Savannah's POV

We walked at the back door of the pack house. Hardwick opened the door revealing a beautiful yard. He led me outside and I smiled when the fresh scent of flowers hit me like before. I don't feel like puking again. But these scents make me relax.

"It's beautiful. I never knew there's also a beautiful yard behind the pack house"

"This is a secret. Others didn't know about it and the back door was always locked" he replied.

"Locked? Why?" I frowned.

He looked at me then smiled. Without replying he walked towards the small flower bush and plucked a yellow flower. I looked at him with confusion. What is he doing? He walked back and tugged the flower in my hair.

"Now you look more beautiful," he whispered.

"Hardwi-" he slammed his lips on mine before I could finish his name. The warmth of his mouth melted in mine when he forced his tongue and sucked the hell out of me. I moaned and held his shoulder for support. My knees go weak and if I don't hold him I would fall right on the ground. He sneaked his arms around my waist pulling me tightly in his embrace. Our body pressed to each other as we kissed like there's no tomorrow.

He bit my bottom lip then sucked it before thrusting his tongue again. I tried to fight with him but he didn't let me take dominance and massaged my inner cheeks with his tongue like he is claiming his territory and I had to give him all the liberty to process. I don't know how long we kissed before he finally let me take a breath. I panted as I tried to capture some air in my lungs. God this man always knows how to leave me in such a state.

"You are so beautiful and I can't help but kissing you hard"

I blushed at his comment. I looked up and threw a glare while he just smirked at me.

"Where are we?" I asked him, trying to change the topic. It was all a sweet and lovely atmosphere but this man had to change it into a hot and passionate one.

"I told you I want to show you something"

I nodded looking at him. He smiled and held my shoulders before turning me around. My eyes widened as I looked in front. Oh my god there's a small beautiful house in the middle of a flower garden. I didn't expect that there would be a house either. Why didn't I see it before?

"A house?" I asked.

"No, a beautiful memory," he replied.

"I can't understand"

"You will, now come" he held my hand and led me towards the house. There was a small wooden fence gate then a small path leading to the house. The area was so beautiful like a dream. There are different types of flowers covering the house. The dark yellow-red coloured house looks beautiful. Once we reached the door he unlocked the door then opened it.

As I stepped inside a gasp escaped when I saw the house from inside. The walls are covered with photo frames. In a different style. There was a woman, a man and a cute baby boy in the photos.

"What's this?" I asked as I reached out, touching one of the photos hanging on the wall. The woman looked so beautiful. Her brown hair was flowing like a river where her eyes were shining as she smiled.

"Who is she?"

"You can't guess?" Hardwick stood behind me gazing at the photo. She? Who could it be? I frowned then something hit my head.

"Your mom?"

"Hmm..."

"She is so beautiful"

"Indeed"

"And that is your dad" I pointed to another photo where there was a picture of a middle aged man. He was handsome with brown eyes. Looks like Hardwick inherited those beautiful brown orbs from his father.

"Yes, he is my dad Neel Leon and she is my mom Idris Leon"

"They are really a beautiful couple," I smiled.

"They have a good romantic story. I don't know much but I heard some of it"

I turned around and looked at him with curiosity. He raised his eyebrows then chuckled “are you interested darling?”

I nodded “tell me please”

“Come” he held my hand and led me towards the living room where a set of couches were placed with a glass tea-table in the center.

“Mom was a member of the enemy pack I guess. When dad became Alpha he wanted to invade his enemies and kill them all so that there will be no troubles in future. But at the end of the war he met mom who was the daughter of his great enemy. When he got to know that mom was his mate dad was stunned but it didn’t let his grudges to keep down and killed his enemies”

“Oh god, what about your mom? I mean she lost her family” I gasped.

“That’s the point. Dad couldn’t leave mom and mom didn’t want to go with him. So dad kidnapped her forcefully and took her in the Dark Forest”

“Hm...your mom must be filled with hatred” I sighed.

Hardwick chuckled “Right. Even though they are mates they couldn’t wait to strangle each other”

“They must be fighting frequently”

“They are” he replied “Dad was kind of arrogant and he wouldn’t bow to anyone no matter who it is and mom was always stubborn. She would not give in easily. One day dad brought a woman, actually not in that way but he needed her to deal with one of his enemies. But that woman took his action wrongly and flirted with him. At then when that woman reached dad’s room Mom saw her”

“Your mom stayed in the same room as your dad?” I frowned.

Hardwick hugged me tightly from behind “no matter what your mate should sleep in the same room baby. This is the rule so dad will keep mom in his room for sure”

“Then what happened next?”

“Well that woman thought mom was another woman who was kept to warm dad’s bed. So she insulted mom and said she could leave the room because dad won’t be needing mom anymore”

“Really what your mom did then? An outsider really had the gut to have such an attitude like that?” I shook my head.

“Well I must say she had bad luck. Because mom was already frustrated because dad was keeping her against her will and now adding fuel in the fire another woman showed up insulting her” he chuckled again “I really wanted to see mom in her that fierce look”

I rolled my eyes “stop keeping clip hangers just tell me about it” I slapped his arm.

“Fuck” he hissed “fine, mom was already so angry because of the current situation so she strangled that woman at once without any words being said”

“Strangled? ” Hearing the word an instant image flashed in my mind. That day when Daisy came to confront me I was about to strangle her to death.

“Yeah, that woman thought she was a wolf but couldn’t get out of her mom’s hold. By the time dad arrived in the room he saw mom was eating an apple. When he asked about the woman mom showed him the window”

“Did she throw her out of the window?”

“Exactly so”

“Wow, you mom is So cool” I grinned.

“Cool?” He grabbed my jaw and tilted my head so that I could look at him sideways “what about you?”

“What about me?”

“What would you have done if you were in mom’s place?”

“You want to know?”

“Mom killed the one in anger and what would you do if you were her?”

“I would chop off the body into pieces then hung it at the entrance gate”

Hardwick threw his head back, laughed and I rolled my eyes.

“Do you think I am joking here?”

“Definitely not,” he grinned.

“What I said is true. If there’s a day like that then you would see that side of mine” I huffed.

“Though I am curious to see that fierce look of yours but no I don’t think I can”

“What?”

He smiled “that kind of thing won’t be happening so I won’t be getting the chance to see that?”

I smiled at him “who knows your handsome face always attracts women”

He smirked, “So you mean I am handsome?”

“You still want to hear it from my mouth?”

He chuckled “I like being praised you know”

“Yeah, I can see that” I rolled my eyes “so your dad didn’t say anything to your mom?”

“What would he say? Dad already knows what would happen if that woman meets mom. He even warned her not to go anywhere but that woman went to find her own doom” he shrugged.

“Hm... It’s good. How did they have feelings for eachother?”

“They stayed together for a year like strangers. Though dad looked ruthless from outside, he loved mom because she was his mate. And he wanted to make her his but because of mom’s negligence he couldn’t move forward. He wanted her to give herself willingly to him. So one day the pack was under attack by some rogues. It was an unexpected sneak attack. Dad was not prepared at all. Because of this the whole pack was busy fighting. The rogues were cunning and they prepared a second plan to defeat the whole pack. Dad was fighting and didn’t see his enemy were about to stand him from behind. But before the knife could stab dad it was blocked. Dad was surprised when he saw it but what surprised him more was the person who blocked it”

“It was your mom, wasn’t it?” I smiled thinking about the scene.

“Yeah. She blocked the knife and helped dad to win. Dad was already so into her and now that she saved his life it made him more amazed and he wanted to make her his in that moment. Later dad asked her why she saved him when she hated him to death. Mom said that even if she hated him she couldn’t see him die. Afterall he is her fated mate”

“Their love story is really strange. From enemies to lovers. I think that’s the day your mom started to have feelings for you dad?”

“Hm... I guess so. After that even if they still love like strangers they behaved normally” he nodded.

“And then?” I moved my body a little so that I could see his face. We were sitting on the couch while he was sitting behind me. I was almost lying on him while he held me tightly.

“Dad tried to put all his efforts in winning her heart. Starting from giving her flowers everyday to taking her on dates”

“It’s so sweet,” I smiled. He looked down at me smiling.

“You look like you’re getting more and more interested in their story?”

