

Cinderella And Her Beautiful Octuplets

Chapter 231

Chapter 231

Lucas was still in shock to see Lisa. He was short of words, as he felt happiness run through him.

All he wanted to do right now was hug and kiss her, but then he held himself back, there was a lot of answers he needed to get from her. He just needed to hear the truth from her.

"Brandon, it's been a while," Lisa said as she moved away from Lucas and moved towards Brandon and then kissed him on his cheeks.

Hannah stared at her with jealousy in her eyes the moment she kissed Brandon on his cheeks, but then she finally spoke.

"I will leave you guys alone to talk" She gave Lisa one last glance and was about to leave when Lisa spoke, making her stop right on her track and turn to her. "Yeah, you should leave, Mrs Hannah" Lisa smiled and Hannah sighed before walking away: she wasn't in for dramas.

The moment Hannah walked away, Brandon also walked away, leaving Lisa and Lucas all alone.

"Lucas, I missed you so much," Lisa said and pulled him into a hug. She closed her eyes briefly and hummed as he hugged her back.

Just then she pulled away from the hug.

"Is everything alright? You don't seem happy to see me " Lisa said as she pouted.

"Of course, I am. I'm just in shock to see you. I wasn't expecting you..... I'm glad you are back" he said and she hummed.

"Why weren't you expecting me? You were the one looking for me and I came" she said and just as he was about speaking she shut him up with a kiss. Lisa sure knows Lucas's weak point and right now he was using it against him.

"My leg hurts from standing here," She pulled away from the kiss and then held Lucas's hand and they both walked towards the couch and sat on it.

Lisa stared at Lucas, she felt something was different about him. She thought he was looking for her but he didn't seem so happy to see her. It was like he was no longer in love with her.

The moment Hannah got inside the room, she sighed softly and sat on the bed, she had finally met the woman who came between two brothers.

Lisa was so pretty but from the way she saw her, she was gonna be a thorn in everyone's flesh now that she was back.

"Hey, are you alright?" Brandon who had just entered the room asked.

"Yeah, I should be asking you, if you are okay. Lisa just walked through the front door unexpectedly. Did you have any idea she was coming?" Hannah asked.

"No, I'm as surprised as everyone. When she left, she didn't tell anyone, she just left after Mellisa went missing and was pronounced dead..." He paused and then looked away from Hannah. "What's wrong?" She asked.

"I lied to you when I said I didn't know where she was. I lied because I didn't want to tell Lucas where she was.

When she left, I looked for her and found out she was living outskirts of Atlanta. She didn't know I found her, I just had to let her be thinking she would be happy all alone since Mellisa was no more.

I wasn't expecting her to show up all of a sudden" Brandon said and Hannah signed softly not knowing what to say.

Everything seemed so complicated.

"Well, she's back and I'm sure she's back to stay. Let's just hope she and Lucas sort out things and be happy" Hannah said and Brandon sighed and looked away: Hannah raised her eyebrows as she stared at him. She felt like Brandon was hiding something, there was more to Lisa's story. he wasn't saying the entire truth.

"Is there something else you want me to know Brandon?" Hannah asked and Brandon paused for a few seconds before he finally spoke.

"There's something else you need to know," he said and then asked her to sit down which she did and he sat beside her.

She needed to know the whole story because now that she was back, a lot of shit was about to happen and a lot of secrets would be let out of the bag.

"I met Lisa first," he said and then paused to watch the expression on her face and then he continued.

We had first met when I went to a business meeting in London. I had met her there with her mother, who was now late.

We talked and exchanged contacts, but after I came back to Atlanta, I tried contacting her with the number she gave me but it wasn't connecting and I didn't hear from her again.

After a few months, I saw her at a hotel in Atlanta where I and Lucas had gone for a business meeting.

I had approached her and wanted to speak with her when my brother came from behind her and held her by her waist and introduced her as his girlfriend..

It was there I realized she was the girl my brother has been telling me about for some time and wanted me to meet her.

Lucas was already in love with her. So I had to step down for him.

Lucas was so happy with her, he loved her so much. She moved in and started living with us. Lucas had told me he was going to engage her when he came back from a business trip he was going to but then the worst happened. She drugged me one night and something led to something, she became pregnant with Mellisa.

When Lucas found out, he was devastated. I have never seen my brother so devastated, he felt so betrayed and....." Brandon paused when they both heard a knock on the door.

Hannah stood up and moved towards the door. She opened it and saw the octuplets standing by the door.

"Sweethearts" she called surprised.

"Mommy, we are hungry" they echoed at once and Hannah touched her forehead. She was supposed to prepare food for them but then she forgot after Lisa had arrived. "Uhm, I will go prepare a quick meal for you guys," Hannah said and then Brandon walked towards them and spoke.

"Why don't we all go to the kitchen and cook together, it would be faster that way," Brandon said and the kids stared at each other and then nodded in response. "The kitchen is no place for kids, what if they get burnt" Hannah whispered.

"They won't have to touch anything, we would just keep you company and give some help while you cook," he said and she sighed and they all walked downstairs.

Meanwhile, Lisa who's seen with Lucas downstairs had seen Hannah, Brandon, and the octuplets climbing down the stairs, looking like a happy family while they laughed and all. She felt a surge of anger and jealousy rushed through her.

This was supposed to be her, Brandon, and Mellisa.

Chapter 232

Chapter 232

This was supposed to be her, Brandon, and Mellisa. This was the kind of family she had wanted to have with Brandon but then Lucas ruined it, she thought angrily. "Lisa, Lisa are you with me?" Lucas jolted her out of her thoughts and she smiled and turned to him.

"Yeah," she muttered.

Meanwhile, after Hannah and Brandon were done cooking, with the help of the kids, they arranged the food on the food on the table. "Wow," the kids muttered at once. They felt so proud of what they've done. They looked so happy, extremely happy.

Hannah then turned to the maid who was standing behind her and asked her to call everyone downstairs for dinner.

"What about grandma?" Jayden asked.

"She left for some work, she would be back late" Hannah said in response.

Hannah and Brandon helped the kids sit on their chairs and served them. Just then Lucas and Lisa walked towards the table and sat on it.

