

Chapter 70

“Greetings to you Alpha” Clarissa bowed her head in respect to the Alpha.

“Good. It’s nice seeing you Clarissa” the Alpha grinned.

“Nice seeing you too, Alpha” she bowed her head once more.

“Do not be so formal. It’s fine” The Alpha waved it off.

“Thank you then” Clarissa smiled softly, still wondering why the Alpha had called out to her.

“I am sure you are wondering why i called out to you to come over here.”

“It is because I have a few questions and also an offer for you.”

“I would be most delighted to answer your questions and how dare I to refuse an offer from the Alpha?”

“Good” The Alpha seemed satisfied with her response.

“Do you know about Hazel’s identity?” He asked.

“Hazel’s identity? She is the daughter of the late beta as we all know” Clarissa replied.

“You don’t know about it or you are pretending not to know about it?” He asked.

“I dare not pretend in front of you, Alpha. I have no idea what you’re talking about ” she replied.

“Well, Hazel is not the biological daughter of the late beta because she is not a dark wolf, she.... Is a white wolf”

Clarissa's eyes widened as she heard that from the Alpha. She now seemed to understand why Hazel had seemed so affectionate towards white wolves.

"I am sorry that my late beta must have picked her up when she was just given birth to. But that is in the history" the Alpha sighed and then waved it away.

"Apparently, Hazel does not know her identity as Axel is trying to hide it from her and every other person"

Clarissa gulped down at his hard Axel seemed to love Hazel, hiding away from her, anything he thought could break her heart.

"Being a white wolf, Hazel is not fit for Axel" he continued.

"She is not fit to be the Luna of the dark wolves and no one would accept her as the Luna anyways" the Alpha shrugged.

"But you...." He drawled and let his eyes run over her from head to toe.

"You are the daughter of the beta. You are a dark wolf, you are strong enough, you have better relations with the others in the pack and you seem to very well know the places of White wolves and how they should put in their places"

"In this entire pack, there is no one more deserving of Axel than you, Clarissa." He placed his hand on her shoulders.

"I..." Clarissa struggled with the right words to say.

"But he loves Hazel and he would never come for me, never" Clarissa mumbled.

"Never say never"

"You can make him come for you, Clarissa. A white wolf is not someone who he should be in love with. He should be in love with someone like you."

“I am sorry, Alpha but I know Axel pretty well and as long as Hazel lives, he will not fall in love with another lady”

“I love your words! As long as she lives! Then what about when she is dead? He will definitely give another lady a chance into his life? And who else would he choose to give a chance if not you?”

Clarissa gasped as she realized what she was being asked to do by the Alpha.

“I... Are you asking me to get rid of Hazel?”

“You understand me very well already. That is what I want you to do.”

“I...”

“Before you refuse, listen to me.”

“This is about Axel’s future and the future of our pack. Hazel is not just any white wolf, she is a chosen white wolf and one day, she will rise strong and against us and she will overthrow us and we, the dark wolves would become the slaves to white wolves.” He twisted the words of the prophecy.

“I have seen you looking at Axel and i know that look on your face. You want him, you want Axel, Clarissa.”

“It is rewarding for you and for the pack. We get rid of Hazel and Axel would be yours and we would be safe from the future enslavement from the white wolf pack” he held onto her both shoulders.

“This is too important than for you to refuse”

“A... Alpha, you can get rid of Hazel without my help, why... Why are you dragging me into this?”

“Axel is protecting her at the moment and he would not let anyone get close to her. The only person who is still able to have unrestricted access to Hazel is you. You are the only who can get rid of Hazel as soon as possible”

Clarissa shook her head and took a step backwards.

“I... I might like Axel a little bit but I can't do this. I cannot kill Hazel because I want Axel”

“You are not just doing it because you want Axel! You are doing it for the pack! For the safety of the pack! To protect us from future enslavement!”

“But Hazel... She is my best friend, we have been together right since when we were little.”

“I cannot do that to her!” She shook her head.

“Best friend? She is a white wolf, a white wolf cannot be called a friend. They are nothing, they are useless, their lives are worthless to us.”

“But...”

The Alpha sighed heavily.

“Do you know what you will become after her death? You will become the Luna of the pack! The Luna!” The Alpha yelled at her.

“You will be by the side of the Alpha and when Axel becomes the Alpha King, the Alpha of Alphas, you will become the Luna of all Lunas! The Luna queen! You will be the most respected she wolf in all of the packs in Wolfbrim! Do you know how much power that is....”

“But killing Hazel just for powers, do you....”

“Your father killed the late beta! Do you know that? He killed Hazel's father so that he could become the Beta of the pack”

Clarissa gasped out loudly.

“That... That cannot be true!” She shook her head.

“It is true! And it is all for the power that comes with the position! Making a few sacrifices on the road to power is nothing and your sacrifice is a mere white wolf, so cheap!”

“If my father killed the late beta, why should I kill Hazel too? It would be too cruel to have my family kill her own family off!”

“She does not have a family here, don’t you get it?! She has no family absolutely! She is from the white wolf pack!”

Clarissa shut her eyes tight as the Alpha yelled at her. The Alpha took in a deep breath and let out the same before turning to her, trying to be as call as possible.

“You have to do this, Clarissa. I understand it if you cannot kill her yourself. You just bring her out and I will get someone who will get rid of her”

“I am sorry, Alpha but whatever will spill the bd of Hazel, I cannot do it.”

The Alpha gritted his teeth hard, his eyes closed for a moment.

“Fine! You want her alive? I will keep her alive!”

“Really??”

“Yes, I will keep her alive but will make sure she is taken to another pack where she will remain forever and then I will make Axel believe that she is dead.”

“So you just bring her out of the house, deliver her to me and I will take her far away where she would never be able to come back to our pack to take Axel away or fight against our pack. Is that fine?”

Clarissa hesitated for long seconds before her head slowly bobbed a positive response.

“As long as you are not going to kill her, Alpha. Then... It is fine”

“That’s it. We won’t kill her. You may leave now, I will get back to you soon”

“Yes Alpha” Clarissa bowed her head slightly and then exited the room.

The Alpha grinned and rubbed his hands together.

“After delivering her into my hands, what I do with her useless life is up to me” he grinned.
