

Chapter 63

“Axel, it’s fine. You can play whatever you want to. You do not have to worry about me” Hazel whispered to Axel.

“You do not understand” Axel replied her in a private mind link.

“I made the mistake. We should not have even come over to this place at all” he added but Hazel could not understand his words.

She turned to look at him and with the turn of her look, the Alpha saw the mark on her neck.

“You... You both have mated and marked already?” The Alpha questioned and Hazel lowered her head with a shy smile, nodding in a positive response.

The Alpha took his gaze back to his son, glaring hard at him like he was about to tear him into pieces but Axel simply looked back at him, holding an expressionless look on his face.

“Enough eating! Hazel, go prepare sausages for us”

Hazel got up and kissed Axel’s cheek, simply annoying the Alpha the more.

“Sana, come with me” Hazel took the little girl’s hands and led her away to the kitchen.

“Mind link with me if there is anything that comes up” Axel said to Hazel in a mind link which made Hazel wonder what could possibly go wrong in the house of the Alpha.

Those who wanted to kill her would definitely not be able to get into the house of the Alpha so she could not understand his panic.

“Fine” she replied him anyways just to suit him and walked away to the kitchen with Sana.

“Axel, are you completely out of your mind?! You mated with her already?! Mated with a white wolf and marked her too?!” The Alpha let out all of his anger on his son.

“You pushed me to do so” was Axel’s simple response.

“I pushed you to do so?”

“You threatened her life and that forced me to bring her into my home. You do not expect me to be able to hold myself back through the heat period” He leaned back into his chair.

“When did you turn like this?” His eyes narrowed at his son.

“Since when you thought of killing the one I love!”

Rex watched silently as the father and his favorite son spoke to each other.

“Love....love! There is nothing like love! It is just a stupid, silly fantasy!”

“If that is what it is, then I must tell you, father, this fantasy feels good”

“Stop talking to father that way!” Rex picked his glass cup and threw it at Axel but Axel was able to catch it quickly.

“You should not interrupt my discussion with my father!” Axel growled and threw a plate towards Rex but Rex dodged and rolled off his seat, with a growl.

Axel too got up from the chair, the two brothers ready to get into a fight and the Alpha was clearly not interested in separating them because this would be a nice distraction for Axel while Hazel was eliminated in the kitchen

The Alpha smirked and rubbed his palms together, waiting for his plans to play out just the way he wanted it to.

“Miss Hazel” Sana called.

“Yes darling”

“Do you think Sir Axel would get in trouble for bringing me over?” Sana asked, clearly still worried.

“Axel never gets into trouble” Hazel assured her and bent down to her size.

“And once he likes or loves someone, he’ll defend that person so well...”

“He defended me earlier, does that mean that Sir Axel really does not ring me disturbing?”

“Of course, he does not. You are a...” Her words were interrupted when a hefty looking man walked into the kitchen and began to lock the door.

“Wait, what are you doing? Why are you locking the door?” Hazel questioned.

“I don’t have much to say to you” he replied and glanced at Sana, a dangerous smile spreading his lips.

Hazel quickly pushed Sana behind her.

“Axel, I think I am in trouble” she mind linked with him first as the man approached her.

“Hold on, Hazel. I will be with you soon” his voice calmed her but the growing closeness of the man soon sent her heart on a rampant beating.

The man grabbed her by the neck but before he could pull her up, Hazel had picked up a knife. She stabbed at his hands with it and he let go of her.

“Axel?” She called but this time there was no response, instead she felt a burning pain, that was definitely silver chains.

But she was not the one being inflicted with silver so she knew that it had to be her mate.

“Axel” she gasped, her eyes widening as she heard the ringing of a loud alarm that signified danger.

The pack was under attack.

Hazel knew that this was not the right time for her to call out to Axel. He had probably been hit by a silver bullet and she could only imagine how much pain he was in right now.

She felt another sharp pain run through her arms and she growled loudly, knowing that Axel had been hurt in his arms. She could not hold it back and shifted into her wolf form. She jumped on the man who had also taken his time to shift into his wolf form.

Hazel’s eyes lost the yellow and turned white as rage ran through her body. She dug her fangs and claws into the man, tearing him apart with a type of strength she never knew she could possess, with the strength she never knew she had sapped off Axel during their s*l intercourses.

In a few seconds, the wolf was dead. Hazel shifted back into her human form, breathing heavily.

“Sana, you have to remain in here no matter what happens. Do not step out of this place, okay?” She asked, patting her hair.

“Yes, Miss Hazel” Sana’s voice trembled.

“Please be safe and Sir Axel too.... Please, the both of you be safe” her eyes filled with tears.

“We will be” Hazel kissed her forehead and rushed towards the door. She opened the door and stepped out, locking the door from behind.

The living room had turned into a bloody mess already as wolves howled and fought. She sighted a familiar wolf and immediately knew which pack was attacking them, The Green Moon Pack.

And that wolf, he was Alpha Damien of the Green Moon Pack.
