Chapter 79: Silver Bell Pavilion

When Aisha said that Troll Dungeon is a little far, Myne really didn't expect that it would be so far away that it would take them a whole day even after traveling by carriage to reach their destination.

After deciding that they would go to Troll Dungeon Myne and Aisha hurriedly get ready. First, they went to the weapon shop to buy arrows for Aisha, because she doesn't have much in her reserve. Aiden wasn't in the shop, and Kofi was cleaning the shop, so Myne just talk casually to him, mostly answering some of his doubts related to Aisha.

After leaving the weapon shop, they found a cheap carriage that was ready to take them to the town adjacent to the dungeon.

As for what's a dungeon?

A dungeon is a place which has a space with a fixed structure such as natural places like gigantic caverns or hollow spaces under the ground, and places humans have abandoned like towers or forts.

Although at first, it's just a space with nothing inside of it, when a gigantic magic stone filled with natural magic energy that demons possess ( Mostly formed in their heart ), which is also called a core, appears in it naturally, the environment will change and it becomes a space where the demon race is born.

The monsters prowling around the dungeon will change depending on the size and the type of core in it. And if the dungeon core is destroyed or taken away, the dungeon will collapse.

In many books, these circumstances have been confirmed by the adventurers who caused the collapse of the dungeon because of their greed.

The dungeon now Myne and Aisha heading towards right now is officially called the [ Dungeon of Strength ] but people prefer to call it the Troll Dungeon because most of the monster inside is the Troll.

That's what the dungeon is like.

"Phew, we're finally here! F*ck, my ass is hurting like hell, this damn carriage seats are so hard, I don't know how this guy is still alive after giving his customer this kind of service? It is really a miracle that nobody has killed him till now out of anger," Myne complains angrily while staring at the middle age carriage driver with hatred.

"Well, at least this guy is ready to take us here, unlike the other guys who were not willing to come here till their all seats in the carriage were full, and those seats are not as hard as you complaining," Aisha spoke to Myne with a smile.

"That's because most of the time you sit on my lap like a child, so, of course, your ass is not hurting," Myne replied while giving Aisha an angry glance, but she avoid it skillfully and start looking at her surrounding.

After last night's incident, only god knows what happen to Aisha she completely let herself go, she doesn't shy like before, talks freely, does whatever she wishes, teases Myne openly without caring about anything, and even kisses him whenever she was in a good mood. And even if during their kisses Myne touch her butt or boobs she doesn't mind it all.

5 hours after they started travelling, Aisha who was complaining just like Myne, about how hard the carriage seats are, suddenly stood up from her seat and sat down on Myne's lap shamelessly while leaning against him, and slept like this all the way, and Myne can only let her do whatever she wants with a helpless expression on his face while reading his favourite book to kill time, and calm down his little brother.

"Let's look for an inn, it is already late, we will go to the dungeon tomorrow, now I just wanted to lay down on a comfortable bed," Myne said as he walk with the Aisha inside the town. By the way, this Town's name is Adol. Adol Town is much bigger and richer than Lucas Town thanks to his Troll Dungeon.

And the population of this town si many times more than Lucas's town, although half of the people in the town are foreigners like them who either come here for the dungeon or to do business.

"Okay, I'm also tired from swaying in the carriage for such a long time," Aisha reply jokingly.

But after hearing Aisha's carfree voice a vein appears on Myne's forehead and he thought, This girl is now asking for a beating.

Because Myne is super rich and has a lot of money in his Inventory, as well as many unopen storage pouches that he still hasn't opened. So of course, he doesn't want to spend the night in any cheap inn with Aisha.

So after asking a random shop owner for directions to the most famous inn in the town, they head toward it, watching the various shops along the way while holding each other's hands, making a lot of virgin people jealous.

After all, Aisha is a very beautiful girl and it is rare to see someone like her daily, so it is natural when people show her holding Myne's hand that they feel jealous and envious, especially when they thought about their own ugly wives/girlfriends.

"Welcome to the Silver Bell Pavilion. How may I help Sir?"

After wandering around the town for 10 minutes Myne and Aisha finally found the Inn suggested by the shop's uncle. According to the shop's uncle, this is the most famous and expensive inn in Adol Town. One night's stay in this Inn's most expensive room will cost them 5 gold coins, and the second most expensive room price is also not low around 3 gold coins.

Compare it to a normal Inn which most of the common adventurer use to spend their night and have the price of only 2 or 5 silver coins for one night stay, this price is indeed sky high.

