

CHOSEN 251

Chapter 251

“Chloe, enough! Are you ever going to let it go? Keira was just trying to be nice, and here you are, always harping on the mistress’ thing. Do you find it amusing?”

Amelia suddenly burst out.

“It’s just as pointless as you guys constantly mentioning Lance.”

“You...” Amelia was so angry she couldn’t speak.

Chloe turned to the store manager and asked, “If I sell this ‘one true love to her, would it go against your design philosophy?”

The store manager’s face turned pale. She could see that Chloe was here to cause trouble today.

“Miss Chloe, we’re in sales. We don’t pry into customers’ privacy. I’m only responsible for selling things! Should I ask if someone’s a mistress before I sell to them?”

Chloe laughed.

“Who are you calling a mistress?!” Amelia immediately shouted.

The store manager’s face turned even paler, and she quickly apologized. But she hated Chloe even more now. If it wasn’t for Chloe’s trap, she wouldn’t have said that so easily.

“So why did you refuse to sell it to me based on the excuse of going against your design philosophy?”

The store manager was almost out of breath from anger, “Who said a mistress can’t find true love? Every woman deserves eternal, unique love! Miss Chloe, please, if you’re not going to buy anything, can you stop causing trouble here? It’s not easy for us to make a living, can you stop making things difficult for us?”

Chloe looked at her indifferently. “With that mouth of yours, I’m afraid you won’t be able to keep this job in the future...”

The store manager paused, giving a look of disdain and contempt.

“Do you want to file a complaint against me? If you do, there’s nothing I can do about it. I’m just trying to achieve sales targets for the company. Besides, you’re the one who’s been shamelessly refusing to leave! Go ahead and complain, but trust me, even if my boss comes, he won’t take your side!”

Today, she had sold millions worth of merchandise. With such high performance and great contributions, her boss would be too busy rewarding her to punish her for this.

Amelia, who was standing nearby, clearly lost her patience. She glared at Chloe, ‘Are you going to buy it or not?! If you can’t afford it, just kneel down and beg us!’

Hearing Amelia’s words, Chloe’s face darkened. She narrowed her eyes, her icy gaze sweeping over Amelia. The chill emanating from her body could be felt by everyone in the store.

“I’ve said it before, I’m buying everything in this store!”

The cold, murderous aura from Chloe’s slender body made the atmosphere in the store drop to almost freezing point!

No one would dare question her words, and no one would laugh mockingly as they did when she first said it.

“Are...are you joking?” It took a while for Amelia to stutter out these words, secretly annoyed that she’d been frightened by Chloe, whom she despised.

However, as soon as she spoke, everyone slowly regained their composure, their lips twitching, wanting to laugh but unable to.

Chloe’s gaze slowly shifted to the store manager.

She didn’t say anything, but the store manager steeled herself and said, “Buy everything? Same as before, please pay first!”

Chapter 252

Chloe squinted her eyes, giving off an oppressive vibe.

You’ve heard so many rumors and gossip about me, but you didn’t know that I hold grudges! I gave you six chances tonight! But you mocked and sneered at me, and treated me coldly 18 times!”

“As the manager of an international brand store, you favor some customers, act all high and mighty, flatter people, and judge people by their appearance! I’ve put up with you until now, and you still don’t know how to reflect! Complain about you? Of course I will!”

As Chloe was about to find her phone, Rose, who had been standing by the door, suddenly spoke up: “Chloe, no need to bother, I’ve already filed a complaint for you!”

She said this while waving her phone in her hand.

And it was a direct complaint to the top-level boss!

Chloe glanced at her and nodded slightly.

The manager's face turned extremely ugly.

She was truly intimidated by Chloe's aura.

From the beginning, this woman had been silent. The manager thought Chloe was worried and nervous because she couldn't find a way out, but she didn't expect that Chloe had been keeping track of everything she did!

Six chances, eighteen offenses!

Remembering so clearly, she really is a vengeful person!

