

Chapter 56

Axel walked down the stairs and halted as his gaze fell on a couple, k!ssing hard and making out, right there in the living room, at a corner of it.

Things like this would have been strange if it was not that the period was the heat period. Sights like this, k!ssing, making out and even fg in the most public places were common in all packs during these times.

He looked away from them, wishing in his heart that he could grab hold of Hazel from nowhere and do the same to her.

He shook his head, ignoring the presence of the k!ssing couples and walking out of his father's mansion. He was supposed to take a tour around the pack that day to check for any issues that the pack may be experiencing but he was quickly starting to realize that he had chosen the wrong date.

It was only the second day of the heat, every couple would be busy, devouring each other. No one would even think of the issues the pack might be facing.

He bit on his l!ps and sent his hands into his hair, ruffling it gently.

As he got to where he had parked his car and was about to open the door of the car, he heard m0ans and grunts.

He glanced back to see a couple fg right behind a pole of the mansion.

“Gosh” he tsked and got into his car, not bothering to interrupt the couple.

He got behind the wheels of his car and revved the car into motion, deciding quickly that he was not going on a tour around the pack anymore but he was going to be going on another interesting tour, a tour of her sexy body.

He drove back to his home which was not so far from his father's home anyways.

He parked his car and alighted from the car, feeling his dk starting to get hard with anticipation. He walked into the living room after inputting the passcode.

Hazel looked up at him with a soft smile on her face. She was watching a children's educational series with Sana who was obviously excited to watch it.

"Sana" Axel called, walking towards Hazel.

"Sir Axel"

"How about you continue enjoying this yourself? I and Hazel need to get in and talk"

"Yes, Sir Axel"

Axel's hands grabbed Hazel's wrist while a look of confusion spread over her pretty face. She wondered what he needed to talk to her about as he pulled her after him.

"What do we need to talk about?" She questioned as they climbed up the stairs.

"Something important" he glanced at her for a second before continuing the journey down the stairs.

Hazel's heart skipped a beat when he gave that response, what could have been the something important that he had to say to her?

He took her into his room, slammed his door shut and slammed her back against the door too in a second.

“What is the important....” Her words were cut off by his lips that quickly smooched hers with desire.

Hazel’s lips parted into a smile against his lips as she realized that this was the something important that he was talking about.

His lips smooched against her soft lips several times before he took the upper lip into his mouth, sucking it in and ravishing the taste of it. It tasted like orange juice, making him realize that she must have been having that before he came in.

He moved to her lower lips and sucked on the fullness of the lip before letting his tongue journey into her mouth to meet her own excited tongue.

Their heads tilted as they kissed hard, taking a step backwards with every second.

By the time, Hazel was about to break the kiss for air, they were falling back to the bed behind them.

She fell onto his hard body with a slight gasp that left her lips slightly parted. Her lips closed up but parted again when he groped her ass hard, making her let out a soft gasp as his hands massaged and kneaded the softness of her ass.

She moaned out softly and grinded her body towards him, pressing them together more than they had already been, feeling the pleasure of having his hard-on poke against her skin.

She gulped down and reached for his lips once more, kissing the soft pair passionately.

His right leg parted and wrapped around her legs, holding her firmly in place as he kissed her back as passionately as she was doing.

After over a minute of l!ps sucking, Axel broke off the k!ss and turned, making her back come in contact with the soft material of the bed while he now hovered above her.

He k!ssed her face softly, trailing soft k!sses down her face to her neck where the urge to mark her surged inside of him but as usual, he pushed off the urge and sucked on her skin instead, earning soft m0ans from her.

He took his l!ps to her ears and k!ssed on it.

“What would you like me to do today?” He questioned her huskily.

Hazel gulped down. She wanted him to do everything, she wanted him to today attention to her bo0bs that were now screaming for the attention but still yet, she wanted him down there too, either his fingers or his tongue, she wanted it down there teasing her until she came hard against his tongue or fingers.

“I... I want everything” lt had filled her voice as she spoke in a voice that she could hardly recognize to be hers.

“Don’t be so greedy” Axel smirked, trailing his fingers down her beautiful face as he stared intently at her.

His other hand raised up her gown so gently that Hazel did not even know that he had pushed off her gown already.

His fingers journeyed to her inner th!ghs, trailing slowly and sensually in a way that made her close her eyes in the gentle pleasure of it.

“No panties, you have been waiting for me, sexy head”

“You want this?” He whispered as his fingers came in contact with her pussy l!ps making her shudder with the slight touch.

“Fk” her l!ps trembled out the word.

He leaned in and gave the back on her ears a l!ck that made her wrap her arms around him and m0an out his name.

“I asked you a question.” He whispered into her ears before giving her ear a tease, wiggling his tongue around for some seconds while he held his hand a little away from her.

“Yes, I want it. I want it all. I want everything you can offer” she pressed herself towards his hand to get his fingers to touch her.

Her attempt was quite successful as his fingers brushed her once more making her lips tremble out a moan of pleasure.

Axel rubbed his thumb around her clit, circling it quickly once.

“Yes, right there. Rub me right there” she moaned out her demands to him.

Axel stared into her eyes lustfully and the next seconds, he was tearing away her clothes. Hazel noted that at the rate at which he was tearing her clothes, she would be running out of clothes anytime soon but the thought of it flew out of her head as his warm mouth covered her hardened nipple and gave the nipple a long lick before sucking it into his mouth and pulling at it.

Her hands ran into his hair, pulling him even closer to suck on her boobs just as she loved him to. He switched over to the other boob and provided just as much pleasure to it as he had done to the first.

“You like me doing things to you?” Axel asked, his lips mumbling on her nipple.

“I... I love you and I love you doing things to me!” She moaned as she felt his fingers trail down her wet slit, scooping some of her fluids into his fingers.

He removed his fingers from between her legs and took it to her lips, pushing in between her lips. He pried her lips open and Hazel sucked on his fingers, tasting herself and keeping her mouth busy while his own mouth was also busy.

Axel removed his fingers from her mouth and slid upwards, kissing her lips for a few seconds while fondling her breasts.

Hazel reached for the buttons of his shirt, unbuttoning it faster than she could have ever believed that she would be able to.
