylphy family, who probably think me a poor ghost which I am, Myne thought excitedly, and just when he was thinking that Fenrir would use some kind of skill to give him his reward, what treated him was a very familiar wet sensation on his face.

But this time Fenrir didn't just lick his face like the previous two times, but she continued to lick him from top to bottom, drenching him all over with her never-ending saliva.

After doing that and confirming that Myne really drench in her saliva completely, Fenrir nodded her head with a satisfied smile.

Myne who was standing like a statue the entire time with his eyes and mouth close tightly, put his hand on his face and wiped away Fenrir's sticky saliva from his face.

"Fenrir if you didn't give me a good reason behind your action then this will be the last time you saw me," Myne said angrily while gritting his teeth.

"Ohh, If you break our friendship then how will you ask my help if someday you run into trouble?" Fenrir asked jokingly, but to Myne's surprise this time not only he didn't see Fenrir opening her mouth while speaking but even her voice sounded directly in his mind.

"Did you just speak in my mind?" Myne asked but before Fenrir could say anything, more voices start sounding in his mind.

"Haha! Look, Myne is angry with Mother."

"Yes, I think he doesn't like being licked by Mother like us. He doesn't know that he is kicking his own fortune, we have to behave nice and obedient all day long to get licked once by her, and he is getting it without doing anything, I am so jealous."

"It is normal, perhaps in his race such an act would not be considered anything good, after all unlike us he does not know that not only Mother's licking can clean any kind of impurity from our body, but It also makes it easier for magic energy to flow through our bodies, making our bodies more powerful."

What!!! Fenrir saliva also has this kind of trait? And are those voices of Fenrir's children?

But if they can talk mind to mind then why they didn't say anything till now, don't tell me Fenrir didn't let them talk, maybe she is worried that this kind of inside information get out if an outsider like me knows about it, after all, getting powerful just by little bit of saliva, this kind of secret is really just too powerful, Myne thought but unknown to him his thought was heard by everyone.

"You are thinking too much, it is not that I didn't let them talk but you don't have the skill which can let you communicate with us telepathically. As for why you can hear our voice in your mind now is because I have bestowed my divine protection on you. Also, my saliva can only make you stronger if you put it on your body daily for a long time, otherwise, It can only clean your body nothing else.

Anyway, this reason should be enough for you not to be angry with me right?" Fenrir asked with a mocking smile, clearly making Myne fun.

"So that's why you licked me like candy so suddenly right? You are actually giving me your so-called divine protection huh? Although this method is a little aamm...Unique, but since with this I can communicate telepathically with you guys then I don't mind if you want to give me some more of this kind of divine protection," Myne said shamelessly while rubbing his hands together.

But just then he thought something and asked with a shocked expression, "Wait a minute, how do you know what I was thinking? F*ck! Don't tell me from now on you can hear all my thoughts."

"Calm down, and listen to how this thing works. First of all, we can hear your thoughts because you let us hear, if you didn't want us to hear your thoughts then just don't use that skill given by me. Second, you can only talk with me, and my children through this skill, you can't communicate with anyone else with it.

And, you will be able to talk with us as long as you desire to, no matter how far apart we are. If something is troubling you, you can always discuss it with your best friend at any time. Isn't my divine protection super powerful? Fenrir asked with a smug smile on her face.

Myne of course ignore Fenrir's last line as well as her smug smile and hurriedly appraisal himself.

Telepathy ( Fenrir ) ( Active Skill ):-

Description: Special skill bestowed by The Divine Beast Fenrir. The host can communicate through his mind to everyone who is blood-related to the Divine Beast Fenrir no matter how far they are.

Special Note: The host can't communicate with anyone else who is not related to The Divine Beast Fenrir through this skill.

(A/N: Because Myne's full appraisal result is too big, I made it a little short to not waste the already limited word count in each chapter, and only mention new skills he got recently. You can see the full appraisal at the end of the chapter. )

This is the Divine Protection huh? Though the name is quite weird but anyway, at least I get a good skill, now if I need Fenrir's help or do not understand something I can ask her directly without any worry, Myne thought while rubbing his chin. Also, I get quite a lot of skills from those idiots as well, I should take the time to understand them.

"Now if you have seen enough of your appraisal result, then why are you still idling about? Can't you see those little kids are getting impatient, they are excitedly waiting to go hunting with you. But now you're just spoiling their mood by making them wait so long" Fenrir said and again lick Myne's face in order to bring him out of his thought.

"I will remember this," Myne said while raising his fist angrily, before gesturing Fenrir's children to follow him and start walking toward the forest, while cursing Fenrir under his breath.

"That's right, let's go, and kick some weakling's ass," The child whose life Myne save before said excitedly while following him.

The other two kids also nodded their heads, and while wagging their tails, they bid farewell to their mother and run behind Myne.

"Hahaha, the annoying face he made Was really cute. Now I should also go back home, it has been quite a while since I left," Fenrir said and after looking last time toward the direction where Myne and her children run, she turn around and headed toward her home.
