

Cheat. A 177

Chapter 177: Shameless Boasting

"Haha, Morg, it's rare for you to say such a nice thing, isn't it? Are you scheming something again?" Faren said with a small laugh, but his eyes stared at Morg coldly.

"No, I am not thinking of such a thing, at least not this time!" Morg still with a gentle smile on his face replied without minding Faren's cold look and continued, "I also heard of the situation, isn't it sheer stupidity to oppose Lord Divine Beast or something?"

"Hey! Sylphy, who is this guy?" While Faren and Morg having friendly chit-chat, Myne whispered in Sylphy's ear.

"Morg is the Prime Minister of our Kingdom.

Although most of the time his and Father's opinion often didn't end well, if he judges that it will not be in the interest of the kingdom, he will not shun admonishing even Father and there were many times when Father wanted to kick him out of his position but because of his energetic work for the sake of the kingdom, many other ministers support him wholeheartedly and Father could only bit the bullet and let him do whatever he wants," Sylphy said with a helpless smile.

Ohh, now this is interesting, It seems like Father-in-law doesn't have absolute control over the kingdom. Maybe this is also the reason why Father-in-law didn't arrest Claude and his gang even after knowing that they had a hand behind kidnapping the dragon child, and desperately needed proof to take action, Myne thought.

"Haha, well, it's not like I don't understand what you're trying to say, well then let's do what you said. Thanks for your wonderful suggestion Morg," Faren said with a forced smile while gesturing for everyone to sit down back to their seats.

"Myne you did a great favour to our kingdom and have saved thousands of lives which was a great merit. Tell me, do you need anything as a reward? As long as your demand is reasonable I will do everything to fulfil it," Faren asked making Myne's heart beat faster like drum.

Finally, the moment I am waiting for has come, Myne thought and unknown to him a wide ear-to-ear grin appeared on his face.

"Sigh, I, I'm exhausted, that's why I don't like the crowded place but no matter what seems like I used up all my this week's luck while dealing with this dragon child mission and now it is my bad luck period going on," Myne said tiredly while throwing a small money pouch which was his reward for saving an entire town from dragon toward Aisha, and himself flopped onto the bed.

"Don't be so discouraged Lord Husband, 200 platinum coins are also not a small reward right? And it is you who demand Father to just give some money as a reward, now you can't blame him," Sylphy followed behind Myne and after she sat down beside him spoke gently.

"Sylphy, as a princess, at least you shouldn't say such a thing, do you really want to say that what I did is only worth 200 platinum coins? And I was been a little humble, okay, but I didn't expect that Father-in-law would be so shameless that he took my Little word so seriously.

Sigh, anyway, Let bygones be bygones, In the future, I will be more careful and not let anyone take advantage of my innocence," Myne said while wrapping his arms around Sylphy's waist, pulling her into his embrace and burying his head into her perfect handful size breasts.

Ahhh...

"But Myne, that moment when those fifty or so people rush toward you like a pervert, and you are frightened to death and almost hide behind Sylphy, that was really a sight to see.

Haha, if possible I really wanted to see your that expression again," Aisha while counting the platinum coins in the beg, said with a giggle, making Myne so embarrassed that he buried his face more deeper into Sylphy's breasts.

"Lord Husband, you don't have to be so embarrassed, this is natural, anyone who saw so many people suddenly running toward them crazily would be frightened," Sylphy who was holding back her laughter said while stroking Myne's back of his head dotingly.

Boom!

"Brother Myne! Did you really fraught with a dragon?"

Just when Myne was enjoying Sylphy's gentle and soft embrace, filled with womanly sent mixed with follower-type perfume, with a bang, his room door was open and Ayri with Ted and a Rector followed by a young girl wearing a maid outfit entered into the room.

Seeing her younger sister and brother, Sylphy like a frightened cat immediately pushes Myne away and stands up from the bed.

"Here goes my sweet pillow, this palace definitely has some enmity with me. F*ck, can't a man simply rest while hugging his wife after working all day?" Myne mumbled dissatisfiedly but he soon calmed down after realizing that his problem had nothing to do with Ayri and others.

"Yes, sweetie I did, haven't you realised yet that your elder brother Myne is not a normal person? This kind of small thing like fighting with the dragon is as easy as drinking and eating for me," Myne boasted arrogantly for which Aisha and Sylphy could only roll their eyes, but opposite to them Ayri, Rector and his personal maid have stars in their eyes.