“I am. I mean I don’t have the chance to meet them but that doesn’t mean I couldn’t have any chance to know them” it said that Hardwick’s parents died and unfortunately he had to take over the Alpha title before coming to his average age.

“So you have to tell me about them” I poked his cheek.

He grabbed my finger and put it on his lips before kissing it “I will tell you everything I know. They had a long story and Sometimes when I was young dad used to tell me some incidents”

“Your dad used to tell you about his love life?” My eyes widened.

He nodded chuckling “weird right but dad was my best buddy before Ryan. He used to share everything starting from ruling techniques to his some personal affairs”

“You both were so close huh”

“We were,” he agreed, nodding. “Though the timespan was not long enough with them but whatever we had was enough to give me life long lessons” there was sadness in his tone.

My heart ached as I looked at him. Hardwick looks cold and strict from outside but he has his pain too. Losing his parents and taking over such a huge responsibility it’s not easy to deal with everything. I don’t even want to imagine what kind of hardships he went through all these years.

I grabbed his hand “I am with you now. I won’t leave you no matter what”

He held my hand tightly “I know. You are here, that’s why I am at peace. It has been so many years but I couldn’t find my mate and I was depressed. I almost thought I was not fated to have a mate, until that night when you fell into my arms is like a dream come true. I knew that you were mine right then. And I wanted to take you back to my pack but I knew I could not”

“Hardwick-” I don’t know what to say to him. His face suddenly became so emotional.

“Don’t say anything” he chuckled. “When I knew I had a mate I was so happy that I couldn’t wait to bring you back in my pack and shout to the world that I have a mate. Finally I am blessed with my mate. After my parents left I was alone. Ryan helped me to manage everything but when I walked into my room and found it cold and empty I felt lonely. It’s hard that I couldn’t show it to anyone but I had to make it hard for myself to deal with it. But not anymore. You are here with me and I want to cage you here in my arms forever. There’s no way I will let you go nor I will let anyone snatch you away from me” his face turned serious and there was a kind of determination flashing in his captivating brown orbs. I couldn’t help but feel my heart jump suddenly.

“I will never leave you, don’t worry,” I smiled. “So at the end your mom accepted your dad finally?”

“She had to because dad will never stop until she gives in. Nor would he let her go anyhow. She was already fated to him”

I chuckled “if I could I really wanted to see them fighting then their love converting into an endless romance”

“You really don’t want them to see darling. Did you forget our story started like that too” Hardwick chuckled. My face flushed as I thought about what happened to us when we first met.

Neel kidnapped Idris and Hardwick kidnapped me. Like his parents we also had fights at first. I never wanted to accept this second chance but I also didn’t have a choice either. Whether I want it or not but I was tied to him the moment I rejected my first mate.

I sighed “at that time I was heart broken. Whatever happened in my ex pack I really could not move on and let myself free from those past torture. At first I wanted to reject this second bond but somehow in my heart never let me do it. Then you showed me what love is. Those care, tenseness and sweet talks and your endearments...” I chuckled “I couldn’t help but fall for you at the end”

“Good that’s my motto too. I would never let you leave in this life”

“So this house is the memory of your parents?” I looked around. The whole living room was filled with photos.

“Dad built it for mom. He said he wanted to create a memory that will never fade even if they were not here in the future”

I nodded “your dad really loved you mom. I can see it in his actions” It’s so sweet that he made a house filled with the photos as a memory.

“Oh” He clicked his tongue “so you mean you can’t see my love through my actions?”

I laughed “are you jealous mister?”

He brought me here and told me about his parents. How can I ever doubt him and his love for me.

“I have better ways to show you. Do you wanna see?” He smirked.

I frowned “stop it. Is this the right place to do that? Respect your parents” I glared at him.

He laughed “then let’s go back. I want to show you how much I love you”

Before I could ask he pulled me up with him. Just as I stood up my head spinned suddenly and my vision got blurred. I couldn’t see anything. It’s all like spinning. Dizziness filled my body and I leaned on his chest holding my head.

“What happened? Are you okay?” I heard his concerned voice.

“I....” I couldn’t finish as my mind drifted to darkness. But before I could lose my mind completely I heard Hardwick roar.

“SAVANNAH”

Claiming His Tempting Mate novel chapter 62

Hardwick’s POV

I stared at the woman on the bed lying like a lifeless body. If I couldn’t sense her slow breathing I would have thought that she was dead. She was all good and healthy a few minutes ago. Then how come she suddenly ended up lying on bed pale and lifeless? The pack doctor checked her pulse then checked her heartbeat. She put down the stethoscope in her medical box then sighed.

“What happened? Why did she suddenly pass out without any reason?” I frowned.

The pack doctor turned around and looked at me “Alpha, nothing happens unreasonably. Every action has its own cause”

I rolled my eyes “Did I ask you to lecture me about cause and effects? I want you to tell me the reason why my mate suddenly fainted” I gritted my teeth.

“Oh yes” she grinned “the reason is definitely you”

I was shocked “what? Me? How come it’s me?”

What the fucking hell is she talking about? How come I became the reason for my mate's faint?

"Of course it's you. Her HCG levels are high. Estrogen and progesterone will cause some effects in her body. She may feel tired and weak. But that's fine, it will happen anyway" the doctor nodded her head.

"What?" I barked at her. What the fuck?

"What the fuck you are talking about? Why don't you just say it in simple words?" I growled as I took a step forward.

"Hey, relax. Don't forget I am a doctor here" Sadie strengthened her doctor dress then sighed "um...what I meant to say that congratulations"

"Congratulations for what?"

She grinned "because you are soon be a daddy"

"What a big deal abo-" my words stopped in the middle when I realised what she said just now. Did she just utter the 'daddy' word?

I looked at her totally shocked "did you just? Just said daddy?"

"I won't lie to you" Sadie grinned "I must say you are quite fast you know. Your mate just entered the pack yet you already made her pregnant?"

I rolled my eyes "fuck off"

If she weren't my good friend then I would have strangled her for speaking in that way. But Sadie is a funny and lively girl. She devoted herself to the medical line and became a pack doctor.

"Don't be so rude, Alpha. You are about to become a dad. How could you always stay so angry? Your kids will run out of scare" she joked.

"I didn't find it hilarious enough" I have her cold look.

"I was not joking you know" she raised her hands.

"Good, you are smart enough at least"

"I know that" she turned and picked her medical box "she is sleeping now. I have given her the injection, it will help her body to relax. I will come and check on her when she is awake. Till then you can rest too. You look like about to pass out too" she laughed then walked towards the door.

“By the way Alpha, congratulations again” she smiled then walked out.

The grin on my face couldn't fade as I thought about this matter again and again. She is pregnant. My mate is pregnant. I couldn't believe it. Finally I am going to have my family. I walked towards her and sat on the bed. Holding her hand I kissed it lovingly then my eyes fell on her flat abdomen. My child will be growing up there. I can imagine the little bud in its mom's womb. I leaned down and kissed her abdomen. I couldn't wait to hold my baby. Finally after so many years my dream is about to be fulfilled.

“Thank you for this my love” I kissed Savannah's lips lightly. Her steady breathing echoed in my ear.

“You don't have any idea what you have given to me. I couldn't find myself happier than this. I almost thought I would have to spend my time alone, for eternity but you proved me wrong. You came into my life like an angel then lit it up with your light. Bathing it with happiness and peace. How am I going to thank you for this?” I said and I kissed her forehead.

“I will never let you down. I will take care of you until I have my last breath. You and our baby, the most precious gift in my life baby” I whispered in her ear as I planted a kiss on her cheek.

I couldn't contain my happiness. There was a sudden knock on the door. Then the door pushed open revealing Ryan and Jenny. They both looked concerned.

“What happened? I heard Luna fainted?” He asked then looked at Savannah.

I kissed her hand again before getting up from bed. Shoving my hands in my pant pockets I smiled at them.

“Yeah, we were at the back when she suddenly passed out”

“And you look happy?” He frowned “don't tell me you have anything to do with this”

“Actually it has everything to do with me,” I added.

“What?” Ryan looked shocked “what did you do?”

“Something special” I grinned.

“What the fuck man? ” Ryan rolled his eyes. Jenny looked at us with confusion.

“She is pregnant,” I confessed.

