

Cheat. A 157

Chapter 157: Warm-up...

"Okay, calm down, girls, first let me go otherwise in this pose I might not be able to think properly," Myne said while breaking free his both arms from Aisha and Sylphy's grasp and then he grab Ayri's slim waist and put down her as well.

After which he looked at them who were staring at him with starry eyes filled with full of expectation, waiting for his answer excitedly, none of the three wanted to give up and all three of them think that the name suggested by them is best among the best.

"Look girls, although the names suggested by all of you are very nice and cute, and I personally like them very much, but look that guy himself is not a little bit interested in your names, maybe he is very happy with your suggestion," Myne said and pointed at the Little Fenrir who was lazily laying on the table.

Hearing Myne words, the trio looked at the Little Fenrir, and after seeing him carelessly dozing off, they all looked at each other embarrassingly, clearly they understood that they are just wasting their energy for no serious reason.

"So after hearing your suggestion, I come up with a more simple but good name, Waffle. Since this kid always barks "Wafuu-Wafuu", so isn't it better to give him a suitable name that also matches his way of barking?" Myne said with a smile.

As soon as Myne said that Waffle's tail wagged wildly as he said "Wafu-Wafu", and looked like he was pleased with it.

"Look the little guy himself is very pleased with it, so let's end this matter right here, okay?" Myne said gently and rub Ayri's head.

"Elder Brother stop messing with my hair," Ayri annoyingly grabs Myne's hand which was messing with her hair and throws it away from her head.

"Hahaha, sorry, your hair is just too soft I can't hold myself back," Myne said with a fake apologetic look before again start messing with Ayri's hair.

"If this kid himself like your name, then what can we do, let's call him Waffle from now on, but I still think that Kuru name is better," Aisha said with a sad expression.

"Yes, Shin name was also not that bad, but since Lord Husband already decide then I won't make things difficult any more," Sylphy said while shaking her head, completely ignoring her poor sister who was being bullied by Myne.

"Since you both have no problem, then it was decided", Myne then looked at Waffle who was lying on the table, and spoke in a loud voice, "Listen kid from now on your name is Waffle okay?"

Hearing Myne words, Waffle stood up on the table and nodded his head while saying "Wafuu" happily, before laying down again.

Since you can't handle then why eat so much? Myne thought angrily and decided to ignore Waffle, otherwise, he might lose his patience and beat him up.

"Ayri, It is already becoming late, why don't you back to your room? Look how tired Myne is, he is working hard for two continuous days and needs to take a good rest. You can play with him tomorrow okay? Anyway, he is staying with us for someday, you have a lot of time to play with him," Sylphy said to Ayri gently after seeing the outside sky become completely dark.

Hearing Sylphy's gentle and caring words, Ayri raise her eyebrow suspiciously, then she look at Myne who was laying on the bed like dead fish, then after thinking for a while she let out a deep breath like an old man, before getting up from the couch and start walking out.

"Remember to not stay up late, I will come early in the morning to wake you all up so we can go out shopping together," Ayri said with a wide knowing grin on her face before she close the door with a bang.

Sigh, everyone looks down on me, I am weak from my body not from my mind, do they really think that I don't understand that they just wanted to get rid of me so they can do THAT thing? Tsk, when my health improves I will also find myself a handsome and powerful man like Elder Brother Myne, Ayri thought with determination while walking toward her room.

"I think your sister is not as innocent as think," Aisha whispers playfully in Sylphy's ear watching Ayri close the door.

"Yes, she is very smart and it is not too difficult for her to guess that I want to get rid of her, I just hope she doesn't think I am a pervert," Sylphy said with a forced smile.

"Don't worry, she is about to become an adult, she soon understands that everyone has their need, anyway, do you want to go first?" Aisha said in a low voice.

"With you being present how can I go first? As an elder wife, it's your right to go first. You go and have fun, till then I prepared my battle stage, tonight I won't be passive," Sylphy said with a smile and come to Myne who was dozing off on the bed, before continuing, "Lord husband, why don't you take a bath before sleeping?"

"Huh? Okay, thanks for reminding, I take a quick bath then," Myne said with a smile and after giving Sylphy a light kiss, and catching her off guard again, he hurriedly went toward the bathhouse on the left side of the room. Yes, Sylphy has a bathhouse in her room.

"Ahhhhh, so comfortable, when I become rich enough, I will defiantly build a big and more luxurious bathhouse, compare to the bathhouse at my home, Sylphy's one is like a taking bath on gold. Also what kind of magic did they use to make the perfect amount of Steam and Bubbles in the bathtub? And why the hell is this bathhouse so big?

No one else takes a bath here except Sylphie, then what is the meaning of making it so big that 20 people can take a bath in it at the same time?" Myne mumbled with envy, but he soon throw those unnecessary thoughts out of his head and lay down in the bath until only his head was out with his legs and arms wide open.

"Sigh, who cares why Father-In-law made this bathtub so wide, I should just force on relaxing," Myne said carelessly with eyes close.

"Yes, while taking a bath we shouldn't think too much, and just let our body and mind relax."

Suddenly a voice comes from beside Myne, scaring the hell out of him.

"WHO!!!!... F*ck, who it is, huh? Aisha? When did you come in? Forget about it, why f*ck are you scaring me?" Myne, who was scared to death and jump out of the bathtub screamed, but after seeing that the person who just spoke is non-other than Aisha, he let out a sigh, before again getting in the bathtub and asking angrily.

"Just when you were relaxing, but why did you suddenly get so scared? Although you didn't see me, but don't tell me now you don't even recognize my voice," Aisha said with a mocking smile while putting her arm around Myne's neck.

"Don't joke around, haven't I already told you that I didn't like this kind of life-threatening surprise? You naughty girl, you now becoming more and more evil, it seems like I have to discipline you properly," Myne said with an evil smile while looking at Aisha's naked body up and down with lust-filled eyes.

"Ohh, and how are you going to discipline me?" Aisha asked with a seducing voice while placing her both arms around Myne's neck and moving her face close to him.

"Of course, I am going to use the same old way but this time it won't be gentle like always," Myne said, and wrapped one of his arm around Aisha's waist and pull her body toward himself and hug her tightly. Then he put his other hand on her big boob, which he missed a lot even though it has only been two days, and started massaging it.

"Ahhmm... I miss your touch so much..." Aisha, just getting touched by Myne let out a soft moan.

"Hoho, are you sure you didn't miss other things? I saw jealousy in your eyes both times when I kiss Sylphy and ignore you," Myne said playfully, and pinch her rock-hard nipple roughly.

"Ouch, hey, not so hard, be gentle, my nipples are the most sensitive part of my body, and why wouldn't I be jealous? I am your first wife, your favourite but you bastard didn't even give me a proper kiss after returning from the game, do you have any idea how worried I was during your absence?" Aisha spoke with sobs ready to cry at any moment.

"Huh? I didn't know that, sorry dear, I just wanted to play with you, but I didn't expect that I was unknowingly hurting your feeling," Myne said hurriedly and let go of Aisha's nipple and give her a warm hug, and deep kiss after which.

"Haha," After breaking the 2-minutes long kiss, Aisha looked at Myne and start laughing sweetly, "I got you again, I was just acting, look how easy it is to make you fool."

"You damn evil girl, can't you see how serious I was? You dare to play with my emotion, now I won't be gentle with you anymore," Myne said angrily, and hurriedly put his right hand into the water, and brought it between Aisha's legs.