The kids stared at Lisa, wondering who she was but as they saw her with Lucas, they thought maybe she was his girlfriend.

It wasn't long before Jessica and Matthew came and joined them at the dining.

The moment Jessica sat down she raised her head and saw Lisa. There was this look of surprise on her face the moment she saw her.

"What are you doing here?" She asked Lisa, and she smiled at her.

"Hello, Jessica, it's been a while," Lisa said with a smirk on her face and Jessica scoffed.

"Jessica, please, let's just have a peaceful dinner," Lucas said and she glared at Lucas and then at Brandon and Hannah and the octuplets who were busy eating their food already.

She didn't want to cause any drama in front of the kids, so she had to keep calm.

Lisa rolled her eyes as she tasted the food. The food tasted nice.

"Hmmm, the food is so spicy" she yelled as she quickly picked up the server and spit out the food in her mouth.

Everyone raised their heads and stared at her.

"The food tastes nice, though," Matthew said and Lisa shot him a deadly glare wondering who he was.

"Yeah, it does. I think Lisa should work on her taste buds so she can have good taste" Jessica said and everyone chuckled.

She gritted her teeth and stared at Jessica and then at Hannah who was smiling and eating. She felt a surge of anger rushes through her.

She wasn't gonna let Jessica ruin her mood, not today.

"So, Hannah, when did you and Brandon meet again? And how come his kids are so grown up when I checked last year, he was still single with no wife or kids. Or did you give him another man, kids?" Lisa said and everyone raised their heads and stared at her.

"There are children here, Lisa," Lucas muttered and she rolled her eyes.

"Not everyone is like you, Lisa" Jessica responded and Lisa sighed as she tightened her fist.

The kids stared at Hannah who had this angry look on her face, she was trying to hold herself from saying any word to Lisa in front of the kids. She took a deep breath and continued eating.

Even though they didn't know the woman or what was going on, what they noticed was that this lady was trying to get on their mommy's nerves.

The kids then stared at each other.

"Aunt Jessica, my aunty in school said we look so much like our daddy," Allison said with a smile on her face.

"Of course honey, even a blind man could see it," Jessica said and the kids burst into laughter.

Both Brandon and Hannah stared at each other. Brandon knew the kids were trying to protect Hannah.

They wouldn't sit and watch anyone say mean words to Hannah.

"Uhm, sweethearts, you guys should go to your room," Hannah said with a smile on her face, and the kids pouted. They were already done eating, they were just eating fruits.

"Mommy and I will come and play with you guys. Just go to your room and we will be there in a jiffy" Brandon said and the kids nodded before standing up and going upstairs to their room.

Lisa stared at the kids till they were out of sight: they seem to be so smart, I'm going to deal with all of you, she thought and then quickly replaced the look on her face with a smile.

"Your kids are Cute. So, how does it feel like giving birth to octuplets at once, Hannah?" Lisa asked and Hannah smiled at her.

"It feels really good being a mother to my octuplets, they are my world," Hannah said and Lisa smiled.

"I felt that way once when I had my daughter but unfortunately she was kidnapped and killed," Lisa said and everyone went silent but Hannah spoke.

"I'm sorry about that," Hannah said and Lisa smiled.

"Oh, it's nothing. Seeing how Brandon is with the octuplets reminds me of how he was a good father to Mellisa.

I remember the night Mellisa had woken up crying, I tried to stop her from crying but she just wouldn't stop crying but when Brandon carried her, she immediately stopped crying. Brandon, how did you stop her from crying that night?" Lisa asked.

"I had to make her lay on my bare chest and she stopped crying and fell asleep," Brandon said and Hannah stared at him and looked away.

"Yeah, I remembered that day, you weren't putting on any clothes because we just finished having sex," Lisa said with a smile on her face and Hannah stared at Lucas who had this look on his face.

Whatever Lisa was saying, she thought she was trying to hurt Hannah, not knowing she was also hurting Lucas.

"Have you got no shame? You are so disgusting. " Jessica muttered angrily as she stared at her.

"That's nice, and I'm sorry for the loss of your child. My condolences. Brandon is a good father. He cooks at times, takes the kids to school, makes sure they are okay, and also makes time for them even with his busy schedule. Only a good father does that, isn't it?" Hannah said in reply and Lisa nodded in response.

"Yeah, of course" Lisa muttered and then frowned as she took a glass of water on the table and drank from it. She seems tough.

Just then Lucas, who was angry, stood up and left.

Jessica also stood up.

"I wonder who invited you over, go back to wherever you crawled out from and leave my family alone, bitch" Jessica said as she stood up and walked away leaving Lisa, Brandon, and Hannah all alone. Hannah sighed softly.

"So, Lisa, when would you be leaving?" Hannah asked.

TBC

"Leaving, who said anything about leaving? I'm here to stay," she said and Brandon and Hannah gazed at each other.

Chapter 233

Chapter 233

"Leaving, who said anything about leaving? I'm here to stay," she said and Brandon and Hannah gazed at each other. Hannah hummed.

Lisa then smiled at Brandon before she stood up and walked away.

"Dinner ruined" Hannah sighed and also stood up and asked the maid to clear the dining table before leaving.

Meanwhile, Lucas is seen in his room sitting on his bed looking angry, sad, and hurt with lots of thoughts going through his mind.

Just then the door burst revealing Lisa.

"Wow, still no changes after so many years," she said and Lucas turned towards her.

When she saw the look on his face she paused and then sat beside him.

"What were those things you were saying at the dining, about how you and Brandon had sex? How the both of you were together and how nice he was" Lucas said angrily and Lisa tried touching him but then he stood up.

"I didn't mean those words and I only said it to get back at Hannah. She was mocking me, I had to say what I said. Everyone was hating me at the dining and I had to act strong. I didn't want them to perceive me as weak" she said and Lucas scoffed.

"Lucas please, I'm sorry for what I said out there," she said as she touched his face and then suddenly, she kissed him.

The moment she kissed him, he felt all the anger in him disappear at once.

He held her waist and pulled her closer to himself as he kissed her back. At first, it was a passionate kiss but then it became rough.