The manager couldn't help but recall the cold look in Chloe's eyes when she picked up the jewelry.

Now thinking about it, she suddenly shivered.

Every word of Chloe's hit her like a sharp-edged stone, leaving her unable to move or even speak!

She struggled to raise her head to look at Chloe.

But she saw a proud and cold face, like an unapproachable queen, her imposing aura almost suffocating.

"....." She stuttered a single word, only to be interrupted by Chloe.

"You should shut up now. You didn't speak when it was your turn, and now, I don't want to hear another word from you. You want me to pay before wrapping my purchase? Fine, I'll pay first!"

Chloe's voice was as cold and clear as an icicle falling in a cave. In everyone's eyes, she strode confidently to the cashier,

Took a card out of her bag and threw it directly at the cashier.

The cashier's face changed instantly when she saw the card Chloe had thrown!

She quickly glanced at Chloe, then shifted her gaze to the manager in the distance!

It was a complex look that was hard to read.

Keira's hand gripping her bag suddenly tightened, a bad feeling in her heart!

"Pfft, what are you trying to show off, buying the whole store? I'd like to see just how much money you have to buy this whole place!" Amelia said, folding her arms and twisting her slender waist, walking towards the cashier.

Everyone gradually came back to their senses.

Seeing the manager's ugly face, they all came forward to comfort her.

"Don't worry, manager. Just let her complain! With the high performance you've achieved for the company, how could they possibly punish you?"

Chapter 253

"Yeah, how on earth could she afford to buy all this stuff? Think about it, she's Keira's sister. If she didn't have money, wouldn't Keira know?"

"Exactly, Amelia just raised the stakes and made the loser kneel. If she wasn't sure Chloe had no money, would she do this?"

"Keira bought so many things from us. The company isn't stupid, they won't blame you?"

Hearing these people, the store manager's expression gradually improved

They all seemed to make sense.

Besides, one with a notorious reputation and the other gentle and generous, Keira being the hottest star nowadays, even if the boss came, they wouldn't side with Chloe.

Just then, Amelia's disdainful and impatient urging came from the cashier:

"Hurry up and swipe, what are you daydreaming about?! Let me see how much money she has

The store manager looked over, and the cashier hesitated, "My lady should should I swipe?"

The manager glanced at the still calm Chloe and showed a hint of disdain on her face.

"Swipe it."

... Do you want to swipe for everything in the store?"

Amelia sneered, "You're giving her too much credit. Just swipe a few hundred thousand and it will reach her account limit!"

Chloe said coldly, "Swipe it!"

"Remember what your manager said before. I asked her twice, In your eyes, there's no such thing as first-come first-served. Whoever can afford your stuff can buy it, even if they don't pay first, right? You said yes, so from the moment I said I wanted to buy everything in your store, it's all mine!"

The manager frowned, knowing that she couldn't possibly buy everything, so she looked at the cashier and said, "Swipe it!"

The cashier swallowed, over 70 million, just like that...

In her excitement, she dropped the card.

Amelia laughed, "Chloe, I really can't wait a moment...no, a second! I really want to see you kneel in front of me, that pathetic look..."

At this moment, three people squeezed in through the door.

Leading them was a tall man in his forties wearing a suit and leather shoes.

Behind him were a secretary and an assistant.

"Mr. Kendrick, what brings you here?"

The manager's face changed, and she hurried to the door.

Everyone in the store knew that Mr. Kendrick was assigned by the head office and was the general manager of the building's operation.

He rarely appeared in such places, and in their eyes, Mr. Kendrick was an unattainable figure, and seeing him was a great fortune and honor. Today was a lucky day, meeting such a person.

Faced with the manager's flattery and compliments, Mr. Kendrick's expression remained cold.

Chapter 254

At that moment, another person ran over, their face clearly showing anxiety and panic.

“Mr. Milford, you’re here too? What a coincidence, Mr. Kendrick is here as well.”

The manager immediately greeted him with a sweet smile and warm attitude.

