

Cheat. A 69

Chapter 69: Teleportation!

"A growth-type weapon huh? Although I have never heard anything about it but looking at its name, it should not be so simple," Myne thought while looking at the ordinary-looking black dagger in his hand which he just took from Aid's shop for free.

"Well, it should be something good, I just have to wait till my appraisal skill update again to see if it can explain anything about what this growth-type weapon means."

After returning to the house, Myne first drank some cold water from the well, then he ordered Little Doggy who likes following him too much, to make some distance from him before he stood in an open area at the backside of his house.

His reason for doing this is to do some research on the special magic he got from the Orc king, as Aisha hasn't returned home from her work.

'Unique Magic • Space-Time' is the name of the skill he got from the Orc King about which even his appraisal skill has no useful description, which can give him some idea of what the hell this skill does.

Most of the magic he knows is related to common magic which is known about all the people. They are fundamentally made up of six attributes: Fire, Water, Wind, Earth, Light and Darkness.

Although there are also other magic like Lightning, Ice, Plants, etc, those are all the sub-attributes of those main magic attributes, and if someone wanted to find out more about them they could do that after having a certain level of understanding of their source magic. But those two new attributes Space and Time are completely new for him.

Although Myne has some idea how he can use this skill, as the Orc King once use it in front of him, which is if he not wrong th should be the legdary super skill name: Teleportation, which was known as one of the most popular skill, because of its unique use of sding people anywhere its user wants.

Myne once heard that there is a person from a remote village who awak the teleportation skill. At the start, that guy and his family were very happy after knowing about it. But that guy starts using his skill publicly and becomes quite famous, and th his real nightmare began.

Because many high-level people show a great threat in him, as a person who can go whatever place he wants without any restriction while making their all security useless, of course, they won't let such a guy wander betwe them.

So first they try a simple and peaceful method to recruit him in their camp, this way ev if he wants something he can just earn that thing by doing simple tasks for that camp. This would be a win-and-win situation for both of them and no one have any loss, but that guy only god knows, for some reason refuses every offer he got without any hesitation, ev the royal family is no exception.

After seeing that guy didn't want to join anyone, they felt like the guy had some bad thoughts, so they come to the conclusion that it better to made him disappear before he do something bad. So they hire a professional assassin and got that guy killed wh he was having fun with his new girlfrid.

But wh that assassin searched his house to find some valuable things, he found that guy not only made a secret warehouse under his house but also store hundreds of valuable things which can ev make a powerful and well know noble feel poor in front of him.

Although people only know about this from a letter st by that assassin as after a day no one saw him again, but you can understand from this story just how damn awesome this skill is.

"Let's see how this skill work," Myne said and activate the skill Unique Magic • Space-Time...

Huh? Nothing happens? Is this skill broken? Myne thought confusedly while rubbing the back of his head.

Myne tries to activate the skill again but again nothing happens.

"Now this is weird I saw the Orc King didn't make any kind of unnecessary movement while using this skill he just looked at me madly before he suddenly come behind me, where is the problem?"

"Wait a minute, he was staring at me that time, right? Doesn't this mean I have to look or think of a destination before using this skill? F*ck, what a great idea, I am really a genius," Myne said proudly and this time while thinking about his bedroom, he again activated the Unique Magic • Space-Time skill.

Just as he did that suddenly a 1-meter tall vortex-like portal with an outer layer of blue colour and pitch black centre area from which you can't see anything happening on another side, appear just one meter away from him.

"Should I go in? It doesn't look that safe," Myne said worriedly then he took out a normal dagger from his inventory and throw it inside the portal, after which he deactivate the skill and the black vortex faded away and disappeared before his eyes. Myne did this to avoid unnecessary problems and hurriedly run into his bedroom.

After seeing first thing he saw is the dagger he threw into the portal laying in the middle of the bedroom.

"Yes, looks like I was worrying unnecessarily, let's see how it felt to teleport somewhere in seconds," Myne thought excitedly and active Unique Magic • Space-Time skill

Soon same blue and black colour portal again appears in front of him, and Myne with little hesitation walks into it. As he did that he felt as if he was touching a watery lair before the scene in front of him change again and he come back in front of his well.

