

Cheat. A 20

Chapter 20. Mysterious Amma

After this Aid probably never give me any discount, Myne thought while walking toward the armor shop, which was just five meters away from Aid's shop.

Ev though blacksmith is a good profession where you can easily make a large amount of money but only under two conditions, first one is you have a big business in the capital city or any other place with a high population, where you don't have to worry about customers and second is that you know how to make magic item/weapons, if you do th you don't have to worry about anything, people can ev sell their wives to you for a magic item.

This was also the reason why Aid looked so sad after losing 5 gold coins in vain, because he wasn't qualified to complete any of those two conditions, and rectly his business is also not working very well, since most of the people in Lucas Town hardly use any strong and expsive weapons and since Lucas Town is quite close to capital city so ev if people wanted to buy expsive weapons th they buy them from the capital city, where royal family themself run a big weapon store.

I also wt there once but just after seeing price tags of weapons on display, I immediately turned a and walk out of the store, because the shopkeeper was insane, he put a tag of 00 gold coins on a simple-looking small knife, Only God knows what is so special about that knife, that it was so expsive, and if it was a magic item th I can still understand but that was just a normal knife made of gold and silver.

After that day, other than buying my favorite sweets that are only sold in the capital city, I never buy anything from there.

Soon I come in front of a dect-looking three-story shop, where a big sign of two girls where one girl wearing leather armor on her good-looking dress, while the other one is wearing a colorful dress with all kinds of flowers design printed on it and below those two girls shop names 'Freestyle Streetwear Armour and Clothing Vault' is writt hanging on the top of the shop.

Even though the shop name is quite long and unique but because of this, Ethan's shop is running well, and there is only one main reason behind the success of his shop, and that is Ethan's wife, who is super talented in clothes making and business management.

Before marriage, Ethan's shop was also like his big brother Aid, who wasn't running quite well but after marriage, Ethan's wife Amma completely took over command of the shop.

First, she gathered all of her and Ethan's savings which was quite a lot, and rebuilt the tire shop again, where on the ground floor they sell all kinds of lady's clothes, on the first floor they sell armor, and on the last floor, they made their house.

With Amma's management not only did she make her clothing business popular that even people from the capital city come here to buy clothes but she also helps her husband to design a new type of cool-looking armor, and because of that Ethan's armor business once again came on the right track.

By the way, the erotic maids dress that most girls are wearing in Inns and bars was also Amma's creation, those types of dresses are her main source of income because she is the only clothes designer in the tire Augusta Kingdom who made erotic clothes.

"Good afternoon!" I said after entering the shop.

"Welcome in the freestyle... Ohh! Myne so it's you, Good afternoon," Amma said with a smile while standing up from the chair after seeing me.

Amma is a 7-year-old beautiful hot milf type woman, who has long pink hair with black eyes, an hourglass shape body, two giant E-Cup size big breasts that can easily seduce any man, and big bubbly butt. Currntly, she is wearing an oversize T-shirt under which she hides her two giant melloes and short blur color skirts that come to her knees.

Ohh! Amma has three titles? And what kind of things she did do that she get the title of pervert??
Myne thought and hurriedly oped the title description.

[Master Seamstress (Title)]

(Exclusive to women.)

Title effect: . Increase the quality of the Host creation by 30%.

. 5% chance that just after seeing the customer Host immediately found out what he needed.

3. Increase Host charms toward the opposite sex three-fold.

F*ck! Just looked at those titles' effects, this is completely cheating. No wonder she became so popular, with those kinds of title effects even a loser can become a successful business, let's not talk about a smart woman like Amma, Myne thought with amazement.

With those titles' descriptions, one thing is clear, other than erotic clothes, Amma also made other sex-related things. But what can she make other than clothes?

Myne thought he have no idea what kind of things Amma made that she get the title of a pervert but one thing he knew was that those things are not just for wom because he saw many times that some m also come here to buy something once in a while, first he thought that those guys just wanted to buy some armors but one day he saw a man who was buying somethings from Amma and I can say with my full confidce that thing has nothing to do with cloth or armor but because I was a little farther from th I can't see want that man buy.

Should I also buy something for Amma, in order to see what kind of weird things she sells? But what shall I tell her for whom am I buying this for?? After all, she clearly knows that I don't have any girlfrid and I can't ev say that I am buying that for Big Sis Maya, since those private things that Amma sells are probably not something that a brother should give to her sister.

it seems like Amma's private shop will be a mystery for me until I made Aisha my girlfrid, Myne thought while shaking his head.

