Chapter 73: Aisha's POV

After Myne left the young girl alone with those two thugs, without any kind of grief in his heart. He always told himself that he is not a hero nor he ever wanted to be in this life, he is just a normal person who has normal needs, that's all. He asked that girl if she needed his help in return she just had to pay for his service, a fair trade, equal exchange, nothing more than that.

But that girl said she didn't have anything valuable things on her, even though he still waited for her for 5 seconds if she promised to give him a reward later, but that girl clearly didn't understand anything, Myne knew this after seeing her blank and confused face, he finds out that she is just an ignorant brat who knows nothing about the world.

So he left her on her own as if he never met her without any regret, and left the girl alone for her to experience how painful and cruel reality is. Life is like this, everything in this world has a price, and Myne believes in those words from the very core of his heart. After that he found another alley but this time without any more accidents and opened the portal to his house.

Myne just put one foot inside the portable when he heard a loud *Boom sound from the direction of the cloth shop where he did the shopping. He moves his head toward the direction from where the sound came but saw nothing as his vision was blocked by the row of tall walls. So he shook his head and ignored it and entered the portal without caring about the explosion.

Aisha's POV.

Aisha after coming out of her house with a red face, stopped running and took a deep breath.

"Hoo, I kiss Myne, and that too with my own will! Shit, this is too embarrassing, now since I give him the green light, he defiantly looks at every possible chance to mess with me," Aisha spoke with little excitement in a low voice while walking shaking her head.

"But it really felt good when we kiss, I don't what it will feel when I and Myne do sex, does it really feel hundreds of times better than kissing as those girls describe?" Aisha spoke while thinking both she and Myne laying naked on the same bed while looking into each other eyes, and then slowly their lips lock to each other...

"Ahh, so embarrassing I am really becoming a pervert, it is all because of Myne, thanks to his continuous kissing and touching no matter how much I try, I can't let go of those perverted thoughts out of my mind."

"Maybe I should consult an expert, I hope Mia can give me some nice pieces of advice in this matter," Aisha wished and hurriedly walked toward the adventure guild.

Minutes later.

Aisha left the adventure guild, from where she recently tendered her resignation, and because she didn't have many friends, and everything she did is in the guild leader's office, so most people still didn't know that she is no longer a worker in the guild.

The guild was still the same as before, with some people eating and discussing their next mission, and some people looking at the mission board to see if they can find any suitable mission for themselves. Aisha looked at to search for a certain person, but sadly she didn't find her. At this moment suddenly a waitress walked beside her.

Seeing the waitress, Aisha quickly stop her, and asked with a poker face, "Hey, Do you know where is Mia?"

"Yes, Miss. Aisha, I know, just a momt ago I saw Miss. Mia wt toward the staff room," The waitress reply nervously after seeing Aisha, clearly she also doesn't very good impression of Aisha.

Aisha after getting what she wanted to know, said "Thanks" to the waitress, and quickly come to the staff room.

As it was still early in the morning and most of the staff members were at their work, so staff room is completely empty, only Mia was standing in front of her locker, while putting a bag inside it.

"Hey, what's up Monkey, what are doing?" Aisha greeted Mia and asked casually.

Huh? Mia turned a and after seeing Aisha she wave her hand with a smile. But before she could speak anything Aisha exclaimed in surprise.

"Mia! What happed to your boobs? How did they become so big in just a night?"

Hehe, didn't I always say to you that one day I will also have big boobs like you, now look at them, my hard work finally paid off," Mia said proudly while bouncing her big E-Cup size boobs up and down in front of Aisha. But because Mia's height wasn't much tall in the first place, her boobs look much bigger than they actually are.

"But how did you do that? Just yesterday they are still normal but today they become so big? Aisha again asked while coming close to Mia and lightly touch her giant boobs curiously.

"Ahh, hey, don't touch them, I am quite sensitive there," Mia said hurriedly slapping Aisha's hand away.

"Sorry, I was distracted a little," Aisha apologizes.