"F*cking hell, this skill is so amazing," Myne said while looking at the vortex fading away by itself.

It seem like there is a time limit, on how long it can stay up, and now I think its limit should be most likely a 5 seconds, Myne thought while analyzing the teleportation skill's rules.

"Now let's see this skill limitation," Myne said and start his research on the Unique Magic • Space-time skill.

First, Myne tries to open the portal in various places like in the middle of the air, on the ground, in front of him, quite a distance away from him, while walking, etc, and the result made him very happy, that Unique Magic • Space-time skill literally has no restriction about creating a portal, you can open portal wherever you want.

"This will solve my many problems if one day I accidentally fall from a very high place, then I can create a portal under me, and save myself. Also if some kind of overpowered monster tries to kill me, I can create a portal under its feet, and send it to a remote place for the vacation," Myne said with a smile.

Then he opens the portal to almost all the places inside his house and walks into them one by one. After that Myne teleports to various places in his town, especially deserted places which most of the time people avoid to go. Like this, he activates his Stealth and Presce Detection Moderate skills, and while avoiding people's evil eyes, he visits all his frids and family members.

First, he goes to June's house, which was empty, clearly, she was at work. Th he teleports to Maya's bedroom. She also wasn't prest in the house, but Myne heard her voice from the downside, seem like she was taking care of the shop. After which he comes to an alley betwe Ethan and Aid's shops.

Eth still hadn't come back to the shop and Amma was tertaining her new guest, this time it was an old man with a big belly and ugly face, who was buying many weird things like red colour candles, ropes, erotic short dresses, some dick shape toys, etc. It seem like he was preparing a great surprise for his wife or lover.

On the other side, Aid's shop was completely messy, Aid was sitting on a chair reading a book, and Kofi with a sallow face and bleeding nose, cleaning the shop. At least now he won't eat other people's food without their permission for some time.

Well, most of the thing about this skill is perfect and with my huge storage of Magic Energy I also don't have to worry about not being able to use it because of lack of magic, Myne thought with a satisfied smile on his face.

"Now finally let's see how far I can go with this skill, Myne said and imagined the capital city of Decora a remote kingdom, about which he had read in a book, which said that they make the highest quality clothes with their special techniques. Myne wanted to go there so he can buy some beautiful clothes for Aisha to give her a welcoming gift.

But to his disappointmt no matter how many times he tries to op the portal to the Decora Kingdom it doesn't op.

"Maybe only the place where I have personally visited, I can open a portal," Myne spoke in disappointment after thinking about the problem.

"Let's forget about it, let's go to Capital City, there I can defiantly find some interesting things for my Aisha," Myne said and imagine a random alley in the capital city he had seen some days ago on the day of awaking. As he did the familiar portal again appear in front of him, and Myne without hesitation walk into it.

"Huh? Oyy little guy, what are doing here? Don't tell me you are following me the tire time?" Myne after coming out from the portal and just about to walk out from the alley, when he saw Little Doggy jumping in front of him happily.

"Remember never to do it again, what happens if you are left behind, and other dogs attack you? You know it could be very dangerous," Myne said concernedly but Little Doggy clearly didn't take his words seriously and started looking at him smiling with eyes filled with curiosity.

"Sigh, since you already come here, then let's go to shopping together, and anyway, it's better than going alone," Myne said but before going out he took out a thin rope from his Inventory and tied it to the little Doggy's neck so he not run away randomly while giving him unwanted trouble.

After all, this is the Capital City and here people's egos are much bigger than the size of their storage pouches.

Like this, a boy and a dog, walk out from the dark alley. Leaving a dumbfounded drunker in a dark corner completely speechless, he still can't believe in his eyes what he just saw.

Maybe I have drunk too much, how can a dog appear out of nowhere and also tie a rope to his own neck by himself? Yes, I must be dreaming, I should go back to sleep before I start seeing some other weird stuff, Drunker said and after emptying the remaining alcohol bottle he again fell back asleep.

