

Clan Cultivation 43

Chapter 43

At the moment when Lu Xuanji was comprehending the [Spring Breeze Spirit Wood Art], the elder also taught Ye Feixue's little supernatural power [Sky Fire Art].

The Heavenly Fire Secret Art mainly transforms the True Qi in the body into the supreme Heavenly Fire.

Unlike [Spring Breeze Wood Spiritual Art], which mainly focuses on assistance and healing, [Sky Fire Art] is a pure killing technique, a secret attack technique.

Ye Feixue comprehended the Heavenly Fire Art, and also entered into an epiphany.

Lu Xuanji glanced at it and memorized the Heavenly Fire Technique, intending to study it later.

Seeing how the two of them had an epiphany, the Great Elder couldn't help but smile.

Entering the foundation-building stage, the first two or three years are also the most active period of thinking and the easiest moment for epiphany.

Many cultivators choose to retreat and do ascetic cultivation, digesting and comprehending.

Time passed, and after a year, the aura on Ye Feixue's body was changing, and a flame of destruction rose up from her body. After a long time, the flame was subduing, changing, and returned to calm.

But Ye Feixue opened her eyes, and there seemed to be flames burning in her pupils.

The aura of destruction is surging. This is pure destruction. There is nothing else besides destruction, because it is pure and powerful, and because it is pure and terrifying.

After a while, the aura of destruction subsided, and the flames on the pupils disappeared.

The pupils converged with light and turned into their normal appearance.

But at this moment, in Ye Feixue's dantian, there is a talisman inscribed with true qi.

This talisman is called the Talisman of Heavenly Fire.

[Heavenly Fire Art] has started.

Condensing the first talisman of heavenly fire, it is just an entry.

Condensed nine talismans of heavenly fire, which is considered a small success.

Thirty-six Heavenly Fire Talismans were condensed, which was considered a great achievement.

Only by condensing sixty-four Heavenly Fire Talismans, it represents perfection.

Lead the way with the urn, and evolve supernatural powers.

The power in the early stage is average, but the more it gets to the later stage, the more terrifying the power.

The front is relatively easy and takes less time. The longer it takes, the more difficult it is.

"A genius in the sky."

The Great Elder commented.

I don't want to say any extra words, because it's not necessary.

At this time, Lu Xuanji was still comprehending.

The Great Elder's expression changed slightly.

I once thought that this junior had a special physique; but after entering the foundation, I realized that it was wrong.

This descendant is just a mortal body, with no special physique, but an amazing understanding.

At this moment, Lu Xuanji's body was changing drastically, and the aura of dense wood rose up and turned into a towering tree.

The trees are extremely tall, straddling the starry sky and traversing the chaos, the roots under their feet are derived into the dark worlds of the underworld; the crowns of the trees above the head are connected to the fairy world, and they draw a path of spiritual energy.

After only maintaining three breaths, the vision disappeared.

Then, the Qi of Yimu rose up and turned into a green lotus; again, the Qi of Li Huo rose and changed, turned into flames, and surrounded the green lotus; and the Qi of Wu Earth rose and settled on the green lotus. Underneath, it turned into nourishment for Qinglian. The three are perfectly combined.

Use soil to support wood, and wood to help fire.

The vision is constantly rising and changing, and after a long time the vision dissipates, as if it did not exist.

But with the movement of the exercises, it is constantly absorbing the spiritual energy from the outside world, and the spiritual energy turns into vortexes, surging towards his body, endlessly.

The speed of absorbing spiritual energy is too fast.

It was five floors faster than the normal Foundation Establishment cultivator.

"I created my own exercises, which perfectly fit my three attributes."

The Great Elder flashed a bit of surprise.

Low-level monks rarely create their own exercises. First, their lifespan is limited and time is precious, so they don't have time to create their own exercises.

To sum up, the price/performance ratio is too poor to be worth it.

Many low-level cultivators learn the exercises of their predecessors.

Only the golden elixir has an extremely long lifespan, approaching a thousand-year lifespan, which allows cultivators to continuously comprehend various exercises, learn from the advantages of hundreds of schools, and create their own exercises.

Self-created exercises can better fit oneself and improve the speed of cultivation.

Of course, if you are very lucky, you happen to come across a cultivation technique that suits you, and it is 100% compatible with yourself, so there is no need to be strict with your own cultivation technique.

It is very difficult to create one's own exercises. Without amazing talent and understanding, without a long lifespan, and without a wealth of knowledge and experience, it is difficult to get to that point.

But Lu Xuanji has only just entered the foundation building cultivator, he created his own exercises, and he has gone a long way.

After a long time, Lu Xuanji restrained his breath and completely stabilized his cultivation.

Qinglian's good fortune tactic perfectly fits itself, and the speed of cultivation is accelerated.

Spring Breeze Wood Spiritual Art is also an entry.

In the dantian, three spiritual trees are engraved.

"How do you feel?" the Great Elder asked.

"feels good."

Lu Xuanji said, in a happy mood: "It's better than ever."

"That's good." The elder said with a smile, "Since you have become foundation-building cultivators, you should hold a banquet, entertain guests, and celebrate."

After the foundation-building cultivator appeared in the Cultivation Family, they had to celebrate, not only to show their strength, but also to boost the morale of the family.

This kind of liveliness is even more festive than the marriage in the previous life. com

The foundation-building cultivator affects the fate of some small families and determines the future of some small families.

Even in the Danyang Sect, the foundation-building cultivators are regarded as the backbone, influencing future changes in the pattern. They are the seeds of the Zifu cultivators, belonging to elders, or beings at the level of inner sect disciples.

The Danyang faction only counts the subordinate forces, how many base-building cultivators there are, taxation (collecting offerings) to the base-building cultivators, and recruiting (military service) to the base-building cultivators. Priests are monks.

As for the qi cultivators and ordinary people under his command, they don't count.

In the same way, only the foundation-building cultivator is eligible to establish a cultivator family, and if all the foundation-building cultivators of the family die, the cultivator family will also be cancelled.

Losing the position of the cultivator family will no longer pay taxes to the Danyang sect, nor do they need to accept the enlistment of the Danyang sect, but at the same time they will not be protected by the Danyang sect, and can only be reduced to a loose cultivator.

The foundation-building cultivator is of great significance to every family.

"Elder, my Lu family is weak now, so I don't need to be so high-profile, low-key is the main thing, and stubbornness is the main thing."

Lu Xuanji said, talking about Gou Dao's philosophy.

The first elder smiled, but there was a hint of madness on his face: "In the realm of self-cultivation, the weak eat the strong, and the competition is constant. Although the Danyang faction has rules, the war cannot break out, but there are all kinds of open and secret battles, and all kinds of calculations are constant. Blindly low-key, will be regarded as To be weak and deceitful, you will become the prey of others."

"It's best to show your ferocious minions and show your terrifying side, so as to scare the tigers and wolves from the siege."

"Xuanji, you're good in everything, but the only downside is that you're too calm and rational. You're just a child, but you want to be as calm as an old man. That's not good."
