

Cheat. A 166

Chapter 166: Successful Rescue.

Myne after heading down a little finally saw the situation of the basement. The entire basement is a big room in a circle shape in which there are a lot of cages of different sizes placed all over the room on top of each.

Although most of the cages are empty but there are still many filled with people who look very unhealthy, and hungry and their eyes are unfocused as if they have undergone unimaginable torture.

But still, compared to men who just looked hungry but were relatively in good shape, women's condition was many times worse, they only have a small tattered cloth piece wrapped around their bodies private parts while the remaining body was naked.

They have various kinds of injuries on their entire body, most of the injuries they probably got during sex, their cages have a weird unbreathable smell mixed with blood, sweat, piss, cum, etc, their bodies were very dirty as if they haven't wash them from months, overall for female slaves, this place is undoubtedly hell.

Because Myne was standing on the staircase, he could see the entire basement, and with his Night Vision and Sight Enhancement Large skills, Myne soon found his target. The dragon child was locked in a small cage in the middle of the basement with five men guarding him boredly clearly unclear about the situation on the surface.

Huh? Black colour?

F*ck! This guy is a child of black dragons? Now I hope his parents don't come here while he is here otherwise this town is done for.

Myne thought with surprise, after all this is common knowledge that not only black dragons are most powerful dragons among all other dragons but they are also very fierce and easily lose their temper, and once that happens unless someone overpowers them and beats the hell out of them no one can stop their rampage.

Let's finish this quickly, Myne thought and with Stealth skill he hurriedly came behind those guards, along the way he already confirmed that there were only 6 guards in the entire basement, five were in front of him playing cards, while the remaining one is in a slave cage in the right corner, probably doing some adultery.

"Hey, it's been half an hour, why has Boss Coper didn't come back yet? Don't tell me he is having a chit-chat with that big tit slave? Although she is indeed a little more beautiful compared to others but she is still far from enough to steal Boss's heart."

"Who knows, maybe today he has more energy after all he was in a very good mood when he came here. Don't you see just how drunk he was, he might be playing with her so it is normal for him to take his time. Anyway, it is not the first time he has spent a lot of time with female slaves."

By the way, doesn't that big tit slave have a cute young daughter? I wonder if Boss...

Shut up, you idiot! Don't talk nonsense, although our Boss is a little crazy and easily gets carried away, but he is not a monster, that big tit slave daughter is only 4 years old, why the hell would Boss want to do the thing with a child?"

"Hehehe, sorry, I was just joking. Don't be so serious..."

Bang

Cough. Whooo...

Bang, bang, bang, bang...

Just when guards having fun suddenly five golden rays came from the direction of the staircase one by one penetrating their skulls, making a finger-sized hole in them and taking their lives before they could even realize what happened.

"Well, although I rarely use this Light Beam skill but I have to say this skill is definitely made of assassination, no eye-catching effect, no extra noise, very user finally," Myne jokes with a smile and comes to the dragon child cage.

The dragon child inside the cage was already standing up when he saw Myne coming toward him and now staring at him and Waffle, especially Waffle, from whom he felt a very dangerous aura.

"Waffle, can you communicate with him? He looked quite afraid of us," Myne asked seeing the dragon child not so friendly expression.

"No problem, give me five minutes, I will try to explain to him," Waffle said before jumping down from Myne's head and walking toward the dragon child cage dominantly.

"Okay, you tell him that we are here to save him, till then I deal with the last guard," Myne nodded his head and walked toward the cage where this so-called Boss was having fun.

"B*tch, you f*cking dare to attack me, The Lord Coper, you really got some balls, huh? It seems like I haven't trained you properly."

Just as Myne reached to the cage where the boss of those guards was, he suddenly heard not-so-pleasant words.

Slap, Slap, Slap.

"Ohh, now you are ignoring me huh? Good, good let's see how long can you stay silent."

Hearing an unnatural loud slap that didn't look like someone made during pleasant sex, Myne poked his head in the cage, but when he saw the situation inside the cage even a cold-hearted (self-proclaimed) person like him couldn't help but frown deeply.

Inside the cage, there was a total mess, a middle-aged bald uncle in his forties, completely naked laying on top of a middle-aged woman, f*cking her like a crazy beast while panting heavily, clearly he reached on his limit but didn't want to stop. He was cursing the middle-aged woman nonstop and slapping on her face with his all strength every time he thrust his old thing inside her.

The middle-aged woman on the other hand like a corpse didn't show any reaction, she just staring at the left corner of the cage with soulless eyes and tears in them, If it not for the fact that Myne saw her big chest having up and down indicating that she was still breathing, for once he thought that she is already dead.

Insofar the reason behind her abnormal condition was not extreme levels of sexual harassment, but there lay a small lifeless naked body on top of her own blood, clearly that small body is the 4 years old daughter of the middle-aged woman who was raped by the middle-aged uncle and might because of some accident that girl somehow fall making her little head injured from the edge of the wooden bed and because of blood lose she died in agony.

"Sigh, this bastard is a real f*cking monster," Myne mumbled angrily while staring at the middle-aged uncle whose back was facing toward him and completely focused on his work.

Just when Myne was ready to shoot a wind blade to kill that motherf*cker child rapiest, the middle-woman somehow moved her face toward him and after seeing Myne she moved her lips with great difficulty without making any sound asking Myne to kill her, because after losing her daughter she didn't want to live anymore, and just wanted to end her all suffering.

Myne hearing the middle-aged woman's request nodded his head and after taking a deep breath, he shook his head and cast AoE Fire Maximum skill in the cage, burning everything together with the middle-aged man and woman.

"What! Fire?"

"Ahhhh..."

Because the fire tornado's power was quite formidable, the low-level iron cage was not something that could handle it, so soon while breaking the ceiling of the cage, the fire tornado directly headed toward the wooden ceiling of the basement.

"This should be enough to burn down this entire f*cking shit hole," Myne mumbled and quickly run toward the Waffle.

"How it is?" Myne asked after coming back.

"I have already talked to him, and he understood that we are here to save him so he won't make trouble for us. Now Prasie me," Waffle happily reply while wagging his tail.

"Good boy, you did a nice job. Now let's get out of here, this place is about to burn down," Myne said and shot a wind blade at the cage lock releasing the dragon child inside without any problem.

"Help! Help, there is fire!"

"Fire! Fire!"

Just as Myne released the dragon child and was about to use space-time magic to escape, suddenly he heard other locked slaves' screams.

Oops, I forgot about them, Myne thought and after putting Waffle on his head, and carrying the dragon child in his arms, he hurriedly ran toward the other locked slaves and shot wind blades at their cage locks, and released them as well.

Those scared slaves didn't give a f*ck about Myne, their saviour and said thanks for saving them, they quickly ran out of the cage like beasts and headed toward the staircase as fast as they can.

A poor guard following the order of the beautiful woman just finished searching all the upper floors and was about to open the basement door, when the first slave kicked open the door in his face and ran out of the basement in the surprised eyes of 20-30 guards and a beautiful woman.

But before they could think what happened, more slaves ran out of the basement like bulls and without thinking they started fighting with guards while thinking that they wanted to stop them.

Hey, what's going on, how did those slaves come out from their cages? The woman asked dumbfoundedly but in her repose, she got a punch on her face by a scary-looking slave.

Myne, on the other hand, knows nothing about the surface, and even if he knows he probably didn't care, after releasing those poor slaves, and starting fire on the basement he uses space-time skill and opens a portal a kilometre away from Adol Town, and went in with Waffle and the dragon child.