"Myne, where are you those days, now you rarely come here," Amma asked as she come in front of me.

"Well, I was a little busy those days because some days ago I awaked my skills and I was a little excited about this so I don't have time to come here. Let's not talk about that what are saying before seeing me?" Myne asked while secretly stealing a glance at Amma's big breasts that continually bounced like balls every time she walk.

Shit! My little brother wakeup after seeing her giant boobies, I have to calm down otherwise with my currt loose pant, she would definitely take a look at my excited little brother, and labeled me a pervert, Myne thought while taking deep breaths to calm down.

"Sigh, that was just for formalities, as you know I have to say that long welcome stce every time someone comes in the shop and which is long ough to make me angry at myself that's, why the f*ck I choose such a long name for my shop.

I mean just look at brother-in-law's shop, ev though he hardly has a handful of customers in the tire day and his shop name is also quite weird but at least he doesn't have to repeat the same stce: 'Welcome to the Freestyle Streetwear Armour And Clothing Vault, that make best quality wom clothes and all kind of armors in the tire Augusta Kingdom, how can I help you (◦ · ̇-)◇ (wink with a smile)', Amma said with an annoying look clearly she doesn't like managing as shop as much as like to create new things.

"Because of this reason I am thinking about changing my shop name and this time I'll keep it short as much as possible, so I don't have to say that wretched stce once more," Amma said.

"Th why didn't you just hire someone for this who can do those little things for you, I think this will be easier for you than changing the shop name," Myne asked confusedly.

"Sigh, I also wanted to hire someone but I can't, Since I can't find any appropriate girl for work, who have good knowledge about clothes and also knows little about managemt," Amma said with a helpless smile.

"By the way, your dagger looks quite nice, did you buy it from my brother-in-law?" Amma asked after seeing my dagger that I forgot to put in invtory.

"Yes, I just bought it from him, and he also gave me a good discount, ohh and this is for you and big bro Ethan," I said while taking out two 5 kg orc meat bags from my storage bag (Invtry) and handing them to Amma.

"What is this?" Amma asked with surprise.

"This is the meat of the orc whom I hunted some days ago, that was my first time battling with a big opponent so in order to celebrate I decided to share that orc meat with my every friend, I also give two bags to big bro Aid", Myne said with a smile.

"Ohh, how sweet, that's why I like you so much," Amma said happily with a big smile while hugging Myne tightly and burying his face in her big breasts.

Ahh, so soft, I wish time would stop now and I can stay like this, Myne thought happily while inhaling Amma's smell that comes from her breasts like a pervert and slowly he started rubbing his head on Amma's boobies.

But in the end, his wish doesn't become true, and Amma pulls out his head from her breasts and said while giggling, "Myne I think I woke up your little brother."

"Huh?" Myne hurriedly looks down and saw that like a well-trained soldier, his little brother already became rock-hard, ready for action at any time, now it just needs a cave to show its might.

"Hahaha, don't worry about it, this is a normal thing at your age, but it seems like you should start searching for a girlfriend for yourself, and my blessing is with you that you will soon find a good girl for yourself," Amma said while giving a wink to me.

"Thank you for your blessings then," Myne said embarrassingly while trying to hide his little brother with his hands.

"So, what do you want to buy today," Amma asked while walking toward the counter in order to not make Myne more embarrassed.

But as soon as Amma's eyes turned away from Myne, He put his hand under his pant and hurriedly adjust his little brother in a comfortable position because after his little brother woke up, it become a little difficult for him to walk.

"I want to buy good quality leather armor for 30 gold coins," Myne replies while walking toward Amma with a satisfied smile.

"Ohh, so you want leather armor, huh, it is really a good choice for you since most of the time you fight with a bow and arrows. Okay th, let's go to the first floor and see if we found good leather armor for you," Amma said while walking on the stairs

Soon while following Amma, I come to the first floor where they sell armor, most of the shop is filled with various kinds of armor, there is leather armor, a complete set of knight armor, body armor for healers, and bikini armor.

Huh? Wait Bikini armor(/0)/!! There is also such a thing in the armor category?? Myne thought with a wide op mouth while looking at a short two-piece armor that can hardly cover anything. This armor is only big ough to cover the nipples of boobies and a little area of pussy, while the remaining tire body is left op to show everyone. Who the f*ck made this thing?

