

CHOSEN 191

Chapter 191

The elevator doors slowly opened, and Chloe let go of him as they both walked out in sync. However, Chloe suddenly leaned into Damon's arms.

Damon hugged her from behind and whispered, "What's wrong?"

His eyes glanced at her legs and suddenly burst out laughing.

He didn't say anything further, just wrapped his arms around her waist and effortlessly lifted her up.

"Ah-

Chloe gasped softly and instinctively tightened her grip around his neck.

Damon's tall and straight figure didn't seem to struggle in the slightest despite suddenly having her in his arms. He walked out of the elevator and looked down at Chloe with a smirk. "You really need to work on your stamina. You got like this just from kissing, what would you do if we did something more intimate?"

Chloe's face turned even redder, and she buried her head, using her long, loose hair to hide her shy face.

After placing Chloe in the passenger seat of the car and fastening her seat belt, Damon got in the car.

"I drove here today"

Leave it to Nate'

Chloe took a deep breath and turned to look at Damon, who had already started the car.

Thinking about the just-ended anniversary party, Chloe suddenly smiled.

“Was the T-shirt thing tonight your doing?”

“Mhm

“So... the kid was also arranged by you...

“Well, what they said wasn’t wrong. That couple really did go well together. As for me, I should actually thank them. It’s a good thing they got together, so I could meet you.”

Chloe was surprised and somewhat incredulous. “So... that really was you-”

“No.”

Damon denied it. “But... Nate probably deserves a raise. It worked out pretty well.”

Recalling everyone’s reactions at the event and the expressions on Lance and Keira’s faces, Chloe smiled faintly.

Indeed, the effect was pretty good.

At the same time, she secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Thank goodness it wasn’t Damon himself.

“Thank you for finding those things to help me, but I could have handled it myself.”

Chloe turned her head, blinked, and smiled at him.

Damon glanced at her and pulled over the car that had just left the underground parking lot.

“What’s wrong?” Chloe asked, puzzled.

Damon’s handsome face had lost its smile, and he looked at her seriously.

This should be the most serious Damon had been with Chloe in a while.

“I never thought you couldn’t handle it, that’s why I went along with your plan.”

“You you knew all along?”

Damon rubbed his eyebrows. “I wasn’t sure how much influence the Summers family would have on you, considering they’re your relatives. I was really worried that you would keep making compromises for them. Do you know what I thought when I heard you were going to announce the annulment of your engagement at your grandmother’s request?”

Chloe shook her head.

“I wanted to rush back immediately. If I couldn’t stop you, I would at least get you off the stage!”

Chloe’s eyes were full of laughter. “Luckily, you stopped me, and you didn’t have to drag me off the stage.”

Damon glanced at her. “they bullied you just now, and you’re still happy?”

Chapter 192

Chloe's smile started to fade and eventually disappeared completely

"Actually, it was Carolina who suggested that I should announce the cancellation of the engagement on the spot. My first reaction was that it was quite sad. Her intentions were so obvious, and your worries were not unreasonable"

Chloe sighed, looking at the guests coming out of the Serenade Hotel with a cold expression on her face

"After all, they were pretty good to me when I was younger In this world, they were the only people related to me

I remember the old director of the orphanage once said that even if any of the children there found a home, they would always have a place in their hearts for the orphanage, their friends, the director, and the teachers Because children are the most innocent, their hearts are like a blank sheet of paper, and the first impression is often the most unforgettable.

"Even after my mother left, I thought about humbly trying to salvage something, but they wouldn't even give me a chance

At that time, I was very conflicted thated them for driving my mother to a dead end, but I also selfishly didn't want them to abandon me I just remember that feeling was too scary. and I wasn't prepared to face everything on my own. Helplessness and fear made me so flustered that I didn't know what to do

I grew up in a privileged environment, and before that, I had never thought that one day I would have to face so many things Viviana joined the Summers family, my mother was forced to leave, and I couldn't handle Keira's despicable tactics. My mother never taught me any of this, so I guess she wasn't good at it either. If she had known, she wouldn't have ended up like that

There was an oppressive feeling in the car, and Chloe took a deep breath

“No matter how much I lingered and couldn’t let go of this family bond, I’m relieved now They hurt me time and time again, completely exhausting my patience... I don’t know why, since Keira entered the Summers family, their treatment of me and her was so different, but it was all of them who made me who I am now

Chloe’s voice, with her unique feminine tone, softly echoed in the car, lingering for a long time, accompanied by the long lasting reverberation, gently falling.