"Sigh, okay let me tell you how I increase my breast size in case someday you also need this trick," Mia said in a low voice, and after seeing Aisha listening carefully she continued, "You remember that guy about whom I told you before?"

"Do you mean that guy who fooled you by saying he can increase the size of your boobs and ran away after taking your money?" Aisha replied after thinking for a while.

"Yes, that guy, at first after not seeing him for many days like you I also thought that he was a fraud who ran away with my hard earned money, but yesterday evening he came to me and told me that he wants to introduce me to his master."

"At first, I was a little worried as I was already got cheated by him once, so instead of blindly following him, I knocked out that guy and took him to my grandpa. The Grandpa woke up that guy and did a private chat with him for 30 minutes, before that guy unwillingly took me and Grandpa to his master.

There in front of my Grandpa, that guy's master used his skills which can increase any object size to 3 folds, and that too permanently. So this is how I made my boobs bigger."

"Although because of it my grandpa became so angry that he literally threw me out of the house, sigh," The last time Mia said in such a low voice that even after concentrating fully Aisha still can't hear what she said.

"What did say in the d? Can you repeat it, I didn't hear it clearly, Aisha requested with a frown.

"Ohh, nothing I just said that because my boobs now become so big, just an hour ago a handsome guy asked me for a date, can you believe it? And he also knows my idtity very well but still dares to ask me for a date, I am so excited," Mia said happily while jumping in excitemt.

"So you are saying that fraud comes back yesterday to you after missing for nearly two weeks, and took you to his master who has a skill that can increase any object size to 3 folds, and that too permantly?" Aisha asked with a frown, she always felt like there is a very big conspiracy hidd in this tire matter.

Yes, although at first I also felt like there is something is not right, but since my Grandpa personally talks to him, th everything should be fine," Mia said causally while adjusting her newly bought purple colour fantasy looking bra, which she still felt a little uncomfortable wearing it because before this her breast was tiny so they wer't made much movemt wh she does anything, but now with their increase in size ev if she moves a little bit her boobs made a lot of movemt which is really not comfortable.

Because of it, she decides to wear a tight bra to control them so they won't affect her work, although her plan worked very well but now she felt like someone is squeezing her boobs very tightly.

"Since the guild leader didn't stop you, th it should be okay, by the way, did you bring what I asked you last time," Aisha suddly said while throwing Mia's boobs matter out of her mind. Anyway she is very satisfied with her own boobs, and Myne also like them very much, so she doesn't need to go to any fraud to increase their size.

"Ohh yes, I did, here it is, all the money that you lt me in those years. Your dresses and accessories which I steal, I mean to borrow from you," Mia said while handing Aisha the bag she putting in her locker.

Aisha opened the bag, and looked inside it, she ignored everything else and quickly counted the gold coins in it.

"Why are there 0 gold coins missing?" Aisha asked with a poker face.

"Hahaha, you see Big Sis Aisha although I really wanted to return all the money but because of a little misunderstanding my grandpa is again angry with me, so for someday I can't return to my home, because of it, I urgently need some money to stay in the hotel, but I promise when I get my next month salary I will defiantly return you all money, I swear," Mia hurriedly explained with an innocent smile.

"Sigh... Forget it, I don't need that money anymore, you can take them as a gift," Aisha said helplessly.

"Really! Thank you, Big Sister Aisha, you are the best," Mia said excitedly while hugging Aisha like a child.

"Okay okay, by the way, are you free now?"

"Yes, why?"

"Then come with me, I am going on shopping to buy some furniture and other items for my new house, and I need your help with the selection, also if you did good work then I can bring you to your favourite Inn, and there you can eat whatever you wanted to eat," Aisha said with a smile.

"Really? Th wait a minute, I quickly change my clothes," Mia said and hurriedly run toward her locker and start changing her clothes.

While Mia changing her clothes Aisha has no desire to watch her naked body, so she comes to the Mission board hanging in the staff room, to see the latest mission.