She began to unbutton his clothes, but then Lucas pulled away from the kiss and then stopped her from pulling his clothes. "What's wrong?" She asked.

"I just need you to tell me the truth, just the truth and I promise everything will go back to normal and we will start all over again like nothing ever happened," Lucas said and Lisa sighed and touched his face.

She knew what he was about to ask if she loved him blah blah, acting like a weak man again, she thought and then bit her lips and sighed.

She just needed to tell him what he needed to hear, it would grant her a free staying ticket in the house. Because from the look of things, everyone wants her out but if she has Lucas on her side, no one would be able to ask her to leave.

"I love you, Lucas. I do. Whatever happened between me and Brandon in the past was a one-time mistake. I didn't want to do it, he drugged me and Forced himself on me and I got pregnant.

you know I love you and I came back for us. You are the reason I came back, I want us to start all over again, please" she said as tears gathered in her eyes.

Lucas nodded and pulled her into a hug.

"I love you too Lisa, and I'm glad you are back," he said and she rolled her eyes from behind him.

You want to know the truth, Lucas. I do not love you. I love Brandon. I met him before you and I fell in love with him.

It has always been Brandon and it's always gonna be Brandon, she thought and then he pulled away from the hug and kissed her softly, slowly and passionately.

Just then their clothes could be seen flying around the air and the sound of their moans filled the room.

Meanwhile, Hannah who had left the dining room was about to enter the kids' room when Brandon spoke from behind making her stop.

She then turned to him.

"What do you want?" She asked and he sighed.

"I'm sorry about dinner and everything Lisa said," he said and she smiled.

"It's nothing, I'm just surprised you seem happy to see her because if you didn't you wouldn't have answered the question she asked about how you guys finished having sex and all," she said looking angry. "I... I'm sorry alright" he said and she laughed.

"Just let me be, Brandon," she said and was about to open the door to the kid's room when he held her hands and pulled her towards himself.

"Let go of me Brandon, what do you think you are doing?" She muttered making sure her voice was low and calm.

She was obviously still angry at him and trying so hard to avoid his looks.

She didn't want to yell because they were in front of the kid's door and they would come out and witness the scene in front of their room.

"I love you, Hannah, it's always gonna be you," he said as he held her face and made her look him in the eyes.

She swallowed into nothing as she stared at him, she felt a cold shiver run through her spine.

He took her hands and placed them on the left side of his chest.

"This heart only beats for you," he said and she felt her cheeks turn red at once.

He moved his face towards her and was about to kiss her when the door opened at once. They turned and saw eight little cute eyes staring at them. They both smiled at them. Hannah gently removed Brandon's hands from her waist and then moved towards the kids, with a nervous look on her face.

"Daddy and I were just about to knock. We came to spend quality time with you guys" Hannah said and laughed.

"Yeah Mommy is right, we came to spend time with you guys," Brandon said and just then he heard his phone ring.

He brought out his phone from his pocket checked the caller's ID, and saw it was a call from the company.

"Mommy and you guys can start playing the game, I will be back, I just need to answer this call," he said and they all nodded in response, and with that, he walked away. The moment he walked away, Hannah heaved a sigh of relief.

Chapter 234

Chapter 234

Meanwhile, Lisa and Lucas are seen lying on the bed naked, with Lucas asleep and Lisa pretending to be asleep.

She stood up from the bed and put on a simple dress, before walking out of the room leaving Lucas all alone.

She then walked past Brandon's study room and saw the door was opened. She decided to go in and see if Brandon was inside the study room.

And luckily, he was in the study room answering his phone calls. The moment he saw Lisa walk in, he ended the call immediately.

"What do you want Lisa?" Brandon asked as he placed his phone on the table and Lisa smiled.

"Come on Brandon, I know you missed me, I get it, you are trying to hide it from your wife but we are here all alone, you can show me how much you missed me," Lisa said and Brandon stared at her disgustedly. She moved towards him and was about to touch him on his chest when he held her hands and pushed her to the ground.

"Rude" she muttered as she stood up from the ground and straightened her dress.

"You should leave this room, leave this house, and go back to where you came from, Lisa or I would be forced to throw you out," Brandon said and she scoffed.

"I know you love me, Brandon, you are just trying to hide it. It's fine I understand but there's something you should know too, I love you and I will always love you" she said and he scoffed.

"I never loved you, Lisa. I never did" he said and she laughed. He wondered what was funny.

"I'm still here, you have enough time to think" she said and blew him kisses and was about to leave when he spoke and she smiled and turned to him.

"Why did you come back after all these years?" He asked and she sighed.

"I came back for you, Brandon. I came back for us" she said and he scoffed.

"You and I both know you are a narcissist little bitch and you only care about you, and there's a reason you came back and I promise I'm going to find out," he said and she smiled and shrugged.

"Okay, good luck," she said, and then the cat walked out of the room. Brandon scoffed, he needed to get rid of her before she did more damage to his family, he thought angrily.

Meanwhile, Matthew and Jessica had walked out of her room. Jessica had said she needed to go out and have some drink and fresh air with Matthew.

She's been ranting and ranting about Lisa and how much she hated her and how she split her brothers in the past and now she's back to do her worst. Matthew suggested they go out to have a drink and some fresh air.

"I think I left my phone in the room, I would go get it," Jessica said.

"I would wait for you in the car," Matthew said and Jessica nodded and went back to her room to get her phone while Matthew went downstairs.

Immediately, he got downstairs, he saw Lisa scrutinizing the whole place, smiling to herself. She hummed the moment she saw Matthew and then moved towards him.

"You must be the guy with Jessica today at the dining. Who are you to her? Is she your girlfriend? I wonder how you can date a crazy person like her. I would advise you to run while you still can, because she is going to ruin your life" She said and Matthew stared at her without saying a word.

"And what is your concern about my relationship with him? Learn to mind your business, bitch" Jessica who is seen climbing down the stairs said and Lisa rolled her eyes.

"I didn't come for you, Jessica. Stay out of my way or I will be forced to get rid of you" Lisa said and Jessica scoffed.

"You can do nothing to me!! I just can't wait, for you to be thrown out of the house and if you are thinking of going after Brandon, his wife and kids will get rid of you before you even know it, stay away from my brothers" Jessica said. "I always get what I want, Jessica, ask Brandon. He knows my story" she said and Matthew Stared at the both of them.