“You have me now

Damon’s deep voice sounded, raising his hand to hold Chloe’s head and gently pulling her to rest on his forehead.

“You won’t be alone, I’ll always be by your side

Chloe smiled and nodded, “Mhm”

“So, you shouldn’t have come in the first place. Why give them a chance to bully you, huh?”

Damon rubbed her hair, still mad about her agreeing to Carolina’s request.

“Lance and I could never continue. Putting aside my connection with the Summers family and focusing only on my engagement to Lance, it would be the best for me if I proposed to end it. So, naturally, I was more than happy to do so”

Chapter 193

“Why?”

“Cause that way, I won’t look so pathetic. At least in other people’s eyes, I’m not the one who got dumped...”

Damon’s hand suddenly stopped, his eyes fixed on her, silently waiting for her to continue

Chloe stared back at Damon's eyes and slowly said.

You're destined to stand on top, born to be the center of attention. Your life is almost perfect, and there's so little I can do for you. The least I can do right now is not be a stain in your life..." Damon's heartbeat was almost deafening, followed by a wave of subtle pain.

His hand holding her head kept changing in tightness, while his other hand clenched into a fist

So, the reason she agreed to Carolina's request and endured all the bullying and humiliation tonight, all the patience and even the final counterattack, was all for him...

He had been watching her every move from the outside, thinking he had seen through her tricks, and silently chose to go along with her

He thought showing up when she needed him the most would be such a relief for her.

He was still unhappy with her decision to let herself be bullied tonight...

But it turned out he was just too foolish

"Why would you think that? I don't care about those things..

I do!" Chloe suddenly said, "Damon, I care. I don't want to be a burden to you. I'll work hard to be the best version of myself, to be a woman worthy of you. So you can move forward without worrying about me..."

"No way!"

The next second, she felt a sting on her lips as Damon suddenly kissed her with astonishing force

1 can't leave you Remember, I won't...

Chloe's throat suddenly surged with a strong sourness, her eyes filled with a hot stream, blurring her vision...

1. believe you"

She squeezed out those three words from her sour throat.

Damon smiled slightly, giving her a gentle kiss.

'I'll take you home."

"Okay"

Emerald Valley Estates.

Damon brought Chloe home, standing at the door, looking down at her inside the door who was smiling and looking up at him.

"Are you... not letting me in?"

Chloe smiled and waved her phone in front of Damon's eyes.

'It's getting late.

"I'm not in a hurry."

"It's already past nine, and you'll probably get back to Pinewood Manor after ten."

Damon was silent for two seconds, then suddenly said:

‘I’m hungry.”

Seeing Chloe’s puzzled eyes, Damon added, “I went to meet you right after getting off the plane.”

Chloe frowned slightly, and finally stepped aside to make room.

“Come in.”

Damon smiled and entered the room without any hesitation.

Damon was indeed hungry, he ate lots of food.

After finishing, he didn’t think about staying any longer.

He could see the fatigue on Chloe’s face, and he had indeed been on a plane for more than ten hours.

He pulled Chloe close and kissed her.

I’m leaving You should rest early.”

“Okay, I’ll see you off.”

Damon said lightly, “No need.”

After saying that, he let go of her, picked up his suit from the side, and turned to leave

Chloe was a bit puzzled but didn't think too much about it.

Turning her head, she saw a pair of shiny cufflinks on the coffee table and thought he hadn't gone far, so she chased after him.

When she went out, she saw Damon's figure entering the elevator, and she hurried over, but the elevator door had just closed.

She quickly pressed the down button, but it was still too late.

After a pause, she decided to return them next time they met.

However, just as she turned to leave, her eyes caught the control panel outside the elevator, and her footsteps suddenly stopped...

Chapter 194

She turned around, facing the elevator again, staring at the control panel for quite a while.

But the numbers on the panel didn't change, and even the down arrow disappeared.

The elevator stopped quietly at the 15th floor and never moved again.

She was filled with doubts, and an unlikely guess rose in her mind.

She stood there staring at the elevator control panel for a while, finally glanced at the shiny cufflinks in her hand, frowned, and turned back to her room.

After a day of exhaustion, Chloe quickly fell into a deep sleep after washing up.

She slept very well.

The next morning, there was a knock on the door.

Damon stood at the door, thinking Chloe wouldn't open it so quickly, so he lowered his head to adjust his shirt.

But to his surprise, the door opened quickly.

He looked up in surprise at the neatly dressed woman in front of him.