“Yes I know she is-” WHAT?” Ryan's jaw dropped on the floor.

“What did you say?” He still looked so unconvinced.

“I said we are about to have a baby” I repeated.

“Fuck, you are” he shook his head “hell you are too good. So fast”

I rolled my eyes and Jenny slapped his arm.

“What are you talking about?” She looked at me “congratulations Master. It is such a great news”

I smiled “thanks Jenny”

“How about Mistress? Is she alright?” Her face was showing great concern.

I nodded “she is fine. The doctor gave her an injection so she is sleeping now”

“It’s good to hear. Since everything is fine then we will visit once Mistress wake up”

I nodded. Jenny turned to Ryan who still looked shocked.

“What are you doing? Congratulate them” she scolded him then smiled before walking out.

“It’s ...” Ryan shook his head “congratulations buddy” he hugged me. “I never thought I would become an uncle before I could become a dad” he sighed.

I smirked “so you were planning to impregnate Jenny?”

“Fuck. I just couldn’t wait to start a family. But hell you beat me” he looked so regretful “I shouldn’t have waited two months in pursuing her” he shook his head.

“Well it’s all about luck” I smirked again. He threw a glare at me.

“Anyways I am still glad. I can fucking spoil the little prince or princess” he grinned.

I rolled my eyes “fuck off”

“Easy man. I am going. I need to make babies too” then before I could say he left.

I shook my head but there was a smile on my face. I turned and looked at my mate. After thinking for a while I removed my shoes and shirt then slid in the duvet and laid next to her. Pulling her to me I closed my eyes while the clouds of peace covered my mind.

Savannah’s POV

I woke up feeling tired. I don't know why I am feeling this sudden tiredness? What happened to me? I looked around and found it's my room. I tried to sit but something stopped me. I looked around and found a large hand holding my waist securely. It was not pressing me tightly like usual but today it was just placed lightly on my waist. I sighed. How did I end up here? Last time I was still in the flower garden house talking about his parent's romantic life. The. I suddenly felt my head spinning.

"You are awake?" I felt Hardwick stirred behind me.

"Hm..... How did I end up here?"

"You fainted back in the house so I brought you here and have the doctor check on you" he replied as he sat on the bed. I also sat and he placed a pillow on my back.

"How are you feeling? " He asked.

"I am fine but I feel tired"

"It happens. She said about it" he nodded.

I frowned at him "what are you saying? Who told you?"

He smiled "Sadie, the pack doctor said about it"

I shook my head "it's not about today. I have been feeling from past few days"

"Why didn't you tell me?" He frowned.

"I..." I felt guilty suddenly "you stayed so busy all these days. I thought it's about some important matter of pack so I didn't want to bother you with this small matter"

"Never" he shook his head "it's never a small matter when it comes to you and your health. Promise me you will tell me whatever happens in future. Not a single matter should be left behind. Do you understand?"

I nodded weakly "okay"

"You need to take good care of yourself now. Besides this time it's not only about you and there's also someone too"

"What? " I couldn't understand his words. What he is talking about. There's also someone too? Someone who?

"Hardwick, what are you talking about? And what do you mean by someone?"

“You still didn’t get it love?” He tilted his head smiling at me. And I found this action cute. God he is handsome and also cute sometimes.

“Get what?” I asked him. Since I woke up he has been behaving weirdly. I really can’t understand what happened to him. He is not a kind of person who talks irrelevant topics without any rhyme or reason.

“I have something to share with you”

“What is it?”

“I thought only I could have you. Your time, your mind, your body and your heart. But I was totally wrong because there’s something that I forgot . But today I realised that and it’s all thanks to you”

I frowned at his words “what are you trying to say? I am already yours”

He shook his head “no, you are not mine alone”

Suddenly I felt frustrated with him. What the fuck is he trying to say now? I am not his. He never said anything like this then why he is blabbering this kind of idiotic words?

“What are you trying to say? Are you trying to irritate me now? If yes then you won” I huffed snapping at him.

He chuckled “you are moody darling”

I glared at him. My mood dropped and anger raged in my heart “since you are so interested in entertainment then get out and find something that can entertain you. Because I am not really in the mood to serve you” I turned my head to the other side.

“Why are you so angry darling?” He smirked instead of getting angry.

“Are you not tired of irritating me?”

“No, actually I need to tell you something”

“What?” I rolled my eyes. Even after saying so many things he still has to tell me?

He didn’t replied immediately but took my hand in his and kissed it lightly “I want to thank you first”

I looked at him. A sudden tenderness born in my heart with his action. All the bitterness I had a few seconds ago suddenly started to fade, replaced by sweetness. But I didn’t let it show on my face. I will never give him this satisfaction.

“Thank you for coming into my life and lighting it up with happiness. I never thought I would get such love and care but you proved me wrong and made me so happy that I couldn’t ask for more” he looked up smiling “and all of this happened because of you. No matter how much I thank you, it won’t be enough”

“Hardwick, what happened? You are this emotional so suddenly?” I asked softly. His words melted my heart in an instant. To be honest I don’t have any control over my mood now. I don’t know why I suddenly become so angry and the next moment I am emotional.

He chuckled “because I am happy. I couldn’t contain my happiness”

“What made you so happy?”

He cupped my face and looked at me with extreme tenderness on his face “you made me so happy darling. You made me so happy, you made my life complete”

“What?” I frowned.

“Baby, you are pregnant” he chuckled.

My heart dropped and my eyes widened in shock. What? Pregnant? I am pregnant? For a moment I couldn’t believe what I heard. I am pregnant? Oh my god I am pregnant. It was a huge bomb that blew my mind and my heart at the same time.

“What did you just say?” I asked not believing at all.

“You are pregnant,” he smiled.

“You ...” I stammered then suddenly a smile replaced my shock. I am pregnant.

“I am pregnant?”

He nodded rapidly “yes, our first baby is growing in here” he placed his hand on my flat abdomen. I touched my belly over his hand. Happy tears rolled from my eyes. I couldn’t contain my happiness. Oh my god, I am pregnant.

“Our baby” I grinned while he smiled. He joined our forehead.

“Thank you for this gift baby. It’s priceless” he whispered. His voice is almost fading.

“Thank you too. I never thought that waking up, I will hear this news”

“I was so scared when you fainted and I almost thought I lost you. I even scolded Sadie because you weren’t waking up. But when she revealed that you are pregnant I didn’t know how to react for a moment. I don’t know how to thank you for this”

I hugged him "it's not only me but us. Thank you for this"

He pulled back and smiled "you need to take good care of yourself. Now it's not only about you but also about her baby. I am already so excited to see our baby and hold him or her in my arms" he chuckled at the end.

I smiled "you are already so eager mister"

"I am " he admitted nodding "Sadie will come again to check on you. Now that you are pregnant she will stay by your side so that she can take good care of you. As a doctor she knows better about your condition"

I nodded "okay"

"If you need anything, you just have to tell me okay"

"I will," I nodded again. "Does everyone know about it?"

He shook his head "they knows that you passed out but they don't know about your pregnancy except Ryan, Jenny and Sadie"

"Hardwick, can we keep this secret?"

He frowned "you don't want anyone to know? Why?"

"Don't take it wrong" I said immediately "I don't know why but Delaney and Daisy's action made my heart restless. I felt like something big was about to happen. So I don't want others to know about my condition. You know enemies only attack to the weak point. And if it gets spread then maybe others could take advantage of it. Besides since I am pregnant I couldn't fight with others heavily. So to avoid problems we need to keep this secret for time being" I explained. I really don't want him to take my words the wrong way.

He pondered for a while seriously before finally nodding his head "since that's what you want them we will do it in your way then. I just want you and our baby to be safe and sound" saying that he placed a soft kiss on my forehead.

"I also want this. We have got another responsibility" I smiled.

He chuckled "yes a big one"

There was happiness shining in his captivating eyes "I am planning to arrange crowning ceremony for you"

"What?" I was surprised.

He nodded "it's already enough time for you to get adjusted in the pack. Though the whole pack knows about you but since the pack has two parts I want them to know about it too. So I have decided to make it official"

"Are you serious?"

"100%"

I looked at him for a moment then nodded slightly "since you have decided it then it's fine with me"

"Thank you. It won't be hard don't worry"

"Okay"

There's a knock on the door and we both looked at it.