After hearing the price Aisha also protests that they should find a normal Inn to stay and should not waste so much money, but Myne persuades him while saying that this is his first adventurer with her and he wants everything memorial, and nothing can be better than spending a night in most expensive Inn for the first time in his life with his sweet wife.

Hearing this Aisha's face become red as she thought something and didn't stop him after that.

"We went most expensive room of your Inn to spend the night," Myne said with a smile.

As expected of the high-class inn's receptionist, just as Myne said that he want the most expensive room in their room, the smile on the receptionist girl's face become even wider, she immediately come out behind her desk and bowed a little to Aisha and Myne, especially to Myne while sawing gulf between her boobs to him and spoke with a wide smile, "Sure sir, we have most comfortable and luxurious room in this entire town, you and your wife will be defiantly satisfied with our service."

"Although for one night stay we charge 10 gold coins but because you and your wife seem new here, and it is your first-time visit to our Inn, as a special discount we will only charge 7 gold coins from you."

Haha? Did she just raise the price of the room after mistaking me for a rich guy or does that old man doesn't know the real price? Myne thought with a smile but he doesn't take it seriously, this kind of small expense is nothing to him. So he took out 7 gold coins from his storage bag and handed them to the receptionist girl.

The receptionist girl took money from Myne, write down his name in the register, and after taking out a golden room key from her desk drawer, she respectfully indicate Myne and Aisha to follow her.

Silver Bell Pavilion is a 3-story building in the centre area of Adol Town. Myne and Aisha follow the receptionist girl and come to the third floor of the Inn. There were only two rooms on the entire third floor.

As Mynen and Aisha enter the room, They are greeted by a grand foyer adorned with exquisite marble flooring, reflecting the warm glow of the crystal chandelier overhead. The walls are embellished with tasteful artwork and delicate tapestries that add a touch of sophistication to the ambience. The room is many times bigger than they expected.

Just as they enter the room they found themself in the expansive living area, bathed in the light of magic crystals hanging on the ceiling. The plush, oversized sofas invite you to sink into their heavenly embrace, while the intricate coffee table showcases carefully curated books and magazines for your leisurely perusal.

Adjacent to the living area is a private dining space, complete with a sleek, mahogany table and plush chairs. This area is for those who don't like to dine with other people so they can enjoy gastronomic delights created by the Inn's top-class chefs in their room.

The bedroom is a sanctuary of tranquility, featuring a sumptuous king-sized bed adorned with crisp, high-thread-count linens. The headboard is intricately carved, adding a touch of regal charm to the room. A mini-bar stocked with an assortment of fine beverages and snacks is at your disposal, ensuring that every desire is catered to.

Seeing those luxurious first times in their lives both Myne and Aisha can't close their mouth from surprise, they have never seen something so grand, especially Aisha, she has travelled a lot during her adventure career but she never had visited any Inn expensive room, that time she thought Inn's every room are same and they just provide some special services in those luxurious rooms and rob their money, but only today she knows just how wrong she was.

"Cough! Sir, Madam, I'm leaving now, if you need anything just press this red button beside the main door, and someone will come to your service immediately," The receptionist girl said and after bowing to Myne and Aisha again she give the room key to Myne and left to do her work.

After the receptionist girl left, the first thing Myne did is to come to king size bed and jump on it like a child.

Omg, so soft, it felt like I am sleeping on Aisha's boobs, and it smell also quite nice, Myne thought.

"Look at this Myne there is a bath, a real luxurious bath, Just when Myne enjoying the softness of the bed," he suddenly heard Aisha's excited voice. Myne hurriedly come down from the bed and run toward the bathroom, but after seeing the bathroom he was again dumbfounded while thinking that how can there be such a nice bathroom in the world?

The bathroom centrepiece is a deep, freestanding soaking big tub fixed in the middle of the bathroom in which 4 people can easily go in and have fun, filled with comfortable hot water, surrounded by marble accents and complemented by a rainfall shower and a range of premium toiletries. Soft, fluffy towels and plush bathrobes await your indulgence.

F*cking hell, I will defiantly make this kind of bathroom in my house, Myne swear in his heart, and come to Aisha who was checking the temperature of the water in the tub.

"The temperature is perfect we can take a bath at any time we want," Aisha said while looking at the bathtub like a hungry wolf looking at sheep.

"I think we should have dinner first before taking a bath and going to bed," Myne suggest, which Aisha also accepts unwillingly as her stomach starts sending her signals that it is empty.
