

Cheat. A 25

Chapter 25. First Kill

Sighhh! It seems like that fatty really joying his life quite well while making a huge amount of money from Tex, otherwise, he won't leave this mansion for his guest so easily, Myne thought while looking at the Japanese-style luxurious mansion in front of him, that Lucas Town, Town Lord made with the help of a foreign businessman, who is come to the Augusta Kingdom for business.

Ev though that foreign businessman didn't get the approval for business from the King but he fooled the Town lord with his smooth talk and after taking nearly 90% of his money, that foreign businessman made this weird mansion for him.

In the beginning town lord really like this mansion but since this mansion is quite huge and It took some time and a lot of stamina to go from one side to the other, that's why our idiot chubby town lord moved back to his old mansion and start using this mansion as a guest house to impress his guest.

So how do I go inside now? Myne thought while staring at two guards, who is standing in front of the only trance of the mansion, and there is a 3-meter high wall a the rest of the mansion.

It doesn't seem like those guards going to sleep soon, let's see a first, if I didn't find any other way to go inside, th I have to find something to distract those two guards, Myne thought as started walking beside the wall.

But just as Myne walk 0 meters away from the mansion's main trance, he saw a lot of construction material on the vacant land near the mansion, It seems like tonight God is also with me, Myne thought as he walked toward piles of bricks.

After that Myne put tire piles of bricks inside his Inventory and after coming in front of the mansion's outer wall, he start taking out bricks one by one and putting them in front of the wall on top of each other until made support big ough from the bricks on which he could climb across the wall.

Now this is called the perfect strategy to ter someone's house, Myne thought while nodding his head and with making little effort, he successfully climbs onto the wall and after jumping off the wall he tered the mansion mini gard.

But just as Myne safely landed on the g without making any sound, he heard more than one creature snoring behind him.

Fuck! Please don't wake up. Please wake up, Myne pray in his heart while slowly looking back, and saw that behind him three one-meter big black-colored dogs were sleeping peacefully just meters away from him, without knowing that an intruder is standing just right in front of their nose.

Huu! Thank God, that those dogs didn't wake up, otherwise I would probably have to go to town jail tonight, Myne thought while taking a sigh of relief.

After that Myne, while making as little noise as possible, slowly walked away from those dogs toward a room whose gard-side window was oped.

At least now I don't have to think about how to ter the mansion and which motherf*cker plan it was to raise those dangerous-looking dogs.

it's good that I didn't make any sound after jumping from the wall, otherwise, a little bit of noise is ough to wake up those dogs, because of those kind motherf*ckers, today's assassin job become so difficult, Myne complains in his mind as he tered the room through the window.

As Myne entered the room, he remembered an important thing, he can't see anything because of the darkness.

Sigh, it seems like I'm not ready to become an assassin, Myne thought as he looked at the room but because of the darkness, he couldn't even see his hands let's not talk about seeing other things in the room.

What to do now? If I use a candle or magic lamp then they will make too much light but without light, I can't even see my own fingers, how the hell do I search for my treasure... I mean my targets, Myne thought as he used appraisal skills on himself to see if he has any skills that can use in this situation.

Well, I hope this skill can give me enough sight to let me see something in the darkness, Myne thought as he activated his skill 'Sight Enhancement (Small) '.

As Myne activates his skill, even though he can't start seeing everything as he can in the day time but still his vision becomes clear enough that now at least he can do his work in darkness without much difficulty.

After that Myne started looking around to see into whose room he entered, but after looking down he nearly got a heart attack.

Because on the ground three girls aged 4 to 5 probably maids of this mansion were sleeping peacefully with something that looks like a black paste, which was put on their faces like a mask that looked quite horrible with a dark background.

After seeing such a sight, even the bravest of brave people can be scared, let's not talk about Myne who is afraid of ghosts so much that just after hearing their name his legs start shaking.

F*ck! What kind of witchcraft those girls are doing in the middle of the night? If not for the fact that tonight I have already seen more than enough ghostly things and maybe even a real ghost as well, then I would have already started shouting like a little girl, Myne thought while taking deep breaths to calm down.

Today's girls really do all kinds of weird things in order to make their faces beautiful, Myne thought as he hurriedly walked out from those girls' rooms, he doesn't even look at those girls properly, since he didn't want to spend even a single second in that kind of scary room.

Now I hope I don't watch this kind of thing again, Myne thought but just as he walked steps away, he heard two men's voices from a room that was just 5 meters away from those maids' room.

"Don't you think this is too big for you?"

"Don't worry, this is not that big, it's just yours is too little compared to mine."

"But this is my first time doing this, that's why I didn't know much about it."