Lisa looked so beautiful and innocent, anyone who would see her would think she was very calm and peaceful.

Jessica scoffed and rolled her eyes.

"Don't be deceived by her innocent face, she's so evil, come on let's go, I don't want to see her face anymore, it irritates me" Jessica said and Lisa rolled her eyes.

Just as she was about to walk away, she paused and then turned to Lisa.

"Just so you know, I'm married," she said as she flaunted her fingers, showing Lisa her Diamond ring and Lisa scoffed.

"Now I know what happened to Kim Kardashian's stolen ring," Lisa said and Jessica frowned at her.

All she wanted to do was to squeeze her little throat.

"It's okay Jessica, let's go," Matthew said as she held her hands and they both walked out of the house to the car.

"I hate her so much, I hate everything about her," she said as they entered the car.

Meanwhile, Lisa sat on the couch the moment Jessica left. Just then Lucas is seen climbing down their stairs.

"Hey, I was searching for you, I didn't see you in the room" he muttered as he moved towards Lisa. She pouted and stood up.

"What's wrong?" Lucas asked.

"I came downstairs to get water and I met Jessica, she kept saying mean words to me and asked me to leave. She still hates me after so many years, I have tried to make her like me but...." She paused and sighed sadly.

"Hey, I will talk to Jessica alright, she will have to learn to accept you. I love you and that's what matters, what everyone else thinks doesn't matter" he said and then pulled her into a hug.

Lisa wasn't expecting a calm behavior from him. She was expecting him to get angry and then hit Jessica to cause a scene but instead, he's so calm. She rolled her eyes.

He's probably gonna slap her when she arrives, she cannot wait for the drama to unfold, she is going to teach her a lesson.

"Come on, let's go to bed, it's late" he said and she nodded, just as they were about to leave, the front door opened revealing Arianna.

TBC

Chapter 235

Chapter 235

"Come on, let's go to bed," he said and she nodded, just as they were about to leave, the front door opened revealing Arianna.

"Mom" Lucas called and she smiled at him. She raised her eyebrows when she saw Lisa. She recognized her, the bitch who came between her sons, she's back. "Mom, this is...."

"Lisa," Arianna said, cutting off his speech.

"Hi, ma'am," Lisa muttered with a smile on her face. This was the first time she was meeting Lucas's mom in person. Arianna forced herself to smile at her and with that, she walked away. She didn't like Lisa, and she wouldn't pretend she liked her, she thought to herself.

"What's wrong?" Lisa asked.

"She's probably had a stressful day," Lucas said and Lisa nodded in response.

A lot of people do not like me here, staying here won't be as easy as I thought, Lisa said to herself as they walked towards Lucas's room, he opened the door, and walked in. Meanwhile, Hannah, who had put the kids to sleep, was about to walk out of the kid's room when she saw Arianna.

"Mom" she called wondering what was wrong as she saw the look on her face.

"I just came back from your room. Who let the Devil incarnate into the house?" Arianna asked and Hannah raised her eyebrows confused wondering who she was talking about. "Devil incarnate?" She asked to be sure of what she had heard.

"Yes, I mean Lisa. Who let her in? Why's she here?" Arianna asked and Hannah sighed as she walked out of the room and closed the door behind her.

"I don't know, maybe that's a question you should ask Brandon and Lucas. I think they are both still in love with her. She's got a hold over the both of them" Hannah said and Arianna sighed.

"She was the one who turned my sons against each other in the first place, I'm not going to let that happen again," she said looking annoyed. All she wanted to do at that moment was to rip off Lisa's head and throw her out of the house making sure she never came back.

Just then a text message popped into Hannah's phone, it was work-related.

"Mom, it's late, you should rest, we will talk about all of this tomorrow," Hannah said and with that, she walked away.

Immediately she entered her room and she met Brandon lying on the bed.

"What do you want, Brandon?" She asked as she closed the door behind her.

"Nothing, I'm here to sleep, I spent the night here with you on this bed and I told you I would be sleeping here from today hence," he said and Hannah scoffed.

"You must be joking," she said as she laughed but then the laugh on her face was replaced with a frown.

Hey there! Just a friendly reminder that if you're not reading this book on nel5s.org, you might be missing out on the complete story. Head over there to dive into the next chapter-it's all free!

"No, you are not spending the night on this bed, you can use the guest room," Hannah said and Brandon shrugged and then rolled his eyes.

"I'm not sleeping outside this room, when you are tired of standing you can come join me on the bed," he said as he closed his eyes and then covered himself properly with the duvet. "You..!!" Hannah paused as she gritted her teeth and tightened her fist in annoyance. She wasn't going to sleep in the same bed with him.

She took the pillow from the bed and pulled the duvet from him.

"What are you doing?" Brandon asked as he opened his eyes but she paid no attention to him.

She put the pillow on the couch and laid on it before covering herself with the duvet and then closed her eyes pretending to fall asleep.

Brandon on the other hand stares at her speechlessly not knowing what to say. He wondered if this was the same woman who asked him not to leave her last night and said she loved him. She was drunk, what was he expecting, for her to come to hug him, the Hannah he knew would never do that?

"Are you asleep already?" Hannah asked as she opened her eyes while staring at the ceiling.

"No," Brandon muttered.

"I want Lisa out of the house, she can't stay here, she's going to cause a lot of trouble. Even mom doesn't want her here too" Hannah said and Brandon sighed.

"I'm on it, she will be out soon," he said in response and Hannah hummed and just then she suddenly closed her eyes and drifted to sleep.

"It would be difficult throwing her out since she has Lucas on her side, it won't be easy," Brandon said and then sighed softly. He stared at Hannah and noticed she wasn't saying a word.

"Are you awake?" He asked but no response. He stood up and moved towards her. He stared at her beautiful face which looked so innocent.

Anyone who stares at her beautiful face would think she's so innocent and calm but deep down she's so stubborn, he thought and then smiled at himself.

She didn't look so comfortable sleeping on the couch.

He carried her gently and then placed her on the bed.

He sits by the bedside, watching her sleep peacefully.

