

Cheat. A 81

Chapter 81: A set of growth-type weapons?

The next morning, Myne woke up fully refreshed. Aisha was still sleeping on top of him, and if she wanted to be laid on anywhere else then she can't as the entire night he was hugging her like glue.

His little brother had automatically come out from her pussy after its power-up mode was deactivated. But just as he opened his eyes, it also became rock hard again like every morning, ready for action.

Although Myne wanted to do some morning exercise with his beautiful Aisha, but after thinking for a while he still can't gather enough courage to wake her up from her sweet dream, so he let out a helpless sigh and unwillingly poured cold water on his little brother's expectation. Then he gently lay down Aisha on the bed from the top of his body.

Although during this process she made little movement in the sleep as if she was trying to hug him again, and didn't want to separate from his warm hug, Myne thought she might wake up at any moment but in the end, she didn't. She is clearly a heavy sleeper.

After that Myne headed toward the bathroom while humming a song in his mind, which he heard this from a traveller who come to eat in the Inn, coincidentally that day he was also there and heard it by chance, this is the only song he heard till now, so he has a great impression of it, So whenever his mood is good, he starts humming it.

"Ahaahaha, so nice, I'm afraid I'll be obsessed with this hot bath," Myne said with a relieved voice while drowning his whole body below his neck into the water.

5 minutes later just when Myne's eyes become heavy, he heard Aisha's voice from out of the bathroom.

"Myne, are you inside the bath?"

Myne woke up in shock, and hurriedly reply while rubbing his eyes, "Yes, I am..."

But before Myne could say anything else, Aisha enter the bathroom stark naked, with a beautiful smile on her red face. Although she looked a little embarrassed, she steadily gaited and approached the bathtub.

She then sit down behind Myne and took soap in her hand, and start rubbing his back while saying, "Thank you for the last night. Let me wash your back."

Myne didn't say anything and let her do whatever she want, but just after two minutes, when Aisha's naughty hands were like snakes reached for his little brother, he grabs Aisha from her waist and pull her into the bathtub.

After which there was a pin drop silent in the bathroom, Aisha and Myne stared at each other, the fire of passion and lust can clearly visible in both of their eyes.

"Now shall we start? Or do you still want to act innocent?" Myne asked in a teasing tone, which Aisha didn't answer and just nodded her head.

Myne and Aisha did a very intense morning exercise in the bathroom, and later on the bed like wide animals, in the middle of their love-making session Aisha showed signs of exhaustion but Myne use his skills and refilled her energy.

If it was a normal occasion then Aisha might know about Myne's some more skills, but sadly it wasn't, and Aisha didn't care where her exhaustion goes out of thin air while she was riding Myne's little brother. They didn't stop until the afternoon when Inn staff knock on their room door, in order to inform them that they need to leave their room for some time, so they can clean it.

"I think that for now, we can only continue our remaining exercise at night," Myne said with a smile while taking out his rock-hard dick from Aisha's wet pussy filled with both of their cum.

"Haa, Haa, I also think so, but please let me take a breath, my legs are already so weak that I don't think I can walk for some minutes," Aisha said while panting heavily, her entire naked body covered with sweat, and was laying on the bed with her leg wide open.

"Okay don't worry about anything, let me help to clean up," Myne said and carry Aisha in princess style while walking into the bathroom, but this time they both just take a normal shower and come out.

"By the way Myne, did you see my panty? I can't find it anywhere," Aisha asked confusedly while searching her purple colour panty under the bed which Myne secretly put away in his Inventory last night.

"No, I don't but I remember I place it on the bed," Myne said innocently as he didn't know anything about Aisha's panty.

Aisha searched her panty for some more minutes but in the end, she give up, she took her new clothes from her storage pouch, and after getting ready, both of them walk out of the room.

Thanks to the morning intense love-making session, Myne and Aisha didn't get time to do breakfast, so they come to the ground floor of the Inn and ordered lunch for both of them.

While eating lunch Myne and Aisah discussion about going into the dungeon but after some consideration both of them decide that they would go to the dungeon tomorrow as it is already late for that, and neither Aisha nor Myne has any mood to go to the dungeon after what happened last night and today morning.

"So what should we do now?" Aisha while eating dessert.

"Is this even a question to ask? Since this is our first-time visit to this town, then let's stroll around and do some shopping, and eat interesting street food," Myne said with an excited expression.

"Then let go what are you waiting for?" After hearing word shopping Aisha immediately stood up from her chair and quickly grab Myne's hand, while unring him to move fast.

Huh? Do all the girls become so excited after hearing about shopping? Myne thought while getting dragged by Aisha.

"As expected of a town that has its own dungeon, there are a lot of people present here. And looking at those things in shops I've never seen those things before," Myne said to Aisha while holding her hand more tightly so she doesn't get lost in the crowd.

"Yes, we rarely saw so many people in our town," Aisha nodded her head.

After Myne and Aisha wander around the general stores, they learn that this is the freest time during the day, and only in the evening do they can really see how congested Adol town become.

