Darkness Mate Cheated Versus Fated by Victory Done Chapter 1

Chapter 1

Zora

I wasn't my husband's fated mate, I had been his chosen mate and wife for 5 years, until one night he found his fated mate at the party he wasn't supposed to be at...

He would certainly choose me, his wife for 5 years over some she-wolf he just met 30 minutes ago, right? Right!?

"Casey, earth to Casey." I noticed he was absentminded, I tried to get his attention back to me, but he didn't respond, so I followed his gaze to see a beautiful woman.

She was wearing a dark green silk dress, it was to her ankles, the dress was not tight, but just right, you could see her perfect hourglass figure and also leaving something to imagine. I couldn't help but look down to check myself, I had my pear-shaped body, which was nothing compared to her perfect proportions. I didn't even wear anything fancy to this specific occasion. I was just wearing a plain dress.

But it was weird for my husband to act like this, he wasn't the type to be attracted to beautiful women. My husband, Casey Grady was the alpha of the Magic Fang Pack, making me, Zora Rohan the Luna of the Magic Fang.

We were not fated mate, he chose me to be his Luna.

"I will always cherish you, love you, and fight for you, because now you are my Luna, my wife."

That was what he promised me on our wedding day, he kissed me in front of our Pack members. Including those women who were jealous of me.

They didn't understand what Casey saw in me, but after he had chosen me to be his mate, he rejected all their advances, and he kept his distance from those women.

In turn, he was possessive of me. He didn't want me to wear revealing clothes, and he didn't want me to put on makeup as well, but I knew he only did that because he didn't want me to draw unnecessary attention to myself, he was an alpha after all, he had enemies.

I knew he cares about me deeply, during battles, he was always the first to notice when I was hurt, because he had always had his eyes on me, from the day he chose me.

He even asked me to stop being a warrior, because it was too dangerous, he was afraid that someday I would get seriously hurt, and he might lose me forever. Of course, I didn't agree to this, I promised to fight beside him from the day he became Alpha.

His parents left the position to him earlier than expected, they were also a couple that were deeply in love with each other, so they retired early to travel the world, that was all the Alphas do when their heirs were capable enough to be the next Alpha.

"Some day, when we have children, when they grow up, this will be us, we will travel the world together, just the two of us."

That was what he said when he was seeing his parents off at the airport. And I wholeheartedly believed this.

I became a good Luna proudly, because of my bloodline and my ability as a trained warrior, Casey had nothing to worry about when he left the pack for duties, he could leave the pack to me, and he trusted me.

We were happily married for 5 years, I was now twenty-four years old, and Casey was twenty-seven years old.

I loved him so much, and he loved me deeply like I did. There was no doubt about it, everyone in the pack knew this. I don't think anyone or anything would ever come between us, or so I thought until we attended the dinner party that turned my life upside down.

It was my own birthday party, yet I didn't want to attend, is it weird? I didn't want my birthday to be a political event, I would rather just spend my birthday with Casey alone. I knew that as a Luna, I needed to get used to events like this, but it was my birthday, and I couldn't even decide what I do on my own birthday. I hated the feeling of not having control like this.

Before the party started, I had this overwhelming feeling that something bad was going to happen. So I told Casey that I didn't want to go to my own dinner party anymore.

"But I prepared a big surprise for you, I took so much effort and time to pull this off, please." He held my face and looked me in the eyes. I was drowning in his feelings for me.

But all I could think about was how many people I have to attend to, it was not something I want for my birthday, still, I am a Luna, and I had been a supportive wife, so I went with him. It was my biggest mistake.

were sitting at a table, when Casey turned around and saw her, that beautiful woman in a green dress, was he captured by her green dress because it was the same as my eyes' color? Or was it because she had long, dark straight hair, blue eyes, full red lips, and beautiful tanned skin?

"Casey, Casey." I tried again but to no avail. I put my hand on him, but he trembled slightly when he felt my hand, still, he didn't turn around, he was looking at her.

"Zora." After a while, he came to his senses and called my name. I gave him a reassuring smile.

“We should go home, I don’t feel well.” It wasn’t a complete lie, I never saw him like this, and I knew I have to get us out of there. But when I looked at him again, I could see that his gaze was fixed on her again, and she was looking at him as well.