"Wow, Brother Myne, you are so awesome, no wonder our beautiful elder sister gets seduced by you so easily," Rector commented while nodding his head.

"Haha, that's natural, after all I am too handsome, girls just can't control themselves after seeing my awesomeness. Sometimes I myself doubt that how can there be an outstanding person like me in this world." Myne said shamelessly, ignoring his both wives' disgusting expressions.

"Brother Myne, then please tell us how you defeated that evil dragon, we want to know the entire process," Ayri hurriedly came to Myne and sat down in his lap like a naughty kitten and asked while staring at him with her big eyes ready to listen to his brave story.

"Okay, but before that can anyone tell me who is she?" Myne asked confusedly while looking at the Rector's personal maid Luna up and down.

Luna's age is the same as Rector approximately 14 or 15 years old, she has long black hair neatly tied back under a traditional maid's cap, big brown eyes, which could convey her youth and innocence. A sharp and pointy nose, thin pink lips, and chubby round cheeks. At 14 years old, she is still in the process of growing, especially her chest and butt area which probably need a long time to develop.

She wore a simple and modest maid's uniform, typically made of plain, durable fabric such as cotton or linen.

"Ahm, brother Myne, she is my personal maid, she is very interested in your adventure as well and wanted to meet you at least once, so she requested me and in the end, I can't refuse her, so here we are, hehehe. Please forgive me, if you have a problem with her I can send her back," Rector said calmly but Myne a professional clearly saw tension in his eyes when he said the last line.

Seem like an interesting drama happened between them during my absence, Rector really didn't disappoint me, he accomplished his mission with the highest rating, now what kind of reward should I give him? Myne thought with a smile very satisfied with Rector's performance.

"Don't worry, since she is my fan, then how can I drive her away? Come both of you sit down on the couch, I tell you how I fought with that evil dragon with my life on the line, saved Adol Town and won the title of The Dragon Mediator," Myne said with a smile while patting Ayri's head as if she is a cat.

"So after that, I negotiated with the Lord Divine Dragon, he took his people away and I also came back, later Father-in-law gave me the title, and now here am I telling you guys about my adventure," Myne finished his story while nodding his head with satisfaction seeing everyone present in the room starring at him with awe, idolize, and respectful expression, even Aisha was no expectation, only Waffle was given him weird glance once in while but because he can't communicate with other he can only ignore Myne's shameless boasting.

"Wow! Brother Myne, I didn't expect that you escape the pursuit of 10 dragons, and force them to listen to your demands," Ayri spoke with surprise.

"Yes, and talking with Lord Divine Beast without backing away while looking into his eyes without any fear and beating his own people in front of him, I don't think anyone in history has ever done something like this," Rector nodded his head.

"Lord Myne is so powerful, It is my honour to listen to such an exciting adventure by your own mouth," Luna who was standing behind Rector timidly said and bowed deeply to Myne.

"Haha, now you guys are embarrassing me, I am not that great, it's just I didn't want to see our people die in vain," Myne said shamelessly but anyone who is familiar with him can say that he enjoys getting praise very much.

"By the way, although it is only been evening, but why don't we eat together? This way I can tell you some more of my wonderful adventures," Myne suggested and everyone excitedly nodded their heads like chickens.

"Then you guys wait, Sylphy and I, go to the kitchen and bring food for everyone," Aisha said with a smile.

"Lady Aisha, you don't have to do those things, let me go and bring food, after all this my job," Luna hurriedly said, but Aisha just smiled at her, she grabbed her hand, and started walking toward the room door.

"Since you want to help then come with us, I promise Myne that I make his favourite food after he comes back so clearly you can't help with this," Aisha said playfully and along with Sylphy, the trio walked out of the room.

Seeing girls leaving, Myne nodded his head with a smile, he took out a fantasy novel from his inventor and handed it to Ayri.

"Ayri, here this is one of my childhood favourite books, you give it a try till Aisha and others come back, I believe you like it very much."

"Ohh, 'The Tail of Seven Princesses and A Wizard?' Let me see I have never seen this book in library."

Just after seeing the word Princess in the title, it immediately attracted curious girl Ayri's attention, she quickly took the book from Myne and started reading the first chapter.

After making Ayri busy, Myne gestures to Rector to follow him and walk toward the balcony.