Mr. Milford was the sales director of their brand and rarely visited this place.

However, Mr. Milford just glared at her and angrily asked, “What happened?!”

The manager was taken aback and looked at the surrounding crowd, explaining:

“Just a picky customer... just some unnecessary trouble...”

“Unnecessary trouble?! Mr. Milford, this is not just some unnecessary trouble!”

Mr. Kendrick, who had been quietly sulking, suddenly spoke up coldly.

As soon as he finished speaking, the assistant standing behind him stepped forward and handed a document to Mr. Milford.

“Mr. Milford, your brand’s sales staff have terrible attitudes, insulting and discriminating against customers, engaging in unfair trade, and seriously damaging our mall’s reputation! Please take your employees and leave the mall immediately! We will invite new businesses to take this spot!”

“Wha... what?!”

Mr. Milford was dumbfounded. He had rushed over after receiving Mr. Kendrick’s call, not knowing what had happened, only to be suddenly informed of this outcome!

Mr. Kendrick ignored him and walked towards Chloe, his attitude especially respectful:

“Miss Chloe, I apologize for the inconvenience you’ve suffered.”

Chloe just nodded slightly.

The manager’s face turned pale, her legs went weak, and she almost lost her balance.

Keira saw the sudden turn of events and Mr. Kendrick’s attitude toward Chloe, her eyebrows furrowing

Meanwhile, Amelia’s sharp voice suddenly came from the cashier’s direction: “What?! Approved, what do you mean?!”

Everyone looked towards the cashier!

The cashier was still excited, “It means the card worked. All the items in the store now belong to this young lady.”

“What?! It worked?!?” Amelia’s voice became even sharper, and her face looked extremely ugly.

The manager was startled and stumbled to the cashier.

“Oh my god, she really bought the entire store!”

“Wow, how is that possible!”

“Is it true?”

“This store must be making a fortune today!”

Mr. Milford also heard and couldn't help but feel a little happy.

Buying all the jewelry in the store?

That's a huge profit!

However, when the manager saw the card, her face instantly turned pale.

Her legs went limp, and she collapsed on the floor!

"What's going on?"

"What happened?"

"Did she just get too excited?"

Everyone at the entrance craned their necks to see what was happening inside the store.

Amelia glanced at the card in her hand.

An ordinary green card, not a gold card, not a platinum card, let alone a black card!

Did it really work?

How is that possible?

How could that hateful person have so much money?

The manager tightly gripped the edge of the cashier counter and struggled to get up.

Her lips were completely bloodless, trembling for a moment, "... Miss Chloe..."

Chloe coldly glanced at her, "Please don't speak, I don't want to hear a single word from you right now..."

Chloe looked down at the manager sitting on the floor, the corner of her mouth revealing a hint of cruelty.

"Do you think that selling so many items today, a huge bonus is about to fall into your hands, and a promotion and raise are just around the corner?"

Chapter 255

Whatever you do, don't forget what just happened! I bought everything in the store before her, so the stuff you sold to Keirs is mine! You better give it all back to me!

'But from this point of view, I gotta thank you for making me so much money!'

The manager was shaking with fear, her face pale

Not only did she fail to make a profit for the company, but she also caused a loss...

Bonuses, promotions, and raises were all out of the question.

She might even lose her job!

And maybe even

“With your attitude, you might not even be able to keep your job...”

The words Chloe had just said echoed in her head, sending chills down her spine.

“No, no, Miss Chloe, you didn’t pay before! These things aren’t aren’t yours, Miss Keira bought them first...”

Chloe looked away, seemingly ignoring the manager’s words.

“Miss Chloe, please don’t...”

“Get away from me!”

As the manager suddenly lunged towards her, Chloe shouted angrily

The manager stopped in her tracks, noticing Chloe’s immaculate white suit and wide—legged pants.

Her outstretched hands curled up, not daring to touch the blinding white fabric.

Chloe frowned, stepping back to avoid the manager’s approach.

Throughout the whole ordeal, even when angry, she never showed any exaggerated expressions.

