

Cheat. A 181

Chapter 181: Sharing information...

"Yes, Myne, there is no record in the Royal library which says that any Hume may have extended their lifespan," Sylphy said confusedly.

"Hehe, doesn't this mean I am going to be the first Hume who has extended his lifespan and now going to live for more than 2 centuries? Anyway, both of you should be happy that when you both become grandmas you can still see my handsome face whom you love the most. Don't you think it would be very exciting?" Myne said with a wide playful grin on his face.

"Ouch!"

"Now, if want to see your little brother safe then tell us the truth otherwise, it can be excruciating," Aisha with a deadly serious expression said while holding Myne's little brother tightly and she was tightening her grip with every passing second, which made Myne shiver, although he knows that this is just an empty threat but he is doesn't want to take any risk with his little brother.

"Okay, okay, I speak, please let it go. Aisha, honey, don't play with fire, it can ruin your future happiness," Myne said nervously feeling Aisha tighten her grip on his little brother.

"Then speak quickly, it has already been 2 o'clock at midnight, and Sylphy and I also have to go to shopping tomorrow, there are hundreds of things we have to buy before the wedding, unlike you we care about our wedding.

But if we don't get proper sleep, then how are we going to do our work appropriately?" Aisha said while calming down and loosening her grip on her most precious thing, which she clearly never in her dream can think about harming.

"Actually, the story is straightforward, after I rescue that dragon child, and give him back to his parents, in order to show their gratitude Lord Jormungandr gives me a rare magical fruit which increases the lifespan of the person who eats it by a hundred years, and as you can already see that I have eaten that fruit and increased my age to a hundred years.

This is also the reason why I was saying that I will give both of you some powerful skills later, anyway now I have more than enough lifespan even if I lose a few years of my life in exchange for the safety of both of you, I will do so boldly, Myne said with a genuine smile while hugging his both wives tightly.

But unknown to him his simple heartwarming speech left his both wives stunned, and his position in their hearts directly reached on the top.

"Sigh, why did you bark so much nonsense, can't you say this directly? Myne, you are becoming more and more naughty recently," Sylphy said with a small chuckle.

"Ohh? Sylphy, I didn't expect you would say such a thing, where did you hide my shy and lovely little princess? It seems like you already started getting infected by Aisha's naughty personality, this is not a nice sign," Myne said while raising his eyebrow.

"Huh? What did you say about me?" Aisha said with a frown while tightening her grip on Myne's dick again with who she was playing just a moment ago.

"Sorry... Sigh, Aisha, you are now becoming more like a lady boss who wants everything under control, it is a little scary," Myne said helplessly while skillfully moving his hands to his both wives' boobies and starting massaging them gently to calm down himself.

"Anyway, joke aside for a while, and be serious, in the morning you both coming with me to get your new skills, I want you two to be powerful enough that no one can mess with you, other than me of course, but before you fall asleep let me tell you some important facts which I learn accidentally.

Saying such Myne while playing with Aisha and Sylphy's boobs, start telling them some important things, first of all, he told them about the Tenfold Experience Acquisition skill which is also the reason behind his ultra-fast levels upgrading speed, but he only told them how this pervert cheat like skill work and in order to not ruin the element of surprise he didn't tell them where he gets it, let their brain horse run wild all night and when they really know that this skill comes from the weakest monster whom everyone looks down, their expression really will be worth watching.

Then Myne told them about the existence of concepts like levels and proficiency levels of skills as well as the different types of abilities of monsters in this world, which he discovered using Appraisal skill.

And also gave them a detailed explanation about the three extremely powerful skills he obtained from the Orc King, namely, [ King's Intimidation ] OP skill when dealing with weak mobs, [ Realize ] Super creative skill, only if its time-related problem can be solved then nemesis of the entire trading system as with this he can make all-most all the non-living things present in the world, and finally [ Unique Magic · Space-time ] very helpful transport and attack type skill, but this time he modified this information a little and told them that he got them with help of Fenrir.

"Omg, how can there be so many perverted skills? And here I always thought that my healing skill was very rare, but compared to yours my skills felt like a total waste," Aisha mumbled disappointed.