Her hair is spread out across the pillow, and her skin is glowing in the soft light in the room. He feels a wave of love and admiration wash over him as he watches her.

She looks so beautiful, so perfect, and he feels a deep need to protect her from anything that might harm her.

He thinks about how he would do anything to keep her safe, even if it meant going up against the whole world. He knows that she is the most important thing in his life and he would not be able to survive without her and the octuplets. They were his life, he thought silently, and then covered her properly with the duvet.

He stood up and was about to leave the room but something deep down inside of him just didn't want him to leave, all he wanted to do all night was sit beside her and watch her pretty face while she slept peacefully.

Chapter 236

Chapter 236

Meanwhile, Matthew and Jessica who had left the house had just arrived at the hotel where they would be spending the night.

They climbed out of the car they had parked at the parking lot. They walked inside the hotel and paid for a room for the night and the receptionist gave them the key to the room.

"Thank you" Matthew muttered and they both walked down the hallway trying to locate the room. When suddenly they saw Jeff walk out of a room in the hotel.

"Jeez, I left home so I could avoid the devil mistress and now I met the devil's incarnate here. Can this day get better?" Jessica muttered the moment she saw Jeff.

Jeff paused and raised his eyebrows when he saw Jessica.

"You!" He muttered as he tightened his fist. He felt anger rush down his veins the moment he saw her.

He remembered how she had ruined his life with that deceitful marriage and used him.

He tried moving towards her but then Matthew stood in front of her blocking his way.

"Back off man, we don't want trouble," Matthew said calmly Jeff was reluctant then Matthew had no choice but to push him away.

"Don't you dare touch me again" Jeff said angrily and Matthew smiled.

"Get out of our way Jeff. You are acting like a psychopath. You should see a psychiatrist, you need help" Jessica said and Jeff gritted his teeth.

"You little bitch, say that again one more time and I'm going to squeeze that little mouth of yours. You are going to sign back my property to me else I will make your life a living hell" Jeff said and Jessica scoffed.

"You can do nothing, you dare touch me and I will make sure you rot in jail," she said and Jeff made to hit her from behind Matthew when Matthew pushed him away again.

"Man, this is between me and my sister, Jessica and not you, so stay out of it," Jeff said and Matthew smirked.

"Your sister?" Jessica laughed and Jeff shot her a deadly glare.

"She's my woman, so whatever it is between the both of you concerns me," he said and pushed him back.

"You dare touch me one more time and your dead body will be on the ground" Jeff threatened and Matthew sighed. He was already tired of all the drama going on.

He hates drama, all he wanted to do was get in that hotel room and sleep.

"Okay," he said as he raised his hand in surrender and moved out of his way.

Jeff stared at Matthew who had moved out of his way giving him the chance to hit Jessica. He chuckled and was about to punch Jessica when Matthew held his hands and punched him so hard on his nose. He groaned as he touched his nose and saw blood.

"Get out of my way and take your frustration Elsewhere," Matthew said as he held Jessica's hand, pulled her inside the hotel room, and locked the door behind them.

Jeff on the other hand was still in pain, his face was first swollen from the beating Lucas had given him and now this husband of Jessica had also hit him.

He was going to make all of them regret it, he thought angrily.

Hey there! Just a friendly reminder that if you're not reading this book on nel5s.org, you might be missing out on the complete story. Head over there to dive into the next chapter-it's all free!

"Oh my goodness! I think Jeff had gone crazy. I can't believe he's also my brother. I hate what is going on in my family right now.

It makes me feel like I'm going crazy. Something deep down Lisa came back for a reason.

I don't know why my brother can't see that and why he still loves her dearly. It breaks my heart that my brothers are just stupid.

Maybe she still has a hold over them. I get it she's pretty and looks innocent but that doesn't mean they can't see she's evil.

Imagine coming back after all these years, there must be a reason why. I need to find out whatever she's hiding, where she's been all these years, who's she's been with.

I need something I can use against her" Jessica kept talking while pacing to and fro.

She paused and turned to Matthew who was staring at her without saying a word. She sighed softly and sat beside him.

"I'm sorry for all my ranting and all. I'm sorry for dragging you into all of this" she said as she placed her head on his shoulder.

"It's fine, every family has a problem. You can talk about it all you want, If it will make you feel better, I'm here to listen" he said and Jessica heaved a sigh of relief. "Thank you and trust me when I say I feel better" she said and Matthew chuckled.

It was morning and Hannah had woken up feeling tired. She opened her eyes and noticed she was lying on the bed.

She wondered how she had gotten to the bed when she slept on the couch.

Brandon!, she thought and then quickly checked her clothes and luckily they were still intact. She heaved a sigh of relief.

She stared around the room and noticed he wasn't in the room, he was gone. She checked the time and saw it was 7:30 am.

It was weekend and she wouldn't be taking the kids to school. All she needed to do was tell the maid what to prepare for breakfast for them and go to the company.

She walked inside the bathroom, took her bath, and then walked out of the bathroom. She got dressed and took a file that was on her dressing table and her handbag before walking out of the room.

She got downstairs and saw Arianna walking out of the kitchen holding a tray of food in her hands and some maids were behind her holding a tray of food too.

"Hey Mom, where are you taking these to?" Hannah asked as she kissed her on her cheeks.

"I'm taking it to my grandchildren. They would be eating in their room, the dining table has been infested by unwanted insects" Arianna said and Hannah turned and saw Lisa sitting in the dining room, with her phone in her hands while sipping coffee.

"I can hear you Mrs Colby" Lisa muttered as she dropped her phone on the table.

"Get my name out of your stinking mouth, you whore" Arianna said angrily and Hannah sighed.

She knew this wasn't going to end well.

Chapter 237

"Mom, it's fine. You should take the food to the kids" Hannah said and Arianna nodded before walking away. Lisa rolled her eyes.

Hannah stared at her and looked away. She needed to go to the office since mom would be taking care of the kids.

She noticed she had left her phone in the room. She decided to go get it. So, she left the file and her handbag she was holding on the dining table and went upstairs to get her phone. Meanwhile, the moment Hannah left, Lisa stood up and went to check the file that she had kept on the table.