Her aura of cold elegance seemed to radiate from her very bones, making her appear imposing without even trying.

Amelia by the side was nearly going crazy, kicking the manager’s leg in frustration, “What’s going on?!”

The manager’s face was pale, her bloodless lips trembling for a long time before she managed to squeeze out a hoarse voice.

“The card in Miss Chloe’s hand is a Green Pass for the mall.”

“What’s that?” Amelia frowned, confused. What the heck is a Green Pass?!

The manager didn’t have the strength to speak anymore.

A nearby cashier took over the explanation-

“The Green Pass is a VIP card that allows for the best deals on any purchase in the mall. There’s another one... a Supreme Card that allows for all purchases to be free. Miss Chloe’s Green Pass is the Supreme Green Pass, meaning, she could buy everything in the mall if she wanted to...”

The cashier’s voice grew quieter.

As soon as Mr. Milford heard about the Supreme Green Pass, his legs went weak, almost collapsing to the floor,

Who on earth did they offend today?!

“What...what are you saying?!”

Amelia’s voice was shrill, her face turning pale.

Buying the whole mall?

Is she insane?

But at that moment, Chloe slowly lifted her head, her cold and indifferent gaze falling on Amelia..

Chapter 256

Amelia got so spooked by her stare that she quickly escaped and hid behind Keira, who just came forward to check the situation. She looked at her defensively.

“What... What do you want?!”

Chloe glanced at the floor and said, “Kneel down.”

Amelia’s face turned red immediately.

Keira, who was forced to stand in front of her, was secretly grinding her teeth.

“Sis, you always say you’re fair and square, but this is the second time you’ve tricked us today!”

Thinking about how the money she had saved from a year of hard work in acting was all swindled by Chloe in an instant, she was so angry that her teeth ached.

Chloe sat down on a chair nearby and laughed at them.

“Women are fickle. I suddenly find it more interesting to play mind games. Besides, didn’t you always walk right into my traps? You guys come looking for trouble, and if I don’t mess with you, wouldn’t I be letting you down?!”

“Chloe, if you had an ace in the hole, why didn’t you just show it from the beginning!”

“Heh.” Chloe sneered. “Would you have believed me if I told you? Wasn’t it you guys who tried every means to show off in front of me, wanting to step on me to prove your superiority? You enjoyed the process, while I had to hold back and let you win!”

“Don’t play the good guy here, you liar, you despicable villain!”

“Of course, I’m not a good person. I didn’t say anything later just to let you guys keep making a fool of yourselves. And you were very cooperative, digging a hole for yourself! Yes, I did it on purpose. But since I have resources to make you pay a price, why wouldn’t I use them?”

Keira’s face changed. “Sis, I never thought you’d become like this. You used to be cold, but at least you cared about us being family. You used to be so kind...”

“Enough!” Chloe suddenly shouted angrily, looking at Keira with a gloomy expression. “Kind? Keira, it’s disgusting to hear such words coming from your mouth! Stop wasting time here, since you lost the bet, kneel down for me!”

The surroundings became quiet instantly.

Everyone held their breath and watched quietly, not knowing how things would develop.

Keira’s face turned pale, standing in place, not knowing what to do. “Sis, Amelia was just kidding...”

Chloe raised her head, too lazy to argue with them, her eyes narrowed, her voice gloomy: “Will you kneel or not?”

Keira couldn’t help but take a step back and said weakly, “Chloe, why do you have to be so ruthless?”

“Would you have spared me if I had lost today? No! Because this trap was dug specifically for me! You just didn’t expect to fall in yourself! Stop talking nonsense! Kneel down!” Amelia, driven to desperation, flushed red and spat, “Why would we kneel for you! Bitch!”

Chloe’s eyes turned cold, and she immediately stood up from the chair.

She stepped forward, grabbed Amelia’s wrist, and pulled her out from behind Keira.

“Ah, bitch, what are you doing?!”

“Amelia!”

