Chapter 65: What you can copy others skills? ( R-18 )

Now since Aisha has also not here, and I also have nothing to do, th let go to Big Sis Maya, if she found out about my marriage with Aisha and Sylphid from someone else th she would defiantly kill me, it is better to inform her first, rather th she comes knocking on my door with rod in her hand, Myne thought.

Th he quickly took a bath and after giving Mightya Trio food, he run toward the Alchemist shop.

After Myne ter the shop, he saw Jin sitting on the counter like always reading a spacious book which doesn't have any good cover or title on it.

"Good Moring Big Bro Jin," Myne greeted Jin and sit down on the empty chair in front of the counter.

"Ohh, good Morning Myne. Today you again come so early, what the matter this time?" Jin asked with a smile after seeing Myne and hurriedly put away his book.

"Nothing, I was on vacation today, and have nothing to do, so I thought it had be quite a long time since I have spd some time with Big Sis, so today I decide to go on a picnic with Big Sis like before," Myne said with a smile.

"Ohh picnic, huh? I thought after getting so much love last time, you won't dare to meet her again for a long time. By the way, you really look super awesome in that look, with dark circles a your eyes filled with tears, and puffy pink colour cheeks with hand prints on them.

Omg, I can't explain just how handsome you are looking that day, after getting betwe by Maya," Jin said with a smile while wiping tears of happiness from his eyes.

"It seems like you are having too much fun Big Bro Jin, and believe me, sometimes having too much is not very good for your health," Myne said with an emotionless face, giving goosebumps to Jin.

"Haha, I am just joking Myne, you are also like your big sister, never understand jokes," Jin said while laughing awkwardly. "She is inside the house still sleeping."

"Okay, I going th, take care," Myne put away his dangerous look, and headed toward the stairs leading to his Big Sis Maya's house.

"Sigh, today's people really do not understand jokes," Jin said helplessly and again took out his book and start reading it.

"This time those guys really spt quite a fortune to make this book, not only story is very lovely, but there are also photos of every female character in it," Jin said while looking at a photo of a wolf lady aged a 30 years old, who is completely naked, her face looks like a mix of Huma and wolf, she can consider a werewolf ( Female version ) but more beautiful, she has a horny expression on her face, her wet pussy continuously dripping love juice, she has a dark skin filled with soft brown hair, G-Cup size boobs, and big bubble butt which can wake up any man inner beast.

"Why the hell those brothels in the capital don't have those breast girls, damn it," Jin said while wiping saliva from his mouth.

As Jin doesn't lock the house door, so Myne without much problem enters the house, and after carefully closing the main door, he headed toward Maya's bedroom.

After entering the bedroom, the first thing that caught Myne's eye, was half-naked Maya, who was only wearing a blue panty, while sleeping peacefully on her bed.

Seeing his Maya in such a nice condition, Myne's little brother immediately becomes active, and since Myne had spent most of the previous night with a beautiful lady on his bed, but can't even touch her, so he was already quite horny, and after seeing such a nice view Myne held himself back for two seconds before removing his clothes.

Then he slowly took the quilt beside Maya, put it on himself and covered himself and half of Maya's lower body in it, and sat down between her legs. After which he first took the smell of Maya's pussy covered by her panty like an old pervert, and then lightly slid away her panty and started licking her pussy like he was eating ice cream.

*Moan...

A soft moan escaped from sleeping Maya's mouth, but it was still not powerful enough to wake her up.

After feeling movement in Maya's body Myne paused for a while but seeing that she didn't wake up, he continuously licked her love juice, but this time he did it more roughly as not only did he insert his tongue into her pussy, but also started rubbing her cunt with his finger.

*Moan...

This time Maya did quite a big movemt, she tried to close her spread legs, but because Myne's big head was coming in the middle, so, of course, she can't do that, seeing that Maya can wake up any movemt My who wanted to make her cum in sleep, took out his tongue from inside her pussy and put three of his finger in it and start moving them speedily in and out, while licking her leaking love juice.

"Ahhhh..."

Only after he starts fingering for seconds, Maya's body vibrate strongly for a while and she cum all over Myne's face.

Maya woke up immediately after cumming, she op her eyes, and looked at her puffed quilt confusedly, and after seeing it ev an idiot can say that there is someone hiding in it. So she quickly remove her quilt, and found the little thief, who made her cum in sleep.

"Myne what are doing in my bed?" Maya asked while looking at Myne puzzely who was still licking her pussy. (That guy is defiantly a big pervert.)

"Surprise," Myne said and give Maya a tight hug, while rubbing his head on her soft naked big boobies.

"So you come here so early in the morning to give me this kind of surprise?" Maya asked while rubbing Myne's head dotingly.

"Of course, I thought it had be quite days since I come to meet you, and you would be felt lonely again so I thought of giving you a surprise while making you cum in your sleep, so do you like it?" Myne asked with a smile.

"Hehehe, Yes, I like it very much, my cute little brother," Maya said with a giggle and give Myne a very passionate kiss.

After kissing until both of them can't hold their breath anymore, Maya remove her lips from Myne, and said with a smile, "Since you already made me cum th it's my turn to make you happy as well."

Saying that she push Myne onto the bed, and grab his little brother with her hand and state stroking it.

Myne moan lightly and After hearing it Maya moved her face close to Myne's dick. First, she licked it from all sides with her tongue like a novice to tease Myne but after some seconds she shoved his dick into her mouth.

