Chapter 161: Taking Virginity Second Time (R-18)

"But that is dirty, and I have not cleaned that place for the entire day, and there is also a lot of sweat as well," Sylphy said embarrassingly while covering her face.

"Hahaha, then it is more better, now I can eat salty honey, also for me not a single part of your body is dirty, so don't say that again," Myne said while licking his lips.

Saying such Myne ran his tongue up her pink wet pussy, "Tasty as f*ck, just like you."

Sylphy felt Myne's tongue running on her pussy unconsciously clenched, and her head fall backwards and she lay down on the bed.

Hehe, and she said that her nipples are the most sensitive parts, although we have had sex many times, but she still loses her self-control when I start messing with her body, Myne thought while shaking his with a smile.

Let's see how long she lasts compared to Aisha, Myne thought and drew his face closer and start licking her vagina and its surrounding area like a hungry puppy, making Sylphy body tumble continuously. After cleaning Sylphy's vagina Myne put his nose on her well manage circle shape dense golden pubic hair and made his tongue enter Sylphy's pink cave.

"Ahhh, moann..."

Sweet and musky, she was an intoxicating blend of tastes, this is what Myne thought after his tongue entered Sylphy's most precious hole. He held her hips firmly as she moved dramatically with each lap of his tongue and bucked her pussy up against him so his tongue can enter more deeper inside her.

Seeing that Sylphy having a lot of fun Myne inserted a finger into her slick tunnel while continuing to pleasure her clit.

"Ohhhh, my," Sylphy moaned and ran her hands through Myne's hair as she panted heavily and push Myne's face on her pussy roughly. She raised her legs straight and wrapped them around his neck for further support.

"M, Myne, you are good... so good~."

"Ohh? Did I hear something wrong? Did you just call me by name instead of that honourable title?" Myne stop licking Sylphy's pussy and asked playfully while stroking her soft white thigh.

"Sorry, Lord Husband, it slips out of my mouth accidentally," Sylphy apologises hurriedly and unlocks her legs wrapped around Myne's neck.

"Haha, don't worry about it, haven't I told you many times to call me by name? But you insist on calling me Lord Husband saying that it is a tradition in your family, this is also the reason why I didn't stop you from calling me Lord Husband. By the way, I have a good idea, from now on, you will call me by my name whatever we are making love, okay?

This will be more fun," Myne said and held Sylphy's legs tightly so she couldn't move them away from her neck. "Don't move them, it is more fun when you hold me tightly from all around and push my face into your pussy."

After finishing saying Myne resume his work, and his tongue again starts playing with her clit, this time he put his middle and ring finger inside her cave.

"Ammmm...."

Sylphy's screams of ecstasy echoed throughout the room, and her hands again start pushing Myne's face inside her pussy. Her loud moan, and panting sound can be heard in the entire room, she was too deep in her pleasure to notice anything, looking like the type to fully immerse in one task while ignoring the rest of the world.

Myne pull out his fingers and again put his tongue inside her as he felt her vagina wall twisted continuously clearly she was about to reach her climax.

"Myne, please pull out your tongue I am about to cumm..."

Sylphy's scream reached in Myne's ear, but he ignored her request and her tongue wildly start messing inside her pussy. Soon burst of pleasure gushes out from her pussy and while soaking Myne's tongue it enters inside his mouth.

"Mmmm, you cum quite a lot, more than Aisha did, seems like you are holding back from many days, huh?" Myne tease Sylphy who was panting heavily while laying on the bed, her boobs were continuously having up and down.

Sylphy moved her mess of sweaty hair from her face and after taking a deep breath she spoke softly, "That was... breathtaking... You are becoming more and more proficient in this, Myne," Saying such she hurriedly hid her face with her hands daring not to look inside Myne's eyes, as she still felt a little embarrassed calling him by his name.

"That is natural after all I have to satisfy two naughty girls, and it is not an easy task," Myne answered with a chuckle, licked her sweet nectar and rose to his feet.

Sylphy shuddered twice, once from his tongue, a second when she showed Myne's super excited little brother, dripping with per-cum, eagerly waiting to enter inside her.

"Wait, Myne," Sylphy suddenly stopped Myne who just grabbed her thigh, and was about to put his little brother inside her.

After stopping Myne Sylphy hurriedly walked down from the bed, she grabbed her skirt and took out her Handkerchief and a small bottle of pills from its small pocket.

"I forgot to take the birth control pill," Sylphy said cutely while biting her tongue, then she took out a white pill from the bottle and ate it on the spot, before coming to Myne and wiping her love juice on his face with her handkerchief.

"Even if you forget it doesn't matter since you can take it later, after all as long as you eat those pills within 24 hours of sex, it still works perfectly fine," Myne said teasingly while slapping Sylphy's butt.

"Ouch, Myne it hurt," Sylphy said fake angrily.

"Ohh, then I will be gentle next time," Myne said and took the handkerchief from Sylphy's hand and throw it away before lifting her up by her ass and throwing her on the cloud-like soft bed.

"Prepare yourself, my princess," Myne commanded dominantly.

Sylphy giggled and leaned back until her elbow supported her upper body. Reaching down with one hand, she spread her pussy lips, revealing her wet petals, suddenly a smirk adorning her face as she decides to act a little bold, "Hide your holy sword inside my dungeon, my Hero."