This mission board is differt from the one hanging in the main hall for everyone. This display board has every single request on it including those which still cannot be shown to the advturers such as requests reserved to exclusive receptionists, designated requests and requests which had their op dates decided.

As Aisha looked down at the requests, she was able to get a certain extt of information about what going on in the kingdom, especially if there something big happs.

The mission was to gather slime oil which Aisha suggested to Myne previously or XXX monster spawned in a large quantity in the vicinity of a certain Town...From things like this, Aisha was able to predict what can be done beforehand.

For small newly created Clans, getting those kinds of information itself for a short term is absolutely impossible. Because the guild exists in every single town in that area, it is able to extsively gather requests.

Such being the case, Aisha roughly looked over the display board for her personal use, anyway, she was about to leave the guild for a long time, and doesn't have many thoughts about coming back soon, so it better brings some nice information with herself, so till Sylphid return, she and Myne can do some mission to earn money.

As Aisha did that, she found one request which made her frown.

[Target Rank: B-rank and above: The guild has received information that at the Duchy of Ose, which is situated far in the north, demon races such as Goblins and Orcs have closed in on the duchy in a large flock.]

It says that they want to verify the truth of this information. If the information proves to be true, the damage to the Duchy of Ose and the prestige position of the demon race is also verified.

If possible, the guild wants the adventurer to provide aid to the injured people there. This request is extremely difficult.

The important Duchy of Ose, nicknamed the Land of Death, is a wasteland which isn't owned by any Kingdoms and is located on the border of the Kingdom of Demons.

This request's purpose is probably to verify whether the Kingdom of Demons participated in this demon race invasion, which is said to have occurred in the Duchy of Ose, or not.

The Kingdom of Demons is famous as a bellicist Kingdom which has monsters such as goblins and orcs as the vanguard. It had been quiet since it changed rulers approximately t years ago. However, it had previously started wars with many Kingdoms using relatively lower class monsters like Goblins and Kobolds.

For that reason, the Kingdom of Demons was recognised by many Kingdoms as a common enemy which has to be defeated.

If the Kingdom of Demons has commenced invasion towards another Kingdom, there is a possibility that the Kingdom which was quiet after changing its ruler will once again be attacking many Kingdoms.

"Sigh, I hope this might not affect us," Aisha said helplessly, after confirming that there is no good mission that Myne and she could do without using the guild as the middleman to get their share of the reward, she give up.

"Okay Big Sis Aisha, I am ready, let's go," Miya grabbed Aisha's arm and said waking her up from her deep thoughts.

Aisha looked at Mia who was wearing a blue colour single piece skirt, which clearly did not fit her properly thanks to her giant boobs, and looked very tight.

"Are you really going to wear this dress? Don't you have any comfortable dress?" Aisha asked with a frown.

"Sorry, but I really have no better dress in my locker, so I can only wear this, anyway I am not as uncomfortable as you think," Mia said with a smile and made some movemts like doing exercise, as a result...

There was a sudd clothes ripping sound come from Mia's dress, and her blue colour skirt in front of her mighty big boobs finally couldn't take it anymore, and wh Mia did exercise, her dress rip apart from the backside.

"Go, put on your work uniform again, thank god this happened here, otherwise if this happened in a crowded place, then you defiantly become a fun topic of tomorrow," Aisha said while trying not to laugh after seeing Mia's embarrassed face. "Also, I have told you many times to not buy those cheap clothes, but you said they are no different from expensive ones, now you understand the difference?"

Hearing Aisha's taunt, Mia just nodded her head and simply wear her work uniform again.

"Sigh, don't make such a sad face, I will buy you a dress for you okay, happy?" Aisha said helplessly finally compromising after seeing Mia making a face like a child whose candy fell on the ground just after clicking it two times.

"Yessss, thank you Big Sis Aisha, you are great," Mia's mood immediately becomes positive from negative after hearing that Aisha going to buy her a dress.

"Okay, let's go we have a lot of work to do," Aisha said, and both she and Mia walk out of the guild.