A hot ssation veloped Myne's tire cock. He could feel her tongue moving and bringing a ssation of indescribable pleasure.

*Moannn...

While making quick movemts with her head, Maya moved her tongue rapidly, making Myne reach his limit very quickly ev though he is no more a newbie but still in front of master-level techniques most people easily release water, so let's not talk about Myne.

"Sis I am cumming..."

Maya kept Myne's cock inside her mouth as his legs shook and his cum was pumped inside her mouth.

After all Myne's cum shot out, did she take his cock out of her mouth and oped it in front of him.

Myne could clearly see his sperm in Maya's mouth. It was a very usual sce.

Th Maya sit down beside Myne with the cum still in her mouth and th swallowed it, as if she was eating honey while taking every bit of its taste.

"You release quite a lot this time, by the way, Is it good? Do you like it?" Maya asked with a smile.

"Yes, it was mind blowing, where do you learn those moves?" Myne asked back, giving Maya a satisfying look.

"That's a secret," Maya said mystically while putting a finger on her lips while making a sexy pose.

Th she again grabs Myne's dick, and just the simple touch of Maya's hand gets hard again. Maya smiled and sat down on top of Myne. After putting his cock betwe her legs, she moved her hips, rubbing his cock head against her pussy.

It was wet and warm. It was a pleasant ssation. Maya also gave a few usual moans as she moved on top of Myne.

After doing this for a few seconds, Maya lifted her hips a little and put Myne's cock at the entrance of her pussy, slowly putting it in.

Myne could feel the warm, soft, tight sensation enveloping his cock as he heard Maya's soft moaned.

His little brother was finally all inside her.

Maya let her body fall on top of Myne as his cock continued inside her till it reached her womb. She crossed her arm around Myne's neck for support and started rubbing her breasts against Myne and then lifted her hips. She began to raise and lower her hips repeatedly as the tightness of her pussy increased with each moment.

Myne felt her rough breathing in his ear as she swung her hips rapidly and pressed her breasts against his body.

After some seconds, she gradually increased the speed, slamming her ass against Myne.

Her moans increased, and Myne also reached his limit.

Maya lifted her body, and th her pussy squeezed Myne's dick. He finally couldn't stand it anymore and let it all out inside her pussy as she moaned with a satisfied smile.

Hahaha, so nice, Maya said and fell down on top of Myne while breathing heavily. Myne can clearly feel her twisting body probably because of ssation.

They stayed like that for a while until Maya recover a little, she lifted up her hips and pulled Myne's cock out from her pussy. Myne's cum which accumulated inside her pussy starts coming out and falls onto Myne's little brother.

"You really cum a lot ev though this is your second shot," Maya said surprisedly as she again lay down on top of Myne lazily, while Myne's naughty little brother again become hard, after feeling Maya's pussy soft touch.

"Big Sis!"

"Huh?"

"I wanted to tell you something, but promise me you won't get angry," Myne said after seeing Maya in a good mood.

"First tell me your deed only after listing to it can I say whether I would be angry or not," Maya spoke seriously.

After hearing Maya's serious voice, Myne Adam's apple moved a little but now since the arrow already left the bow he can do nothing but tell Maya everything about his marriage with Aisha and Sylphid, but he also didn't forget to remove life threatening details before telling her like fighting with orcs, spreading fire into the forest, etc, saying those things to Maya is not very good for his health.

"What! So you are telling me that just within one week after awaking your skills, you not only made a girlfriend who is ready to marry you but even our kingdom's first princess wanted to marry you? And most importantly you actually can temporarily copy other people's skills? Maya asked with a dumbfounded expression.

"Yes, but I can only copy additional skills, and later if I wanted to add more skills, then I have to remove the previous one," Myne said hurriedly. Myne thought about it a long time last night, what kind of excuse should he make if one day he has no other way and has revealed his skills in front of someone else, then after thinking for a long time, this idea comes into his mind.

Instead of hiding his other skills which he steals from other people and monsters, he would just say that he can copy other people's skills temporarily, although this idea looks a little bit silly but compared to saying that he can steal other people's skills permanently this is indeed much better.

"Well since you can copy temporary skills and have 3 original skills, then with a total of 3 skills in your possession, Now I don't have to worry about your safety too much, but why didn't you say this before, if you have told me this before then you wouldn't get the punishment that day," Maya said helplessly.

After hearing Maya's words, Myne can only give her a worried smile, that day he doesn't think about this plan th how would he say that to her?

"Anyway, as for your marriage, I can only say that it is your life and some decision you have to take yourself, and others can do nothing about it, but I am always on your side no matter what.

Also although I have no problem with Aisha, but take my advice and please be careful with royals, maybe Sylphid have no bad inttion toward you, and she just wanted to marry you to get a strong heir from you to make this kingdom strong, and this is not a new thing, royal family do that every year, but there might be some of her followers, who might not like her marry with you, so they can do anything to clear you from their way," Maya said with a frown.

"Don't worry Sis your brother is not a little cute guy with whom anyone can mess a, if those guys dare to come to give me trouble th I am also going to easy on them, you can rest assured," Myne said with a smile, and give a deep kiss to Maya.

"Remember what you just said," Maya said worriedly.

"Sis you really stress too much, let me help you to calm down," Myne said and with a little bit of his strgth he made Maya lay down on the bed and climb on top of her.

"Now let's start the real game..."