"Here comes the hero's holy sword," Myne said with a serious expression making Sylphy giggle more and thrust inside of her waiting tunnel with his all strength all the way to her womb.

"Ahhhh..."

Sylphy eyes bulged as she let out a groan that shifted into a hiss of pain and pleasure as Myne pulled back out. Despite his caress, she remained tight like a virgin.

Myne grunted at her tightness. "You are as tight as the first time when I took your virginity."

"That's because I took a potion given by my mother an hour ago, she said that it is a special gift for her Son-In-Law..." Sylphy said with an embarrassing smile. "Because of that potion, my hymen has healed again."

"What! So doesn't this mean I took your virginity again?!" Myne exclaimed with shock and hurriedly looked down and sure enough he showed blood on his little brother.

Sylphy nodded shyly, and Myne leaned over her and clasped her hands in his over her head as he thrust into her with slow, gentle movements. She gasped and her eyes fluttered shut as her mouth filled with muffled groans of pain and pleasure.

"Myne..." Sylphy wrapped her arms around Myne's neck and pulled him into her embrace. Her lips found his for a passionate kiss.

"You can go faster. I'm ready for it, after all, although you broke my hymen but it is not the first time, so it doesn't hurt much," Sylphy said after breaking the kiss.

Myne nodded and gave a gentle kiss on Sylphy's forehead. Leaning back, he gripped her waist and thrust. He slammed into her so hard his balls bounced against her ass.

Sylphy's muffled groans soon turned into full-blown cries of pleasure. He lifted Sylphy off the bed and wrapped her legs around his waist. Her golden hair surrounded them like a curtain as they clung to each other.

Relishing in the soft roundness of her body, Myne pressed into her until his cock rested against her cervix.

"Yenghhh!"

Sylphy's scream cut off in a strangled cry of ecstasy that melted into wordless noises as Myne began f*cking her wet dripping pussy with increasing determination. No matter how much noise Sylphy made Myne continued making love to his little princess in his arms. She also wildly twisted her waist to match his violent thrusts.

Soon the rush of pleasure reached a crescendo. Sylphy tried to cling to it, digging her nails into his back but she couldn't conquer her urges. The heat running through her body reached a boiling point and then exploded.

Myne also wasn't any better than her, his little brother also became extremely hard and started twisting, indicating that it was about to cumm...

"I am about to—" Myne said hugging Sylphy tightly in his arm while thrusting his little brother inside her with his all might directly touching the entrance of her womb.

"Give me your love Myne!" Sylphy cries out loudly in Myne's ear.

Myne froze with a forward and released his all lust inside her. Her walls clung to him, squeezing every drop in his balls.

"Hnghhh!" Sylphy released a strange cry as she felt his hot cum shoot into her womb, filling her with immeasurable satisfaction. Her eyes rolled back, and she collapsed in Myne's embrace panting heavily.

Myne then sits down on the bed, previously in excitement he and Sylphy were f*cking each other while standing on the bed. His little brother was still inside her releasing cum once in a while, making Sylphy shiver from pleasure, he then caress her back gently letting her relax.

"Are you okay?" Myne asked.

"I am fine, just need some rest," Sylphy replied.

"Hehe, you did a great job, I didn't expect that I would enjoy taking your virginity second so much, Mother-In-Law really has some nice stuff," Myne said jokingly, and lay down on the bed with Sylphy on top of his, he then lifted her ass and pull out his little brother from inside her.

"Yes, I also didn't expect that potion would work so wonderfully, maybe I should ask some more from Mother," Sylphy said with eyes closed while resting on top of Myne.

"Hehe, you dirty girl, how many times do you want to lose your virginity?"

It is not good to ask this kind of thing from Mother-In-Law otherwise what would she think about her Son-In-Law?" Myne said seriously while running his hands on her back, and continued, "You just try to find out where she bought that potion, we then go there and buy some for you and Aisha ourselves, no need to ask someone else."

"And you are calling me dirty? Aisha is right, you are indeed a big pervert Lord Husband," Sylphy said with a giggle.

"Oops, I completely forgot about Aisha, let me call her out otherwise, she might spend the entire night in the bathtub if she falls asleep," Myne said and gently laid Sylphy beside him, and after stealing a quick kiss, he ran toward the bathhouse.

Ahhmm, my pussy is so sore, Lord Husband doesn't hold back at all, at the start he behaves like a gentleman, but shortly after that he turns into a beast. Poor me and pussy, Sylphy thought jokingly while rubbing her pussy, she then put her finger inside her and soak it with Myne's thick cum which was gushing out from her pussy nonstop, and put it into her mouth.

Amm, very delicious, no wonder Aisha like it so much, next time I will also try to make Lord Husband cum inside my mouth, that would be quite fun, Sylphy thought excitedly, and saw Myne coming out from the bathhouse with Aisha in his arms who was hugging him like a koala, and look like she has already fallen asleep.

Myne then laid Aisha on the bed gently before climbing on the bed and lying between them while hugging them tightly.

He then kissed them on their forehead one by one before saying, "Good night my fairies," and closing his tired eyes.

"Good night you too, my hero."

Two voices sounded at the same time, along with a kiss on both sides of Myne's cheek, before the long night exercise finally came to an end, and all three of them were lost in the world of dreams while hugging each other with a smile on their faces.