At that moment, I knew. From the way they looked at each other like there was no one in this world but them like they had been in a trance like nothing else mattered. They were lost in each other’s eyes. My heart began to race.

I hate to admit it, but I knew what just happened, my husband of five years, had just found his fated mate, and it wasn’t me.

“Casey, please, let’s just go home.” I pleaded, I rarely pleaded to him. I have no reason to. But now I’m on edge, I had this unfathomable fear.

It happened just then, Dustin Crona, Casey’s best friend and the Pack’s Beta walked over here, he was the host of this dinner party.

“Alpha Casey, I believed that you and Luna Zora are having a good time, right?” He asked, and I tried to hold Casey’s hand so that Dustin wouldn’t notice he was looking at another woman.

“Dustin.” Casey finally put his attention back to here. But what he said next surprised me.

“Who is that lady over there?”

Dustin looked at me in shock, it seemed that he also felt Casey’s behavior was out of character, it was disrespectful as well, asking about another woman when your wife and Luna were right beside you.

“Her name is Lori Kuhn, she’s the daughter of Alpha Garrick from the Howling Moon Pack. She just graduated.”

Casey nodded, murmuring her name.

“Actually, Luna Zora, it was time for you to cut the cake and serve.” Dustin suddenly reminded me that I was still under the Spotlight of tonight’s event.

Just as I was about to hold Casey’s hand and asked him to accompany me.

“You should go.” Casey pushed my hand away, and then I saw he went straight to Lori.

I wanted to chase after him. But Dustin stopped me.

“Please, Luna Zora, we need you here.” He pleaded.

He was right, since Casey was not going to be there, it was more important for me to show up and keep up the appearance. I gave Casey one last look, and then I went with Dustin.

I knew Casey wouldn’t throw away our 5 years of marriage, maybe I was his chosen mate, still, we were deeply in love, and I had been his perfect Luna. And rejecting me would mean getting his power and his wolf weaken, as an Alpha, that was the last thing he wants.

When I returned from my duty, I didn’t see Casey. And when I looked for Lori, she was gone too. At that moment, my mind went to the dark place. I asked where they went, and several of my pack members pointed in the same direction.

A dark corridor.

When I was on my way to the corridor I felt pain shot through my body, my wolf Monica whimpered.

my best to walk normally so I wouldn't draw any attention. I thought it was painful when I tried to hold in my pain and walk all the - way to the corridor, but after I saw them together, I knew my physical pain was no match for my mental one.

Here he was, Casey was betraying me!

My husband of five years, the Alpha of Magic Fang Pack, was kissing another woman, his fated mate. Her dress was half torn, exposing her chest. His one hand was wrapping around her waist, his other hand was covering her swell. They were kissing so passionately, they didn't even notice that I was standing right there.

When they broke away, I could see the line of saliva connecting them.

Was this the surprise he had for me?!

A big present?

I couldn't watch this live porn any longer, I turned around and left without them ever noticing I was there.

I knew he wouldn't reject me because it would weaken his power, but I should have also known that he wouldn't reject her for the same reason. because it meant to weaken his power as an Alpha if he rejects his fated mate.

If he was just a regular Pack member, I should be able to just reject him and move on with my life, unfortunately for me, he was the alpha, I couldn't just reject him.

"He betrayed us! I could feel the pain! He claimed us but he betray us! What will we do?!" Monica cried out.

Truthfully, I had no answer for that. I knew I should have prepared for this day to come, but it was just so rare for a werewolf to meet their fated mate. I wished somehow that I would run into my fated mate as well, so that I could leave Casey, and he could make my pain go away. I loved him! He assured me! Yet he betrayed me!

I could feel the shock, sadness, rage, and loss running through me at this moment. I let Monica take control, I shifted and started to run towards the woods.

While we were running, the pain we felt intensified, I didn't have to be told to know what happened. Casey and I were tied by our claim, I would feel the pain whenever he touched someone else intimately.

"Damn, Casey! How could you!?" I cried when Monica howled. I was all alone at that moment.

No! I couldn't give up like this! I was not sharing my husband with some random woman! I would make him choose!

Me, his chosen Luna for 5 years, or her? A woman he wasn't even supposed to meet?
