Chapter 66: The Orc King's OP Skills

Knock! Knock!

"Maya ops the door."

Why door is the locked? Isn't Myne also in the house? Jin thought confusedly.

But before he could think further, the main door of his house oped and he saw both Myne and Maya standing in front of him, while laughing and talking happily. both of them were covered in sweat as if they did very intse exercise, and their clothes and hair were also in a mess. Anyone after seeing them in this condition can say that there is defiantly something wrong.

But Jin wasn't a normal person himself so he just ignore them as if it wasn't much big deal.

"Dear, what is the matter? Do you need anything?" Maya asked after seeing Jin.

"Well, seeing your condition and how happy you are looking, I really didn't want to disturb you, but it seems that you have forgott about a very important thing, in the middle of your happy momt, and that is I am now dying from hunger, so if you can give me my lunch th I will be very thankful to you," Jin said with a forced smile, he always felt like he is abandoned by the world.

"What! It is already afternoon?" Maya said surprisedly while hurriedly looking at the clock on the wall, the hour hand was at o'clock.

"Haha, wh you are having fun, time flies really fast," Myne said with a smile.

"Yes, you are right, by the way, honey, can you give me a favour, you see it is already quite late to make the lunch, why don't you go out and bring something good for lunch? Also since it is my fault today, so can bring whatever you like," Maya said with a smile while giving Jin some gold coins.

"Myne what should I bring for you?" Jin asked with a satisfied smile after receiving gold coins.

"Ah, I don't need anything, it has be already late and I should also go home now, anyway, If the lunch mabe by Big Sis Maya th I can still stay to eat, but since you are going to buy it from outside th just forget about it," Myne said casually, making a proud smile on Maya's face, who gives Jin a knowing look.

After seeing Maya's expression, Jin said "Do whatever you like", and walk out of the house, and Maya again closes the door.

"Sis wait a minute, I quickly go and wear my underwear before Big Bro Jin returns again," Myne said and hurriedly runs into the bedroom. Because of Jin's sudd try both Myna and Maya who were in full heat, and still having sex like animals, thanks to Myne's skills have to stop in the middle.

Normally, they of course, can't have sex for so long, but after Myne informs Maya about some of his skills that can be used during sex, she becomes so happy that she completely let herself go, and start teaching Myne all kinds of weird and embarrassing sex moves.

For once Myne also felt like if JIn hasn't come to disturb them, they might have had sex till night, before stopping, because although Myne's skills can recover their stamina but they can't fill their stomach, and recover their mtal stress which still needs a nice sleep to get better.

"Okay, Big Sis, I am going now," Myne said and give Maya a bear hug.

"See you later, and take care of yourself, also don't forget about me just because now you have two young and beautiful wives, and keep visiting once in a while," Maya said with a smile, and give Myne a kiss on his forehead.

"Don't worry, I can forget everyone, but I never forget you, and I will try my best to meet you quite frequently, and if possible you can also come to visit me, Myne said.

"Okay, I will visit you later," Maya said while waving goodbye to Myne. Who just walk out of her shop.

"Sigh, you never know wh kids grow up," Maya said with a motherly smile while shaking her head. Th she touch her panty which was completely wet from Myne's cum.

"With the amount of Myne's cum inside me, I am really worried that ev after taking the birth control pill I will get pregnant," Maya mumbled worriedly.

"What are you saying," Jin asked after tering the shop, he just come back and saw Maya standing in the middle of the shop, while mumbling something to herself.

"Nothing, it just Myne give me one more trouble, ohh and you as well," Maya said with a smile.

"What did that brat do this time?" Jin asked with a frown while putting food on the counter.

"I will tell the tire story at night, but now you quickly finished your lunch and gather all information about those two girls for me," Maya said while giving Jin a paper.

Jin took the paper from Maya, on which Aisha and Sylphid detailed information writt on it which Maya gather from Myne during their happy momts.

After saying goodbye to Maya, Myne return to his home, in a very happy mood, he felt like a very heavy weight lifted from his head, after he confess everything to Maya.

If I had known that BIG Sis Maya would take everything so positively th I don't have to worry so much, and those moves she did during sex were really so marvellous, Myne thought and like always after giving Little Doggy a pat on his head, both of them walk into the house.

"So what should I do now?" Myne spoke and after thinking for a while he op his status window.

Well, seems like taking a risk and fighting with the Orc King wasn't without any gain, not only did my own levels raise to 5 from a pitiful 9, but ev many of the skill levels also increase rapidly. But wait a minute wh did I steal those two skills 'Unbeatable' and 'Mitigate'?

Maybe that happed wh I was fleeing from the Orc King, that time I indeed kill some Orcs and directly steal their skills without looking at them. I thought those guys didn't have any new skills but looks like I was wrong. But most importantly how did my Dark Attribute • Resistance become level LV?

