Chapter 84: The Ogre

#Dungeon of Strength, B1 Floor.

The main monsters in B1 are Orcs and Goblins monsters, and on the floor below us, the second basement floor is inhabited by Trolls, this is what the knight at the entrance told to Aisha after she ask him. By the way, those Orcs are just normal Orcs and there are not many powerful ones like those in the orc settlement among them.

As for goblins, they are also known as younger and weaker versions of Orcs and Trolls, they are also perverts like them. But because they are many times weaker compare to Orcs. So they can only gang up on the weak, catch and sexually assault various species of females, and use them as a reproduction machine.

Of course, they could also breed among themselves, but it seems that for some reason they prefer other species' females for reproduction more than their own.

Just thinking about those ugly bastards looking at Aisha lustfully, made Myne blood boil from anger.

I should be careful from now on in any case those f*ckers dare to do anything to my Aisha, Myne thought and activated his skill Presence Detect, and found the presence of two monsters 50 meters ahead of him.

"Aisha from here on just stay behind me and shoot arrows from a distance, also never let down your guard, and always look at your surrounding, in any case, those monsters suddenly appear behind you, so be alert till we clear this floor, okay," Myne spoke seriously.

"You are worrying too much you know, right? I am not a newbie in this field, I have cleared many such dungeons before I retired, so I know the basics," Aisha said with a smile, and give a kiss on Myne's cheek to make him relax.

Sigh, this guy is really treating me like a little girl, doesn't he know I am more than 5 years older than him, Aisha thought funnily but still she is very happy that Myne care so much about her, for a lonely girl like her who always wish for a friend, Myne is really a perfect partner she could ever wish for.

"But still stay alert, better safe than sorry, right," Myne said with a smile, finally calming down his tense nerves after getting encouragement from Aisha.

Just as Myne completed giving Instructions to Aisha, he come to the place where he detect the presence of two monsters, and soon found an Orc and a goblin, discussing something among themselves loudly, and just half a step away from fighting.

"Moersoda! I Hl_rt fo'eo soda, Hj sã tà ma_st bō_yt, & cà gîe janm eai'y Da_y_knw gat a wo'maa ya talitorr." (MotherF*cker! How dare you f*ck my wife, and also impregnate her behind my back! i thought you were my brother but you turned out to be a cheater,) The Goblin scouted his eyes already turned red from anger.

"Hj sæn hóba, ï lem nola tàrirab, ït Hale hdb̄s b̄sv̄s ekeo b̄s̄b̄s wlēo ebe wjwonsbb̄ aje ekel w me whe wvccw lsi Aka'Magomensh R es'tie, Hj̄hah Me't àjene Mor gätt Akneja'Magosh b̄ jekDa Yàà Wo'tt T Wà'ka Hjmbab. jeb whien shvs ehwi dhyttbaowo Abahdhi. She told me that for some reason she can't fall asleep at night, and there was always uneasiness in her heart. She asked me to help her, and after talking with her a little more I learn that you don't give her enough attention, and always wonder with your friends, and even at night you ignore her.

After learning that I find out instantly why she can't sleep properly, so I offer her a solution and she accepts it without any hesitation. Now tell me, how it is my fault? if you don't have enough time to f*ck your own wife, then of course, she would go to someone else to vent her inner desire,) The Orc said calmly without caring about the goblin's emotions.

"Yool materàsd, juevs mat dbev wl, i eou mala sote, jevq àjfhð havai ækwow iisbs. Pnsba ændbs. Åsvs akdoe ka analo wnavscq. Iwjw a la. Al a qikia wjwba wl pana. Baka q qoooq yygeyw a nvsmqpàksh lppqoq joana.

Don't lie to me, I know my wife very well, and I am f*cking her every night, she has already told me everything, like how you forcefully entered my house when I was not around and raped her just after getting evolved into an Orc.

I always know that you have some bad thoughts about my wife, but I fool never think about it seriously,) The Goblino said with tears in his eyes, but when he was about to take out the knife under his cloth to kill his wife rapist, suddenly he heard footsteps and saw two humes, one male and one female.

The male was just an average guy whom he have killed a lot, but the female is a real deal, he have never seen someone so beautiful as her in his entire life. I have to make her mine, this was the only thought going through his mind after seeing Aisha and the same thought also going on the Orc's mind as well.

Unknown of those two monster thoughts, Myne after coming enough close to them, quickly use appraisal skill on them...

The number of monsters that can be enslaved will increase as levels of skill rise. In addition, the probability of successfully taming monsters will increase as levels of skill as well as Host raise. The stronger the Host is the easier it would for him to tame any monsters.

F*ck! Just when I wanted to sleep god give me a pillow, just some moment ago I was thinking about how to control Boss Slime for my research purpose, and the next moment solution itself run into me, I am really lucky, Myne thought and immediately steal the Tame and Body Enhancement • Small skills with a bright smile on his face.

As for other skills, he just paste" them randomly on the stones on the ground causally.

Okay, Aisha, you deal with the goblin and I handle that Orc, remember to be careful," Myne said and shoot a fireball toward the Orc and Goblin.