Chloe held the doorframe, a hint of an inexplicable smile in her eyes, looked up at him, and greeted him proactively

"Good morning."

Damon looked at her for two seconds, then nodded, "Good morning."

Chloe stepped aside to let him in.

"Please come in."

Without hesitation, Damon strode into the room.

"Take a seat in the dining room, I've got breakfast ready."

Approaching the dining room and glancing at the breakfast on the table, Damon finally looked up at her and asked softly,

"Breakfast is for two, did you know I was coming today?"

Chloe sat down opposite him, just smiled, turned her head, reached out, and pushed a pair of diamond cufflinks from beside the phone on the table to Damon.

Damon’s eyes moved slightly in their sockets, glancing at the cufflinks in Chloe’s hand, which looked familiar.

He looked away and silently picked up his fork to start eating breakfast.

Chloe couldn’t help but smile as he avoided the topic.

She shook her head lightly and started eating breakfast, sticking to the habit of not talking while eating.

After the meal, Chloe tidied up the dining room and came out to find Damon was no longer there.

She didn’t see him in the living room either when she walked in, and then she remembered the washing machine’s reminder tone had sounded not long ago.

She had thrown all the clothes she had changed out of into the washing machine while making breakfast, and now it was time to do the laundry.

But when she went to the bathroom, she saw Damon standing in front of the washing machine, and when he heard the sound, he turned to look at Chloe.

He looked at her, and there was a moment of confusion on his handsome face.

“You...

Chloe’s gaze swept over him, then the clothes in his hand – a light purple bra held up by his both hands!

She felt extremely embarrassed!

Her face turned red, and she quickly went over and snatched the clothes from his hands.

Damon looked away, his expression somewhat awkward.

“I thought it was an alarm going off somewhere...”

Chloe pursed her lips slightly.

Now that she thought about it, the washing machine’s reminder tone did sound a bit like an alarm...

He glanced at Chloe, who immediately ran out with the clothes in her arms.

In fact, most of the clothes Damon prepared for Chloe were not suitable for machine wash, and all the clothes stuffed in this morning were Chloe’s own underwear.

She never even thought about it in that direction!

Chapter 195

But who would have thought that the man who could control everything would sneak into the bathroom and study her bra for so long!

Hanging her clothes on the balcony drying rack, Chloe looked at the bra that Damon had just held in his hand and couldn’t help but hold her forehead in a helpless manner.

How was she supposed to face this bra in the future?

“Not bad”

Just when she was feeling down, Damon's faint voice suddenly came from behind her.

She immediately turned to look at him, and Damon's tall and straight figure stood behind her. She looked up at him, "What's not bad?"

Damon glanced at the clothes on the drying rack and said casually, "C cup..."

Chloe's eyes widened, and she quickly stepped forward to cover his mouth with her hand

"Stop talking"

Damon's handsome face was very calm

He took Chloe's hand off his mouth.

His gaze swept across her chest, and then he said very seriously. "Really... not bad"

Chloe's face turned beet red, and her whole face, along with her neck under the light blue shirt, flushed with embarrassment. Annoyed, she glared at him!

"Stop it!"

Damon remained serious, "I'm complimenting you, I really like it."

Chloe was shy, pushing Damon aside and walking out of the balcony.

Chloe went to the bathroom to wash her hands, and when she came out, Damon was standing at the door waiting for her.

She gasped, almost bumping into him!

“What are you doing?”

Damon looked at her, fully on guard from head to toe, and frowned slightly, “Are you afraid of me?”

Chloe’s face changed for a moment, and then she said, “Why would I be afraid of you?”

Damon stared at her silently, exposing her lie without saying a word.

Chloe’s face turned unnatural, and she muttered quietly.

“Who told you to always say those things? Don’t you feel ashamed...”

Her voice was very soft, but Damon still heard it.

However, seeing that she was very concerned about it, he didn’t continue to dwell on the matter.

Instead, he handed her the tie in his hand.

“Help me.”

Chloe glanced at the black tie in his hand, took a deep breath and took it.

Since she was standing at the bathroom door, there was a step, so her height was now closer to Damon’s, and she didn’t have to tiptoe, making things much easier.

Damon could see Chloe’s smooth and delicate nose just by lowering his head.

“Done.”

Chloe looked up at the man and said, “Don’t you want to learn to do it yourself? What if you live alone one day? Wouldn’t it be convenient?”

“I have you.”

Chloe said, “I don’t live with you. Are you going to come over every day and ask me to help you?”