I don't remember doing anything in the night or fighting with this kind of dark attribute type monster, and I don't ev know what this dark attribute does, th how did its level increase? Myne thought confusedly.

Anyway, first let me check some of my new skills information before doing any other work, Myne thought while putting Dark Attribute skill matter aside.

Let's start with our Orc King Skills, he is a celebrity level figure so his skills should also be super amazing, right? Myne thought greedily.

[ King's Intimidation ]: After activating this skill Host opponts would ter a state of panic and be immobilised on the spot. The larger the level gap betwe the Host and his target, the stronger the effects will be. This is an Area of effect ( AoE ) type skill, so the more Host put magic ergy into it, the more its range increases and covers more creatures in it.

"Well, this is indeed a very powerful skill, if that idiot Orc King had used this skill just at the very beginning, th with the level gap betwe us, now I am probably having fun in his stomach and Aisha and Sylphid on his bed," Myne spoke while patting his shoulder for his wise decision of stealing the Orc King skills as soon as he gets the chance.

"But no matter what to say while fighting with the mob of low-level Monsters or Hume, this skill is really super useful, you don't have to do anything just give them a furious glance, and they all peed in the pants. Hahaha... Just thinking about it makes me excited," Myne said happily while patting Little Doggy's head. Currntly, both of them sitting on his couch in the living room lazily.

[ Realize ]: Able to materialise a known non-living thing. Depding on the Skill holder's imagination, magic ergy and that item's characterization, various abilities can be granted.

Now I understand where the Orc King's that giant Battleaxe come from. No wonder after I steal his skills, his Axe suddly disappeared as well, Myne thought with an amazed expression on his face while thinking, how can there be such overpowered skills?

Th Myne active Realize skill and imagined a dagger in his mind.

Just as he did that there is a very bright gold light shining in his palm and a normal-looking gold dagger appear on his palm.

"So cool!" Myne shouted in excitemt while looking at the gold dagger without any pattern on his palm. Th he deactivates Realize skill, and the gold dagger in his palm suddly burst into light particles and disappeared out of thin air.

If only those items can stay permanently, instead of disappearing like this, Myne thought while shaking his head.

After this, he creates many more things like clothes, furniture, and food as well, which look exactly the same as the original but don't have any taste or smell. Myne also tried to make some tools that he only read about in books, for example, a small 8 inches long soft item, made from rubber and look like his little brother which lonely women used to satisfy their private needs.

All in all this skill is very useful, and from now on Myne never has to worry about not having any particular item.

[ Unique Magic • Space-time ]: Active Skill. A magic skill that can manipulate space and time.

Huh? That it? What kind of description is this? It is the same as not telling me anything, Myne thought disappointed.

But if I remember the Orc King maybe use this skill to travel very fast, one moment he was quite far away from me and the next moment he suddenly comes behind me. And this skill also looks different from other skills, Let's give it a try when I have time, Myne thought and continued looking at other skills.

[ Unbeatable ]: Active Skill. Effective for approximately 30 seconds. While it is active, all physical attacks will have no effect on the Host but if the level gap between Host and his target is too great, the effect of this skill will be neutralized.

The cooldown time: Three hours.

F*ck! It is such a wonderful skill, How can I didn't saw it before, If I have used it before th I would have probably giv the Orc King some kicks in his ass. As for killing him? Let's forget about it, that guy's defce was too strong to give him any injuries, and this skill also has a big weakness which is its cooldown time, 30 seconds of half invisibility.

Sigh, I hope with the increase in its level this skill's cooldown time could be reduced.

[ Mitigate ]: Active Skill. Effective for approximately three minutes. Physical damage received by the user will be cut by /5 while this skill is active.

The Cooldown Time: None

Huh? One more defsvie skill? And this one seems a younger version of Unbeatable skill, but ev though this skill is not as perverted as Unbeatable but at least it doesn't have that long cooldown time, with my unlimited supplies of Magic Energy I can keep activating it forever, however, if I wanted to raise its level th I have to take a good beating.

[ Martial Arts: Sharpness • Sword ]: One-Handed Sword Martial Art. An attack with two times the usual attack power will be carried out, whoever Host uses a sword to fight while activating this skill.

This skill might not have much chance to shine since I rarely fight with weapons. Those Orcs give me a very valuable lesson this time, that in this world attacks without magic really have no future, as ev a no name random Orc has a skill that can make any physical attack completely useless against him, th what does the meaning of practising those skills?

To give your head to someone else for the trophy? Myne thought while shaking his head, he has completely lost faith in physical skills.

Yosh, the skill check is complete! Now since my dear Aisha has not returned yet. Let's go for some shopping I need to buy some new armor.
