

Cheat. A 59

Chapter 59: Directly come to the final step? What about the starting and middle ones?

"As you already know Royal family gets information about all childr's skills after their awaking, but wh you are fighting with the Orc King, I saw you are using completely differt types of skills, from what you actually awak, so can you explain to me how you do that?"

"Also if I remember correctly th everyone can only awak a maximum of three skills, and during the fight with the Orc King, you clearly use more than three skills," Sylphid asked while staring into Myne's eyes waiting for his answer.

After hearing Sylphid's question Myne didn't say anything, first, he give Sylphid a deep look, th he look at Aisha who also gulped after listing to Sylphid's question, Seem like she is also quite interested in knowing about his skills, but unlike Sylphid who don't give f*ck about other people privacy, she know her limit and ev after having thousands of questions in her mind, she didn't mtion anything.

If he tells her th it's okay for her, but if he didn't want to tell her th it's okay too.

Myne th took away his eyes from Aisha and looked at Sylphid, with not so fridly expression, and said, "Miss Princess, although I respect you but I'm sorry that I can't fulfill your wish, I also have some privacy, which you defiantly not care about but still I can't tell you about my skills, as it can be life-threatening for me, please try to understand"

Hearing Myne's flat voice without any emotions, Sylphid's curiosity finally calms down a little bit, and her brain again starts working, and she knows that currtly, she is not talking to a commoner but the person who might be her future husband, and hurriedly apologize, "Sorry, I was too agitated.

I absolutely do not have any bad intentions, it is just pure curiosity, if you don't want to talk then don't say. But I am just saying that since me and Aisha already know so much, then why don't you share this secret with us? I promise we won't tell anyone else, also if you need anything you say it, and I will defiantly satisfy your need, in exchange for knowing your secret."

"Really? Any wish?" Myne asked with a smile, directly changing his indifferent expression to an excited one.

"Yes, of course, As your princess, I promise you that no matter what you need, as long as it is within my limit, I will give it to you," Sylphid said proudly.

"Then I sincerely wish that you can respect my privacy and never ask this question again," Myne immediately said, killing Sylphid and Aisha's enthusiasm.

Although Myne knows that he can't always hide his skills from others, so he thought that he can hide them as much as possible while becoming powerful in a low-key manner, so even if one day people know about it, what can they do?

In front of absolute power, everything else is air, but he really didn't expect that to save Aisha, he would accidentally reveal his secret in front of an outsider. If it was only Aisha then it still be okay, as she can already consider his family, at least this what he thinks, but Sylphid is different, if she was a normal person then he would have long since ago silenced her, but she is someone who has a lot of support at her back, and at this moment he is not powerful enough to mess with them, so he can only bite the bullet and see what is waiting for him.

"Sigh, So, you are not going to say anything huh?" After she said that, Sylphid closed her eyes and folded her arms in front of her flat boobs.

There was suddenly pin-drop silence in the room, Myne and Aisha waited for Sylphid for five minutes without moving or doing anything, but after that, Myne lost his patience, he took the fruit salad from the table, and started eating them.

He also offered Aisha, who without saying anything also joined him, just when all the fruit on the plate disappeared into Myne and Aisha's stomachs, Sylphid opened her eyes, and spoke again with a smile.

"Well, then, your skills, your choice, however, you have just become an adult, right? Although your body is a little abnormal compared to your age but can you really secure this secret from others? Today or tomorrow someone will find out that you can use many skills, which doesn't make any sense, then what would you do? You know not every person like me, who will ask you so nicely.

This world is much darker than you can even imagine,"

Is she giving me a lecture on the bad side of the world? Or she is threatening me to tell her about my skills? I don't know what kind of face she makes if she knows that I have already sent quite a few people to hell, and here she telling me how bad this world is, Myne thought fondly.

But while Myne doesn't care about Sylphid's nonsense, Aisha wasn't as calm as him, after all, she doesn't know what kinds of wonderful deeds he did in the darkness of night, so after hearing Sylphid's words filled with care, her brain starts working in a completely different direction, and after going into a flashback, she took a deep breath, suddenly held Myne's hand tightly, looked into his eyes and exclaimed boldly, "Myne!

Let's form a party!"

Aisha's sudden proposal surprised both Myne and Sylphid, neither of the two expected that Aisha would say something like that.

Especially Sylphid, she never expected that a random girl she meet once in her palace, whom she asked for help after seeing her again coincidentally, would put her nose so much in her business, if she know about it in advance, the first thing she would have done is make her disappeared from this town, and only when all her work is over here, did she release her, but now it is too late to cry over spilled milk.

"What do you mean Aisha? I don't understand." Myne asked confusedly, he really have no idea what Aisha meant to form a party.

"What I mean is, Since the princess said that the outside world is too dangerous for a newbie like you, people might start troubled if they find out that you hiding a very big secret then why don't we form a party? Myne, I swear, That I will absolutely never betray you no matter what happened. Even if the whole world were to turn against you, I will always be standing with you.

Your life from this point on, if you were to not have anyone to consult with, I will be there for you. We both support each other in difficult times and beat the hell out of all the bad guys who dare to harm you," Aisha said while showing her fist.

OMG! Where is my handkerchief? I can't stop my tear, why is my luck with girls so good, every girl I deeply contract with, always turn out to be an angel from both looks and heart, I am really so lucky. Who would have thought that Aisha care so much about me?

Other than Big Sis Maya, Aisha is the only people this world who have shown so much care and love for me, I really don't know if I deserve their love or not," Myne thought happily, and without saying anything he give Aisha a tight bear hug, making her cry from surprise.

"Oye, Myne! What are you doing, release me," Aisha said quickly but a smile can clearly be visible on her face.

"You are so nice Aisha, okay, let's form a party, and beats the bad guys together, let's call our party 'Bone Breakers' as we are going to break the bad guys' bones," Myne said with a smile while releasing Aisha unwilling from his hug.

"Hell no way we are going to give our party such a weird name," Aisha immediately declines Myne's cool party name, without hesitation.

While both couples talking and laughing with each other, Sylphid who was completely ignored by them could not help but rub her head confusedly, she still doesn't understand how the situation turn to this point, one momt she was trying to scare Myne so he doesn't make too much trouble for her, and honestly agree for marriage, but just next momt both Aisha and Myne made their own team, and also decide to beat bad guys together.

*Cough!"

After running her brain for a while, Sylphid finally come back to her sse and coughed to attract both love birds attraction toward her, and said with astounded, "Hey, Aisha... Is that your love proposal?"

"Aisha, who had pointed out her little secret by Sylphid, instantly her face become dyed bright red and she hurriedly lowered her head in shame.

What! So she is not just talking about forming a party, but propose me for merry? How did I miss that?

I thought she just wanted to form a party so we can make our relationship more strong before going to the final step, but it seem like Sylphid's presce give her a sse of danger, and she immediately skipped all starting and middle points and directly jumped into the final one, looks like I need more experice in this filed," Myne thought while looking at Aisha cute red face with a knowing smile.

But Aisha after seeing that her little secret was revealed in front of Myne, didn't dare to look into his eyes, she just lowers her face, while mumbling something which Myne didn't hear, as he has a more important thing to do.

Myne then grab Aisha's face with both hands, forcing her to look into his eyes and when she did, he gave her a wide smile, and the next moment both of their lips locked to each other...

*kiss...