Roarr... ¢*ha+p-τ+ξΓ-H@σ#fTe@d$-&on!-

Both the Orc and Goblin let out a loud cry and dodge the fireball. Then the Orc hurriedly rushed toward Myne with his all strength, wanting to kill him as soon as possible. As for the Goblin seeing the Orc is dealing with the powerful Hume male, he hurriedly runs toward Aisha so he can knock her out, and flee with her till both Myne and the Orc was fighting.

Although his plan was pretty good, but before he could go 20 meters near Aisha, an arrow come toward him at an extremely high speed and cracked his head straight like a watermelon.

"Clap-clap, nice kill Aisha."

Aisha heard Myne compliment and hurriedly turn her head toward him to see the situation at his side but to her surprise, she saw the Orc's body lying on the ground cut into two pieces.

"When did you kill him?" Aisha asked with a frown while coming to Myne.

"Just when you kill that Goblin," Myne said and start walking further into the dungeon.

Aisha follows him closely while asking some questions curiously like how he dealt with the Orc, but in return, she only gets Myne's mysterious smile.

After which they encountered some more Orcs and Goblins since then. Most of the time Myne just work as a tank and let Aisha kill all the monsters by herself, so she can gain experience and level up quickly. After all, she doesn't have the Tenfold Experience Acquisition skill, and her levelling speed same as a turtle.

By the way, after the first Orc and Goblin encounter at the start, none of the other Orcs or Goblins had any new skill for Myne to steal, making him again disappointed.

Once a time when Aisha was busy with a group of Goblins, Myne also tries his Tame skill on a random goblin who wanted to kill him as he thought that Myne is much weaker compared to Aisha since he was just dodging their attack from the beginning to end.

Myne also didn't waste his time and used the Tame skill on that poor Goblin and he immediately stood at his place like a statue, his eye's brightness become a little dim and he lost force.

After which Myne give him some command and he follows it without any hesitation, but when Myne asked him to do something which was impossible for a normal Goblin to do, he didn't move and just starred at Myne blankly.

After doing some more experiments and getting enough information about his new skill, Myne ordered that Goblin to kill himself and that guy actually killed himself, clearly the skill is quite powerful at least for low-level monsters.

Now let's see Aisha's status, it has been an entire hour since we descended to the basement floor, her level should be raised a lot till now, Myne thought while looking at Aisha who was fighting with an Orc with her all strength, covered in sweat head to toe, and panting heavily.

Sigh, she is really working hard to become strong, I should give her a reward later for her hard work, Myne thought and ignore Aisha again...

Very nice, her levels increase by 30 to 32, and that too just within two hours of training, I always know that I have all qualities to become a great teacher. Huh? Her occupation change? And when did appraisal skill start ass-licking? Host beloved fiancée, is that even a thing to mention? Myne thought while staring at Aisha's status panel worriedly.

But not matter what to say Aisha's skill levels are quite high, especially her cooking skill, No wonder the food prepared by him is so delicious that people become addicted to it.

"Myne are you okay? Why are you looking at me with such worry expression?" Aisha asked confusedly while wiping sweat from her forehead.

"Ahh, nothing, I am just worried that you working so hard that you would leave me behind and become more powerful than me. And in the future when I'm in trouble, I have to hide behind my Wifuu for protection, haha," Myne said with a laugh while handing a towel and a water bottle to Aisha.

"That's natural after all I am not a lazy bum like you, who would chill around shamelessly and let his beautiful wife fight with monsters," Aisha said while greeting her teeth, clearly she is very irritated that Myne making her do all the work, and himself enjoying in background.

"Don't say that, I am also working okay, it is not easy to cheer up your cute Wifuu all the time, and eat an entire roasted pig weight around 50 kg alone," Myne said as a matter of fact, making Aisha so angry that many veins appear on her beautiful face, which shows how angry she is.

But before she could jump on Myne to beat him, a loud cry a little different from Orcs suddenly come in front of them.

"That is the voice of an Ogre, no doubt," Aisha spoke with worry visible clearly on her face.

Orcs are referred to as one of the subspecies of the demon race which has its origin as "Pig Head Monster".

An orc is said to humes, beastmen, elves, dwarfs, etc., which mutated by absorbing the so-called "Evil Air or Dark Energy, which influences their body.

Incidentally, Dark Energy contains thick impure magical energy. Because of that, Orc meat has a taste similar to that of high-quality pork.

The Ogre is troublingly said to have originated from the "Oni" race.

The Oni race, who once had built a favourable relationship with roughly us humes, elves, beastmen races.

If a part of the Oni race absorbs Dark Energy, their figure changes, and they will become monsters called Ogres.

One theory states that the stronger demon race secretly manouvered and captured the Oni race when the dungeon was made and made them absorb Dark Energy against their will.

The Ogre's traits are that they are extremely strong, quick-witted, agile, burly, idiot, ugly, easy to manipulate just need a strong fist and demon race aura. Their skills specialise in attack, and their battle style seems to be triumphing with a one-hit knockout.

Putting it simply, Ogre is an upgraded version of an Orc.

"An Ogre, huh? It seems like today we are going to kill a piggy, an ugly giant smelly brown piggy, Hehehe..."