Amelia screamed, and Keira tried to come forward to pull her, but Chloe grabbed her wrist too. Chloe bent down, passed between the two of them, and instantly came to their back. Then she raised a foot and swiftly kicked hard at the back of their legs.

Two screams, accompanied by two “plop” sounds –

Amelia and Keira had already knelt down on the ground!

This series of actions was done smoothly and perfectly, almost in the blink of an eye, leaving everyone present in awe, including Damon on Rose’s phone screen!

Chapter 257

Seeing Keira and Amelia getting bullied like this, the other girl who came with them couldn’t help but try to help them. However, Chloe lifted her leg and kicked the woman’s knee, making her scream and instantly kneel on the ground.

These moves didn’t seem like much, just grabbing an arm and overpowering two people with brute force.

But the whole series of moves were executed so perfectly and effortlessly, it really surprised everyone there.

However, it didn’t take long for people to let it go.

In this society, it’s not a big deal for girls with self–protection awareness to learn some self–defence techniques.

Only Damon was still staring at Chloe, squinting his eyes slightly.

‘Let me go! Chloe, you bitch... Ah!’

Amelia, who had never experienced such humiliation, was both ashamed and angry. She immediately started cursing Chloe with no class. Chloe twisted her arm even more.

At this moment, Rose suddenly came out to help, restraining another woman who was about to make a move.

Keira was so angry that her face turned pale, and her body couldn't stop shaking.

This was an unbearable humiliation for her!

She was actually humiliated by Chloe in front of everyone like this!

She was actually humiliated by such a bitch...

"Say it!" Chloe yelled.

"Get lost, bitch! I'll tear you apart! Ah!"

"Ah!"

With every curse, Chloe twisted Amelia's arm more, and she didn't let go of Keira either. If Amelia didn't know when to stop, she would punish both of them together.

Both of them were in so much pain that their faces were twisted, pale, sweating, and their lips shivering.

Keira clenched her eyes shut. With so many people watching, and her being a public figure, even though she wanted to tear Chloe apart, she still couldn't lose her temper!

Keira's face changed slightly, and when she spoke again, her delicate and weak appearance made people feel sorry for her."

"Chloe, please, don't do this. We're sisters, can't you leave us any room at all?"

Chloe clearly felt the change of mood in the onlookers.

Some people even began to speak up for Keira.

"That's enough, why do sisters have to be so stiff!"

"Making such a big scene and still being so aggressive, in the end, it's just embarrassing for your own family."

"Today we've seen Chloe's true color!"

Chloe sneered, "Keira, why don't you just stick to playing innocent roles in the future? Don't try to use the family as an excuse here! If you dare to play, don't act like you can't afford to lose! Just honestly say that sentence, and you can still keep a good reputation for being a good sport! I'll ask you one last time! Are you gonna say it or not?!"

"Sis, can't we just have a good talk..."

Chloe nodded, "Alright, I understand..."

Keira hesitated for a moment, not expecting Chloe to be so easygoing.

'Then...

"It seems like you're not willing to admit it. I can't force you to say it. In that case, I'll just change the rules a bit..."

Chapter 258

Afterward, she walked up to her, cracked a slight smile, and said in a gentle voice, “How about changing it to three kowtows instead?”

Keira’s face changed instantly.

That fragile and vulnerable facade she wore started to shatter.

Finally, in front of so many people, she glared at her angrily.

Chloe’s smile grew even wider. She leaned in close to Keira,

Her stunning face suddenly enlarged in Keira’s field of vision.

“Great, that’s more like it. I’ve suddenly realized that peeling off your fake mask bit by bit could be quite entertaining. Keira, I don’t mind playing along with you!”

The anger and hatred in Keira’s eyes deepened.

She looked at Chloe’s exquisite face, which seemed flawless no matter how you looked at it. Every glance, every subtle expression, exuded innate nobility.

She was jealous of her, jealous of everything she had, jealous to the point of insanity.

She could never have what Chloe had. She could play countless roles, but she could never become Chloe.