"Don't be sad, you will also have powerful skills, just wait some hours, and according to our Hume standard your skills are indeed quite rare and powerful, the skills I am using all come from monsters, so it is normal that they are more unique and powerful," Myne said lightly and give a deep kiss to Aisha to lighten her mood.

"So are we going to look for that Tenfold Experience Acquisition skill, tomorrow?" Sylphy asked while tilting her head after Myne and Aisha were done with their kissing.

"Yep, as expected of my little princess, you understand my intention so quickly, as reward let me make you feel good again, after all we only play a few rounds before and I still want to have some more fun with you before going to bed," Myne said playfully and grab Sylphy's ass tightly, lifted her up, and made her sit on top of him, then before she refuses and ruin his mood, he places the tip of his little brother at the entrance of her vagina.

"No, Myne, please don't, Aisha is watching us, we can't do it right in front of her," Sylphy begged nervously while trying to escape from Myne's tight embrace, but in front of Myne whose levels were dozens of times higher than her, clearly it was no use, and Myne after giving her a passionate kiss, thrust his little brother deep inside her.

"Moan..."

"Sorry, honey, since you watched Aisha and I having sex, then it is only natural for Aisha to now watch us with envy, don't worry, like you, Aisha also doesn't care whether we have sex in front of her or not," Myne said a wide evil smile before he starts moving his hips.

"How can you say that I don't care? I also want to have your big dick inside me, okay. Look just how much my pussy gets wet by watching you two having fun. Sigh, being the elder wife is also such a pain in the ass.

Remember to not make too much sound, I am going to sleep, I don't think I have any chance to get some fun tonight anymore," Aisha said while watching Sylphy riding Myne's dick with her tongue hanging out of her mouth with jealousy before shaking her head helplessly and covering her head with quilt.

"Oye you two love birds, get up, are you going to sleep the whole day or what?" Aisha said with envy while watching Myne and Sylphy sleeping soundlessly while cuddling each other.

"Aisha, please let me sleep some more minutes."

Saying such Myne tightly hugged and buried his head inside Sylphy's boobs who just woke up by Aisha's loud voice and pushed his little brother who was inside her all night more deeper inside her directly making it kiss her womb.

"Ammmm... Myne, I am not ready yet..."

"Huh? What?"

Hearing Sylphy's painful voice Myne opened his eyes with great difficulty and saw Sylphy with a little painful expression hugging him tightly while her head rested on his shoulder, he could clearly feel her shaking body.

Then a wave of pleasure hit Myne which immediately made him realize why Sylphy was in pain.

"Sorry, honey, it was completely subconscious, I don't have the Intention to hurt you," Myne said hurriedly and took out his dick from Sylphy's vagina lightly.

"Don't worry, I know you did it unknowingly, maybe before sleeping we should have taken it out, but in the end, we both got extremely tired and fell asleep.

But I am very surprised that your dick was hard all the time, I can feel that my pussy is very sore and its walls are trying to fill the tunnel left by your big dick," Sylphy said with a giggle and after giving Myne a morning kiss, she left his embrace with a red face, and after greeting Aisha lightly she hurriedly run toward the bathhouse.

"Hehe, she is still a noob, I remember when I put my little brother inside you all night, and the next day when you woke up, instead of crying out of pain, you first tightly hug me, then secretly start moving your hips while acting as if you are in deep sleep, that experience was really eye-opening for me," Myne said while laughing.

"What! Did you know about it? No wonder you didn't wake up that time even after I cum two times, I always wonder how can you sleep so deeply that even after making so much movement and noise right on top of your body you still didn't wake up," Aisha said with a frown.

"Haha, it is not my fault that you fail to notice me peeking at you all the time, especially your jiggling boobs. Only I know just how much willpower I use to not touch them, for me that was more harder than holding back my moan," Myne said giggling while getting out from the bed and hugging Aisha from behind.

"Can you please take a bath first? You are really not smelling very nice," Aisha said while covering her nose.

"As you wish Wifuu, by the way, can you please bring breakfast for us while Sylphy and I take a bath? So after eating, we can start our work?" Myne asked and after getting a nob from Aisha, he gave her a deep kiss and lightly slapped her jelly-like butt before heading toward the bathhouse.

"Tsk, pervert," Aisha mumbled under her breath while watching Myne's booty while licking her red lips with an evil smirk.