Damon pondered for a moment, then picked Chloe up from the doorstep, saying, “It’s not that much trouble.”

Seeing his unnatural face, Chloe couldn’t help but laugh in her heart.

“Alright, it’s time to go to work.”

Chloe said as she put her phone in her bag and walked to the entrance to change her shoes.

“I’ll take you ”

“Okay”

It seemed useless to refuse anyway.

Chapter 196

Compared to Chloe’s good night’s sleep, the Summers family wasn’t doing so well

Carolina, Nick, and Viviana were up all night.

The embarrassing incident at yesterday's party made it impossible for them to sleep

Besides the company's executives, they also invited some investors who had cooperated with the company, as well as some influential producers and directors.

Now all the investors were demanding to withdraw their investments, and the directors and producers had no interest in listening to their explanations.

They were so busy trying to appease some investors and spent all their energy negotiating with the media to block the news. But in the end, the news was still published online!

Pictures and videos were spreading crazily, especially the ones that appeared on the big screen last night

Although the reports weren't detailed, the gist was-

Keira interfered with her sister's marriage, seducing her future brother-in-law, and successfully sabotaged their engagement. Chloe, out of consideration for the family business, chose to take responsibility but was accused of being unfaithful first

The report basically covered everything that happened at the anniversary party last night, but didn't mention the situation after the bodyguards appeared

The internet went furious.

[Stealing her sister's man, who does that!]

[Lance isn't a good guy either, having a fiancée but still messing around with his future sister in law, shameless!]

Of course, there were also Keira's fans defending their idol-

[If two people love each other, why can't they be together? Love is like that!]

[Before you speak, see if you're a moral person yourself!]

[True love above all Besides, Keira's sister is a mean woman. Which man would like her? Mr. Olson obviously has unique taste!]

That's how the internet is, always with two sides.

But obviously, public opinion wasn't swayed by those fans.

The lights in the Summers family's villa living room had been on since they got home last night and were still on, filling the room with a depressing atmosphere.

Carolina, Nick, and Viviana sat in the living room all night.

Seeing the scandals all over the internet, Carolina's already exhausted face turned even paler.

Pulse Entertainment was already short on funds, and now such a scandal broke out!

Keira was accused of being the "slut," and now there was photographic evidence, leaving them with no defense!

The only solution now was to let Keira temporarily stop working.

Carolina remained silent, while Viviana next to her seemed heartbroken,

"Mom, you're not really going to give up on Keira like this, are you? She just got an important filming job. We must find a way to keep her. Keira is our only hope right now..."

Viviana's words immediately snapped Carolina back to reality!

Yes!

Keira was their only hope, not just now, but always!

She couldn't just give up on Keira so easily.

Chapter 197

Kera was upstairs, not sleeping at all.

Her face was still swollen from the slap Chloe gave her last night. She had used ice packs for almost the whole night just to reduce the swelling.

And the slap she got from the strong bodyguard on her mouth last night? Still swollen until now

Even drinking water hurt her mouth.

She kept replaying everything that happened last night at the anniversary party in her head Chloe's every expression, every word, every letter—all traps.

Everyone was played by her master plan.

Every time she thought about it, Keira gritted her teeth, her body shaking violently, her eyes full of anger, like a furious wolf.

And that guy yesterday, those bodyguards he brought were the cream of the crop, even his assistant spoke with extreme arrogance

How could he have done that without power?

Who is Chloe connected with?

She couldn't accept it!

How could she accept it?

Chloe had been pampered like a princess by the Summers family since she was little!

And her? From an unknown father at the beginning, to being called the daughter of a mistress, and finally to the granddaughter of the Summers family!

She wanted to enjoy all the privileges she never had before, twice as much.

Her gaze fell on her phone again.

Chloe, you want to oppress me like this?

No way!

Over at the Olson Group, the stocks have been dropping, and the Board of Directors had been demanding an explanation from Lance.

Lauretta kept stopping Lance from going to the company.

"Mom, there's a problem now, and I should step up and do something. Hiding isn't the solution!"

"No! What can you do now, those shareholders are a pack of hungry wolves, they can't wait to eat you alive!"

“But...”

Lance wanted to say more, but Laretta interrupted him.

“You can’t rush now, you need to calm down. Maybe you can go to the Summers family, see Keira, see how they handle this. They won’t ignore Keira, you two can’t be separated right now, at least you need to be united. Don’t you know it?”

Lance gradually calmed down and had to admit, his mom was right!