"Come in" Hardwick replied and the door pushed open revealing a beautiful red-haired woman in white cloth. She was holding a box and wearing gloves in her hand. She walked in with a smile on her face.

"You are awake, Luna," she smiled.

Hardwick got up from bed and stood in front of me giving us some space. The woman sat on the bed then opened her medical box. She looked up and smiled brightly.

"Hello Luna, I am Sadie Young your doctor"

Claiming His Tempting Mate novel chapter 63

Savannah's POV

"Baby, she is the pack doctor. Since you are pregnant she will be guiding you until you give birth" Hardwick said gently.

"I am OB, ah I mean An obstetrician. You can rest assured about your health and the baby. I will take a good care of you" Sadie smiled as she placed the medical box on the table "I need to take your blood samples so that I can perform a test to check your pregnancy status"

I nodded "please go ahead"

"Thank you" she opened the box then pulled out a syringe and small tube bottle. She took some cotton then added a liquid on it before rubbing it on my arm.

“Fist your fingers” she said as she checked my pulse then inserted the needle of the syringe in my skin. I hissed as the needle sting in my skin.

“Can’t you do that gently” Hardwick growled beside me. He rubbed my back gently.

“I can’t help it” Sadie rolled her eyes then pressed the cotton ball where she inserted the tip of the needle then pulled out the needle carefully. She rubbed the area and told me to fold my arm. I did as she said.

“I will give you the results in the evening” she put back the blood sample in her box before looking at me “you don’t have to worry. Once I check your status I will see if I can perform ultrasound”

“Can’t it be done soon?” Hardwick asked.

“No, it depends on how long she is pregnant. Even if we do, you can’t see anything at all if your baby is in the shape of a small bud” she laughed, making Hardwick roll his eyes.

I looked at them and smiled “you both look so free to each other?”

“You have told her Alpha?” Sadie looked at him. While Hardwick gave her a poker face.

She rolled her eyes then smiled at me “we are a good friends you know”

“Good friends?” I expected that. No one in the pack dares to speak so freely to Hardwick. They don’t even dare to look at him. But Sadie didn’t even care about Hardwick’s growl just now, like she is familiar with such actions.

“She is Ryan’s sister,” Hardwick replied.

I turned to him “I never knew that he has a sister who is also a pack doctor”

“We are not biological actually” Sadie said smiling “I am the daughter of Ryan’s dad’s close friend. Because of war my parents died and I was taken here. I was 14 years that time and from that on I am living here”

“Now that makes sense,” I nodded.

“She is weird, don’t give much attention to her” Hardwick whispered.

“Hey” Sadie barked and I chuckled.

“Is your work done?” He asked.

“Why?” Sadie looked at him, narrowing her eyes.

“You can just get lost”

She rolled her eyes “not gonna happen. Whether you like it or not I am gonna stick to Luna like glue. So you don’t really have much choice here” she smirked, making him groan.

“Fuck off” Hardwick glared at her angrily. Instead of getting scared Sadie smiled charmingly then picked up her medical box.

“I need to test the blood. So I will take my leave now. Once I get the results I will provide you with required supplements” then she left hurriedly.

I turned to Hardwick who was still sulking. I chuckled looking at his face “you never said you have such a lovely lady as a doctor”

“Is she someone to be proud of?” He frowned.

I laughed “looking at her I would like to think in that way”

He rolled his eyes “don’t talk about her now. She is really crazy sometimes”

“Oh, then what do you want to talk about?” I smiled.

“Our baby” he placed his hand on my belly “is growing in there. My little pup” he grinned.

My little pup~ it sounds so great.

I looked at his smiling face. He looked so happy and content. Looks like the news of my pregnancy had him go insane with happiness. I never thought that this pregnancy would make him so happy.

“Hardwick, are you happy?” I asked, looking at his expression.

He looked up “of course I am. I have been dreaming of having my own family. Now it’s finally going to be fulfilled, how wouldn’t I be happy?”

“I can’t express my happiness in words, ” he added, shaking his head. Before I knew it he pulled me for a hug. I snuggled into his warm embrace leaning on his hard chest.

“Thank you for giving this huge gift”

“Thank you too”

He kissed my forehead lovingly. His warm lips lingered on it for a minute before it pulled away. I looked up and could see the glee shimmering in his eyes. We were only two and now soon we are going to be three.

"I need to inform mom dad too"

He nodded "okay"

I was about to pick up my phone when the door burst open revealing Ryan and Jenny. Jenny was holding a flower bouquet and a smile on her face.

"Wow, wow, wow. So the soon to be momma is up" Ryan said grinning widely.

"Congratulations Mistress" Jenny handed me the flowers.

"Thank you" I smiled.

"I thought I could beat him but I never thought he will be this fast" Ryan grinned then smirked at Hardwick.

"Huh, beat what?" I frowned.

Ryan gave a knowing look to Hardwick while Hardwick just gave a raised eyebrow.

"What's happening?" I frowned.

Ryan smirked at me "Luna, soon there will be little Alpha running around the whole pack. I thought I could beat Alpha in this matter but who could have known that he would beat me first. I must say Alpha is really fast"

My face flushed as I blushed.

"Looks like you are too free to talk about this nonsense" Hardwick told him with a poker face.

"I am working too hard, how could I be free?" Ryan retorted.

"Oh, what are you working at?" Hardwick raised an eyebrow.

"Making babies," Ryan replied. This time Jenny blushed. Her face turned red suddenly. She bit her lips and threw a glare at Ryan who was grinning shamelessly.

"What are you saying? Is that something to joke about?" She slapped Ryan's arm angrily.

“What? I am telling the truth. See, even Luna is pregnant. When are you going to give me that good news too?” He frowned.

“You are ridiculous. I can’t win talking to you” Jenny huffed. She turned to me “I am sorry. He is kind of shameless” saying that she glared at Ryan before walking out of the room.

“Hey, how can you leave me like that? Jen, wait” Ryan looked restless “I am leaving now” then he ran away.

“He really got a load in his hand” Hardwick commented.

“Jenny was so embarrassed right now” I shook my head.

Hardwick rolled his eyes “that man always talk like this without thinking”

“Jenny was angry”

“Let them handle their own matters. Besides, Ryan was quite fascinated about having kids. That man torturing the poor girl whenever he gets chance” he smirked.

I rolled my eyes “do you really have to say that bluntly? You have no concern for Jenny”

“My concern is only for you, my love. And I don’t need to worry about Jenny. She has Ryan to do that for her and you know she is in good hands so even if he torture her it won’t hurt her” Hardwick shrugged.

“Fine, I won’t talk about them anymore. I need to call mom and tell her the news” I smiled. I really want to see their reactions. Tanea is pregnant and now if I tell her that I am also pregnant then what will be their reaction?

“They will be happy to hear that” he said looking at me.

I nodded “Tanea is also pregnant. It added elation in their lives. And I am really excited to see their reactions when they will know about my pregnancy” I grinned at the end.

“Since you are so excited then go for it” he smiled.

“Right” I grabbed my phone.

“But before you do that I want to tell you something”

“Yeah, what is it?” I asked, looking at him.

“I am done arranging your crowning ceremony. Since you are pregnant I need to speed up”

“You have arranged it? When?”

“This eclipse. It is the best day to announce your crowning. And we can announce about your pregnancy to the whole pack”

“This eclipse? When is it?”

“2 days later”

My eyes widened “what? 2 days later? Isn’t it too fast?”

2 days later? Oh my god everything is going so fast? I am not even prepared for it.

“Fast? How come it become so fast? It’s already too late. I should have done it long ago instead of waiting for it” he frowned.

“But just 2 days later?”

“Yeah, I just can’t wait to tell everyone that you are mine. My Luna, my queen” he leaned in whispering in my ear.

“I am already yours. And everyone knows that too” I shook my head. This man is always behaving so possessive.

“I know but I still need to do it. Everyone should know that you are mine. Inside the pack, outside the pack. Everyone needs to know it” Hardwick’s voice was so firm and manipulative that it made my heart race erotically. I looked into his dominating orbs and felt myself getting lost in it.