She took the file up and opened it, she saw Hannah's signature and her name, Cinderella Mackenzie, and beside it was written COO.

"What? COO?" Lisa muttered angrily as she dropped the file on the table. This was the position she wanted Brandon to give her when they were still together but he never for once considered giving it to her and he gave it to this woman in a heartbeat.

Who is this woman, and what is it about her, Lisa muttered as she gritted her teeth. She smiled when a thought came into her mind.

She was going to ruin the files. She then took the coffee she was drinking and then poured it on the file. She dropped the cup on the table beside the file before going outside the house to the swimming pool area to swim. Meanwhile, Hannah, who had taken her phone, walked out of her room and climbed downstairs to get the file she dropped on the table, and to her surprise she saw coffee on it.

What the hell?! She muttered surprised. This was a work paper, she was supposed to give it to a client to sign and it has been ruined.

She felt so pained. She took her time in drafting this contract, she knew how long she spent doing it, and now it's been ruined.

Anger rushed through her veins. She's never been pissed this way in her life. She wondered who would have been heartless to do this shit.

She took the cup of coffee and stared at it. It was the same cup Lisa was holding just now while sipping coffee.

That bitch, she's gonna ask herself why she did this shit, she thought angrily. She wondered where Lisa had gone, she needed to teach her a lesson.

Just then she saw Matthew and Jessica walking inside the house.

"Have you seen Lisa?" Hannah asked as she tightened her fist.

"I think I saw her at the swimming pool area when we drove in " Jessica said and Hannah walked past her going to the pool area, where she met Lisa taking pictures while standing by the pool.

"What's wrong?" Jessica asked as she and Matthew both stared at each other wondering what was happening.

Hannah didn't answer her so they decided to follow her to the pool side.

Hannah gritted her teeth as she walked towards Lisa and just then she gave her a dirty slap on her face making her stagger back.

"Woah" Jessica muttered as a smile appeared on her face.

Lisa stared at her with shock on her face.

"How dare you hit me?" Lisa yelled as she touched her face which was feeling so hot from the slap.

"And I will do it all over again. Who do you think you are? How dare you spill coffee on my work file?" Hannah yelled and Lisa laughed.

"Oh, just because I spilled coffee on the file and you are ranting like an animal. What if I make Brandon throw you out of the house, I wonder how you would react" Lisa said between gritted teeth and was about hitting her when Hannah held her hands and pushed her back.

"Oh bitch, I would be the one to throw you out of this house myself, you've drawn the battle line! Better watch your back" Hannah said Lisa rolled her eyes and was about to walk away when Hannah pulled her hair and suddenly saw Lisa's hair on her hand.

"Oh my goodness! Someone needs to stop this fight" Matthew said and made to move towards them when Jessica held his hands.

"Don't you dare? I'm so enjoying this. This bitch needs to be taught a lesson" she said with a smile on her face.

"How dare you pull my hair" Lisa flared up and Hannah laughed. She thought her curly hair was real and was even admiring it when she first came not knowing it was fake.

"You are fucking fake. You fake everything about you, even your hair is fake" Hannah mocked her as she threw her hair in the pool.

Lisa who was boiling in anger moved towards Hannah and they started fighting and suddenly they both fell inside the pool.

"Bitch, you are crazy. You bit me" Lisa yelled while breathing fast. She touched her face and saw blood on it.

"The next thing I'm going to do is cut off your head," Hannah said as she got out of the pool and kicked Lisa's phone into the water. Meanwhile, everyone inside the house had heard noises coming from the back of the house. They wondered what was going on. Brandon, and Arianna had rushed out of the house to go see what was happening and they saw Hannah all wet and Lisa inside the pool. "What the hell is going on here?" Brandon asked, looking confused.

"You should ask the crazy pants you call a wife, she came at me when I didn't do anything and she bit me. I'm bleeding" Lisa said as she climbed out of the pool breathing heavily. Her curly hair was now looking so short and messy. "One more word from you I swear, your dead body would be on the ground," Hannah said and was about to move towards Lisa again to hit her when Brandon held her.

"Look, I told you she's crazy," Lisa said and moved back in fear.

"Let go of me Brandon, I need to teach her a lesson" Hannah kept struggling to free herself from Brandon's grip but he was just too strong.

Jessica kept smiling and Lisa shot her a deadly glare.

Chapter 238

"Has anyone told you this? I love you so much, Hannah. You are the best thing that happened to this family" Jessica said and everyone glared at her. "What?" She questioned.

"Come let's go inside. That's enough" Brandon said but Hannah just wouldn't listen. He sighed softly and then carried her in his arms and walked inside the house. "Put me down Brandon, put me down" Hannah yelled as Brandon carried her inside the house and then asked the maid to bring a towel which a maid did.

He put her down and Arianna took the towel and covered her with it.

"What the hell is wrong with you?" Brandon asked, looking confused and wondering what had happened.

Hannah scoffed.

"Me? What the hell is wrong with me? You should ask the ex-fiancée you brought into this house.

She fucking spilled coffee on the file I needed to give a client today and you are asking me what is wrong with me?" Hannah yelled and Brandon stared at the file on the dining table which was soaked.

He sighed looking speechless, not knowing what to say. He stared at Lisa who had walked inside the house, she had an injury on her face which was bleeding.

Just then Lucas is seen climbing down the stairs, he was in a deep sleep when he heard a noise. He didn't sleep in time last night because he was having endless sex with Lisa.

"What's going on here?" Lucas asked.

The moment Lisa saw Lucas, she burst into tears.

"I didn't spill coffee on it, she's lying on me. Why do you hate me so much, I have done nothing to you" she said tears streaming down her cheeks.

Everyone stared at her confused, she wasn't crying a few minutes ago and now she was crying.

"What is she doing?" Matthew asked Jessica in a whisper.

"Shedding more tears than the crocodile to make her bag," Jessica said in response.

Lucas moved towards Lisa and then hugged her.

"What's wrong? You are bleeding" Lucas said as he hugged her.

"It was Hannah, she attacked me" Lisa cried and Lucas stared at Hannah with no expression on his face.

"You are a devil in human form, I would make you bleed more than that if you say any more words," Hannah said angrily.