I can't believe that this thing can ev protect its wearer from a little insect, let's not talk about other monsters, Myne thought unhappily but still out of curiosity, he looked at the price tag which was 500 gold coins.

F*ck, so expsive! What kind of joke is this, Myne thought but this time as Myne continually starring at the bikini armor price tag with eyes wide op, Amma saw his expression and said with a smile, "this is a magic armor with defsvive magic, that's why it's the price is so high ev though it can only cover most private part of a woman."

Ohh, so that's why it's so expensive huh, it is already too rare to find a magic item in Lucas Town, selling this magic armor here can also consider a big event for town people, Myne thought with an understanding look.

"But why are you guys selling this magic armor in the town? Wasn't it will be better if you put it in the auction in the capital city??" Myne asked Amma confusedly.

"Because we wanted to attract more people to our shop through this," before could Amma say anything Ethan came beside Amma and said with a smile.

Ethan looked the same as his big brother Aid but the only difference between both brothers is that Ethan has a beautiful and smart wife and a little beard, while Aid didn't have both of them.

The host can see the value of that person or item betwe to (is low while is highest) wh this skill is used.

Restrictions: can only use once a day on one thing or person.

Shit! so this way he found Amma, and I always wonder how can someone's luck be so great. So, he was just cheating till now.

Finally, now I know how can one brother have nothing special, while the other one having great days of life, so this is secret behind his success and it's seemed like Ethan also found this magic armor accdttally while using his skill, otherwise he wasn't hurriedly come in middle of my and Amma conversation, it seems like he doesn't tell Amma about his skill, Myne thought but he doesn't change the expression on his face.

"Honey, why are you holding this trash-looking dagger?" Amma asked after seeing a black color dagger in Ethan's hand, she didn't take Ethan's weird behavior seriously.

"Ohh this, nothing, I found this dagger in front of our shop this morning, so I just picked it up, I am just about to throw this away," Ethan said while laughing awkwardly.

"Th why don't you give it to me big bro Ethan, I just need a spare dagger for dismantling my prey, I think it will be useful for me," I said calmly while acting normally.

Well...ev though Ethan clearly didn't want to give his dagger to Myne but before he could make an excuse to decline Myne's request, Amma hurriedly took the dagger from Ethan's hand and in front of Ethan's unwilling eyes, she gives it to Myne with a smile and said, "If you need th this is your from now on."

"Thank you, big sis Amma," Myne said happily and hurriedly put his new black dagger in the storage pouch.

Look how is that leather armor, I think will be perfect for you, Amma said while pointing at the black-colored leather armor.

"Ohh, which one?" Myne said while hurriedly walking toward Amma who is taking out a leather armor from the wall, Now I don't want to spd a single more second under the same roof with Ethan because now he is looking at me like I kill his parts, and raped his wife (that I really wanted to do).

It will be better if I hurriedly buy armor and get out of here, Myne thought while taking armor from Amma.

[Iron defense (Leather Armor)]

Defense Power: + 40

Grade: Medium

Attribute: Wind

Effect: Increase Agility by %.

Description: A leather armor made of the skin of an Iron wolf, who is known for his solid defense and high speed. Perfect for someone who likes speed but also wants defense.

That's why people called Amma gius, just with a single glance she found perfect armor for me, Myne thought while nodding his head with satisfaction.

"How much is the price I take this," Myne said to Amma.

"Originally its price was 40 gold coins but since you brought orc meat for us, you can give us 30 gold coins for this armor," Amma said with a smile.

"Here, 30 gold coins," Myne immediately handed money to Amma since he knows that she is a wealthy individual.

"Okay th, big sis Amma I am going now see you later," Myne said while walking down the stairs.

"Okay, Myne, don't forget to visit me again and please close the shop door after leaving," Amma said loudly.

"I won't forget," Myne said and hurriedly left the shop after closing the shop door.

Why it's felt like I am a thief, who is running after stealing someone belonging? Myne thought as walking toward Big Sis Maya's house because after Amma gave him that hug, his little brother did not calm down, now only she can help me to calm him down.

But why it seems like I really steal someone's treasure, Myne thought as he took out the black color dagger that he got from Ethan, (ev though he doesn't want to give him) let's see what's so special about you that Ethan nearly cries out after losing you, Myne thought with an evil smile.
