

Chapter 54

After the long, wrecking Orgasm, Hazel dropped onto his chest, resting her head on his chest while breathing heavily with her py throbbing from the Orgasm she had just experienced.

Axel removed his fingers from inside of her and took it into his mouth, licking on it before kissing Hazel's lips softly, making her taste herself in his mouth.

He broke the kiss, running his hands through her hair.

“You taste good, as always” he commented and kissed on her now sweaty forehead.

He let her rest on his chest for about a minute before his hands began to journey down to her damp and ever wanting py.

He rubbed on it gently, sending tingling sensations and making her body jerk in s3xual excitement.

She had gotten off, it was his turn to at least do the same.

It pissed him off that he could not still ram his dick inside of her and fk her until he came inside of her. He had to hold back. He had to cum without fg her like he wanted to.

“You can do anything and everything” he whispered to her and almost immediately, Hazel pulled backwards, unbuttoning his shirt with an ever urgent need.

She unbuttoned his shirt in no time and pushed it off his body. She looked at his hard, rocky abs for seconds, licking her lips softly.

She gulped down and took her fingers to his abs, trailing each and every hard abs. She leaned in and kissed his lips softly while her hands roamed around his sexy body.

She took her hands up to his tiny nipple and rubbed on it gently while still kissing him. His hands roamed her body possessively while their tongues danced together.

Hazel broke the kiss and with a lustful look on her face, the most lustful that Axel had ever seen on her face, she got off from his thighs and began unbuckling his belt.

She unbuckled it as fast as her hands could and threw the belt off. She pulled down the trousers he was wearing which he had to raise his hs up to aid her attempts to pull it off.

As soon as it was pulled off, his hard dick sprang out, coming into sight.

She gulped down as she felt her wetting her panties with more fluids as she stared at his hard dick that had stretched to about nine inches, oozing out pre cum from its head.

She gulped down once more as she slowly wrapped her both hands around the base of it.

He was so big and thick and Hazel felt lucky that she was the one who was mated to him, not Clarissa, not any other girl.

“Fk” Axel gd and threw his head backwards as her hands began to slide up and down his hard length.

“Go on with it, sexy head” he encouraged her.

“Take my balls and give it a soft squeeze” he instructed and like the obedient Hazel that she was, her hands took hold of his balls as he had said and she gave it a soft squeeze that had him moaning out her name for as long as she did the act.

She moved her hands back to his length, running her hands around it and giving him a hand job until he took hold of her hands and helped her wrap it around his dick firmly..

Her grip on his dick was pretty tight but it only increased the tension and pleasure that shot through his body. Holding himself up, Axel began to buck his hs forward, fg into her hands and imagining it to be her mouth that he had always wished to have his dick in.

Hazel loved the warm, hard feeling of his dick fg into her hands while it oozed out more and more precum.

“My balls....” He called out as he neared his Orgasm.

Hazel quickly took one of her hands down to his balls and gave it another soft squeeze.

“Fuuuuck!!” He gd and began to cum instantly, shooting his white cum all over hands and getting some of it on her body as she leaned close to him.

He continued to cum for what seemed to him like a long moment of pleasure and yet numbness.

Hazel looked up at his pleasure filled face and she felt proud of herself, feeling that she had done pretty well with him even though he was her first with all of this.

He gradually calmed down from his Orgasm and spilled out the last drops of cum. His tightly shut eyes opened as he let out heavy breaths before pulling Hazel up to him, to sit down on one of his thighs.

Hazel looked down at his dick and realized that it had not gone limp yet.

“You... You are still quite hard” she pointed out.

“That is what you do to me, s3xy head” he breathed out.

“You are the only one who can make me hard and cum a thousand times”

Her cheeks reddened and she let out a giggle.

She slowly took her hands to it and touched the tip of it that was still covered in his cum. His dick jerked and hardened at her slight touch and she felt her heart race, knowing that she had this much effects on the man she loved.

But desperately, Hazel wished for more. She wished he would take her and have sex with her, she wished he would sink his fangs into her neck, marking her and making her his forever but over the past few weeks, she had learnt that he was doing so many things for her and this too, this restraint, was for her.

She touched the tip of his dick once more and Axel let out a soft grunt of pleasure as her finger teased his tip.

He pulled her face towards him and gave her a hard kiss, almost sucking air out of her before letting go of cheeks and breaking the kiss.

“Sexy head” he called, his hands roaming her body, visiting and outlining every curve.

“Would you like to have some of this uncooked meal in your mouth?” He asked her, hoping badly that she would say yes as that would be the climax of his sexual experience with her.

He wanted her to blow him so badly.

Hazel stared at him and then down at the dick that her hands were now circling.

“If that’s what you want” she mumbled.

“You don’t have to do it if you do not think you will like it” he replied, trying to ensure that he did not force her into anything.

“I bet I will love it” she whispered in her tiny voice and climbed down his thighs again.

She knelt in between his legs as he pushed his hs forward to enable her have easier access to his dick that was hardening even more with anticipation of her warm mouth on it.

Hazel tucked her messed up hair behind her ears and lowered her face down to his dick, sticking out her tongue as she did so.

Her tongue licked at the underside of his dick and he threw his head backwards, his body instantly pleasure filled.

“Yeah, Sexy head... Keep going” he moaned, loving the electrifying sparks that her tongue had just given to him.

Hazel took in the taste of his cum smeared ck. It tasted like nothing but seemed to be a little bit salty but all in all, it didn't taste bad.

She lowered her mouth to it, spreading her lips wide so as to enable her mouth take the thick head of his organ.

She sucked the head of it into her mouth and Axel bucked with pleasure. This was what he had been wanting since he had his first blowjob ten years ago. It took him ten years to get it from her but with the pleasure coursing through his veins, he concluded that it was worth it.

His hands wrapped around the back of her head, pulling her hair into his grab to prevent it from disturbing her.

Hazel sucked more of his length into her warm mouth.

“Yeah... You have no idea how long I have wanted this”

“Take it as much as you can.... Fk it!”

It was taking every single will inside of him not to take control, gag her with his dick and fk her mouth until he came inside of her mouth.

Hazel could barely take half of his dick inside of her mouth but for Axel it was better than those who could deep throat him.

“Tease me with your tongue” he gd out his instructions to her.

Her warm, wet mouth, played with his dick before she let it out of her mouth with a pop and then teased at his tip with her tongue.

“Damn it! I’m going to cum again if you do that!”

Hazel wanted him to do so, she wanted him to cum so she continued with her ministrations, sending her tongue twirling around his tip before sucking him into her mouth as far as she could go.

Her hands went to his full balls and gave it a little squeeze that sent more electrifying sparks into Axel’s body.

Perhaps he would have lasted longer but not with her, the pleasure was way too much for him to ignore or pend. The urgent need to cum soon built up inside of his dick and he began to slowly buck his dick into her mouth, fg her mouth slowly.

Making sure, even in this throes of pleasure that he was not gagging her or being too forceful on her.

He continued to fk her mouth until his load came again. Hazel swallowed some of his cum before he pulled out of her mouth, cumming on her hands that were still holding the base of his dick.

He seemed to be cumming forever but it was not a surprise to him, after all, he was cumming from a pleasure that he had been fantasizing for ten years of his life.