“But-”

“There’s no buts my love. All you need to do is get ready for the ceremony. As I said, I am not gonna wait anymore. No matter what. Everything is already decided”

I sighed. I can’t win with this man. He knows what he is doing. And I know he won’t stop until he does whatever he decides. So it’s a waste to talk about it anymore.

“Okay since you have already done the preparation I have nothing to say”

“Good. Now take a rest. I will prepare your evening meal”

I nodded and he kissed my temple before walking out of the room. I watched him leaving then sighed. He looked so excited about this ceremony. I don’t want to argue with him about it. Looking at his calm and happy face all my doubts and unwillingness ran away. Since he wants it then let it be. Besides whether it is 2 days later or a month later the results will be the same. So instead of worrying about it I need to worry about myself now. I have more important works to do. Thinking about things I looked at the phone screen then smiled widely.

“Hi mom. I hope everything is well there” I said through the phone.

“Everything’s fine here sweetheart. What about you? Are you okay?” Mom asked.

“I am good. I mean actually I wanted to talk about it”

“Savannah what happened to you dear?” Mom’s voice turned concern.

I chuckled “don’t worry mom. I am fine. And what I wanted to say is something that will make you happy”

“Really what is it?” Mom asked.

I chuckled “mom, I I am pregnant”

“What?” Mom almost screamed in my ear.

“Mom, relax” I smiled.

“Honey, is it true? You are pregnant?”

“Yes mom” I nodded

“When did you know this?”

“Um.... Just today”

“Oh my god I am going to be a grandma.....oh my god, oh my god” mom yelled “I can’t believe it It’s such great news sweetheart. I still can’t believe that you are..... Oh god really pregnant”

“I never thought that it would be this fast. But here I am telling you about it” I chuckled.

“Whatever it is, the main point is you are pregnant. Oh, I need to share this news with everyone” mom sounded so excited.

“Of course mom,” I laughed. “And there’s another thing that I want to tell you”

“There is more? What is it?”

“Hardwick planned to hold my crowning ceremony. So you, dad and everyone needed to be here” I smiled.

“Crowning? He is officially announcing?”

“Yes, he said he couldn’t wait anymore and wanted to tell everyone that I am Luna of the Dark Forest”

“It’s great. It’s like a double joy my dear. Don’t worry we can never miss your important day anyways”

“Thank you mom”

“Okay I will hang up now. I need to tell everyone about your pregnancy”

“Mom, can you please keep this little secret? I mean just the closest ones to know about it?”

“What happened there?”

“Well.... The situation here is quite gloomy. I don’t feel like revealing this news to outsiders” I sighed.

“I can understand. Don’t worry”

“Thanks mom”

“Take care sweetheart. You need to care for yourself more”

“Yes mom, love you”

“Love you too sweetheart”

Tanea’s POV

“Oh god, I can’t eat anymore. What are you trying to do?” I glared at my husband who was trying to force feed me.

“You haven’t eaten much. You need more protein and calcium in your body” Devak frowned.

“I know that. You don’t have to lecture like those doctors” I rolled my eyes.

“I am just worried that you will be in poor health. The doctor said, you need more of everything during this time,” he said with worry flashing in his eyes.

I chuckled "don't worry, I am already in good health and I am on this pregnancy diet so you don't have to pressure yourself okay" I smiled. My husband is going crazy about my pregnancy. He is so worried that it almost made me insane with frustration.

"Devak you are again forcing her to eat" dad walked in and sat down on the couch near us.

"Dad, I am just following the doctor's advice," Devak replied.

"You are little overreacting my son" dad chuckled "if you continue to feed her like that, the baby will be more bigger and it will make Tanea uncomfortable"

"Really?" Devak looked shocked then he stared at my belly where the little baby bump could be seen.

I smiled as I looked at him. Though there's so saying to prove his words but just simple sentence made Davak restless. He looked up and asked.

"Are you feeling uncomfortable anywhere?"

I laughed. He really took dad's words seriously and it affected him. He took it so seriously that I can see the tension rising on his face. So I held his hand and smiled warmly.

"Don't be so worried okay, I am fine"

"Really?"

I nodded again. Just then mom walked in the living room with a huge smile on her face.

"Honey" she called as she sat beside dad.

"What made you so happy?" Dad asked, frowning.

"I have big news to share. I just can't suppress the excitement" mom grinned.

"What is it?" Dad smiled.

Mom took a breath "the news is Hardwick is holding crowning ceremony for Savannah"

My eyes widened "wow, that's great"

"That man is really something. He is kind of fast" dad nodded.

"There is something more honey" mom smiled.

Dad frowned "there's another?"

Mom nodded "the pain happiness is that I am going to be a grandmother"

"I know that. But is that your surprise?" Dad asked, frowning.

Mom rolled her eyes "you are not understanding. What I want to say is I am going to be a grandmother for the second time"

"That's not new. Tanea is preg-" dad stopped in the middle when suddenly his eyes went wide "what did you say, second time?"

My eyes widened when realisation hit me. My body jumped with excitement "mom, did you mean that?"

Mom looked at me and smiled "yes"

"Oh my god" I covered my mouth and squealed.

"What?" Devak frowned.

"You still didn't get it? Mom is saying that Savannah is pregnant" I told him with a wide smile.

"WHAT?" Both dad and Devak jumped shouting.

"Yes, Savannah just called me and told me about it" mom nodded.

"My princess is pregnant? I am going to be a grandfather again" dad laughed suddenly "good, good. As I said Hardwick is really fast in everything"

Mom rolled her eyes and slapped his arm playfully "don't joke. Don't forget about yourself"

"Come on. I am so happy right now" dad grinned "I never thought my daughter would give me this great news so soon. Good, good"

"Fuck, that bastard made her pregnant already" Devak growled.

I rolled my eyes "what's your problem! This is happy moment"

"What? How can he make her pregnant so soon? They just started to live together yet he couldn't even wait"

"Why can't he do that?" I frowned "Sav is his mate and they love each other. So it's not a crime"

Devak frowned “my sister is still young. How can he make her pregnant so soon”

“He made her pregnant just like you made me pregnant. I don’t know why you always hold so much grudges against him?” I glared at him.

“I was just worried about Sav”

“You don’t have to. Hardwick is there for that. What you needed to do is worry about me” I huffed.

“Okay, let’s finish this argument here” mom raised her hands. “Savannah invited us to her crowning ceremony. So we need to go”

I grinned “great. I am already feeling so bored in the pack. It is a great chance to explore outside, especially Sav’s pack. I have never seen Dark Forest other than hearing the name” “Lets make arrangements then. We can’t be late for our own daughter’s crowning ceremony” mom nodded.

I grinned feeling excited inside. This will be the first time I am visiting Dark Forest. I am already so excited that I can hardly control my emotions. Sav is pregnant and this added the happiness in double. I never thought that I would hear this news so soon. But it’s also good. Our children can grow up together.

“Why are you so happy?” Devak poked my head.

“Why can’t I be? It’s Sav’s great day anyways”

He sighed “I am still worried”

“Since you are so doubtful then ask Sav by yourself if she is happy or not? If she is not then we are here for her isn’t it? Besides I don’t think she won’t be happy anyway. Hardwick loves and cares for her so much. Just be happy for her okay?” I tried to persuade.

He looked at me for sometime then nodded “right”.

Savannah’s POV

“Everything is normal, I have checked the results and it’s all good. You don’t have to worry about your health and your baby” Sadie smiled placing the report on the table “Alpha is quite worried, he even asked me for the 5th time in this morning” she chuckled.

I smiled shaking my head “he is always like this”

Sadie turned to look at me “no, he is not always like this”

“What do you mean?”

“I have seen Alpha since I was 14. So no he is not like this always. Even when his parents were alive he was always a moody one. I mean, though he talks normally but his behaviour and his eyes were never gentle. He always had one expression in his life: the great ‘poker face’ ” she laughed.

“But I never expected that he will change this much. I never saw him laughing or joking with others. Even when he is with Ryan he never looked so jovial like he was with you. You know most of the pack members are afraid to talk to him directly so they used to ask Alpha or Luna to help them deliver their message” she laughed “but I must say Luna after your arrival there’s something changed in his behaviour. I mean he doesn’t look like before. Before you his mood was always surly and that surliness always caused others to tremble in fear. The only one who goes and talks to him is Ryan. And as for others they don’t have much courage for that”

“He is always that scary?” I frowned. Though I know that he is quite dark and dangerous, I never expected him to be this cold blooded.

