Chapter 67: Buying Magic Armor

"Good afternoon!" Myne gave a cheerful greeting as he entered the armour shop. But what Myne saw after entering the shop made him lose his cool, because, in front of him, stood a young middle age beautiful woman wearing only a blue colour erotic panty, while her remaining body was completely naked.

She has long gold colour hair, brown eyes, red lips, but most importantly super deluxe giant H-Sup size boobs with rock-hard pink nipples, just after seeing them Myne was immediately got charmed by their size.

The lady also notices Myne after he enters the shop with his loud cheerful voice. Both of them looked at each other, but while that lady looked at Myne dumbfoundedly with a shocked expression, Myne continuously staring at her giant boobs with an extremely complicated expression.

"Ahhhh..."

After seeing Myne that young lady or I say milf lady, only controls herself for 5 seconds before screaming loudly and running into the room backside of the counter where shop owner Ethan's wife Amma stores her erotic/sex item, and most of them are created by herself.

"Sigh, Myne you should knock before coming into the shop, look you scare my clit, now I have to give her a special discount as an apology," Amma said while putting her tailor tape from which she is measuring her clit's breast size so she can make her some custom size comfortable erotic bras.

Because her breasts are too big she always has a problem finding her size bra, so most of the time she orders custom-size bras.

Today like always just wh she wanted to measure her clit's breast size to confirm if they again become big or not, but because there wasn't any customer in the shop and this process also doesn't take much time so she ask her clit to remove her dress and bra in the middle of the shop.

But because her clit was only wearing a single-piece dress, so just as she removes her main dress she becomes half naked, and just as she was measuring her breast size Myne ter the shop, and made everything complicated.

"Sorry Sis Amma, I forget to knock before coming in," Myne said innoctly.

But Amma knows that it was her own fault and carelessness, that this accidt happed, so she gives Myne a rest-assured smile, and after saying him to wait for her at the counter, she walks into her workshop to deal with her clit. While going into her workshop, she also didn't forget to pick up her clit's dress and bra from the chair.

F*ck! Her breast was so huge, maybe ev bigger than Big Sis Maya and she doesn't look that old, probably just some years older than Big Sis Maya. How the hell has her breast become so big? If only I can play with them, I will get salvation, Myne thought while imagining his little brother sandwich betwe those giant boobs and getting a boobjob.

While Myne thinking lewd staff in his mind, suddly that lady with super giant boobs, come out from the workshop, and after seeing Myne at the counter, at first she looked Myne deeply th for some reason her face become red, and before Myne could understand something, or use Appraisal skill, to know anything about her, she with her all strgth run out from the shop, as if she was being followed by a huge mob of perverts who wanted to f*ck her.

She runs so fast! She would be at least level 40, Myne thought after seeing his new crush running away, although he only saw her for seconds at most, but he already made a place for her in his heart, now he just hope that one day they meet again, and Myne can try his charm on her as well.

"Sorry, for making you wait Myne, although she is just some years younger than me but she is still quite shy, you don't believe me, just how much she complain to me that you saw her naked body, and it is a very bad thing, etc, anyway only after I promise her that you never mention about it to anyone did she finally let it down," Amma said while wiping sweat from her forehead.

"By the way, who was she? I have never see her in our town before," Myne asked with great interest.

"Ohhoho, look at it, it seems like after seeing a naked beauty our Myne gets charmed by her, huh? But are not you worried that she might have a husband, who might beat the hell out of you, after knowing that you have some bad thoughts about his wife? Amma asked with a teasing tone.

"Hehe, what are talking about? I am just asking causally, and I already have a beautiful girlfrid, why should I have some bad thoughts about a random woman, whom I hardly see for half a minute?" Myne spoke with a smile as if he have no thought about that lady.

"Anyways It doesn't matter if you have a girlfrid or not, I never going to reveal my clit information to anyone, not ev to your big bro, who knows if some bitch seduces him and snatched him away from me?" Amma said with a joking tone, but Myne saw some seriousness in her eyes. Maybe she really has this fear in her heart.

"By the way, who is you are girlfrid? Why didn't you bring her to me? I also wanted to meet her, and show her some of my special products which defiantly bring new happiness to your love life," Amma said with a smile while giving Myne a wink.

"Ahh, sorry sis, but she said that she is not ready to meet my frid, and she needs some time to adjust herself," Myne said with a dry laugh.

"Well, that is normal, every girl has to go through this stage, I also have a lot of trouble, before I can adjust myself betwe Ethan's all relatives," Amma said with a sigh while remembering some old memories, but shortly she comes back to her sse and after putting her trade mark happy smile, she asked with interest, "So why do you come here today?"

Don't tell me you need pregnancy control pills or other sex-related things for your little girlfrid. if so th I think you should bring her with you, so I can give her some nice tips, as you know I am a professional in this field."