"Haha... Today I will show you what a real treasure looks like, you will never forget it after enjoying it."

"But what if someone shows up?"

"Why didn't you think about it before? Now it is already too late to think about those kinds of things, and as far problem, that someone might see us, don't worry about it, I have already done all preparation, tonight nobody will disturb us."

Huh? What kind of treasure are they talking about?? It seems like they are doing something big in the middle of the night, let's see what kind of treasure they have, if it is something too valuable th I won't have many regrets about losing all my money, Myne thought as he slowly oped the door of the room a little bit from inside in which those two m sound was coming and peeked inside the room.

Ohhh! Shit!! Myne shouted loudly inside his mind while his eyes oped so widely that they nearly fallout from their sockets, after seeing the view in front of them.

Th Myne slowly closed the room door and after coming a little farther from that room he sat on the g leaning against the wall while looking at the dark sky.

"GOD! what kind of sin did I commit that I have se that kind of horrible thing, Why didn't you call me to your side before showing all this (𑖑𑖥𑖑)," Myne said while crying without caring that someone might hear him.

I come here to take revge for a frid and also earn some extra money but look what kind of things I have se at such a young age, first those crazy girls and now this, did I have to see more horrible things after that as well?" Myne asked to God in a depressed mood, clearly what he saw inside that room is not something his little 5-year-old weak heart can handle.

Sigh! It seems like I can only hope that now I don't have to seem more weird things, and you guys also joy your time as much as possible wh you complete your work th I will return to take my revge for what you just show me, because of you guys, now I'm definitely gonna have nightmares this tire month, Myne said angrily while looking towards that room.

Inside the room that Myne just oped, in the dim light of a candle two man was standing on the bed while completely naked and kissing each other.

Wh Myne peeked inside the room he saw that the first man who looked young with a thin body suddly slapped the second man's butt and th that second man sat down on the bed in doggy style position while placing his butt in front of the first-person 5 inches long little brother.

After that first man put his one hand on the second person's ass and with help of his second hand he aim the head of his little brother toward the second person's back hole and with a strong push, he tered his little brother into the second person's ass hole. That was the thing that Myne showed.

{ A/J: coughhhh, and here goes my tonight dinner, why hell did I eat before writing this? It seems like I'm also gonna happ to have nightmares tonight like Myne as well, now only after watching some good htai milf videos can I purify my mind. }

After that Myne start walking in the corridor of the mansion while oping the door of every room a little bit and peeking inside them, in order to search for his targets, and since most of the mansion was empty, so it didn't take Myne much time to find his first target.

As Myne siltly tered the room, he saw that a muscular man with a big satisfied smile on his face and a middle age big breasts woman who looked quite dissatisfied were sleeping on the bed completely naked only their lower body parts were covered under the blanket, clearly they just complete their night exercise.

So he is the bodyguard of that gold pig huh, looking at his smile it seems like he joys quite a lot even though his partner doesn't look as happy as him, Myne thought while staring at Aust's partner E-CUP size big breasts.

[Name: Mina

Level: 08

Race: Hume

Gder: Female

Age: 34 y/o

Occupation: Lucas Town, Town lord guest house head maid.

Ev though she is quite old to do this kind of thing with another man but it seems like her husband can't satisfy her needs and now she chooses this Aust to fulfill her needs but looking at her expression it doesn't seem like he did his work properly, Myne thought while finally taking away his eyes from Mina giant boobies.

Now what to do with him? Myne thought as he again stare at Aust, ev though Myne wanted to take June's revge but because this is his first time doing something like taking revge, he doesn't have any idea how to do it, but one thing is crystal clear to him that today he has no inttion of leaving those three rapists alive since only their death will bring Myne a lot of free money and skills.

Just as Myne was thinking about the next course of action, suddly Mina starts moving, like she is about to wake up.

Seeing that Mina is about to op her eyes Myne hurriedly hides behind the bed.

"Sigh, what going on, why can't I sleep today? Who's face did I watch today morning after waking up that today my tire day was so unlucky?? First because of those three idiots yesterday night's party I have to clean this tire mansion again.

After that, this man bothered me the tire day to sleep with him and wh I finally agree, I saw that not only was his dick as small and thin as his finger but just within one minute after the start of our sex, he cum already and also fall asleep immediately without caring about me," Mina said while looking at Aust angrily like if not for the fact that he has quite a powerful backing th she will definitely start beating him but just as Mina talking with herself suddly Myne comes behind her while holding an old fashioned flower vase made of pure high-quality heavy metal in his hand and just as Mina was about looked back as she felt the presce of someone behind her, with a Bam sound, Myne smashed that heavy metal flower vase on her face like he playing baseball.