“Scary? He is more than that. Like Santan in the hell and born as Asura to devour everyone when he is not pleased. That’s why the whole pack never goes against his order and refers to him as Master then using Alpha term. I guess you have noticed that in the whole pack it was only we siblings that call him Alpha”

I nodded “I know that”

“Hm... But I am happy. You know it’s quite good to keep the pack disciplined. Because of his surliness no one dared to disobey him”

I looked at Sadie. She knows much about the pack and what’s happening around. Though she said she is always interested in practicing her medical research, she is also a member of the pack. I hesitated for a moment before I made up my mind.

“Do you know Delaney?” I asked her.

Suddenly Sadie’s expression changed. The playfulness gone in a second was replaced by a weird expression.

“Delaney? Humph! That woman is a bitch and couldn’t wait to throw herself in the arms of Alpha. Her father could not control her anymore and paired with that slutty sister of hers” Sadie rolled her eyes “both sisters are the incarnation of evil creatures who couldn’t stand still if they had not ruined anyone. Delaney that bitch even tried to frame

Alpha when she was still a teenager. She used dirty means and told everyone that she slept with Alpha and they had a secret relationship. I mean she is a kind of girl who has no shame. And that younger sister of hers is the worst. Whatever Delaney says is true. Delaney ruined Daisy's clear state of mind by putting all the garbage stuff in her mind" Sadie huffed angrily. "If I could I would have injected then with a killing virus and have them force to go to hell slowly"

"You sound like you have lots of grudges"

"It's not like that actually. Though I don't interfere in this pack matter but I am also a member so I couldn't help but hear everything going around. Starting from small to major matters in the pack. I don't have any enmity with them but the way Delaney tried to frame Alpha is really disgusting. Ever since I came here Alpha has always behaved warmly towards me, like a brother" she smiled "and I have also taken him as my brother so if anything happens to him, I can't forgive the sinner. And that Delaney she only made me feel disgust whenever she appears in front of me"

I sighed "some people don't know how to choose" I said. Just like Reese. She chooses Avan even when she knows their relationship is not appropriate and also knows that he was my mate. But she still went for him, giving up all her pride. She gave herself and devoted to Avan at the cost of her own real mate. Thinking about that, I feel pity for her. Her own greed took her high yet she forgot the higher she goes the fall will be painful beyond imagination.

"You shouldn't think about this past matter now. You are now with a baby so all your attention needs to be focused on your baby. Or that mate of yours will have my head in his dinner plate" Sadie jokes, making me laugh.

"Are you serious?" I shook my head.

"Of course I am. I know I said he changed after you but that doesn't mean he has become softer. All his gentleness and care is only limited to you so whether he is changed or not we can't keep hoping for much. Besides if anything happens to you he will break into rage and I fear that he would set the whole world on fire. And I still want to live for few more years doing my research"

"Don't worry you won't be dying that soon. You still need to have your mate and build a family"

Sadie shook her head "I am not interested in this mate thing. I know a werewolf needs his or her mate but I am more interested in my medical term than mate thing. Besides I want to play with my little nephew or niece and teach him or her the medical line" she squealed loudly like a kid.

"Who said that to you?" A cold voice sounded in the room. The door opened and Hardwick walked in holding a tray.

“You really have a strong gut to pull my kids in your crazy medical field” he said with a sullen expression.

“How can you say that?” Sadie glared at him. “Learning medicine is good. Just because you are a wolf it doesn’t mean you are all safe. And regarding your position and power the enemies are lurking around to hurt you. So it’s better if the pack had more doctors or it would be best if everyone learns medicine” she said proudly.

Hardwick rolled his eyes “if everyone becomes doctors then I will kick you out of the pack”

Sadie pouted then huffed, turning her head to the other side. Hardwick smirked before placing the tray on bed.

“Your breakfast is here darling” he smiled warmly.

I glanced at the tray and gasped “what’s all this?” I pointed at the food.

“What? It’s your meal and you are going to finish everything here. You are not getting up until every fiber is consumed”

“Are you serious?” I frowned.

“I don’t like joking”

I sighed feeling all helpless “how am I going to eat all these? It’s way too much”

“Why can’t you? You are pregnant and you need healthy foods to keep you and our baby healthy” he reasoned.

“Hardwick I am pregnant but I still can’t eat so much. Even if I need to be healthy , there’s a limit to eating everything” I smiled.

He turned to look at Sadie “what are you doing? You need to give her a good diet plan”

Sadie rolled her eyes “I will prescribe vitamins and nutrients of course. But about eating it depends on Luna herself. Besides during pregnancy Luna will crave for food that she wants. And it’s better to give whatever she wants and in this way it will make her healthy”

“Is that so?” He frowned then turned around to look at me.

“What’s the result?” He asked again.

“It’s good. There’s no complications. You don’t have to worry about it. I will be doing some more test to check”

“When can we see our baby?” I asked.

Sadie laughed “don’t worry. We can do it after the ceremony. You are still in first-trimester so we can have an early ultrasound test to confirm the due date. The test said you are already 4 week pregnant. So you need to have your medicines and a good diet first then we can perform the test?”

I nodded “it’s good”

“The preparation for the ceremony is already done. Jenny will be helping you to pick your dress. Since you are pregnant I can’t allow you to take a journey to the city and tire yourself”

“Then how am I going to choose?”

He smirked “nothing is possible for me darling. I will have the designers bring their exclusive designs here in the pack. They will come tomorrow and all you need to do is choose whatever you like”

“That will be expensive”

“Nothing is more expensive than you love” he leaned and kissed me. His words melted my heart and I felt secured in his arms.

“Hell, don’t start your PDA here. Don’t forget I am still here” Sadie cried out.

“Why don’t you just leave then?” Hardwick glared at her.

Sadie smirked “I was appointed by you remember dear Alpha? Besides, let me tell you one thing: you can’t have anything funny with Luna during this period for safety. So whatever dirty thoughts you have in your mind, you better push it away for next few months”

My eyes widened and my face flushed red. Sadie really said it so sharply. While on the other hand Hardwick cursed down loudly.

“Fuck”

Avan’s POV

Finally the day I have been waiting for has come. I am finally going to have my destined mate in my arms again. Once she is here all the fucking problem in my life will go away. And once she is here I will never let her go. She was mine and will always be. Just thinking about her made my cock hard and twitching in pain running against my pants. Just one more day then I can just have her the way I want. My cock was painfully hard and I fucking need to release myself. Just then the knock on the door sounded and Jude came in.

“Hi Avan” she smiled charmingly and strode inside the room. Swaying her sexy body “as the deal was confirmed I am here to sign the papers in behalf of my dad”

“Please sit down” I smiled at her. Jude was a sexy woman. She was wearing a pencil skirt which was split in the middle showing her white creamy thigh. The white shirt she has was transparent and I can see her lacy bra.

“Dad said he had already checked the condition” she smiled looking into my eyes. Her full red lips are inviting me to devour. I felt my cock twitch again.

“Why do I feel like you are in pain? Are you okay?” Jude asked me, frowning.

“I am fine, just sign the paper” I tried to smile.

“Oh” she picked the paper and was about to sign when it swayed and fell on the floor.

“I am sorry. I will just pick it up” she bent down to pick the pen up. I could feel her stare down there. Fuck. I cursed inwardly.

She got up and smirked. Then checked the paper again “All the conditions are fine. But there’s something I want to add”

“What?” I frowned.

She smirked then licked her lips “these conditions may satisfy my dad but what about me Avan? I am also a partner and I also need a term for myself”

“What do you want?” I asked.

She smiled then got up from the chair. She tried around and came in front of me. Leaning down and she looked erotically “you know you are so handsome. I have been charmed by you and couldn’t get you out of my mind. Don’t you think you should do something for that?”

Suddenly a smirk appeared on my face “you want me to be responsible for that?”

“I know you are smart but for now I want to be responsible for what’s happening to you down there” before I could say she knelt down and opened the zip of pant before pulling it down. She pulled the pants and my boxers together, freeing my cock.