"What are you talking about? We are not at that stage, we still need some time before doing that, for now, could you show me some nice armor? Also if possible th it would be better if it were comfortable to wear, and which not become extremely hot after wearing it too much," Myne said with a smile.

"Huh? But what happed to your previous leather armor? It has only be a week since you bought that, it shouldn't be destroyed so soon," Amma asked curiously, but still, as a shopkeeper, she didn't forget her work, so while taking it she headed into her storage room to get a nice armor for Myne.

"Hahaha, about that, well wh I was hunting in the forest yesterday, I accidtally counter a wondering Orc, and during the fight with him, my armor get very badly damaged, and I have no other choice but to buy a new one, anyway that one wasn't much powerful," Myne said while laughing.

"What! You again wt into the forest to fight with Orcs? Don't you know that there is an Orc Settlement found near our town? Do you have such a hurry to meet your parts?" Amma said with a shocked expression. while coming out from the storage room with a big wood box in her arm.

"But I am a hunter, if I don't go hunting th how will I earn money," Myne said while making a fake helpless expression.

"Well, you have a point, but if you don't mind th you can work with me.

As you can see, I am alone managing the tire shop most of the time, because of this I have not created any new products for my special clits, and now they start complaining that I am becoming lazy, so do you want to work as my assistant?" Amma said, and after placing the wood box on the counter, she hug Myne's arm tightly completely burying it into her boobs, after which she moved her face near Myne's ear and whispered in an extremely seductive voice, "As for salary I can not only give you money but also some pleasurable things as a bonus as well, like this one."

Saying that she starts massaging Myne's arm with her boobs, but Myne who knows Amma very well, didn't buy her little trick, and after pushing her away from himself, he quickly changes the topic.

"What is in this box, is it my new armor?"

"This is a low level magic armor I bought some days from the capital city, some idiot selling it at very cheap prices so I buy this for research purposes but ev after trying everything we still don't know how the original owner made this shit," Amma said frustratedly while taking out a black colour leather armor from the box while handing it to Myne.

Description: A leather armor made of the skin of a high level predator called the Night leopard, which is known for its stealth and high speed. Perfect for someone who wanted to stay low key while doing big deeds.]

Perfect! Now this is called nice armor, not only its defence is two times more than previous one, but also has a cooling system that can block all the scorching heat

"So do you like it?" Amma asked while helping Myne to wear the armor.

"Yes, I like it very much, especially its cooling feature, I can already feel soft cold air touching my chest," Myne said with a satisfied smile.

"Wow, you already find out about its features? You are much smarter than I thought," Amma said while teasing Myne.

"So what is its price? Also, will I get any discount or not?" Myne asked while checking his movement flexibility in his new armor.

"As I said before this is just a normal low level magic armor, so its price wasn't much high, just platinum coins," Amma said with a beautiful smile while showing Myne two fingers.

"What! So expensive, I remember the armor I bought last time wasn't so expensive, just 30 gold coins, then why is this one so expensive?" Myne asked with a shocked expression.

"That is because the previous armor you bought is just a normal armor made by Ethan, although this armor looks simple but it is actually a magic item, so you can understand its value, according to how high current magic items demand in the market," Amma said casually.

"Anyway, are you going to buy it or not? Tell me quickly it seems like my other client also wants to buy something but because of you, they are hesitating," Amma said impatiently while looking at the shop entrance.

Myne also turned around and looked at the entrance, and saw two average looking ladies standing at the door, talking to each other, while pointing at Myne once in a while.

"Sigh, bloody loss," Myne mumbled to himself and put his hand into his pocket, while acting like he is picking money from his pocket, he thought a little and transferred platinum coins into his palm from inventory. After which he handed them to Amma.

"Where did you get so much money," Amma asked suspiciously, although she had said that platinum coins were nothing to her, but that because she runs a business, and earns quite a lot of money, it is understandable for her to have so much money but Myne who does hunting too earns money, how can he get so much money?

"This is giv to me by Big Sis Maya, she said that the forest is quite dangerous currty so I should buy something nice for protection," Myne lied without blinking and surprisedly Amma after hearing that the money is giv to Myne by Maya nodded her head with understanding.

"Okay, that makes sse, now if you don't have anything else to buy, th excuse me I have to deal with my special clit, after all, they are my main source of income, Amma said with a perverted smile while giving Myne a knowing wink.

"Th I am also going, goodbye, Big sis, take care," Myne said while waving his hand.

"Goodbye, you too, also take care of yourself and remember not to mess a with Orcs too much," Amma said and give Myne a hug, but because of the leather armor Myne wearing she felt uncomfortable, so she quickly release him.

"I will," Myne said and walked out of the shop.