The next place they headed towards was the weapon shop. Precisely because the town is adjacent to the dungeon, so there will be good weapons and armour. Although Myne doesn't need any weapons or armour but Aisha needed, she is just wearing a normal beautiful-looking dress, which of course can't give her any protection during the fight, and her bow was also quite old, and the quality isn't high.

Along the way as Myne was holding Aisha's hand, many people who look like adventurers stared at them, their eyes were filled with jealousy and envy like last night, but Myne again didn't give a f*ck about it, and even provoke them so if someone dares to mess with me and he can earn some pocket money, but alas those guys only know how to bully weak, non of them come out to mess with him, making him very disappointed.

After entering a good-looking shop with enough crowd, the first thing Myne discovered are three eye-catching weapons among the ones sold in the shop. Pitch black "Dagger", "Bow" and "One-handed sword". All three of them are carelessly thrown in the disposal products in the corner.

Myne might not have given them a second glance if not for the fact that he just recently get the same shape and colour weapon as them.

Myne walked toward those weapons in front of Aisha's confused eyes, as she didn't understand why he is looking at those disposal weapons so seriously.

[ Name: Dagger of Origin

Attack: +9

Grade: None

Attribute: Growth

Effective against: None ]

Just as I thought this is also a growth-type weapon like the last one I got from Aiden's shop, Myne thought with a frown. Then he looked at the other two weapons in the basket.

[ Name: One-handed Sword of Origin

Attack: +13

Grade: None

Attribute: Growth

Effective against: None ]

[ Name: Bow of Origin

Attack: +10

Grade: None

Attribute: Growth

Effective against: None ]

As expected those two are also growth-type weapons, but what the hell is this growth-type weapon mean? This damn appraisal skill also not giving me any information...

[ Appraisal • Complete LV2 ( 187/200 ) ]

I just hope that it can give me some useful information after it levels up like last time, Myne thought while giving a quick glance at his appraisal skill experience point to see how many points are needed before it could level up again.

"Myne are okay?" Aisha asked worriedly after seeing him staring at the weapons very seriously while frowning once in a while.

"Huh? Ohh yes, I am okay, let's go buy a decent bow for you too," Myne said with a smile while holding all three growth-type weapons in his hand.

"Excuse me! I wanted to buy those three weapons, by the way, could tell who made them?" Myne asked the girl at the counter.

"Sure sir, those weapons are not made by anyone, they can occasionally be found in the dungeon, so they are often sold here. And because they aren't that strong, so if there are new arrivals, they'll immediately go to the disposal section. Even so, there are many people who buy them because of their rare design, colour, and cheap price.

Also, 45 silver coins for all three weapons, thank you for your patronage!" The counter girl said with a smile.

"By the way, we also wanted to buy a strong bow," Myne said while giving The counter girl 45 silver coins, although Bow of Origin is also a nice weapon, its attack power and durability are very poor, maybe it can become powerful in future after Myne upgrade it, but currently, it can only rest in his Inventory.

"A strong bow, huh? Are you wanted to buy it for this beautiful madam?" The counter girl asked.

Myne nodded his head to her question, and after receiving the answer the counter girl walk into a room behind her desk, and soon come out with a long wooden box in her hand and place it on her desk.

"This is the best bow in our shop made by our shop owner himself, and let me tell you a secret, our shop owner is a Master level blacksmith, and his all work is a masterpiece, people can do anything to buy their creation," The counter girl said with a serious voice while opening the box lightly.

Myne and Aisha both didn't take The counter girl's nonsense seriously If this bow had really been a masterpiece, it would not have been rotting in her shop and would have been sold long ago.

The box finally open widely and a green colour longbow with a wooden frame coated with an unknown liquid, and an iron wire-like string made of strong material come in front of Myne and Aisha...

[ Name: Oakheart's Fury ( Longbow )

Attack Power: +45

Grade: Medium

Attribute: None

Effective Against: None

Special Effects: Boost 30% arrow power.

Description: A longbow made from a 100-year-old Oak tree that provides its holder with a high level of strength and flexibility. ]

"What is its price? Myne asked with a satisfied smile.

This longbow is indeed very suitable for Aisha, although it is not a magic item, but still, it is a good weapon, Myne thought in his mind.

"Just 5 gold coins," The counter girl said quickly while trying to hold back her smile, defiantly she is going to earn a high commission for this sale.

Myne nodded and gave her money, and then he grabbed the longbow and handed it to Aisha, who wanted to say something but shut up after hearing Myne's next words...

"If you really wanted to help me during the fight then you need a better weapon, you can't just fight with your that old bow."

Hearing that Aisha swallowed back the words in her mouth and obediently took the longbow from Myne, but in her mind she decided to give Myne a reward after returning to their room.

Then Myne wanted to buy armour for Aisha as well, but Aisha grabbed her hand and forcefully pulled him out of the shop while saying that she doesn't need any armour and that he already has spent a lot of money before they could even enter the dungeon.

After coming out from the weapon shop, Myne and Aisha stroll around the town like a newlywed couple on their honeymoon, and try a lot of different types of food at food stalls, and only when the sun starts fading away, and the market street crowded with people, did they return back to their Inn room.
