

Cheat. A 180

Chapter 180: You Two Are Just Too Weak

"Like this I accomplished my mission and told Luna my feelings," Rector who was telling his love story to Myne said with an embarrassed expression.

"Well, I have to say you are a big player. Even I didn't have enough courage to eat my girlfriends just after telling them my feelings, but you on the other hand, not only took her virginity but also did that in a public bathhouse without caring about your image as a Prince. I wonder what you would have done if someone had caught you and Luna making love in the bathroom?" Myne asked disdainfully.

"To tell the truth, at that time I didn't thoughts about those things, I just wanted to show Luna how much I love her. Also, we were just half an hour in the bathhouse, after which we hurriedly escaped from there and came to my room..."

"And then you guys share your love more openly there, right? Sigh, anyway forget about it, this is your personal matter I have nothing to do with it," Myne interrupted Rector and said while waving his hand casually.

"By the way, Brother Myne, here is my mission object, now give me my magic item you promise," Rector said excitedly while taking out Luna's purple colour plain panty from the shirt's inner pocket.

"Stop, you idiot, what are doing!!!"

Seeing Rector taking out his girlfriend's panty, Myne hurriedly stopped him and looked at Ayri. Only after seeing that she was reading the book very seriously, did he take a breath of relief.

"Are you an idiot? Why are you carrying your girlfriend's panty with you? It's okay if you are carrying it secretly but why the f*ck are you showing it to others?"

Are you a child or something, if people show you taking out your girlfriend's private clothes, they immediately label you as a pervert, and believe me no one likes a pervert especially girls," Myne said angrily in a low voice while hammering on Rector's head with his fist.

"Ooch, but hadn't you task me to bring my crush panty? Otherwise, why would I carry Luna's panty with me?" Rector said with a frown while rubbing his head.

"But idiot can't you use your brain a little? Since I already believe in your story, then why are you still showing that panty so openly? Do you think I have lived too comfortably for the past few minutes? Do you have any idea what would happen if your sister and Aisha found out about it?"

They might not let me enter the house for some days, and let me tell you I can't sleep properly without cuddling them, this kind of punishment is no different from visiting hell for me," Myne said annoyingly, he suddenly felt that maybe playing a prank on Rector wasn't that great of an idea, this idiot literally ruined his good image.

"Sorry, I will be more careful next time, but what about my reward?" Rector asked while putting his most precious treasure back near his heart.

"Sigh, you little rascal only care about your reward, right? Here, since you and your lover are no longer pure, then those books will help you to satisfy he and help you to experience more pleasure during sex. Also, don't make that kind of face, this is only half part of your reward.

As you already know previous somedays I was running everywhere and had no time for myself, so I couldn't find a suitable magic item for you but don't worry I soon give your magic item to you, just be patience," Myne said while patting on Rector head who giving him a suspicious glance while putting 5 adult books in his storage pouch, before continue, "Look girls are also back with food, let's go have dinner, after all, you might be very busy after dinner right?"

"Brother Myne, please stop bullying me, otherwise I will tell about it to Sister Sylphy," Rector spoke while pouting, he now regretted telling Myne about his love story.

"Hahaha, sorry, old habit," Myne laughed while slapping Rector's shoulder lightly and drag him toward Aisha and the others.

After a harmonious dinner, Myne bid farewell to Rector and Luna, as well as Ayri who was again plotted by Sylphy and Aisha and had to take responsibility for Waffle and Ted which she did with a smile on her face clearly she liked them very much.

Then under the lustful gaze of his two wives, Myne enters the bathhouse, and shortly after that behind his back, Aisha and Sylphy toss a coin to decide who will go first this time, because Sylphy was still too shy to have sex in front of Aisha. As a result, Sylphy wins and quickly follows behind Myne and soon loud moans can clearly heard from the bathhouse.

An hour later, Myne came out of the bathhouse naked, he saw Aisha wearing an erotic transparent nighty standing beside the bedroom with a wide grin on her face and licking her lips.

Seeing such beautiful scenery in front of him Myne naturally had no mood to waste time, he hurriedly came to Aisha and locked his lips with her while lifting her up and jumping on the bed.

Compare to Sylphy who was still a noob, and easily lost consciousness because of intense pleasure after some rounds, Aisha who is not only a pervert but also a semi-sex addict clearly has more experience, not only did she and Myne f*ck each other like beasts for nearly 4 continuous hours but they also did it in front of dumbfounded Sylphy who come out of bathhouse after waiting for 2 hours thinking that they might already finish their love making, but she was very wrong, and has to watch Myna and Aisha's wonderful techniques which enlighten her greatly.

"Your guys are intimating like wild animals, I wonder if I wasn't present here would you even stop? Just how much you both miss each other? And most importantly why can't I last so long like you?" Sylphy while lying on the left side of Myne with her head on his chest asked envyily.

"Don't worry about it, you will also last long after you put away your shyness. You still behave like a nearly wed girl, who just lost her virginity, Once you open fully in front of us, you will also follow the footsteps of Aisha, I can say it guaranteedly," Myne said with a smile and gave a light kiss on Sylphy forehead.

"But I like your shy personality, because of it, I can spend more time with Myne, so if possible you don't have to hurry, please take your time and slowly with turtle pace overcome your shyness," Aisha who was lying the right side of Myne using his arm as a pillow said with a giggle while messing with Sylphy's hair.

"Hey, you are not allowed to touch my head, only Myne can do this, also I will soon overcome my shyness, just you wait, I won't let Myne disappoint, and will give a tough competition," Sylphy said with a newfound determination.

"By the way, girls, tomorrow I am going to take a special place and there not only I will help you to get a special skill but also give both of you some other new skills as well. Although I didn't want to make you feel sad, but currently you two are too weak, and with this level of strength, I can't be rest assured about your safety, so it is time to make you two powerful," Myne said seriously.

"What!!!"

"But Myne, you will lose your lifespan if you use your Transfer skill to give us skills, and I can't accept something that costs your life," Sylphy said hurriedly with concern.

"Yes, that skill is too evil, you shouldn't take it lightly and use it as if it cost nothing, although currently maybe we are quite weak but we can become powerful as long as we train hard," Aisha said stubbornly forbidding Myne to use his transfer skill which cost him a month of lifespan for each use.

Myne, seeing his both lovers care, felt excalmly warmth in his heart, and nodded his head with satisfaction at his vision of choosing his life partner.

"Girls, relax and listen to me, you don't have to worry about my lifespan if I don't use my transfer skill in my entire life, then believe me till you both become century-old grandmas I will still look like middle-aged handsome man," Myne said while laughing.

"What!! How can this be," Aisha who is most concerned about age, and her appearance exclaimed while standing up and looking at Myne with disbelief.

Sylphy wasn't any better than Aisha, she also stood up and stared at him waiting for him to reveal his secret of a long life, after all this universal truth that every girl wanted to live long and stay young and beautiful.

Just as Aisha and Sylphy stood up, Myne immediately ignored their shocked and surprised expressions, and his all attention was drawn toward two pair of naked beautiful jiggling big boobies in front of his eyes.

Hum, now if I closely observe both of their boobies, then Sylphy's boobies look a little bigger than they were previously, Myne thought seriously.

"Myne, stop staring at our breasts and tell us how you increased your lifespan. I never heard this kind of bizarre thing before," Aisha asked impatiently seeing Myne ignoring them and just staring at their breasts continuously even though he had played with them for 5 continuous hours.

"Yes, Myne, there is no record in the Royal library which says that any Hume may have extended their lifespan," Sylphy, although didn't show an impatient look like Aisha and spoke calmly but she also sighed helplessly for Myne's perverted personality.
