Chapter 194: Wedding Preparation (Part-2)

"So she is your sister, huh? Blood-related?" The blonde asks while sitting on the receptionist's desk while placing one leg on top of the other, and her arms crossed under her gigantic boobs supporting them firmly.

"Yes, and no, we are not blood-related but we are closer than real siblings," Myne's said with his trademark smile, while observing the milf in front of him up and down, his eyes pause for some seconds when they fall on the small gape in between her legs which revealing her slightly wet pitch black yellow.

"I see, hehe, but you know it is not a good thing to peek inside a lady's skirt, right?" The Blonde said with a small chuckle. "But if you really want to see it then you can just ask directly I don't mind being admired by a young handsome guy like you."

"Naa, it's okay, I was just looking causally," Myne hurriedly rejected The blonde request.

"Hehe, you are so cute, follow me, we have to do a lot of work. By the way, my name is Hena," Hena said while taking Myne to the first floor.

After coming to the first floor, Hena opened a locked door and entered her personal workplace where she only served some of her most important guests.

"Go sit down on that chair, also don't forget to take off all your clothes," Hena said as she cleaned her hands on a wash basin.

"What! But why do I have to be naked?" Myne asked with cautiousness, he can clearly see that something is wrong going on in this milf head.

"Ara, Ara, now you are behaving like a bad boy, hum? Don't you remember what your sister said before leaving, be obedient, otherwise with her temper, I shouldn't need to remind you what would happen right?" Hena said with an evil smirk.

Myne seeing Hena's smile could only bite the bullet, and slowly remove his clothes, he knew that he was caught at a dead end...

"Ohh, yes, please go faster, I am at my limit..."

"Ammm, let it out in my mouth then, I have never expected that someone's dick can be so tasty," Hena took out Myne's dick from her mouth for a second to speak while rubbing it between her giant breasts before again devouring it like a hungry ghost.

"Sister Hena, I... I can't take it anymore, I am about to cum!" Myne exclaimed loudly before putting his hands on Hena's head, pushing his dick deep inside her throat, and releasing a big load of cum inside her mouth.

"Ammmnn..."

"Paaaa! It is a really a lot of cum, I didn't expect that you would release so much, look it starts coming out of my nose," Hena after swallowing cum inside her mouth and cleaning Myne's little brother completely with her tongue spoke like a slut.

"Alas, I can only give you this much happiness, any more than this and this little shop of mine is done for, go wear your clothes, your sweet big sister might be waiting for us..."

By the way, if you have time, don't forget to visit me again, next time I will show you some of my personal techniques, believe me, you love them very much," Hena said while giving Myne a knowing wink, before wearing her top and walking out of the room.

Sigh, her techniques are damn too good, especially the way she moves her tongue, that level of flexibility...

Sigh, Aisha needs to learn a lot of things, I have to get that book that Hena show me, although for this I might have to satisfy her old pussy but anyway, for the greater good sacrifices are inevitable, Myne thought with a determined look while walking toward Maya and Hena who were talking about the payment.

"Do you have any idea what are talking about? Just to cut hair, and clean a face with a little bit of massage and cosmetics, you want me to pay you five platinum coins? Do you take me as an idiot, like those nobles?" Maya asked with a frown while raising her eyebrow.

"Then how much do you want to give," Hena asks while gritting her teeth angrily.

"50 gold coins and that is the final price, no further discussion, take it if you want, otherwise, we are leaving. We still have a lot of things to do."

"50 gold coins! Do you have any idea what are talking about? Who do you think I am? I am the greatest cosmetologist in this entire kingdom, even the queen has called me to serve her many times, and you are giving those puny coins for my hard work?"

F*ck off from my shop, I don't need your f*cking money," Hena yells out angrily while panting heavily trying to hold herself back from jumping on Maya, and beating her to death.

"As you wish then, let's go Myne, Hena is a very busy person, and it is not good to waste her precious time anymore," Maya said with a happy smile without any shame, and started walking toward the exit.