Seeing Keira’s expression, Chloe let go of her hand with a laugh, pinching her shoulder.

Keira tried to break free, but she didn't expect Chloe to be so strong that she couldn't move a muscle.

She only felt Chloe's fingers digging into her shoulder, almost as if they were piercing her bones, causing her unbearable pain.

But Chloe still smiled as if nothing had happened.

"Are you going to kowtow? Huh?" Chloe raised her eyebrows slightly, her face still smiling, yet more terrifying than when she was angry.

Keira continued to glare at her, but her hateful eyes began to show a hint of panic.

"It seems I need to help you out."

The smile on Chloe's face vanished, replaced by an icy hatred.

Keira couldn't help but feel terrified.

"No... you can't..."

It seemed Keira had guessed Chloe's intention and started to struggle.

Chloe pressed down on her shoulders even harder and forcefully pushed Keira's head down.

With a "thud," Keira was pushed to the ground, her forehead hitting the floor. She didn't even have a chance to resist.

As her head hit the ground, Keira felt dizzy and disoriented.

The people around them couldn't believe that Chloe would actually do such a thing.

Chloe didn't stop there. After two more consecutive thuds, she finally let go of Keira and flung her aside.

Keira felt a throbbing headache, but her mind was clear.

She clenched her fists, her carefully manicured nails breaking and bleeding.

But at this moment, she didn't even have the courage to lift her head. As a public figure, she had to maintain her image. So much had already happened in the past few days, and she couldn't afford to cause any more trouble for herself.

She had suffered such humiliation... how could she face everyone?

If she could, she would rather have Chloe knock her unconscious so she wouldn't have to face this humiliating situation and maybe even have Chloe face legal consequences.

With that thought in mind...

Keira held her forehead and swayed a bit...

But just before she was about to pretend to faint, Chloe sneered and said:

"Don't you dare faint now. My strength isn't enough to give you a concussion! Don't worry, I'm in control of my power!"

Chapter 259

Keira suddenly stiffened, frozen in place, not knowing what to do.

Chloe laughed without holding back and then turned her gaze to Amelia.

Amelia had already been scared silly by the previous scene, and now, seeing Chloe's cold eyes, her face turned even paler.

"Chloe, don't touch me, or I'll never let you go!"

"Well, that's for later, but now..."

Chloe said as she took a step closer to her.

Amelia, frightened out of her wits, quickly hugged her head.

"No, I don't want to bump my head, I'll say it, I'll say it..."

Chloe raised an eyebrow, stopped, and looked down at her from above.

"Go ahead, then."

'Your Majesty...I was wrong.'

The onlookers couldn't bear to watch any further, and some even covered their faces.

Amelia was both ashamed and furious.

Initially, she just wanted to step on Chloe hard and make her crawl at their feet like a lowly servant!

She couldn't stand Chloe's arrogant queen-like attitude even when she made mistakes!

But unexpectedly, the image she had imagined for Chloe now became her own!

Chloe slightly turned her body, picked up the Touch-your-heart set, leaned against the counter, looked at the brooch and cufflinks inside, and couldn't help but smile.

"What did you say? I didn't hear it clearly."

Amelia clenched her teeth, but still unwillingly repeated, "Your Majesty, I was wrong."

"I remember it should be said three times."

"Your Majesty, I was wrong."

Chloe closed the box, glanced at Amelia's expression, then looked at the woman restrained by Rose.

Of course, she wouldn't let those on Keira's side off the hook!

As soon as the woman saw Chloe's eyes, she immediately shrank her neck and quickly said:

"Your Majesty, I was wrong! Your Majesty, I was wrong! Your Majesty, I was wrong!"

Chloe gave her a cold glance and finally looked at Keira.

"She's much more tactful than you. In the future, you can have fun, but be careful with your choice of teammates... Don't look at me like that, it'll ruin your image!"

"And don't think about framing me in private. If you're smart, you should pray that I'll be safe and sound for the rest of my life. Otherwise, if something unexpected happens to me one day, the first suspects will be you guys!"