Without much expectation just as that flower vase touches her face, Mina immediately loses consciousness and finally falls asleep peacefully on the bed, now she definitely not going to wake up before tomorrow morning.

But after hearing the sound Aust who is sleeping beside Mina, also oped his eyes hurriedly but before he could understand what going on, he saw the sight of a metal flower vase in front of his eyes and again with a Bam sound, Aust also fall in lands of sweet dreams.

"Huh! That was close, he is quite cautious ev in his sleep, and here ev if someone comes near me and starts playing the drum ev th I won't wake up from my sleep," Myne said as he again come beside Aust.

Now it seems as if I can only take help from that book, thank god I didn't throw away that book even though I never imagined that I will take it to help so soon, Myne thought as he takes out a new-looking red color book from his Inventory, on its cover page a picture of knife stabbing in someone heart as printed on it and on top of knife book name 'Way To Kill Your Target (The Master Trainer For Noob Assassins)' was written.

This is the most famous book for an assassin that was written by Red Moon, The Leader of the Night Rider Assassin Alliance, even though Myne didn't know who is that guy but because his other two books were quite interesting, so Myne brought all three books at once but after reading this book some chapters Myne became bored since that time he doesn't have any thoughts of becoming an assassin so he didn't think much about it and never read this book again.

We'll let's see its first chapter, I hope this book can help me in this situation, and saw me some way to kill my targets without much bloodshed since I am still mentally not prepared to kill anyone, Myne thought as he first closes the door of the room so no one can disturb him, then he sits down on the stool and opened the first page of the book.

'This is the best chapter for those guys whose this is their first time killing someone but can't handle too much bloodshed.'

On the first page of the book without any kind of unnecessary nonsense or intro author directly start his book.

'Description: A real assassin should have to know how to kill his targets with all kinds of things, and as the first step to walk in journey of becoming a good assassin, let's start it with the most basic and simple assassin tool 'A Big And Soft Pillow' Because it's pillow work to put people to sleep.'

'Instructions:-

. First knockout you're target so he doesn't make any unnecessary problems, and if you still want more security th put something in your target's mouth so ev if he wakes up in the middle of your work, Ev th he can't shout for help.

. Next lay down him/her on the bed or g as you fight and tie him with rope tightly ough that no matter how much he tried to move he can't ev move his body ev an inch.

3. Now, found a big pillow or big blanket.

4. Put that big pillow or folded blanket on your target face.

Special Note: remembered that his tire face should be covered under the pillow or blanket.

5. the Last step, sit down on that pillow that you put on your target face.

Special Note: wh you sit down on that pillow, remembered to hold something for support so you don't fall off from it because your target will use his all strgth to move his body to save his life but you don't move your ass from that pillow until your target becomes completely silce like sleeping baby.

Author Words: If you did what I write in this chapter th you shouldn't have any problem killing your first target but if you still can't do this kind of little thing, th do me a little favor, Immediately burn this book and start working on the farm because this job is not from you.

The End...

Well he is quite a straightforward man, but still, his way of explanation is really good, okay th let's try this trick and killed my life first person, Myne thought seriously and after putting the book again in his Invtory, first he climbs on the bed and pushed unconscious Mina to the g from the bed to make ough space to do his work.

After that Myne took out a thin but strong rope from his Invtory and while following book instructions he tie Aust in a cross shape with both arm and legs wide op, tightly ough that now ev if someone cast chantmt support magic skill on him, ev th he can't move his body no matter how hard he tries.

Th Myne grabs a soft and big pillow from Aust's bed and th after hesitating for some time while at Aust's face, but suddly Aust starts making a perverted face, like he is about to do something interesting in his dreams, but sadly for him, after seeing his disgusting expression, a little bit of hesitation that Myne having on his desition also vanished and Myne put down that pillow on Aust's face.

After that Myne held the bed's wood frame tightly, and th with a little jump sit down on that pillow.

Just as Myne sit down on that pillow, because of a leak of air, Aust's body start straggling subconsciously in order to remove the pillow from his face ev though his real body was still unconscious but because 50 Kg Myne was sitting on top of him, so his all struggle is wasted and in the d, ev after trying his best, he can't move Myne ev an Inch his face and died for the leak of breath.

During this tire process, Myne continually looked at the room ceiling while counting bricks, in order to see how many bricks were used to make this room ceiling, in order to distract his mind from what going on under his ass, but after feeling that Aust's body stop moving he removed his ass from the pillow and got down from the bed.

We'll his game should be over, Myne thought as he removed the pillow from Aust's face but after seeing his scary face with eyes and mouth wide op, he immediately put that pillow on his face again.
