

Cheat. A 58

Chapter 58: Sylphid's Proposal

"So let's start with my family. Do you know why most powerful skills always appear in Royal Family or Noble Families rather than in very unique cases commoner families?" Sylphid said but seeing that both Myne and Aisha just staring at her without saying anything she continue, "That's because of our bloodline."

"We Royals have the purest and most special bloodline, which gives us better skills after awaking because it is in our blood. Let me explain in simple words. You guys know that my father is a very powerful person, right?"

Both Aisha and Myne nodded their head. Nonsense how can the King of a kingdom be a weak person?

"But you might not know that my mother also has many powerful skills, like Healing, Power Boosting, etc, so when my father and mother married each other and give birth to us, we all Princes and Princesses awakened skills far surpassing those of others, and are best combined with each other.

And that happened because both my father and mother have powerful skills, so you can say bloodline also has a great impact on a child awakening powerful skills."

"By the way, I have been Awakened a combination of [ One-handed Sword • Extreme ] and [ Body Enhancement • Large ], one from my father and one from my mother, although they are not as strong as my father and mother but still perfect for me, and there are many ways to improve them, so I don't have much worry."

You can actually improve skill quality? But this is no use for me, I can just steal the highest quality skills, Myne thought, and continue to listen Sylphid's speech.

"This is also the reason why most childr in the commoner families childr didn't awak any worth mtioning skills," Sylphid said while taking a sip from tea.

"To tell you the truth, a kid born from parts with good skills will have an extremely high chance of Awaking good skills from the same system as their parts, but in some special cases, there are also some childr who awak some kind of random skills, which can be very powerful or completely worthless.

So in order to not waste the talt of those childr with good skills, the Royal Family inttionally chooses them as our spouses. This is also one of the ways to search for suitable candidates as marriage partners for their childr who will shoulder the next era.

Thus, wh an adult who has a good Skill appears, their character-personality is investigated carefully by us, and after confirming that there is no problem. Information about that candidate will reveal to the unmarried princes and princesses.

The princes and princesses who have obtained the information will personally confirm the other party's details, and if they judge that there's no problem, they will usher in the other party as spouses and start negotiations with someone of their special condition," Sylphid said with a smile.

"Good, that's really a good way to make the kingdom more powerful, raising talted commoners who don't have ough resources to make themselves powerful, but Princess, why are you telling me this?

I don't think I have done anything worth mtioning the thing that you reveal this kind of top secret information to me, you know sometimes knowing too much is also not a good thing," Myne spoke Innocly as if he doesn't understand anything, and what Sylphid is saying has nothing to do with him.

I should have understood her purpose the moment she reveals her identity, technically speaking she just needs cannon fodder who can become her meat shield, so she doesn't have to force Merry with those children of Noble Families or Prince from other kingdoms. And she doesn't even say the complete truth.

If I remember correctly Mother once said that those commoner children who married with Prince or Princess don't do well, and 70% of those children die within a year after their marriage.

After all, for those Noble families, marrying their children to Prince and Princesses is the most efficient way to raise their status in the Kingdom without doing anything, they just have to marry their children to Royal Family, and Boom, they won the jackpot.

But when they know that an insect that doesn't even worth as the dust of their shoe actually trying to climb on their head, what do you think they do? Myne thought while looking at Sylphid without changing the expression on his face.

Sylphid after hearing Myne's question, paused for a moment, then she looked at Aisha, who was also looking at Myne with a weird expression, clearly, she also didn't expect that someone can be so dumb, the other party had already told the true story but he is still asking who is the main character.

Then Sylphid coughed awkwardly and spoke with a beautiful smile, "So Myne, I came here to confirm with my own eyes whether you have the qualifications to become my partner or not. And after spending some time with you and after seeing your character, I decide that you are qualified to become my life partner."

Although Sylphid try to give her cutest smile while saying that, but in Myne's eyes, this proposal is nothing more than a death contract, once he agreed, a stream of troubles would have been waiting for him.

After hearing Sylphid's proposal which he expected a long time ago, but still not inviting his death early while making Sylphid suspicious that he already knows about his upcoming future after marrying her, Myne made an expression of unbelievable, as if he doesn't believe what he just heard.

Seeing my surprised expression, Sylphid nodded her head with a satisfied expression and spoke.

"Calm down, you already become an adult, so naturally, you also want to choose your partner whom you like, if there is any, right? Though I am a Princess, but I wouldn't force you to marry me with the power of my status," After speaking Sylphid start waiting for Myne's answer. She had already said what she have to, and now she just have to wait and see what Myne want.

Wow, she is so generous, she is even willing to give me the option to choose. But I can say with 99% guarantee that whether I choose, at the end of the day, she is defiantly not going out of my house with an empty hand, after all, in this little kingdom, finding a child of a commoner with good skills is rare as finding a needle in the grass.

Now what should I do? Should I refuse her proposal? What will happen at the most I have to flee from this kingdom, but then what about Big Sister Maya? No, I can't just leave her in the hand of Big Brother Jin, that guy is not reliable, then what should I do? Myne thought but suddenly his eyes fall on Aisha, who is also looking at him with eyes filled with worry, and nervousness.

Sigh, my Aisha really looks so beautiful when she is in worry, I felt sorry for her, we just start to know each other, and now here, this princess comes out from nowhere to mess everything, Myne thought with a sigh helplessly.

"Aisha, are you all right? Why are you sweating so much? Do you have a cold?" Myne asked concernedly to tease Aisha and also to calm down his mind, and walked toward Aisha while placing his hand on her forehead, coughing both her and Sylphid off guard. Clearly none of them expected that Myne instead of giving them an answer about which both of them are dying to hear, would ask about Aisha's health.

"Ahm, I am all right, it is just today the weather is very hot, so I'm just sweating naturally," Aisha said causally while trying to look as much normal as possible, so everyone felt that whatever Myne choose to marry Sylphid or not this has nothing to do with her.

Haha, she really doesn't know how to hide her emotion, ev a blind can say that she is very nervous, at least I finally find out that she also has some feelings for me, Myne thought happily.

"By the way, Myne I wanted to ask you something before you give me your answer about my marriage proposal," Sylphid interrupt Myne and Aisha's thoughts with jealousy writt all over her face.

"Sure, go ahead," Myne said while sitting beside Aisha, which made Aisha very happy but she didn't show this on her face.

"As you already know Royal family gets information about all childr's skills after their awaking, but wh you are fighting with the Orc King, I saw you are using completely differt types of skills, from what you actually awak, so can you explain to me how you do that?"

"Sigh, here comes trouble..."