"Sorry, please don't take Sis's words to heart, she is just like that. Here is your payment, don't tell her about it, also I will visit you later, and your mouth technique is f*cking great. See you then, bye," Myne hurriedly whispered in Hena's ear while eyeing Maya, and giving a small pouch to her. After stealing a light kiss from Hena, he quickly followed up with Maya.

"Hooo, at least her brother has some sense," Hena muttered while taking deep breaths, then she opened the pouch handed to her by Myne, in which she saw 10 platinum coins.

That little guy is more interesting than I thought, it seems like I have to show him more things to become his friend, Hena thought with a giggle while licking her lips seductively and looking in the direction where Myne and Maya went.

"Finally over! I have never felt so tired before," Myne said while lying on the bed with his arms and legs spread wide open.

Don't talk nonsense, we have only been to three shops, and it didn't even take us more than six hours to complete your shopping, how can you be tired? You had f*ck me like a beast for the entire night, compare to that, this little bit of shopping is nothing," Maya said while taking off her clothes.

It is simple for you to say, you are literally threatening every shop owner we meet, all of whom coincidentally were your old friends or enemies, Myne thought angrily but dared not to tell those things to Maya.

"What's your plan now?" Maya asked seeing Myne silent.

"Nothing, going back to the girls, eat something made by them before going to bed, why?" Myne asked while staring at naked Maya who was coming to him, with her hands on her hips.

"Great, since you don't have anything important to do, then won't you give your Big Sis her reward for the hard work she deserves?" Maya seductively asked while removing Myne's pants.

"Of course, why not, I am a very generous person after all, who treats his workers very nicely," Myne said jokingly while taking Maya into his arms and start kissing her...

"Girls, I am back!!"

Myne after f*cking Maya for 2 entire hours with his all might till she falls asleep with a big smile plastered on her face, finally drags his tired body back to his room.

"Welcome back! How was your day?" Aisha sitting on the couch playing with Waffle, and Ted asked with a smile while handing him a glass of water.

Exhausting, a little bit lucky, and adventurous, what about yours? How was your shopping, did you buy anything for your poor husband?" Myne asked jokingly after drinking water and collapsing on the couch lazily.

"Well, our day was great, we wandered around the entire city, bought a lot of things, ate many different things, beat some hooligans who wanted to take our advantage, and all in all, we had a lot of fun. As for you, we bought a nice dress, look there it is," Aisha said excitedly while pointing at the fully opened wardrobe in which hung a three-piece black suit.

* Here is pic *

"F*cking hell, so beautiful, where did you buy it?" Myne asked with shock and surprise. After seeing the suit his tiredness vanished instantly.

"Actually, we didn't buy it from any shop, Sylphy ordered the royal tailor to make it specially for you," Aisha replied calmly very satisfied with Myne's reason. "Also, have I told you that the drawing of the suit was prepared by me?"

"What! Do you also know how to draw? Why you didn't tell me before?" Myne asked while giving Aisha a bear hug with a deep thank you kiss.

"You never ask before," Aisha said with a chuckle.

"Looks like you guys having fun behind my back don't you?" Suddenly Sylphy entered the room and spoke playfully.

"Of course not baby, how can we have fun without you? Let me say thank you for your special present as well," Myne happily said and after pulling Sylphy into his arms, he gave her a deep kiss while gently squeezing her ass as well.

"Well, that was quite a surprise," Sylphy said with red cheeks.

"Hehe, It is jus..."

Knock-knock...

Just as Myne and his wives' heat of lust was rising to the peak, and clothes were about to leave their bodies, a sudden knock on the door ruined their entire mood.

"Come in," Sylphy annoyingly said while leaving Myne's embrace.

"Sorry for the disturbance, Your Highness, but Your Majesty gave a summon. Please make your way to his private room immediately," After saying that the middle-aged maid bowed deeply and walked out of the room.

Sigh, now what the hell does my cheap Father-in-law want this time, Myne annoyingly thought while rubbing his head.
