

Clan Cultivation 51

Chapter 51

"Wait a minute, I'll check your body!"

As Lu Xuanji said that, he stepped forward and grabbed her catkin.

A trace of true essence was injected into her body, and she checked the condition of her body, only to feel that a mysterious force in her body was awakening, it was very powerful but very weak.

Strong means that the future is very strong.

Weak, is very weak now.

In the Foundation Establishment stage, the physique was initially awakened, and the physique was still relatively weak, but a little stronger than the mortal body. Only through continuous cultivation, will the physique continue to enter into small, large, and consummation, until the bonus of physique is completely consumed.

After checking it again, Ye Feixue was asked to run the exercises again.

Just running the exercise a little bit, and immediately a trace of spiritual energy poured into the body, at an extremely fast speed. Not only that, at the moment of running the exercise, the rhythm of the body is increasing, and it seems to be the darling of the Dao, born close to the Dao.

"This is a congenital dao embryo!"

Lu Xuanji said, but his mouth was sour.

The Innate Dao Body is not only to increase the speed of one's own cultivation; the body also breeds the Innate Dao Pattern, which is born close to the Dao, which can increase one's own understanding.

This kind of physique has no obvious advantages in the early stage, but the more it gets to the later stage, the more terrifying it becomes.

There was a time when a cultivator awakened his spiritual roots, but it was only five spiritual roots. According to the truth, it was almost impossible to save. A lifetime of ascetic cultivation can only be practiced at the fifth level of Qi;

But this cultivator has a congenital dao embryo. With the help of his physique bonus, he is comparable to the Four Spiritual Roots during the Qi training period. At the age of 70, he managed to build a foundation. The speed is comparable to the three spiritual roots; in the Zifu period, the cultivation speed is comparable to the second spiritual root.

At the Golden Core Stage, the speed of cultivation is comparable to that of the Variant Spirit Root.

At the Nascent Soul stage, the speed of cultivation is comparable to that of Tianlinggen.

Everything is a thread of life.

If the cultivator has five spiritual roots, it is almost impossible to save; but if he has the bonus speed of the congenital dao embryo, there is hope to change his fate.

Innate Dao embryos are rarer than Tianling roots.

"Is the innate Taoist strong?"

Ye Feixue asked with a smile.

"Very powerful, second only to the immortal body!" Lu Xuanji said.

"In other words, it's not the strongest, I thought it was a top physique." Ye Feixue sighed.

boom!

Lu Xuanji directly sent a brain collapse.

"What are you thinking about? Why don't you think about heaven." Lu Xuanji said: "Physical constitution is important, but it is not important. There are thousands of heavenly spiritual roots, alien spiritual roots, and special constitutions in the world, but they can truly become Yuan Ying Zhenjun. There are a few people. It involves some luck."

"Is it luck? I will win the luck of heaven and earth, become the True Sovereign of Nascent Soul, and even become a God of Transformation!"

Ye Feixue said firmly: "Guard my brother until the end of time."

"I hope so, remember to hide your identity outside!"

Lu Xuanji said: "The strong become stronger, there are traces to follow. The rise of any powerful cultivator requires extremely huge resources. It is not enough to just rely on the ability to breathe out the spiritual energy. You also need to buy various medicinal herbs to improve your cultivation. For, break the bottleneck!"

"Danyang faction, controlling the amount of resources and the flow of resources, can control the speed at which the monks in the twelve counties become stronger and the number of strong people."

"But the only exception is Tianling root, and the congenital dao embryo is also an exception, because they only need very few resources, they can continue to become stronger, and the dependence on many foreign objects is very low. In the dark, they are the destroyers of order, yes The challenger of order is very dangerous. When you go out, remember to put on your vest."

"I see. Usually I'm in Nagaki-san, and I rarely go out!"

Ye Feixue promised.

Lu Xuanji said: "It's good to know, your talent is suitable for Gou Dao!"

"Gou Dao, I don't like it at all..."

Ye Feixue began to shake her head and said, "When you are alive, you have to live happily, live with anger, and domineering. Cultivating immortals, seeking longevity, proving eternity, and seeking the Dao, but many times the shackles are no longer the body and lifespan, but the mind. .

If one's thoughts are not smooth, and if one lives in the midst of depression, one's mind is not comfortable, one's mind is not smooth, and one is unhappy all the year round, what is the meaning of such a long life, what kind of immortality is there to cultivate, and what kind of Tao is to be proven?

"You still haven't grown up, you are still a child."

Lu Xuanji said, and subconsciously stepped forward to touch it.

Ye Feixue also lowered her head and leaned in his arms, so that she could easily touch her head and kill.

Feeling the woman close at hand, smelling the fragrance on her body, feeling the breath on her body, but there is no trace of charm, no trace of mood swings.

It's probably too familiar, but I don't feel it anymore.

"I don't want to grow up!"

Ye Feixue said: "If you say, the price of growing up is that dragon slayers become evil dragons, the price of growing up is learning to give up, the price of growing up is losing courage and becoming cowardly, and the price of growing up is shrinking. Shrink, get happy, I'd rather never grow up!"

After talking for a while, Lu Xuanji left.

The door of the cave was closed again.

Ye Feixue sat on the Taoist platform with a solemn expression, without saying a word, she just pondered.

The cave mansion became extraordinarily quiet, with a hint of coldness in the silence.

"Brother, you used to protect me in the past, but I will protect you in the future. You are only three spiritual roots, it seems a little difficult to handle!"

Ye Feixue's expression was solemn, thinking about the future a little worried about her brother.

Brother is only three spiritual roots. After entering the foundation, he did not awaken his special physique, just a mortal physique.

Such aptitude is considered a genius in the eyes of outside cultivators.

But in her eyes, it was a bit bad.

With such aptitude, the probability of attaining the Purple Mansion is only one level; as for the probability of attaining the Golden Core, the probability is very low, or even impossible.

The only chance for my brother to advance to the Golden Core is to use resources to smash it.

Over the years, why many cultivating families in the Twelve Counties have not been able to give birth to Jindan cultivators?

Not at all!

But all the resources are monopolized by the Danyang faction, and the resources of those families are not enough to train a Jindan cultivator.

Qi training, foundation building, Zifu, Jindan, etc. These four realms have a large demand for resources.

As long as there are enough resources, even five spiritual roots can become golden elixir.

Tianlinggen is the strongest, not invincible in the same realm, but high in absorbing spiritual energy, low in resource consumption, and fast in leveling up.

Even if the Danyang faction monopolizes most of the resources, and the resources are insufficient, they can still advance rapidly.

In the awakening of the Innate Dao Embryo, it always resonates with heaven and earth, always echoes with the Dao, and the speed of cultivation is doubled. It takes only 30 years to enter the ninth floor of Foundation Establishment. Another 20 years of enlightenment is enough to break the shackles and enter the realm of Zifu.

At that time, I can protect my brother.

It's just that the 80-year-old Zifu cultivator will attract the reverie of some top cultivators, which is very unsafe.

"It's best to make a clone and walk outside instead of me to attract the attention of some monks!"