“Fuck” I cursed when she took whole of me in her mouth. Her hands went down to massage my balls and I groaned in pleasure.

“Yes, they’re just like that. Fuck do that ” I groaned and got hold of her hair then pushed my cock in her mouth. Jude tried to settle with my speed as she gagged but didn’t stop. I had a few thrust in her mouth then released myself and pulled her up.

“You are fucking sexy” I groaned and straddled her on my lap. I kissed her neck and she moaned. Opening her shirt I pushed her lacy bra and grabbed her perky big breast. The softness of her skin made it even harder for me.

“Fuck you are hard” I took her hard nipple and suck it hard while she kept moaning.

“Um..... Oh my god please suck me” she moaned. I took her other breast and sucked on it. I travelled my hand and pushed her skirt up to her waist before slipping my hand in her panties. I cursed down when I found her pussy dripping wet. I pushed three fingers in her wet pussy making her scream.

“Ahmm.....” She clutched on my shoulder as she threw back her head and screamed.

“Oh my god yes..... Ah..... Avan please do that”

“You like it?” I smirked and sucked her nipples again while fingering her. After a few strokes she cummed in my hand.

“Ah ...that’s so good” Jude leaned and kissed me wildly “I knew you also wanted me Avan. Please fuck me. I am dying with this crave”

My cock was so hard that I could hardly wait for it. I pulled her up a little. then slipping the condom I positioned my cock and slid inside her in one thrust. We both groaned in pleasure.

I fucked her hard making her jump on my lap. Her breast bounced as I thrust in her. I was not gentle and for such a woman like Jude. She offered herself and I wanted my release so we both are in the same mutual condition. I want it hard and fast and she wants it wild.

“Oh my god, you are so good Avan. Ahm... Please fuck me harder” Jude moaned again..

I pumped in her harder than the chair I am sitting shook vigorously along with the table beside me as she held it. The slapping of our skin echoed in the room mixing with our groaning and moaning.

“I am cuming” Jude rocked her hips.

“Cum” I slapped her but harshly making her wetter.

Her walls clenched around my cock squeezing it and I groaned.

“Ahmmmm.....Avan....” Jude screamed. She rocked her hips hard and I thrust in her before letting myself cum.

“You are so good” she smiled then got up. Her skirt was still on her waist as she smiled at me sexily. I raised my eyebrows then grabbed her and placed her on the table.

“Are you satisfied?” I asked.

“More than ever,” she smiled.

I smirked “but I am not” then I leaned and parted her legs before sucking her pussy.

“Oh god.....ahm....yes Suck baby.....suck my pussy” Jude moaned, grabbing my hair.

I groaned and pushed my tongue in her core fucking it again. Her pussy leaked more juice and I sucked it off. I reached out and kneaded her breast while she was a moaning mess.

After sucking I got up and looked at her. Her face flushed and she looked sexy. I threw the used condom and put another then I entered in her again and fucked her like a beast.

“Oh my god. Yes Avan please fuck me hard. Please make me sore” she clutched my waist with her long legs. Soon we reached our climax and we both moaned as we released our cum.

“That was so good” Jude came down from the table then steadied her dress.

I wore my pants and sat on the chair with a satisfied smile.

“The deal is done Avan, thanks for satisfying us with the agreement” she sighed at the paper and walked out like nothing happened.

I looked at the paper and smirked. Another knock was sounded on the door. I looked up and found Ben.

“What is it?” I closed the agreement file.

“Daisy is here”

Claiming His Tempting Mate novel chapter 65

Avan's POV

“What are you doing here?” I asked as I saw her walk towards me. Her body was covered with black hoodie and no one could see who it was. Daisy stopped once she stood before the desk and removed her hoodie revealing her beautiful charming features.

“I had to” she replied curtly “there’s so many things happening in the pack. So I had to find a way to come personally” she sat down on the chair where Jude sat a few minutes ago.

I frowned “you could have just sent a secret letter instead of coming here”

“Do you think I like to travel around from Dark Forest to Bright Shine? If it was not for the big deal I don’t have any interest stepping inside your pack Alpha Avan” she rolled her eyes.

My fist clenched and I glared at her. Is she mocking my pack? She thinks just because she is from Dark Forest she can humiliate my pack in front of me. My lips curved and a mocking smile plastered on my lips.

“I think you need a good reminder Daisy. It was not me who came to do the deal. It was you who demeaned yourself and come to find us for help. So don’t you dare to put your pride and use any kind of words to disgrace my pack in front of me. Because you know even if I kill you here, I don’t think your Alpha will come to avenge you”

Daisy glared at me with her pitch black eyes. She gritted her teeth “don’t be to high-spirit Alpha Avan. Don’t forget that if it was not for me, you still couldn’t stand a chance to get hold of such a big plan and fulfill your dark dream that you have been dreaming all the while. So you need to achieve your ultimate goal. I believe it will be more better for you not to threaten me next time”

I clenched my jaw. If it was not for Savannah I would have killed her the moment she stepped in my territory. I have been trying to invade the Dark Forest but never got any chance nor any loopholes. I must praise Alpha Hardwick for such arrangements. He really knows how to secure his territory without any worry. Even dad also praised him for his ruling system.

“Just spill what you wanted to say directly,” I hissed.

Daisy smirked “I knew you would say that” she tapped the table with her fingers “have you prepared everything according to our plan?”

“You don’t have to worry about that”

“I have to worry for everything because we can’t make a slight mistake. One chance is what we got. The reason I came here is because we have to make some changes in the plan. We can’t got through the earlier one”

I was surprised then it turned into frown “why is that? Everything has been set up and waiting for further instructions and now you are here to tell me that we can’t proceed with the plan” I gritted my teeth as anger started to bubble in my chest “do you find it funny to change as your mood changes?”

Daisy glared at me “as I said I have no interest in coming here risking my life just to tell you some words. If it was not for sudden changes would I come here? I couldn’t even send the secret letter because the security system has been tripled. The person I sent the letter to has been discovered and killed on the spot. Even traveling has become hard. But I have taken all this risk because I don’t want our plan to fail at the last moment. Do you understand?”

I frowned. “What changed? And why did the securities triple suddenly?” Why do I feel like there’s something wrong?

“Master suddenly announced that he is going to crown Savannah as Luna on this eclipse”

My eyes widened and my jaw clenched hard. That bastard is so eager to make her his Luna. She could only become my Luna. Yes, I have already accepted Savannah as my Luna. She has changed herself so much in these years. She has become powerful, she has strong family support and she is damn sexy and beautiful so she deserves the Luna title in every way. I know she will be angry at first but she will understand soon that she can’t get away from me. She was always sweet and forgiving. I just needed to push her a little and remind her about the time we spent 2 years ago. I believe if it was not for Reese seducing me that day she wouldn’t have left.

“Fuck, that bastard” I cursed as I banged on the desk “he is going too fast. What the fucking hell is he thinking?”

“How could I know that? I came here to tell you about it personally and also that I couldn’t come anymore nor will I be able to send any letters so you have to plan carefully before executing the plan. As for getting inside the pack, I will arrange it smoothly. You just have to inform me first”

I nodded “Since they already planned it then let them be. I won’t change the plan at all. It will be better on our planned day. After the crowning ceremony we will execute the plan. In one way it will be a great shame on Hardwick’s face that his own mate has been kidnapped under his nose and he couldn’t even stop it. And on the other hand the power of of Dark Forest will decrease and thirdly I can get my mate back”

“Do whatever you want, just don’t make any mistakes. Since there will be a ceremony the pack is crowded and busy. I will pave a way for you people to easily slip inside”

“My men are ready and just need a signal to execute the plan. This time it will be great disaster for the pack, with the Luna being kidnapped and the pack in chaos it will be a interesting scene to enjoy”

Daisy smirked “that’s where you are right. I am looking forward to it. My eyes are too excited to see the reaction of Savannah and Hardwick” evilness flashed in her eyes followed by immense hatred.

“You are so determined to take revenge?” I raised my eyebrows.

“Why shouldn’t I?” Daisy gritted her teeth “if it was not for that couple my sister could have her right place. My sister is so beautiful and strong then why Hardwick can’t see it but frown himself into Savannah who doesn’t have anything other than those purple eyes” she huffed angrily.