"Pfft..."

Rose couldn't help but burst into laughter.

Chloe glanced at her.

Rose laughed and said: "You're really ruthless. If you accidentally get hurt one day, will the police immediately go to them for a talk? Or if you play hide-and-seek with us and disappear for a few days, will they be arrested as kidnappers..."

Chloe nodded, "Yeah, pretty much."

Keira and Amelia turned pale.

So, they couldn't get their revenge today?

And they have to be careful about Chloe's safety from now on?

Should they just hire two bodyguards to protect her every day?!

This hateful bitch!

Chapter 260

At that moment, a man who had been following Mr. Kendrick walked over with a poker face.

"Hi, Miss Chloe, I'm your lawyer. After multiple confirmations, the manager and four employees of this shop have verbally insulted, slandered, and publicly degraded your character, damaging your reputation, and the situation is very serious. Do you want to file a lawsuit against them and the jewelry brand?"

Chloe didn't hesitate and nodded, "Yes, I want to file a lawsuit."

Upon hearing this, the manager and the employees freaked out.

“Miss Summers?!”

“Miss Summers, we were wrong!”

“Miss Summers, please forgive us. It was our fault. Please be magnanimous and don’t bother with us...”

Facing their apologies, Chloe remained indifferent.

“I’m someone who holds grudges! Also, don’t call me Miss Summers. The only miss of the Summers family is Keira.”

Chloe then turned to her lawyer and nodded slightly.

“I’ll leave the rest to you.”

The lawyer nodded, “Of course, Miss Chloe!”

She looked at Mr. Kendrick next to her and gave him a nod as well.

Chloe took another look at the touch_your_heart set in her hand.

“It seems like this set is mine today.”

Keira glared at her fiercely.

“I said I don’t want it, I don’t care for it, you can have it. But what I want, what I care about, no one can take away! Keira, if you’re not convinced, keep trying and see what else you can get from me.”

Chloe said coldly, then turned to the pale-faced Mr. Milford.

“Pack everything up and send it to my house. And don’t forget to compensate me for the jewelry in Ms. Summers’ hands!”

After everything was settled, Chloe and Rose left the store.

Everyone made way for them, completely conquered by Chloe’s aura.

This drama was like a roller coaster, with a final twist that was jaw-dropping!

They had always thought that a woman like Chloe, who appeared cold and elegant, would eventually choose to let things go.

However, she took matters into her own hands, leaving no mercy for the other party.

For a moment, they thought Chloe was going too far!

But when they recalled the whole incident, it seemed that Chloe was never the one in the wrong.

Not long after Chloe left, she saw a man and a woman walking towards her from a distance.

The man looked reluctant, while the woman wore a tight skirt, had a curvy figure, and a delicate and seductive makeup. She was dragging the man towards them.

Chloe didn’t care at first, but when she noticed the woman was looking at her, her eyes lit up.

The lawyer came up from behind, leaned in close to Chloe, and whispered something to her.

Chloe then smiled and went back into the shop, picking up the engagement rings that Keira had told her to give to Nick Summers and Viviana Reeves.

She walked out of the store again, handing the ring box directly to the seductive woman.

“Here you go! Wishing you a lifetime of happiness, everlasting love, and being each other’s one and only.”

The man looked baffled, but the woman excitedly accepted the ring box.

Someone told her that if she came here, someone would give her a pair of engagement rings for free, and it turned out to be true!

“Thank you...”

When she looked up again, Chloe had already left.

Rose asked Chloe curiously, “Do you know them?”

Chloe shook her head, “No.”

“Then why...”

Before Rose could finish, a heartbreaking cry came from inside the store!

It sounded like the agitated manager.

“You despicable person, who is this woman?”

“How can you do this to us, our child? Pearson, you actually had a mistress, you actually had a mistress...”

Rose asked Chloe, “How did you know?”

“Because I have a all-powerful boyfriend...”
