

The Alpha Claimed Me Deeply Chapter 14

14

(Aurora's pov) Why am I here? I didn't know the answer to that as well I thought I was going the right path to avoid stumbling on his pock. Only to end up in his captive. The thumb probing my center, slowly as is almost reluctantly slips out of my entrance and his touch is no longer on me. I find my body yearning for more of it even though my mind was setting alarms to stay away from that dangerous wolf. "You're innocent," He hums and I could hear the sound of sucking Taking the chance to perk up behind me, I reddened in embarrassment when I noticed he was sucking the thumb that just moments ago came out of me, "If you were one of a vampire lord's concubine then you would surely not have been innocent." He notes with his deep gaze set on the spot between my thighs. I clench them in hopes of stopping the intense throbbing,

I wasn't sure how to stop it since this has never happened to me before.

Why was he not killing me like everyone said he would?

What was he waiting for?

"It's practically impossible for a wolf, much less an Alpha to be mated to any other species than that of their own."

His previous words crept into my head and instilled confusion in me.

Should I ask him what he meant by those words? Would he punish me if I spoke?

I didn't want to risk my neck being flown off just because I decided to question the powerful Alpha male.

"How old are you Aurora?" His sudden question made me still. Should I tell him my real age? It would be no point in lying about my age, lying would get me nowhere but a hole in the ground with dirt covering me.....if they even show me that much decency. So I bit my tongue then spoke the truth. "Seventeen, Alpha Xavier." Alpha Xavier hums, then suddenly his eyes snap to mine. I bit my tongue and quickly pull my eyes back to face the wall in front of me. He had seen me watching him sucking his thumb. Was he going to kill me now for looking at him without permission?

I yelp when a palm so big and hard lands on my left bottom. It stung yet shoots a ton of tingles to my core that in response got even wetter. "I do not like when I am being watched while tasting my meal." He grumbles and just his voice alone makes my knees go numb without feeling. They shook, nearly having me collapse

His words. They were dirty

I may not know wolves much but I knew a man who I would lead Anil Alpha Xavier was not only a man with a bite The only question left in the air was wiry me?

How could he have lit such a desire in an Alpha so powerful

He grunted and I shivered in fear when he turned around,

"He interested and complied almost instantly

I couldn't hold his stare, He either did I feel I was allowed to The amber swirls were during 100 much, I feared I would be scorched

"Sally young. Just on the brink of the age female unmated wolves find their mates" he

"Do you know how old male wolves need to be, to find their mates Alpha?"

I should Why was he asking me those questions?

This was basic knowledge that a female wolf finds her mate when she matures

That was knew I'll never have one seeing, as wolves are only mated to their own kind

But if I were to tell him the truth, would he automatically think I was deceiving him about not knowing much about wolves? Would my head be on a platter soon in don't all work?

I didn't want to find out the answer to the last question so I answered.

"I'm not very young in the age, but do know they find their mates very young.”

This was all the truth, I just needed to keep acting like I don't know about wolves. Maybeth e figures out I'm no threat, he'd lot mojo, But that seems unlikely sincelic looks hell bent on finding out what exactly laun Illind slightly when he suddenly takes a hold of my hand and jorks me forward. I nearly stumbled onto his broad chest. “Who did this to your hand?” His growl was threatening and raised an alarm in my head to flee before I'm torn into pieces

I looked down at the hand he has grasped in his much bigger on the samchand Gomery had pushed into the hot brew. The skin was still red and irritated but at least it hadn't peeled off and revealed flesh. I was a miracle

“No one,” I lied and hoped the fear in my voice was hidden. I wasn't very rood at lying, suckal it in fact

His touch was electrifying and it got worst when his rip became gentle Odd Very od

“Lies!” He blasted, so opposite of his touch, I squirmed under his size and leave my eyes on m y hand

Il tell him the truth, I'd be done for

“I swear I'm not lying Alpha Xavier.lbum may hand by being careless. No one had done it tom

Could he just drop it?

And why did he care anyway?

Alpha Xavier wrenches away from me and paced the room. I stay confused, peeking under my lashes to look at him. He looks angry, his eyes red and canines peeking out. He was trying to reign in his wolf Heturns away from me suddenly and marches towards the door With his hand on the handle, he hisses out. “Get dressed and stay in here I will be back with some healing balm for your hand”

With that, the door slams behind him, shaking with his mere force 1 stay rooted where I am Confused by his actions and words.

Healing balm? Why did he want to heal my hand?

This doesn't make any sense. The rumors said he was a ferocious beast who kills for sport. I saw what he had done to the rogue woman, so they were not lying about him being a murderer. But why was he trying to help me, and not kill me right away?

Why did he still have me here? Even with my thoughts jumbling together to create a web of confusion, I turned away from the door and got dressed. I rather follow his order than suffer the consequences of not doing as she told me to.