"Enough Hannah, enough," Brandon said and Hannah glared at him and scoffed.

"Seriously, enough? I told you she spilled coffee on my work paper and all you can say is enough?" Hannah shook her head and then went upstairs to her room.

Lucas on the other hand was still confused wondering what paper Lisa spilled coffee on.

Lisa pulled away from the hug and stared at Lucas with tears in her eyes.

She was expecting him to yell at Hannah but he just couldn't say a word. Now, he knows the reason why. He was in love with Hannah and couldn't afford to get her angry. She sighed softly.

"You should get that clean before it gets infected," Brandon said and Lisa nodded and smiled inwardly.

Hmm, he still cares about me, she thought.

"Come, I will apply first aid," Lucas said as they both walked to the dining room.

"Why the hell is she even in this house? Did you invite her over?" Arianna asked Brandon.

"What? No, I didn't. Why would I invite her?" Brandon asked and Jessica rolled her eyes.

Arianna sighed softly, she needed to go meet the kids before they came out of the room and witness whatever was going on, she thought and then walked upstairs to the kid's room. She knew Hannah was pissed off right now, she would talk to her when she was calm.

"Grandma, is everything alright?" Jayden asked the moment the door was opened. They had worried looks on their faces.

They had heard their mommy's voice. She sounded so stressed and angry.

"Yeah, everything is fine. Mommy is fine. Let's continue our game. Where did we stop" Arianna said and they nodded in response and went back to what they were doing. Meanwhile, Hannah is seen in her room looking so pissed. She had taken her bath and changed her clothes.

She needed space, she needed to leave this house at the moment before she exploded with whatever anger she was feeling.

She expected Brandon to be on her side but it was the opposite.

Just then the door opened revealing Brandon.

"Hannah, we need to talk," Brandon said the moment he walked in.

"Yeah, we need to talk. I want Lisa out of the house" Hannah said and Brandon sighed.

"Hannah, she's with Lucas. I can't just kick her out" Brandon said and Hannah scoffed.

"Really? Is it because of Lucas or because of you, I can see the way you stare at her Brandon.

You are still on to her, she's still on to you. The both of you are on to each other.

If you can't have her leave, I will take my things and take my children and leave too and I promise you will never see me again" Hannah said and Brandon stared at her looking speechless. "What are you talking about? What do you mean I'm on to her?" Brandon asked but Hannah didn't say a word.

Instead, she walked past him and walked out of the room.

She climbed down the stairs and saw Lucas cleaning Lisa's wound. She then walked out of the house, hopped inside her car, and zoomed off.

Lisa rolled her eyes the moment she walked outside the house.

She thought Hannah was the calm peaceful type who doesn't indulge in any kind of violence even when she's pushed to but she was wrong, she's crazy and also tough.

This is gonna be harder than she thought, with Hannah around she would never be able to get her way with Brandon.

She needed to do the necessary first, she needed to make sure she removed Hannah from Brandon's life and it would be difficult as children are involved.

She has to remove fucking from Brandon's Life.

Chapter 239

Chapter 239

Lucas on the other hand stared at Lisa who was staring at Hannah till she was out of sight.

"Did you spill coffee on her work file?" He asked and Lisa signed.

"Are you doubting me? I would never do that Lucas. I know the stress and all she might have used in drafting it out. I didn't do it. Besides, isn't she the COO, she could ask anyone to help her redraft" Lisa said and Lucas stared at her. "But Hannah is not the kind of person who would lie to anyone. She doesn't lie" Lucas said and Lisa stared at him surprised.

Wow, so he knows her this much and is defending her, is he trying to call me a liar? Lisa thought with a surprised look on her face.

"You should go fix your hair, it's ruined. I have to be somewhere" He said and then stood up before going upstairs to his room.

Lisa rolled her eyes and stood up. She didn't plan on visiting the saloon any time soon but now because of what Hannah had done to her hair she would have to visit one and also get a new phone, she thought angrily. Meanwhile, Arianna and the kids were seen in the kid's room playing games on their computer when she suddenly heard her phone ring.

She checked the caller's ID and saw it was a call from Micheal. She had called him earlier today to stop by the house, and they needed to talk.

"Come, let's go play in the sitting room," she said and the kids yelled happily and stood up before rushing out of the room.

"Careful, you would fall. Careful" Arianna said as they climbed down the stairs.

Just then she saw Micheal walk through the front door.

"Hey, you are here" she muttered and Micheal nodded as he kissed her on the cheeks.

"What was so urgent that you asked me to come over?" He asked and Arianna turned to the kids.

"I'll be back in a few seconds, do not leave here," Arianna said to the kids and they nodded in response.

She then turned to Micheal and asked him to follow her to her room. The moment they got inside the room, she closed the door behind her and turned to Micheal.

"I need you to do something for me Michael," she said and Micheal raised his eyebrows wondering what she needed his help on.

"Sure, anything you want Mrs Mackenzie," Micheal said in response.

"She's back," Arianna said and Micheal stared at her confused wondering who was back.

"Lisa, she's back," Arianna said and Micheal gave her a surprised look. He knew Lisa, the girl who came between two brothers.

When Arianna was still in New York, she had asked him to investigate her but then she had asked him not to after she left Brandon's life but now she was back.

"She's causing a lot of havoc here already, I want her out," Arianna said.

"What do you want me to do?" Micheal asked.

"I need you to dig up some dirt that I can use against her. I need to know where she's been all this time, who she's been with, what she's up to, and most importantly why she came back" Arianna said and Micheal nodded in response.

"I'll do as you've said ma'am," He said and just then he heard his phone ring. He stared at the caller's ID and then ended the call. It was a call from the White House, he was on his way there before Arianna called him and he decided to come see her first.

"I would be on my way, ma'am," he said and she nodded. Just as he was about to leave, Arianna called his name, making him pause.

He turned to her.

"Thank you, Micheal, thank you for everything and for always coming whenever I call," she said and a wide smile appeared on his face.

"It's my pleasure," he said and with that, he walked out of the room.

Meanwhile, the kids are seen downstairs playing when they suddenly see Jessica and Matthew climbing down the stairs.