I looked at her, feeling funny. If I was in Hardwick’s place I would have done the same thing. Who could have rejected his mate for a woman who is not related to me? And for a woman like Savannah I guess any man would die for her. But this kind of thing I couldn’t say to her. This is the best chance to defeat Hardwick and get Savannah even if it means by using force. I have waited enough for her and now I am not going to do that. I need to bring her back in the pack. Once she is here I can manipulate her the way I want. Afterall even if she is a changed person now, she was still my mate and that affection would not change a bit.

“Will you get your revenge by helping me?” I asked.

“Do you know in the werewolf tribe what is more painful than death? It’s losing your mate” Daisy smirked “I really want to kill them but what can I do? Killing is just a small punishment for them. So the best way to take revenge is to separate them forcefully. Once Savannah is yours even if Hardwick is strong he couldn’t do anything. He will go insane and then will drown into the betrayal of his own mate. I want him to suffer like my sister. Neither they can unite not they can live properly”

“You are really vicious” I smirked.

“It’s all their fault” she replied and pulled out something from her hoodie pocket and threw the small bottle on the desk. The green liquor moved inside the bottle as it rolled on the desk.

“What is it?” I frowned at the bottle.

“This will help you in kidnapping”

“This?”

“Yes, it’s trichloromethane. With this you can get her easily without any interruption”

“You think I need this to get her? Are you looking down on my ability?” I raised an eyebrow.

“No, I am giving you an alternative so that there will be no mistake in the plan. You can’t get inside the pack. You are an Alpha and you can get into trouble if you do. So the remaining choice is to let your man do that. Even though your men are strong, I suggest you don’t underestimate Savannah. You don’t know her well. She is not like normal she wolf and I guess she could handle your few men in a minute without even wasting her breath”

“Her power is still limited” I told her. Even if she is strong, she is just a woman. And how hard can a woman be?

“You still don’t understand? Did you forget which pack that bitch belonged to? They are the legendary purple clan. And they are not inferior to Dark Forest. I guess if she was in her right state half of your pack would have lost their life” Daisy glared at me. “I am telling you because if you can’t take her away that day then you and me will be in a danger”

“She is just-” suddenly she got up before I could finish my words. She removed the scarf from her neck and the red handprint mark reflected in her white skin. I have seen this before but never thought the scar will be fresh.

“You see this? Do you know who did this? It’s a creation of your dear Savannah. And do you know it has been over months yet the mark is still here. Even the doctor said it won’t be fading anytime soon. Do you still think your men can kidnap her if she is in her right mind? I guess she would pack them in gifts and send them back to you to enjoy” she gritted her teeth pointing toward the red mark on her neck.

Normally a handprint mark goes in a week. But looking at her neck the mark still looks so fresh and one could clearly see how many fingers are used to grab the neck and how hard it was. She also said that the mark is not fading soon so it reflects the power of the person who holds the neck. Daisy is right. I can’t make any mistakes here no matter what. I need to perform the kidnapping smoothly without any trouble or it will warn that bastard immediately.

“Fine, I will take this” I grabbed the bottle. “You should go back now. Staying here for a long time might get you in trouble”

She nodded “the time is fixed a day later so you can’t make any mistakes here. I will be leaving now. If you need anything just signal me and I can’t leave the pack anymore” she said then put back her hoodie before quietly leaving the room.

I stared at the bottle in my hand and sighed “why is it so hard to get you now? I would really like it if you were that timid and weak Shyla of the past. If I had known that you would run away and transform yourself into something else, I would have taken good care of you. Only if I was able to understand you better..... in the past”

Savannah’s POV

Next morning came so fast. I woke up a little late today and I puked again. Sadie said it’s morning sickness and it happens during pregnancy. Mom called me again telling me what to do and what should not. Even Hardwick took the phone and listened to what mom said to him carefully. Looking at him I felt like it was not me who is pregnant yet it was him who is going to carry the baby.

“Breakfast is here” Ryan opened the door and Jenny walked in holding my breakfast. After my pregnancy news she took charge of the meal and diet plan.

“You are fast,” I told her.

She grinned “I have to. After all it’s about the little baby”

“Wow, breakfast look yummy” Sadie glanced at the food on the tray then nodded. She turned to me and smiled “since you are pregnant you need good nutrition. Fiber, protein, calcium, whole grains and iron- rich foods will provide good nutrition in your body and your baby”

“What did you make for breakfast?” I asked Jenny.

“Don’t worry, these foods are healthy and tasty too. I made Sunday Blueberry Pancakes, Spinach-cheese egg scramble, Banana berry smoothie, Avocado toast”

“That much?” I felt my head ache.

“It’s not that much. You need to eat not only for you but for your baby too” I rubbed my temple.

“I am feeling like I am about to shoot a mukbang show” I rolled my eyes and they chuckled.

“Come on, you should finish your meal. Remember your designers will be arriving with your dress” Jenny reminded.

“Yeah” I almost forgot about it though. I could hardly finish the meal. It was tasty but I couldn’t eat everything. So Jenny said to eat everything little by little to fill my stomach. I rubbed my belly when I drank the smoothie.

“It’s delicious” I placed the glass on the tray and smiled.

"I know you will like it. I will make you a new menu everyday so that it won't ruin your taste and you can drink new flavours everyday" Jenny grinned.

"I would love that. Thank you" I nodded.

"Mistress, those designers are here" Luina informed. She opened the door and led a few ladies inside who looked professional.

"Hello, Miss Lang. We brought the exclusive designs as Mr. Leon asked. Please choose of your desire" those ladies respectfully said then presented rows of dresses.

"The event is important. Do you want to go with white or something different?" Jenny asked.

"What's the main colour?"

"The dark one," Jenny smiled.

"I would like to go with it"

"Good choice" she nodded then walked towards the dresses. She pulled out a navy blue dress which has a halter neckline.

"This is really a good choice" the designer walked forward with a smile "this is the newly arrived dress. It is made from pure silk and has diamonds coated on the neck and waist line. It will give comfort while wearing"

The dress was beautiful. It looks classy and elegant. I nodded and asked her to put it aside. Jenny went for another row and picked a dark red one. It was an off shoulder dress with a backless style where the pearls are designed on the back. It has a split cut from the thigh.

"This is also a good one. The material is soft and comfy. It's satin and the pearl beads will give more attraction on the back side" the designer explained.

"Keep it aside" I nodded.

"Is the selection done?" Hardwick walked in looking all handsome. He was wearing a black t-shirt with blue jeans. His hands were shoved inside his pockets.

"We are in the middle," I replied. He walked towards me and sat on the couch throwing his arm over my shoulder.

"You haven't found one?" He asked.

"You have brought so many beautiful dresses. Of course it will take time to choose"

“Nothing is more beautiful than you” he whispered then looked towards the dresses while my eyes were stuck on his face. How come he always manages to do that? Making my heart wolf with just a few sentences? He really knows how to sweet-talk and flatter my heart to this extent.

“Bring that dark purple one” he said pointing towards a certain dress. My eyes fell on the dress and my heart raced. It’s so beautiful.

The dark purple shade has queen anne neckline style. It was a long dress with lace design.

“This is exclusively made with silk and satin material. The queen anne neck styles enhanced the dress paired with the white lace embroidery attached on it” the designer explained hurriedly.

“It’s beautiful”

“You like it?” He asked.

“I love it” I grinned at him.

“Well then we will take this” Hardwick instructed. “Get ready the shoes and jewelries”

“Very well Mr. Leon” the designer looked delighted.

“And also leave the dresses chosen first” he added. Those designers looked and left to prepare for tomorrow. Sadie and Jenny left along with them leaving us alone.

“How are you feeling?” He asked.

I chuckled “I am fine. I am just pregnant not sick”

“I heard you vomited?”

I nodded “yes, it’s morning sickness. Sadie said it happens during pregnancy”

“You look tired” he cupped my face.

“A little bit actually. Our baby is making me all tired” I smiled.

“I Didn’t know that this would be this hard. If I knew I wouldn’t have taken the risk” he shook his head.

“Don’t say that. I am happy. Whatever it is we will go through together” I smiled at him.

“Fuck you look beautiful” he leaned and about to kiss when I felt sudden urge of puking again. I pushed him away and ran to the bathroom again.