After thinking for a while, he nodded, “Alright, I’ll go to the Summers family now!”

However, the Summers family was also looking for a solution. But when Viviana saw Lance, she saw him as their savior, “Lance, Keira hasn’t slept all night, she won’t see anyone, please go upstairs and talk to her...”

That’s her precious daughter!

Lance pressed his lips together, nodded, and went upstairs. Just as he was about to knock on Keira’s door, the door was opened from the inside.

Seeing Lance, Keira’s eyes flashed with panic. She instinctively stepped back, and her phone in her hand hit the doorframe and fell to the ground with a snap.

Lance picked up her phone with a puzzled look.

But when he touched the picture on the screen, his eyebrows furrowed immediately.

Keira tried to snatch back her phone, but seeing Lance’s reaction, she decided not to act anymore.

Lance stood up with the phone, looking at the pictures she had just sent to the media on her phone, then lifted his head, his eyes dark and cold.

“What’s this?”

Keira looked at Lance, her eyes full of tears.

“Lance, I did this because I had no choice, I really had nowhere to go!”

At the same time, a well known website published several pictures, and the online public opinion immediately changed direction-

Chapter 198

Damon personally drove Chloe to the company.

However, on the way, Chloe suddenly received a call from Rose.

‘Hello?’

“Chloe, are you alright?”

Chloe frowned and asked Rose confusedly

“What happened?”

“Don’t you know? Check online! Remember, I’m here if you need help?”

Rose was rarely this excited, so something big must have happened

Chloe hung up the phone with a serious expression and opened the webpage

The initial public opinion was about what happened at the Summers family annual party last night, and naturally, the finger was pointed at Keira. The online curses were endless

But then, the wind suddenly changed direction.

The headline of the post was too eye-catching.

“Engaged for eight years, the Olson Group president’s fiancée cheats, and her private life is extremely messy!”

There were also several photos in the post.

The photos were obviously sneak shots, showing Chloe in close contact with different men

When Chloe saw these photos, her face turned pale instantly

She was not unfamiliar with the men in the photos, and the authenticity of the photos was beyond question

However, these were all photos of her dealing with clients at the Olson Group company and being taken advantage of by them.

Such photos with such shocking headlines severely damaged Chloe’s image.

But that wasn’t the end of it. The text in the post directly pointed out that Chloe had had sexual relations with some of these people.

Her hand gripping the phone tightened.

Then, another online public opinion war broke out, and the direction of public opinion instantly reversed.

[Oh my God, it turns out Ms. Summers cheated first!]

[She's got such an amazing man like Mr. Olson, and she's still messing around with others, how disgusting']

[Not only messing around but with so many men! She looks decent, but she's actually a frivolous woman!]

[They say she's a strong woman, but all this is probably achieved by sleeping with others, right?!]

[Thank goodness Mr. Olson didn't end up with her!]

Chloe sneered, so that's why Rose was angry just now!

Chloe found it hilarious

Now, the words that Keira suddenly cried out to her at yesterday's annual party really came in handy.

She said Lance loved her, so he endured it for a long time.

Being with Lance was actually very struggling for both of them, and they owed her an apology!

Now it looks like Chloe betrayed Lance first, no matter how you look at it.

Although she was trying her best to suppress her emotions, Damon still noticed her difference.

He pulled the car over and saw the photos and conversations on her phone, his face turning cold.

“Do you need help?”

Chloe silently put away her phone, turned her head to look at him, and asked, “Do you mind?”

Damon frowned, “I do.”

“I'd rather give up the company”

Chapter 199

Chloe finally cracked a smile, her face showing a touched expression

His words were short, but she got the message

When the Olson Group was on the verge of bankruptcy, she used all her strength, even sacrificing her dignity, to gradually bring the company back to life.

Lance didn't want the Olson Group to go under, so she helped him, spending a lot of energy designing new products, and bravely dealing with various business social events in his place.

And for Damon, just one sentence could have prevented all of this from happening.

Would he really give up his company rather than let her do those things?

Why did she have to have someone like Lance in her life?

Chloe shook her head and sighed softly

“You don’t have to help me with this Let them continue to criticize me”

Damon became even more puzzled

Seeing his disapproving look, Chloe suddenly laughed

‘Don’t worry, I’m a vengeful person now!