The kids stared at each other.

"They are always together" Allison muttered and Jessica rolled her eyes.

"I heard you Allison," Jessica said and Allison smiled.

"Hello Aunty Jessica," Aubrey said as she moved towards them and then sat with them.

"Hello sweethearts" Jessica muttered and they all stared at her with confused expressions on their faces. They wondered why she was sitting with them, she'd never sat with them and smiled at them.

The last time they sat together was a long time ago.

They turned to Matthew who was smiling at them.

"Uhm Matthew, I think I left my phone in my room, can you help me get it?" She asked and Matthew nodded before walking away. Jessica then turned to the kids who were giving her a strange look.

"I know Brandon is going to kill me when he finds out about this but I have to do this," Jessica said and the kids stared at her still confused.

"I need all of your help," Jessica said and the kids stared at each other wondering what help she needed and why she was asking for their help.

"What do you need our help with?" Jayden asked. Of course, he was the head and the spokesman, Jessica thought.

"You know how you frustrated your dad the day I asked you guys to. I need you to do the same to someone but this time it would be a lot worse " Jessica said and the kids hummed and stared at each other then whispered among themselves before turning to Jessica.

"Okay, but we want something else I return," they said and Jessica raised her eyebrows.

"Are you trying to negotiate with me?" She asked surprised.

"You want something, and we want something in return, it's business," Allison said and Jessica stared at them speechlessly.

"Don't worry, it's something simple," Aubrey added.

She had no choice but to give them What they wanted.

"Okay, what do you guys want?"

Chapter 240

Chapter 240

"Okay, what do you guys want?" Jessica asked.

"Simple, we want you to prepare us Chicken soup, potato chips, pancakes, fried chicken, pasta and meatballs and rice. We want you to prepare them for us today" they said and Jessica smiled. "I thought you guys were going to ask for something impossible. It's easy, consider it done. I would ask the maid to prepare it" Jessica said and stood up. The kids gave her a weird look, she wondered what was wrong.

"What?" She asked.

"We don't want the maids to prepare it, we want you to prepare it," they said and the look on Jessica's face became a horrific one:

"What? I can't cook, you don't expect me to go into the kitchen and start cooking when there are tons of maids to do it" Jessica said and the kids shrugged.

"Okay, ask the maid to do everything then. We can't do what you are asking for " Addison said and they looked away from her and continued what they were doing before she came.

She gritted her teeth, what she asked them was to help her frustrate Lisa and now they are trying to frustrate her instead, wow, she thought.

"I would love to but I don't know how to cook," she said and the kids stared at each other.

"You could learn it online or ask grandma for directions, you could ask my mom too, she cooks good food, "Jasper said and Jessica sighed.

"Besides, we need strength for the kind of job you are asking us to do. So we need food which gives strength" Audrey said and Jessica clenched her fist.

"Okay fine, you would get the food today, and you would do what I asked for. Do we have a deal?" she asked and the kids smiled.

"A deal is a deal," Jayden said and Jessica rolled her eyes.

"Don't forget to make fresh orange and apple juice too" Jamie said with a smile on his face.

"And most importantly, please it should have taste and we do not want to visit the toilet regularly after eating the food. You know what we are talking about" Jason said and Jessica hummed.

Are they trying to mock me that I do not know how to cook? She hummed and just then she saw Matthew climbing down the stairs.

"Hey, here's the phone," he said as he gave her the phone but he couldn't help but notice the look on her face.

"What's wrong?" Matthew asked.

"Nothing, I'm perfectly fine and happy" she smiled as she gritted her teeth and stared at the kids who were smiling at them.

"Is the car key with you? We are going to the grocery store downtown to get some foodstuff" Jessica said and Matthew stared at her confused and surprised at the same time. "Foodstuff, for what?" He asked.

"I'm going to be preparing dinner this evening, I feel so generous," she said, forcing herself to smile.

"But I thought you said you hate cooking?" Matthew asked and Jessica smiled and touched his shoulder.

"Honey, I'm feeling generous and want to cook for the whole family today," she said with a smile on her face.

"Not the whole family, just us Aunt Jessica" Allison said Jessica pointed a finger at her with a smile on her face and then walked out of the house.

Matthew stared at the kids and wondered what was going on. He then walked out of the house trailing behind Jessica.

Meanwhile, Lisa had left the house for the saloon to fix her hair. She showed the hair stylist the kind of style she wanted and it was exactly the style on Hannah's hair.

A straight long black hair. The difference was that it was Hannah's natural hair but hers was gonna be a wig that looked like her hair.

After she was done, she smiled at the hairstylist. She's done a good job and for that, she gave her a tip and with that, she walked out of the saloon.

The moment she walked out, she placed a call to her best friend Jules, so they could go shopping. She needed to get some mini sexy wear. She was about to set the house on fire with her new hot looks.

It wasn't long before her best friend Jules came in a cab. She entered the cab and smiled when she saw Jules.

"You look different and what happened to your face?" Jules asked.

"Yeah, I changed my hair. Hannah pulled my hair and pushed me in the pool today. She bit me" she said and Jules placed her hands on her mouth with surprise written all over her face.

"What?" She muttered.

"It's fine, I'm going to handle her. She's small compared to the people I have dealt with in the past" Lisa said and Jules smiled.

"So, how is Lucas treating you? The last time I saw him, he almost choked me to death" Jules said with an eye roll.

"I have got him handled. He thinks I came back for him and that I love him. He doesn't know it's Brandon I came for. Damn! He was all over me all the time seeking attention like some two years old craving mommy's attention. It annoys me" she said and Jules scoffed.

"That's how men are when they are in love with you. If you ask for my opinion, Lucas still loves you and is willing to start over after everything, why not just focus on him, it's rare to see men who love someone this day" Jules said and Lisa rolled her eyes.

"It's Brandon I want and no one else," she said, and just then the cab came to a stop in front of the boutique. They paid the cab man before walking inside the boutique.

"So, what kind of dress are we shopping?" Jules asked.

"A mini hot, sexy, transparent, and attractive dress that I can wear for Brandon.

I want something that will make him so attracted to me that he would not be able to say no to my charms. Something that would make him go crazy over me" TBC