Damon gradually relaxed and looked at her with interest

Chloe continued. “The news just came out and hasn’t caused a massive reaction yet. It’s undoubtedly Keira’s doing, and I know exactly who my target is! After all these years, she’s been bringing up the same old issues, and this time the public opinion will expose all those past scandals

“My mother’s sudden death six years ago left me in chaos, defenseless and unable to prove my innocence Over the years, most of the facts have been watered down, but my bad reputation is already set. She thinks it’s all over and done with, but it’s not that simple”

“Since she wants to stir things up, I might as well take this opportunity to bring up those issues again and then settle the score with her one by one!”

Damon grinned, “You’re looking for trouble

Chloe blinked innocently, “How is it looking for trouble? Seriously, I’m on a mission for revenge.”

Chloe paused, her eyes sparkling with excitement.

“Besides, after running a PR company for so many years, I want to experience pushing someone to the top and then crashing them down myself! I’ll make her lose everything, climb to the highest point, and then kick her down hard!”

Chloe's tone was cold and playful, sending chills down one's spine.

But Damon was by her side

Realizing what she just said, she bit her lip and looked at Damon, feeling a bit awkward.

"Do you think I'm too scheming?"

Damon just laughed, "I like your scheming way. But are you sure you don't need my help?"

Chloe shook her head firmly, and Damon frowned, "No way. I can't just sit back and watch if you're being bullied."

Chloe smiled and said, "You're too eye-catching, and besides, I bet her purpose in releasing this information isn't just to clear her own name and push the blame onto me. She has another main goal, which is to let you see all of this!"

"What?"

"The car smashing incident at New World Plaza, where you smashed Lance's car and hurt Amelia's arm, and then last night's banquet, where you showed up to help me again. Knowing her, she wants me to be constantly bullied, so how could she allow someone amazing by my side? So, she wants you to see what kind of person I am, and once you find out, you'll naturally choose to leave me..."

Chapter 200

Damon didn't seem any happier, so Chloe walked over and said to him with a smile

"She has no idea how smart you are! You definitely can't be fooled."

Damon looked down at her, "You really suck at compliments"

That was a pretty tame way to compliment him

Chloe's expression stiffened for a moment, I'm just telling the truth"

"So you're really complimenting me?

Chloe chocked

When Chloe arrived at the company, everyone looked at her with mixed emotions.

Of course, she knew why, but she didn't let it bother her

As long as she did the right thing, she wasn't afraid of gossip Thanks to Keira, she had become very resilient over the years

Worried, Rose had been waiting in Chloe's office

Wearing casual clothes, she sat in Chloe's office chair with a golf club on the table

When she saw Chloe come in, she immediately stood up, grabbed the golf club, and headed out!

"You're here, let's go teach those people a lesson!"

Chloe was taken aback by Rose's attitude, not knowing how to react

"We haven't even figured out who did it yet, who are you going to hit?"

"Keira and Lance! Just think about it... Anyway, we can't go wrong with teaching those two a lesson!

Chloe calmly walked over and took the golf club from Rose's hand.

"If I'm going to teach someone a lesson, it can't be you. Everyone in the company is busy getting into the Harper family's mall. If you go out and fight now, everyone's hard work will be wasted!

"So what are you gonna do, just let things go on like this?"

Chloe sat down in the chair, smiling at Rose, "If I said to let things go on like this, would you beat me up first?"

Rose didn't say anything, her eyes glanced back at the golf club Chloe had just taken away!

The answer is obvious!

Chloe's smile faded, and she explained seriously.

"Don't worry, Keira won't win!"

Rose glanced at her

"What's your plan?"

Chloe smiled, "First, deal with the company's issues. The bigger the fuss, the better."

"What do you mean?"

"Keira did this to solve her own problems, but it's different for the Olson Group! Although their stock trend has stabilized compared to before, it's still difficult to get into the Harper family's mall now...

Rose quietly sat down in the chair across from Chloe!

Her expectant eyes were clearly urging Chloe to continue!

“The Olson Group’s success today is, in part, thanks to me! Those photos online... only prove that the Olson Group relied on me to rise! Some investors who were exposed might withdraw their investments out of anger.”

“Plus, one of the people in those photos is a major investor in the Olson Group, who practically supports the entire company. He and his wife are deeply in love, and his affection for her is well known in the city. He also doesn’t like others trying to meddle in their relationship.”

Chice paused for a moment, then said slowly and clearly,

This investor doesn’t allow anyone to interfere in their family’s affairs... and in a short while, it will be his grandfather’s 86th birthday...”

Rose excitedly slapped the table, “You’re amazing...”

Her eyes sparkled as she stared at Chloe, who just smiled softly in response-

Til find a way to take their investments in the Olson Group away!”
